St. Mary of Egypt

Author : admin

Today in the Orthodox Church we celebrate the memomy of St. The priest during the liturgy today narrated the fascinating story of this woman who used to be a leecher and later after a miraculous convert she become an ascet who lived in the Egyptian Desert. The monk one year before her dead saw her to walk on water. Pretty interesting this is absolutely a must read read it here .END-----