

THE OLD TESTAMENT

ACCORDING TO THE SEPTUAGINT

A TRANSLATION INTO ENGLISH OF THE GREEK TEXT PUBLISHED BY THE ORTHODOX CHURCH OF GREECE'S APOSTOLIKI DIAKONIA

Introduction

This English translation of the Greek Old Testament, the Septuagint, is offered by an English Orthodox layman for the service of the Orthodox Church. The Greek Septuagint differs very considerably from the Masoretic Hebrew Bible on which most English translations of the Old Testament are based, and the services of the Orthodox Church are a virtual mosaic of scriptural quotations and allusions from the Septuagint.

The Orthodox Church has no definitive or fixed text of the Septuagint as it has for the New Testament in the edition published in 1904 by the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople. The most authoritative versions of the Old Testament texts are those that are included in the various liturgical books. The Church of Greece's Apostoliki Diakonia has published a text of the Septuagint¹ which is very similar to that of Alfred Rahlfs's standard critical edition², but which has been adjusted to conform to a limited extent to traditional Orthodox readings of the Septuagint as they are found in the liturgical readings of the Church and throughout the writings of the Fathers. This text may be consulted on the Apostoliki Diakonia website (the online text differs in a few minor respects from that of the printed edition). Despite its limitations, I have taken Apostoliki Diakonia's text as the starting point for this English version of the Septuagint, because it is published with the authority of the Church of Greece and is readily accessible.

I have sought to be faithful both to the Septuagint and to English culture. I have therefore taken the Old Testament of the Authorized Version of the Bible (the King James Version) as my English base text, and emended it where it differs from the Septuagint. I have also consulted most of the existing English translations, from the first, that of Charles Thomson, the American scholar and Secretary to the Continental Congress of the USA, in the revision of C A Muses³, to the latest, The

*New English Translation of the Septuagint (NETS)*⁴. Of these I have made very extensive use of Sir Lancelot C L Brenton's translation of the Septuagint⁵, which has been almost continuously in print since it was first published in 1851, for many years as a Greek-English diglot. Brenton's translation itself is not itself suitable for Orthodox use. Like Thomson's translation, it is based mainly on one source, Codex Vaticanus, which differs from the Orthodox Church's Greek text. The order of the Books is not that of the Septuagint. The deuterocanonical books, the so-called Apocrypha, are relegated to a separate section at the end. His readings have many inaccuracies. But Brenton was invaluable for my purpose, for throughout his translation he very obviously kept a very close eye on the text of the Authorized Version.

Although the Greek forms of Old Testament proper names are unfamiliar to many English-speaking Orthodox who come from the western Christian traditions, they are often of very great typological significance and are much quoted by the Church Fathers. For this reason I had originally intended to transliterate them directly from the Greek as they appear in Apostoliki Diakonia's edition of the Septuagint. However, I have reluctantly substituted the Hebrew forms for the Greek, because they are so much more familiar in the English-speaking world. Throughout the Septuagint Kyrios regularly appears without the definite article as a proper name, the equivalent of the Tetragrammaton, the Divine Name. In those few places where I have deemed it appropriate I have rendered it, capitalized and without the definite article, as LORD. Otherwise, I have translated it as 'the Lord'. I have followed the format of Apostoliki Diakonia's edition for verse, paragraph and chapter division. I have not attempted to modernize the text of the Authorized Version in any way. My aim has simply been as far as possible to try to make a translation such as King James' translators might have made had they been working from the Greek Septuagint instead of the Masoretic Hebrew text.

For many Orthodox my decision in the 21st Century to use the Authorized Version of the Old Testament as my template instead of a modern text may seem surprising, even perverse. But I have simply followed the example of Mother Mary and the then Archimandrite, now Metropolitan, Kallistos of Diokleia, who took for their model the language of the Authorized Version when they translated *The Festal Menaion*⁴ and *The Lenten Triodion*⁵ from the Greek. In their words: "As we see it, the language of the Authorized Version is best adapted to convey the spirit of the original liturgical Greek. We do not dispute the necessity for more modern translations of scripture, and their great value – in certain contexts: but for our present purpose it was the Authorized Version that provided what we most required. For three centuries and more the Authorized Version, and along with it the Anglican Book of Common Prayer, have provided the words with which the English-speaking peoples throughout the world have addressed God; and these two books have become a part not only of our literary but of our spiritual inheritance.” Quite so: even today the Authorized Version is one of the world’s best selling books, widely loved by millions. Many English-speaking Orthodox still cherish and use traditional liturgical language in their services, and the widespread success of Mother Mary and Metropolitan Kallistos’ translations of The Festal Menaion and The Lenten Triodion and the recent publication of their Supplement to the latter only confirms the truth of what they wrote in 1969.

Finally, this translation is very much a ‘work in progress’. I have put it out on the ‘Orthodox England’ website to ascertain if it will satisfy a need. If it does so, I hope over time to improve it; and I shall welcome any comments and suggestions that will help me to achieve this.

Michael Asser 2009

¹*He Palaia Diatheki Kata Tous Hebdomekonta: Ekadosis Apostoliki Diakonias Tes Ekklesias Tes Hellados.* Athena, 1997

²*Septuaginta. Id est Vetus Testamentum Graece iuxta LXX Interpretes.* Stuttgart: Wurttembergische Bibelanstalt, 1935

³Charles Thomson; rev. C A Muses: The Septuagint Bible: the oldest Text of the Old Testament. Colorado, Falcon’s Wing Press 1954

⁴A Pietersma and B G Wright, eds.: A new English translation of the Septuagint. New York, Oxford University Press 2007

⁵Lancelot C L Brenton: The Septuagint with Apocrypha: Greek and English; Samuel Bagster and Sons 1851; repr. Hendrikson 1986

⁶Mother Mary and Archimandrite Kallistos Ware, The Festal Menaion, translated from the original Greek; pp.13-14: Faber and Faber 1969

⁷Mother Mary and Archimandrite Kallistos Ware, The Lenten Triodion, translated from the original Greek; Faber and Faber 1978. (Supplement, St Tikhon’s Press 2008)

This English version of the Septuagint is based upon the text of the Authorized Version of the Bible (the King James Version), the rights of which are vested in the Crown. This version of the Apocrypha also is based upon the Authorized Version of the Bible (the King James Version), the rights of which are vested in the Crown.

GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

In the beginning God made the heaven and the earth. ²But the earth was invisible, and without form, and darkness was upon the deep, and the spirit of God was borne over the water. ³And God said, Let there be light; and there was light. ⁴And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided between the light and between the darkness. ⁵And God called the light day and the darkness He called night. And there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

⁶And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the water, and let there be a division between the water and the water. And it was so. ⁷And God made the firmament, and God divided between the water which was under the firmament, and between the water which was above the firmament. ⁸And God called the firmament heaven. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

⁹And God said, Let the water that is under the heaven be gathered into one gathering, and let the dry land appear. And it was so. And the water that was under the heaven was gathered together into their gatherings, and the dry land appeared. ¹⁰And God called the dry land earth and the gatherings of the waters called He seas. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹And God said, Let the earth bring forth herb of grass, sowing seed according to his kind and according to his likeness, and the fruit tree bearing fruit, whose fruit is in itself according to his kind upon the earth. And it was so. ¹²And the earth brought forth herb of grass, sowing seed according to his kind and according to his likeness, and the fruit tree, bearing fruit, whose seed is in itself according to his kind upon the earth. ¹³And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

¹⁴And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven for light upon the earth, to divide between the day and between the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and for years. ¹⁵And let them be for light in the firmament of heaven, to give light upon the earth. And it was so. ¹⁶And God made the two great lights, the great light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night and the stars. ¹⁷And God set them in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth ¹⁸and to rule over the day and over the night and to divide between the light and between the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

²⁰And God said, Let the waters bring forth creeping things that have life, and fowl that fly above the earth in the firmament of heaven. And it was so. ²¹And God made the great sea monsters and every creature that creepeth, which the waters brought forth according to their kind, and every winged fowl according to his kind. And God saw that they were good. ²²And God blessed them, saying, Increase and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. ²³And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

²⁴And God said, Let the earth bring forth the soul of the living creature according to his kind: four footed beasts, and creeping things, and wild beasts of the earth according to their kind. And it was so. ²⁵And God made the wild beasts of the earth according to their kind, and the cattle according to their kind, and all the creeping things of the earth according to their kind. And God saw that they were good. ²⁶And God said, Let Us make man according to Our image and according to Our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over all the creeping things that creep upon the earth. ²⁷And God made man, according to the image of God made He him, male and female made He them. ²⁸And God blessed them, saying, Increase and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of heaven, and all the cattle and all the earth, and all the creeping things that creep upon the earth. ²⁹And God said, Behold, I have given you every seed bearing herb, sowing seed which is upon all the earth, and every tree, that hath in itself the fruit of seed that is sown: to you it shall be for meat, ³⁰and for all the wild beasts of the earth, and for all the fowl of the heaven, and for every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, which hath in itself the breath of life, even all green herb for meat. And it was so. ³¹And God saw all the things that He had made; and behold, they were very good. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

And the heaven and the earth were finished, and all the order of them. ²And on the sixth day God ended His works which He had made; and He ceased on the seventh day from all His works which He had made. ³And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it; because that in it He ceased from all his works, which God had begun to make.

⁴This is the book of the generation of heaven and earth when they were made, in the day that the Lord God made the heaven and the earth, ⁵and all herb of the field before it was upon the earth, and all grass of the field before it sprang up; for God had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground: ⁶but there went up a fountain from the earth, and watered the whole face of the earth. ⁷And God formed man of dust of the earth, and breathed into his face a breath of life, and the man became a living soul.

⁸And God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man, whom He had formed. ⁹And out of the ground made God to spring up also every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowing that which is to be known of good and evil. ¹⁰And a river goeth out of Eden to water the garden; from thence it parteth into four heads. ¹¹The name of the one is Phison: this is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; ¹²and the gold of that land is good, and there also is carbuncle and emerald. ¹³And the name of the second river is Gihon; this is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. ¹⁴And the third river is the Tigris; this is that which goeth over against the Assyrians. And the fourth river, this is Euphrates.

¹⁵And the Lord God took the man whom He had formed, and put him in the garden, to work it and to keep it. ¹⁶And the Lord God commanded Adam, saying, Of every tree which is in the garden thou mayest eat for food, ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, ye shall not eat of it; but in whatsoever day ye shall eat thereof, by death shall ye die.

¹⁸And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; let Us make for him an help meet for him. ¹⁹And out of the earth God formed yet further all the wild beasts of the field, and all the fowls of the heaven; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them. And whatsoever Adam called any living creature, that was the name thereof. ²⁰And Adam gave names to all the cattle, and to all the fowls of the heaven, and to all the wild beasts of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help like unto him. ²¹And God brought a trance upon Adam, and he slept: and He took one of his ribs and filled up the flesh in place thereof. ²²And the rib which He had taken from Adam, did the Lord God form into a woman, and brought her unto Adam. ²³And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called woman, because she was taken out of her man. ²⁴Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall be joined unto his wife: and they two shall become one flesh. ²⁵And the two were naked, both Adam and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3

Now the serpent was the most sagacious of all the wild beasts of the earth which the Lord God had made. And the serpent said unto the woman, Wherefore hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? ²And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: ³but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. ⁴And the serpent said unto the woman, By death ye shall not die: ⁵for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. ⁶And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant for the eyes to look upon, and fair to contemplate; and she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave it also to her husband with her; and they did eat. ⁷And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons to go about them.

⁸And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the evening, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden. ⁹And the Lord God called unto Adam and said unto him, Adam, where art thou? ¹⁰And he said unto Him, I heard Thy voice as Thou walkedst in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself. ¹¹And God said unto him, Who told thee that thou wast naked? except thou hast eaten of the tree whereof only I commanded thee not to eat? ¹²And Adam said, The woman, whom Thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. ¹³And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I did eat. ¹⁴And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all the cattle, and all the wild beasts of the earth; upon thy breast and thy belly shalt thou go and earth shalt thou eat all the days of thy life. ¹⁵And I will put enmity between thee and between the woman, and between thy seed and between her seed: he shall watch thy head, and thou shalt watch his heel. ¹⁶And He said unto the woman, I will greatly multiply thy pains and thy groanings; in pains thou shalt bring forth children, and thy recourse shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. ¹⁷And unto Adam He said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife and hast eaten of the tree of which alone I commanded thee not to eat, cursed is the ground in thy labours; in pains shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life: ¹⁸thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eat the herb of the field. ¹⁹In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat thy bread, till thou return unto the ground out of which thou wast taken; for earth thou art, and unto earth shalt thou return. ²⁰And Adam called his wife's name Life, because she is the mother of all the living.

²¹Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make garments of skin, and clothed them. ²²And God said, Behold, Adam is become as one of Us, to know good and evil; and now lest he put forth his hand, and take of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever. ²³And the Lord God sent him forth from the garden to till the earth from whence he was taken. ²⁴And He cast out Adam and caused him to dwell over against the garden of delight; and He stationed the Cherubim and the fiery sword that turneth about to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bare Cain and said, I have gotten a man through God. ²And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the earth. ³And after some days it came to pass that Cain brought of the fruits of the earth a sacrifice unto the Lord. ⁴And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his sheep and of his fatlings. And God looked upon Abel and upon his gifts, ⁵but upon Cain and upon his sacrifices He was not intent. And Cain was exceeding sorrowful, and his countenance fell. ⁶And the Lord God said unto Cain, Why art thou become exceeding sorrowful, and why is thy countenance fallen? ⁷Hast thou not sinned, if thou hast offered it rightly, but not rightly divided it? Be still: unto thee shall be his recourse, and thou shalt rule over him. ⁸And Cain said unto his brother Abel, Let us go out into the plain. And it came to pass when they were in the plain that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. ⁹And the Lord God said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? and he said, I know not: am I my brother's keeper? ¹⁰And the Lord said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto Me from the earth. ¹¹And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand. ¹²When thou tillest the earth, then it shall not continue to give unto thee her strength: groaning and trembling shalt thou be upon the earth. ¹³And Cain said unto the Lord God, My crime is too great for me to be forgiven. ¹⁴If Thou castest me out this day from the face of the earth, then shall I be hid from Thy face: and I shall be groaning and trembling upon the earth; and it shall come to pass, that any one that findeth me shall slay me. ¹⁵And the Lord God said unto him, Not so: any one that slayeth Cain shall loose vengeance sevenfold. And the Lord God set a mark upon Cain, that none finding him should kill him. ¹⁶So Cain went out from the presence of God, and dwelt in the land of Nod over against Eden.

¹⁷And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bare Enoch. And he builded a city, and he called the city after the name of his son, Enoch. ¹⁸And unto Enoch was born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael, and Mehujael begat Methuselah, and Methuselah begat Lamech. ¹⁹And Lamech took unto him two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the second Zillah. ²⁰And Adah bare Jabel: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, feeding cattle. ²¹And the name of his brother was Jubal: he it was that made known the psaltery and harp. ²²And Zillah, she also bare Tubal: he was a smith, a forger of brass and iron; and the sister of Tubal was Naamah. ²³And Lamech said unto his wives Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my words; for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt. ²⁴Because vengeance is exacted sevenfold by Cain, by Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

²⁵Now Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Seth, saying, For God hath raised up to me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew. ²⁶And to Seth there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: he hoped to call upon the name of the Lord God.

CHAPTER 5

This is the book of the generation of men: in the day that God made Adam, in the image of God made He him: ²male and female made He them, and blessed them; and called his name Adam, in the day wherein He made them. ³And Adam lived two hundred and thirty years, and begat a son after his own likeness and after his image, and called his name Seth. ⁴And the days of Adam that he lived after he had begotten Seth were seven hundred years, and he begat sons and daughters. ⁵And all the days of Adam that he lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

⁶Now Seth lived two hundred and five years and begat Enos. ⁷And Seth lived after he begat Enos seven hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters. ⁸And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

⁹And Enos lived an hundred and ninety years, and begat Cainan. ¹⁰And Enos lived after he begat Cainan seven hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹¹And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

¹²And Cainan lived an hundred and seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel. ¹³And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel seven hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹⁴And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

¹⁵And Mahalaleel lived an hundred and sixty and five years, and begat Jared. ¹⁶And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared seven hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹⁷And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety and five years; and he died.

¹⁸And Jared lived an hundred and sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch. ¹⁹And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. ²⁰And all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty and two years; and he died.

²¹And Enoch lived an hundred and sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah. ²²And Enoch was well pleasing to God after he begat Methuselah for two hundred years, and he begat sons and daughters. ²³And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty and five years. ²⁴And Enoch was well pleasing to God, and he was not found, for God translated him.

²⁵And Methuselah lived an hundred and sixty and seven years, and begat Lamech. ²⁶And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech eight hundred and two years, and begat sons and daughters. ²⁷And all the days of Methuselah which he lived were nine hundred and sixty and nine years; and he died.

²⁸And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and eight years, and begat a son. ²⁹And he called his name Noah, saying, This one will cause us to cease from our works and from the toils of our hands and from the earth, which the Lord God hath cursed. ³⁰And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred and sixty and five years, and begat sons and daughters. ³¹And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and fifty three years; and he died.

³²And Noah was five hundred years old, and he begat three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6

And it came to pass when men began to be many on the earth, and daughters were born unto them, ²that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took unto them wives of all which they chose. ³And the Lord God said, My Spirit shall not abide in these men for ever, for they are flesh; but their days shall be an hundred and twenty years. ⁴Now there were giants were in the earth in those days; and after that when the sons of God went in unto the daughters of men, they bare children to them: those were the giants of old, the men of renown.

⁵And the Lord God saw that the wickedness of men was multiplied upon the earth, and that every one in his heart thinketh diligently upon evil all the days. ⁶And God considered that He had made man on the earth, and He thought upon it. ⁷And God said, I will blot out man whom I have made from the face of the earth, even man with cattle, and creeping things, with fowls of the heaven; for it repenteth Me that I have made them. ⁸But Noah found grace before the Lord God.

⁹And these are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man, perfect in his generation; Noah was well pleasing to God. ¹⁰And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth. ¹¹Now the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with unrighteousness. ¹²And the Lord God looked upon the earth, and it was utterly corrupt; for all flesh had utterly corrupted his way upon the earth. ¹³And the Lord God said unto Noah, The time of every man is come before Me, for the earth is filled with unrighteousness through them; and behold, I do utterly destroy them and the earth. ¹⁴Make thee therefore an ark of squared timber: with nests shalt thou make the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. ¹⁵And thus shalt thou make the ark: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. ¹⁶Thou shalt narrow the ark in making it, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou make out of the side; with lower, second and third stories shalt thou make it. ¹⁷And behold, I do bring the flood, water upon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, under the heaven; and whatsoever things are upon the earth shall die. ¹⁸And with thee will I establish My covenant; and thou shalt enter into the ark, thou, and thy sons and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. ¹⁹And of all the cattle and of all the creeping things and of all the wild beasts, even of all flesh shalt thou bring two by two of all into the ark, that thou mayest feed them with thyself: they shall be male and female. ²⁰Of all winged fowls after their kind and of all cattle after their kind and of all creeping things that creep upon the earth after their kind, two by two of all they shall come in to thee, to be fed with thee, male and female. ²¹And thou shalt take unto thee of all food which ye eat, and thou shalt gather them to thee, and it shall be for thee and for them to eat. ²²And Noah did all things whatsoever the Lord God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7

And the Lord God said unto Noah, Enter, thou and all thy house, into the ark, for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation. ²And of the clean cattle take in to thee seven by seven, male and female; and of the unclean cattle two by two, male and female; ³and of the clean fowls of the heaven seven by seven, male and female; and of all unclean fowls of the heaven two by two, male and female, to maintain seed upon all the earth. ⁴For yet seven days, and I will bring rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights, and every thing that riseth up that I have made, will I blot out from off the face of all the earth. ⁵And Noah did all things whatsoever the Lord God commanded him.

⁶And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of water came to pass upon the earth. ⁷And Noah went in, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him into the ark, because of the water of the flood. ⁸And of the clean fowls and of the unclean fowls and of the clean cattle and of the unclean cattle and of all the creeping things upon the earth, ⁹there went in two by two unto Noah into the ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah. ¹⁰And it came to pass after the seven days that the water of the flood came upon the earth. ¹¹In the sixth hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seven and twentieth day of the month, in this day were all the fountains of the deep broken up, and the cataracts of heaven were opened. ¹²And the rain came upon the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³On this day entered Noah, Shem, Ham, Japheth, the sons of Noah and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with him, into the ark. ¹⁴And all the wild beasts after their kind and all cattle after their kind and every creeping thing that moveth itself on the earth after his kind and every fowl after his kind, ¹⁵went in unto Noah into the ark, two by two, male and female of all flesh wherein is the spirit of life. ¹⁶And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded Noah. And the Lord God shut the ark from without upon him. ¹⁷And the flood came forty days and forty nights upon the earth, and the waters were multiplied, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up on high from off the earth. ¹⁸And the water prevailed and was multiplied greatly upon the earth, and the ark was borne upon the water. ¹⁹And the water prevailed, prevailed greatly upon the earth, and covered all the high mountains that were under heaven. ²⁰Fifteen cubits upwards was the water raised, and it covered all the high mountains. ²¹And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowls and of cattle, and of wild beasts and of every creeping thing that moveth upon the earth, and every man. ²²And all things that have the breath of life, and whatsoever was upon the dry land, died. ²³And He blotted out every thing that ariseth which was upon the face of the earth, both of man and of beast, and of creeping things and of fowls of the heaven; and they were blotted out from earth, and Noah only was left, and they that were with him in the ark. ²⁴And the water was raised over the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

And God remembered Noah, and all the wild beasts, and all the cattle, and all the fowls, and all the creeping things that creep, as many as were with him in the ark; and God brought a wind upon the earth, and the water assuaged. ²The fountains also of the deep and the floodgates of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained. ³And the water diminished continually and went off the earth, and after an hundred and fifty days the water was abated, and the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. ⁴And the water diminished continually until the tenth month. ⁵And in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen. ⁶And it came to pass after forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made, and he sent forth a raven, to see if the water had ceased; ⁷and it went forth, and returned not until the water was dried from off the earth. ⁸Also he sent forth a dove after it to see if the water had ceased from off the face of the earth. ⁹And the dove found no rest for her feet and returned unto him into the ark, for the water was on the face of the whole earth; and he put forth his hand and took her and brought her in unto him into the ark. ¹⁰And he stayed yet seven other days, and again he sent forth the dove from the ark. ¹¹And the dove returned unto him in the evening, and it had an olive leaf, a twig, in her mouth; and Noah knew that the water had ceased from off the earth. ¹²And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove, and she returned not again unto him any more. ¹³And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year of the life of Noah, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the water subsided from off the earth: and Noah opened the covering of the ark which he had made, and he saw that the water had subsided from the face of the earth. ¹⁴And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

¹⁵And the Lord God spake unto Noah, saying, ¹⁶Come forth out of the ark, thou and thy wife and thy sons and thy sons' wives with thee. ¹⁷And bring forth with thee all the wild beasts as many as are with thee, and all flesh both of fowls and of cattle and of every creeping thing that moveth upon the earth, and increase and multiply upon the earth. ¹⁸And Noah came forth, and his wife and his sons and his sons' wives with him, ¹⁹and all the wild beasts and all the cattle and every fowl and every creeping thing that moveth upon the earth after their kind, came forth out of the ark. ²⁰And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord, and took of all the clean beasts and of all the clean fowls, and offered them as an whole burnt offering upon the altar. ²¹And the Lord God smelled a savour of sweetness, and the Lord God considered and said, I will not again curse the earth any more for the works of men, for the imagination of man is bent intently upon evil things from his youth; I will not therefore smite any more all living flesh, as I have done. ²²All the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest and cold and heat and summer and spring, shall not cease by day or night.

CHAPTER 9

And God blessed Noah and his sons and said unto them, Increase and multiply and fill the earth and have dominion over it. ²And the dread of you and the fear of you shall be upon all the wild beasts of the earth and upon all the fowls of the heaven and upon all things that move upon the earth and upon all the fishes of the sea; under your hands have I put them. ³And every creeping thing that liveth shall be for meat to you; even as the green herbs have I given all things unto you. ⁴But flesh with blood of life shall ye not eat: ⁵for your blood of your lives will I require at the hand of all wild beasts, and at the hand of his brother man will I require the life of man. ⁶Whoso sheddeth man's blood, in return for this blood shall his own be shed; for in the image of God made I man. ⁷But do ye increase and multiply and fill the earth and have dominion over it.

⁸And God spake unto Noah and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹And, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your seed after you, ¹⁰and with every living soul that is with you, of fowls and of beasts, and with all the wild beasts of the earth, as many as are with you, of all that came out of the ark. ¹¹And I will establish My covenant with you; neither shall all flesh die any more by the water of the flood, nor shall there be any more be a flood of water to destroy all the earth. ¹²And the Lord God said unto Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I set between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations. ¹³I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴And it shall come to pass, when I gather clouds upon the earth, that My bow shall be seen in the cloud. ¹⁵And I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living soul in all flesh, and there shall no more be water for a deluge to blot out all flesh. ¹⁶And My bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look to remember the everlasting covenant which is between Me and the earth, and between every living soul in all flesh that is upon the earth. ¹⁷And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have made between Me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

¹⁸Now the sons of Noah that went forth of the ark, were Shem, Ham and Japheth; and Ham was father of Canaan. ¹⁹These three are the sons of Noah; of these were men scattered abroad over the whole earth.

²⁰And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard. ²¹And he drank of the wine, and was drunken, and was naked in his house. ²²And Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakedness of his father, and went out and told his two brothers without. ²³And Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their back, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their face was backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. ²⁴And Noah recovered from the wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him. ²⁵And he said, Cursed be the bondservant Canaan; a bondservant shall he be unto his brethren. ²⁶And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his bondservant.

²⁷God make room for Japheth, and let him dwell in the habitations of Shem; and let Canaan be his bondservant.

²⁸And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. ²⁹And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

CHAPTER 10

Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth; and unto them were sons born after the flood.

²The sons of Japheth: Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Elisha and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras. ³And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz and Riphath and Torgarmah. ⁴And the sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish and the Kitians and Rhodians. ⁵From these were the isles of the nations divided in their land; each according to his tongue, in their tribes, and in their nations.

⁶And the sons of Ham: Cush and Mizraim, Phut and Canaan. ⁷And the sons of Cush: Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba, and Dedan. ⁸And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a giant in the earth. ⁹He was a giant hunter before the Lord; wherefore they say, Even as Nimrod, the giant hunter before the Lord. ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹Out of that land came forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh and the city Rehoboth and Calah ¹²and Rese between Nineveh and between Calah: this is the great city. ¹³And Mizraim begat the Ludiim and the Anamim and the Lehabim and the Nephtuhim and the Pathrusim ¹⁴and the Casluhim, (from whence came Philistim,) and the Caphtorim. ¹⁵Now Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, ¹⁶and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite, and the Hivite, and the Arkite, ¹⁷and the Sinite, the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. ¹⁸And after this were the tribes of the Canaanites scattered abroad, ¹⁹and the borders of the Canaanites were from Sidon, until one cometh to Gerar and Gaza, until one cometh unto Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. ²⁰These were the sons of Ham, in their tribes, according to their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

²¹And unto Shem himself also were children born, the father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder. ²²Sons of Shem: Elam and Asshur and Arphaxad and Lud and Aram and Cainan. ²³And sons of Aram: Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash. ²⁴And Arphaxad begat Cainan, and Cainan begat Salah, and Salah begat Eber. ²⁵And unto Eber were born two sons; the name of the one was Peleg (for in his days was the earth divided), and his brother's name was Joktan. ²⁶And Joktan begat Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah and Hadoram and Uza, and Diklah ²⁷and Obal and Abimael and Sheba ²⁸and Ophir and Havilah and Jobab. ²⁹All these were the sons of Joktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha until one cometh unto Sephar, a mount of the east. ³¹These were the sons of Shem in their tribes, according to their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

³²These are the tribes of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, according to their nations: of them were the islands of the nations scattered abroad in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER 11

And the whole earth was one lip; and there was one speech to all. ²And it came to pass as they moved from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there. ³And a man said unto his neighbour, Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire. And the brick was unto them for stone, and bitumen was their mortar. ⁴And they said, Come let us build us a city and tower whose top shall be unto heaven, and let us make us a name before we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. ⁵And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men builded. ⁶And the Lord said, Behold, one race and one lip of all, and this they have begun to do, and now nothing shall fail of them of all that they imagine to do. ⁷Come, and let Us go down and there confound their language, that they may not understand each his neighbour's speech. ⁸And the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth; and they left off to build the city and the tower. ⁹Therefore was the name of it called Confusion, because the Lord did there confound the lips of all the earth, and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

¹⁰And these are the generations of Shem: and Shem was an hundred years old when he begat Arphaxad, the second year after the flood. ¹¹And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

¹²And Arphaxad lived an hundred and thirty and five years, and begat Cainan. ¹³And Arphaxad lived after he begat Cainan four hundred years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

And Cainan lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat Salah; and Cainan lived after he begat Salah three hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

¹⁴And Salah lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat Eber. ¹⁵And Salah lived after he begat Eber three hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

¹⁶And Eber lived an hundred and thirty and four years, and begat Peleg. ¹⁷And Eber lived after he begat Peleg two hundred threescore and ten years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

¹⁸And Peleg lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat Reu. ¹⁹And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

²⁰And Reu lived an hundred and thirty and two years, and begat Serug.

²¹And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters, and died. ²²And Serug lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat Nahor.

²³And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

²⁴And Nahor lived an hundred nine and seventy years, and begat Terah.

²⁵And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and twenty and five years, and begat sons and daughters, and died.

²⁶And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, and Nahor, and Haran.

²⁷And these are the generations of Terah. Terah begat Abram and Nahor and Haran, and Haran begat Lot. ²⁸And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in the country of the Chaldeans. ²⁹And Abram and Nahor took them wives; the name of the Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife Milcha, daughter of Haran; and he was the father of Milcha the father of Iscah. ³⁰And Sarai was barren and bare not children. ³¹And Terah took Abram his son and Lot the son of Haran, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife, and led them forth out of the land of the Chaldean, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and he dwelt there. ³²And all the days of Terah in the land of Haran were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

And the Lord said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, and come into the land that I shall shew thee. ²And I will make thee into a great nation, and I will bless thee and magnify thy name, and thou shalt be a blessing. ³And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all the tribes of the earth be blessed. ⁴And Abram went as the Lord had spoken unto him, and Lot departed with him. And Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. ⁵And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son and all their substance, as much as they had gotten, and every soul that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan. ⁶And Abram passed through the length of the land unto the place Shechem unto the high oak; and the Canaanites then dwelt in the land. ⁷And the Lord appeared unto Abram and said unto him, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there builded Abram an altar unto the Lord Who appeared unto him. ⁸And he removed from thence unto the mountain on the east of Bethel, and there pitched his tent in Bethel toward the sea and Hai toward the east; and there he builded an altar unto the Lord and called upon the name of the Lord. ⁹And Abram departed and went and pitched his tent in the wilderness.

¹⁰And there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine prevailed in the land. ¹¹And it came to pass when Abram was come near to enter into Egypt that Abraham said unto Sarai his wife, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon. ¹²Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife; and they will kill me, but they will keep thee for them. ¹³Say, therefore, I am his sister, that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee. ¹⁴And it came to pass that when Abram was come into Egypt, and the Egyptians beheld his wife that she was very fair, ¹⁵the princes of Pharaoh saw her and praised her unto Pharaoh, and brought her into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶And they entreated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheep and calves and mules and menservants and maidservants and asses and camels. ¹⁷And God afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great and heavy afflictions, because of Sarai Abram's wife. ¹⁸And Pharaoh called Abram and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me, that thou didst not tell me that she was thy wife? ¹⁹Why saidst thou, She is my sister? And I took her to me to wife; and now behold, thy wife is before thee; take her and quickly go thy way. ²⁰And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning Abram, to join in sending him forth, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him.

CHAPTER 13

And Abram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the wilderness. ²And Abram was very rich in cattle and in silver and in gold. ³And he went on his journey from whence he had come into the wilderness, even to Bethel, unto the place where his tent had been before, between Bethel and between Hai, ⁴unto the place of the altar which he had made there at the first; and there Abram called on the name of the Lord. ⁵And Lot, which went out with Abram, had sheep and cattle and tents. ⁶And the land had not room enough for them to dwell together; for their substance was great, and they could not dwell together. ⁷And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle; and the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled then in the land. ⁸And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife between me and thee and between my herdmen and between thy herdmen; for we be brethren. ⁹Lo, is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself from me: if thou go to the left hand, I will go to the right; and if thou go to the right hand, then I will go to the left. ¹⁰And Lot lifted up his eyes and beheld all the country round about Jordan, that all was watered before God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord and like the land of Egypt, until thou come unto Zoar. ¹¹And Lot chose him all the country round about Jordan, and Lot journeyed from the east, and they were separated each from his brother. ¹²And Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, but Lot dwelled in a city of the country round about and pitched his tent in Sodom. ¹³But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinful before God exceedingly.

¹⁴And God said unto Abram after that Lot was separated from him, Look up with thine eyes, and look from the place where thou now art northward and southward and eastward and toward the sea; ¹⁵for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. ¹⁶And I will make thy seed as the sand of the earth; if any one can number the sand of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. ¹⁷Arise, pass through the land in the length of it and in the breadth; for I will give it unto thee and unto thy seed for ever. ¹⁸Then Abram removed his tent and came and dwelt by the oak of Mamre which was in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

CHAPTER 14

And it came to pass in the reign of Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of nations, ²that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, and with Shinab king of Admah, and with Shemeber king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (this is Zoar). ³All these agreed with one consent at the salt vale (this is the sea of salt). ⁴Twelve years were they in subjection unto Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, and cut to pieces the giants in Astaroth Karnaim and strong nations together with them, and the Emim in the city of Shaveh, ⁶and the Horites in the mountains of Seir unto the terebinth of El-paran, which is in the wilderness. ⁷And they returned and came unto the spring of judgment (this is Kadesh), and they cut to pieces all the princes of Amalek, and the Amorites that dwell in Hazezon-tamar. ⁸And there went out the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (this is Zoar;) and they set themselves in array against them to battle in the salt vale, ⁹against Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of nations and Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar, the four kings against the five. ¹⁰Now the vale of salt was full of slimepits. And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah fled and fell in there, and they that were left behind fled to the mountain country. ¹¹And they took all the horse of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their victuals, and went their way. ¹²And they took also Lot, Abram's brother's son, and his goods, and departed: for he dwelt in Sodom.

¹³And there came one of them that had been rescued, and told Abram the traveller; and he dwelt by the oak of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eschol, and the brother of Eder, which were confederate with Abram. ¹⁴And when Abram heard that his nephew Lot was taken captive, he numbered his own homeborn servants, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan. ¹⁵And he came upon them by night, he and his servants, and smote them and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus. ¹⁶And he brought back all the horse of Sodom, and brought back again his nephew Lot and all his goods and the women and the people.

¹⁷And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after that he returned from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, in the valley of Shaveh: this was the king's plain. ¹⁸And Melchisedek king of Salem brought forth bread loaves and wine; and he was priest of the Most High God. ¹⁹And he blessed Abram and said, Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, Which made the heaven and the earth, ²⁰and blessed be the Most High God, Which hath delivered up thine enemies under thy hands to thee. And Abram gave him the tithe of all. ²¹And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the men, and take the horse to thyself. ²²And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I will stretch out my hand unto the Lord, the Most High God, Which made the heaven and the earth, ²³if I shall take of all thy goods from a thread even to a shoelatchet, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich: ²⁴save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Eschol, and Aner, and Mamre; these shall take a portion.

CHAPTER 15

And after these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram, I do shield thee: thy reward shall be exceeding great. ²And Abram said, Master, O Lord, what wilt Thou give me, seeing I go away childless, save for the son of Masek my bondwoman born in my house, this Eliezer of Damascus? ³And Abram said, Since Thou hast given me no seed, my bondman born in my house shall be mine heir. ⁴And forthwith a voice of the Lord came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thee shall be thine heir. ⁵And He brought him forth abroad, and said unto him, Look up to heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them. And He said, So shall thy seed be. ⁶And Abram believed God, and that was counted to him for righteousness. ⁷And He said unto him, I am the God that brought thee out of the land of the Chaldeans, to give thee this land to inherit it. ⁸And he said, O Master, Lord, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? ⁹And He said unto him, Take Me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove and a young pigeon. ¹⁰And he took unto Him all these, and divided them in the midst, and set them one against another: but the birds divided he not. ¹¹And fowls came down upon the carcases, even upon the divided parts of them; and Abram sat down by them. ¹²And at about the going down of the sun, a trance fell upon Abram, and lo, an horror of great darkness falleth upon him. ¹³And it was said unto Abram, Thou shalt know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and they shall enslave them and afflict them and humble them four hundred years. ¹⁴And the nation whom they shall serve will I judge, and afterward shall they come out hither with great substance. ¹⁵But thou shalt depart unto thy fathers in peace, buried in a good old age. ¹⁶But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again; for the sins of the Amorites are not yet filled up even until now. ¹⁷And when the sun went down there was a flame, and behold, a smoking furnace and lamps of fire that passed between these divided pieces. ¹⁸In that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river Euphrates, ¹⁹the Kenites, and the Kennizites, and the Kadmonites, ²⁰and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Raphaim, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Evites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAPTER 16

Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children; and she had an Egyptian handmaid, whose name was Hagar. ²And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold, the Lord hath restrained me from bearing: go in therefore unto my maid, that I may get me children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai. ³And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her handmaid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife to him. ⁴And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived, and saw that she was with child, and her mistress was dishonoured before her. ⁵And Sarai said unto Abram, I am wronged because of thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom, and when she saw that she was with child, I was dishonoured before her: the Lord judge between me and thee. ⁶But Abram said, Behold thine handmaid is in thy hands: do to her as it may seem good to thee. And Sarai afflicted her, and she fled from her face.

⁷And an angel of the Lord found her by the fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. ⁸And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence comest thou, and whither goest thou? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai. ⁹And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands. ¹⁰And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will surely multiply thy seed, and it shall not be numbered for multitude. ¹¹And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael, because the Lord hath heeded thy humiliation. ¹²He will be a wild man, his hands against all, and the hands of all against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. ¹³And Hagar called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou art God Which seest me: for she said, I have openly seen Him that appeared unto me. ¹⁴Wherefore called she the well, The Well of Him Whom I have openly seen: behold, it is between Kadesh and Barad.

¹⁵And Hagar bare Abram a son; and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare him, Ishmael. ¹⁶And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

CHAPTER 17

And Abram was ninety years old and nine; and the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am thy God; be thou well pleasing before Me, and be thou blameless. ²And I will establish My covenant between Me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. ³And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying, ⁴And as for Me, behold, My covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of a multitude of nations. ⁵Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for I have made thee a father of many nations. ⁶And I will increase thee very exceedingly, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. ⁷And I will establish My covenant between Me and thee and thy seed after thee, to their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be thy God, and thy seed's after thee. ⁸And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou sojournest, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be a God to them. ⁹And God said unto Abraham, Thou also shalt keep My covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee for their generations. ¹⁰And this is the covenant which thou shalt keep, between Me and you, and betwixt thy seed after thee unto their generations; every man child of you shall be circumcised. ¹¹And ye shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be for a token of a covenant betwixt Me and you. ¹²And the newborn babe of eight days shall be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, and he that is born in the house, and he that is bought with money of every son of a stranger, which is not of thy seed. ¹³He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with money, shall needs be circumcised: and My covenant shall be on your flesh for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴And the uncircumcised man child which shall not be circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin on the eighth day, that soul shall be cut off from his kindred; for he hath broken My covenant.

¹⁵And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, her name shall not be called Sarai: Sarah shall her name be. ¹⁶And I will bless her, and give thee a son of her; yea, I will bless him, and he shall become nations; and kings of nations shall be of him. ¹⁷And Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and spake in his heart, saying, Shall there be a son unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? ¹⁸And Abraham said unto God, Let this Ishmael live before thee. ¹⁹And God said unto Abraham, Yea, behold, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to him, and to his seed after him. ²⁰And as for Ishmael, behold, I have heard thee; and behold, I have blessed him, and will increase him, and multiply him exceedingly: twelve nations shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. ²¹But My covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this time, in the next year. ²²And He left off talking with him; and God went up from Abraham.

²³And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all his home born servants, and all that were bought with money, and every male of the men that were in Abraham's house, and circumcised their foreskins in the time of that day, according as God had spoken unto him. ²⁴And Abraham was ninety years old and nine when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁵And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶And in the time of that day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son, ²⁷and all the men of his house, both them that were born in the house and them that were bought with money of strange nations, he circumcised them.

CHAPTER 18

Now God appeared unto him by the oak of Mamre, as he sat by his tent door in the mid of day. ²And he lift up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood over him; and he saw them, and ran to meet them from his tent door, and did obeisance toward the ground. ³And he said, O Lord, if peradventure I have found favour in Thy sight, pass not by Thy servant. ⁴Let water now be fetched, and let them wash Your feet, and be Ye cooled under the tree. ⁵And I will fetch bread, and Ye shall eat; and after that Ye shall depart on your journey, inasmuch as Ye are turned aside unto your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. ⁶And Abraham hastened unto the tent unto Sarah, and said unto her, Haste thee, and knead three measures of fine flour, and make loaves baked in ashes. ⁷And Abraham ran unto the kine, and fetched a young calf tender and good, and gave it unto his servant; and he hasted to dress it. ⁸And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed; and set them before them, and they did eat; and he stood by them under the tree.

⁹And He said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he answered and said, Behold, in the tent. ¹⁰And He said, I will return and come unto thee according to this time to the hour, and Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind Him. ¹¹Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well stricken in days, and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. ¹²And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, It is not yet come to pass with me until now; and my Lord is old. ¹³And the Lord said unto Abraham, Wherefore is it that Sarah did laugh in herself, saying, Shall I then of a surety bear? but I am waxen old. ¹⁴Shall anything be impossible with God? at this time to the hour will I return unto thee, and Sarah shall have a son. ¹⁵But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And He said unto her, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

¹⁶And the men rose up from thence, and looked down upon the face of Sodom and Gomorrah. And Abraham went with them, escorting them. ¹⁷And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham My servant the thing which I am about to do? ¹⁸But Abraham shall become a great and populous nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him. ¹⁹For I know that he will order his sons and his household after him, and they shall keep the ways of the Lord to do righteousness and judgment, that the Lord may bring upon Abraham all things that He hath spoken of him. ²⁰And the Lord said, The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is multiplied toward Me, and their sins are very great. ²¹I will go down then, and see whether they do according to the cry against them which cometh unto Me; and if not, that I may know. ²²And the men turned away from thence, and came unto Sodom; but Abraham stood yet before the Lord. ²³And Abraham said, Wilt Thou destroy the righteous with the ungodly? and shall the righteous be as the ungodly? ²⁴If there be fifty righteous in the city, wilt Thou destroy them? Wilt Thou not spare the whole place for the sake of the fifty righteous, if they be therein? ²⁵By no means shalt Thou do this thing, to slay the righteous with the ungodly; and the righteous shall not be as the ungodly. By no means! shalt not Thou that judgest all the earth do right? ²⁶And the Lord said, If there be in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. ²⁷And Abraham answered and said, Now have I begun to speak unto my Lord: and I am but earth and ashes. ²⁸But if the fifty righteous should be minished to forty and five, wilt Thou destroy all the city for the five? And He said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it. ²⁹And he spake yet again unto Him, and said, But if there shall be forty found there? And He said, I will not destroy it for the forty's sake. ³⁰And he said, Will there be aught, Lord, if I speak: but if there shall be thirty found here? And He said, I will not destroy it for the thirty's sake. ³¹And he said, Since I have taken to speak unto the Lord, what if there shall be twenty found there? And He said, I will not destroy it if I find there twenty. ³²And he said, Will there be aught, Lord, if I speak yet once? but if ten shall be found there? And He said, I will not destroy it for the ten's sake. ³³And the Lord departed when He had left communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAPTER 19

Now there came the two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat by the gate of Sodom. And Lot seeing them rose up to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground, and he said, ²Behold, lords, turn aside into Your servant's house, and rest from Your journey, and wash Your feet: and when Ye are risen up early in the morning, Ye shall go on Your way. And they said, Nay, but We will lodge in the street. ³And he pressed them; and they turned aside unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake them unleavened loaves, and they did eat. ⁴But before they lay down to sleep, the men of the city, even the Sodomites, compassed the house round, both young and old, all the people together. ⁵And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came into thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them. ⁶And Lot went out at the threshold unto them, and shut the door after him, ⁷and said unto them, By no means, brethren, do not wickedly. ⁸Now have I two daughters which have not known man. I will bring them out unto you, and do ye use them as it may please you: only unto these men do nothing unjust; for they came in under the shelter of my roof. ⁹And they said unto him, Stand back there: thou camest in to sojourn: was it also to judge? Now then we will harm thee rather than them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. ¹⁰But the men put forth their hands, and drew Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door of the house. ¹¹And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; and they were wearied seeking to find the door.

¹²And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here sons in law, or sons, or daughters? or if thou hast any other in the city, bring them out of this place.

¹³For we are about to destroy this place: because the cry of them is lifted up before the Lord; and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it. ¹⁴And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which had married his daughters, and said, Up, and get you out of this place; for the Lord is about to destroy the city; but he seemed to speak in jest before his sons in law. ¹⁵But when the morning arose, the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, and take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which thou hast, and go forth, lest thou also be destroyed with the transgressions of the city. ¹⁶And they were troubled; and the Angels laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; in that the Lord spared him. ¹⁷And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth without, that they said, Save thine own soul by all means: look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the country round about; escape to the mountain, lest peradventure thou be overtaken. ¹⁸And

Lot said unto them, I pray, O Lord, ¹⁹since Thy servant hath found mercy in Thy sight, and Thou hast magnified Thy righteousness, in what Thou doest toward me that my soul may live; but I shall not be able to escape to the mountain, lest peradventure the calamities overtake me, and I die. ²⁰Behold, this city is near for me to escape thither, which is a little one; and there shall I be preserved, is it not a little one? and my soul shall live because of Thee. ²¹And He said unto him, See, I have had respect unto thy countenance concerning this thing also, that I should not overthrow the city for the which thou hast spoken. ²²Haste thee, therefore, to escape thither, for I shall not be able to do any thing until thou be come thither. Therefore he called the name of that city Zoar. ²³The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. ²⁴And the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven. ²⁵And He overthrew these cities, and all the country round about and all that dwelt in the cities and all that which grew up out of the ground. ²⁶But his wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁷And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the Lord, ²⁸and he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward the country round about, and beheld; and lo, a flame from the earth went up as the smoke of a furnace. ²⁹And it came to pass when God destroyed all the cities of the region round about, that God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when the Lord overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

³⁰And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, he and his two daughters with him, for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters with him. ³¹And the elder said unto the younger,

Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth who shall come in unto us, as is meet in all the earth. ³²Come, and let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him and raise up seed of our father. ³³And they made their father drink wine that night; and the elder went in and lay with her father that night; and he perceived not when she lay down and when she arose. ³⁴And it came to pass on the morrow, that the elder said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with our father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, and let us raise up seed of our father. ³⁵So they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger went in and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. ³⁶And the two daughters of Lot were with child by their father. ³⁷And the elder bare a son, and called his name Moab, saying, Of my father. This is the father of the Moabites unto this present day. ³⁸And the younger, she also bare a son and called his name Ammon, saying, The son of my family. This is the father of the Ammonites unto this present day.

