

The Weekend

Author : admin

In Saturday we had a Training day at Design.BG. It wasn't too interesting the Boss spoke a lot about a new hierarchy being implanting into the corporation. Big mouths were said "how we should not anymore say that we make sites in the office or out if it." He said: "We doesn't make sites! We make projects and solutions for the client" :). Mitko has come back in Dobrich in Saturday (For the weekend) and Sunday and we went out twice. I haven't touched computers much this weekend :). In the morning in Sunday I went to Liturgy and after that we had a small walk with Stoyan. After that I watched the 3 seriesof "From Dusk till Dawn" nice vampire story btw :) And yes I like the style of Tarantino.

At some time I feeled very alone like nobody cares about me. I called Lily and we spend some good time together :).