CHAPTER 20

And Abraham removed from thence into the country toward the south, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. ²And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister; for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest at any time the men of the city should kill him for her sake. So Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. ³And God came to Abimelech in sleep by night, and said, Behold, thou diest for the woman, which thou hast taken, seeing she is married to a man. ⁴But Abimelech had not touched her, and he said, Lord, wilt Thou destroy an ignorant, and righteous nation? ⁵Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and said she not unto me, He is my brother? With a pure heart, and in the righteousness of my hands, have I done this. ⁶And God said unto him in sleep, Yea, I knew that thou didst this with a pure heart, and I spared thee that thou shouldest not sin against Me; therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. ⁷Now therefore restore the man his wife, for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: but know thou that if thou restore her not, thou shalt die, and all that are thine. ⁸And Abimelech rose up early in the morning and called all his servants, and he spake all these words in their ears; and all the men were sore afraid. ⁹And Abimelech called Abraham and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done unto us? Have we sinned against thee, that thou hast brought upon me and upon my kingdom a great sin? Thou hast done a deed unto me that none ought to do. ¹⁰And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? ¹¹And Abraham said, Because I said, Surely the worship of God is not in this place, and they will slay me for my wife's sake. ¹²For indeed she is my sister by my father, but not by my mother, and she became my wife. ¹³And it came to pass, when God brought me forth out of my father's house, that I said unto her, This righteousness shalt thou do unto me; in every place whither we shall come say of me, He is my brother. ¹⁴And Abimelech took a thousand pieces of silver and sheep and calves and menservants and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. ¹⁵And Abimelech said unto Abraham, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell wheresoever it pleaseth thee. ¹⁶And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: these shall be to thee for the price of thy countenance, and unto all those women that are with thee: and speak the truth in all things. ¹⁷So Abraham prayed unto God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maidservants; and they bare children. ¹⁸For the Lord had fast closed up from without every womb in the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

And the Lord visited Sarah as He had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as He had spoken. ²And she conceived and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time according as the Lord had spoken to him. ³And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. ⁴And Abraham circumcised Isaac on the eighth day, as God had commanded him. ⁵And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. ⁶And Sarah said, The Lord hath made laughter for me, for whosoever shall hear will rejoice with me. ⁷And she said, Who shall say unto Abraham, that Sarah giveth a child suck? for I have borne a son in mine old age.

⁸And the child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast the day that Isaac his son was weaned. ⁹And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which was born unto Abraham, sporting with Isaac her son; ¹⁰and she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son, for the son of this bondwoman shall not inherit with my son Isaac. ¹¹But the thing appeared very hard in Abraham's sight concerning his son. ¹²But God said unto Abraham, Let it not be hard in thy sight concerning the child and concerning the bondwoman; in all whatsoever Sarah shall say unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called for thee. ¹³And moreover of the son of this bondwoman will I make a great nation, because he is thy seed. ¹⁴And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread loaves and a skin of water, and gave them unto Hagar, and put the child on her shoulder, and sent her away; and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness near the Well of the Oath. ¹⁵And the water was spent out of the skin, and she cast the child under a fir tree. ¹⁶And she went and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot; for she said, Surely I cannot see the death of my child. And she sat over against him; and the child cried aloud and wept. ¹⁷And God heard the voice of the child from the place where he was, and an angel of the Lord called to Hagar out of heaven and said unto her, What is it, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad from the place where he is. ¹⁸Arise, and take up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. ¹⁹And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of living water; and she went and filled the skin with water and gave the lad drink. ²⁰And God was with the child; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. ²¹And he dwelt in the wilderness of Parah: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

²²And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, spake unto Abraham, saying, "God is with thee in all things whatsoever thou mayest do. ²³Now swear unto me by God that thou wilt not injure me, nor my seed, nor my name; but according to the righteousness that I have performed with thee, thou shalt deal with me, and with the land wherein thou hast sojourned. ²⁴And Abraham said, I will swear. ²⁵And Abraham reprov'd Abimelech because of the wells of water which Abimelech's servants had taken away. ²⁶And Abimelech said unto him, I wot not who hath done this thing, neither didst thou tell it me, neither yet heard I of it, but today. ²⁷And Abraham took sheep and calves, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. ²⁸And Abraham set seven ewe lambs to stand by themselves. ²⁹And Abimelech said, What are these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set to stand by themselves? ³⁰And Abraham said, Thou shalt receive the seven ewe lambs of me, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well. ³¹Wherefore he called the name of that place The Well of the Oath; because there they sware both of them. ³²And they made a covenant at the Well of the Oath. And there rose up Abimelech, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. ³³And Abraham planted a plowed field at the Well of the Oath and called there on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God. ³⁴And Abraham sojourn'd in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER 22

And it came to pass after these things that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham, Abraham; and he said, Behold, here I am. ²And He said, Take thy son, the beloved, whom thou lovest, Isaac, and get thee into the high land; and offer him there for an whole burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I shall tell thee of. ³And Abraham rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two servants with him, and Isaac his son, and clave wood for an whole burnt offering, and rose up and departed, and came unto the place of which God spake unto him, on the third day. ⁴And Abraham looked up with his eyes, and saw the place afar off. ⁵And Abraham said unto his servants, Sit ye here with the ass, and I and the lad will go yonder; and when we have worshipped, we will come again to you. ⁶And Abraham took the wood of the whole burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son, and he took both the fire and the knife into his hands; and the twain went together. ⁷And Isaac said unto Abraham his father, Father. And he said, What is it, son? And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: where is the sheep for an whole burnt offering? ⁸And Abraham said, My son, God will provide Himself a sheep for an whole burnt offering. And they went both of them together, ⁹and they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood upon it, and bound the feet of Isaac his son together, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. ¹⁰And Abraham stretched forth his hand to take the knife to slay his son. ¹¹And an angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Behold, here I am. ¹²And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the child, neither do thou any thing unto him; for now I know that thou fearest God, and for My sake thou hast not spared thy beloved son. ¹³And Abraham looked up with his eyes, and beheld: and lo, a ram caught in a sabek plant by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up as an whole burnt offering in the stead of Isaac his son. ¹⁴And Abraham called the name of that place, The Lord Hath Seen, that they might say today, In the mount the Lord was seen. ¹⁵And an angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven a second time, and said, ¹⁶By Myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and for My sake thou hast not spared thy beloved son: ¹⁷surely in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is by the sea shore; and thy seed shall inherit the cities of their enemies. ¹⁸And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast hearkened unto My voice. ¹⁹And Abraham returned unto his servants, and they rose up and went together to the Well of the Oath. And Abraham dwelt at the Well of the Oath.

²⁰And it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah herself also hath borne sons unto thy brother Nahor; ²¹Uz the firstborn and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of the Syrians, ²²and Chesed and Hazo and Pildesh and Jidlaph and Bethuel; ²³and Bethuel begat Rebekah. These are eight sons which Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁴And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAPTER 23

Now the life of Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years. ²And Sarah died in the city of Arba, which is in the valley, (the same is Hebron) in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to lament for Sarah, and to mourn. ³And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and Abraham spake unto the sons of Heth, saying, ⁴I am a sojourner and a stranger among you: give me therefore possession of a buryingplace among you, and I will bury my dead away from me. ⁵And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying, Nay, my lord; ⁶but hear us. Thou art a king from God among us: in our choice sepulchres bury thy dead, for not one of us shall by any means withhold from thee his sepulchre to bury thy dead there. ⁷And Abraham stood up, and did obeisance to the people of the land, even to the sons of Heth. ⁸And Abraham communed with them, saying, If ye have it in your mind that I should bury my dead out of my presence, hear me and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar. ⁹And let him give me the double cave which he hath, which is in a part of his field; for as much money as it is worth, let him give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you. ¹⁰Now Ephron sat among the children of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham, and spake in the audience of the sons of Heth and of all that went into the city, saying, ¹¹Be attentive unto me, my lord, and hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; before all my people have I given it thee: bury thy dead. ¹²And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. ¹³And he said in the ears of Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, Since thou art in my presence, hear me: take the price of the field of me, and I will bury my dead there. ¹⁴But Ephron answered Abraham, saying, ¹⁵Nay, my lord, I have heard indeed that the land is worth four hundred didrachmas of silver; but what would this be betwixt me and thee? nay, bury thou thy dead. ¹⁶And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and Abraham rendered to Ephron the money which he had spoken of in the ears of the sons of Heth, four hundred didrachmas of silver certified of merchants. ¹⁷And the field of Ephron which was in the double cave, which is over against Mamre, the field and the cave which was therein and every tree that was in the field and whatsoever is in the borders thereof round about, were made sure ¹⁸unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, and all that went into the city. ¹⁹After these things Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the double cave of the field which is over against Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. ²⁰And the field and the cave that was therein were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24

And Abraham was older, well stricken in days: and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things. ²And Abraham said unto his servant, to the elder of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put thy hand under my thigh, ³and I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son Isaac of the daughters of the Canaanites, with whom I dwell in the midst of them; ⁴but thou shalt go unto my country, where I was born, and to my tribe, and take from thence a wife unto my son Isaac. ⁵And the servant said unto him, If at any time the woman is not be willing to return with me unto this land, shall I bring again thy son unto the land from whence thou camest? ⁶And Abraham said unto him, Take heed to thyself that thou bring not my son thither again. ⁷The Lord God of heaven and the God of the earth, Which took me from my father's house and from the land where I was born, Which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thee and thy seed will I give this land; He shall send His angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. ⁸And if the woman will not be willing to come with thee into this land, then thou shalt be clean from this oath: only bring not my son thither again. ⁹And the servant put his hand unto the thigh of Abraham his lord, and sware to him concerning this matter.

¹⁰And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his lord, and he took of all the goods of his lord with him; and rising up he went to Mesopotamia, into the city of Nahor. ¹¹And he suffered the camels to rest without the city by the well of water toward the evening, when the women go out to draw water. ¹²And he said, O Lord God of my lord Abraham, prosper my way before me this day, and do mercy with my lord Abraham. ¹³Behold, I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of them that dwell in the city come out to draw water. ¹⁴And it shall come to pass, that the damsel to whomsoever I shall say, Incline thy pitcher, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink until they are done drinking; even this same hast thou prepared for thy servant Isaac, and thereby shall I know that thou hast done mercy with my lord Abraham. ¹⁵And it came to pass before he had done speaking in his mind that, behold, Rebekah, that was born to Bathuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor and Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher upon her shoulders. ¹⁶And the damsel was very fair to look upon; she was a virgin, neither had any man known her; and she went down to the spring and filled her pitcher and came up. ¹⁷And the servant ran to meet her and said, Give me a little water to drink out of thy pitcher. ¹⁸And she said, Drink, lord; and she hasted and let down her pitcher upon her arm and gave him to drink until he had done drinking. ¹⁹And she said, I will draw water for thy camels also until they are all done drinking. ²⁰And she hasted and emptied the pitcher into the trough and ran again unto the well to draw and fetched water for all the camels. ²¹And the man took great notice of her, and held his peace to wit whether the Lord had made his way to prosper or not. ²²And it came to pass when all the camels had done drinking, that the man took golden earrings, each of a drachma weight, and two bracelets for her arms; their weight was ten pieces of gold. ²³And he asked her and said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me if there be room in thy father's house for us to lodge in. ²⁴And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor. ²⁵And she said unto him, We have both straw and provender in abundance, and a place to lodge in. ²⁶And the man being well pleased did obeisance unto the Lord ²⁷and said, Blessed be the Lord God of my lord Abraham, Who hath not forsaken righteousness and truth from my lord: the Lord hath prospered me on the way to the house of my lord's brother.

²⁸And the damsel ran and told in her mother's house according to these words. ²⁹And Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to meet the man nigh unto the spring. ³⁰And it came to pass when he saw the earrings and the bracelets upon his sister's arms, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me, that he came unto the man as he stood by the camels by the spring. ³¹And he said unto him, Come in hither, thou blessed of the Lord; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house and a place for the camels. ³²And the man came into the house, and he ungirded the camels and gave straw and provender for the camels and water for his feet and for the men's feet that were with him. ³³And he set before them loaves to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have spoken my words. And he said, Speak on.

³⁴And he said, I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵And the Lord hath blessed my lord greatly, and he is exalted; and He hath given him sheep and calves and silver and gold and menservants and maidservants, camels and asses. ³⁶And Sarah my lord's wife bare one son to my lord after that he had waxed old, and unto him hath he given whatsoever he had. ³⁷And my lord made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I sojourn in their land, ³⁸but thou shalt go unto my father's house and to my tribe and take from thence a wife unto my son. ³⁹And I said unto my lord, Peradventure the woman will not go with me. ⁴⁰And he said unto me, The Lord God, before Whom I have been well pleasing, Himself will send out His angel with thee and prosper thy journey, and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my tribe and of my father's house. ⁴¹Then shalt thou be clear from my curse; for whensoever thou shalt have come to my tribe, and they shall not give thee her, then shalt thou be clear from mine oath. ⁴²And I came this day unto the well, and said, O Lord God of my lord Abraham, if now Thou do prosper my journey whereon I go: ⁴³behold, I stand by the well of the water, and the daughters of the men of the city will come forth to draw water, and it shall come to pass that the virgin to whom I shall say, Give me little water of thy pitcher to drink, ⁴⁴and she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will draw water for thy camels; this same shall be the woman whom the Lord hath prepared for His own servant Isaac, and hereby shall I know that Thou hast wrought mercy with my lord Abraham. ⁴⁵And it came to pass, before I had done speaking in my mind, straightway Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulders, and she went down unto the well, and drew water; and I said unto her, Give me to drink. ⁴⁶And she made haste and let down her pitcher on her arm from herself and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink: and I drank, and she gave the camels drink. ⁴⁷And I asked her and said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me. And she said, I am daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him. And I put upon her the earrings and the bracelets upon her arms. ⁴⁸And being well pleased, I did obeisance unto the Lord and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, Which hath prospered me in the way of truth to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son. ⁴⁹If then ye will do mercy and righteousness toward my lord, tell me; and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

⁵⁰And Laban and Bathouel answered and said, This thing is come from the Lord; therefore we shall not be able to speak against thee bad for good. ⁵¹Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, go quickly, and let her be thy lord's son's wife, as the Lord hath said. ⁵²And it came to pass when Abraham's servant heard these words that he did obeisance to the earth unto the Lord. ⁵³And the servant brought forth jewels of silver and gold and raiment and gave them to Rebekah; he gave also to her brother and to her mother gifts. ⁵⁴And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and slept.

And he rose up in the morning, and said, Send me away that I may go unto my lord. ⁵⁵And her brethren and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us about ten days, and after that she shall depart. ⁵⁶But he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my journey for me; send me away, that I may depart to my lord. ⁵⁷And they said, Let us call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth. ⁵⁸And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. ⁵⁹So they sent forth Rebekah their sister and her goods and Abraham's servants and those with him. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of myriads, and let thy seed possess the cities of their adversaries. ⁶¹And Rebekah arose and her damsels, and they mounted upon the camels and went with the man, and the servant took Rebekah and departed.

⁶²And Isaac went through the wilderness to the Well of the Vision, and dwelt in the land toward the south. ⁶³And Isaac went out to meditate in the plain toward eventide; and he lifted up his eyes and beheld camels coming. ⁶⁴And Rebekah lifted up her eyes and saw Isaac, and she lighted off the camel quickly. ⁶⁵And she said unto the servant, What man is that that walketh in the plain to meet us? And the servant said, This is my lord; and she took her veil and covered herself. ⁶⁶And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. ⁶⁷And Isaac went into the house of his mother and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted for his mother Sarah.

CHAPTER 25

Then again Abraham took a wife, whose name was Keturah. ²And she bare him Zimran and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishbak and Shuah. ³And Jokshan begat Thaiman and Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were the Asshurim, and the Letushim, and Leummim. ⁴And the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoah, and Abida, and Eldaah: all these were sons of Keturah.

⁵And Abraham gave all his substance unto Isaac his son, ⁶and unto the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country. ⁷And these are the years of the days of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years. ⁸And Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of days, and was added to his people. ⁹And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the double cave in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is over against Mamre; ¹⁰the field and the cave which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth; there they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife. ¹¹And it came to pass after Abraham was dead, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the Well of the Vision.

¹²Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Agar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham. ¹³And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, according to the names of their generation: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth and Kedar and Adbeel and Mibsam, ¹⁴and Mishma and Dumah and Massa ¹⁵and Hadar and Tema and Jetur and Naphish and Kedemah. ¹⁶These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names in their tents and in their dwellings; twelve princes according to their nations. ¹⁷And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years; and he breathed his last and died and was added unto his family. ¹⁸And he dwelt from Havilah to Shur that is over against Egypt, until one cometh unto the Assyrians; he dwelt in the presence of all his brethren.

¹⁹And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: ²⁰Abraham begat Isaac. And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian out of Syrian Mesopotamia, the sister to Laban the Syrian. ²¹And Isaac intreated the Lord for Rebekah his wife, because she was barren; and God heard him, and Rebekah his wife conceived in her womb. ²²And the babes leapt within her, and she said, If it is to be so with me, why is this to me? and she went to enquire of the Lord. ²³And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two peoples shall be separated from thy belly; and one people shall excel the other people; and the greater shall serve the lesser. ²⁴And the days that she should be delivered were fulfilled, and she had twins in her womb. ²⁵And the first came out red, hairy all over like an hairy skin, and she called his name Esau. ²⁶And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel, and she called his name Jacob; and Isaac was threescore years old when Rebekah bare them.

²⁷And the boys grew, and Esau was a man cunning in hunting, a man of the country; and Jacob was a simple man, and dwelt in an house. ²⁸And Isaac loved Esau, because his game was meat for him; but Rebekah loved Jacob. ²⁹And Jacob sod pottage; and Esau came from the plain, and he was faint. ³⁰And Esau said to Jacob, Let me taste of that red pottage, for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. ³¹And Jacob said to Esau, Sell me this day thy birthright. ³²And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die; and for what good is this birthright to me? ³³And Jacob said, Swear to me this day, and he sware unto him; and Esau sold his birthright unto Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up and went his way: so Esau slighted his birthright.

CHAPTER 26

And there was a famine in the land, beside the former famine that was in the days of Abraham; and Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar. ²And the Lord appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt, but dwell in the land that I shall tell thee of. ³And sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee and will bless thee; for unto thee and unto thy seed I will give all this land, and I will stablish Mine oath which I sware unto

Abraham thy father. ⁴And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven and will give unto thy seed all this land; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; ⁵because that Abraham thy father hearkened unto My voice and kept My charges and My commandments and My statutes and My laws. ⁶And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

⁷And the men of the place asked him of Rebekah his wife, and he said, She is my sister; for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest at any time the men of the place should kill him for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon. ⁸And he remained there a long time, and Abimelech king of the Philistines leaned to look out through the window and saw Isaac sporting with Rebekah his wife. ⁹And Abimelech called Isaac and said unto him, Is she then thy wife? why saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. ¹⁰And Abimelech said unto him, What is this thou hast done unto us? One of my kindred had almost lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought a sin of ignorance upon us. ¹¹And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, Every man that toucheth this man and his wife shall be liable to death. ¹²And Isaac sowed in that land, and he found in that year barley an hundredfold; and the Lord blessed him. ¹³And the man was exalted, and went forward, and increased until he became very great. ¹⁴And he had flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and many tilled lands; and the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵And all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them and filled them with earth. ¹⁶And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art become much mightier than we. ¹⁷And Isaac departed thence and rested in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. ¹⁸And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which his father Abraham's servants had digged; and the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham his father; and he gave them names after the names by which his father had called them. ¹⁹And Isaac's servants digged in the valley of Gerar, and found there a well of living water. ²⁰And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's shepherds, saying that the water was theirs; and he called the name of the well Injustice; because they did him injustice. ²¹And Isaac removed from thence, and digged another well, and they strove for that also; and he called the name of it Enmity. ²²And he removed from thence and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Room; and he said, For now the Lord hath made room for us, and hath increased us upon the earth.

²³And he went up from thence unto the Well of the Oath. ²⁴And the Lord appeared unto him that same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee and will bless thee and multiply thy seed for Abraham thy father's sake. ²⁵And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the Lord, and pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants digged a well in the valley of Gerar. ²⁶And Abimelech came unto him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phichol the chief captain of his army. ²⁷And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore are ye come to me, seeing ye have hated me, and sent me away from you? ²⁸And they said, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we said, Let there now be an oath even betwixt us and thee, and we will make a covenant with thee, ²⁹that thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not abhorred thee, and as we have done thee good, and have sent thee away in peace; and thou art now the blessed of the Lord. ³⁰And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. ³¹And they rose up in the morning and sware each to his neighbour; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in safety. ³²And it came to pass in that same day that Isaac's servants came and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said, We have found no water. ³³And he called it, Oath; therefore he called the name of that city, the Well of the Oath, unto this day.

³⁴And Esau was forty years old; and he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beerli the Hittite, and Bashemath, daughter of Elon the Hittite. ³⁵And they were contentious unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

And it came to pass after Isaac was old, that his eyes were dimmed, so that he could not see; and he called Esau his elder son and said unto him, My son; and he said Behold, here am I. ²And he said, Behold, I am waxen old and I know not the day of my death; ³now therefore take thy weapons, both thy quiver and thy bow, and go out into the plain and get me game, ⁴and make me meats such as I love, and bring them to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die. ⁵And Rebekah heard Isaac speak unto Esau his son, and Esau went to the plain to procure venison for his father. ⁶And Rebekah said unto Jacob her younger son, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother saying, ⁷Bring me venison, and prepare me meats, that I may eat, and bless thee before the Lord before I die. ⁸Now therefore, my son, hearken unto me as I command thee. ⁹And go to the flocks and take from thence two kids, tender and good, and I will make them meats for thy father such as he loveth; ¹⁰and thou shalt bring them in to thy father, and he shall eat, that thy father may bless thee before he dieth. ¹¹And Jacob said unto his mother Rebekah, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man: ¹²my father peradventure will feel me, and I shall be before him as disdained, and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. ¹³And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only hearken unto my voice, and go fetch me them. ¹⁴And he went and took and brought them to his mother; and his mother made meats such as his father loved. ¹⁵And Rebekah took the goodly raiment of her elder son Esau, which was with her in the house, and put it upon Jacob her younger son; ¹⁶and she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his arms and upon the bare parts of his neck, ¹⁷and she gave the meats and the loaves, which she had prepared, into the hands of her son Jacob. ¹⁸And he brought them in to his father, and said, Father; and he said, Behold, here am I; who art thou, child? ¹⁹And Jacob said unto his father, I Esau thy firstborn have done according as thou badest me: arise, sit and eat of my game, that thy soul may bless me. ²⁰And Isaac said unto his son, What is this that thou hast found so quickly, child? And he said, That which the Lord thy God delivered up before me. ²¹And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near to me, and I will feel thee, child, whether thou be my son Esau or not. ²²And Jacob drew near unto Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. ²³And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands; and he blessed him, ²⁴and he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am. ²⁵And he said, Bring to me, and I will eat of thy game, child, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat; and he brought him wine, and he drank. ²⁶And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near to me, and kiss me, child. ²⁷And he came near, and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a full field, which the Lord hath blessed. ²⁸And God give thee of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and abundance of corn and wine. ²⁹And let nations be subject unto thee and princes bow down to thee, and be thou lord over thy brother, and thy father's sons shall bow down to thee: cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

³⁰And it came to pass, after Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob his son, it even came to pass when Jacob was gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from the hunt. ³¹And he also had made him meats and brought them unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's game, that thy soul may bless me. ³²And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy firstborn son Esau. ³³And Isaac was astonished with exceeding great astonishment, and said, Who then is it that hath procured game for me and brought it me? and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed. ³⁴And it came to pass when Esau heard the words of Isaac his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said, Bless even me also, O my father. ³⁵And he said to him, Thy brother came with subtilty and hath taken away thy blessing. ³⁶And he said, Rightly was his name called Jacob, for now this second time hath he supplanted me: he took away my birthright, and now hath taken away my blessing. And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou not left a blessing for me, father? ³⁷And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, If I have made him thy lord, and have made all his brethren his servants, and with corn and wine have strengthened him, what then shall I do unto thee, son? ³⁸And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, father? Bless even me also, O my father. And Isaac was vexed; and Esau cried aloud, and wept. ³⁹And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth and of the dew of heaven above. ⁴⁰And by thy sword shalt thou live and shalt be subject unto thy brother; and it shall come to pass whensoever thou shalt bring him down, then shalt thou loosen his yoke from off thy neck.

⁴¹And Esau was wroth with Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him; and Esau said in his mind, Let the days of mourning for my father draw near, that I may slay my brother Jacob. ⁴²But the words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah; and she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau threateneth thee, to kill thee. ⁴³Now therefore my son, hearken unto my voice, and arise and depart thou quickly into Mesopotamia unto Laban my brother in Haran. ⁴⁴And dwell thou with him some days ⁴⁵until thy brother's anger and fury turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him; and I will send and fetch thee from thence, lest peradventure I be bereaved of you both in one day.

⁴⁶And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of the sons of Chet: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of this land, wherefore should I live?

CHAPTER 28

And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of the Canaanites. ²Arise, and depart quickly into Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother. ³And my God bless thee, and increase thee, and multiply thee; and thou shalt become a gathering of nations; ⁴and give thee the blessing of Abraham my father, to thee and to thy seed after thee, to inherit the land of thy sojourning, which God gave unto Abraham. ⁵And Isaac sent away Jacob, and he went into Mesopotamia unto Laban son of Bethuel the Syrian the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

⁶And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Mesopotamia as he blessed him, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; ⁷and that Jacob hearkened unto his father and his mother, and was gone to Mesopotamia of Syria. ⁸And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the sight of Isaac his father, ⁹then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took to wife Mahalath daughter of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, sister of Nebajoth, further to his other wives.

¹⁰And Jacob went out from the Well of the Oath, and went into Haran. ¹¹And he lighted upon a certain place, and lay down there, because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of the place, and put it at his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. ¹²And he dreamed; and behold, a ladder set up on the earth, whose top reached to heaven, and the angels of God ascended and descended on it. ¹³And the Lord was established upon it and said, I am the God of thy father Abraham, and the God of Isaac: fear not; the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. ¹⁴And thy seed shall be as the sand of the earth, and it shall spread abroad to the sea, and to the south, and to the north, and to the east: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the tribes of the earth be blessed. ¹⁵And behold, I am with thee, keeping thee in every way whither thou shalt go, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee until I have done all that which I have spoken to thee of. ¹⁶And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, The Lord is in this place; and I knew it not. ¹⁷And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other than the House of God, and this is the gate of heaven. ¹⁸And Jacob rose up in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. ¹⁹And he called the name of that place the House of God; and the name of the city was called Lamluz before. ²⁰And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If the Lord be with me and keep me in this journey that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, ²¹and bring me back to my father's house in safety; then shall the Lord be for God to me; ²²and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be an house of God me; and of all that Thou shalt give me, I will tithe a tenth unto Thee.

CHAPTER 29

And Jacob lifted up his feet and went into the land of the east, unto Laban, the son of Bethuel the Syrian, and the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. ²And he looketh, and behold, a well in the plain, and there were there three flocks of sheep resting by it, for out of that well they watered the flocks; but a great stone was at the well's mouth. ³And thither were all the flocks gathered; and they were used to roll away the stone from the well's mouth, and water the flocks, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place. ⁴And Jacob said unto them, Brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. ⁵And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? and they said, We know him. ⁶And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and behold, Rachel his daughter came with the sheep. ⁷And Jacob said, It is yet high day; it is not yet time that the flocks be gathered together; water ye the flocks and depart and feed them. ⁸And they said, We shall not be able, until all the shepherds be gathered together, and they roll away the stone from the mouth of the well; then shall we water the flocks. ⁹And while he yet spake with them, Rachel the daughter of Laban came with her father's sheep; for she fed the sheep of her father. ¹⁰And it came to pass when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob came and rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ¹¹And Jacob kissed Rachel and cried with a loud voice and wept. ¹²And he told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman and Rebekah's son, and she ran and told her father according to these words. ¹³And it came to pass when Laban heard the name of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him into his house; and he told Laban all these things. ¹⁴And Laban said to him, Thou art of my bones and of my flesh; and he was with him a month of days.

¹⁵And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, surely thou shalt not serve me for nought. Tell me what thy wage shall be. ¹⁶Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷And Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in appearance and well favoured in countenance. ¹⁸And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter. ¹⁹And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me. ²⁰And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they were in his sight but as a few days, because he loved her. ²¹And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. ²²And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a marriage feast. ²³And it was even, and Laban took Leah his daughter and brought her in to Jacob; and he went in unto her. ²⁴And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for an handmaid unto her. ²⁵And it was morning and behold, it was Leah; and Jacob said to Laban, What is this that thou hast done unto me? did I not serve with thee for Rachel? and wherefore hast thou beguiled me? ²⁶And Laban answered, It is not be done in our country to give the younger before the elder. ²⁷Fulfil then her seven days, and I will give thee her also for thy service, which thou do with me yet seven other years. ²⁸And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her seven days, and Laban gave him Rachel his daughter to wife. ²⁹And Laban gave to his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be an handmaid unto her. ³⁰And he went in unto Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

³¹And when the Lord God saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. ³²And Leah conceived and bare a son to Jacob, and she called his name Reuben, saying, Because the Lord hath looked upon my humiliation and hath given me a son; now therefore my husband will love me. ³³And she conceived again and bare a second son to Jacob, and said, Because the Lord hath heard that I am hated, He hath given me this son also; and she called his name Simeon. ³⁴And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, In the present time my husband will be with me, because I have borne him three sons: therefore she called his name Levi. ³⁵And she conceived yet again and bare a son; and she said, Now yet again this time will I give thanks unto the Lord: therefore she called his name Judah. And she left bearing.

CHAPTER 30

And Rachel saw that she bare not to Jacob, and Rachel envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, Give me children; and if not, I shall die. ²And Jacob was angry with Rachel, and he said unto her, Am I in God's stead, Who hath deprived thee of the fruit of the womb? ³And Rachel said unto Jacob, Behold my handmaid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, and I also shall have children by her. ⁴And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her. ⁵And Bilhah Rachel's handmaid conceived, and bare Jacob a son. ⁶And Rachel said, God hath given judgement for me, and hath heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore she called his name Dan. ⁷And Bilhah Rachel's handmaid conceived yet again and bare Jacob a second son. ⁸And Rachel said, God hath holpen me, and I have contended with my sister, and have prevailed; and she called his name Naphtali.

⁹And Leah saw that she had left bearing, and she took Zilpah her handmaid, and gave her to Jacob to wife: and he went in unto her. ¹⁰And Zilpah Leah's handmaid conceived, and bare Jacob a son. ¹¹And Leah said, By good fortune; and she called his name Gad. ¹²And Zilpah Leah's handmaid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son. ¹³And Leah said, Blessed am I, for the women pronounce me blessed; and she called his name Ashur.

¹⁴And Reuben went in the day of wheat harvest and found apples of mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah; and Rachel said to Leah her sister, Give me of thy son's mandrakes. ¹⁵And Leah said, Is it not enough for thee that thou hast taken away my husband? shalt thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Not so: let him lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes. ¹⁶And Jacob came in out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou shalt come in unto me this day; for I have hired thee for my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night. ¹⁷And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived and bare Jacob a fifth son. ¹⁸And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my handmaid to my husband; and she called his name Issachar, which is, Hire. ¹⁹And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob a sixth son. ²⁰And Leah said, God hath given me a good gift in this time; now will my husband choose me, because I have borne him six sons; and she called his name Zebulun. ²¹And after this she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

²²Then God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her and opened her womb. ²³And she conceived and bare Jacob a son; and Rachel said, God hath taken away my reproach; ²⁴and she called his name Joseph, and she said, Let God add to me another son.

²⁵And it came to pass when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place and to my country. ²⁶Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, that I may depart; for thou knowest the service wherewith I have served thee. ²⁷And Laban said unto him, If I have found grace in thine eyes, I would have learned it by augury: for the Lord hath blessed me at thy coming in. ²⁸Appoint me thy wages, and I will give them. ²⁹And Jacob said, Thou knowest in what things I have served thee, and how many thy cattle have been with me. ³⁰For it was little which thou hadst before me, and it is increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee at my foot: now therefore, when shall I set up mine own house also? ³¹And Laban said unto him, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said to him, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again tend thy flocks, and keep them. ³²Let all thy sheep pass by to day, and set apart thence every grey sheep among the rams and every one that is speckled and spotted among the goats: this shall be my hire. ³³So shall my righteousness hearken unto me to morrow, for it is my hire before thy face: whatsoever is not spotted and speckled among the goats and grey among the rams, shall be counted stolen with me. ³⁴And Laban said unto him, Let it be according to thy word. ³⁵And he set apart in that day the goats that were spotted and speckled and all the she goats that were spotted and speckled and all that was grey among the rams and every one that was white among them, and gave them into the hand of his sons. ³⁶And he set three days' journey betwixt them and betwixt Jacob. And Jacob tended the cattle of Laban that were left behind. ³⁷And Jacob took him green rods of storax, and of walnut, and of plane tree; and Jacob pilled white strakes in them, and tore the green away. And the white strakes which he had pilled appeared grisled on the rods. ³⁸And he laid the rods which he had pilled in the gutters of the watering troughs, that whensoever the cattle should come to drink, as they should come to drink before the rods, the cattle should conceive at the rods. ³⁹So the cattle conceived at the rods; and the cattle brought forth speckled and streaked and spotted with ash colours. ⁴⁰And Jacob did set apart the lambs, and set before the sheep a speckled ram and every grisled one among the lambs; and he separated flocks unto himself alone and mingled them not with the sheep of Laban. ⁴¹And it came to pass in the time wherein the sheep came into heat, as they conceived, that Jacob put the rods before the cattle in the troughs, that they might come into heat by the rods. ⁴²But he put them not in whensoever the cattle brought forth; but the unmarked were Laban's, and the marked were Jacob's. ⁴³And the man became rich exceedingly, and had much cattle and oxen and menservants and maidservants and camels and asses.

CHAPTER 31

And Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory. ²And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not toward him as yesterday, and three days before. ³And the Lord said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy father, and to thy kindred, and I will be with thee. ⁴And Jacob sent and called Leah and Rachel to the plain where the flocks were. ⁵And he said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as yesterday and three days before; but the God of my father hath been with me. ⁶And ye too know that with all my power I have served your father. ⁷But your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages for the ten lambs; but God gave him not leave to hurt me. ⁸If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy reward; then bare all the cattle speckled: and if he said, The white shall be thy hire: then bare all the cattle white. ⁹Thus God hath taken away all the cattle of your father, and given them to me. ¹⁰And it came to pass when the cattle conceived, and were with young, that I beheld with mine eyes in sleep; and, behold, the he goats and the rams which leaped upon the sheep and the she goats, were speckled, and grisled, and spotted with ash coloured spots. ¹¹And the angel of God said unto me in sleep, Jacob; and I said, What is it?; ¹²and he said, Look up with thine eyes, and behold the he goats and the rams leaping upon the sheep and the she goats, speckled, and grisled, and spotted with ash coloured spots; for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee. ¹³I am God, Which appeared unto thee in the place of God, where thou anointedst a pillar unto Me, and thou vowedst there a vow unto Me: now therefore arise and get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy birth; and I will be with thee. ¹⁴And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there not yet a portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? ¹⁵Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured our money. ¹⁶All the riches and the glory which God hath taken from our father, it shall be ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

¹⁷And Jacob rose up, and took his wives and his children upon the camels; ¹⁸and he carried away all his goods and all his store which he had gotten in Mesopotamia, and all that pertained unto him, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. ¹⁹And Laban went to shear his sheep; and Rachel stole the images that were her father's. ²⁰And Jacob hid this from Laban the Syrian, to tell him not that he ran away. ²¹So he fled with all that he had, and passed over the river and set out toward the mount Gilead. ²²But it was told Laban the Syrian on the third day that Jacob was fled. ²³And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey, and they overtook him in the mount Gilead. ²⁴And God came to Laban the Syrian in sleep by night, and said unto him, Take heed to thyself that thou speak not at any time evil unto Jacob. ²⁵Then Laban overtook Jacob; and Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban set his brethren in the mount of Gilead. ²⁶And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done? Wherefore didst thou flee away unawares, and rob me, and spoil me, and carry away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? ²⁷And if thou hadst told me, I would have sent thee away with mirth and with songs and with tabret and with harp. ²⁸And I was not counted worthy to kiss my children and my daughters; now then, thou hast done foolishly. ²⁹And now my hand hath power to do thee hurt; but the God of thy father spake unto me yesterday, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not evil to Jacob. ³⁰Now therefore, go thy way, because thou sore longedst to depart unto thy father's house; yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods? ³¹And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid; for I said, Lest at any time thou shouldest take away thy daughters from me, and all that is mine. ³²And Jacob said, With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, he shall not live in the presence of our brethren: discern thou what is thine with me, and take it. And he discerned nothing with him, but Jacob knew not that Rachel his wife had stolen them. ³³And Laban went and searched in Leah's house, and he found them not, and went out of Leah's house, and searched in Jacob's house and in the two maidservants' house, and found them not; then went he also into Rachel's house. ³⁴And Rachel had taken the images and cast them among the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. ³⁵And she said to her father, Take it not ill, my lord; I cannot rise up before thee; for it is with me according to the manner of women. And Laban searched in all the house, and found not the images.

³⁶And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban; and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my injustice, and what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me, ³⁷and that thou hast searched all my household stuff? What hast thou found of thy household stuff? Set it here before thy brethren and my brethren, and let them judge betwixt us both. ³⁸These twenty years of mine have I been with thee: thy sheep and thy she goats have not failed in bearing: the rams of thy cattle have I not eaten. ³⁹That which was taken of beasts I brought not unto thee: of myself made I good the thefts of the day and the thefts of the night. ⁴⁰In the day I was parched with heat and chilled with frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes. ⁴¹These twenty years of mine have I been in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters and six years among thy sheep: and thou didst falsely rate my wages for ten lambs. ⁴²Except the God of my father Abraham and the fear of Isaac had been with me, thou hadst sent me away now empty; God hath seen my humiliation and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesterday. ⁴³And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the sons are my sons, and the cattle are my cattle, and all things that thou seest are mine and my daughters; what shall I do this day unto them, or unto their children which they have borne? ⁴⁴Now therefore come thou, let me make a covenant, I and thou; and it shall be for a witness between me and thee. And he said unto him, Behold, there is no man with us; behold, God is witness betwixt me and thee. ⁴⁵And Jacob took a stone and set it up for a pillar. ⁴⁶And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they gathered stones and made an heap; and they did eat there upon the heap. ⁴⁷And Laban said unto him, This heap witnesseth betwixt me and thee this day. ⁴⁸And Laban called it the Heap of Testimony; and Jacob called it, the Witness Heap. And Laban said unto Jacob, Behold, this heap and the pillar which I have set betwixt me and thee; this heap witnesseth and this pillar witnesseth: there was the name thereof called The Heap Witnesseth. ⁴⁹And the vision of which he said, Let God look to it between me and thee, for when we depart the one from the other, ⁵⁰if thou shalt humble my daughters, if thou shalt take wives beside my daughters, see no man is with us looking on; God witnesseth betwixt me and thee. ⁵¹And Laban said unto Jacob, Behold, this heap and this pillar are witness. ⁵²For if I pass not over to thee, I to thee, neither shalt thou pass over beyond this heap and this pillar unto me for mischief. ⁵³The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴And he offered sacrifice upon the mount and called his brethren, and they did eat and drink and slept in the mount. ⁵⁵And in the morning Laban rose up and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them; and Laban turned back and departed unto his place.

CHAPTER 32

And Jacob departed on his own way; and he looked up, and saw the host of God encamped; and the angels of God met him. ²And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's camp; and he called the name of that place, Encampments.

³And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, unto the country of Edom. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now: ⁵and there have come to me cattle and asses and sheep and menservants and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord Esau, that thy servant may find grace in thy sight. ⁶And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and lo, he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. ⁷And Jacob was greatly afraid and perplexed. And he divided the people that was with him, and the kine and the camels and the sheep, into two camps. ⁸And Jacob said, If Esau come to the one camp, and smite it, the other camp shall be in safety. ⁹And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Lord, Thou art He Which saidst unto me, Haste ye unto the land of thy birth, and I will do thee good: ¹⁰let there be a sufficiency for me of all the righteousness and of all the truth which Thou hast wrought with Thy servant; for with this my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two camps. ¹¹Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest peradventure he come and smite me and the mother upon the children. ¹²But Thou saidst, I will do thee good and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which shall not be numbered for multitude. ¹³And he slept there that night, and took of the gifts which he carried, and sent out to Esau his brother; ¹⁴two hundred she goats, twenty he goats, two hundred sheep, twenty rams, ¹⁵milch camels and their colts, thirty, forty kine, ten bulls, twenty asses and ten foals. ¹⁶And he gave them unto his servants, a drove apart. And he said unto his servants, Pass over before me and put a space betwixt drove and drove. ¹⁷And he commanded the first, saying, If Esau my brother meet thee and ask thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither wouldest thou go? and whose are these that go before thee? ¹⁸thou shalt say, Thy servant Jacob's; he hath sent presents unto my lord Esau: and, behold, he is behind us. ¹⁹And he commanded the first and the second and the third and all that went before him after these flocks, saying, According to this word shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him. ²⁰And ye shall say, Behold, thy servant Jacob cometh after us. For he said, I will appease his face with the gifts that go before his face, and afterward I will see his face; for peradventure he will accept my face. ²¹So went the presents on before him; but himself lodged that night in the camp.

²²And he rose up in that night and took his two wives and his two maidservants and his eleven children, and passed over the ford Jabbok. ²³And he took them, and passed over the brook, and brought over all that was his. ²⁴And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the morning. ²⁵And he saw that he prevailed not against Him, and He touched the flat part of his thigh, and the flat part of Jacob's thigh was numbed in his wrestling with Him. ²⁶And He said unto him, Let Me go, for the day is come up: but he said, I will not let Thee go, except Thou bless me. ²⁷And He said unto him, What is thy name?; and he answered, Jacob. ²⁸And He said unto him, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob; but Israel shall be thy name: for thou hast prevailed with God, and shalt be mighty with men. ²⁹And Jacob asked Him, and said, Tell me Thy name. And He said, Wherefore dost thou ask after My name? and He blessed him there. ³⁰And Jacob called the name of that place the Face of God: For, said he, I have seen God face to face, and my life was preserved. ³¹And the sun rose upon him when he passed the Face of God; and he halted upon his thigh. ³²Therefore the sons of Israel will by no means eat of the sinew which was numbed, which is upon the broad part of the thigh, unto this day, because He touched the broad part of Jacob's thigh, even the sinew that was numb.

CHAPTER 33

And Jacob looked up with his eyes and saw, and, behold, Esau his brother coming, and with him four hundred men. And Jacob divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. ²And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost. ³But he advanced himself before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. ⁴And Esau ran on to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him; and they both wept. ⁵And Esau looked up and saw the women and the children, and said, What are these to thee? And he said, The children whereby God hath mercifully blessed thy servant. ⁶And the handmaids and their children came near, and they bowed themselves; ⁷and Leah and her children came near and bowed themselves; and after this came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves. ⁸And he said, What are these things to thee, all these companies which I met? And he said, That thy servant might find grace in thy sight, my lord. ⁹And Esau said, I have much, my brother; keep thine own. ¹⁰And Jacob said, If I have found grace in thy sight, receive the presents at my hand; for therefore I have seen thy face, as though one should see the face of God, and thou shalt be well pleased with me. ¹¹Take my blessings which I have brought to thee, because God hath had mercy upon me, and I have all things. And he embraced him, and he took them. ¹²And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go onward. ¹³And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: if then I should overdrive them one day, all the cattle will die. ¹⁴Let my lord pass on before his servant, and I shall have strength on the road according to the ease of the journey before me, and according to the strength of the children, until I come unto my lord unto Seir. ¹⁵And Esau said, I will leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? It is enough that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord. ¹⁶And Esau returned that day on his journey to Seir.

¹⁷And Jacob departeth to his tents; and he made him there houses, and made booths for his cattle: therefore he called the name of the place, Booths. ¹⁸And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he departed out of Mesopotamia of Syria; and pitched his tent before the city. ¹⁹And he bought the parcel of a field, where he had pitched his tent, of Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred lambs. ²⁰And he erected there an altar, and called upon the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 34

And Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the inhabitants. ²And Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of the land, saw her and took her and lay with her and humbled her. ³And he clave unto the soul of Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake according to the damsel's heart. ⁴And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife. ⁵And Jacob heard that the son of Hamor had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the plain. And Jacob held his peace until they were come. ⁶And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him. ⁷And the sons of Jacob came out of the plain; and when they heard it the men were cut to the quick, and it was very grievous unto them, because the man had wrought a folly in Israel, having lain with Jacob's daughter: and it shall not be so. ⁸And Hamor communed with them, saying, My son Shechem hath chosen with his soul your daughter: give her unto him to wife, ⁹and make ye marriages with us: give your daughters unto us and take our daughters unto your sons. ¹⁰And dwell in the midst of us; and, behold, the land is broad before you: dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein. ¹¹And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and whatsoever ye shall name, we will give. ¹²Increase the dowry never so much, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: only ye shall give me the damsel to wife. ¹³And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully and spake unto them, because they had defiled Dinah their sister. ¹⁴And Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for it is a reproach unto us. ¹⁵Only herein will we conform unto you and dwell among you; if ye also will be as we be, in that every male of you be circumcised. ¹⁶And we will give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters unto wife, and we will dwell with you, and we will be as one people. ¹⁷But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone. ¹⁸And the words pleased Hamor, and Shechem, Hamor's son. ¹⁹And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he clave unto Jacob's daughter; and he was the most honourable of all that were in the house of his father. ²⁰And Hamor and

Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, ²¹These men are peaceable; let them with us dwell in the land, and trade therein; and, behold, the land is broad before them; we will take their daughters to us for wives, and we will give them our daughters. ²²Only herein will the men conform unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised. ²³And shall not their cattle and their herds and their substance be ours? only herein let us conform unto them, and they will dwell with us. ²⁴And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and they were circumcised in the flesh of their foreskin, every male. ²⁵And it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, that the two sons of Jacob, Simeon, and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword and came upon the city safely and slew every male. ²⁶And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. ²⁷And the sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city wherein they had defiled their sister. ²⁸And they took their sheep and their oxen and their asses and all things whatsoever that were in the city and whatsoever things were in the plain. ²⁹And all their persons and all their store and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even whatsoever things were in the house, and whatsoever things were in the plain. ³⁰And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have made me hateful, that I am evil unto all the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: but I am few in number, and they shall gather themselves together against me and cut me in pieces, and I shall be utterly destroyed, and my house. ³¹Nevertheless they said, But shall they treat our sister as an harlot?

CHAPTER 35

And God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to the place Bethel, and dwell there, and make there an altar unto the God that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother. ²And Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are with you from the midst of you, and cleanse ye, and change your garments: ³and let us arise and go up to Bethel, and let us make there an altar unto the God Who hearkened unto me in the day of distress, Who was with me, and preserved me in the way which I went. ⁴And they gave unto Jacob the strange gods which were in their hands, and their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree which is in Shechem, and let them go unto the present day. ⁵And Israel departed from Shechem, and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Israel. ⁶And Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people that were with him. ⁷And he built there an altar, and called the name of the place Bethel, because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of Esau his brother.

⁸But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel, under the oak: and Jacob called the name of it, The Oak of Mourning.

⁹And God appeared unto Jacob again in Luz when he came out of Mesopotamia of Syria; and God blessed him. ¹⁰And God said unto him, Thy name shall not be called Jacob; but Israel shall be thy name. And He called his name Israel. ¹¹And God said, I am thy God: increase and multiply; for nations and gatherings of nations shall be of thee and kings shall come out of thy loins. ¹²And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee have I given it; and it shall come to pass that unto thy seed after thee will I give this land also. ¹³And God went up from him from the place where he talked with him. ¹⁴And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where God talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon. ¹⁵And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Bethel.

¹⁶And Jacob journeyed from Bethel, and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Gader. And it came to pass when he drew nigh unto Ephrath to enter into Ephrath, that Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. ¹⁷And it came to pass when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Be of good courage; for thou shalt have this son also. ¹⁸And it came to pass when she gave up her soul, (for she was dying) that she called his name, The Son of My Pain; but his father called his name Benjamin. ¹⁹So Rachel died and was buried in the way of the course of Ephrath (this is Bethlehem). ²⁰And Jacob set up a pillar upon her tomb; this is the pillar on Rachel's tomb unto this day. ²¹And it came to pass when Israel dwelt in that land that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father Jacob's concubine; and Israel heard, and it seemed evil before him.

²²Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. ²³The sons of Leah, Jacob's firstborn, Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun. ²⁴And the sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid: Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob which were born to him in Mesopotamia of Syria.

²⁷And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto a city of the plain (this is Hebron) in the land of Canaan, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned. ²⁸And the days of Isaac which he lived were an hundred and fourscore years. ²⁹And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his family, being old and full of days; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

CHAPTER 36

And these are the generations of Esau (this is Edom). ²And Esau took unto himself wives of the daughters of the Canaanites; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the son of Zibeon the Hevite, ³and Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebajoth. ⁴And

Adah bare to him Eliphaz, and Bashemath bare Reuel. ⁵And Aholibamah bare Jeush and Jaalam and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the persons of his house and all his substance and all his cattle and all that he had got and all things whatsoever he had got in the land of Canaan; and Esau went forth from the land of Canaan from the face of his brother Jacob. ⁷For their substance was too great for them to dwell together; and the land of their sojourning could not bear them, because of the multitude of their possessions. ⁸And Esau dwelt in mount Seir (Esau, he is Edom).

⁹And these are the generations of Esau, the father of Edom in the mount Seir. ¹⁰And these are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau. ¹¹And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz. ¹²And Timna was a concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek. These are the sons of Adah the wife of Esau. ¹³And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife. ¹⁴And these are the sons of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the son of Zibeon, Esau's wife; and she bare to Esau Jeush and Jaalam and Korah. ¹⁵These are the princes of the son of Esau, even the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau; prince Teman, prince Omar, prince Zepho, prince Kenez, ¹⁶prince Korah, prince Gatam, prince Amalek. These are the princes of Eliphaz, in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Adah. ¹⁷And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son; prince Nahath, prince Zerah, prince Shammah, prince Mizzah. These are the princes of Reuel, in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife. ¹⁸And these are the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife; prince Jeush, prince Jaalam, prince Korah. These are the prince of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. ¹⁹These are the sons of Esau, and these are the princes; these are the sons of Edom.

²⁰And these are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah ²¹and Dishon and Ezer and Dishan. These are the princes of the Horite the son of Seir in the land of Edom. ²²And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna. ²³And these are the sons of Shobal; Alvan and Manahath and Ebal and Shepho and Onam. ²⁴And these are the sons of Zibeon; Ajah and Anah: this is the Anah that found Jamin in the wilderness when he tended the beasts of Zibeon his father. ²⁵And these are the sons of Anah: Dishon; and Aholibamah was the daughter of Anah. ²⁶And these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan and Eshiban and Ithran, and Cheran. ²⁷And these are the sons of Ezer; Bilhan and Zaavan and Akam. ²⁸And these are the sons of Dishan; Uz and Aran. ²⁹And these are the princes of Hori; prince Lotan, prince Shobal, prince Zibeon, prince Anah, ³⁰prince Dishon, prince Ezer, prince Dishon. These are the princes of Hori, in their principalities in the land of Edom.

³¹And these are the kings which reigned in Edom, before there reigned a king in Israel. ³²And Belah the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. ³³And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead. ³⁴And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. ³⁵And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Barad, who cut off Midian in the plain of Moab, reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Avith. ³⁶And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead. ³⁷And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead. ³⁸And Saul died, and Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. ³⁹And Baalhanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar the son of Barad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and the name of his wife was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred the son of Mezahab.

⁴⁰These are the names of the princes of Esau in their tribes according to their place, in their countries and in their nations; prince Timnah, prince Alvah, prince Jeheth, ⁴¹prince Aholibamah, prince Elah, prince Pinon, ⁴²prince Kenaz, prince Teman, prince Mizbar, ⁴³prince Magdiel, prince Iram. These be the princes of Edom, in their dwelling places, in the land of their possession: this is Esau, the father of Edom.

CHAPTER 37

And Jacob dwelt in the land wherein his father sojourned, in the land of Canaan. ²And these are the generations of Jacob: now Joseph was seventeen years old, feeding the sheep of his father with his brethren, being young, with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought unto Israel their father an evil reproach. ³And Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was to him the son of his old age, and he made him a coat of many colours. ⁴And his brethren seeing that their father loved him more than all his children, hated him and could not speak any thing peaceably unto him.

⁵And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren. ⁶And he said unto them, Hear this dream which I have dreamed. ⁷I thought that ye were binding sheaves in the midst of the field, and my sheaf rose up and was set upright; and your sheaves turned about and did obeisance to my sheaf. ⁸And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams and for his words. ⁹And he saw yet another dream, and told it to his father and to his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; as it were the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. ¹⁰And his father rebuked him and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall both I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come and bow down ourselves before thee to the earth? ¹¹And his brethren were jealous of him; but his father observed the saying.

¹²And his brethren went to feed their father's sheep to Shechem. ¹³And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed their flock in Shechem? Come, I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I. ¹⁴And Israel said to him, Go and see whether thy brethren and the sheep are well, and bring me word. And he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. ¹⁵And a man found him wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou? ¹⁶And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me where they feed their flocks. ¹⁷And the man said to him, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. ¹⁸And they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, and they wickedly took counsel to slay him. ¹⁹And each said to his brother, Behold, that dreamer cometh; ²⁰come now therefore, let us slay him and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, An evil wild beast hath devoured him; and we shall see what his dreams shall be. ²¹And Reuben heard it, and he rescued him out of their hands, and said, Do not smite his life. ²²And Reuben said unto them, Shed not blood; cast him into one of these pits that are in the wilderness, but lay not your hand upon him; that he might rescue him out of their hands and restore him to his father again. ²³And it came to pass when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat of many colours that was on him; ²⁴and they took him and cast him into the pit; and the pit was empty, and it had no water in it.

²⁵And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes, and looked, and, behold, Ishmeelite travellers came from Gilead, and their camels were heavy laden with spicery and resin and stacte; and they went to bring them into Egypt. ²⁶And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood? ²⁷Come, let us sell him to these Ishmeelites; but let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren hearkened. ²⁸And there went by the men, Midianite merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit and sold Joseph to the Midianites for twenty pieces of gold; and they brought Joseph down into Egypt. ²⁹And Reuben returned unto the pit, and seeth not Joseph in the pit; and he rent his clothes. ³⁰And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The boy is not; and I, whither am I yet to go?

³¹And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats and stained the coat with the blood; ³²and they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know whether it be thy son's coat or no. ³³And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil wild beast hath devoured him; a wild beast hath carried off Joseph. ³⁴And Jacob rent his clothes and put sackcloth upon his loins and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵And all his sons and all his daughters gathered themselves together and came to comfort him, but he would not be comforted; and he said, I will go down into Hades unto my son mourning. And his father wept for him. ³⁵And the Midianites sold Joseph into Egypt unto Potiphar the eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief cook.

CHAPTER 38

And it came to pass at that time that Judas went down from his brethren and came unto a certain man of Adullam, whose name was Hirah.

²And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanite man, whose name was Shuah; and he took her and went in unto her. ³And she conceived and bare a son; and she called his name Er. ⁴And she conceived again, and bare a son, and she called his name Onan. ⁵And she yet again conceived and bare a son, and called his name Shelah; and she was at Chezib when she bare them. ⁶And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. ⁷And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the Lord, and God slew him. ⁸And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her as her brother in law, and raise up seed to thy brother. ⁹And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass when he went in unto his brother's wife that he spilled it on the ground, that he should not give seed to his brother's wife. ¹⁰And hid doing this appeared evil in the sight of God; and He slew him also. ¹¹Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Sit thou a widow in thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown; for he said, Lest he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar departed and sat in her father's house.

¹²And the days were fulfilled, and Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted and went up unto them that sheared his sheep, he and his shepherd Hirah the Adullamite, to Timnath. ¹³And it was told Tamar his daughter in law, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep. ¹⁴And she put the garments of her widowhood from off her, and put on a veil and adorned her face and sat by the gates of Ainan, which is in the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, but he gave her not unto him to wife. ¹⁵And when Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot, because she had covered her face; and he knew her not. ¹⁶And he turned his way unto her and said, Let me come in unto thee; for he knew not that she was his daughter in law; and she said, What wilt thou give me, if thou come in unto me? ¹⁷And he said, I will send thee a kid of the goats from my flock. And she said, Well; if thou wilt give me a pledge, till thou send it. ¹⁸And he said, What is the pledge that I shall give thee? And she said, Thy signet and thy collar and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave them her and went in unto her; and she conceived by him. ¹⁹And she arose and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. ²⁰And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his shepherd the Adullamite to receive the pledge from the woman; but he found her not. ²¹And he asked the men of the place, Where is the harlot that was in Ainan by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot here. ²²And he returned to Judah and said, I have not found her; and the men of the place say, There is no harlot here. ²³And Judah said, Let her have them, but let us not be laughed at; I sent this kid, but thou hast not found her.

²⁴And it came to pass three months after that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath grievously played the harlot; and, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt. ²⁵And as they brought her forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child; and she said, Discern whose is this signet, and collar, and staff. ²⁶And Judah acknowledged them and said, Tamar is justified rather than I, because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her not again.

²⁷And it came to pass when she travailed, that she also had twins in her womb. ²⁸And it came to pass as she gave birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took hold of it, and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This one shall come out first. ²⁹And when he drew back his hand, then forthwith his brother came out; and she said, Why hath the barrier been cut through because of thee? And she called his name Pharez. ³⁰And after this came out his brother, upon whose hand was the scarlet thread; and she called his name Zarah.

CHAPTER 39

And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar the eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief cook, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither. ²And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man, and he was in the house with his lord the Egyptian. ³And his lord knew that the Lord was with him, and the Lord maketh whatsoever he doeth to prosper in his hands. ⁴And Joseph found grace in the presence of his lord, and was well pleasing to him; and he set him over his house, and all that he had he gave into the hand of Joseph. ⁵And it came to pass after that he was set over his house and over all that he had, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in his house and in his field. ⁶And he committed all that he had into Joseph's hands; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he himself did eat.

And Joseph was goodly in person and exceeding well favoured in his countenance. ⁷And it came to pass after these things that his lord's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and she said, Lie with me. ⁸But he would not, but said unto his lord's wife, If because of me my master wotteth nothing in his house, and hath committed all that he hath to my hands, ⁹and there is nothing greater in this house than I; neither hath anything been kept back from me but thee, because thou art his wife; how then shall I do this wicked thing and sin against God? ¹⁰And when she spake to Joseph day by day, and he hearkened not unto her, to sleep with her so as to know her. ¹¹It happened such a day that Joseph went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the household within. ¹²And she caught him by his garments, saying, Lie with me; and he left his garments in her hand and fled, and got him out. ¹³And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garments in her hands, and was fled and gone forth, ¹⁴that she called unto them that were in the house and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew servant unto us to mock us; he came in unto me, saying, Lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice; ¹⁵and when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garments with me and fled, and gat him out. ¹⁶So she leaveth the garments by her, until the master came to his house. ¹⁷And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant which thou broughtest in to us, came unto me to mock me, and said unto me, I will lie with thee. ¹⁸And when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garments with me and fled out, and departed forth. ¹⁹And it came to pass, when his master heard all the words of his wife which she spake unto him, saying, This did thy servant to me, that he was exceeding wroth. ²⁰And his lord took him, and cast him into the prison, into the place where the king's prisoners are kept, there in the prison.

²¹And the Lord was with Joseph and poured down mercy upon him, and gave him favour in the sight of the chief keeper of the prison. ²²And the chief keeper of the prison gave the prison into Joseph's hand, and all the men that were led away to punishment; and all things whatsoever they do there, he did them. ²³Because of him the chief keeper of the prison knew nothing, for all things were in Joseph's hands; because the Lord was with him, and whatsoever things he did, the Lord made them to prosper in his hands.

CHAPTER 40

And it came to pass after these things that the chief cupbearer of the king of Egypt and his baker transgressed against their lord the king of Egypt. ²And Pharaoh was wroth with his two eunuchs, with the chief cupbearer and with the chief baker. ³And he put them in ward into the prison, into the place whereinto Joseph had been led. ⁴And the chief keeper of the prison committed them to Joseph, and he stood by them; and they were some days in the prison. ⁵And they saw a dream both of them, in one night; and the vision of the dream of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker which were of the king of Egypt, which were in the prison, was this. ⁶And Joseph came in unto them in the morning and saw them, and they were troubled. ⁷And he asked Pharaoh's eunuchs that were with him in the ward of his master's house, saying, Wherefore is it that your faces are sad today? ⁸And they said unto him, We have seen a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Is not the interpretation of them through God? then tell me them. ⁹And the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said, In my sleep a vine was before me. ¹⁰And in the vine were three stems; and it budded and shot forth blossoms; the grapes of a cluster of grapes were ripe. ¹¹And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the bunch of grapes and pressed it into the cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. ¹²And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days; ¹³yet three days, and Pharaoh shall remember thine office, and shall restore thee unto thy place of chief cupbearer; and thou shalt give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, according to thy former high place, when thou wast wont to be cupbearer. ¹⁴But remember thou me of thyself when it shall be well with thee, and thou shalt deal mercifully with me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this dungeon. ¹⁵For surely I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; here also have I done nothing, but they have cast me into this pit. ¹⁶And the chief baker saw that he interpreted rightly, and he said unto Joseph, I also saw a dream, and methought I took up three baskets of meal loaves on my head; ¹⁷and in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of the baker's work which Pharaoh eateth; and the birds of heaven did eat them out of the basket that was upon my head. ¹⁸And Joseph answered and said unto him, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days; ¹⁹yet three days, and Pharaoh shall take away thy head from off thee and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds of the air shall eat thy flesh from off thee. ²⁰And it came to pass the third day that it was Pharaoh's birthday that he made a feast unto all his servants; and he remembered the office of the chief cupbearer and the office of the chief baker among his servants. ²¹And he restored the chief cupbearer unto his office; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. ²²And he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. ²³Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

CHAPTER 41

And it came to pass after two years of days that Pharaoh saw a dream: he thought that he stood by the river, ²and, behold, there came up as it were out of the river seven well favoured kine and choicefleshed, and they fed in the sedge. ³And seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed, and fed by the other kine upon the brink of the river. ⁴And the seven ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and choicefleshed kine; and Pharaoh awoke. ⁵And he dreamed again, and, behold, seven ears came up upon one stalk, choice and good. ⁶And, behold, seven ears, thin and blasted with the wind, grew up after them. ⁷And the seven thin ears and blasted with the wind devoured the seven choice and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream.

⁸And it was morning, and his soul was troubled; and he sent and called all the interpreters of Egypt, and all her wise men: and Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was none to tell it unto Pharaoh. ⁹Then spake the chief cupbearer unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my fault this day: ¹⁰Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put us in prison in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker. ¹¹And we saw a dream both in one night, I and he; we saw each according to his dream. ¹²And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew servant of the captain of the guard; and we told them unto him, and he interpreted them to us. ¹³And it came to pass, as he interpreted them to us so also it came to pass; both that I was restored unto mine office, and that he was hanged.

¹⁴Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him out of the prison and shaved him and changed his raiment; and he came unto Pharaoh. ¹⁵And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have seen a vision, and there is none to interpret it; and I have heard men say of thee that thou dost hear dreams and interpret them. ¹⁶And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying,

Without God there shall not be given Pharaoh an answer of safety. ¹⁷And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, In my dream methought I stood by the bank of the river; ¹⁸and there came up as it were out of the river seven kine well favoured and choicefleshed, and they fed in the sedge. ¹⁹And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, evil and ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw worse in all the land of Egypt; ²⁰and the seven ill favoured and lean kine did eat up the first seven good and choice kine. ²¹And they went into their bellies, and it was not perceptible that they had gone into their bellies; and their appearance was ill favoured, as also at the beginning. And after I awoke, I slept; ²²and I saw again in my sleep, and as it were seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good; ²³and seven other ears, thin, and blasted with the wind, sprung up close to them. ²⁴And the seven thin and blasted ears devoured the seven fine and full ears: so I told to the interpreters; but there was none to tell it to me.

²⁵And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: whatsoever God doeth, He hath shewed Pharaoh. ²⁶The seven good kine are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream of Pharaoh is one. ²⁷And the seven thin kine that came up after them are seven years, and the seven ears thin and blasted with the wind are seven years: there shall be seven years of famine. ²⁸And as for the word which I have spoken unto Pharaoh, God hath shewed unto Pharaoh whatsoever He is about to do. ²⁹Behold, for seven years there cometh great plenty in all the land of Egypt. ³⁰But there shall come after them seven years of famine, and they shall forget the plenty that shall be in all Egypt; and the famine shall cover the land. ³¹And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of the famine that shall be after this; for it shall be very grievous. ³²And for the doubling of the dream unto Pharaoh twice, it is because the saying which is from God shall be true, and God will make haste to accomplish it. ³³Now therefore look out a man wise and prudent and set him over the land of Egypt. ³⁴And let Pharaoh make and appoint local governors over the land; and let them take up a fifth part of all the produce of the land of Egypt for the seven years of plenteousness. ³⁵And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and let the corn be gathered up under the hand of Pharaoh; let the food be kept in the cities. ³⁶And the food that is stored shall be for the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; and the land shall not be utterly destroyed through the famine.

³⁷And the word was pleasing in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Shall we find such a one as this, which hath the spirit of God in him? ³⁹So Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all these things, there is not a man wiser or more discreet than thou. ⁴⁰Thou shalt be over my house, and all my people shall be obedient to thy mouth: only in the throne will I be above thee. ⁴¹And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Behold, I set thee this day over all the land of Egypt. ⁴²And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph's hand, and put on him a robe of fine linen, and put a collar of gold about his neck; ⁴³and he mounted him in the second chariot of them that were his, and an herald cried him; and he set him over all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁴And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh: without thee shall no man lift up his hand in all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁵And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife Aseneth the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of Heliopolis. ⁴⁶And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt.

And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷And in the seven years of plenteousness the land brought forth by handfuls. ⁴⁸And he gathered up all the food of the seven years in which was the plenteousness in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; the food of the field of a city round about it, laid he up in the same. ⁴⁹And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until it could not be numbered; for there was no number.

⁵⁰And unto Joseph were born two sons before the seven years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of Heliopolis bare unto him. ⁵¹And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For God hath made me forget all my pain, and all things that pertain to my father. ⁵²And the name of the second called he Ephraim: For God hath increased me in the land of my humiliation.

⁵³And the seven years of plenteousness that was in the land of Egypt passed away. ⁵⁴And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said, and the dearth was in all the land; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread loaves. ⁵⁵And all the land of Egypt was famished, and the people cried unto Pharaoh for bread loaves. And Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph, and whatsoever he saith to you, do. ⁵⁶And the famine was over the face of all the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold unto all the Egyptians. ⁵⁷And all countries came into Egypt for to buy of Joseph, because that the famine prevailed in all the earth.

CHAPTER 42

And when Jacob saw that there was a sale in Egypt, he said unto his sons, Why are ye idle? ²Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us a little food, that we may live, and not die. ³And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn out of Egypt. ⁴But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, he sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure sickness befall him.

⁵And the sons of Israel came to buy with those that came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Joseph was governor of the land: he sold to all the people of the land; and Joseph's brethren came, and did reverence unto him, with their faces to the earth. ⁷And when Joseph saw his brethren, he knew them, and made himself strange unto them, and spake hard words unto them; and he said unto them, Whence are ye come? And they said, From out of the land of Canaan, to buy food. ⁸And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. ⁹And Joseph remembered his dream which he saw, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to observe the marks of the land ye are come. ¹⁰But they said, Nay, lord; to buy food are thy servants come. ¹¹We are all one man's sons; we are peaceable, thy servants are no spies. ¹²And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the marks of the land ye are come. ¹³And they said, We thy servants are twelve brethren, in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, but the other is not. ¹⁴And Joseph said unto them, That is it which I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies: ¹⁵herein ye shall be manifest; by the health of Pharaoh ye shall not depart hence, except your youngest brother come hither. ¹⁶Send one of you and take your brother and go ye to prison, until your words be manifest, whether ye speak the truth or not; but if not, by the health of Pharaoh verily ye are spies. ¹⁷And he put them in ward three days.

¹⁸And he said unto them the third day, This do, and ye shall live; for I fear God: ¹⁹if ye be peaceable let one of your brethren be confined in the prison; but go ye, carry back the purchase of your gift of corn. ²⁰And bring your younger brother unto me, and your words shall be believed; but if not, ye shall die. And they did so. ²¹And each said unto his brother, Yea, verily; for we be at fault concerning our brother, when we regarded not the anguish of his soul when he besought us and we hearkened not to him; and therefore is this affliction come upon us. ²²And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not hurt the boy; and ye heard me not? and, behold, his blood is required. ²³But they knew not that Joseph heard them; for there was an interpreter between them. ²⁴And Joseph turned away from them and wept; and he came to them again, and spake unto them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before them. ²⁵Then Joseph commanded to fill their vessels with corn, and to return their money each into his sack, and to give them provision for the way; and it was so done unto them. ²⁶And they put the corn on the asses, and departed thence. ²⁷And one opened his sack to give his ass provender at the place where they rested, and espied his bundle of money; for it was in his sack's mouth. ²⁸And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored to me; and, lo, this is even in my sack. And their heart was smitten with wonder, and they were troubled, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

²⁹And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them, saying, ³⁰The man, the lord of the land, spake roughly to us and put us in prison for spies of the country. ³¹And we said unto him, We are men of peace; we are not spies. ³²We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. ³³And the man, the lord of the land, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are peaceable; leave one brother here with me, and take the corn ye have purchased for your household, and be gone. ³⁴And bring your younger brother unto me: then shall I know that you are no spies, but that ye are men of peace; and I will restore to you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land. ³⁵And it came to pass, as they emptied their sacks, each man's bundle of money was in his sack; and both they and their father saw their bundles of money, and they were afraid. ³⁶And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, Simeon is not, and will ye take Benjamin away? all these things are come upon me. ³⁷And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: give him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again. ³⁸But he said, My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he only is left; and suppose it shall come to pass that he is afflicted by the way which ye go, then shall ye bring down mine old age with sorrow unto Hades. ³⁹But the famine prevailed in the land.

CHAPTER 43

And it came to pass, when they had made an end of eating up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food. ²And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face except your younger brother be with you. ³If, then, thou send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food: ⁴but if thou send not our brother with us, we will not go; for the man spake unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face except your younger brother be with you. ⁵And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, inasmuch as ye told the man that ye had a brother? ⁶And they said, The man asked us straitly of our kindred also, saying, Is your father yet alive, and have ye a brother? and we told him according to this question: could we know that he would say unto us, Bring your brother? ⁷And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and our store. ⁸And I will be surety for him; of my hand do thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee and set him before thee, I shall be guilty toward thee for ever. ⁹For had we not lingered, now we had returned twice. ¹⁰And their father Israel said unto them, If it be so, do this; take of the fruits of the land in your vessels, and carry down the man presents of gum, and honey, spices, and frankincense, and stacte, and turpentine, and walnuts. ¹¹And take double money in your hands; and the money that was brought again in your sacks, carry it back with you, lest peradventure it be an oversight. ¹²Take also your brother, and arise, go down unto the man. ¹³And my God give you favour before the man, and send away your other brother, and Benjamin; for according as I have been bereaved of children, I am bereaved of children.

¹⁴And the men took these presents and the double money, and took in their hand also Benjamin; and they rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. ¹⁵And Joseph saw them and his brother Benjamin, born of the same mother; and he said to the steward of his house, Bring the men into the house and slay beasts and make ready; for the men shall eat bread with me at noon. ¹⁶And the man did as Joseph said; and he brought the men into Joseph's house. ¹⁷And when the men perceived that they were brought in to Joseph's house they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; even to inform against us falsely and lay it to our charge and take us for bondmen, and our asses. ¹⁸And they came near to the man who was over Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the porch of the house, ¹⁹saying, We pray thee, lord; we came down at the first time to buy food. ²⁰And it came to pass when we came to unlade and opened our sacks, there was also this money of each man in his sack: we have now brought back our money by weight in our hands. ²¹And other money have we brought with us, to buy food: we cannot tell who put the money in our sacks. ²²And he said unto them, Mercy be with you, fear not; your God and the God of your fathers hath given you treasures in your sacks; and I have your good money in full. And he brought Simeon out unto them, ²³and he brought water to wash their feet, and gave their asses provender. ²⁴And they made ready their presents until Joseph came at noon; for they heard that they should dine there.

²⁵And Joseph entered into the house; and they brought him the presents which they had in their hand into the house, and they bowed themselves to him with their face to the earth. ²⁶And he asked them, How are ye? And he said unto them, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive? ²⁷And they said, Thy servant our father is well, he is yet alive. And he said, Blessed be that man unto God; and they bowed down, and made him obeisance. ²⁸And Joseph lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, born of the same mother, and said, Is this your younger brother whom ye spake of bringing unto me? And he said, God have mercy upon thee, my son. ²⁹And Joseph was troubled, for his bowels did yearn upon his brother, and he sought to weep; and he entered into his chamber and wept there. ³⁰And he washed his face and came out and constrained himself and said, Set on bread. ³¹And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians. ³²And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his seniority and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelled, every one at his brother. ³³And they took portions from him unto themselves; but Benjamin's portion was magnified beyond the portions of all five times in comparision to theirs. And they drank and were inebriated with him.

CHAPTER 44

And Joseph commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put the money of each in his sack's mouth. ²And put my silver cup into the sack of the youngest, and the price of his corn. And it was done according to the word of Joseph, as he said. ³The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their asses. ⁴And when they were gone out of the city and were not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Arise, and pursue after the men; and thou shalt overtake them, and say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good? ⁵Wherefore have ye stolen my silver cup? ⁵is it not this in which my lord drinketh? And he divineth augury with it: ye have accomplished evil in that which ye have done. ⁶And he found them and spake unto them according unto these words. ⁷And they said unto him, Wherefore speaketh my lord according unto these words? Far be it from thy servants that they should do according unto this word. ⁸If we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan the money which we found in our sacks, how should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? ⁹With whomsoever of thy servants thou shalt find the cup, let him die; and moreover we will be thy lord's bondmen. ¹⁰And he said, Now then it shall be as ye say: he with whomsoever the cup is found shall be my bondman, and ye shall be clear. ¹¹And they hastened and took down every man his sack upon the ground, and they opened every man his sack. ¹²And he searched, and began at the eldest until he came to the youngest; and he found the cup in Benjamin's sack. ¹³Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his sack upon his ass, and returned to the city. ¹⁴And Judah and his brethren came in unto Joseph, while he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground. ¹⁵And Joseph said unto them, What thing is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine? ¹⁶And Judah said, What shall we answer unto our lord? or what shall we speak? or wherein should we be justified? But God hath found out the unrighteousness of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's bondmen, both we and he also with whom the cup is found. ¹⁷And Joseph said, Far be it from me to do this thing: the man with whom the cup hath been found, he shall be my bondman; but as for you, get you up in safety unto your father.

¹⁸Then Judah came near unto him and said, Oh lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word before thee; and be not angry with thy servant, for thou art next to Pharaoh. ¹⁹Thou, lord, didst ask thy servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother? ²⁰And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and he hath a son of his old age, a young one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left behind of his mother, and his father loveth him. ²¹And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, and I will care for him. ²²And we said unto my lord, The lad will not be able to leave his father; but if he should leave his father, he will die. ²³But thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your younger brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more. ²⁴And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. ²⁵And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food. ²⁶And we said, We shall not be able to go down; but if our younger brother go down with us, then will we go down, for we shall not be able to see the man's face, our younger brother not being with us. ²⁷And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons: ²⁸and one is departed from me, and ye said that he was devoured of wild beasts, and I have not seen him until now. ²⁹If then ye take this one also from my presence, and affliction befall him by the way, ye shall bring down mine old age with sorrow into Hades. ³⁰Now then, if I go in to thy servant and my father, and the lad be not with us, and his life dependeth upon this lad's life, ³¹it shall come to pass when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die; and thy servants shall bring down the old age of thy servant and our father with sorrow into Hades. ³²For thy servant hath received the boy in charge from his father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee and set him before thee, then shall I be guilty toward my father for ever. ³³Now then, I will abide a servant with thee instead of the lad, a bondman of my lord; but let the lad go up with his brethren. ³⁴For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest I behold the evils that shall come on my father.

CHAPTER 45

And Joseph could not refrain himself when all stood by him; but he said, Send every man away from me. And there stood no man near Joseph while he made himself known unto his brethren. ²And he loosed his voice with weeping, and all the Egyptians heard, and it was come to be heard in the house of Pharaoh. ³And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled. ⁴And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt. ⁵Now therefore be not grieved, and let it not seem hard to you that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you for life. ⁶For this second year there is famine in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be ploughing nor harvest. ⁷For God sent me before you, that there might be left unto you a remnant in the earth, even to nourish a great remnant of you. ⁸Now therefore ye did not send me hither, but God; and He hath made me as a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler of all the land of Egypt. ⁹Haste ye, therefore, and go up to my father, and say unto him, These things saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all the land of Egypt: come down therefore unto me, and tarry not; ¹⁰and thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen of Arabia, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy sons, and thy son's sons, and thy sheep, and thine oxen, and whatsoever things are thine: ¹¹and there will I nourish thee; for the famine is yet for five years; lest thou and thy sons and thy substance be consumed. ¹²Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you. ¹³Therefore tell unto my father of all my glory in Egypt and all the things that ye have seen; and haste, and bring down my father hither. ¹⁴And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept upon him; and Benjamin wept upon his neck. ¹⁵And he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them; and after these things his brethren talked with him.

¹⁶And the report was carried into Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come; and Pharaoh was glad, and his household. ¹⁷And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your wagons, and get you into the land of Canaan, ¹⁸and take up your father and your substance, and come unto me; and I will give you of all the good of Egypt, and ye shall eat the marrow of the land. ¹⁹And do thou charge them thus; that they take for them wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and take up your father, and come. ²⁰Also be not sparing in regard to your stuff; for all the good of Egypt shall be yours. ²¹And the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons according to the words that were spoken by Pharaoh the king, and gave them provision for the journey. ²²And to all of them he gave two changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of raiment. ²³And to his father he sent at the same rate, and ten asses bearing of all the good things of Egypt, and ten asses bearing bread for his father for the journey. ²⁴So he sent his brethren away, and they departed; and he said unto them, Be ye not angry by the way.

²⁵And they went up out of Egypt and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father. ²⁶And they told him, saying, Thy son Joseph is alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's mind was astonished, for he believed them not. ²⁷But they told him all the words of Joseph, whatsoever he had said unto them; and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to take him up the spirit of Jacob their father revived. ²⁸And Israel said, It is a great thing for me if Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER 46

And Israel took his journey, he and all that he had, and came unto the Well of the Oath and offered sacrifice unto the God of his father Isaac. ²And God spake unto Israel in a vision of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, What is it? ³And He saith unto him, I am the God of thy fathers: fear not to go into Egypt; for I will there make thee a great nation. ⁴And I will go down with thee into Egypt, and I will bring thee up again at the end; and Joseph shall put his hands upon thine eyes. ⁵And Jacob rose up from the Well of the Oath, and the sons of Israel took up their father and their baggage and their wives, in the wagons which Joseph had sent to take them. ⁶And they took up their goods and all their substance which they had gotten in the land of Canaan: they came into the land of Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him: ⁷his sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his daughter's daughters, and all his seed brought he into Egypt.

⁸And these are the names of the sons of Israel, which went into Egypt with their father Jacob, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. ⁹And the sons of Reuben; Enoch, and Phallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ¹⁰And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Saul the son of the Canaanitish woman. ¹¹And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹²And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zerah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez; Hezron and Hamul. ¹³And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron. ¹⁴And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jaheel. ¹⁵These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, and his daughter Dinah; all the souls, sons and his daughters, were thirty and three. ¹⁶And the sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggai and Shuni and Ezbon and Eri and Arodi and Areli. ¹⁷And the sons of Asher; Jimnah and Ishuah and Isui and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber and Malchiel. ¹⁸These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, who bare these unto Jacob, even sixteen souls. ¹⁹And the sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife; Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born sons, which Asenneth, the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of Heliopolis bare unto him, even Manasseh and Ephraim. And there were sons born unto Manasseh, which the Syrian concubine bare unto him, even Machir. And Machir begat Galaad. And the sons of Ephraim, the brother of Manasseh; Soutalaam and Taam. And the son of Soutalaam; Edom. ²¹And the sons of Benjamin; Belah and Becher and Ashbel. And the sons of Belah; Gera and Naaman and Ehi and Rosh and Muppim and Huppim. And Gera begat Arad. ²²These are the sons of Rachel, which she bare unto Jacob; all the souls were eighteen. ²³And the sons of Dan; Hushim. ²⁴And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel and Guni and Jezer and Shillem. ²⁵These are the sons of Bailhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter; all the souls were seven. ²⁶And all the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his thighs, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six. ²⁷And the sons of Joseph which were born to him in Egypt were nine souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob which came with Jacob into Egypt were threescore and fifteen souls.

²⁸And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph to meet him over against the city of Heroon, in the land of Rameses. ²⁹And Joseph yoked his chariots and went up to meet his father at the city of Heroon; and he appeared unto him and fell on his neck and wept with much weeping. ³⁰And Jacob said unto Joseph, After this I will die, since I have seen thy face, for thou art yet alive. ³¹And Joseph said unto his brethren, I will go up and shew Pharaoh and say unto him, My brethren and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me. ³²And the men are shepherds, for they have been feeders of cattle, and they have brought with them their cattle and their kine and all that they have. ³³If then Pharaoh call you and say unto you, What is your occupation? ³⁴ye shall say, We thy servants are herdsmen from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen of Arabia; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47

Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh and said, My father and my brethren and their cattle and their oxen and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen. ²And he took of his brethren five men and set them before Pharaoh. ³And Pharaoh said unto Joseph's brethren, What is your occupation? and they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers. ⁴And they said unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come, for there is no pasture for thy servants' flocks, for the famine hath prevailed in the land of Canaan; now therefore let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. ⁵And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In the land of Goshen let them dwell; and if thou knowest that there be able men among them, make them rulers of my cattle.

So Jacob and his sons came into Egypt to Joseph, and Pharaoh king of Egypt heard of it. ⁶And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee: behold, the land of Egypt is before thee; in the best land settle thy father and thy brethren. ⁷And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How many are the years of the days of thy life? ⁹And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my life wherein I sojourn are an hundred and thirty years; few and evil have the days of the years of my life been: they have not attained unto the days of years of the life of my fathers, in which days they sojourned. ¹⁰And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and departed from him. ¹¹And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹²And Joseph gave provision unto his father and his brethren and unto all his father's house, with corn for each person.

¹³And there was no corn in all the land, for the famine prevailed greatly; and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan failed by reason of the famine. ¹⁴And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought, and measured out corn unto them; and Joseph brought all the money into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁵And all the money failed out of the land of Egypt and out of the land of Canaan; and all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, saying, Give us bread: and why do we die in thy presence? for our money faileth. ¹⁶And Joseph said unto them, Bring your cattle, and I will give you bread for your cattle, if your money fail. ¹⁷And they brought their cattle unto Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for their horses and for their sheep and for their oxen and for their asses; and Joseph nourished them with bread for all their cattle in that year. ¹⁸And that year passed, and they came unto him in the second year and said unto him, Must we then be consumed from before our lord? for if our money hath failed, and our substance and our cattle brought unto thee our lord, then there is nought left unto us in the sight of our lord, more than our own bodies and our lands. ¹⁹Therefore lest we die before thine eyes, and the land be made desolate, buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: give us seed, that we may sow and live and not die, that our land shall not be made desolate. ²⁰And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold all their land unto Pharaoh because the famine prevailed against them; so the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹And he brought the people into bondage unto him for servants, from one end of Egypt even to the other end, ²²except only the land of the priests: Joseph bought not this, for Pharaoh gave a portion by way of a gift unto the priests; and they did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them:

wherefore they sold not their land. ²³And Joseph said unto the all the Egyptians, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: take seed for you and sow the land. ²⁴And there shall be the increase of it, and ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be for you, for seed of the earth, and for food for you, and all for them that are in your houses. ²⁵And they said, Thou hast saved us: we have found favour in the sight of our lord, and we will be servants unto Pharaoh. ²⁶And Joseph appointed it unto them for an ordinance unto this day, to give a fifth part unto Pharaoh; except the land of the priests only, that was not Pharaoh's.

²⁷And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they gained an inheritance therein, and they increased, and multiplied very greatly. ²⁸And Jacob survived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; and Jacob's days of the years of his life were an hundred forty and seven years. ²⁹And the days of Israel drew nigh for him to die; and he called his son Joseph and said unto him, If I have found favour in thy sight put thy hand under my thigh, and thou shalt execute mercy and truth with me, not to bury me in Egypt; ³⁰but I will sleep with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me up out of Egypt and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do according unto thy word. ³¹And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Israel made obeisance, bowing himself upon his staff's top.

CHAPTER 48

And it came to pass after these things that it was told Joseph, Thy father is sick; and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, and came unto Jacob. ²And it was told Jacob, saying, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee; and Israel strengthened himself and sat upon the bed. ³And Jacob said unto Joseph, My God appeared unto me in Luz, in the land of Canaan, and blessed me ⁴and said unto me, Behold, I will increase thee, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee multitudes of nations, and will give this land unto thee and unto thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. ⁵Now therefore, thy two sons, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, as Reuben, and Simeon, they shall be mine. ⁶And the children which thou begettest hereafter shall be in the name of their brethren; they shall be called after their inheritance. ⁷And as for me, when I came out of Mesopotamia of Syria, Rachel thy mother died in the land of Canaan as I drew nigh unto the hippodrome of Chabratha of the land, to come unto Ephratha; and I buried her in the road of the course: this is Bethlehem. ⁸And when Israel beheld Joseph's sons, he said, Who are these to thee? ⁹Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me here. And Jacob said, Bring them unto me that I may bless them. ¹⁰Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age and he could not see; and he brought them near unto him, and he kissed them, and embraced them. ¹¹And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I have not been deprived of thy face; and lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed. ¹²And

Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and they did reverence unto him with their face toward the earth. ¹³And Joseph took his two sons, both Ephraim in his right hand, but on the left of Israel, and Manasseh on his left hand, but on the right of Israel, and brought them near unto him. ¹⁴But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim's head, for he was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, his hands crosswise. ¹⁵And he blessed them and said, The God, in Whose sight my fathers were well pleasing, Abraham and Isaac, the God Which continueth to feed me from my youth until this day; ¹⁶the Angel which delivereth me from all evils, bless these lads, and my name shall be called upon them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them be multiplied into a great multitude in the earth. ¹⁷Now Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, and it seemed grievous unto him; and Joseph took hold of his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. ¹⁸And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, father, for this is the firstborn: lay thy right hand upon his head. ¹⁹And he would not, but said, I know it, son, I know it: he also shall be a people, and he shall be exalted; but his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. ²⁰And he blessed them in that day, saying, In you shall Israel be blessed, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and Manasseh; and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; and God shall be with you and restore you unto the land of your fathers. ²²And I give unto thee Shechem, a choice portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.

CHAPTER 49

And Jacob called his sons and said unto them, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days. ²Gather yourselves together and hear me, sons of Jacob; hearken unto Israel, hearken unto your father. ³Reuben, thou, my firstborn, my strength and the beginning of my children, hard to be endured, hard and selfwilled. ⁴Thou wast insolent like water, burst not forth with violence. Because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then thou defiledst the couch, whereupon thou wentest up. ⁵Simeon and Levi, brethren, accomplished the injustice of their cutting off. ⁶Let not my soul come into their counsel, and let not my reins contend in their conspiracy; for in their anger they slew men, and in their passion they houghed a bull. ⁷Cursed be their anger, for it was selfwilled; and their wrath, for it was hardened: I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel. ⁸Judah, thy brethren have praised thee, and thine hands shall be upon the back of thine enemies; thy father's sons shall bow before thee. ⁹Judah is a lion's whelp: from the tender plant, my son, thou art gone up; thou hast couched, thou sleepest as a lion; and as a whelp, who shall rouse him up? ¹⁰A ruler shall not fail from Judah, nor a ruler from his thighs, until there come the things stored up for him; and he is the expectation of the nations. ¹¹Binding his foal unto the vine and the foal of his ass unto the branch thereof, he shall wash his robe in wine and his garment in the blood of the grape. ¹²His eyes shall be more gladdening than wine and his teeth whiter than milk. ¹³Zebulun shall dwell upon the coast, and shall be by an haven of ships, and shall be unto Sidon. ¹⁴Issachar hath desired that which is good, resting between the inheritances. ¹⁵And he saw the resting place, that it was good, and the land, that it was rich, and subjected his shoulder to toil, and became an husbandman. ¹⁶Dan shall judge his people, as one tribe also in Israel. ¹⁷And let Dan be a serpent in the way, besetting the path, biting the horse's heel (and the rider shall fall backward), ¹⁸waiting for the salvation of the Lord. ¹⁹Gad, a plundering troop shall plunder him; but he shall plunder them at their heels closely. ²⁰Asher, his bread shall be fat; and he shall give delicacies unto princes. ²¹Naphtali is a spreading stem, which bestoweth beauty by the fruit thereof. ²²Joseph, son that is increased; my dearly beloved son that is increased, an object of jealousy; my youngest son, turn thou unto me: ²³against whom men took evil counsel, and reproached him, and the archers pressed hard upon him. ²⁴But their bows and their arrows were crushed with force, and the sinews of their arm were slackened by the hand of the mighty one of Jacob. Thence is he that strengthened Israel from the God of thy father; ²⁵and my God helped me, and He blessed thee with the blessing of heaven from above, and the blessing of the earth which possesseth all things, because of the blessing of the breasts and of the womb, ²⁶the blessings of thy father and thy mother. It hath prevailed above the blessing of the lasting mountains and beyond the blessings of the everlasting hills: they shall be upon the head of Joseph, and upon the head of the brethren of whom he took the lead. ²⁷Benjamin is a ravening wolf; in the morning shall he eat still, and at evening he giveth nourishment.

²⁸All these are the twelve sons of Jacob; and their father spake these words unto them, and he blessed them; and every one according to his blessing he blessed them. ²⁹And he said unto them, I am added unto my people; ye shall bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰in the double cave which is against Mamre in the land of Canaan, the cave which Abraham bought of Ephron for a possession of a buryingplace. ³¹There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; there they buried Leah; ³²in the portion of the field, and of the cave that was therein, purchased of the sons of Heth. ³³And Jacob made an end of giving charges unto his sons: and he lifted up his feet upon the bed, and died, and was gathered unto his people.

CHAPTER 50

And Joseph fell upon his father's face and wept upon him and kissed him. ²And Joseph commanded his servants the embalmers to embalm his father; and the embalmers embalmed Israel. ³And they fulfilled forty days for him; for so are numbered the days of embalming; and Egypt mourned for him threescore and ten days.

⁴And when the days of mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the princes of Pharaoh, saying, If I have found favour in your eyes, speak concerning me in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, ⁵My father made me swear, saying, In the sepulchre which I digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore I will go up, and bury my father and come again. ⁶And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Go up, bury thy father, according as he made thee swear. ⁷And Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, and the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, ⁸and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house, and his kindred, and the sheep and the oxen they left behind in the land of Goshen. ⁹And there went up with him also both chariots and horsemen; and there was a very great company. ¹⁰And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they bewailed him with a great and very sore lamentation; and he made a mourning for his father seven days. ¹¹And the inhabitants of the land of Canaan saw the mourning at the floor of Atad, and they said, This is a great mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore he called his name, The Mourning of Egypt, which is beyond Jordan. ¹²And thus his sons did unto him. ¹³So his sons carried him up into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the double cave, which cave Abraham bought for possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. ¹⁴And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and those that went up with him to bury his father.

¹⁵And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead they said, Peradventure Joseph may remember evil against us and requite us all the evil which we shewed him. ¹⁶And they came unto Joseph and said, Thy father did make us swear before his death, saying, ¹⁷Thus say ye unto Joseph, Forgive them their injustice and their sin, forasmuch as they have done thee evil; and now, forgive the injustice of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept while they spake unto him. ¹⁸And they came unto him and said, We these here, be thy servants. ¹⁹And Joseph said unto them, Fear not; for I am of God. ²⁰Ye took counsel against me for evil, but God took counsel for me for good, that it might be as it is this day and that much people might be fed. ²¹And he said unto them, Fear not; I will sustain you, and your families: and he comforted them and spake kindly unto them.

²²And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his brethren, and all his father's house; and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years. ²³And Joseph saw the Ephraim's children of the third generation; the sons also of Machir the son of Manasseh were born upon Joseph's thighs. ²⁴And Joseph spake unto his brethren, saying, I die; and God will surely visit you and bring you out of this land unto the land concerning which God sware to our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. ²⁵And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, In the time of the visitation wherewith God shall visit you, then shall ye carry up my bones from hence with ye. ²⁶And Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old; and they buried his body and put him in the coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

CHAPTER 1

These are the names of the sons of Israel that came into Egypt together with Jacob their father: they came in each with their whole household. ²Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, ³Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, ⁴Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. ⁵But Joseph was in Egypt. And all the souls that came out of Jacob were five and seventy. ⁶And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation. ⁷And the sons of Israel increased and multiplied, and became many in number, and waxed exceeding strong, and the land multiplied with them.

⁸Now there arose up another king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph. ⁹And he said unto his people, "Behold, the race of the sons of Israel is a great multitude, and is mightier than we: ¹⁰come then, let us deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and whensoever there falleth out war unto us, these also shall be added unto our enemies; and having waged war against us, they will get them out of the land. ¹¹And he did set over them taskmasters to afflict them in their works; and they built for Pharaoh fortified cities, Pithom, and Raamses, and On, which is Heliopolis. ¹²But as much as they humbled them, by so much the more they multiplied and grew exceeding strong: and the Egyptians greatly abhorred the sons of Israel. ¹³And the Egyptians tyrannised the sons of Israel with rigour. ¹⁴And they grievously afflicted their lives with the hard labours in clay, and in brickmaking, and all the works in the plains, according to all the works wherein they reduced them to servitude with rigour.

¹⁵And the king of the Egyptians spake to the Hebrews' midwives: the name of the one was Shiprah, and the name of the second Puah. ¹⁶And he said, When ye do the office of midwives to the Hebrew women, and they are about to bear, then if it be a male child, kill it: but if it be a female child, save it. ¹⁷But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. ¹⁸And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why is it that ye have done this thing, and have saved the men children alive? ¹⁹And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, The Hebrew women are not as the women of Egypt, for they give birth ere the midwives go in unto them; so they bare children. ²⁰And God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied, and waxed very strong. ²¹Because the midwives feared God, they made them houses. ²²And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every male child that is born to the Hebrews, cast it into the river; and every female child, save it alive.

CHAPTER 2

¹And there was a certain man of the tribe of Levi, which took to wife one of the daughters of Levi; ²and she conceived, and bare a male child: and when they saw that he was a goodly child, they hid him three months. ³And when they could no longer hide him, his mother took for him a basket, and daubed it with pitch and with slime, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the marsh by the river. ⁴And his sister watched afar off, to wit what would befall him. ⁵And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to the river to bathe; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the basket in the marsh, she sent her maid, and took it up. ⁶And when she had opened it, she seeth the babe weeping in the ark: and Pharaoh's daughter had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. ⁷Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Wilt thou that I call to thee a nurse of the Hebrews, and she shall suckle the child for thee? ⁸And Pharaoh's daughter said, Go; and the young woman went and called the child's mother. ⁹And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take care of this child, and suckle it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and suckled it. ¹⁰And when the child was grown, she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son: and she called his name Moses, saying, I drew him out of the water.

¹¹And it came to pass in that length of days, when he was grown, that Moses went out unto his brethren the sons of Israel: and looked on their toil: and he spieth an Egyptian smiting a certain Hebrew of his brethren the sons of Israel. ¹²And looking this way and that way, he seeth no man; and he smote the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. ¹³And he went out the second day; and he seeth two Hebrew men striving together; and he sayeth to him that was in the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? ¹⁴And he said, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as yesterday thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses feared, and said, If it be thus, this thing is become known. ¹⁵Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses: and Moses departed from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian; and when he was come into the land of Midian, he sat down upon the well. ¹⁶Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, which fed their father Jethro's sheep: and they came and drew water, until they filled their pitchers to water their father Jethro's sheep. ¹⁷And the shepherds came, and drove them away: but Moses stood up, and rescued them, and drew water for them, and watered their sheep. ¹⁸And they came to Reuel their father; and he said unto them, How is it that ye are come so quickly to day? ¹⁹And they said, An Egyptian delivered us from the shepherds, and drew water for us, and watered our sheep. ²⁰And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? and why is it that ye have left the man? call him therefore, that he may eat bread. ²¹And Moses stayed with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter to wife. ²²And the woman conceived and bare a son; and Moses called his name Gershom, saying, I am a sojourner in a strange land.

²³And after those many days, in process of time, the king of Egypt died; and the sons of Israel groaned by reason of their tasks, and their cry came up unto God by reason of their tasks. ²⁴And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, and with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵And God looked upon the sons of Israel, and was made known unto them.

CHAPTER 3

Now Moses was feeding the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he brought the sheep beyond the wilderness, and came to the mountain, even to Horeb. ²And an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a fire of flame out of the bush; and he seeth that the bush burneth with fire: but the bush was not consumed. ³And Moses said, When I pass by, I will see this great sight, why the bush is not consumed. ⁴And when the Lord saw that he drew nigh to see, the Lord called unto him out of the bush, saying, Moses, Moses. And he said, What is it? ⁵And He said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place where thou standest is holy ground. ⁶And He said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses turned his face away; for he was afraid to look upon God. ⁷And the Lord said unto Moses, I have surely seen the affliction of My people that are in Egypt, and have heard their groaning by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their affliction. ⁸And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land, and to bring them into a good land and a wide, into a land flowing with milk and honey; into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergesites, and the Hevites, and the Jebusites. ⁹And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel is come unto Me: and I have seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. ¹⁰Come therefore, I will send thee unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; and thou shalt bring forth My people the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt. ¹¹And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and that I should bring forth the sons of Israel out of Egypt? ¹²And God spake unto Moses, saying, I will be with thee; and this shall be the token unto thee that I shall send thee forth: when thou bringest forth My people out of Egypt, then shall ye serve God in this mountain. ¹³And Moses said unto God, Behold, I shall go forth unto the sons of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of our fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall ask me, What is His name? what shall I say unto them? ¹⁴And God spake unto Moses, saying, I AM THE ONE THAT IS: and He said, Thus shalt thou say unto the sons of Israel, THE ONE THAT IS hath sent me unto you. ¹⁵And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the sons of Israel, The Lord God of our fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is My name for ever, and My memorial unto generations of generations. ¹⁶Go therefore, and gather the elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say unto them, The Lord God of our fathers hath appeared unto me, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, saying, I have surely looked upon you, and upon all the things which have befallen you in Egypt. ¹⁷And He said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of the Egyptians unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergesites, and the Hevites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁸And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt go in, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt; and thou shalt say unto him, The God of the Hebrews hath called us: we will go then a three days journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to our God. ¹⁹But I know that Pharaoh king of Egypt will not let you go, save with a mighty hand: ²⁰and I will stretch out My hand, and smite Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in the midst of them: and after that he will send you forth. ²¹And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and whensoever ye depart, ye shall not go away empty. ²²But every woman shall ask of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, things of gold, and of silver, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 4

And Moses answered and said, If they believe me not, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, God hath not appeared unto thee, what shall I say unto them? ²And the Lord said, What is this thing that is in thine hand? And he said, A rod. ³And He said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. ⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take hold of the tail: so he put forth his hand, and took hold of the tail, and it became a rod in his hand: ⁵that they may believe thee, that the God of thy fathers hath appeared unto thee, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ⁶And the Lord said furthermore unto him, Put thine hand into thy bosom: and he put his hand into his bosom, and brought his hand out of his bosom; and his hand became as snow. ⁷And He said, Put thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom, and brought his hand out of his bosom; and it was again restored to the colour of his other flesh. ⁸And if they will not believe thee, neither hearken unto the voice of the first sign, they will believe thee because of the voice of the second sign. ⁹And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee for these two signs, and neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou shalt take out of the river shall be blood upon the dry land. ¹⁰And Moses said unto the Lord, Pray, Lord, I have not been sufficient before yesterday, neither before the third day, neither from the time that Thou hast begun to speak unto Thy servant: I am weak in speech, and slow of tongue. ¹¹And the Lord said unto Moses, Who hath given a tongue unto man, and who hath made the very hard of hearing, and the dumb, the seeing, and the blind? have not I, God? ¹²Now therefore go, and I will open thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. ¹³And Moses said, O Lord, appoint, I pray Thee, another able person whom Thou shalt send. ¹⁴And the Lord was greatly angered against Moses, and said, Lo, is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he will surely speak to thee; and, behold, he will come forth to meet thee, and when he beholdeth thee, he shall rejoice within himself. ¹⁵And thou shalt speak to him; and thou shalt put My words into his mouth, and I will open thy mouth and his mouth; and I will teach you what ye shall do. ¹⁶And he shall speak for thee unto the people, and he shall be thy mouth; and thou shalt be to him in things that pertain unto God. ¹⁷And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, that was turned into a serpent, wherewith thou shalt work wonders.

¹⁸And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and saith, I will go and return to my brethren in Egypt, and will see if they be yet living. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in health. Now in those days, after a season, the king of Egypt died. ¹⁹And the Lord said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all them that sought thy life are dead. ²⁰And Moses took his wife and his children, and mounted them on the beasts, and he returned to Egypt: and Moses took the rod which he had of God in his hand. ²¹And the Lord said unto Moses, When thou goest and returnest to Egypt, see, all the wonders I have put into thine hands, thou shalt perform them before Pharaoh: and I will harden his heart, and he shall certainly not send away the people. ²²And thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord: Israel is My firstborn. ²³And I said unto thee, Send away My people, that they may serve Me: now if thou wilt not send them away, see, I will slay thy firstborn son. ²⁴And it came to pass that the angel of the Lord met him by the way in the inn, and sought to kill him. ²⁵And Zipporah took a stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and fell at his feet, and said, The blood of the circumcision of my son is staunched: ²⁶and he went away from him, because she said, The blood of the circumcision of my son is staunched.

²⁷And the Lord said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses: and he went, and met him in the mount of God; and they kissed each other. ²⁸And Moses told Aaron all the words of the Lord, which He sent, and all the signs which He had commanded him. ²⁹And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together the elders of the sons of Israel. ³⁰And Aaron spake all these words, which God had spoken unto Moses, and wrought the signs before the people. ³¹And the people believed and rejoiced, because that God had visited the sons of Israel, and because that He had seen their affliction: and the people bowed and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

And after this Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Send My people away, that they may hold a feast unto Me in the wilderness. ²And Pharaoh said, Who is He, that I should hearken unto His voice to send away the sons of Israel? I know not the Lord, neither will I send Israel away. ³And they say unto him, The God of the Hebrews hath called us unto Him: we will therefore go three days journey into the desert, that we may sacrifice unto the Lord our God; lest at any time death or slaughter befall us. ⁴And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, turn the people from their works? get you each of you unto your works. ⁵And Pharaoh said, Behold now, the people is very many in number; let us not give them rest from their labour. ⁶And Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and the recorders, saying, ⁷Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as yesterday and the third day: but let them go themselves, and gather straw for themselves. ⁸And the tale of brickmaking, which they themselves make daily, thou shalt lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof: for they be idle; therefore have they cried, saying, Let us arise, and sacrifice unto our God. ⁹Let the works of these men be made grievous, and let them care for these things; and let them not regard vain words. ¹⁰And the taskmasters and the recorders hastened them, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will no more give you straw. ¹¹Go ye, get you straw wheresoever ye can find it: for not aught of your rate is diminished. ¹²So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³And the taskmasters hastened them, saying, Fulfil your customary daily works, as when straw was given you. ¹⁴And the recorders of the race of the sons of Israel, which were set over them by Pharaoh's taskmasters, were beaten, saying, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your tale of brickmaking as yesterday, and the third day, and to day? ¹⁵Then the recorders of the sons of Israel went in and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants? ¹⁶There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they tell us to make brick: and, behold, thy servants are scourged; thou wilt therefore deal unjustly with thine own people. ¹⁷But he said unto them, Ye are idle, ye are idlers: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to our God. ¹⁸Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks. ¹⁹And the recorders of the sons of Israel did see themselves in evil case, because they said, Ye shall not come short of the brickmaking daily. ²⁰And they met Moses and Aaron coming forth to meet them, as they came forth from Pharaoh: ²¹and they said unto them, God look upon you, and judge, because ye have made our savour to be abominable in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in his hands to slay us. ²²And Moses turned unto the Lord, and said, Lord, I pray, wherefore hast Thou evil intreated this people? and why is it that Thou hast sent me? ²³For since the time that I went to Pharaoh to speak in Thy name, he hath evil intreated this people; neither hast Thou delivered Thy people.

CHAPTER 6

And the Lord said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with an high arm shall he cast them out of his land.

²And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the Lord: ³and I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, being their God, but My name LORD made I not known to them: ⁴and I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of the Canaanites, the land wherein they sojourned, wherein also they dwelt as strangers. ⁵And I have hearkened to the groaning of the sons of Israel, the affliction wherewith the Egyptians keep them in bondage; and I have remembered your covenant. ⁶Go, speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the dominion of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of bondage, and I will redeem you with an high arm, and with great judgment. ⁷And I will take you to Me for My people, and I will be your God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, Which brought you out from under the tyranny of the Egyptians. ⁸And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did stretch forth My hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the Lord. ⁹And Moses spake so unto the sons of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for faintheartedness, and for the hard tasks.

¹⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹¹Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he send forth the sons of Israel out of his land. ¹²And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the sons of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me? for I am without eloquence. ¹³And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to send away the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁴And these be the heads of the houses of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hannoch, and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi: this is the family of Reuben. ¹⁵And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of the Phoenician woman: these are the families of the sons of Simeon. ¹⁶And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their families: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years. ¹⁷And these be the sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, the houses of their patriarchal family. And the sons of Kohath; ¹⁸Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years. ¹⁹And the sons of Merari; Mahali, and Mushii: these are the houses of the families of Levi according to their kindreds. ²⁰And Amram took him Jochebed the daughter of his father's brother to wife; and she bare him both Moses and Aaron and Miriam their sister: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and two years. ²¹And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. ²²And the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri. ²³And Aaron took him Elizheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him both Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²⁴And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the generations of Korah. ²⁵And Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phinehas: these are the heads of the family of the Levites according to their generations. ²⁶This is Moses and Aaron, whom God told to bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt with their host. ²⁷These are they which reasoned with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and brought out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, Aaron himself and Moses.

²⁸The day wherein the Lord spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, I am the Lord: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt whatsoever I say unto thee. ³⁰And Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am not able in speech, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER 7

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. ²Now thou shalt speak to him all things that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the sons of Israel out of his land. ³But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, and I will lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring forth My people the sons of Israel with My power out of the land of Egypt with great vengeance. ⁵And all the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth Mine hand upon Egypt, and I will bring out the sons of Israel from among them. ⁶And Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, so did they. ⁷Now Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron his brother fourscore and three years old, when he spake unto Pharaoh.

⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ⁹Now if Pharaoh speak unto you, saying, Give us a sign or a wonder, then thou shalt say unto Aaron thy brother, Take the rod, and cast it upon the ground before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent. ¹⁰Now Moses and Aaron went in before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and they did so as the Lord had commanded them: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. ¹¹But Pharaoh called the wise men of Egypt, and the magicians: and the charmers also of the Egyptians did in like manner with their enchantments. ¹²And they cast down each their rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up the rods of those men. ¹³And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said unto them.

¹⁴Now the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is weighed down, so as not to send the people away. ¹⁵Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt meet him on the river's brink; and the rod which was turned into a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand. ¹⁶And thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Send My people away, that they may serve Me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou hast not hearkened. ¹⁷Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I do smite with the rod that is in Mine hand upon the water which is in the river, and it shall turn it into blood. ¹⁸And the fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall be unable to drink of the water of the river. ¹⁹Now the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron thy brother, Take thy rod in thine hand, and stretch out thine hand over the waters of Egypt, and over their rivers, and over their canals, and over their marshes, and over all their standing water, and they shall be blood: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone. ²⁰And Moses and Aaron did so, as the Lord commanded them; and Aaron lifted up his hand with his rod, and smote the water in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the water that was in the river turned he to blood. ²¹And the fish that were in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood in all the land of Egypt. ²²But the magicians also of the Egyptians did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them, even as the Lord had said. ²³And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his mind even to this. ²⁴But all the Egyptians digged round about the river, that they might drink water; and they could not drink of the water of the river. ²⁵And seven days were fulfilled, after that the Lord had smitten the river.

²⁶Then the Lord spake unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Send My people away, that they may serve Me. ²⁷And if thou be not willing to send them forth, behold, I do smite all thy borders with frogs. ²⁸And the river shall teem with frogs, and they shall go up and enter into thine houses, and into secret places of thy bedchambers, and upon thy beds, and upon the houses of thy servants, and of thy people, and in thy dough, and in thine ovens: ²⁹and the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people.

CHAPTER 8

Then the Lord spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron thy brother, Stretch forth with the hand thy rod over the rivers, and over the canals, and over the marshes, and bring up the frogs. ²And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and brought up the frogs; and the frog was brought up, and covered the land of Egypt. ³And the magicians of the Egyptians did so with their sorceries, and brought up the frogs upon the land of Egypt. ⁴And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray for me to the Lord, and let Him take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will send them away, and they shall do sacrifice unto the Lord. ⁵And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Appoint me a time when I shall pray for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to cause the frogs to disappear from thee, and from thy people, and from your houses; only in the river shall they be left behind. ⁶And he said, To morrow. He said therefore, As thou hast said, that thou mayest know that there is none other but the Lord. ⁷And the frogs shall be removed away from thee, and from your houses, and from the villages, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall be left in the river only. ⁸And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the Lord touching the curtailings of the frogs, as he had said unto Pharaoh. ⁹And the Lord did as Moses said; and the frogs died out of the houses, and out of the villages, and out of the fields. ¹⁰And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank. ¹¹But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, his heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

¹²And the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod with thine hand, and smite the dust of the earth, and there shall be lice upon man, and upon fourfooted beasts, and in all the land of Egypt. ¹³So Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and the lice were upon man, and upon fourfooted beasts; and in all the dust of the earth there were lice. ¹⁴But the magicians also did so with their sorceries to bring forth the louse, but they could not. And the lice were both upon the men, and upon the fourfooted beasts. ¹⁵Therefore the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

¹⁶And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; and lo, he will go forth to the water; and thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Send My people away, that they may serve Me in the wilderness. ¹⁷And if thou wilt not send My people away, behold, I will send the dog fly upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and upon your houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with the dog fly, even throughout the land whereon they are. ¹⁸And I will distinguish gloriously in that day the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, wherein the dog fly shall not be; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord, the God of all the earth. ¹⁹And I will put a difference between My people and thy people: and on the morrow shall this be upon the land. And the Lord did so. ²⁰And there came the dog fly in abundance into the houses of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; and the land was destroyed by reason of the dog fly. ²¹Then Pharaoh called Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, and sacrifice to the Lord your God in the land. ²²And Moses said, It cannot be so; for we should sacrifice the abominations of the Egyptians to the Lord our God: for if we sacrifice the abominations of the Egyptians before them, we shall be stoned. ²³We will go a three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the Lord our God, as the Lord said unto us. ²⁴And Pharaoh said, I will send you away, and do ye sacrifice to your God in the wilderness; but go not very far away: pray then for me unto the Lord. ²⁵And Moses said, I will then go out from thee, and I will pray unto God, and the dog fly shall depart from both from thy servants, and from thy people to morrow. Do not thou, Pharaoh, deal deceitfully any more in not sending the people away to sacrifice unto the Lord. ²⁶And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed unto God. ²⁷And the Lord did as Moses said; and He removed the dog fly from Pharaoh, and from his servants, and from his people; and there was left not one. ²⁸And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he send the people away.

CHAPTER 9

Then the Lord said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh; and thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Send My people away, that they may serve Me. ²But if thou wilt not send them away, but wilt hold them still, ³behold, the hand of the Lord shall be upon thy cattle in the fields, upon the horses, and upon the asses, and upon the camels, and upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: a very great death. ⁴And I will make a glorious distinction between the cattle of the Egyptians and the cattle of the sons of Israel: there shall nothing die of all that is of the sons of Israel. ⁵And God gave a limit, saying, To morrow the Lord shall do this thing in the land. ⁶And the Lord did this thing on the next day, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the sons of Israel died not one. ⁷And when Pharaoh saw that of all the cattle of the sons of Israel there died not one, the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heaven before Pharaoh, and before his servants. ⁹And let it become dust over all the land of Egypt; and there shall be upon men, and upon beasts, sores, blains, breaking forth upon men, and upon beasts, in all the land of Egypt. ¹⁰So he took of the ashes of the furnace before Pharaoh; and Moses scattered it toward heaven; and it became sore blains breaking forth both upon men, and upon beasts. ¹¹And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the sores; for the sores were upon the magicians, and in all the land of Egypt. ¹²And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not to them; as the Lord had appointed.

¹³And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Send My people away, that they may serve Me. ¹⁴For at this present time I send all Mine events into thine heart, and the heart of thy servants, and of thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none other such as I in all the earth. ¹⁵For now I will stretch out My hand, and smite thee and kill thy people; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth. ¹⁶And to this purpose hast thou been preserved, that I might shew My power in thee; and that My name might be declared throughout all the earth. ¹⁷As yet exaltest thou thyself to hinder My people, not to let them go? ¹⁸Behold, to morrow at this hour I will rain a very great hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the times it was created even until this day. ¹⁹Therefore now haste thee to gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the fields; for all the men and cattle as many as shall be found in the field, and shall not enter into an house, but the hail shall fall upon them, shall die. ²⁰He that feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh gathered his cattle into the houses. ²¹And he that attended not in his mind to the word of the Lord, left the cattle in the fields. ²²And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand unto the heaven, and there shall be hail on all the land of Egypt, both on the men, and upon the cattle, and upon all herb which is on the land. ²³And Moses stretched forth his rod unto heaven: and the Lord sent a voice, and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the Lord rained hail upon all the land of Egypt. ²⁴So there was hail, and flaming fire mingled with the hail, and the hail was very great, such as there was not in Egypt since the time there was a nation upon it. ²⁵And the hail smote in all the land of Egypt both man and beast; and the hail smote all the herb in the field, and the hail brake in pieces all the trees in the field. ²⁶Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, was there not the hail. ²⁷And Pharaoh sent, and called Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. ²⁸Pray then for me unto the Lord; and let him cause the voice of God to cease from being, and the hail, and the fire; and I will send you forth, and ye shall stay no longer. ²⁹And Moses said unto him, When I am gone out of the city, I will spread forth my hands unto the Lord; and the voices shall cease, and the hail and the rain shall be no more; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the Lord's. ³⁰But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye have not yet feared the Lord. ³¹And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was seeding. ³²But the wheat and the rye were not smitten: for they were late. ³³And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the Lord: and the thunderings ceased, and the hail, and the rain did not drop upon the earth. ³⁴And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunderings were ceased, he continued to sin, and hardened his heart, and his servants' hearts. ³⁵And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither did he send forth the sons of Israel; as the Lord had said unto Moses.

CHAPTER 10

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that these signs may come upon them: ²that ye may tell in the ears of your children, and your children's children, in how many things I have mocked the Egyptians, and My signs which I have done among them; and ye shall know that I am Lord. ³And Moses and Aaron went in before Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to reverence Me? send My people away, that they may serve Me. ⁴But if thou wilt not send My people away, behold to morrow at this hour will I bring an abundance of locusts upon all thy coasts. ⁵And they shall cover the face of the earth, and thou shalt not be able to see the earth: and they shall devour all that is left of the abundance of the earth, which the hail hath left you, and shall devour every tree which groweth for you in the land. ⁶And thy houses shall be filled, and the houses of thy servants, and all the houses in all the land of the Egyptians; which things thy fathers have never seen, nor their fathers, from the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And Moses turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. ⁷And Pharaoh's servants say unto him, How long shall this be a snare unto us? send the people away, that they may serve their God: or wilt thou know that Egypt is destroyed? ⁸And they brought again Moses and Aaron unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the Lord your God: but who are they that shall go with you? ⁹And Moses saith, We will go with the young and with the old, with our sons and with our daughters, and with our sheep and with our cattle: for it is a feast of the Lord our God. ¹⁰And he said unto them, Let the Lord be so with you: as I send you away, must I send away your store also? Take heed that evil lieth nigh unto you. ¹¹Not so: but let the men go, and serve God; for this ye yourselves do seek. And they drave them out from Pharaoh's presence. ¹²And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt, and let the locust come up upon the land; and it shall devour every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees, which the hail hath left. ¹³And Moses lifted up the rod toward heaven, and the Lord brought a south wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: when the morning came, the south wind took up the locusts, ¹⁴and brought them up over all the land of Egypt. And they rested in very great abundance over all the coasts of Egypt. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. ¹⁵And they covered the face of the earth, and the land was wasted; and they did devour all the herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which was left by the hail: there was left no green thing on the trees, nor on all the herbs of the field, in all the land of Egypt. ¹⁶Then Pharaoh hasted to call for Moses and Aaron, saying, I have sinned before the Lord your God, and against you; ¹⁷therefore accept my sin yet this time, and pray unto the Lord your God, and let Him take away from me this death. ¹⁸And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed unto God. ¹⁹And the Lord turned a vehement wind from the sea, and it took up the locusts, and cast them into the Red Sea; and there was not one locust left in all the land of Egypt. ²⁰And the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he sent not away the sons of Israel.

²¹Then the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, and let there be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. ²²And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was darkness, blackness, and a storm over all the land of Egypt three days. ²³And for three days saw no man his brother, neither rose up any man from his bed for three days: but all the sons of Israel had light in all the places where they dwelt. ²⁴And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Go ye, serve the Lord your God; only leave behind your sheep and your oxen: let your store also depart with you. ²⁵And Moses said, But thou also shalt give us whole burnt offerings and sacrifices, which we will sacrifice unto the Lord our God. ²⁶Our cattle also shall go with us; and we will not leave an hoof behind, for of them we will take to serve the Lord our God: but we know not in what manner we shall serve the Lord our God until we arrive thither. ²⁷But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. ²⁸And Pharaoh saith, Get thee from me, take heed that thou see my face no more; for in that day thou shalt appear before me, thou shalt die. ²⁹And Moses saith, Thou hast spoken: I will appear in thy presence no more.

CHAPTER 11

And the Lord said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; and after that he will send you away hence: and whensoever he shall send you away with every thing, he shall surely thrust you out. ²Speak therefore privily in the ears of the people, and let every man ask of his neighbour things of silver and gold, and raiment. ³And the Lord gave His people favour in the sight of the Egyptians; and they gave unto them: and the man Moses was very great in the sight of the Egyptians, and in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants.

⁴And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt. ⁵And every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Egypt that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that is beside the mill; and unto the firstborn of all cattle. ⁶And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as hath not been, and such as shall not be repeated any more. ⁷But among all the sons of Israel shall not a dog growl with his tongue, at man or beast: that ye may know by what means the Lord shall put a difference gloriously between the Egyptians and Israel. ⁸And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And Moses went out from Pharaoh in anger. ⁹And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that I may greatly multiply My wonders in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron did all these signs and wonders in the land of Egypt before Pharaoh: and the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he hearkened not to send away the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12

Then the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ²This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it is first among the months of the year to you. ³Speak ye unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month let them take each man a sheep, according to the houses of their families, every man a sheep for each household. ⁴And if they be few in an household, that there be not enough for a sheep, he shall take with him his neighbour that liveth next unto him according to the number of souls; every man according to that which sufficeth him shall make a reckoning for the sheep. ⁵It shall be unto you a sheep without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it of the lambs, and of the kids. ⁶And it shall be kept for you up until the fourteenth day of the month: and the whole multitude of the congregation of the sons of Israel shall kill it toward evening. ⁷And they shall take of the blood, and put it on the two door posts and on the upper door post in the houses, wherein they shall eat them. ⁸And they shall eat the flesh in this night roast with fire, and they shall eat unleavened bread with bitter herbs. ⁹Ye shall not eat of it raw, nor sodden in water, but only roast with fire; the head with the feet, and with the purtenances. ¹⁰Thou shalt not leave any of it until the morning; and a bone of it shall ye not break; but that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire. ¹¹And thus shall ye eat it: your loins girded, and your sandals on your feet, and your staves in your hands; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is a Passover to the Lord. ¹²And I will pass through the land of Egypt in that night, and will smite every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am LORD. ¹³And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and I will see the blood, and will protect you, and the plague of destruction shall not be upon you, whensoever I smite the land of Egypt. ¹⁴And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout all your generations; ye shall keep it a feast for a perpetual ordinance. ¹⁵Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; and from the first day ye shall utterly put away leaven out of your houses: whosoever eateth leaven, from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶And the first day shall be called holy; and the seventh day to you shall be called holy: no servile work shall ye do in them, save only that which shall be done for every soul, this only shall be done of you. ¹⁷And ye shall keep this commandment; for in this day will I bring your host out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye make this day throughout your generations a perpetual ordinance for you. ¹⁸Beginning the fourteenth day of the first month, from even shall ye eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month until even. ¹⁹Seven days' leaven shall not be found in your houses: whosoever eateth of aught that is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, both among the strangers of the land, and those born in the land. ²⁰Ye shall eat nothing leavened; but in every habitation of yours ye shall eat unleavened bread.

²¹And Moses called all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, When ye go away, take you a sheep according to your families, and sacrifice the Passover. ²²And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and when ye have dipped it in some of the blood that is by the door, ye shall touch the lintel and put it upon both door posts with the blood, even of the blood which is by the door; but ye shall not each one go out at the door of his house until the morning. ²³And the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and shall see the blood upon the lintel, and on both door posts, and the Lord will pass by the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to enter into unto your houses to smite you. ²⁴And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. ²⁵And if ye shall come into the land which the Lord will give you, according as He hath spoken, ye shall keep this service. ²⁶And it shall come to pass, if your sons shall say unto you, What is this service? ²⁷then ye shall say unto them, This Passover is a sacrifice unto the Lord, as He defended the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt, when He smote the Egyptians, but delivered our houses. And the people bowed, and worshipped. ²⁸And the sons of Israel went away, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

²⁹And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne unto the firstborn of the captive maid that is in the dungeon, even to the firstborn of all cattle. ³⁰And Pharaoh rose up in the night, and his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in all the land of Egypt; for there was not a house wherein there was not one dead. ³¹And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron by night, and said unto them, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the sons of Israel: go, serve the Lord your God, even as ye say. ³²Also take with ye your sheep and your oxen; bless me also, I pray you. ³³And the Egyptians constrained the people, that they might cast them out of the land in haste; for they said, We shall all die. ³⁴And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneaded mixture bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. ³⁵And the sons of Israel did according as Moses commanded them; and they asked of the Egyptians things of silver and of gold, and raiment: ³⁶and the Lord gave his people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, and they gave unto them; and they spoiled the Egyptians.

³⁷And the sons of Israel departed from Rameses to Succoth, to the number of six hundred thousand foot, even men, beside the baggage. ³⁸And a great mixed company went with them, also sheep and oxen, and very much cattle. ³⁹And they baked the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, unleavened bread baked in ashes, for it was not leavened; because the Egyptians thrust them out, and they could not remain, neither had they prepared for themselves provision for the journey. ⁴⁰Now the sojourning of the sons of Israel, which they dwelt in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, was four hundred and thirty years. ⁴¹And it came to pass that after the four hundred and thirty years, all the hosts of the Lord came out from the land of Egypt by night. ⁴²It is a vigil unto the Lord, that He should bring them out from the land of Egypt: that selfsame night is a vigil unto the Lord, that it should be to all the sons of Israel unto their generations.

⁴³And the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the law of the Passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: ⁴⁴And every bondservant or servant that is bought for money, him shalt thou circumcise, and then shall he eat thereof. ⁴⁵A sojourner and or hired servant shall not eat thereof. ⁴⁶In one house shall it be eaten; and ye shall not carry forth aught of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof. ⁴⁷All the congregation of the sons of Israel shall keep it. ⁴⁸And if any proselyte shall come unto you, to keep the Passover of the Lord, thou shalt circumcise every male of him; then shall he be like him that is homeborn of the land: no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. ⁴⁹One law shall there be to him that is homeborn, and unto the proselyte that hath come among you. ⁵⁰And the sons of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron for them, so did they. ⁵¹And it came to pass in that day that the Lord did bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt with their host.

CHAPTER 13

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Sanctify unto Me every firstborn, the first begotten, that openeth every womb among the sons of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is Mine.

³And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by a strong hand the Lord brought you out from thence: and there shall no leaven be eaten. ⁴For on this day go ye out in the month of the new corn. ⁵And it shall be whensoever the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and the Gergesites, and the Perizzites, which He sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt perform this service in this month. ⁶Six days ye shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day there is a feast to the Lord. ⁷Unleavened bread shall ye eat seven days; and there shall nothing leavened be seen with thee, neither shall thou have leaven in all thy borders. ⁸And thou shalt tell thy son in that day, saying, Therefore did the Lord God thus do unto me, when I went forth out of Egypt. ⁹And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial before thine eyes, that the Lord's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the Lord God brought thee out of Egypt. ¹⁰And keep ye this ordinance according to the times of the seasons from days to days. ¹¹And it shall be, when the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land of the Chanaanites, as He sware unto thy fathers, and shall give it thee, ¹²that thou shalt set apart every thing that openeth the matrix, the males to the Lord, every one that openeth the matrix out of the herds, or among thy cattle, as many as thou shalt have: the males shalt thou sanctify unto the Lord. ¹³Every thing opening the matrix of an ass thou shalt change for a sheep; and if thou wilt not change it, thou shalt redeem it: every firstborn of man of thy sons shalt thou redeem. ¹⁴And if thy son ask thee hereafter, saying, What is this? then thou shalt say unto him, With a strong hand the Lord brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹⁵And when Pharaoh hardened his heart not to send us away, He slew every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice every offspring that openeth the matrix, the males to the Lord; and every firstborn of my sons will I redeem. ¹⁶And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and immoveable before thine eyes: for thus hath said the Lord Almighty, 'Every firstborn of thy sons will ye give Me: for with a strong hand the Lord brought thee forth out of Egypt.

¹⁷And when Pharaoh had sent the people away, God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, because it was near; for God said, Lest at any time the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt. ¹⁸And God led the people about, by the way unto the wilderness, to the Red Sea: and in the fifth generation the sons of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁹And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the sons of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall bring my bones thence with you. ²⁰And the sons of Israel departed from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. ²¹And God led them in the day by a pillar of cloud, to shew them the way; and in the night by a pillar of fire. ²²And the pillar of cloud departed not by day, neither the pillar of fire by night, from before all the people.

CHAPTER 14

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and let them turn and encamp over against the village, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon; before them shalt thou encamp by the sea. ³And Pharaoh will say to his people, As for these sons of Israel, they wander in the land; for the wilderness hath shut them in. ⁴Now will I harden Pharaoh's heart, and he shall pursue after them; and I will be glorified in Pharaoh, and in all his host; and all the Egyptians shall know that I am LORD. And they did so. ⁵And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh was turned, and that of his servants against the people; and they said, What is this that we have done, in that we have sent the sons of Israel away, that they should not serve us? ⁶So Pharaoh yoked his chariots, and led away his people with him: ⁷and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the horse of the Egyptians, and captains over all of them. ⁸And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the sons of Israel: and the sons of Israel went out with an high hand. ⁹And the Egyptians pursued after them, and found them encamped by the sea; and all the horse and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his host were before the village, over against Baal-zephon. ¹⁰And Pharaoh drew nigh, and the sons of Israel lifted up their eyes, and beheld; and the Egyptians encamped behind them; and they were sore afraid: and the sons of Israel cried out unto the Lord; ¹¹and they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou brought us forth to slay us in the wilderness? What is this that thou hast done unto us, in bringing us forth out of Egypt? ¹²Is not this the word we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in this wilderness. ¹³And Moses said unto the people, Be of good courage: stand still, and see the salvation which is of the Lord, which He will work for us this day: for as ye have seen the Egyptians to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. ¹⁴The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

¹⁵And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto Me? speak unto the sons of Israel, and let them break camp. ¹⁶And lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and let the sons of Israel go into the midst of the sea on the dry ground. ¹⁷And behold, I will harden the heart of Pharaoh, and of all the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will be glorified upon Pharaoh, and upon his chariots, and upon his horses. ¹⁸And all the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I am glorified upon Pharaoh, and upon his chariots, and upon his horses. ¹⁹And the angel of the Lord, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud also removed from before them, and stood behind them. ²⁰And it went between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel, and stood; and there was darkness and blackness: and the night passed, and they came not near to one another during the whole night. ²¹And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord carried back the sea with a strong south wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the water was divided. ²²And the sons of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry land: and the water thereof was a wall on the right hand, and on the left. ²³And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. ²⁴And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the Lord looked forth upon the camp of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and troubled the camp of the Egyptians, ²⁵and bound the axles of their chariots together, and caused them to go heavily: and the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians. ²⁶And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, and let the water return again to the place thereof; and let it cover the Egyptians, both the chariots, and the riders. ²⁷And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the water returned to the place thereof toward day; and the Egyptians fled under the water; and the Lord shook off the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. ²⁸And the water returned, and covered the chariots, and the riders, and all the hosts of Pharaoh that entered into the sea after them; and there was left not even one of them. ²⁹But the sons of Israel went across dry land in the midst of the sea; and the water was a wall unto them on the right hand, and a wall on the left. ³⁰And the Lord delivered Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead along the shore of the sea. ³¹And Israel saw the mighty hand, the things which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and His servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15

Then sang Moses and the sons of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, Let us sing unto the Lord, for gloriously is He glorified: horse and rider hath He thrown into the sea. ²He was unto me an helper and protector for salvation: this is my God, and I will glorify Him; my father's God, and I will exalt Him. ³The Lord that bringeth wars to nought, LORD is His name. ⁴Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea; the chosen mounted captains were swallowed up in the Red Sea. ⁵He covered them with the sea; they sank into the deep as a stone. ⁶Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorified in power; Thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemies. ⁷And in the abundance of Thy glory Thou hast broken the adversaries to pieces: Thou sentest forth Thy wrath; it devoured them as stubble. ⁸And at the breath of Thine anger the waters parted asunder: the waters were congealed as a wall; the waves were condensed in the midst of the sea. ⁹The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoils I will satisfy my soul, I will destroy with my sword; my hand shall have dominion. ¹⁰Thou sentest forth Thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty water. ¹¹Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like Thee? glorified in holiness, marvellous in glories, doing wonders. ¹²Thou stretchedst out Thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. ¹³Thou in Thy righteousness hast guided this Thy people, which Thou hast redeemed: Thou hast called them by Thy strength into Thy holy resting place. ¹⁴The nations did hear, and were angry: pangs took hold of them that dwell among the Philistines. ¹⁵Then the rulers of Edom did hasten, the princes of the Moabites also; trembling took hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away. ¹⁶Let trembling and fear fall upon them; by the greatness of Thine arm let them become as stone; till Thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over, which Thou hast purchased. ¹⁷Bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Thine inheritance; even in Thy prepared habitation, which Thou, O Lord, hast prepared: even the sanctuary, O Lord, which Thy hands have made ready. ¹⁸The Lord reigneth for ever and ever. ¹⁹For the horse of Pharaoh went in with the chariots and with the horsemen, and the Lord brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the sons of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

²⁰And, Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand: and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. ²¹And Miriam led them, saying, Let us sing unto the Lord, for gloriously is He glorified; horse and rider hath He thrown into the sea.

²²So Moses brought up the sons of Israel from the Red Sea, and brought them into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water to drink. ²³And they came to Marah, and could not drink of the water of Marah, for it was bitter; therefore named he the name of that place Bitterness. ²⁴And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? ²⁵And Moses cried unto the Lord: and the Lord shewed him wood; and he cast it into the water, and the water was made sweet: there He established to him ordinances and judgments; and there He proved him.

²⁶And He said, If thou wilt indeed hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do things that are pleasing before Him, and wilt give ear to His commandments, and keep all His ordinances: I will bring no disease upon thee which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

²⁷And they came to Elim, and there were there twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten date palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER 16

And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai. And on the fifteenth day, in the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt, ²the whole congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron. ³And the sons of Israel said unto them, Would that we had died smitten by the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and did eat bread to the full: for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. ⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven upon you; and the people shall go out, and shall gather their daily portion for the day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My law, or no. ⁵And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare whatsoever they have brought in; and it shall be double of that which they have gathered for the day, daily. ⁶And Moses and Aaron said unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, At even ye shall know that the Lord hath brought you out from the land of Egypt: ⁷and in the morning ye shall see the glory of the Lord; for that He heareth thy murmuring against God: and what are we, that ye continue to murmur against us? ⁸And Moses said, This shall be, when the Lord shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the Lord hath heard your murmuring which ye murmur against us: and what are we? For your murmuring is not against us, but against God. ⁹And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, 'Come near before God: for He hath heard your murmuring. ¹⁰And when Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, and they turned toward the wilderness, then the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud. ¹¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹²I have heard the murmuring of the sons of Israel: speak unto them, saying, Toward even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God. ¹³And it was even, and quails came up, and covered the camp: ¹⁴in the morning it came to pass, as the dew lifted round about the camp, that, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there was a small thing like coriander seed, white, as hoar frost on the ground. ¹⁵And when the sons of Israel saw it, they said, What is this?; for they wist not what it was: and Moses said unto them, ¹⁶This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat. This is that which the Lord hath commanded, Gather of it each man for his family, an omer for each person, according to the number of your souls; gather of it each of you with them that lodge with him. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel did so, and gathered, some much, and some less. ¹⁸And having meted out the omer full, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered less had no lack; each man gathered according to the need of them that were in his own house. ¹⁹And Moses said unto them, Let no man leave of it till the morning. ²⁰But they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was vexed with them. ²¹And they gathered it every morning, each man what he had need of: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted. ²²And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered double what was needed, two omers for each man: and all the chiefs of the congregations came and told Moses. ²³And Moses said unto them, Is not this the word which the Lord spake? To morrow is the sabbath, an holy rest unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake, and seethe that ye will seethe; and all that which remaineth over, leave ye to be laid up until the morning. ²⁴And they left of it till the morning, as Moses bade them: and it did not stink, neither was there a worm therein. ²⁵And Moses said, Eat to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the Lord: it shall not be found in the field. ²⁶Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day is a sabbath unto the Lord; there shall be none in it. ²⁷And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none. ²⁸And the Lord said unto Moses, How long are ye unwilling to hearken unto My commandments and My laws? ²⁹See, for the Lord hath given you this day as the sabbath, therefore hath He given you on the sixth day the bread of two days; ye shall sit, each of you in your houses; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. ³⁰And the people kept sabbath on the seventh day. ³¹And the sons of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was white like coriander seed; and the taste of it was like a wafer with honey. ³²And Moses said, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, Fill an omer with manna to be laid up for your generations; that they may see the bread which ye ate in the wilderness, when the Lord brought you forth from the land of Egypt. ³³And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a golden pot, and put an omer full of manna therein; and thou shalt lay it up before the Lord, to be kept for your generations, ³⁴as the Lord commanded Moses; and Aaron laid it up before the witness, to be kept. ³⁵And the sons of Israel did eat Man forty years; until they came to the land they did eat the manna, until they came unto the region of Phoenicia. ³⁶Now the omer was the tenth part of three measures.

CHAPTER 17

And all the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin, according to their encampments, by the word of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

²And the people did chide with Moses, saying, Give us water that we may drink: and Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? and wherefore do ye tempt the Lord? ³And the people thirsted there for water; and there the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this? hast thou brought us up out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? ⁴And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, What shall I do unto this people? but a little while, they will stone me. ⁵And the Lord said unto Moses, Go on before this people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and thou shalt go. ⁶I stand here before thou come, upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, and the people shall drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the sons of Israel. ⁷And he called the name of the place Temptation and Chiding, because of the chiding of the people of Israel, and because they tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among us, or not?

⁸Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. ⁹And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose thee capable men, and go out, and set the army in array against Amalek to morrow; and, behold, I will stand on the top of the hill; and the rod of God shall be in mine hand. ¹⁰So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and went out, and set the army in array against Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹And it came to pass, when Moses lifted up his hands, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hands, Amalek prevailed. ¹²But Moses' hands were heavy: and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and Moses' hands were stayed until the going down of the sun. ¹³And Joshua routed Amalek and all his people with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴Then said the Lord unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and give it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. ¹⁵And Moses built an altar unto the Lord, and called the name of it LORD is my Refuge. ¹⁶For with a secret hand the Lord wagemeth war upon Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER 18

Now Jethro the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Israel his people: for the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt. ²And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after that she had been sent away, ³and her two sons: the name of the one was Gershom, saying, I have been a sojourner in a strange land: ⁴and the name of the second was Eliezer, saying, For the God of my father is mine help, and He hath delivered me from the hand of Pharaoh. ⁵And Jethro, Moses' father in law, and his sons, and his wife, went forth unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God. ⁶And it was told Moses, saying, Behold, thy father in law Jethro is come unto thee, and thy wife, and thy two sons with him. ⁷And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance unto him, and kissed him; and they greeted one another; and he brought them into the tent. ⁸And Moses told his father in law all that the Lord had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and that the Lord delivered them out of the hand of Pharaoh, and out of hand of the Egyptians. ⁹And Jethro was astonished for all the good things which the Lord had done to them, forasmuch as He delivered them out of the hands of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh. ¹⁰And Jethro said, Blessed be the Lord, for He hath delivered them out of the hands of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh. ¹¹Now I know that the Lord is great above all gods because of this wherein they did attack them. ¹²And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took whole burnt offerings and sacrifices to God: for Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

¹³And it came to pass after the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: now all the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening. ¹⁴And Jethro saw saw all that he did to the people, and saith, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even? ¹⁵And Moses saith unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to seek judgment of God. ¹⁶For whensoever there is a dispute among them, and they come unto me, I give judgment upon each, and teach them the statutes of God, and His law. ¹⁷Then Moses' father in law said unto him, Thou doest not this thing rightly: ¹⁸thou wilt wear away with weariness intolerable, both thou, and all this people that is with thee: this thing is too heavy for thee; and thou wilt not be able to endure it alone. ¹⁹Hearken now unto me, and I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: be thou for the people in the things pertaining to God, and thou shalt bring their words unto God. ²⁰And thou shalt testify unto them the ordinances of God, and His law, and shalt shew them the ways wherein they shall walk, and the works that they shall do. ²¹And do thou seek for thyself out of all the people able men, such as fear God, righteous men, that hate pride; and thou shall place over the people captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, and captains of tens. ²²And they shall judge the people at all seasons: and the matter that is too burdensome shall they shall bring unto thee, but the smaller matters they shall judge: so shall they relieve thee, and help thee. ²³If thou shalt do this thing, God shall strengthen thee, and thou shalt be able to stand, and all the people shall go to their own place in peace. ²⁴And Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did whatsoever he said unto him. ²⁵And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens over them. ²⁶And they judged the people at every season; and every burdensome matter they brought unto Moses, but every light matter they judged themselves. ²⁷Then Moses sent his father in law away; and he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER 19

Now in the third month, when the sons of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai. ²And they departed from Rephadim, and came to the wilderness of Sinai; and there Israel camped before the mount. ³And Moses went up unto the mount of God, and God called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shall ye say to the house of Jacob, and thou shalt tell them to the sons of Israel. ⁴Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians; and I took you up as on eagles' wings, and brought you nigh unto Myself. ⁵And now, if ye will hearken to My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar people unto Me above all nations: for all the earth is Mine. ⁶And ye shall be unto Me a royal priesthood, and an holy nation. These words shalt thou speak unto the sons of Israel. ⁷And Moses came, and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which God appointed him. ⁸And all the people answered with one voice, and said, All that God hath spoken we will do, and hearken unto. And Moses carried the words of the people unto the Lord. ⁹And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I am come unto thee in a pillar of cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the Lord. ¹⁰And the Lord said unto Moses, When thou goest down, do thou solemnly testify unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes; ¹¹and let them be ready against the third day: for on the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. ¹²And thou shalt separate the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, nor touch any part of it: every one that toucheth the mount shall surely die. ¹³There shall not an hand touch it, for he shall be stoned with stones, or shot through with a dart; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the voices and trumpets and cloud depart from off the mount, they shall come up to the mount. ¹⁴And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified them; and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵And he said unto the people, Be ready; for three days come not near a woman. ¹⁶And it came to pass on the third day, as it was toward the dawning of the day, that there were voices, and lightnings, and a dark cloud upon mount Sinai: the voice of the trumpet sounded loud, and all the people that was in the camp trembled. ¹⁷And Moses led forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood by under the mount. ¹⁸Now the mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke ascended as the smoke of a furnace; and the people were exceeding astonished. ¹⁹And the sounds of the trumpet waxed louder and louder. Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. ²⁰And the Lord came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up. ²¹And God spake unto Moses, saying, Go down, and solemnly charge the people, lest at any time they come near to God to observe, and a multitude of them fall. ²²And let the priests, which come near to the Lord God, sanctify themselves, lest the Lord do away with some of them. ²³And Moses said unto God, The people will not be able to ascend to the mount Sinai: for Thou hast solemnly testified unto us, saying, Set a bound to the mount, and sanctify it. ²⁴And the Lord said unto him, Go, get thee down, and come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people use force to come up unto God, lest the Lord destroy some of them. ²⁵And Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAPTER 20

And the Lord spake all these words, saying, ²I am the Lord thy God, Which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of an house of bondage. ³Thou shalt have no other gods beside Me. ⁴Thou shalt not make unto thee an idol, or likeness of any thing, whatsoever things are in the heaven above, and whatsoever is in the earth beneath, and whatsoever is in the waters under the earth. ⁵Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor art thou to serve them: for I am Lord thy God, a jealous God, recompensing the sins of the fathers upon children unto the third and fourth generation unto them that hate Me; ⁶and doing mercy unto thousands, unto them that love Me and keep My commandments. ⁷Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not acquit him that taketh His name in vain. ⁸Remember the day of the sabbaths, to hallow it. ⁹Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: ¹⁰but on the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt do no work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, thine ox, nor thine ass, nor the stranger that dwelleth with thee. ¹¹For in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all things that in them are, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it. ¹²Honour thy father and mother, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest live long upon the good land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. ¹³Thou shalt not commit adultery. ¹⁴Thou shalt not steal. ¹⁵Thou shalt not murder. ¹⁶Thou shalt not testify falsely against thy neighbour with false witness. ¹⁷Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife; thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, nor his field, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his draught animal, nor any of his cattle, nor all whatsoever pertaineth unto thy neighbour.

¹⁸And all the people perceived the voice, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and all the people feared, and stood afar off. ¹⁹And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and let not God speak with us, lest we die. ²⁰And Moses saith unto them, Be of good courage: for God is come to you to prove you, that His fear may be among you, that ye sin not. ²¹Now the people stood afar off, but Moses went into the darkness where God was. ²²And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the house of Jacob, and tell it unto the sons of Israel, Ye have seen what I have spoken with you from heaven. ²³Ye shall not make unto you gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. ²⁴An altar of earth ye shall make unto Me, and shall sacrifice thereon your whole burnt offerings, and your deliverance offerings, your sheep, and your calves in all places where I shall pronounce My name: and I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee. ²⁵But if thou make unto Me an altar of stones, thou shalt not build them of hewn stones: for thou hast lifted up thy tool upon them, and they are polluted. ²⁶Thou shalt not go up by steps unto Mine altar, that thou mayest not discover thy nakedness thereon.

CHAPTER 21

And these are the ordinances which thou shalt set before them. ²If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve thee: but in the seventh year he shall go out free for nothing. ³If he came in by himself, he shall also go out by himself: and if his wife went in together with him, his wife also shall go out. ⁴Moreover, if his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and the children shall be his master's, but he shall go out alone. ⁵And if the servant answer and say, I have loved my master, and wife, and children; I go not away free: ⁶his master shall bring him unto the judgment seat of God; and then shall he bring him to the door, unto the door post, and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever. ⁷Now if any one sell his daughter to be an houseservant, she shall not go out as maidservants go away. ⁸If she be not pleasing unto her master, after she hath betrothed herself to himself, he shall let her go free: but to sell her unto a strange nation he is not at liberty, seeing he hath trifled with her. ⁹And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall do unto her according to the right of daughters. ¹⁰And if he take him another wife, of her necessities, and her raiment, and her companionship, shall he not deprive her. ¹¹But if he will not do these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

¹²Now if any man smiteth another, and he die, let him be surely put to death. ¹³But as for him that did it not willingly, but God delivered him into his hands, I will give thee a place whither the slayer may flee. ¹⁴And if any man lie in wait for his neighbour, to slay him with guile; and he go for refuge, thou shalt take him from Mine altar, to put him to death. ¹⁵Whosoever smiteth his father, or his mother, let him be surely put to death. ¹⁶Whosoever revileth his father, or his mother, he shall surely die. ¹⁷Whosoever shall steal one of the sons of Israel, and prevail over him, and sell him, and be found with him, let him surely die. ¹⁸Now if two men revile each other, and the one smite the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but be laid upon his bed: ¹⁹if the man rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be clear: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and for his healing. ²⁰And if a man smite his manservant, or his maidservant, with a rod, and he die under his hand, he shall surely be punished. ²¹Notwithstanding, if he continue to live a day or two, let not there be punishment: for he is his money. ²²And if two men strive, and smite a woman with child, and her child be born imperfect, he shall be forced to pay a penalty: as the woman's husband may lay upon him, he shall pay with a valuation. ²³But if it be perfect, he shall give life for life, ²⁴eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. ²⁶Now if a man smite the eye of his manservant, or the eye of his maidservant, and put it out; he shall let them go free for their eye's sake. ²⁷And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall send them away free for their tooth's sake.

²⁸And if a bull gore a man or a woman, and they die, the bull shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall be quit. ²⁹But if the bull were wont to push with the horn in time past, and men have told his owner, and he have not removed him, but he have killed a man or a woman; the bull shall be stoned, and his owner shall die also. ³⁰And if there be laid on him a ransom, then he shall pay for the ransom of his soul as much as they shall lay upon him. ³¹And if he gore a son, or gore a daughter, according to this ordinance let them do unto him. ³²And if the bull shall gore a manservant or a maidservant; he shall pay unto their master thirty didrachmas of silver, and the bull shall be stoned. ³³Now if any one shall open a pit, or hew a pit, or dig a cave in stone, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein; ³⁴the owner of the pit shall make it good; he shall give money unto the owner of them; and the dead shall be his. ³⁵And if any man's bull gore his neighbour's bull, and he die; they shall sell the live bull, and divide the money; and the dead bull also shall they divide. ³⁶But if the bull be known to have used to push in time past, and they have testified unto his owner, and he hath not removed him; he shall repay bull for bull; but the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER 22

Now if any one steal a calf, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall pay five calves for the calf, and four sheep for the sheep. ²And if the thief be found in the breach, and be smitten, and die, there shall no blood be shed for him. ³But if the sun be risen upon him, he is guilty; he shall die instead. And if he have nothing, let him be sold in restitution for what he hath stolen. ⁴And if the thing that is stolen be left, and be in his hand alive, whether it be calf, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore them double. ⁵And if any feed down a field or vineyard, and shall send in his beast to feed down another field; of his own field according to his own yield shall he make restitution: and if he have fed down the whole field; the best of his own field, and the best of his own vineyard, shall he pay in restitution. ⁶And if fire have gone forth, and caught thorns, and set fire to threshing floors, or ears of corn, or a field, he that kindled the fire shall make restitution. ⁷And if any give unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and they be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, he shall repay double. ⁸But if the thief be not found, the master of the house shall come forward before God, and shall swear that he hath surely not wrought wickedly against any part of his neighbour's deposit. ⁹According to every injury that is alleged, both for a calf, for an ass, for a sheep, and for raiment, or for any of lost thing that is alleged, whatsoever it be indeed; the judgment of both shall proceed before God; and he that is convicted by God shall repay double unto his neighbour. ¹⁰Now if any give unto his neighbour a calf, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it be hurt, or die, or be taken, no man knowing it: ¹¹then shall an oath of God be between them both, that he hath surely not at all been guilty in the matter of his neighbour's deposit; and so his master shall accept him guiltless, and he shall not make restitution. ¹²But if it were stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner. ¹³And if it were seized of wild beasts, then he shall bring him to the prey, and he shall not make restitution. ¹⁴And if any borrow of his neighbour, and it be wounded, or die, or be carried off, and the owner thereof be not with it, he shall make restitution. ¹⁵But if the owner were with it, he shall not make restitution: but if he were an hireling, there shall be unto him restitution for his hire.

¹⁶And if any man beguile a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be a wife unto himself. ¹⁷And if her father utterly refuse, and will not consent to give her unto him for a wife, he shall pay silver to her father, according to the amount of the dowry of virgins. ¹⁸Ye shall not save the lives of sorcerers. ¹⁹Every one that lieth with a beast, ye shall surely put to death. ²⁰He that sacrificeth unto any gods, save unto the Lord only, shall be utterly destroyed.

²¹And ye shall neither hurt a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. ²²Ye shall hurt no widow and fatherless child. ²³And if ye afflict them by ill use, and they cry aloud unto Me, I will surely hear their voice; ²⁴and I will be exceeding wroth, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless. ²⁵Now if thou lend money to thy poor brother that is by thee, thou shalt not be hard upon him; thou shalt not exact usury of him. ²⁶And if thou take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt restore it by that the sun goeth down: ²⁷for this is his clothing, the only covering for his shame: wherein shall he sleep? If he then cry unto Me, I will hear him; for I am merciful. ²⁸Thou shalt not revile gods, and thou shalt not speak evil of the rulers of thy people. ²⁹Thou shalt not keep back the first fruits of thy threshing floor and press: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto Me. ³⁰Likewise shalt thou do with thy calf, and with thy sheep, and with thine ass: seven days it shall be under the dam; but the eighth day thou shalt give it Me. ³¹And ye shall be holy men unto Me: neither shall ye eat flesh that is torn of beasts of the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

CHAPTER 23

Thou shalt not accept a vain report: thou shalt not consent with the unjust man to be an unjust witness. ²Thou shalt not be with the multitude for evil; neither shalt thou join thyself unto a multitude, to turn aside with the most number for to shut out judgment. ³Neither shalt thou spare a poor man in judgment. ⁴Now if thou meet thine enemy's ox or his beast of burden going astray, thou shalt turn back and restore them unto him. ⁵And if thou see thine enemy's ass fallen under his burden, thou shalt not pass him by, but shalt raise it with him. ⁶Thou shalt wrest the judgement of a poor man in his cause. ⁷Thou shalt abstain from every unjust thing: the innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay; and the ungodly shalt thou not justify for gifts. ⁸And thou shalt not receive gifts; for gifts blind the eyes of them that see, and pervert just words. ⁹Also ye shall not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, for ye were yourselves strangers in the land of Egypt.

¹⁰Six years shalt thou sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof. ¹¹But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest, and leave it; and the poor of thy nation shall feed: and what is left the wild beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard. ¹²Six days shalt thou do thy works, and on the seventh day there shall be rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. ¹³All things whatsoever I have commanded ye, do ye observe.

And ye shall make no mention of the name of other gods; neither shall they be heard out of thy mouth. ¹⁴Three times keep ye a feast unto Me in the year. ¹⁵Take heed to keep the feast of unleavened bread; thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month of the new things: for in it thou camest out of Egypt: thou shalt not appear before Me empty. ¹⁶And thou shalt keep the feast of the harvest of firstfruits of thy labours, whatsoever thou hast sown in thy field, and the feast of completion at the end of the year, in the ingathering of thy fruits out of thy field. ¹⁷Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord thy God. ¹⁸For when I shall have cast out the nations before thee, and shall have widened thy borders, thou shalt not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until the morning. ¹⁹The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a lamb in his mother's milk.

²⁰And, behold, I send Mine angel before thy face, that he may keep thee in the way, that he may bring thee into the land which I have prepared for thee. ²¹Take heed to thyself, and hearken unto him; and disobey him not; for he will not give way to thee: for My name is on him. ²²If ye shall indeed hearken unto My voice, and if thou shalt do all that I command thee, and keep My covenant, ye shall be unto Me a peculiar people above all nations, for all the earth is Mine; and ye shall be unto Me a royal priesthood, and an holy nation: these words shall ye speak unto the sons of Israel, if ye shall indeed hear My voice, and do all that I tell thee, I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries. ²³For Mine angel shall go as thy leader, and bring thee unto the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Gergesite, and the Hevite, and the Jebusite: and I will cut them off. ²⁴Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them: thou shalt not do after their works; but thou shalt utterly destroy them, and quite break in pieces their pillars. ²⁵And thou shalt serve the Lord thy God; and I will bless thy bread, and thy wine, and thy water; and I will turn sickness away from thee. ²⁶There shall be not one that is impotent or barren in thy land: the number of thy days I will surely fulfil. ²⁷And I will send fear before thee, and strike with astonishment all the nations unto whom thou shalt come; and I will make all thine enemies to flee. ²⁸And I will send hornets before thee, and thou shalt cast out the Amorites, and the Hevites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, from before thee. ²⁹I will not cast them out in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the wild beasts of the field multiply against thee. ³⁰By little will I cast them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the earth. ³¹And I will set thy bounds from the Red Sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the great river Euphrates: and I will give them that dwell in the land into your hand; and I will cast them out from before thee. ³²Thou shalt make no covenant with them and their gods. ³³And they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against Me: for if thou serve their gods, these will be a stumblingblock to thee.

CHAPTER 24

And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and they shall do obeisance unto the Lord from afar off. ²And Moses alone shall come near to God: but they themselves shall not come near; neither shall the people come up with them. ³And Moses went in, and told the people all the words of God, and the ordinances: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said, will we do, and heed. ⁴And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord. Now Moses rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the mount, and twelve stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵And he sent the young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered whole burnt offerings, and sacrificed young calves as a peace offering unto God. ⁶Now Moses took half of the blood, and poured it in basons; and half of the blood he poured out upon the altar. ⁷And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the ears of the people: and they said, All whatsoever the Lord hath said, will we do, and hearken therein. ⁸Then Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it upon the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words.

⁹Then went up Moses, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. ¹⁰And they saw the place where the God of Israel did stand: and there was under His feet as it were a work of sapphire stones, and as it were the appearance of the firmament of heaven in his cleanness. ¹¹And there was not of the chosen of Israel even one missing: also they appeared in the place of God, and did eat and drink. ¹²And the Lord said unto Moses, Come up to Me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee the tables of stone, and the law, and the commandments, which I have written to give them laws. ¹³And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and they went up into the mount of God. ¹⁴And they said unto the elders, Tarry ye still here, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron, and Hur are with you: if any man have a cause to be tried, let them go unto them. ¹⁵And Moses and Joshua went up into the mount, and the cloud covered the mount. ¹⁶And the glory of God came down upon the mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day the Lord called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷Now the sight of the glory of the Lord was like burning fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount; and was there in the mount forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel, and take firstfruits of all them to whom it seemeth good in their heart to give; and ye shall take My firstfruits. ³And this is the firstfruit which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass, ⁴and blue, and purple, and double scarlet, and fine spun linen, and goats' hair, ⁵and rams' skins dyed red, and blue skins, and incorruptible wood, ⁶and oil for the light, and incense for the oil of anointing, and for the composition of incense, and stones of sardius, and stones for the carved work of the shoulder piece, and the full length robe. ⁷And thou shalt make Me a sanctuary, and I will appear among you. ⁸And thou shalt make for Me according to all that I shew thee in the mount; even the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the furniture thereof: even so shalt thou make it.

⁹And thou shalt make the ark of testimony of incorruptible wood; two cubits and a half the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. ¹⁰And thou shalt gild it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou gild it, and shalt make for it wreaths of gold twisted round about. ¹¹And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them on the four sides; two rings on the one side, and two rings on the second side. ¹²And thou shalt make staves of incorruptible wood, and gild them with gold. ¹³And thou shalt put the staves into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark with them. ¹⁴In the rings of the ark shall the staves be fastened. ¹⁵And thou shalt put into the ark the testimonies which I shall give thee. ¹⁶And thou shalt make a propitiatory, a lid of pure gold; the length thereof two cubits and a half, and the breadth thereof a cubit and a half. ¹⁷And thou shalt make two cherubims graven in gold; and thou shalt put them on both sides of the propitiatory. ¹⁸And they shall be made one cherub on this side, and another cherub on the second side of the propitiatory; and thou shalt make the two cherubims on the two sides thereof. ¹⁹The cherubims shall stretch forth their wings above, and overshadow the propitiatory with their wings, and their faces shall be toward each other; the faces of the cherubims shall be toward the propitiatory. ²⁰And thou shalt set the propitiatory above on the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimonies that I shall give thee. ²¹And I shall make Myself known unto thee from thence; and I will commune with thee from above the propitiatory between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, even in all things which I will give thee in commandment concerning the sons of Israel.

²²Thou shalt also make a table of pure gold; two cubits the length thereof, a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. ²³And thou shalt make for it wreaths of gold twisted round about; and thou shalt make for it a crown of an handsbreadth round about. ²⁴And thou shalt make a twisted wreath for the crown round about. ²⁵And thou shalt make four rings of gold, and put the four rings upon the four parts of the feet thereof, under the crown. ²⁶And the rings shall be for bearings for the staves, that they may bear the table with them. ²⁷And thou shalt make the staves of incorruptible wood, and gild them with pure gold: and the table shall be borne with them. ²⁸And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and the censers thereof, and the bowls thereof, and the cups thereof, wherewith thou shalt offer drink offerings: of pure gold shalt thou make them. ²⁹And thou shalt set upon the table, face to face, loaves of bread before Me continually.

³⁰And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of graven work shalt thou make the candlestick: the stem thereof, and the branches thereof, and the bowls thereof, and the knops thereof, and the lilies shall be of the same. ³¹And six branches shall come out of the side; three branches of the candlestick from one side thereof, and three branches from the second side. ³²And three bowls shall be made like unto almonds, upon each branch a knop and a lily; so to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick, ³³and in the candlestick four bowls made like unto almonds, in each branch knops and lilies of the same. ³⁴A knop under two branches out of the same, and a knop under four branches of the same: so for the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick; ³⁵and in the candlestick four bowls made like unto almonds. ³⁶Let the knops and the branches be of the same, altogether graven of one piece of pure gold. ³⁷And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and thou shalt set the lamps thereon; and they shall shine from one front. ³⁸And the funnel thereof, and the underparts thereof, shalt thou make of pure gold. ³⁹All of these vessels shall be of a talent of pure gold. ⁴⁰See, thou shalt make them according to the pattern which was shewed thee in the mount.

CHAPTER 26

And thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine linen spun, and blue, and purple, and red spun with cherubims; by the work of a weaver shalt thou make them. ²The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and one curtain shall be the breadth of four cubits: there shall be the same measure to all the curtains. ³And the five curtains shall be coupled together one to another, and other five curtains shall be close coupled the one to the other. ⁴And thou shalt make them loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain, on one side for the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make on the edge of the outer curtain, for the second coupling. ⁵Fifty loops shalt thou make for the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the part of the curtain answering to the coupling of the second, opposite each other; corresponding to each other at each point. ⁶And thou shalt make fifty rings of gold, and couple the curtains to one another with the rings: and it shall be one tabernacle. ⁷And thou shalt make skins with the hair on, to be a covering over the tabernacle: eleven skins shalt thou make them. ⁸The length of one skin shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one skin four cubits: and to the eleven curtains shall there be the same measure. ⁹And thou shalt couple the five skins together, and the six skins together, and shalt double the sixth skin in the forefront of the tabernacle. ¹⁰And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one skin, which is in the midst for the coupling, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the second skin which coupleth it. ¹¹And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and join the taches from the loops, and couple the skins together, and they shall be one. ¹²And the remnant shalt thou set in the skins of the tabernacle. The half of the skin that remaineth shalt thou fold over for that which remaineth of the skins of the tabernacle: thou shalt fold it over behind the tabernacle. ¹³A cubit on this side, and a cubit on that side of that which remaineth of the skins, of the length of the skins of the tabernacle: it shall be to fold over the sides of the tabernacle on each side, to cover it. ¹⁴And thou shalt make a covering for the tabernacle of rams' skins dyed red, and coverings of blue skins above. ¹⁵And thou shalt make the posts of the tabernacle of incorruptible wood. ¹⁶Of ten cubits shalt thou make one post, and a cubit and a half the breadth of one post. ¹⁷Two tenons shalt thou make in the one post, answering the one to the other: thus shalt thou make for all the posts of the tabernacle. ¹⁸And thou shalt make the posts for the tabernacle, twenty posts toward the north side. ¹⁹And thou shalt make forty bases of silver unto the twenty posts; two bases unto one post on both his sides, and two bases unto the other post on both his sides. ²⁰And for the next side toward the south; twenty posts, ²¹and their forty silver bases; two bases unto one post on both his sides. ²²And on the hinder part of the tabernacle, at the part which is westward, shalt thou make six posts. ²³And thou shalt make two posts on the corners of the tabernacle behind. ²⁴And it shall be equal below; they shall be equal toward the selfsame part, from the heads unto one joining: so shalt thou make unto both the two corners; let them be equal. ²⁵And there shall be eight posts, and their bases of silver, sixteen bases: two bases unto one post on both his sides, and two bases unto the other post. ²⁶And thou shalt make bars of incorruptible wood; five unto one post on one side of the tabernacle, ²⁷and five bars unto one post on the second side of tabernacle; and five bars unto the hinder parts, on the side of the tabernacle toward the sea. ²⁸And let the bar in the midst between the posts go through from the one side unto the other. ²⁹And thou shalt overlay the posts with gold, and make rings of gold, wherein thou shalt introduce the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold. ³⁰And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the pattern that was shewed thee in the mount. ³¹And thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet woven, and fine linen spun: thou shalt make it in woven work with cherubims. ³²And thou shalt set it upon four posts of incorruptible wood overlaid with gold; and their chapiters shall be gold, and their four bases shall be of silver. ³³And thou shalt put the veil upon the posts, and shalt carry in thither within the veil the ark of the testimony: and the veil shall make a separation for you between the holy and the holy of holies. ³⁴And thou shalt screen with the veil the ark of the testimony in the holy of holies. ³⁵And thou shalt set the table without the veil, and the candlestick over against the table on the south side of the tabernacle: and thou shalt put the table on the north side of the tabernacle. ³⁶And thou shalt make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, of blue, and purple, and spun scarlet and fine linen spun, the work of the embroiderer. ³⁷And thou shalt make for the veil five posts, and thou shalt gild them with gold; and their tops shall be gold: and thou shalt cast for them five brazen bases.

CHAPTER 27

And thou shalt make an altar of incorruptible wood, of five cubits in the length, and five cubits in the breadth; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits. ²And thou shalt make the horns upon the four corners; the horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay them with brass. ³And thou shalt make a rim for the altar; and the covering thereof, and the cups thereof, and the fleshhooks thereof, and the firepan thereof, and all the vessels thereof, shalt thou make of brass. ⁴And thou shalt make for it a grate of brass with net work; and for the grate shalt thou make four brazen rings under the four sides. ⁵And thou shalt put them below under the grate of the altar; and the grate shall be even to the midst of the altar. ⁶And thou shalt make staves for the altar of incorruptible wood, and overlay them with brass. ⁷And thou shalt put the staves into the rings; and let the staves be upon the sides of the altar, to bear it. ⁸Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: according to that which was shewed thee in the mount, so shalt thou make it.

⁹And thou shalt make a court for the tabernacle; curtains of the court of fine linen spun on the south side; the length of an hundred cubits for each side. ¹⁰And the pillars thereof, twenty, and twenty sockets of brass for them, and the rings and clasps thereof of silver. ¹¹Thus shall there be to the side toward the north curtains of an hundred cubits in length; and the pillars thereof, twenty; and the sockets thereof of brass, twenty; and the rings and the clasps of the pillars, and their sockets overlaid with silver. ¹²And in the breadth of the tabernacle toward the west, curtains of fifty cubits; the pillars thereof, ten; and the sockets thereof, ten. ¹³And in the breadth of the tabernacle toward the south, curtains of fifty cubits; the pillars thereof, ten; and the sockets thereof, ten. ¹⁴And the height of the curtains, of fifty cubits for the one side; the pillars thereof, three, and the sockets thereof, three. ¹⁵And for the second side: the height of the curtains, of fifteen cubits; the pillars thereof, three; and the sockets thereof, three. ¹⁶And a veil for the door of the court, the height of twenty cubits of blue linen, and of purple, and of spun scarlet, and of fine linen spun with the art of the embroiderer; the pillars thereof, four; and the sockets thereof, four. ¹⁷All the pillars round about of the court shall be overlaid with silver; and the chapiters thereof, silver; and the sockets thereof, brass. ¹⁸And the length of the court an hundred cubits on each side; and the breadth fifty on each side; and the height five cubits of fine linen spun, and the sockets thereof, brass. ¹⁹And all the furniture, and all the instruments and pins of the court, shall be of brass.

²⁰And do thou command the sons of Israel, and let them take for thee, refined pure oil olive beaten to burn for light, that a lamp may burn continually ²¹in the tabernacle of the testimony without the veil that is before the ark of the covenant, Aaron and his sons shall burn it from evening until morning before the Lord: it is a perpetual ordinance throughout your generations of the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 28

And take thou unto thee both Aaron thy brother, and his sons, even of the sons of Israel, that even Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar, Aaron's sons, may minister unto Me. ²And thou shalt make holy apparel for Aaron thy brother, for honour and for glory. ³And speak thou unto all that are wise in understanding, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom and perception, and they shall make Aaron's holy apparel for the sanctuary, in the which he shall minister unto Me in the priest's office. ⁴And these are the garments which they shall make; the breastplate, and the shoulder piece, and the full length robe, and the tunic with a fringe, and the tire, and the girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron and his sons to minister unto Me in the priest's office. ⁵And they shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen. ⁶And they shall make the shoulder piece of fine linen spun, the woven work of the embroiderer. ⁷It shall have two shoulder pieces joined together, fastened on the two sides. ⁸And the woven work of the shoulder piece, which is upon it, shall be of the one piece, according to the work; even of pure gold, and blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen. ⁹And thou shalt take the two stones, the stones of emerald, and grave on them the names of the sons of Israel, ¹⁰six names on the one stone, and the other six names on the second stone, according to their births. ¹¹*With* the work of the art of engraver in stone, the graving of a seal, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. ¹²And thou shalt put the two stones on the shoulders of the shoulder piece; stones of memorial are they for the sons of Israel; and Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a memorial for them. ¹³And thou shalt make bosses of pure gold; ¹⁴and two fringes of pure gold shalt thou make, mingled with flowers, a wreathen work: and thou shalt put the wreathen fringes on the bosses, and fasten them upon the shoulder pieces thereof in front. ¹⁵And thou shalt make the oracle of judgment, the work of the embroiderer; after the work of the shoulder piece shalt thou make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of twined red, and of fine twined linen. ¹⁶Foursquare shalt thou make it; it shall be doubled; of a span shall be the length thereof, and of a span the breadth thereof. ¹⁷And thou shalt interweave with it a texture of four rows of stone: there shall be a row of stones, a sardius, a topaz, an emerald, the first row. ¹⁸And the second row, a carbuncle, a sapphire, and a jasper. ¹⁹And the third row, a ligure, an agate, an amethyst: ²⁰and the fourth row, a chrysolite, and a beryl, and an onyx stone, set round with gold, bound together with gold: let them be according to their row. ²¹And let the stones of the names of the sons of Israel be twelve, according to their names, engravings as of seals: let them be for the twelve tribes, each according to the name. ²²And thou shalt make upon the oracle woven fringes, a chainwork of pure gold. ²³And Aaron shall take the names of the sons of Israel in the oracle of judgment upon his breast, a memorial before God for him, when he goeth in unto the holy place. ²⁴And thou shalt put the fringes upon the oracle of judgment; thou shalt put the wreaths on both sides of the oracle; ²⁵and thou shalt put the two bosses on both the shoulders of the shoulder piece in front. ²⁶And thou shalt put the Manifestation and the Truth upon the oracle of judgment; and it shall be upon the breast of Aaron, whensoever he goeth into the holy place before the Lord; and Aaron shall bear the judgments of the sons of Israel upon his breast before the Lord continually. ²⁷And thou shalt make the full length robe all of blue. ²⁸And the opening of it shall be in the midst thereof; it shall have a border round about the opening, the work of a weaver, woven together in the joining of the same, that it be not rent. ²⁹And beneath the fringe of the robe below thou shalt make as it were pomegranates of a flowering pomegranate tree, of blue, and of purple, and of spun red, and of fine linen twined, upon the fringe of the robe round about; golden pomegranates of the same shape, and bells between them round about. ³⁰By the side of a golden pomegranate, a bell and floral work upon the fringe of the robe round about. ³¹And Aaron's sound shall be heard in his ministering, when he goeth in unto the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out, lest that he die. ³²And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon the engraving of a signet, HOLINESS OF THE LORD. ³³And thou shalt put it on the spun blue cloth, and it shall be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. ³⁴And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead; and Aaron shall bear away the sins of their holy things, all that the sons of Israel shall hallow of every gift of their holy things: and it shall be upon Aaron's forehead continually acceptable for them before the Lord. ³⁵And the fringes of the garments shall be of fine linen; and thou shalt make a tire of fine linen, and thou shalt make a girdle, the work of the embroiderer. ³⁶And for Aaron's sons shalt thou make tunics and girdles; and thou shalt make them tires, for honour and glory. ³⁷And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office. ³⁸And thou shalt make them linen breeches to hide the nakedness of their flesh; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach. ³⁹And Aaron shall have them, and his sons, whensoever they come in unto the tabernacle of the testimony, or when they come near unto the altar of the holy place to minister; so shall they bring not sin upon themselves, lest they die: it is a perpetual ordinance for him, and for his seed after him.

CHAPTER 29

And these are the things that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto Me in the priest's office: and thou shalt take one young calf out of the herd, and two rams without blemish; ²and unleavened loaves kneaded with oil, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil; of fine wheaten flour shalt thou make them. ³And thou shalt put them upon one basket, and offer them in the basket, and the young calf and the two rams. ⁴And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony, and shalt wash them with water. ⁵And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron thy brother the full length robe, and the shoulder pieces, and the oracle; and thou shalt join for him the oracle to the shoulder pieces. ⁶And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the plate, the Holiness, upon the mitre. ⁷And thou shalt take of the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him: ⁸and thou shalt bring his sons, and put garments upon them. ⁹And thou shalt gird them with girdles, and put the bonnets on them; and they shall have a priestly office unto Me for ever; and thou shalt fill the hands of Aaron, and his sons' hands. ¹⁰And thou shalt bring the calf unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the calf before the Lord, by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹¹And thou shalt kill the calf before the Lord, by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹²And thou shalt take of the blood of the calf, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, but all the rest of the blood shalt thou pour out at the foot of the altar. ¹³And thou shalt take all the fat that is upon the belly, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and put them upon the altar. ¹⁴But the flesh of the calf, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp; for it is for a sin offering.

¹⁵Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the ram. ¹⁶And thou shalt slay it, and thou shalt take his blood, and pour it round about upon the altar. ¹⁷And thou shalt divide the ram by his several limbs, and wash the inwards with water, and the feet, and put them upon the divided parts with the head. ¹⁸And thou shalt offer the whole ram upon the altar, an whole burnt offering unto the Lord for a sweet smelling savour; it is an offering of incense unto the Lord. ¹⁹And thou shalt take the second ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of the ram. ²⁰And thou shalt kill it, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, and upon the tips of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet. ²¹And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and thou shalt sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him: but the blood of the ram shalt thou pour it round about upon the altar. ²²Also thou shalt take of the ram his fat, both the fat that covereth the body, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for this is a validation; ²³also one cake with oil, and one cake from the basket of unleavened bread that is set forth before the Lord. ²⁴And thou shalt put all upon the hands of Aaron, and upon the hands of his sons; and thou shalt separate them for a separate offering before the Lord. ²⁵And thou shalt take them from their hands, and offer them up upon the altar of whole burnt offering, for a sweet smelling savour before the Lord: it is an offering unto the Lord. ²⁶And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and separate it as a separate offering before the Lord: and it shall be unto thee for a portion. ²⁷And thou shalt sanctify the separated breast, and the shoulder of removal, which hath been separated, and hath been removed from the ram of consecration, of the portion of Aaron and his sons. ²⁸And it shall be a perpetual statute of the sons of Israel unto Aaron and his sons, for this is a separate offering: and it shall be a special offering from the sons of Israel, from the peace offerings of the sons of Israel, a special offering unto the Lord. ²⁹And the apparel of the sanctuary, which is Aaron's, shall be his sons' after him, for them to be anointed therein, and to fill their hands. ³⁰The priest his successor from among his sons, who shall go into the tabernacle of the testimony to minister in the place, shall put them on seven days. ³¹And thou shalt take the ram of consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place. ³²And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the loaves that are in the basket, by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ³³They shall eat the offerings wherewith they were hallowed to fill their hands, to sanctify them; and a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy. ³⁴And if the flesh of the sacrifice of consecration was left, and of the loaves until the morning, thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. ³⁵And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou fill their hands. ³⁶And thou shalt sacrifice the calf of the sin offering on the day of purification, and thou shalt cleanse the altar when thou perform consecration upon it; and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. ³⁷Seven days shalt thou cleanse the altar, and sanctify it; and the altar shall be most holy: every one that toucheth the altar shall be hallowed.

³⁸And these are the offerings which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two unblemished lambs of the first year daily on the altar continually, a constant offering. ³⁹One lamb thou shalt offer in the morning, and the second lamb thou shalt offer at even. ⁴⁰And a tenth measure of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and a drink offering the fourth part of an hin of wine for one lamb. ⁴¹And the second lamb thou shalt offer at even, after the manner of the morning offering, and according to the drink offering of the morning lamb; thou shalt offer it an offering unto the Lord for a sweet smelling savour, ⁴²a perpetual sacrifice throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony before the Lord: wherein I will be known unto thee from thence, to speak unto thee. ⁴³And I will there give commandment unto the sons of Israel; and I will be sanctified in My glory. ⁴⁴And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the testimony, and the altar: I will also sanctify Aaron and his sons, to minister to Me in the priest's office. ⁴⁵And I will be called upon among the sons of Israel; and I will be their God. ⁴⁶And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt; to be called upon by them, and to be their God.

CHAPTER 30

And thou shalt make the altar of incense of incorruptible wood. ²And a cubit in length shalt thou make it, and a cubit in breadth; foursquare shall it be; and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same. ³And thou shalt overlay the grate thereof with pure gold, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make for it a wreathen border of gold round about. ⁴And two pure golden rings shalt thou make to it under the wreathen border thereof; unto the two corners upon the two sides thou shalt make it; and they shall be for bearings for the staves, to bear it with them. ⁵And thou shalt make the staves of incorruptible wood, and overlay them with gold. ⁶And thou shalt put it before the veil that is over the ark of the testimonies, wherein I will make Myself known unto thee from thence. ⁷And Aaron shall burn thereon fine compound incense every morning; when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. ⁸And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a constant incense offering always before the Lord for their generations. ⁹And thou shalt offer no strange incense thereon, and offering made by fire, nor a sacrifice; neither shalt thou pour a drink offering thereon. ¹⁰And Aaron shall make atonement upon the horns of it once in a year: by means of the blood of purification of sins, the atonement, once in the year, shall he purge it for their generations: it is an holy of holies unto the Lord.

¹¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹²If thou take account of the sons of Israel, in the overseeing of them, and they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the Lord; then shall there not be among them destruction, in the visiting of them. ¹³And this is what they shall give, as many as do pass the survey, half a didrachma according to the didrachma of the sanctuary; twenty obols the didrachma: now the half of the didrachma is an offering unto the Lord. ¹⁴Every one that passeth the survey, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering unto the Lord. ¹⁵The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than the half of the didrachma, in giving the offering unto the Lord, to make atonement for your souls. ¹⁶And thou shalt take the money of the offering of the sons of Israel, and shalt give it for the service of the tabernacle of the testimony; and it shall be a memorial unto the sons of Israel before the Lord, to make atonement for your souls.

¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Make a laver of brass, and a foot of brass for it, to wash withal; and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the testimony and the altar; and thou shalt pour water therein. ¹⁹And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet with water therefrom. ²⁰Whosoever they go into the tabernacle of the testimony, they shall wash themselves with water, and they shall not die; or whensoever they come near unto the altar to minister, and to offer the whole burnt offering unto the Lord. ²¹They shall wash their hands and their feet with water, when they go into the tabernacle of the testimony: they shall wash their hands and their feet with water, lest they die; and it shall be a perpetual statute to them, even to him and to his generations after him. ²²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²³Take thou also unto thee sweet herbs, the flower of choice myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet smelling cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, ²⁴and of cassia five hundred shekels of the sanctuary, and of olive oil an hin. ²⁵And thou shalt make it an oil of holy anointing, a perfumed ointment by the art of the perfumer; it shall be an holy anointing oil. ²⁶And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the testimony therewith, and the ark of the tabernacle of the testimony, ²⁷and all his furniture, and the candlestick, and all his furniture, and the altar of incense, ²⁸and the altar of whole burnt offerings, and all his furniture, and the table, and all his furniture, and the laver. ²⁹And thou shalt sanctify them, that they shall be most holy: every one that toucheth them shall be hallowed. ³⁰And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office. ³¹And thou shalt speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto you throughout your generations. ³²Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make unto you according to this composition: it is holy, and it shall be holiness to you. ³³Whosoever maketh it in like manner, and whosoever giveth of it unto a stranger, shall be cut off from among his people. ³⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet herbs, stacte, onycha, sweet galbanum, and transparent frankincense:

of each shall there be a like weight. ³⁵And they shall make of it perfumed incense, tempered with the art of a perfumer, a pure holy work. ³⁶And thou shalt beat some of these small, and put of it before the testimonies in the tabernacle of the testimony, whence I will make Myself known unto thee: it shall be unto you a most holy incense. ³⁷Ye shall not make any to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee an holy thing for the Lord. ³⁸Whosoever shall make any in like manner, to smell thereto, shall even perish from his people.

CHAPTER 31

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judas; ³and I have filled him with a godly spirit of wisdom, and of understanding, and knowledge to devise in every work, ⁴and to frame works, to labour in gold, and silver, and brass, and blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, ⁵and works in stone, and for artificers' work in wood; to work at all works. ⁶And I have given him and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and unto every one that is understanding in heart have I given understanding, and they shall make all things as many as I have appointed thee; ⁷the tabernacle of the testimony, and the ark of the covenant, and the propitiatory that is thereupon, and the furniture of the tabernacle, ⁸and the altars, and the table and all his furniture, and the pure candlestick and all his furniture, and the altar of incense, and the altar of whole burnt offering with all his furniture, ⁹and the laver and his base, ¹⁰and Aaron's garments of ministry, and the garments of his sons, to minister unto Me in the priest's office, ¹¹and the oil of anointing, and the incense of the mixture for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they make them.

¹²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹³Do thou also charge the sons of Israel, saying, Take heed and keep My sabbaths: for it is a sign with Me and among you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord, that doth sanctify you. ¹⁴And ye shall keep the sabbaths, for this is holy unto the Lord for you: he that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth a work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. ¹⁵Six days shalt thou do works; but in the seventh day is the sabbath, an holy rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth a work in the seventh day, he shall be put to death. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel shall keep the sabbaths, to observe them throughout their generations. ¹⁷It is a perpetual covenant with Me and the sons of Israel; it is a perpetual sign with Me: for in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, and on the seventh day He ceased, and rested.

¹⁸And He gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, the two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and say unto him, Arise, and make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. ²And Aaron saith unto them, Take off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. ³And all the people took off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. ⁴And he received them at their hand, and fashioned them with a graving tool, and he made them a molten calf, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. ⁵And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast of the Lord. ⁶And he rose up early on the morrow, and put whole burnt offerings upon the altar, and offered a sacrifice of deliverance; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Go quickly, get thee down hence; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have transgressed: ⁸they have turned aside quickly out of the way which thou commanded: they have made them a calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. ⁹And now suffer Me, and I will be exceeding wroth with them, and consume them: ¹⁰and I will make of thee a great nation. ¹¹And Moses prayed before the Lord, and said, Lord, why art Thou enraged with anger against Thy people, which Thou broughtest forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with Thy high arm? ¹²lest at any time the Egyptians speak, saying, With evil intent did He bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them utterly from the earth. Cease from the anger of Thy wrath, and be merciful to the sin of Thy people, ¹³remembering Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob Thy servants; to whom Thou swarest by Thine own self, and hast spoken unto them, saying, I will greatly multiply your seed as the stars of heaven for multitude; and all this land that Thou hast spoken of, to give it unto their seed, that they shall possess it for ever. ¹⁴And the Lord was propitiated to preserve His people.

¹⁵And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of testimony were in his hand, stone tables written on both their sides; on this side and on that side were they written. ¹⁶And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God written upon the tables. ¹⁷And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he saith unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. ¹⁸And he saith, It is not the voice of them that begin in a battle, neither is it the voice of them that begin a rout: but the voice of them that begin in wine do I hear. ¹⁹And when he came nigh unto the camp, he seeth the calf, and the dancing; and being hot with anger, Moses cast the two tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneath the mount. ²⁰And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, and ground it small, and strawed it upon the water, and made the sons of Israel drink of it. ²¹And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought great sin upon them? ²²And Aaron said, Be not angry, lord; for thou knowest the impulse of this people. ²³For they say unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. ²⁴And I said unto them, If any one hath golden things, take them off; and they gave them me: and I cast them into the fire, and there came out this calf. ²⁵And when Moses saw the people, that it was scattered (for Aaron had scattered them, a thing of rejoicing to their opponents), ²⁶then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is with the Lord? let him come unto me. Then all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. ²⁷And he saith unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword upon his thigh, and go through, and return from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay each man his brother, and each man his neighbour, and each man the man that is nearest to him. ²⁸And the sons of Levi did according as Moses spake unto them: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. ²⁹And Moses said unto them, Ye have filled your hands this day to the Lord, even each man upon his son, or upon his brother; for blessing to be bestowed upon you.

³⁰And it came to pass, on the morrow, that Moses said unto them, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto God; that I may make atonement for your sin. ³¹And Moses returned unto the Lord, and said, I pray, O Lord, this people hath sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. ³²And now, if Thou wilt forgive them their sin, forgive; but if not, blot me out of Thy book which Thou hast written. ³³And the Lord said unto Moses, If any man hath sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My book. ³⁴And now go, go down, and lead this people unto the place of which I spake unto thee: behold, Mine angel shall go before thy face: nevertheless in whatsoever day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them. ³⁵And the Lord smote the people for the making of the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAPTER 33

And the Lord said unto Moses, Depart, go up hence, thou and thy people, which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, into the land which I swear unto Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it. ²And I will send at the same time Mine angel before thee; and he shall cast out the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Gergesite, and the Hevite, and the Jebusite, and the Canaanite. ³And I will bring thee into a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up with thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way. ⁴And when the people heard this grievous saying, they mourned in mourning apparel. ⁵And the Lord said unto the sons of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: take heed lest I bring upon you another plague, and destroy you: now then, put off your glorious apparel, and your ornaments from you; and I will shew thee what I will do unto thee. ⁶So the sons of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, and their array, at the mount of Horeb.

⁷And Moses took his tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp; and it was called, tabernacle of the testimony: and it came to pass that every one which sought the Lord went out unto the tabernacle, which was without the camp. ⁸And whensoever Moses went into the tabernacle without the camp, all the people stood every one watching by the doors of his tent; and when Moses departed, they took notice until he entered into the tabernacle. ⁹And when Moses entered into the tabernacle, the pillar of the cloud descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and talked with Moses. ¹⁰And all the people saw the pillar of the cloud standing by the door of the tabernacle: and all the people stood and did obeisance, every man at his tent door. ¹¹And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as if one should speak unto his friend: and he turned again into the camp: but his minister Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

¹²And Moses said unto the Lord, See, Thou sayest unto me, Lead up this people: but Thou hast not let me know whom Thou wilt send with me; and Thou hast said unto me, I know thee above all, and thou hast favour in My sight. ¹³If then I have found favour in Thy sight, reveal Thyself unto me, that I may evidently see Thee, that I may find favour in Thy sight, and that I may know that this nation is Thy people. ¹⁴And He saith, I Myself will go before thee, and I will give thee rest. ¹⁵And he saith unto Him, If Thou go not up with us Thyself, lead me not up hence. ¹⁶And wherein shall it be surely known, that I have found favour with Thee, both I and Thy people except only if Thou go with us? So shall we be glorified, both I and Thy people, beyond all the nations, as many as are upon the earth. ¹⁷And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this thing also for thee that thou hast spoken; for thou hast found favour before Me, and I know thee above all others. ¹⁸And he saith, Shew me Thine own glory. ¹⁹And he said, I will pass by before thee in My glory, and I will call by My name, LORD, before thee; and I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. ²⁰And He said, Thou shalt not be able to see My face: for there shall no man see My face, and live. ²¹And the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by Me: thou shalt stand upon the rock; ²²and whensoever My glory passeth by, then I will put thee into a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with My hand, until I shall have passed by. ²³And I will take away Mine hand, and thou shalt see My back parts: but My face shall not appear unto thee.

CHAPTER 34

And the Lord said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and go up unto Me in the mount: and I will write upon the tables the words that were on the first tables, which thou brakest. ²And be ready in the morning, and thou shalt go up unto the mount Sinai, and shalt stand there for Me in the top of the mount. ³And let no man come go up with thee, nor be seen in all the mount; neither let the sheep and oxen feed near that mount. ⁴And he hewed two tables of stone, like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto the mount Sinai, as the Lord had appointed him: and Moses took the two tables of stone. ⁵And the Lord descended in a cloud, and stood beside him there, and he called by the name of the Lord. ⁶And the Lord passed by before his face, and called, LORD God, pitying and merciful, longsuffering and very compassionate, and true, ⁷and keeping justice, and doing mercy for thousands, taking away transgressions, and injustice, and sins; and He will not clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third, and to the fourth generation. ⁸And Moses made haste, and bowed toward the earth, and worshipped: ⁹and he said, If I have found grace in Thy sight, let my Lord go with us; for the people is stiffnecked: and Thou shalt take away our sins, and our transgressions, and we will be Thine. ¹⁰And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, I establish a covenant with thee before all thy people: I will do glorious things, such as have not happened in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the works of the Lord, that they are wonderful, which I will do for thee. ¹¹Do thou take heed to all things whatsoever I command thee: behold, I cast out before your face the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hittite, and the Hevite, and the Gergesite, and the Jebusite. ¹²Take heed unto thyself, lest at any time thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land wherein thou enterest, lest it be unto thee for a stumblingblock among you. ¹³Ye shall destroy their altars, and break in pieces their pillars, and cut down their groves; and the graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire. ¹⁴For ye shall not worship strange gods; for LORD God, a jealous name, is a jealous God: ¹⁵lest at any time thou make a covenant with them that dwell in the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and sacrifice unto their gods; and they call thee, and thou eat of their feasts: ¹⁶and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons; and thou give of thy daughters unto their sons; and thy daughters go a whoring after their gods, and thy sons go a whoring after their gods. ¹⁷And thou shalt make thee no molten gods. ¹⁸And the feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the season of the month of new things; for in the month of new things thou camest out from Egypt. ¹⁹The males are Mine, every thing that openeth the matrix, the firstlings of a calf, and firstlings of a sheep. ²⁰And the firstborn of a beast of burden thou shalt redeem with a sheep; and if thou redeem not him, thou shalt pay a price. Every firstborn of thy sons shalt thou redeem: thou shalt not appear before Me empty. ²¹Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in seed time and in harvest there shall be rest. ²²And thou shalt keep unto Me a feast of weeks, the beginning of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering in the middle of the year. ²³Thrice in the year shall every male of thine appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel. ²⁴For whensoever I shall cast out the nations before thy face, and enlarge thy coasts, none shall desire thy land, whensoever thou shalt go up to appear before the Lord thy God, thrice in the year. ²⁵Thou shalt not slaughter the blood of My sacrifices with leaven; neither shall the sacrifices of a feast of Passover lie unto the morning. ²⁶The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a lamb in his mother's milk.

²⁷And the Lord said unto Moses, Write thou these words for thyself: for upon these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel. ²⁸And Moses was there before the Lord forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water: and he wrote upon the tables these words of the covenant, the Ten Words. ²⁹And when Moses came down from the mount, the two tables also were in Moses' hands, as he came down from the mount, Moses wist not that the appearance of the colour of his face was glorified, when he talked with Him. ³⁰And Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, and the appearance of the colour of his face was charged with glory; and they were afraid to come nigh him. ³¹And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation turned unto him: and Moses talked with them. ³²And after these things all the sons of Israel came unto him: and he gave them commandment in all the things that the Lord had said unto him in the mount of Sinai. ³³And when he had ceased speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴But whensoever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with Him, he took the veil off, until he went out: and when he went out, and spake unto the sons of Israel whatsoever the Lord commanded him. ³⁵And the sons of Israel saw the face of Moses, that it was charged with glory: and Moses put a veil over his face, until he went in to speak with Him.

CHAPTER 35

And Moses gathered all the congregation of the sons of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath spoken, for to do them. ²Six days shall thou do works, but on the seventh day there shall be rest, an holy sabbath, a rest for the Lord: whosoever doeth work therein, let him die. ³Ye shall burn no fire in any of your habitations upon the sabbath day: I am the Lord.

⁴And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath appointed you, saying, ⁵Take of yourselves an offering unto the Lord: every one that engageth in his heart shall bring the firstfruits unto the Lord; gold, and silver, and brass, ⁶blue, and purple, and double scarlet spun, and fine linen spun, and goats' hair, ⁷and rams' skins dyed red, and skins dyed blue, and incorruptible wood, ⁸and sardius stones, and stones for engraving for the shoulder piece and full length robe. ⁹And every man among you that is of a wise heart, let him come, and work all things whatsoever the Lord hath commanded. ¹⁰The tabernacle, and the cords, and the coverings, and the rings, and the bars, and the posts, ¹¹and the ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the propitiatory thereof, and the veil, ¹²and the curtains of the court, and the posts thereof, ¹³and the emerald stones, ¹⁴and the anointing oil, ¹⁵and the table, and all the furniture thereof, ¹⁶and the candlestick for light, ¹⁷and the altar and all the furniture thereof, ¹⁸and the holy garments of Aaron the priest, and the garments in which they shall do service, ¹⁹and the garments of priesthood for Aaron's sons, and the anointing oil, and the compound incense. ²⁰And all the congregation of the sons of Israel went forth from Moses; ²¹and each one whose heart prompted them, and to whom it seemed good in their mind, brought an offering: and they brought an offering unto the Lord for all the works of the tabernacle of the testimony, and for all the service thereof, and for all the garments of the sanctuary. ²²And the men brought from the women, even every one to whom it seemed good in his mind, they brought seals, and earrings, and finger rings, and necklaces, and bracelets, every thing of gold, and all as many as brought offerings of gold unto the Lord. ²³And with whomsoever fine linen was found brought skins dyed blue, and rams' skins dyed red. ²⁴And every one that did offer an offering brought silver and brass, the offerings unto the Lord; and with whom was found incorruptible wood; and they brought offerings for all the work of the preparation. ²⁵And every woman skilled in her heart to spin with her hands brought spun things, the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen. ²⁶And all the women, to whom it seemed good in their heart in wisdom, spun the goats' hair. ²⁷And the rulers brought the emerald stones, and the stones for setting in the shoulder piece, and the oracle, ²⁸and the compounds, both for the anointing oil and the composition of the incense. ²⁹And every man and woman whose mind did incline them to come in and do all the works as many as the Lord appointed them to do by Moses, the sons of Israel brought an offering unto the Lord.

³⁰And Moses said unto the sons of Israel, Behold, God hath called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, ³¹and hath filled him with a divine spirit of wisdom and understanding, and knowledge of all things; ³²to labour skilfully in all works of cunning workmanship; to form the gold, and the silver, and the brass, ³³and to work in stone, and to fashion the wood; and to work in every work of wisdom. ³⁴And He gave improvement in his understanding, both to him, and to Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. ³⁵And them filled He with wisdom, and understanding, and perception, to understand to make all the works of the sanctuary, and to weave with the scarlet and with the linen; to make every work of curious workmanship and embroidery.

CHAPTER 36

Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every one that was wise in understanding, unto whom was given wisdom and knowledge, to understand how to do all the works that were according to the holy offices, according to all that the Lord had appointed. ²And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and all that had wisdom, unto whom the Lord had given knowledge in the heart, and all who were freely willing to come forward to the works, to perform them: ³and they received from Moses all the offerings, which the sons of Israel had brought for the works of the sanctuary to make them withal: and they continued to receive the gifts that were brought, from them that brought them in the morning. ⁴And there came all the wise men, that wrought the works of the sanctuary, each according to his own work which they made; ⁵and they said unto Moses, The people bring much more than the works, which the Lord appointed them to do. ⁶And Moses gave commandment, and proclaimed in the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman work any more for the firstfruits of the sanctuary: and the people were restrained from bringing more. ⁷And the works were sufficient for the furniture to make it; and there were left some beside.

⁸And every wise hearted man among them that wrought made (MASORETIC TEXT CH.39, 1) the garments of the holy places, that belonged to Aaron the priest; as the Lord commanded Moses. ⁹And they made the shoulder piece of gold, blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen. ¹⁰And the plates of gold were cut as wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the spun scarlet, and in the fine twined linen: they made it a woven work; ¹¹shoulder pieces coupled together from both sides, a work that was woven by mutual twisting of the parts into one another. ¹²They made it according to the making of it, of gold, and blue, and purple, and spun red, and the fine twined, linen; as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹³And they wrought the two emerald stones clasped together, and set in gold, graven, and cut after the cutting of a seal, with the names of the sons of Israel: ¹⁴and he put them on the shoulder pieces, stones of memorial of the sons of Israel; as the Lord appointed Moses.

¹⁵And they made the oracle, a work woven with embroidery, according to the work of the shoulder piece, of gold, and blue, and purple, and spun red, and fine twined linen. ¹⁶They made the oracle foursquare, and double, the length of a span, and the breadth of a span, double. ¹⁷And there was interwoven with it a woven work set with stones, of four rows, a row of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald: ¹⁸and the second row, a carbuncle, a sapphire, and a jasper; ¹⁹and the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst; ²⁰and the fourth row, a chrysolite, a beryl, and an onyx, set round about with gold, and bound with gold. ²¹And the stones were twelve according to the names of the sons of Israel; graven according to their names like unto seals, each according to his own name for the twelve tribes. ²²And they made upon the oracle turned wreaths, wreathen work, of pure gold: ²³and they made two circlets of gold, and two golden rings. ²⁴And they put the two rings of gold on both the corners of the oracle: ²⁵and they put the wreaths of gold upon the rings, upon both sides of the oracle, and the two wreaths into the two couplings. ²⁶And they put them on the two circlets; and they put them upon the shoulders of the shoulder piece, before it. ²⁷And they made the two rings of gold, and put them on the two wings, at the extremity of the oracle, and upon the top of the hinder part of the shoulder piece within.

²⁸And they made two golden rings, and put them on both the shoulders of the shoulder piece beneath it, in front by the coupling above the joining of the shoulder piece. ²⁹And he did fasten the oracle by the rings that were thereon unto the rings of the shoulder piece, the which were fastened with the blue, being held together with woven work of the shoulder piece; that the oracle should not be loosed from the shoulder piece; as the Lord commanded Moses.

³⁰And they made the tunic under the shoulder piece of woven work, all of blue. ³¹And the opening of the tunic in the midst was woven closely together; and the opening had a fringe round about, that it might not be rent. ³²And they made upon the border of the tunic below pomegranates, as of a flowering pomegranate tree; of blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen. ³³And they made bells of gold, and put the bells on the border round about between the pomegranates: ³⁴a bell of gold, and a pomegranate upon the border of the tunic round about, for the ministration; as the Lord commanded Moses. ³⁵And they made vestments of fine linen, a woven work, for Aaron and his sons, ³⁶and the tires of fine linen; and the mitre of fine linen; and the breeches of fine twined linen, ³⁷and their girdles of fine twined linen; and blue, and purple, and scarlet spun, the work of an embroiderer; according as the Lord commanded Moses. ³⁸And they made the golden plate, a dedicated thing of the sanctuary, of pure gold: ³⁹and he wrote upon it graven letters as of a seal, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. ⁴⁰And they put it upon the border of blue, that it should be upon the mitre above; as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 37 (MASORETIC TEXT CH. 36⁸)

And they made ten curtains for the tabernacle: ²the length of one curtain of twenty and eight cubits, (the same was to all) and the breadth of one curtain was of four cubits. ³And they made the veil of blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen; the woven work with cherubims. ⁴And they put it upon four posts of incorruptible wood overlaid with gold; and their chapiters were gold, and their four sockets were silver. ⁵And they made the veil of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony of blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen, woven work with cherubims: ⁶and their posts five, and the rings: and they gilded their chapiters and their clasps with gold; and they had five sockets of brass.

(MT CH.38⁹) ⁷And they made the court. The curtains of the court southward were of fine twined linen, an hundred every way, ⁸and their posts twenty, and their sockets twenty; ⁹and on the north side an hundred every way; and their posts twenty, and their sockets twenty. ¹⁰And on the side toward the sea, curtains of fifty cubits; their posts ten, and their sockets ten. ¹¹And the side toward the east was fifty cubits; there were curtains of fifteen cubits to the back side, ¹²and their pillars were three, and their sockets three. ¹³And at the second back on this side and on that by the gate of the court, there were curtains of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three; ¹⁴all the curtains of the tabernacle of fine twined linen. ¹⁵And the sockets of their pillars of brass; and their hooks of silver; and their chapiters overlaid with silver; and all the posts of the court overlaid with silver; ¹⁶and the veil of the gate of the court, the work of an embroiderer of blue, and purple, and spun scarlet, and fine twined linen: the length of twenty cubits, and the height and the breadth of five cubits, made equal to the curtains of the court: ¹⁷and their pillars four; and their sockets four of brass; and their hooks of silver; and their chapiters overlaid with silver. ¹⁸And all the pins of the court round about of brass; and they were overlaid with silver.

¹⁹And this was the appointment of the tabernacle of the testimony, according as it was appointed unto Moses; that the public service should belong to the Levites, through Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ²⁰And Bezalseel, the son of Uri, of the tribe of Judah, did as the Lord commanded Moses. ²¹And Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, who was chief artificer in the woven works, and needle works, and embroideries, in weaving with the scarlet and fine linen.

CHAPTER 38 (MAS. CH.37¹)

And Bezaleel made the ark. ²And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without. ³And he cast for it four rings of gold, even two rings of the one side, and two on the second side, ⁴wide for the staves, so that men should bear the ark with them. ⁵And he made the propitiatory over the ark of pure gold, ⁶and the two cherubims of gold; ⁷one cherub on the one end of the propitiatory, and another cherub on the on the second end of the propitiatory, ⁸overshadowing the propitiatory with their wings.

⁹And he made the table of presentation of pure gold, ¹⁰and he cast for it four rings: even two upon the one side, and two upon the second side, broad, that men should carry it with the staves in them. ¹¹And he made the staves of the ark, and of the table, and gilded them with gold. ¹²And he made the furniture of the table, both the dishes, and the censers, and the cups, and the bowls wherewith he should offer drink offerings, of gold.

¹³And he made the candlestick, which giveth light, of gold: ¹⁴the stem solid, and the branches from both sides thereof: ¹⁵and blossoms proceeding from the branches thereof, three on this side, and three on that; made equal to each other. ¹⁶And their lamps, which are on the ends, knops like almonds from them; and sockets proceeding from them, that the lamps might be upon them; and the seventh socket, on the top of candlestick, on the summit above, all of solid gold. ¹⁷And upon the candlestick seven golden lamps; and the snuffers thereof gold; and the oil funnels thereof gold.

(CH.36³⁴⁻³⁶) ¹⁸He overlaid the post, and cast for each post rings of gold; and overlaid the bars with gold; and made the hooks of gold. ¹⁹He made also the rings of the tabernacle of gold; and the rings of the court; and the rings for drawing out the veil above of brass. ²⁰He cast the silver chapiters of the tabernacle, and the brazen chapiters of the door of the tabernacle, and the gate of the court: and he made silver hooks for the posts; he overlaid them with silver upon the posts. ²¹He made the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, of brass. ²²He made the brazen altar of the brazen censers, which pertained unto the men which were in sedition with the gathering of Korah. ²³He made all the vessels of the altar, and the grate thereof, and the base thereof, and the bowls thereof, and the brazen fleshhooks. ²⁴He made an appendage for the altar of network under the grate, beneath it even unto the midst thereof; and to it he fastened four brazen rings on the four parts of the appendage of the altar, wide enough for the bars, to bear the altar with them. ²⁵He made the holy oil of anointing, and the composition of the incense, the pure work of the perfumer. ²⁶He made the brazen laver, and the brazen base thereof, of the mirrors of the women that fasted; which fasted by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony, in the day wherein he set it up. ²⁷And he made the laver, that of it Moses and Aaron, and his sons might wash their hands and their feet: when they went into the tabernacle of the testimony, or whensoever they advanced unto the altar to do service, they washed of it; as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 39 (MAS. CH.38²⁴)

All the gold that was occupied for the works, according to all the work of the holy things, was of the gold of the firstfruits, even twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and twenty shekels according to the holy shekel. ²And the offering of silver from the men that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, one drachma apiece, even the half shekel, according to the holy shekel. ³Every one that passed the survey from twenty years old and upward to the number of six hundred thousand, and three thousand five hundred and fifty. ⁴And the hundred talents of silver that went to the casting of the hundred chapters of the tabernacle, and to the chapters of the veil; ⁵an hundred chapters to the hundred talents, a talent to a chapter. ⁶And the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made into hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapters, and adorned them. ⁷And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and a thousand five hundred shekels; ⁸and they made of it the bases of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, ⁹and the bases of the court round about, and the bases of the gate of the court, and the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court round about; ¹⁰and the brazen appendage of the altar, and all the vessels of the altar, and all the instruments of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹¹And the sons of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

¹²And of the gold that remained of the offering made they vessels wherewith to minister unto the Lord. ¹³And the blue that was left, and the purple, and the scarlet, made they into garments of ministry for Aaron, that he should minister with them in the sanctuary.

¹⁴And they brought the garments unto Moses, and the tabernacle, and the furniture thereof, and his bases, and his bars, and the posts, ¹⁵and the ark of the covenant, and the bearers thereof, and the altar, and all his furniture. ¹⁶And they made the oil of anointing, and the incense of composition, and the pure candlestick, ¹⁷and the lamps thereof; lamps for burning, and oil for the light; ¹⁸and the table of presentation, and all the furniture thereof, and the loaves of presentation upon it; ¹⁹and the garments of the sanctuary, which pertain to Aaron; ²⁰and the curtains of the court, and the posts, and the veil of the door of the tabernacle, and the gate of the court; ²¹and all the vessels of the tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof for the works of the tabernacle of the testimony. ²²Whatsoever things the Lord appointed Moses, so the sons of Israel made all the furniture. ²³And Moses did see all the works; and they had done them all as the Lord commanded Moses; even so had they made them: and Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²On the first day of the first month, at the new moon, shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the testimony. ³And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the veil. ⁴And thou shalt bring in the table, and set forth that which is to be set forth upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and place thereon the lamps thereof. ⁵And thou shalt set the altar of gold, to burn incense before the ark; and thou shalt put a covering of a veil upon the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁶And thou shalt set the altar of burnt offerings by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony; and thou shalt set up the tabernacle round about: and thou shalt hallow all that belongeth unto it round about. ⁷And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the furniture thereof: and it shall be holy. ⁸And thou shalt anoint the altar of burnt offerings, and all his furniture, ⁹and sanctify the altar: and the altar shall be most holy. ¹⁰And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, and wash them with water. ¹¹And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; and he shall minister unto Me in the priest's office. ¹²And thou shalt bring up his sons, and shalt put garments upon them. ¹³And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father; and they shall minister unto Me in the priests' office: and it shall be that they shall have an everlasting anointing of priesthood throughout their generations. ¹⁴And Moses did all whatsoever the Lord commanded him, so did he.

¹⁵And it came to pass in the first month, in the second year since the sons of Israel went forth out of Egypt, at the new moon, that the tabernacle was reared up. ¹⁶And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and put on the chapters, and put the bars into their places; and set up the posts. ¹⁷And he stretched out the curtains over the tabernacle, and put the veil of the tabernacle over it; as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁸And he took the testimonies, and put them into the ark, and put the staves under the ark. ¹⁹And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and put on the covering of the veil, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the Lord commanded Moses. ²⁰And he put the table in the tabernacle of the testimony, on the north side, outside the veil of the tabernacle. ²¹And he set the loaves of presentation upon it before the Lord; as the Lord commanded Moses. ²²And he put the candlestick in the tabernacle of the testimony, upon the side of the tabernacle southward. ²³And he set the lamps thereof upon it before the Lord; as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²⁴And he put the golden altar in the tabernacle of the testimony before the veil, ²⁵and he burned incense of the mixture thereon; as the Lord commanded Moses. ²⁶And he put the altar of burnt offerings by the doors of the tabernacle. ²⁷And he set up the court round about the tabernacle of the testimony and the altar; and Moses finished all the works.

²⁸And the cloud covered the tabernacle of the testimony; and the tabernacle of the testimony was filled with the glory of the Lord. ²⁹And Moses was not able to enter into the tabernacle of the testimony, because the cloud overshadowed it, and the tabernacle was filled with the glory of the Lord. ³⁰Now whensoever the cloud went up from the tabernacle, the sons of Israel broke camp with their household stuff. ³¹And if the cloud went not up from the tabernacle, they prepared not to break camp, till the day that the cloud went up. ³²For the cloud was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was upon it by night, in the sight of all Israel, in all their journeyings.

LEVITICUS

CHAPTER 1

And the Lord called unto Moses again, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the testimony, saying, Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, ²If any man of you bring gifts unto the Lord, ye shall bring your gifts of the cattle, and of the oxen, and of the sheep. ³If his gift be an whole burnt offering of the cattle, he shall bring a male without blemish unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony; he shall bring it as acceptable before the Lord. ⁴And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering as a thing acceptable unto him, to make atonement for him. ⁵And they shall kill the calf before the Lord: and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall bring the blood, and pour the blood round about upon the altar that is by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁶And when they have flayed the whole burnt offering, they shall divide him by his limbs. ⁷And the sons of Aaron the priests shall put fire upon the altar, and pile wood upon the fire: ⁸and Aaron's sons the priests shall pile the divided parts, and the head, and the fat, upon the wood of the fire, which is upon the altar. ⁹But the inwards and the feet they shall wash with water: and the priests shall put all on the altar: it is a burnt offering, a sacrifice, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

¹⁰And if his gift unto the Lord be of the sheep, or of the lambs, or of the kids, for whole burnt offerings, he shall bring it a male without blemish; and he shall lay his hand upon his head. ¹¹And they shall kill it by the side of the altar northward before the Lord; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall pour his blood round about upon the altar. ¹²And they shall divide him by his limbs, and his head, and his fat, and the priest shall pile them up on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar. ¹³And they shall wash the inwards and the feet with water: and the priest shall bring all the parts, and put them upon the altar: it is a burnt offering, a sacrifice, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

¹⁴And if he bring his gift, a burnt offering to the Lord, of fowls, then he shall bring his gift of turtledoves, or of pigeons. ¹⁵And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar: and the priest shall put it upon the altar, and shall wring out the blood at the base of the altar. ¹⁶And he shall pluck away the crop with the feathers, and cast it by the altar eastward, to the place of the ashes. ¹⁷And he shall break it off from the wings, and shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall put it upon the altar upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt offering, a sacrifice, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

CHAPTER 2

Now if a soul bring a gift, a sacrifice unto the Lord, his gift shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: it is a sacrifice. ²And he shall bring it to the priests Aaron's sons: and when he hath taken thereout a handful of the fine flour, with the oil, and all the frankincense thereof, then the priest shall put the memorial of it upon the altar: a sacrifice, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ³And the remnant of the sacrifice shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion of the sacrifices of the Lord. ⁴And if he bring as a gift a sacrifice baken in the oven, a gift unto the Lord of fine flour, it shall be unleavened bread of fine flour kneaded with oil, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil. ⁵And if thy gift be a sacrifice out of a pan, it is fine flour mingled with oil, unleavened. ⁶And thou shalt break them in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a sacrifice unto the Lord. ⁷And if thy gift be a sacrifice out of the hearth, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. ⁸And he shall offer the sacrifice which he shall make of these things unto the Lord, and shall bring it unto the priest. ⁹And the priest shall approach the altar, and take from the sacrifice a memorial thereof; and the priest shall put it upon the altar: a burnt offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹⁰And that which is left of the sacrifice shall be for Aaron and his sons, most holy of the burnt offerings of the Lord.

¹¹Ye shall not leaven any sacrifice, which ye shall bring unto the Lord: for any leaven, or any honey, ye shall not bring of it to offer a gift unto the Lord. ¹²Ye shall bring them in the way of fruits unto the Lord; but they shall not be offered upon the altar for a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹³And every gift of your sacrifice shall be seasoned with salt; omit not the salt of the covenant of the Lord from your sacrifices: upon every gift of yours shall ye offer salt unto the Lord your God. ¹⁴And if thou offer a sacrifice of firstfruits unto the Lord, new grains ground and roasted for the Lord; thus shalt thou bring the sacrifice of the firstfruits. ¹⁵And thou shalt pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: it is a sacrifice. ¹⁶And the priest shall offer the memorial of it from the grains with the oil, and all the frankincense thereof: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord.

CHAPTER 3

And if his gift unto the Lord be a sacrifice of deliverance, if he bring it of the cattle; whether it be a male or female, he shall bring it without blemish before the Lord. ²And he shall lay his hands upon the head of the gift, and kill it before the Lord, at the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony: and Aaron's sons the priests shall pour the blood upon the altar of whole burnt offerings round about. ³And they shall bring of the sacrifice of deliverance a burnt offering unto the Lord; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them at the flanks; and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. ⁵And Aaron's sons the priests shall offer them on the altar upon the whole burnt offering, upon the wood that is on the fire upon the altar: it is a burnt offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

⁶And if his gift be of the sheep, a sacrifice of deliverance unto the Lord, male or female, he shall bring it without blemish. ⁷If he bring a lamb for his gift, he shall bring it before the Lord, ⁸and he shall lay his hands upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony: and Aaron's sons the priests shall pour out the blood round about upon the altar. ⁹And he shall bring of the sacrifice of deliverance a burnt offering unto the Lord: the fat thereof, and the rump without blemish shall he take away with the loins; and when he hath taken away all the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, ¹⁰and both the kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and that which is by the flanks, and the caul that is upon the liver, with the kidneys; ¹¹the priest shall offer these upon the altar, a sacrifice of a sweet savour, a burnt offering unto the Lord.

¹²And if the offering be of the goats, then he shall bring it before the Lord. ¹³And he shall lay his hands upon the head of it; and they shall kill it before the Lord, by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony: and the priests Aaron's sons shall pour the blood upon the altar round about. ¹⁴And he shall offer thereof a burnt offering unto the Lord, even the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards. ¹⁵And both the kidneys, and all the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul of the liver, and the kidneys, shall he take away. ¹⁶And the priest shall offer it upon the altar, a burnt offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. All the fat is the Lord's. ¹⁷*It shall be* a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings: ye shall eat no fat, and no blood.

CHAPTER 4

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance before the Lord, of any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which he ought not to do, and shall do some of them: ³if the priest that is anointed do sin, so that the people sin, then shall he bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a calf without blemish of the herd unto the Lord for his sin. ⁴And he shall bring the calf unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony before the Lord; and shall put his hand upon the calf's head before the Lord, and kill the calf before the Lord. ⁵And the priest that is anointed, whose hands have been perfected, when he hath received of the blood of the calf, shall then bring it into the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁶And the priest shall dip his finger into the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the Lord, over against the holy veil. ⁷And the priest shall put some of the blood of the calf upon the horns of the altar of the incense of the composition, which is before the Lord, which is in the tabernacle of the testimony; and he shall pour all the blood of the calf at the bottom of the altar of whole burnt offerings, which is by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁸And he shall take off from it all the fat of the calf of the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, ⁹and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is upon the flanks, and the caul upon the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away: ¹⁰as he taketh it away from the calf of the sacrifice of peace offering, so shall the priest offer it upon the altar of whole burnt offering. ¹¹And the skin of the calf, and all his flesh, with the head, and with the extremities, and the belly, and the dung, shall they take; ¹²and the whole calf shall they carry forth out of the camp unto a clean place, where they pour out the ashes; and they shall consume him there upon the wood with fire: on the outpouring of the ashes shall he be burnt.

¹³Now if the whole congregation of Israel be ignorant or unwilling, and a thing escape the eyes of the congregation, and they have done one of any of the commandments of the Lord, which should not be done, and they transgress: ¹⁴and the sin wherein they have sinned become known to them, then the congregation shall bring a calf without blemish of the cattle for a sin offering, and bring him before the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁵And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the calf before the Lord: and they shall kill the calf before the Lord. ¹⁶And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the calf's blood into the tabernacle of the testimony; ¹⁷and the priest shall dip his finger in some of the calf's blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, even before the veil of the sanctuary. ¹⁸And the priest shall put of the blood upon the horns of the altar of the incense of composition, which is before the Lord, that is in the tabernacle of the testimony, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of whole burnt offerings, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁹And he shall take all the fat from him, and offer it up upon the altar. ²⁰And he shall do with the calf as he did with the calf of the sin offering, so shall it be done: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and the trespass shall be forgiven them. ²¹And they shall carry forth the calf whole without the camp, and burn the calf as they burned the former calf: it is the sin offering of the congregation. ²²And if a ruler sin, and do one of all of the commandments of the Lord his God, that ought not to be done, unwillingly, and shall sin and trespass; ²³and his trespass wherein he hath sinned, be known unto him; then he shall offer for his gift a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. ²⁴And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the kid, and they shall kill it in the place where they kill the whole burnt offerings before the Lord: it is a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and pour it out at the bottom of the altar of whole burnt offering. ²⁶And he shall offer up all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him. ²⁷And if a soul of the people of the land sin without intent, and doeth a thing of any of the commandments of the Lord, which ought not to be done, and he transgress; ²⁸and his sin wherein he hath sinned be known unto him: then he shall bring a kid of the goats; a female without blemish shall he bring for his sin, which he hath sinned. ²⁹And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his sin offering, and they shall slay the kid of the sin offering in the place where they slay the whole burnt offerings. ³⁰And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of whole burnt offerings, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar. ³¹And he shall take away all the fat, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of deliverance; and the priest shall offer it upon the altar for a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. ³²And if he offer a lamb for his sin offering, he shall offer it a female without blemish. ³³And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offerings, and they shall slay it in the place where they kill the whole burnt offerings. ³⁴And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of whole burnt offering. ³⁵And he shall take away all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar: and he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of deliverance; and the priest shall put it upon the altar for an whole burnt offering unto the Lord: and the priest shall make an atonement for the sin, which he sinned; and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER 5

And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, or hath seen or knoweth of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity. ²That soul which shall touch any unclean thing, or carcase, or that which is unclean being taken of beasts, or carcasses of abominations which are unclean, or carcasses of unclean cattle, ³or shall touch the uncleanness of a man, or whatsoever kind, which he may touch and be defiled withal; and it have escaped him, but afterwards he know; then shall he have transgressed: ⁴or that unrighteous soul, which determineth with his lips to do evil, or to do good, according to whatsoever a man may determine with an oath, and it shall have escaped his notice, and he shall know, and he sin in some one of these things; ⁵then he shall shew his sin in the things wherein he hath sinned by that sin. ⁶And he shall bring for his transgressions against the Lord, for his sin, an ewe lamb of the sheep, or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin, which he hath sinned, and his sin shall be forgiven him.

⁷But if his hand be not strong for that which is sufficient for a sheep, he shall bring for his sin which he hath sinned two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the Lord; one for a sin offering, and the second for an whole burnt offering. ⁸And he shall bring them unto the priest, and the priest shall bring the sin offering first, and wring off the head from the neck, but shall not divide the body asunder. ⁹And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; but the rest of the blood shall he drop at the bottom of the altar; for it is a sin offering. ¹⁰And he shall make the second an whole burnt offering, as it is fitting: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin which he hath sinned; and it shall be forgiven him. ¹¹But if his hand find not two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring as his gift for his sin; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall pour no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering. ¹²And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest, having taken an handful of it, shall lay the memorial thereof upon the altar of whole burnt offerings unto the Lord: it is a sin offering. ¹³And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these things, and it shall be forgiven him: and that which is left shall be the priest's, as an offering of fine flour.

¹⁴And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁵The soul that is unaware, and sinneth through ignorance in any of the holy things of the Lord, shall even bring unto the Lord for his transgression a ram of the flock without blemish, valued according to shekels of silver after the shekel of the sanctuary, for his transgression wherein he transgressed. ¹⁶And he shall make amends for that wherein he hath sinned in the holy things, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of transgression, and it shall be forgiven him.

¹⁷And the soul that shall sin, and shall do one thing of any of the commandments of the Lord, which it is not right to do, and hath not known it, and shall have transgressed, and shall have assumed the sin; ¹⁸he shall even bring a lamb without blemish out of the flock, of the price of silver for his transgression, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement concerning his trespass of ignorance wherein he trespassed in ignorance, and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁹For he hath certainly been guilty of transgression before the Lord.

²⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²¹If a soul sin, and wilfully regard not the commandments of the Lord, and deal falsely in the affairs of his neighbour in the matter of a deposit, or concerning fellowship, or in spoil, ²²or hath in any thing wronged his neighbour, ²³or hath found that which was lost, and have lied concerning it, and have sworn unjustly in any one of all the things that a man may do, to sin thereby; ²⁴then it shall be, whensoever he shall have sinned, and transgressed, that he shall restore the spoil which he hath seized, or the injury which he hath committed, or restore the deposit which was entrusted unto him, or the lost thing which he hath found of any thing, about which he have sworn unjustly: he shall even restore it in full, and shall add a fifth part beside; he shall restore it unto him to whom it pertaineth, in the day wherein he be convicted. ²⁵And he shall bring unto the Lord for his trespass, a ram out of the flock, without blemish, of value to the amount of the thing wherein he trespassed. ²⁶And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord: and it shall be forgiven him for any one of all the things that he hath done, and trespassed therein.

CHAPTER 6

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the whole burnt offering: the whole burnt offering itself in the burning thereof shall be upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning on it; it shall not be put out. ³And the priest shall put on a linen garment, and the linen breeches shall he put upon his body, and take away that which hath been thoroughly burnt, which the fire hath consumed, even the whole burnt offering, from off the altar; and he shall put it beside the altar. ⁴And he shall put off his garment, and put on other garment, and carry forth the offering that hath been burnt without the camp unto a clean place. ⁵And the fire upon the altar shall be kept burning on it, and shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and heap the whole burnt offering upon it, and shall lay thereon the fat of the sacrifice of deliverance. ⁶And the fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall not be put out.

⁷This is the law of the sacrifice, which the sons of Aaron shall bring near before the Lord, before the altar. ⁸And he shall take of it an handful of the fine flour of the sacrifice, with the oil thereof, and with all the frankincense thereof, which are upon the sacrifice, and shall offer up upon the altar a burnt offering as a sweet smelling savour, even a memorial of it, unto the Lord. ⁹And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: without leaven shall it be eaten in an holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the testimony they shall eat it. ¹⁰It shall not be baken with leaven. I have given it unto them for a portion of the burnt offerings of the Lord; it is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. ¹¹Every male of the priests shall eat of it; it is a perpetual ordinance for your generations of the offerings of the Lord: whosoever toucheth them shall be hallowed.

¹²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹³This is the gift of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the Lord in the day when thou anointest him; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sacrifice perpetual, the half of it in the morning, and the half thereof at even. ¹⁴In a frying pan it shall be made with oil; he shall bring it kneaded, rolled, an offering of fragments, an offering of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹⁵The priest of his sons that is anointed after him shall offer it; it is a perpetual statute, all of it shall be consumed. ¹⁶And every sacrifice of a priest shall be wholly burnt, and shall not be eaten.

¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where they kill the whole burnt offering shall they kill the sin offerings before the Lord: they are most holy. ¹⁹The priest that offereth it shall eat it: in an holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the testimony. ²⁰Every one that toucheth the flesh thereof shall be holy: and on whose garment soever there hath been sprinkled any of the blood, and whosoever shall have it sprinkled, shall be washed in the holy place. ²¹And the earthen vessel, wherein soever it is sodden, shall be broken: and if it have been sodden in a brasen vessel, he shall both scour it, and wash it with water. ²²Every male among the priests shall eat it: it is most holy unto the Lord. ²³And no sin offerings, of whose blood there shall be brought any into the tabernacle of the testimony to make atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten: they shall be burned with fire.

CHAPTER 7

And this is the law of the ram for the trespass offering: it is holy of holies. ²In the place where they kill the whole burnt offering shall they kill the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord: and he shall pour out the blood round about at the bottom of the altar. ³And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; and the loins, and all the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, that which is upon the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidney, them shall he take away. ⁵And the priest shall offer them upon the altar, a burnt offering unto the Lord: it is for trespass. ⁶Every male of the priest shall eat them: they shall eat them in the holy place: it is holy of holies. ⁷As the sin offering is, so also is the trespass offering: there is one law of them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith, his shall it be. ⁸And the priest that offereth a man's whole burnt offering, the skin of the whole burnt offering which he offereth shall be his. ⁹And every sacrifice that shall be prepared in the oven, and every one that shall be prepared in the hearth, or on a frying pan, it is the priest's that offereth it: it shall be his. ¹⁰And every sacrifice prepared with oil, or not prepared with oil, shall be for the sons of Aaron, unto each equally.

¹¹This is the law of the sacrifice of deliverance, which they shall bring unto the Lord. ¹²If a man offer it for praise, then shall he bring for the sacrifice of praise, loaves of fine flour made up with oil, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil, and fine flour kneaded with oil. ¹³With leavened bread he shall offer his gifts, with a sacrifice of praise of his deliverance. ¹⁴And he shall bring one of all his gifts, a separate offering unto the Lord; it shall be the priest's that poureth the blood of the peace offering. ¹⁵And the flesh of the sacrifice of praise of deliverance shall be his; and it shall be eaten in the day that it is offered; they shall not leave any of it until the morning. ¹⁶And if it be a vow, or he offer his gift of his own will, on whatsoever day he shall offer his sacrifice, it shall be eaten, and on the morrow. ¹⁷And that which is left of the flesh of the sacrifice until the third day shall be consumed with fire. ¹⁸And if he at all eat of the flesh on the third day, it shall not be accepted for him that offereth: it shall not be reckoned unto him that offereth, it is pollution; and whatsoever soul shall eat of it shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁹And whatsoever flesh shall touch any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be consumed with fire: every one that is clean shall eat the flesh. ²⁰And whatsoever soul shall eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of deliverance, which pertaineth unto the Lord, and his uncleanness be upon him, even that soul shall perish from his people. ²¹And whatsoever soul shall touch any unclean thing, either of the uncleanness of a man, or of unclean fourfooted beasts, or any unclean abominable thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offerings, which pertaineth unto the Lord, even that soul shall perish from his people.

²²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²³Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no fat of oxen, or of sheep, or of goats. ²⁴And the fat of such beasts as have died of themselves, or have been seized of beasts, may be used in any use: but it shall not be eaten for meat. ²⁵Every one that eateth fat from off the beasts, of which he will bring a burnt offering unto the Lord, even that soul shall perish from his people. ²⁶Ye shall eat no blood in all your dwellings, either of fowl or of beast. ²⁷Every soul that shall eat blood, even that soul shall perish from his people.

²⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁹Thou shalt also speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, He that offereth a sacrifice of peace offering, shall bring his gift unto the Lord also of the sacrifice of his deliverance offering. ³⁰His own hands shall bring the burnt offerings unto the Lord: the fat, which is on the breast, and the lobe of the liver, them shall he bring, to set them for a gift unto the Lord. ³¹And the priest shall offer the fat upon the altar: and the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. ³²And the right shoulder shall ye give for a choice piece unto the priest of the sacrifices of your deliverance offering. ³³He of the sons of Aaron that offereth the blood of the deliverance offering, and the fat, his shall be the right shoulder for a portion. ³⁴For the wave breast and the shoulder of separation have I taken of the sons of Israel from off the sacrifices of your deliverance offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons, a perpetual ordinance from the sons of Israel.

³⁵This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sons, of their portions of the burnt offerings of the Lord, in the day when He brought them forward to minister unto the Lord in the priest's office; ³⁶as the Lord commanded to give unto them, in the day that He anointed them of the sons of Israel, a perpetual ordinance throughout their generations. ³⁷This is the law of the whole burnt offerings, and of sacrifice, and of sin offering, and of offering for transgression, and of the sacrifice of consecration, and of the sacrifice of deliverance offering; ³⁸as the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, in the day that He commanded the sons of Israel to offer their gifts before the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Take Aaron and his sons, and his garments, and the anointing oil, and the calf for the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread; ³and gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴And Moses did as the Lord appointed him; and he gathered together the congregation unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁵And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the Lord commanded to do. ⁶And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. ⁷And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the shoulder piece upon him, ⁸and girded him according to the fashion of the shoulder piece, and clasped him closely therewith; and he put the oracle upon it; also he put the upon the oracle the Manifestation and the Truth. ⁹And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even in the forefront, did he put the golden plate, the most holy thing; as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁰And Moses took of the anointing oil, ¹¹and sprinkled thereof seven times upon the altar, and anointed the altar, and hallowed it, and all things thereon, and the laver, and his foot, and sanctified them; and anointed the tabernacle, and all the furniture thereof, and hallowed it. ¹²And Moses poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, and sanctified him. ¹³And Moses brought near Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁴And Moses brought near the calf for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the calf of the sin offering. ¹⁵And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement upon it. ¹⁶And Moses took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the lobe upon the liver, and both of the kidneys, and the fat that was upon them, and Moses offered them upon the altar. ¹⁷But the calf, and his hide, and his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁸And Moses brought near the ram for an whole burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. ¹⁹And Moses killed the ram; and Moses poured the blood upon the altar round about. ²⁰And he divided the ram by his limbs; and Moses offered the head, and the limbs, and the fat: and he washed the inwards and the feet with water. ²¹And Moses offered up the whole ram upon the altar: it is an whole burnt offering for a sweet smelling savour, it is a burnt offering unto the Lord; as the Lord commanded Moses. ²²And Moses brought the second ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram, and he slew him. ²³And Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ²⁴And Moses brought near Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tips of their right ears, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses poured the blood upon the altar round about. ²⁵And he took the fat, and the rump, and the fat that was upon the inwards, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder. ²⁶And out of the basket of consecration, that was before the Lord, he took also one unleavened loaf, and one loaf made with oil, and one cake, and put them upon the fat, and upon the right shoulder: ²⁷and put them all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and offered them up for a wave offering before the Lord. ²⁸And

Moses took them at their hands, and Moses offered them on the altar, upon the whole burnt offering of consecration, which is a smell of sweet savour: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord. ²⁹And Moses took the breast, and separated it for an heave offering before the Lord, of the ram of consecration: and it was Moses' portion; as the Lord commanded Moses. ³⁰And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him, and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. ³¹And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh in the court of the tabernacle of the testimony in the holy place: and there ye shall eat it and the loaves that are in the basket of consecration, as it hath been appointed me, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat them. ³²And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the loaves, burn ye with fire. ³³And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony for seven days, until the day be fulfilled, the day of your consecration: for in seven days shall He consecrate your hands, ³⁴as He did this day wherein the Lord commanded me to do, to make atonement for you. ³⁵And ye shall abide at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony day and night seven days; ye shall observe the ordinances of the Lord, that ye die not: for so hath the Lord God commanded me. ³⁶And Aaron and his sons did all these commandments which the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 9

And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the council of elders of Israel. ²And Moses said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf of the oxen for a sin offering, and a ram for an whole burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the Lord. ³And speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, Take ye one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a young calf, and a lamb of a year old, without blemish for an whole burnt offering, ⁴and a calf and a ram for a sacrifice of deliverance before the Lord; and fine flour mingled with oil: for to day the Lord will appear among you. ⁵And they took as Moses commanded them before the tabernacle of the testimony: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the Lord. ⁶And Moses said, This is the thing which the Lord hath spoken: do it, and the glory of the Lord shall appear among you. ⁷And Moses said unto Aaron, Draw near unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for thine house; and offer the gifts of the gifts of the people, and make atonement for them; as the Lord commanded Moses. ⁸And Aaron drew near unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering. ⁹And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar. ¹⁰And the fat, and the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver of the sin offering he offered up upon the altar; according as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹¹And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. ¹²And he slew the whole burnt offering; and Aaron's sons brought the blood unto him, and he poured it upon the altar round about. ¹³And they brought him the whole burnt offering, according to the pieces thereof, them and the head; and he put upon the altar. ¹⁴And he did wash the inwards and the feet with water, and put them upon the whole burnt offering on the altar. ¹⁵And he brought the people's gift, and took the goat of the sin offering of the people, and slew it, and offered it, and purified it, as also the first. ¹⁶And he brought the whole burnt offering, and offered it, as is fitting. ¹⁷And he brought the sacrifice, and filled his hands therewith, and laid it upon the altar beside the whole burnt offering of the morning. ¹⁸He slew also the calf and the ram of the sacrifice of deliverance of the people: and Aaron's sons brought the blood unto him, and he poured it out upon the altar round about, ¹⁹and the fat of the calf, and the hindquarters of the ram, and the fat which covereth the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat upon them, and the caul upon the liver; ²⁰and he put the fat upon the breasts, and offered the fat upon the altar. ²¹And the breast and the right shoulder Aaron separated as a choice offering before the Lord; as the Lord commanded Moses. ²²And Aaron lifted up his hands upon the people, and blessed them; and after he had offered the sin offering, and the whole burnt offerings, and the deliverance offerings, he came down. ²³And Moses and Aaron entered into the tabernacle of the testimony; and they came out, and blessed all the people: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the people. ²⁴And there came a fire out from the Lord, and consumed that which was upon the altar, both the whole burnt offerings and the fat: and all the people saw, and were astonished, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

And Nadab and Abihu, the two sons of Aaron, took each his censer, and put fire therein, and threw incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which the Lord commanded them not. ²And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them; and they died before the Lord. ³And Moses said unto Aaron, This is the thing that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified among them that draw nigh unto Me, and in all the congregation I will be glorified. And Aaron was sore vexed. ⁴And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, the sons of the brother of Aaron's father, and said unto them, Come near, and take your brethren from before the holy things without the camp. ⁵And they came near, and took them in their coats without the camp; as Moses had said. ⁶And Moses said unto Aaron, and Eleazar and Ithamar his sons that were left, Ye shall not uncover your heads, neither shall ye rend your clothes; that ye die not, and there be wrath upon all the congregation: but your brethren, the whole house of Israel, shall bewail the burning wherewith they were burned by the Lord. ⁷And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, that ye die not: for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

⁸And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying, ⁹Ye shall not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, and thy sons with thee, whensoever ye go into the tabernacle of the testimony, or when ye approach the altar; so shall ye not die: it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, ¹⁰to put difference between holy and unholy, and between clean and unclean; ¹¹and to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

¹²And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, the sons of Aaron that were left Take the sacrifice that remaineth of the burnt offerings of the Lord, and ye shall eat it without leaven beside the altar; it is holy of holies. ¹³And ye shall eat it in an holy place; because this is a statute for thee, and a statute for thy sons, of the burnt offerings unto the Lord: for so it hath been commanded me. ¹⁴And the breast of separation, and the shoulder of the choice offering shall ye eat in the holy place, thou, and thy sons, and thy house with thee: for it hath been given as an ordinance for thee, and an ordinance for thy sons, out of the sacrifices of peace offering of the sons of Israel. ¹⁵The shoulder of the choice offering, and the breast of the separation shall they bring upon the burnt offerings of the fat, to separate for a separation before the Lord; and it shall be a perpetual ordinance for thee, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee; as the Lord commanded Moses.

¹⁶And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, but it had been consumed by fire: and Moses was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left, saying, ¹⁷Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in an holy place? For seeing it is holy of holies, He hath given ye this to eat, that ye might take away the sin of the congregation, and make atonement for them before the Lord. ¹⁸For the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye shall eat it within, as the Lord commanded me. ¹⁹And Aaron spake unto Moses, saying, If this day they have brought their sin offerings and their whole burnt offerings before the Lord, and these things have befallen me, and if I eat the sin offerings to day, will it not be pleasing unto the Lord? ²⁰And Moses heard; and it pleased him.

CHAPTER 11

And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat of all beasts that are on the earth. ³Any beast that parteth the hoof, and maketh division into two hooves, and cheweth the cud, among beasts, these shall ye eat. ⁴Nevertheless of these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, and of them that part the hoof, and divide the hoof: the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; this is unclean unto you. ⁵And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; this is unclean unto you. ⁶And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof;

this is unclean unto you. ⁷And the swine, because this divideth the hoof, and cleaveth the claws of the hoof, yet he cheweth not the cud; this is unclean to you. ⁸Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcases shall ye not touch; these are unclean unto you.

⁹And these shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: all things that have fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the brooks, these shall ye eat. ¹⁰And all things that have not fins and scales in the waters, or in the seas, and in the brooks, of all that the waters bring forth, and of every living soul which is in the water, are an abomination; ¹¹and they shall be even abominations unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination. ¹²And all things that have no fins nor scales of those in the waters, this is an abomination unto you.

¹³And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls, and they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the sea eagle, ¹⁴and the vulture, and the kite, and that which after his kind; ¹⁵and the raven, and that which is after his kind; ¹⁶and the ostrich, and the owl, and the sea mew, and the hawk, and that which is after his kind, ¹⁷and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the screech owl, ¹⁸and the red bill, and the pelican, and the swan, ¹⁹and the heron, and the lapwing, and that which is after his kind; and the hoopoe, and the bat. ²⁰And all winged creatures that creep, going upon all four, are abominations unto you. ²¹Yet these shall ye eat of the creeping winged animals that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth; ²²even these of them ye shall eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind, and the grasshopper that fighteth snakes after his kind. ²³All winged creeping things, which have four feet, are an abomination unto you. ²⁴And by these shall ye be defiled: every one that toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even. ²⁵And every one that taketh of their dead bodies shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. ²⁶And whichever among the beasts divideth the hoof, or hath a cloven hoof, or cheweth the cud, shall be unclean unto you: every one that toucheth their carcases shall be unclean until the even. ²⁷And every one among all the wild beasts that moveth upon his forefeet, which goeth on all four, is unclean unto you: every one that toucheth their carcases shall be unclean until the even. ²⁸And he that taketh of their dead bodies shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even; these are unclean unto you.

²⁹These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and the mouse, and the land crocodile, ³⁰the field mouse, and the chameleon, and the gecko and lizard, and the newt, and the mole. ³¹These are unclean to you of all creeping things, which are upon the earth; every one that doth touch their carcases shall be unclean until the even. ³²And upon whatsoever one of their dead bodies shall fall, it shall be unclean; whatsoever wooden vessel, or raiment, or skin, or sack, every vessel wherein work be done, shall be dipped in water, and it shall be unclean until the even; and it shall be clean. ³³And every earthen vessel, whereinto one of these things shall fall, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and it shall be broken. ³⁴And all meat that is eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean; and every drink that is drunk in any such vessel, shall be unclean. ³⁵And every thing whereupon any of their carcasses shall fall shall be unclean; ovens, and stands for jars, they shall be broken down: these are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you. ³⁶Only if the water be of fountains of water, or a pool, or gathering of water, it shall be clean; but he that toucheth their carcasses in them shall be unclean. ³⁷And if one of their carcasses fall upon any sowing seed, which is to be sown, it shall be clean. ³⁸But if water be poured upon any seed, and one of their dead bodies fall thereon, it is unclean unto you. ³⁹And if a beast die, that which it is lawful for you to eat, he that toucheth their carcasses shall be unclean until the even. ⁴⁰And he that eateth of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth any carcase of theirs shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

⁴¹And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, this shall be an abomination unto you; it shall not be eaten. ⁴²And every thing that creepeth upon his belly, and every one that goeth on four feet continually, which aboundeth with feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, it ye shall not eat; for it is an abomination unto you. ⁴³And ye shall not make your souls abominable with any of the creeping things that creep upon the earth, neither shall ye be polluted with them, and ye shall not be unclean by them. ⁴⁴For I am the Lord your God; and ye shall be sanctified, and ye shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy; neither shall ye defile yourselves with any creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. ⁴⁵For I am the Lord that brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: and ye shall be holy, for I the Lord am holy. ⁴⁶This is the law concerning beasts, and fowls, and every living creature that moveth in the water, and every living creature that creepeth upon the earth: ⁴⁷to make a difference between the unclean and the clean; and between those that bring forth alive, such as should be eaten, and those that bring forth alive, such as should not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, Whatsoever woman have conceived seed, and born a man child, shall be unclean seven days: according to the days of separation for her monthly courses shall she be unclean. ³And in the eighth day she shall circumcise the flesh of his foreskin. ⁴And she shall continue in the blood of her uncleanness three and thirty days; she shall touch no holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purification be fulfilled. ⁵But if she have born a maid child, then she shall be unclean twice seven days, according to the time of her monthly courses: and she shall remain in the blood of her uncleanness threescore and six days. ⁶And when the days of her purification are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year without blemish for an whole burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, unto the priest. ⁷And he shall present it before the Lord, and the priest shall make an atonement for her; and he shall cleanse her from the fountain of her blood. This is the law for her that beareth a male or a female. ⁸And if she be not able to find what is enough for a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; one for an whole burnt offering, and one for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER 13

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²If any man shall have in the skin of his flesh a bright clear spot, and there be in the skin of his flesh a plague of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests. ³And the priests shall look on the spot in the skin of his flesh: and if the hair in the spot be turned white, and the appearance of the spot be deep in the skin of the flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on it, and pronounce him unclean. ⁴But if the spot be clear and white in the skin of his flesh, yet the appearance of it be not deep in the skin, and the hair thereof be not changed into a white hair, but it be dark; then the priest shall separate him that hath the spot seven days. ⁵And the priest shall look on the spot the seventh day: and, behold, if the spot remaineth before him, if the spot have not spread in the skin, then the priest shall separate him the second time seven days. ⁶And the priest shall look on him the second time on the seventh day; and, behold, if the spot be dark, and the spot have not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is but a mark: and the man shall wash his clothes, and be clean. ⁷But if the bright spot have changed, and spread abroad in the skin, after that the priest hath seen him for cleansing of him, then shall he appear the second time unto the priest. ⁸And the priest shall look on him; and, behold, if the mark have spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy. ⁹And if a man have a plague of leprosy, then shall he come unto the priest; ¹⁰and the priest shall look: and, behold, if it be a white spot in the skin, and it have changed the hair white, and if there be some of the sound part in the quick flesh of the sore; ¹¹it is a leprosy waxing old in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall separate him: for he is unclean. ¹²And if the leprosy have come out very evidently in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of the plague from the head even to the foot, according to the whole vision of the priest; ¹³then the priest shall look; and, behold, the leprosy hath covered all the skin of the flesh; and the priest shall pronounce him clean of the plague, because it hath changed all to white: it is clean. ¹⁴But on whatsoever day the quick flesh shall appear on him, he shall be pronounced unclean, ¹⁵and the priest shall look on the sound flesh, and the sound flesh shall prove him to be unclean: for it is unclean, it is a leprosy. ¹⁶But if the sound flesh be restored again, and be changed white, then he shall come unto the priest; ¹⁷and the priest shall see: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

¹⁸And if the flesh have become an ulcer in the skin thereof, and be healed, ¹⁹and in the place of the ulcer there be a white sore, or one looking white or bright, or fiery, and it be seen by the priest; ²⁰then the priest shall look, and, behold, if the appearance be beneath the skin, and the hair thereof be changed to white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a leprosy, it hath broken out in the ulcer. ²¹But if the priest look, and, behold, there is no white hair therein, and if it be not below the skin of the flesh, and it be dark in colour; then the priest shall separate him seven days. ²²But if it manifestly spread abroad over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy; it hath broken out in the ulcer. ²³But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is the scar of the ulcer, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴And if the flesh be in the skin thereof a fiery inflammation, and there be in the skin thereof the part which is healed of the inflammation, bright, clear, white, becoming somewhat reddish or very white; ²⁵then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair being white be changed into a bright colour, and the appearance thereof be deeper in the skin, it is a leprosy: it hath broken out in the inflammation, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprosy. ²⁶But if the priest look, and, behold, there be not any white hair, and it be not lower than the skin, and it be dark; then the priest shall separate him seven days. ²⁷And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if the spot be much spread abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy; it hath broken out in the ulcer. ²⁸But if the bright spot stay in his place, and be not spread in the skin, but it be dark; it is a scar of inflammation, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is the mark of the inflammation.

²⁹And if a man or woman have in them a plague of leprosy upon the head or the beard; ³⁰then the priest shall look upon the plague: and, behold, if the appearance of it be deep in the skin; and there be in it a thin yellowish hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a scurf, it is even a leprosy of the head, or a leprosy of the beard. ³¹And if the priest look on the plague of the scurf, and, behold, the appearance of it be not deep in the skin, and there is no yellowish hair in it; then the priest shall set him apart that hath the plague of the scall seven days. ³²And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall be not spread, and there be in it no yellowish hair, and appearance of the scall be not hollow deep in the skin; ³³then the skin shall be shaven, but the scall shall not be shaven; and the priest shall set apart him that hath the scall a second time for seven days. ³⁴And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin after the man hath been shaven, and the appearance of the scall be not hollow deep in the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. ³⁵But if the scall be indeed spread in the skin after he hath been cleansed, ³⁶then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for the yellow hair: for he is unclean. ³⁷But if the scall remaineth before him in the place thereof, and a dark hair have arisen therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

³⁸If a man also or woman have in their flesh spots of a bright whiteness; ³⁹then the priest shall look; and, behold, there being bright spots of a bright whiteness in the skin of their flesh, it is a freckled spot; it bursteth forth in the skin of his flesh; he is clean.

⁴⁰And if any man's head lose the hair, he is bald; yet he is clean. ⁴¹And if his head lose the hair in front, he is forehead bald; yet he is clean. ⁴²And if there be in the baldness of his head, or the baldness of his forehead, a white or fiery plague; it is a leprosy in the baldness of his head, or the baldness of his forehead. ⁴³And the priest shall look upon him: and, behold, if the appearance of the plague be white or inflamed on the baldness of his head, or baldness before, as the appearance of leprosy in the skin of his flesh; ⁴⁴he is a leprous man: the priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his plague is in his head.

⁴⁵And the leper in whom the plague is, let his clothes be ungirt, and his head uncovered; and let him have a covering put upon his mouth; and he shall be called unclean. ⁴⁶All the days wherein the plague shall be in him, being unclean, he shall be esteemed unclean: he shall dwell apart; without the camp shall his living be. ⁴⁷And if a garment have in it the plague of leprosy, a garment of wool, or a garment of flax; ⁴⁸either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the linen, or in the woollen threads, or in a skin, or in any work of skin; ⁴⁹and the plague be greenish or reddish in the skin, or in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any work that is made of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and he shall shew it unto the priest. ⁵⁰And the priest shall look upon the plague; and the priest shall set it apart that hath the plague seven days: ⁵¹and the priest shall look upon the plague on the seventh day: and if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, in whatsoever things skins may be used in their workmanship, the plague is an abiding leprosy; it is unclean. ⁵²He shall burn the garment, either warp or woof, in woollen garments, or in flaxen, or in any work of skin, wherein the plague may be; because it is an abiding leprosy: it shall be burnt with fire. ⁵³And if the priest look, and the plague be not spread in the garments, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any work of skin; ⁵⁴then the priest shall give direction, and one shall wash that wherein there may have been the plague; and the priest shall set it apart a second time seven days. ⁵⁵And the priest shall look upon it after that the plague is washed: and if this, even the plague, hath not changed his appearance, and the plague hath not spread; it is unclean; it shall be burnt with fire: it is settled in the garment, in the warp, or in the woof. ⁵⁶And if the priest look, and the spot be dark after it have been washed; he shall rend it out of the garment, either from the warp, or from the woof, or from the skin. ⁵⁷And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a leprosy bursting forth; that wherein the plague is shall be burnt with fire. ⁵⁸And the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or any article of skin, which shall be washed, and the plague depart from it, shall also be washed again, and shall be clean. ⁵⁹This is the law of the plague of leprosy of a garment of woollen or linen, either of the warp, or of the woof, or any thing of leather, to pronounce it clean or unclean.

CHAPTER 14

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²This is the law of the leper: in whatsoever day he shall have been cleansed, then shall he be brought unto the priest. ³And the priest shall come forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look; and, behold, the plague of leprosy is healed from the leper. ⁴And the priest shall give direction, and they shall take for him that is cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and spun scarlet, and hyssop. ⁵And the priest shall give direction, and they shall kill one bird into an earthen vessel over living water. ⁶And as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the spun scarlet, and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over living water. ⁷And he shall sprinkle upon him that was cleansed from his leprosy seven times, and he shall be clean, and he shall let the living bird loose into the field. ⁸And he that hath been cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, and shall be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his dwelling seven days. ⁹But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his body with water, and he shall be clean. ¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall take two lambs without blemish of the first year, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for sacrifice, kneaded with oil, and one small cup of oil. ¹¹And the priest that maketh him clean shall present the man that is under cleansing, and these offerings, before the Lord, at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹²And the priest shall take one lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the cup of oil, and set them apart for a special offering before the Lord. ¹³And they shall slay the lamb in the place where they shall kill the whole burnt offerings, and the sin offerings, and the holy places, for it is a sin offering; as the trespass offering, it is the priest's, it is most holy. ¹⁴And the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of the man that is under cleansing, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ¹⁵And the priest shall take some of the cup of oil, and pour it upon his own left hand: ¹⁶and the priest shall dip with his right finger into some of the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle with his finger seven times before the Lord. ¹⁷And the remnant of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is under cleansing, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering: ¹⁸and the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand, shall the priest put upon the head of him that is cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord. ¹⁹And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make an atonement for him that is under cleansing from his sin; and afterward the priest shall kill the whole burnt offering. ²⁰And the priest shall offer the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice upon the altar before the Lord: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be cleansed.

²¹And if he be poor, and his hand find not so much, he shall take one lamb for his transgression for a separate offering, to make a propitiation for him, and a tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for an offering, and one cup of oil; ²²and two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, as many as his hand hath found; and the one shall be for a sin offering, and the other for an whole burnt offering. ²³And he shall bring them on the eighth day to cleanse him unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, before the Lord. ²⁴And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the cup of oil, and place them for a set offering before the Lord: ²⁵and he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is under purification, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: ²⁶and the priest shall pour of the oil upon his own left hand. ²⁷And the priest shall sprinkle with the finger of his right hand some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the Lord. ²⁸And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is under purification, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering. ²⁹And that which is left of the oil that is on the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is purged; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord. ³⁰And he shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, as he can afford it, ³¹the one for a sin offering, and the other for an whole burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is under cleansing before the Lord. ³²This is the law for him in whom is the plague of leprosy, and who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing.

³³And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ³⁴Whensoever ye come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I give the plague of leprosy in the houses of the land of your possession; ³⁵then he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, I have seen as it were a plague in the house: ³⁶then the priest shall give command to remove the furniture of the house, before the priest come into it to see the plague; and none of the things that are in the house shall be unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house. ³⁷And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house, with greenish or reddish hollows, and the appearance of them beneath the surface of the walls;

³⁸then the priest shall come out of the house to the door of the house; and the priest shall separate the house seven days. ³⁹And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look upon the house: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house; ⁴⁰then the priest shall command, and they shall take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city. ⁴¹And they shall scrape the house within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that is scraped off without the city into an unclean place: ⁴²and they shall take other scraped stones, and put them in the place of the former stones; and they shall take other plaister, and shall plaister the house. ⁴³And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that they have taken away the stones, and after the house is scraped, and after it is plaistered; ⁴⁴then the priest shall come and see if the plague be spread in the house; it is a confirmed leprosy in the house: it is unclean. ⁴⁵And they shall take down the house, and the timbers thereof, and the stones of it; and they shall carry forth all the mortar without the city into an unclean place. ⁴⁶And he that goeth into the house at any time during its separation shall be unclean until the even. ⁴⁷And he that sleepeth in the house shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. ⁴⁸And if the priest shall arrive, and come in, and look; and, behold, the plague be not at all spread in the house, after the house hath been plaistered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. ⁴⁹And he shall take to cleanse the house two clean, living birds, and cedar wood, and spun scarlet, and hyssop: ⁵⁰and he shall kill one bird in an earthen vessel over running water. ⁵¹And he shall take the cedar wood, and the spun scarlet, and the hyssop, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was slain over running water; and with them shall he sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵²And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the spun scarlet. ⁵³And he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the field, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

⁵⁴This is the law concerning all manner of plague of leprosy, and scurf, ⁵⁵and of the leprosy of a garment, and of a house, ⁵⁶and of a sore, and of a clear spot, and of a shining one, ⁵⁷and of declaring in what day it is unclean, and in what day it shall be purged: this is the law of the leprosy.

CHAPTER 15

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, What man soever have an issue out of his body, his issue is unclean. ³And this is the law of his uncleanness: when he floweth with seed out of his body from the issue, or if his body be stopped by the flow, this is his uncleanness in him, by reason thereof: all the days of the issue of his body, or if his body is stopped through the issue; this is his uncleanness. ⁴Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue shall be unclean; and every thing whereon he that hath the issue shall be unclean. ⁵And the man that toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ⁶And whosoever sitteth upon the seat, whereon he sat that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ⁷And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ⁸And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ⁹And any ass's saddle, whereon the man that hath the issue mounteth, shall be unclean until the even. ¹⁰And every one that toucheth whatsoever was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that taketh them up shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ¹¹And as many as he that hath the issue toucheth, if he have not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and shall be unclean until the even. ¹²And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and a vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water, and shall be clean. ¹³And if he that hath the issue be cleansed of his issue; then shall there be numbered to him seven days for his cleansing, and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and shall be clean. ¹⁴And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and shall bring them in before the Lord unto the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony, and give them unto the priest. ¹⁵And the priest shall prepare them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for an whole burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord for his issue.

¹⁶And the man whose seed of copulation go out from him, he shall then wash all his body, and be unclean until the even. ¹⁷And every garment, and every skin, whereon shall come the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even. ¹⁸A woman also, if a man lie with her in a bed with seed of copulation: they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

¹⁹And a woman that hath an issue of blood, her issue shall be in her body; she shall be seven days in her separation: any one that toucheth her shall be unclean until the even. ²⁰And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean. ²¹And whosoever toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and be unclean until the even. ²²And whoever toucheth any vessel that she shall sit upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. ²³And whether it be while she is upon her bed, or upon a seat whereon she sitteth when he toucheth her, he shall be unclean until the even. ²⁴And if any one lie with her, and her uncleanness be upon him, then shall he be unclean seven days; and every bed that he lieth upon shall be unclean.

²⁵And if a woman have an issue of blood many days, not in the time of her separation; if the blood also run after her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean. ²⁶And every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her flux shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and every seat whereon she sitteth shall be unclean, according to the uncleanness of her separation. ²⁷Every one that toucheth it shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and be unclean until the even. ²⁸But if she be cleansed from her flux, then shall be numbered to her seven days, and afterward she shall be purged clean. ²⁹And on the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ³⁰And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the Lord from her unclean flux.

³¹And ye shall cause the sons of Israel to beware of their uncleanness; they they die not for their uncleanness, when they defile My tabernacle that is among them. ³²This is the law of him that hath an issue, and if one discharge seed of copulation, so that he be defiled therewith; ³³and of her that hath the issue of blood in her separation, and as to him that hath an issue of seed in his issue, for the male, and the female, and for the man that hath lain with her that sitteth apart.

CHAPTER 16

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron after the two sons of Aaron died, when they brought strange fire before the Lord; so they died. ²And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, and let him not come at all times into the holy place within the veil before the propitiatory, which is upon the ark of the testimony; and he shall not die: for I will appear in a cloud upon the propitiatory. ³Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a calf of the herd for a sin offering, and a ram for an whole burnt offering. ⁴And he shall put on the consecrated linen tunic, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall gird himself with a linen girdle, and shall put on the linen mitre: they are holy garments; and he shall bathe all his body in water, and put them on. ⁵And he shall take of the congregation of the sons of Israel two kids of the he goats for a sin offering, and one lamb for an whole burnt offering. ⁶And Aaron shall bring the calf for his own sin offering, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. ⁷And he shall take the two goats, and set them before the Lord by the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁸And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the Lord, and the other lot for the scapegoat. ⁹And Aaron shall bring forward the goat upon which the lot for the Lord fell, and offer him for a sin offering. ¹⁰And the goat, on which the lot of the scapegoat came, shall he set alive before the Lord, to make an atonement upon him, to send him away as a scapegoat; and he shall let him go into the wilderness. ¹¹And Aaron shall offer the calf for his sin, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the calf for his sin offering. ¹²And he shall take the

censer full of coals of fire from off the altar that is before the Lord, and he shall fill his hands with fine compound incense, and bring it within the veil: ¹³and he shall put the incense upon the fire before the Lord, and the smoke of the incense shall cover the propitiatory over the tables of testimony; and he shall not die. ¹⁴And he shall take of the blood of the calf, and sprinkle with his finger upon the propitiatory eastward; before the propitiatory shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. ¹⁵And he shall kill the goat for the sin offering, that is for the people, before the Lord; and he shall bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the calf, and sprinkle his blood upon the mercy seat, before the propitiatory: ¹⁶and he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the sons of Israel, and because of their trespasses in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the testimony, that is established among them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the testimony when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he have come out; and he shall make an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the Lord, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the calf, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. ¹⁹And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and purge it, and hallow from the uncleanness of the sons of Israel. ²⁰And he shall make an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the testimony, and for the altar, and he shall bring the live goat: ²¹and Aaron shall lay his hands upon the head of the live goat, and declare over him all the iniquities of the sons of Israel, and all their unrighteousness, and all their sins; and he shall lay them upon the head of the live goat, and send him away by the hand of a ready man into the wilderness: ²²and the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities into a desert land: and Aaron shall send away the goat into the wilderness. ²³And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the testimony, and shall put off the linen garment, which he put on as he went into the holy place, and shall lay it by there. ²⁴And he shall bathe his body in water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and go forth, and offer the whole burnt offering for himself, and for his house, and for the people, as for the priests. ²⁵And the fat of the sin offering shall he offer upon the altar. ²⁶And he that sendeth forth the goat that is set apart to be let go, shall wash his garments, and wash his body in water, and afterward come into the camp. ²⁷And the calf for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make an atonement in the holy place, shall they carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn them with fire, even their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. ²⁸And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and wash his body in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

²⁹And this shall be a perpetual statute unto you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall humble your souls, and do no work, the native, and the stranger that sojourneth among you. ³⁰For in this day he shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you from all your sins before the Lord; and ye shall be purged. ³¹This shall be a most holy sabbath unto you, a rest; and ye shall humble your souls: it is a perpetual ordinance. ³²The priest, whomsoever they anoint, and whomsoever they consecrate to minister in the priestly office after his father, ³³shall make an atonement for the most holy place, and for the tabernacle of the testimony; and he shall make an atonement for the altar, and for the priests: and he shall make an atonement for all the congregation. ³⁴This shall be a perpetual statute unto you, to make an atonement for the sons of Israel for all their sins; it shall be done once in the year: as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 17

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, This is the word which the Lord hath commanded, saying, ³Man by man of the sons of Israel, whosoever killeth a calf, or sheep, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp, ⁴and bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, to offer it for an whole burnt offering or peace offering unto the Lord, to be acceptable for a smell of sweet savour; and who killeth without, and bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, to bring a gift unto the Lord before the tabernacle of the Lord; then blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood: that soul shall be cut off from his people: ⁵to the end that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices, whatsoever they shall kill in the fields, and bring them unto the Lord, unto the priest at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony; and they shall offer them for a peace offering unto the Lord. ⁶And the priest shall pour the blood upon the altar round about before the Lord by the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, and offer the fat for a smell of sweet savour unto the Lord. ⁷And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto vain things, unto whom they go out a whoring: it shall be a perpetual statute unto you for your generations.

⁸And thou shalt say unto them, Man by man of the house of Israel, or of the sons of strangers which sojourn among you, whosoever offereth an whole burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹and bringeth it not unto the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony, to sacrifice it unto the Lord, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

¹⁰And man by man of the sons of Israel, or of the sons of strangers that sojourn among you, whosoever eateth any blood; I will even set My face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹For the life of the flesh is the blood thereof: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for the blood thereof shall make an atonement for the soul. ¹²Therefore I said unto the sons of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall the stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood. ¹³And whatsoever man of the sons of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, shall take any animal in hunting, beast, or fowl that is eaten; then shall he pour out the blood, and cover it in the dust. ¹⁴For the blood of all flesh is the life thereof; and I said unto the sons of Israel, Ye shall not eat the blood of any flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: every one that eateth it shall be cut off.

¹⁵And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or is taken of beasts, either among the natives, or among the strangers, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean. ¹⁶But if he wash not his clothes, nor wash his body in water; then he shall bear his iniquity.

CHAPTER 18

¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, I am the Lord your God. ³After the doings of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. ⁴Ye shall do My judgments, and keep Mine ordinances, and walk therein: I am the Lord your God. ⁵Ye shall therefore keep all My statutes, and all My judgments, and do them: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the Lord your God.

⁶Man by man shall not approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their shame: I am the Lord. ⁷The shame of thy father, or the shame of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: for she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her shame. ⁸The shame of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's shame. ⁹The shame of thy sister by thy father, or thy mother, born at home, or born abroad, even their shame shalt thou not uncover. ¹⁰The shame of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their shame shalt thou not uncover: for it is thine own shame. ¹¹The shame of thy father's wife's daughter shalt thou not uncover: she is thy sister by the same father, thou shalt not uncover her shame. ¹²Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's sister: for she is near kin unto thy father. ¹³Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy mother's sister: for she is near kin unto thy mother. ¹⁴Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's brother, and thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thy relation. ¹⁵Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy daughter in law: for she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her shame. ¹⁶Thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's shame. ¹⁷Thou shalt not uncover the shame of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, and her daughter's daughter, to uncover their shame; for they are thy kinswomen: it is impiety. ¹⁸Neither shalt thou take a wife in addition to her sister, as a rival, to uncover her shame, in opposition unto her, while she is yet living.

¹⁹And thou shalt not approach unto a woman that is under separation for her uncleanness, to uncover her shame. ²⁰And thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. ²¹And thou shalt not give of thy seed to serve a ruler, neither shalt thou profane My holy name: I am the Lord. ²²And thou shalt not lie with a man, as with a woman: for it is an abomination. ²³Neither shalt thou lie with any four footed beast for copulation, to be polluted with it: neither shall a woman present herself before any four footed beast to have connexion with it: for it is an abomination.

²⁴Defile not yourselves with any of these things: for in all these things the nations are defiled which I drive out before you: ²⁵and the land is defiled: and I have recompensed their iniquity unto them because of it; and the land is aggrieved with the nations before you. ²⁶And ye shall keep all My statutes and Mine ordinances, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither the native, nor the stranger that joineth himself you: (²⁷for all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) ²⁸and lest the land be aggrieved with you, when ye pollute it, as it was aggrieved with the nations that were before you. ²⁹For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. ³⁰And ye shall keep Mine ordinances, that ye commit not any of these abominable practices, which have taken place before your time: and ye shall not be defiled therein: I am the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 19

And the Lord spake unto Moses saying, ²Speak thou also unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the Lord your God am holy. ³Let each man of you fear his father, and his mother; and ye shall keep My sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. ⁴Ye shall not follow idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the Lord your God. ⁵And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offering unto the Lord; ye shall offer it acceptable on your behalf. ⁶It shall be eaten in the day ye offer it, and on the morrow; and if aught be left until the third day, it shall be burnt with fire. ⁷And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is unfit to be offered; it shall not be accepted. ⁸And he that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned what is holy unto the Lord: and the souls that eat it shall be cut off from among their people.

⁹And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the harvest of thy field, to harvest thy field altogether; neither shalt thou gather that which falleth of thy harvest. ¹⁰And thou shalt not go over the gathering of thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard: thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the Lord your God.

¹¹Ye shall not steal, ye shall not lie, neither shall each swear falsely against his neighbour. ¹²And ye shall not swear by My name unjustly, neither shall ye profane the holy name of your God: I am the Lord your God. ¹³Thou shalt not act unjustly against thy neighbour, neither spoil him; and the wages of him that is thine hireling shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. ¹⁴Thou shalt not revile the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind; and thou shalt fear the Lord thy God: I am the Lord your God.

¹⁵Thou shalt not do unjustly in judgment: thou shalt not accept the person of the poor, nor admire the person of the mighty: with justice shalt thou judge thy neighbour. ¹⁶Thou shalt not walk deceitfully among thy nation: I am the Lord your God. ¹⁷Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour; and thou shalt not bear sin because of him. ¹⁸And thine hand shalt not avenge thee; and thou shalt not be angry against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the Lord.

¹⁹Ye shall keep My law: thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with one of a different kind; and thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with mingled seed: neither shalt thou put a mingled garment woven of two upon thee. ²⁰And if any one lie carnally with a woman, and she be a home bred servant kept for a man, and hath not at all been redeemed, nor her freedom given her; they shall be visited with punishment; but they shall not die, because she was not set free. ²¹And he shall bring for his trespass unto the Lord, unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, even a ram for a trespass offering. ²²And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord, for the sin which he hath done; and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

²³And when ye shall come into the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shall have planted any fruit tree, then ye shall purge away the uncleanness thereof: three years uncleansed shall the fruit thereof be unto you: it shall not be eaten. ²⁴And in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy, laudable unto the Lord. ²⁵And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof: the produce thereof is an increase unto you: I am the Lord your God.

²⁶Eat not upon the mountains; neither shall ye use auguries, nor divine by means of fowls. ²⁷Ye shall not make a round cutting of the hair of your head, neither shall ye mar the appearance of your beard. ²⁸And ye shall not make cuttings in your body for a dead body, neither shall ye print any marks upon you. I am the Lord your God. ²⁹Thou shalt not profane thy daughter to cause her to be a whore; and the land shall not go a whoring, and the land shall be filled with iniquity.

³⁰Ye shall keep My sabbaths, and reverence My sanctuaries: I am the Lord. ³¹Ye shall not attend to them that have in them divining spirits, neither cleave unto enchanters, to pollute yourselves with them: I am the Lord your God. ³²Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord your God.

³³And if a stranger come unto you in your land, ye shall not vex him. ³⁴The stranger that cometh unto you shall be among you as the native, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God. ³⁵Ye shall not do unrighteously in judgment, in measures, in weights, and in scales. ³⁶Just balances, just weights, and just liquid measure shall there be among you. I am the Lord your God, Which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

³⁷And ye shall observe all My law, and all Mine ordinances: I am the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 20

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Thou shalt also say unto the sons of Israel, If there be any of the sons of Israel, or of those that are become proselytes in Israel, whosoever giveth any of his seed unto a ruler; let him be surely put to death: the nation upon the land shall stone them with stones. ³And I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto the ruler, to defile My holy things, and to profane the name of them that are consecrated unto Me. ⁴But if the people of the land do any ways look with their eyes away from that man, when he giveth of his seed unto the ruler, and kill him not: ⁵then will I set My face against that man, and against his family, and cut him off from among his people, and all that are of one mind with him, to go a whoring unto the rulers from their people. ⁶And the soul that followeth after such as have in them divining spirits, or after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set My face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. ⁷And ye shall be holy; for I the Lord thy God am holy. ⁸And ye shall keep My statutes, and do them: I am the Lord Which sanctify you. ⁹Every man that speaketh evil of his father or his mother, let him surely die: he hath spoken evil of his father or his mother; he shall be guilty. ¹⁰Every man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, or whosoever committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, let them surely die, the adulterer and the adulteress. ¹¹And if any man lie with his father's wife, he hath uncovered his father's nakedness: let them both surely die; they are guilty. ¹²And if any man lie with his daughter in law, let them both be put to death; for they have wrought ungodliness: they are guilty. ¹³And whosoever lieth with a man as with a woman, both of them have wrought abomination: let them surely die; they are guilty. ¹⁴Whosoever shall take a woman and her mother, it is transgression: they shall burn him and them with fire; and there shall be no transgression among you. ¹⁵And whosoever shall lie with a beast, let him surely die: and ye shall slay the beast. ¹⁶And whatsoever woman shall approach unto any beast, for her to be mounted by it, ye shall kill the woman, and the beast: let them surely die; they are guilty. ¹⁷Whosoever shall take his sister by his father, or by his mother, and shall see her nakedness, and she see his shame, it is a reproach; they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their family: he hath uncovered his sister's shame; they shall bear their sin. ¹⁸And a man that lieth with a woman that is set apart, and uncovereth her shame; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the flux of her blood: both of them shall be cut off from among their people. ¹⁹And thou shalt not uncover the shame of thy father's sister, nor of thy mother's sister:

for that man hath uncovered the shame of one of his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity. ²⁰Whosoever shall lie with his near kinswoman hath uncovered the shame of one of his near kin: they shall die childless. ²¹Whosoever shall take his brother's wife, it is uncleanness: he hath uncovered his brother's shame; they shall die childless.

²²And ye shall keep all My statutes, and My judgments; and do them, and the land, whither I bring you to live therein, shall not be angry with you. ²³And walk ye not in the precepts of the nations, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and I abhorred them. ²⁴And I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you for a possession, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I the Lord thy God, Which have separated you from all the nations. ²⁵And ye shall put difference between the clean cattle and between the unclean, and between the clean fowls and between the unclean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by cattle, or by fowls, or by any of the creeping things of the earth, which I have separated for you by uncleanness. ²⁶And ye shall be holy unto Me: for I the Lord your God am holy, Which have severed you from all the nations, to be Mine.

²⁷A man also or woman, whosoever hath in them a divining spirit, or that is a wizard; let them both surely die: ye shall stone them with stones: they are guilty.

CHAPTER 21

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron; and thou shalt say unto them, They shall not be defiled by the dead among their nation: ²but for their kin, that are very near unto them, for a father, and for a mother, and for sons, and for daughters, for a brother, ³and for a sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath not been espoused to a man; for these shall he be defiled. ⁴He shall not defile himself suddenly among his people, to profane himself. ⁵And ye shall not have a baldness shaven upon your head for the dead, neither shall they shave off the appearance of their beard, nor make cuttings in their flesh. ⁶They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord as the gifts of their God they do offer: and they shall be holy. ⁷They shall not take a woman that is a whore, and one that is profaned, and a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto the Lord his God. ⁸And he shall sanctify him; he offereth the gifts of the Lord your God: he shall be holy: for I the Lord, Which sanctify them, am holy. ⁹And if the daughter of a man that is a priest profane herself to go a whoring, she profaneth the name of her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

¹⁰And the priest that is great among his brethren, when the anointing oil hath been poured upon his head, and when he hath been consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes; ¹¹neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor shall he be defiled for his father, or for his mother; ¹²neither shall he go out from the holy things, nor profane that which is consecrated unto his God; for the the holy anointing oil of God is upon him: I am the Lord. ¹³He shall take for a wife a virgin of his own kin. ¹⁴A widow, or one that is put away, or profaned, or an harlot, these shall he not take to wife: but he shall take a virgin of his own kin to wife. ¹⁵And he shall not profane his seed among his own kin: I am the Lord that sanctifieth him.

¹⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁷Say unto Aaron, A man of thy kin among your families, if any such have a blemish on him, he shall not approach to offer the gifts of his God. ¹⁸A man that hath a blemish upon him shall not approach: a lame man, or a blind, or he that hath a nose disfigured, or that hath ear cut, ¹⁹or a man that hath a broken hand, or a broken foot, ²⁰or crookbacked, or one that is blear eyed, or that hath a blemish in his eyes, or a man who is scurvy, or scabbed, or hath but one stone; ²¹whosoever of the seed of Aaron the priest hath a blemish upon him shall not draw nigh to offer sacrifices unto thy God; because he hath a blemish, he shall not draw nigh to offer the gifts of God. ²²The gifts of God are holy of holies; and he shall eat of the holy things. ²³Only he shall not draw near unto the veil, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; and he shall not profane the sanctuary of his God: for I am the Lord that sanctifieth them. ²⁴And Moses spake unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 22

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, and let them take heed concerning the holy things of the sons of Israel, and they shall not profane My holy name in any of the things which they hallow unto Me: I am the Lord. ³Say unto them, Every man of all your seed throughout your generations, who draweth near unto the holy things, which the sons of Israel hallow unto the Lord, and his uncleanness be upon him; that soul shall be cut off from My presence: I am the Lord your God. ⁴And the man of the seed of Aaron the priest, and he have leprosy, or issue of the reins, shall not eat of the holy things until he be cleansed; and whoso toucheth any thing of the uncleanness of a dead soul, or the man whose seed of copulation hath gone from him; ⁵or whosoever toucheth any unclean creeping thing that shall defile him, or a man whereby he defileth him according to all his uncleanness; ⁶a soul that toucheth them shall be unclean until even: he shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his body in water, ⁷and the sun go down, and then he shall be clean; and then he shall eat of all the holy things; for it is his food. ⁸That which dieth of itself, or is taken of beasts, shall he not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the Lord. ⁹And they shall keep Mine ordinances, that they bear not guilt by them, and die because of them, if they profane them: I am the Lord, the God that sanctifieth them. ¹⁰And there shall no stranger eat of the holy things: a sojourner with a priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy things. ¹¹But if a priest procure a soul by purchase for money, he shall eat of his bread, and they that are born in his house: they shall eat of his bread. ¹²If the priest's daughter also marry a stranger, she shall not eat of the firstfruits of the holy things. ¹³And if a priest's daughter be a widow, or put away, and have no seed, she shall return unto her father's house, as in her youth: she shall eat of her father's bread: but there shall no stranger eat thereof. ¹⁴And the man that eateth of holy things unwittingly, he shall add the fifth part unto it, and shall give the holy thing unto the priest. ¹⁵And they shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they separate unto the Lord, ¹⁶and bring upon themselves the transgression of error, by eating their holy things: for I am the Lord that sanctifieth them.

¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the congregation of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Man by man of the sons of Israel, or of the strangers that join with them in Israel, whosoever will present his gifts according to all their agreement of theirs, and according to all their choice, whatsoever they may bring unto God for whole burnt offerings: ¹⁹your acceptable offerings shall be males without blemish of the herds, or of the sheep, or of the goats. ²⁰Whatsoever hath a blemish in it, shall they not bring: for it shall not be acceptable for you. ²¹And whatsoever man shall offer a peace offering unto the Lord, to discharge a vow, or in the way of freewill offering, or an offering in your feasts, of the herds, or of the sheep, it shall be without blemish for acceptance; there shall be no blemish therein. ²²One that is blind, or broken, or hath his tongue cut out, or is troubled with warts, or hath a malignant ulcer, or scabs, ye shall not offer these unto the Lord; neither shall ye offer any of them for a burnt offering upon the altar of the Lord. ²³And a calf or a sheep that hath the ears cut off, or that hath lost its tail, thou shalt slay them for thyself; but for thy vow they shall not be accepted. ²⁴Thou shalt not offer unto the Lord that which hath broken stones, or is crushed, or gelt, or mutilated; neither shall ye sacrifice them upon your land. ²⁵Neither by a stranger's hand shall ye offer the gifts of your God of all these things; because there are corruptions in them, there is a blemish in them: these shall not be acceptable to you.

²⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁷When a calf, or a sheep, or a goat, be brought forth, then it shall be seven days under its dam; but from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for a gift, an offering unto the Lord. ²⁸And as for a calf, or a sheep, thou shalt not kill and her young both in one day. ²⁹But if thou offer a sacrifice, a vow of rejoicing, unto the Lord, ye shall offer it as acceptable to you. ³⁰On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall not leave of the flesh until the morrow: I am the Lord.

³¹And ye shall keep My commandments, and do them. ³²And ye shall not profane the name of the Holy One; and I will be hallowed among the sons of Israel. I am the Lord Which hallow you, ³³that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am Lord.

CHAPTER 23

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, The feasts of the Lord, which ye shall call holy convocations, even these are My feasts. ³Six days shalt thou do works: but on the seventh day is the sabbath; a rest, an holy convocation unto the Lord: thou shalt not do any work: it is a sabbath unto the Lord in all your dwellings.

⁴These are the feasts unto the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shall call in their seasons. ⁵In the fourteenth day of the month, in the first month, between the even times, is the Lord's Passover. ⁶And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread. ⁷And the first day shall be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work. ⁸And ye shall offer whole burnt offerings unto the Lord seven days: and the seventh day shall be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work. ⁹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, When ye shall come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: ¹¹and he shall lift up the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted for you. ¹²And ye shall offer the day when ye bring the sheaf a lamb without blemish of the first year for an whole burnt offering unto the Lord. ¹³And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth portions of fine flour mingled with oil: it is a sacrifice unto the Lord, a smell of sweet savour unto the Lord: and the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin of wine. ¹⁴And ye shall eat neither bread, nor the new parched corn, until this selfsame day, until ye offer the sacrifices unto your God: it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵And ye shall number unto you from the day after the sabbath, from the day that ye shall offer the sheaf of the heave offering, seven full weeks: ¹⁶even until the morrow after the last week shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall bring a new meat offering unto the Lord. ¹⁷Ye shall bring out of your habitations loaves, as an heave offering, two loaves: they shall be of two tenth portions of fine flour: they shall be baked with leaven of the firstfruits unto the Lord. ¹⁸And ye shall bring with the loaves seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one calf of the herd, and two rams without blemish: and they shall be for an whole burnt offering unto the Lord: and their meat offerings, and their drink offerings shall be a sacrifice, a smell of sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹⁹And they shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a peace offering, with the loaves of the firstfruits. ²⁰And the priest shall place them with the loaves of the firstfruits for an offering before the Lord, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the Lord: they shall be for the priest that bringeth them. ²¹And ye shall call this day a convocation: it shall be holy unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it is a perpetual ordinance throughout in all your dwellings throughout your generations. ²²And when ye reap the harvest of your land, ye shall not fully reap the remnant of the harvest of your field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather that which falleth from thy reaping: thou shalt leave it unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the Lord your God.

²³And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁴Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a rest, a memorial of trumpets; it shall be unto you an holy convocation. ²⁵Ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall offer an whole burnt offering unto the Lord.

²⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁷Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there is a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall humble your souls, and offer an whole burnt offering unto the Lord. ²⁸Ye shall do no work in this selfsame day: for this is a day of atonement for you, to make atonement for you before the Lord your God. ²⁹Every soul that shall not be humbled in that day, he shall be cut off from among his people. ³⁰And every soul that doeth work in that day, that soul shall be destroyed from among his people. ³¹Ye shall do no manner of work: it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³²It shall be unto you an holy sabbath, and ye shall humble your souls: from the ninth day of the month, from even unto even, shall ye keep your sabbaths.

³³And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ³⁴Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month there shall be a feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord. ³⁵And on the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work. ³⁶Seven days shall ye offer whole burnt offerings unto the Lord; and the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall offer whole burnt offerings unto the Lord: it is a time of release; ye shall do no servile work.

³⁷These are the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall call holy convocations, to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord, whole burnt offerings, and their meat offerings, and their drink offerings, that for each day upon his day: ³⁸beside the sabbaths of the Lord, and besides your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside your freewill offerings, which ye shall give unto the Lord.

³⁹Also in the fifteenth day of this seventh month, when ye have completely gathered in the fruits of the earth, ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven days: on the first day shall be a rest, and on the eighth day a rest. ⁴⁰And ye shall take you on the first day goodly fruit of trees, branches of palm trees, and thick boughs of trees, and willows, and branches of osiers; to rejoice before the Lord your God seven days in the year. ⁴¹It is a perpetual statute for your generations: ye shall keep it in the seventh month. ⁴²Ye shall dwell in tabernacles seven days; every native in Israel shall dwell in tents: ⁴³that your generations may see that I made the sons of Israel to dwell in tents, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

⁴⁴And Moses declared unto the sons of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

CHAPTER 24

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel, and let them take for thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to burn a lamp continually, ³without the veil in the tabernacle of the testimony; and Aaron and his sons shall burn it from the evening until the morning before the Lord continually, a perpetual statute throughout your generations. ⁴Ye shall burn the lamps upon the pure lampstand before the Lord until the morrow.

⁵And ye shall take fine flour, and make twelve loaves thereof: of two tenth parts shall be each loaf. ⁶And ye shall put them in two rows, each row six loaves, upon the pure table before the Lord. ⁷And ye shall put pure frankincense and salt upon each row; and these things shall be for loaves for a memorial, set forth before the Lord. ⁸On the sabbath day they shall be set forth before the Lord continually, before the sons of Israel, for an everlasting covenant. ⁹And they shall be for Aaron and his sons; and they shall eat them in the holy place: for this is their most holy portion of the offerings made unto the Lord, a perpetual statute.

¹⁰And there went out a son of an Israelitish woman; and he was the son of an Egyptian man among the sons of Israel: and, the son of the Israelitish woman, and a man who was an Israelite strove together in the camp. ¹¹And the son of the Israelitish woman cursed, and named THE NAME; and they brought him unto Moses: now his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. ¹²And they put him in ward, to judge him by the commandment of the Lord. ¹³And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁴Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and all that heard him shall lay their hands upon his head, and all the congregation shall stone him. ¹⁵And speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Whosoever shall curse God shall bear his sin. ¹⁶And he that nameth the Name of the Lord, let him surely die: let all the congregation stone him with stones; whether he be a stranger, or a native, let him die for naming the Name of the Lord. ¹⁷And whosoever shall smite a man, and he die, let him die the death. ¹⁸And whosoever shall smite a beast, and it die, let him render life for life. ¹⁹And whosoever shall inflict a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath unto him, so shall it be done to him in return; ²⁰bruise for bruise, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as any may inflict a blemish in a man, so shall it be rendered unto him. ²¹Whosoever shall smite a man, and he die, he shall die the death. ²²There shall be one judgment for the stranger, and for the native: for I am the Lord your God. ²³And Moses spake unto the sons of Israel; and they brought forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones: and the sons of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

And the Lord spake unto Moses in the mount Sinai, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Whensoever ye have entered into the land which I give you, then shall the land rest which I give you, for the sabbaths thereof unto the Lord. ³Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vine, and gather in the fruit thereof. ⁴But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath; it shall be a rest unto the land, a sabbath unto the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vine. ⁵And that which groweth of its own accord of thy field shalt thou not gather, neither shalt thou gather fully the grapes of thy dedication: it shall be a year of rest unto the land. ⁶And the sabbaths of the land shall be meats for thee, and for thy manservant, and for thy maidservant, and for thy hired servant, and for the stranger that abideth with thee. ⁷And for thy cattle, and for the wild beasts that are in thy land, shall every fruit thereof be for meat.

⁸And thou shalt reckon seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; seven weeks of years shall they be unto thee, forty and nine years. ⁹In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, shall ye make a proclamation with the sound of a trumpet in all your land: on the Day of Atonement shall ye make a proclamation with a trumpet in all your land. ¹⁰And ye shall hallow the year, the fiftieth year, and proclaim release upon the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be given a year of release, a jubilee unto you: and each man shall depart unto his possession, and ye shall go each unto his family. ¹¹This is a jubilee of release; the year shall be the fiftieth year unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap the produce that groweth of itself from the land; nor shall ye gather the dedicated fruits thereof. ¹²For it is a jubilee of release; it shall be holy unto you; ye shall eat the fruits thereof out of the fields.

¹³In the year of the release, even the jubilee thereof, shall each one return unto his possession. ¹⁴And if thou sell a possession unto thy neighbour, or buy of thy neighbour, let not a man oppress his neighbour: ¹⁵according to the number of years after the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour; according to the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee. ¹⁶According as there may be a greater number of years he shall increase the value of the possession, and according as there may be a lesser number of years he shall diminish the value of his possession: for according to the number of his crops, so shall he sell unto thee. ¹⁷Let not a man oppress his neighbour; and thou shalt fear the Lord thy God: I am the Lord thy God. ¹⁸And ye shall keep all Mine ordinances, and all My judgments; and do ye observe them, and ye shall keep them, and dwell in the land securely. ¹⁹And the land shall yield her increase, and ye shall eat to fulness, and dwell therein securely. ²⁰And if ye shall say, What shall we eat in this seventh year, if we sow not, neither gather our fruits? ²¹Then I will send My blessing upon you in the sixth year, and the land shall give its fruits for three years. ²²And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of old fruits of the old. ²³This land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners before me. ²⁴And in every land of your possession ye shall allow redemptions for the land. ²⁵And if thy brother that is with thee be poor, and have sold away of his possession, and his kinsman that is nigh unto him come, then shall he redeem the possession which his brother sold. ²⁶And if a man hath no near kinsman, and he prosper with his hand, and he find money enough, even his redemption; ²⁷then shall he count the years the years of the sale thereof, and give that which is over unto the man to whom he hath sold it; and he shall return unto his possession. ²⁸But if his hand have not prospered enough, so as that he should restore the money unto him, then he that bought the possessions shall have them until the sixth year of the release; and the owner shall return unto his possession.

²⁹And if a man sell an inhabited dwelling in a walled city, then shall there be redemption of it until the time be fulfilled: the time of the redemption thereof shall be a whole year. ³⁰And if it be not redeemed until a full year be completed of the time thereof, then the house that is in the walled city shall be surely confirmed to him that bought it throughout his generations: and it shall not go out in the release. ³¹But the houses in the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they shall always be redeemable, and they shall go out in the release. ³²And the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities in their possession, shall always be redeemable unto the Levites. ³³And if any man redeem a house of the Levites, then shall their sale of the houses of their possession go out in the release: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the sons of Israel. ³⁴And the lands set apart for their cities shall not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

³⁵And if thy brother that is with thee be waxen poor, and he fail in substance with thee, thou shalt help him as a stranger and a sojourner; and thy brother shall live with thee. ³⁶Thou shalt not receive usury of him, nor increase; and thou shalt fear thy God: I am the Lord, and thy brother shall live with thee. ³⁷Thou shalt not lend him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy meats to be returned at interest. ³⁸I am the Lord your God, Which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

³⁹And if thy brother that is with thee be lowered, and be sold unto thee; he shall not serve thee with the servitude of a bondservant. ⁴⁰He shall be with thee as an hired servant, or a sojourner; he shall work for thee until the year of release; ⁴¹and he shall go out in the release, and his children with him, and shall go to his family; and unto the possession of his fathers shall he hasten back. ⁴²For these are My servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: such an one shall not be sold as servant. ⁴³Thou shalt not oppress him with labour; and thou shalt fear the Lord thy God. ⁴⁴And whatsoever number of number of bondmen and bondmaids thou shalt have, of the nations that are round about thee shalt thou buy them. ⁴⁵And the children of the sojourners that are among you, of these shall ye buy, and of their families, all that be in your lands: let them be unto you for a possession. ⁴⁶And ye shall distribute them unto your children after you; and they shall be your permanent possession for ever: but of your brethren the sons of Israel, one shall not oppress his brother in labours.

⁴⁷And if a stranger or a sojourner wax rich with thee, and thy brother that is in distress be sold unto the stranger or the sojourner that is with thee, or to a proselyte by extraction: ⁴⁸after that he is sold unto him there shall be redemption unto him; one of his brethren shall redeem him. ⁴⁹A brother of his father, or son of his father's brother shall redeem him; or let one of his near tribe redeem him: and if he be rich, and redeem himself, ⁵⁰then shall he reckon with him that bought him from the year that he sold himself unto him until the year of release; and the money of his purchase shall be as that of an hireling: he shall be with him from year to year. ⁵¹And if any have a greater number of years, according to these shall he pay his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. ⁵²And there be but a little time left of the years unto the year of release, then shall he reckon unto him according to his years, and shall pay his redemption ⁵³as an hired servant: he shall be with him from year to year; thou shalt not oppress him with labour in thy sight. ⁵⁴And if he pay not his redemption accordingly, he shall go out in the year of his release, he and his children with him. ⁵⁵For the sons of Israel are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 26

Ye shall not make unto yourselves gods made with hands, nor graven; neither shall ye rear up a pillar for yourselves; neither shall ye set up a stone for an object in your land, to worship it: I am the Lord your God. ²Ye shall keep My sabbaths, and reverence My sanctuaries: I am the Lord.

³If ye walk in My statutes, and keep My commandments, and do them, ⁴then I will give you the rain in due season, and the land shall yield her fruits, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. ⁵And your threshing shall overtake the vintage, and your vintage shall overtake your seed time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely; and war shall not go through the land. ⁶And I will give peace in your land, and ye shall sleep, and none shall make you afraid: and I will destroy the evil beasts out of your land: ⁷and ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall chase tens of thousands: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. ⁹And I will have respect unto you, and increase you, and multiply you, and establish My covenant with you. ¹⁰And ye shall eat that which is old and very old, and bring forth the old to make way for the new. ¹¹And I will set My tabernacle among you: and My soul shall not abhor you: ¹²and I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be My people. ¹³I am the Lord your God, Which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, where ye were bondmen; and I have broken the band of your yoke, and brought you forth openly. ¹⁴But if ye will not hearken unto Me, nor obey these Mine ordinances, ¹⁵but disobey them; and your soul abhor My judgments, so that ye keep not all My commandments, to break My covenant: ¹⁶then will I do thus unto you:

I will even bring upon you perplexity, and the scab, and the fever which causeth your eyes to waste away, and consumeth your life: and ye shall sow your seeds in vain, and your enemies shall eat them. ¹⁷And I will set My face against you, and ye shall fail before your enemies; and they that hate you shall pursue you: and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. ¹⁸And if ye will not hearken unto Me, then I will chastise you yet more, even seven times, for your sins. ¹⁹And I will break down the haughtiness of your pride; and I will make your heaven iron, and your earth as it were brass. ²⁰And your strength shall be in vain: and your land shall not yield her seed, neither shall the tree of your field yield the fruit thereof. ²¹And if after this ye walk perversely, and be not willing to obey Me, I will further bring seven plagues according to your sins. ²²And I will send upon you the wild beasts of the land; and they shall devour you, and consume your cattle: and I will make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate. ²³And if hereupon ye be not chastened, but walk perversely toward Me, ²⁴then will I walk with you with a perverse spirit, and I will also smite you seven times for your sins. ²⁵And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the cause of My covenant: and ye shall flee for refuge unto your cities: and I will send forth death against you; and ye shall be delivered into the hands of your enemies. ²⁶When I afflict you with the famine of bread, then ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver again your loaves by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. ²⁷And if hereupon ye will not obey Me, but walk perversely toward me, ²⁸then will I walk with you with a froward mind; and I will chastise you sevenfold according to your sins. ²⁹And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. ³⁰And I will render your pillars desolate, and utterly destroy your wooden images made with hands, and lay your carcases upon the carcases of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you. ³¹And I will lay your cities waste, and make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell the savour of your sacrifices. ³²And I will lay your land desolate: and your enemies which dwell therein shall wonder at it. ³³And I will scatter you among the nations; and the sword shall come upon you, and consume you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities desolate. ³⁴Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths all the days of her desolation. ³⁵And ye shall be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land keep her sabbaths, and the land shall enjoy her sabbaths all the days of her desolation: it shall keep sabbaths which it kept not among your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. ³⁶And unto those that are left of you I will bring bondage into their heart in the land of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from war; they shall fall when none pursueth them. ³⁷And brother shall not heed brother as in war, when none pursueth: and ye shall not be able to withstand your enemies. ³⁸And ye shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. ³⁹And they that are left of you shall perish because of their sins, and because of the sins of their fathers; and in the land of their fathers shall they pine away. ⁴⁰And they shall confess their iniquities, and the iniquities of their fathers; that they have transgressed and neglected me, and that they have walked perversely before Me: ⁴¹and I have walked with them with a perverse mind, and I will destroy them in the land of their enemies; and then shall their uncircumcised heart be ashamed, and then shall they acquiesce in their sins. ⁴²And I will remember the covenant of Jacob, and the covenant of Isaac; and the covenant of Abraham will I remember. ⁴³And I will remember the land; the land also shall be left of them; then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, while she is desolate through them: and they shall accept of their iniquities, even because they neglected my judgments; and in their soul they abhorred Mine ordinances. ⁴⁴And yet not even thus, when they were in the land of their enemies, did I overlook them, neither did I abhor them, to consume them, to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God. ⁴⁵And I will remember their former covenant, when I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of servitude in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the Lord. ⁴⁶These are My judgments and Mine ordinances, and the law, which the Lord gave between him and the sons of Israel, in the mount of Sinai by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 27

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Whosoever shall vow a vow unto the Lord as the estimation of his soul, ³the estimation shall be of a male from twenty years old even unto sixty years, even his estimation shall be fifty didrachmas of silver, after the standard of the sanctuary. ⁴And the estimation of a female shall be thirty didrachmas. ⁵And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then the estimation shall be of the male twenty didrachmas, and for a female ten didrachmas. ⁶And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then the estimation shall be of a male five didrachmas, and for a female three didrachmas of silver. ⁷And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, his estimation shall be fifteen didrachmas of silver, and if a female, then ten didrachmas. ⁸And if the male be too poor for the estimation, then he shall stand before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to what the man can afford who hath vowed, shall the priest value him.

⁹But it were from the cattle that are offered as a gift unto the Lord, whosoever shall offer one of these unto the Lord, it shall be holy. ¹⁰He shall not change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he do at all change it, a beast for beast, then it and the substitute thereof shall be holy. ¹¹And if it were any unclean beast, of which none are offered as a gift unto the Lord, then he shall set the beast before the priest: ¹²and the priest shall make a valuation between the good and the bad: and according as the priest shall value it, so shall it stand. ¹³And if it will at all be redeemed, then he shall add the fifth part thereof unto its estimation.

¹⁴And whatsoever man shall sanctify his house as holy unto the Lord, then the priest shall make a valuation of it between the good or the bad: as the priest shall value it, so shall it stand. ¹⁵And if he that hath sanctified it redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

¹⁶And if a man shall sanctify unto the Lord some part of the field of his possession, then the estimation thereof shall be according to the seed thereof: fifty didrachmas of silver for an homer of barley. ¹⁷And if he sanctify his field from the year of release, according to his estimation shall it stand. ¹⁸And if he sanctify his field in the latter time after the release, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of release, and it shall be abated as an equivalent from his full estimation. ¹⁹And if he that sanctified the field would redeem it, he shall add the fifth part of the money unto the estimation thereof, and it shall be his. ²⁰And if he redeem not the field, but sell the field unto another man, he shall not after redeem it. ²¹But the field, after the release, shall be holy unto the Lord.

²²And if he sanctify unto the Lord a field which hath bought, which is not of the field of his possession, ²³then the priest shall reckon unto him the full estimation from the year of release, and he shall pay that estimation in that day as holy unto the Lord. ²⁴And in the year of release the land shall be restored unto the man of whom the other bought it, even him to whom the possession of the land did belong. ²⁵And every estimation shall be by holy weights: the didrachma shall be twenty obols.

²⁶And every firstling which shall be brought forth among thy cattle shall be the Lord's, and no man shall sanctify it; whether it be calf or sheep: it is the Lord's. ²⁷But if it be of an unclean beast, according to the estimation thereof, then shall he add a fifth part thereto, and it shall be his: and if he redeem it not, then it shall be sold according to the estimation thereof. ²⁸And every devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the Lord of all that he hath, whether of man or beast, or of the field of his possession, he shall not sell it, nor redeem it: every devoted thing shall be an holy of holies unto the Lord. ²⁹And nothing that is devoted of men shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

³⁰Every tithe of the land, both of the seed of the land, and of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord. ³¹But if a man at all redeem his tithe, he shall add thereto the fifth part; and it shall be his. ³²And every tithe of oxen, and of sheep, and everything that passeth in the numbering under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord. ³³Thou shalt not change good for bad, nor bad for good; but if thou change it at all, then that which is changed also shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

³⁴These are the commandments, which the Lord commanded Moses for the sons of Israel in the mount Sinai.

NUMBERS

CHAPTER 1

And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the testimony, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Take ye the sum of all the congregation of Israel, according to their families, according to the houses of their fathers, according to their number by their names, according to their polls; ³every male from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth in the force of Israel: enroll them with their force; thou and Aaron enroll them. ⁴And with you there shall be each one of the rulers according to the tribe of each: they shall be according to the houses of their families. ⁵And these are the names of the men that shall be present with you: of them of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur. ⁶Of them of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ⁷Of them of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ⁸Of them of Issachar; Nathaneel the son of Zuar. ⁹Of them of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon. ¹⁰Of the sons of Joseph: of them of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of them of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ¹¹Of them of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni. ¹²Of them of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ¹³Of them of Asher; Pagaiel the son of Ocran. ¹⁴Of them of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel. ¹⁵Of them of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan. ¹⁶These were the chosen of the congregation, heads of the tribes according to their families: they were the rulers of thousands in Israel. ¹⁷And Moses and Aaron took these men which were called by name, ¹⁸and they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the month, in the second year; and they registered them after their birth, after their fathers' houses, after the number of their names, from twenty years old and upward, according to their polls. ¹⁹In like manner the Lord commanded Moses, and they were numbered in the wilderness of Sinai.

²⁰And there were the sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, after their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their ruler, every male from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth in the host; ²¹the numbering of them of the tribe of Reuben was forty and six thousand and five hundred. ²²For the sons of Simeon, after their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ²³the numbering of them of the tribe of Simeon, was fifty and nine thousand and three hundred. ²⁴For the sons of Judah according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ²⁵the numbering of them of the tribe of Judah was threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred. ²⁶For the sons of Issachar according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ²⁷the numbering of them of the tribe of Issachar, was fifty and four thousand and four hundred. ²⁸For the sons of Zebulun according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ²⁹the numbering of them of the tribe of Zebulun, was fifty and seven thousand and four hundred. ³⁰For the sons of Joseph, the sons of Ephraim, according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host; ³¹the numbering of them of the tribe of Ephraim, was forty thousand and five hundred. ³²For the sons of Manasseh according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ³³the numbering of them of the tribe of Manasseh, was thirty and two thousand and two hundred. ³⁴For the sons of Benjamin, according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ³⁵the numbering of them of the tribe of Benjamin, was thirty and five thousand and four hundred. ³⁶For the sons of Gad according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ³⁷the numbering of them of the tribe of Gad, was forty and five thousand and fifty. ³⁸For the sons of Dan according to their kindreds, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, all males from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ³⁹the numbering of them of the tribe of Dan, was threescore and two thousand and seven hundred. ⁴⁰For the sons of Asher, according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth with the host, ⁴¹the numbering of them of the tribe of Asher was forty and one thousand and five hundred. ⁴²For the sons of Naphtali according to their families, according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, ⁴³the numbering of them of the tribe of Naphtali was fifty and three thousand and four hundred. ⁴⁴This is the numbering which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the rulers of Israel, being twelve men: there was one man for each tribe, they were according to the houses of their fathers. ⁴⁵And the whole numbering of the sons of Israel with their host, from twenty years old and upward, every one that goeth forth to do battle in Israel, was ⁴⁶six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

⁴⁷But the Levites of the tribe of their family were not numbered among the sons of Israel. ⁴⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁴⁹See that thou number not the tribe of Levi, neither take their number among the sons of Israel. ⁵⁰But do thou appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all the furniture thereof, and over all things that are therein: and they shall do service therein, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle. ⁵¹And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, they shall set it up: and let the stranger that cometh nigh be put to death. ⁵²And the sons of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man in his own order, and every man according to his company, with their host. ⁵³But let the Levites pitch round about the tabernacle of the testimony before it; and there shall be no sin among the sons of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁵⁴And the sons of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

CHAPTER 2

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²Let the sons of Israel pitch before each other, every man keeping his own rank, according to their standards, according to the houses of their fathers: round about the tabernacle of the testimony shall the sons of Israel pitch. ³And they that pitch first toward the east shall be the order of the camp of Judah with their host, and the ruler of the sons of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Amminadab: ⁴his hosts that were numbered were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred. ⁵And they that pitch next shall be of the tribe of Issachar; and the ruler of the sons of Issachar shall be Nathaniel the son of Zuar. ⁶His hosts that were numbered were fifty and four thousand and four hundred. ⁷And they that pitch next shall be of the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon shall be the ruler of the sons of Zebulun. ⁸His hosts that were numbered were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred. ⁹All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred; they shall move first with their hosts. ¹⁰The order of the camp of Reuben; their hosts shall be toward the south side, and the ruler of the sons of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹¹His hosts that were numbered, were forty and six thousand and five hundred. ¹²And they that pitch by him shall be of the tribe of Simeon, and the ruler of the sons of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ¹³His hosts that were numbered were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred. ¹⁴And they that pitch by them shall be of the tribe of Gad; and the ruler of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel. ¹⁵His hosts that were numbered were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty. ¹⁶All that were numbered of the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty; they with their hosts shall set forth in the second place. ¹⁷And then the tabernacle of the testimony shall be set forward, and the camp of the Levites betwixt the camps: as they encamp, so shall they begin their march, each one next in order to his fellow according to their companies.

¹⁸The station of the camp of Ephraim shall be by the sea with their hosts: and the ruler of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud. ¹⁹His hosts that were numbered were forty thousand and five hundred. ²⁰And they that pitch next shall be of the tribe of Manasseh, and the ruler of the sons of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²¹His hosts that were numbered were thirty and two thousand and two hundred. ²²And they that pitch next shall be of the tribe of Benjamin, and the ruler of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni. ²³His hosts that were numbered were thirty and five thousand and four hundred. ²⁴All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred: they with their hosts shall set out third. ²⁵The order of the camp of Dan shall be toward the north with their hosts; and the ruler of the sons of Dan shall be shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ²⁶His hosts that were numbered were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred. ²⁷And they that encamp by him shall be of the tribe of Asher, and the ruler of the tribe of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran. ²⁸His hosts that were numbered were forty and one thousand and five hundred. ²⁹And they that encamp next shall be of the tribe of Naphtali; and the ruler of the sons of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan. ³⁰His hosts that were numbered were fifty and three thousand and four hundred. ³¹All they that were numbered of the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred: they shall set out last according to their order. ³²This is the numbering of the sons of Israel according to the houses of their fathers: and the numbering of the camps with their hosts was six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. ³³But the Levites were not numbered with them, as the Lord commanded Moses. ³⁴And the sons of Israel did all things that the Lord commanded Moses: so they pitched in their order, and so they began their march in order each according to their divisions, according to the houses of their fathers.

CHAPTER 3

These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai. ²And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests whom they consecrated to minister in the priesthood. ⁴And Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office with Aaron their father. ⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁶Take the tribe of Levi; and thou shalt set them before Aaron the priest, and they shall minister unto him; ⁷and they shall keep his charges, and the charges of the sons of Israel, before the tabernacle of the testimony, to do the works of the tabernacle. ⁸And they shall keep all the furniture of the tabernacle of the testimony, and the charges of the sons of Israel, according to all the works of the tabernacle. ⁹And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron, and to his sons the priests: they are given for a gift unto Me of the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons over the tabernacle of the testimony; and they shall keep their charge of priesthood, and all the things pertaining to the altar, and within the veil: and the stranger that toucheth them shall die. ¹¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹²Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn that openeth the matrix from among the sons of Israel: they shall be their ransom, and the Levites shall be Mine. ¹³Because every firstborn is Mine; on the day that I slew every firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto Me every firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: Mine shall they be; I am the Lord. ¹⁴And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, ¹⁵Number the sons of Levi after the houses of their families, according to their divisions: every male from a month old and upward, thou shalt number them. ¹⁶And Moses and Aaron numbered them by the word of the Lord, in which manner the Lord commanded them. ¹⁷And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸And these are the names of the sons of Gershon according to their families; Libni, and Shimei: ¹⁹and the sons of Kohath according to their families; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel: ²⁰and the sons of Merari according to their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the houses of their families. ²¹Unto Gershon pertaineth the family of Libni, and the family of Shimei: these are the families of Gershon. ²²The numbering of them, according to the number of every male, from a month old and upward, the numbering of them was seven thousand and five hundred. ²³And the sons of Gershon shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. ²⁴And the chief of the house of the family of Gershon was Eliasaph the son of Lael. ²⁵And the charge of the son of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the testimony was the tent, and the veil, and the covering of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, ²⁶and the curtains of the court, and the veil of the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and the remainder of all the works thereof. ²⁷Unto Kohath pertaineth one division, that of Amram, and another division, that of Izehar, and another division, that of Hebron, and another division, that of Uzziel: these are the divisions of Kohath according to number. ²⁸Every male, from a month old and upward, eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charges of the holy things. ²⁹The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch beside the tabernacle toward the south. ³⁰And the chief of the house of the families of the divisions of Kohath was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹And their charge was the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and all the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they do holy service, and the veil, and all the works thereof. ³²And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was chief over the ruler of the Levites, appointed to keep the charges of the holy things. ³³Unto Merari pertaineth the family of Mahli, and the family of Mushi: these are the families of Merari. ³⁴The mustering of them, according to number, every male from a month old and upward, was six thousand and fifty. ³⁵And the ruler of the house of their fathers of the division of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: they shall pitch by the side of the tabernacle northward. ³⁶The oversight of the charge of the sons of Merari included the chapiters of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the furniture thereof, and the works thereof, ³⁷and the pillars of the court round about, and their bases, and their pins, and their cords. ³⁸Those that encamp before the tabernacle of the testimony toward the east shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charges of the sanctuary according to the charges of the sons of Israel; and the stranger that toucheth them shall die. ³⁹All the numbering of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered by the word of the Lord, according to their families, every male, from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

⁴⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Number every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and take their number by name. ⁴¹And thou shalt take the Levites for Me, (I am the Lord,) instead of all the firstborn of the sons of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the sons of Israel. ⁴²And Moses numbered, as the Lord commanded him, every firstborn among the sons of Israel. ⁴³And all the firstborn males in number by name, from a month old and upward, according to their numbering, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

⁴⁴And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁴⁵Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be Mine: I am the Lord. ⁴⁶And for the redemption of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, which are more than the Levites in number; ⁴⁷thou shalt even take five shekels a poll: thou shalt take them according to the holy didrachma, even twenty obols to the shekel. ⁴⁸And thou shalt give the money unto Aaron and to his sons, even the redemption of them that exceed in number among them. ⁴⁹And Moses took the silver, the ransom of them that exceeded in number the redemption of the Levites. ⁵⁰He took the silver of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, according to the holy shekel. ⁵¹And Moses gave the redemption of them that were over unto Aaron and to his sons, by the word of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 4

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, according to the houses of their fathers' households, ³from five and twenty years old and upward even unto fifty years, every one that goeth in to minister, to do all the works in the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴And these are the works of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the testimony: it is the holy of holies. ⁵And when the camp is about to set forward, Aaron shall go in, and his sons, and they shall take down the shadowing veil, and cover the ark of the testimony with it. ⁶And they shall put upon it a covering, even a blue skin, and put above on it a garment wholly of blue, and shall put the staves through. ⁷And upon the table of presentation they shall put a cloth all of purple, and the dishes, and the censers, and the cups, and the vessels, wherewith one offereth drink offerings; and the perpetual loaves shall be put thereon. ⁸And they shall put upon it a cloth of scarlet, and cover it with a blue covering of skin, and shall put the staves therein. ⁹And they shall take a blue covering, and cover the candlestick that giveth light, and his lamps, and his snuffers, and his funnels, and all the vessels of oil wherewith they minister. ¹⁰And they shall put it, and all the vessels thereof, within a blue covering of skin, and shall put it upon bearers. ¹¹And upon the golden altar they shall put a cloth of blue for a covering, and cover it with a blue skin covering, and shall put in the staves thereof. ¹²And they shall take all the instruments of service, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover it with a blue skin covering, and shall put them upon staves. ¹³And he shall put the covering upon the altar, and they shall cover it with a cloth all of purple. ¹⁴And they shall put upon it all the vessels wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and the firepans, and the fleshhooks, and the cups, and the cover, and all the vessels of the altar; and they shall put upon it a blue covering of skins, and put in the staves; and they shall take a purple cloth, and cover the laver and his foot, and shall put it into a blue covering of skin, and put it upon bars. ¹⁵And Aaron and his sons shall make an end of covering the holy things, and all the holy vessels, when the camp is about to set forward; and afterward the sons of Kohath shall go in to take up; but they shall not touch the holy things, lest they die: these shall the sons of Kohath bear in the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁶Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is overseer of the oil of the light; and the incense of composition, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, are his charge; even the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all things that therein are, in the sanctuary, in all the works. ¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ¹⁸Ye shall not cut off the family of Kohath from the tribe out of the midst of the Levites. ¹⁹This do ye unto them; and they shall live, and not die, when they approach unto the holy of holies: let Aaron and his sons come forward, and they shall place them each in his post for bearing. ²⁰And they shall by no means go in suddenly to look upon the holy things, and die. ²¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²²Take the sum of the sons of Gershon, and these according to the houses of their lineage, according to their families. ²³From five and twenty years old and upward until fifty years old take the number of them; every one that goeth in to minister, to do his business in the tabernacle of the testimony. ²⁴This is the public service of the family of Gershon, to minister, and to bear. ²⁵And they shall bear the skins of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the testimony, and the veil thereof, and the blue covering that was above on it, and the covering of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ²⁶And all the curtains of the court, which were upon the tabernacle of the testimony, and the appendages, and all the vessels of service wherewith they do minister, shall they attend unto. ²⁷According to the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be the ministry of the sons of Gershon, in all their ministries, and in all their works: and thou shalt take account of them by name in all things that are borne by them. ²⁸This is the service of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the testimony, and their charge by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ²⁹The sons of Merari according to their families, take ye the number of them according to the houses of their lineage. ³⁰From five and twenty years old and upward even unto fifty years, take ye the number of them, every one that entereth in to perform the services of the tabernacle of the testimony. ³¹And these are the charges of the things borne by them, according to all their works in the tabernacle of the testimony: they shall bear the chapters of the tabernacle, and the bars, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and the veil, and their sockets, and the curtain of the door of the tabernacle. ³²And they shall bear the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and the pillars of the veil of the door of the court, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, and their furniture, and all their instruments of service: take ye their number by name, and all the articles of the charge of the things that are borne by them. ³³This is the ministration of the family of the sons of Merari, in all their works in the tabernacle of the testimony, by the hand of Ithamar the priest. ³⁴And Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel took the number of the sons of Kohath according to their families, according to the houses of their lineage, ³⁵from five and twenty years old and upward even unto fifty years old; every one that entereth in to minister and do service in the tabernacle of the testimony. ³⁶And the numbering of them according to the number of their families was two thousand seven hundred and fifty. ³⁷This is the numbering of the family of Kohath, every one that ministereth in the tabernacle of the testimony, as Moses and Aaron did number them by the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses. ³⁸And the sons of Gershon were numbered according to their families, according to the houses of their lineage, ³⁹from five and twenty years old and upward even until fifty years old, every one that entereth in to minister and to do the services in the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴⁰And the numbering of them according to their families, according to the houses of their lineage was two thousand and six hundred and thirty. ⁴¹This was the numbering of the family of the sons of Gershon, even every one that ministereth in the tabernacle of the testimony, whom Moses and Aaron did number by the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.

⁴²And also the family of the sons of Merari were numbered according to their families, according to the houses of their fathers; ⁴³from five and twenty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth in to minister in the services of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴⁴And the numbering of them according to their families, according to the houses of their fathers, were three thousand and two hundred. ⁴⁵This is the numbering of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses. ⁴⁶All those that were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel numbered, even the Levites, according to their families, and according to the houses of their fathers, ⁴⁷from five and twenty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth in to do the service of the works, and the things that are borne in the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴⁸And they that were numbered were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. ⁴⁹He reviewed them by the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses, and appointed each man severally over their work, and over their burdens: and they were numbered, as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel; and let them send forth out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and every one that is unclean of a dead soul. ³Whether male or female, you shall send them forth without the camp: and they shall not defile their camps in the midst whereof I dwell among them. ⁴And the sons of Israel did so, and sent them without the camp: as the Lord said unto Moses, so did the sons of Israel. ⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁶Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, If man or woman commit any sin that is common to man; or if that soul shall in any wise have neglected the commandment, and transgressed, ⁷he shall confess his sin which he hath done, and recompense in full for his trespass, and add unto it the fifth part, and recompense him against whom he hath trespassed. ⁸But if a man have no near kinsman, to recompense him for his trespass unto him, the trespass offering paid unto the Lord shall be for the priest; beside the ram of an atonement, whereby he shall make an atonement with it for him. ⁹And every firstfruit in all the hallowed things among the sons of Israel, whatsoever they shall offer unto the Lord, shall be for the priest himself. ¹⁰And every man's hallowed things shall be his: and whatsoever a man shall give unto the priest, it shall be his.

¹¹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹²Speak unto the sons of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and slight and despise him, ¹³and if any man lie with her carnally, and the thing be hid from the eyes of her husband, and she conceal it, although she be defiled, and there be no witness with her, neither she be taken; ¹⁴and a spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she have defiled herself: or a spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled: ¹⁵then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and bring the gift for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, recalling sin to remembrance. ¹⁶And the priest shall bring her, and set her before the Lord. ¹⁷And the priest shall take pure living water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle he shall take; and when the priest hath taken it, he shall cast it into the water. ¹⁸And the priest shall cause the woman to stand before the Lord, and shall uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, the jealousy offering; and in the hand of the priest shall be the water of this reproof that bringeth the curse. ¹⁹And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man hath lain with thee, and thou hast not gone aside to be defiled, being under thine husband, be thou free from the water of this reproof that bringeth the curse. ²⁰But if being a married woman thou hast transgressed, of if thou hast been defiled, being under the power of thine husband, and any man hath lain with thee beside thine husband; ²¹then the priest shall adjure the woman by the oaths of this curse; and the priest shall say unto the woman, The Lord bring thee into a curse and under an oath in the midst of thy people, in that the Lord cause thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell; ²²and this water that bringeth the curse shall go into thy belly, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say So be it, So be it. ²³And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the water of reproof that bringeth the curse. ²⁴And he shall cause the woman to drink of the water of reproof that bringeth this curse; and the water of the reproof that bringeth this curse shall enter into her. ²⁵And the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall present the offering before the Lord, and bring it unto the altar. ²⁶And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even as a memorial thereof, and offer it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. ²⁷And it shall come to pass, if she be defiled, and have altogether escaped the notice of her husband, then the water of reproof shall enter into her; and she shall swell in her belly, and her thigh shall rot, and the woman shall be for a curse among her people. ²⁸But if the woman have not been defiled, and be clean; then she shall be guiltless, and shall conceive seed. ²⁹This is the law of jealousy, wherein a married woman transgress, and be defiled; ³⁰or in the case of a man on whomsoever the spirit of jealousy come, and he be jealous over his wife, and set his wife before the Lord, and the priest shall execute toward her all this law. ³¹Then shall the man be clear from sin, and that woman shall bear her sin.

CHAPTER 6

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Man or woman, whosoever shall specially vow a vow to purify himself in purity unto the Lord: ³he shall be pure from wine and strong drink; he shall be pure from wine, and vinegar of wine, and vinegar of strong drink; and whatsoever is made of the grape shall he not drink; neither eat fresh grapes, or raisins. ⁴All the days of his vow he shall he eat no one of all the things that come from the vine, wine from the grape-stones even to the husk. ⁵All the days of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head, until the days be fulfilled, in the which he vowed unto the Lord. He shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow, ⁶all the days of his vow unto the Lord: he shall not come nigh to any soul that hath departed, ⁷unto his father, or to his mother, or to his brother, or his sister: he shall not defile himself for them when they have died: because the vow of his God is upon him upon his head. ⁸All the days of his vow he shall be holy unto the Lord. ⁹And if any man die suddenly by him, at once the head of his vow shall be defiled, and he shall shave his head in whatsoever day he shall be cleansed; on the seventh day shall he be shaved. ¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹¹And the priest shall offer the one for sin, and the other for an whole burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for the things wherein he sinned concerning the dead soul, and shall hallow his head that same day, ¹²wherein he was consecrated unto the Lord the days of his vow, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for error: and the former days shall not be reckoned, because the head of his vow was defiled.

¹³And this is the law of him that hath vowed: in whatsoever day he shall fulfil the days of his vow, he shall himself bring his gift unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁴And he shall bring his gift unto the Lord, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for an whole burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for a peace offering, ¹⁵and a basket of unleavened bread of fine flour, even loaves mingled with oil, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and their drink offering. ¹⁶And the priest shall bring them in before the Lord, and shall offer his sin offering, and his whole burnt offering: ¹⁷and he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering and his drink offering. ¹⁸And he that hath vowed shall shave the head of his consecration at the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony, and shall put the hairs on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offering. ¹⁹And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the lamb, and one unleavened loaf out of the basket, and one unleavened cake, and shall put them upon the hands of him that hath vowed, after that he hath shaved off his holy hair. ²⁰And the priest shall present them for an offering before the Lord: it shall be the holy portion for the priest beside the breast of the increase offering, and beside the shoulder of the cut away offering: and after that he that hath vowed shall drink wine. ²¹This is the law of one that maketh a vow, whosoever hath vowed unto the Lord his gift unto the Lord, concerning his vow, beside that that he may be able to afford according to value of his vow, which he may have vowed according to the law of his purity.

²²And the Lord spake unto Moses saying, ²³Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the sons of Israel, saying unto them, ²⁴The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: ²⁵The Lord make His face to shine upon thee, and have mercy upon thee: ²⁶The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. ²⁷And they shall put My name upon the sons of Israel; and I, the Lord, will bless them.

CHAPTER 7

And it came to pass on the day wherein Moses had finished so as to set up the tabernacle, that he anointed it, and consecrated it, and all the furniture thereof, and the altar, and all the instruments thereof; he even anointed them, and consecrated them. ²And the princes of Israel brought gifts, twelve princes of their fathers' houses: these were the heads of tribes, these are they that presided over the numbering. ³And they brought their gift before the Lord, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon from two rulers, and a calf from each; and they brought them before the tabernacle. ⁴And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁵Take of them, and they shall be for the works of the services of the tabernacle of the testimony; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to each man according to his ministration. ⁶And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites. ⁷And two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the children of Gershon, according unto their ministrations: ⁸and four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their ministrations, by Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹But unto the sons of Kohath he gave them not, because they have the ministrations of the sacred things: they shall bear them upon their shoulders. ¹⁰And the rulers brought gifts for the dedication of the altar, in the day that he anointed it; and the rulers brought their gifts before the altar. ¹¹And the Lord said unto Moses, They shall offer their gifts, one ruler, one prince on each day, for the dedication of the altar.

¹²And he that offered his gift the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, prince of the tribe of Judah. ¹³And he brought his gift, one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel, both full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ¹⁴one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense; ¹⁵one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering; ¹⁶and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. ¹⁷And for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ¹⁸On the second day Nathanael son of Zuar, the prince of the tribe of Issachar, brought an offering. ¹⁹And he brought his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ²⁰one censer of ten golden shekels, full of incense; ²¹one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year for an whole burnt offering,

²²and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. ²³And for a sacrifice, a peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year; this was the gift of Nathanael the son of Zuar. ²⁴On the third day the prince of the sons of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon, did offer. ²⁵*He brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ²⁶one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense; ²⁷one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering: ²⁸and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ²⁹and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Eliab the son of Helon. ³⁰On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, the prince of the sons of Reuben, did offer. ³¹his gift was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil as a meat offering; ³²one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense; ³³one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering: ³⁴and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ³⁵and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Elizur the son of Shedeur. ³⁶On the fifth day the prince of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, did offer. ³⁷*He brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekel, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ³⁸one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ³⁹one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year for an whole burnt offering, ⁴⁰and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁴¹and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ⁴²On the sixth day the prince of the sons of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel did offer. ⁴³*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ⁴⁴one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense; ⁴⁵one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering, ⁴⁶and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁴⁷and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Eliasaph the son of Deuel. ⁴⁸On the seventh day the prince of the sons of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud, did offer. ⁴⁹*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering; ⁵⁰one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense; ⁵¹one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering: ⁵²and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁵³and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Elishama the son of Ammihud. ⁵⁴On the eighth day, the prince of the sons of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, did offer:⁵⁵ he brought his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: ⁵⁶one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ⁵⁷one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year for an whole burnt offering: ⁵⁸and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁵⁹and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Gamaliel the son of Pedadzur. ⁶⁰On the ninth day, the prince of the sons of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon, did offer: ⁶¹*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: ⁶²one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ⁶³one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering: ⁶⁴and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁶⁵and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Abidan the son of Gideon. ⁶⁶And on the tenth day the prince of the sons of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, did offer: ⁶⁷*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: ⁶⁸one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ⁶⁹one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year, for an whole burnt offering: ⁷⁰and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁷¹and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ⁷²On the eleventh day the prince of the sons of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran, did offer: ⁷³*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of thirty shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: ⁷⁴one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ⁷⁵one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year for an whole burnt offering: ⁷⁶and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁷⁷and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Pagiel the son of Ocran. ⁷⁸On the twelfth day the prince of the sons of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan, did offer: ⁷⁹*he brought* his gift, one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels: one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the holy shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil: ⁸⁰one golden censer of ten shekels, full of incense: ⁸¹one calf of the cattle, one ram, one he lamb of the first year for an whole burnt offering: ⁸²and one kid of the goats for a sin offering: ⁸³and for a sacrifice of peace offering, two heifers, five rams, five he goats, five ewe lambs of the first year: this was the gift of Ahira the son of Enan. ⁸⁴This was the dedication of the altar, in the day wherein it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve censers of gold: ⁸⁵one charger of an hundred and thirty shekels, and each bowl of seventy shekels: all the silver of the vessels was two thousand and four hundred shekels, the shekels after the holy shekel: ⁸⁶twelve golden censers, full of incense: all the gold of the shekels was an hundred and twenty shekels. ⁸⁷All the cattle for whole burnt offering were twelve calves, twelve rams, twelve he lambs of the first year, and their meat offerings, and their drink offerings; and twelve kids of the goats for sin offering. ⁸⁸All the cattle for a sacrifice of peace offering were twenty and four heifers, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the ewe lambs of the first year, without blemish, sixty: this is the dedication of the altar, after that Moses consecrated Aaron, and after he anointed him. ⁸⁹When Moses went into the tabernacle of the testimony to speak with him, then he heard the voice of the Lord speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that is upon the ark of the testimony, between the two cherubims: and He spake unto him.

CHAPTER 8

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto Aaron; and thou shalt say unto him, Whensoever thou shalt set the lamps in order, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick. ³And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof on one side over against the candlestick, as the Lord appointed Moses. ⁴And this is the arrangement of the candlestick; it is to be solid, the stem thereof golden, and the lilies thereof all solid: according unto the pattern which the Lord had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁶Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and thou shalt purify them. ⁷And thus shalt thou perform their purification: thou shalt sprinkle them with water of purification, and a razor shall come upon the whole of their body, and they shall wash their garments, and shall be clean. ⁸And they shall take one calf of the cattle, and the meat offering thereof, even fine flour mingled with oil; and a calf of the first year of the herd shalt thou take for a sin offering. ⁹And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the testimony: and thou shalt gather the whole congregation of the sons of Israel together: ¹⁰and thou shalt bring the Levites before the Lord; and the sons of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites: ¹¹and Aaron shall separate the Levites before the Lord for a gift of the sons of Israel, and they shall be prepared to execute the works of the Lord. ¹²And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the calves: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for an whole burnt offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement for them. ¹³And thou shalt set the Levites before the Lord, before Aaron, and before his sons, and thou shalt give them as a gift before the Lord. ¹⁴And thou shalt separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel: and they shall be Mine. ¹⁵And after that shall the Levites go in to do the works of the tabernacle of the testimony: and thou shalt cleanse them, and present them before the Lord. ¹⁶For these are given unto Me for a present from among the sons of Israel, even instead of the firstborn of the sons of Israel that open every womb, have I taken them unto me. ¹⁷For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is Mine, whether of man or beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them unto Me. ¹⁸And I have taken the Levites in the place of every firstborn among the sons of Israel. ¹⁹And I have given the Levites for a present to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to do the service of the sons of Israel in the tabernacle of the testimony, and to make an atonement for the sons of Israel: thus shall there be none among the sons of Israel to draw nigh unto the holy things. ²⁰And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel, did to the Levites as the Lord commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the sons of Israel unto them. ²¹And the Levites purified themselves, and they washed their clothes: and Aaron presented them as a gift before the Lord; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. ²²And after that went the Levites in to minister in their service in the tabernacle of the testimony before Aaron, and before his sons: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

²³And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁴This is for the Levites: from twenty and five years old they shall go in to minister in the tabernacle of the testimony: ²⁵and from the age of fifty years they shall cease from the ministry, and shall minister no more. ²⁶And his brother shall serve in the tabernacle of the testimony to keep the charge, but shall do no service; thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAPTER 9

And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the second year after they were gone out of the land of Egypt, in the first month, saying ²Speak; and let the sons of Israel keep the passover according to his season. ³In the fourteenth day of the first month, at even, ye shall keep it according to his appointed season: according to all the law of it, and according to the ordinance thereof, shall ye keep it. ⁴And Moses commanded the sons of Israel that they should keep the passover. ⁵On the fourteenth day of the first month in the wilderness of Sinai, as the Lord commanded Moses, so did the sons of Israel.

⁶And there came men, who were unclean by reason of a dead soul of a man, and they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day: ⁷and those men said unto Moses, We are unclean by reason of the dead soul of a man; shall we therefore fail to offer the gift unto the Lord in His appointed season among the sons of Israel? ⁸And Moses said unto them, Stand here, and I will hear what the Lord will command concerning you. ⁹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, Man by man, whosoever shall be unclean by reason of a dead soul of a man, or be in a journey afar off, or among your families, then he shall keep the passover unto the Lord: ¹¹in the second month, on the fourteenth day, toward even they shall keep it. ¹²They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break a bone of it: according to the ordinance of the passover they shall keep it. ¹³And a man that is clean, and is not far off in a journey, and forebeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he offered not the gift unto the Lord according to his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. ¹⁴Now if there come to you a stranger in your land, he also shall keep the passover unto the Lord; according to the law of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he keep it: there shall be one law for you, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

¹⁵And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, the house of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire until the morning. ¹⁶So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷And whensoever the cloud went up from the tabernacle, then after that the sons of Israel departed; and in whatsoever place the cloud rested, there the sons of Israel pitched their tents. ¹⁸At the ordinance of the Lord the sons of Israel shall encamp, and at the ordinance the Lord they shall depart: all the days wherein the cloud overshadoweth the tabernacle, the sons of Israel shall encamp. ¹⁹And whensoever the cloud shall be drawn over the tabernacle many days, then the sons of Israel shall keep the charge of God, and they shall not depart. ²⁰And it shall be, when the cloud overshadoweth the tabernacle a number of days, they shall encamp by the voice of the Lord, and according to the commandment of the Lord they shall depart. ²¹And it shall come to pass, whensoever the cloud shall abide from even unto the morning, and in the morning the cloud shall go up, then by day or by night shall they depart. ²²In a day, or a month, as a day the cloud continueth while the cloud overshadoweth the tabernacle, the sons of Israel shall encamp, and shall not depart. ²³For by the ordinance of the Lord shall they depart: they kept the charge of the Lord, at the ordinance of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 10

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Make thee two trumpets of silver; of beaten work shalt thou make them: and they shall be to thee for the calling of the assembly, and for the removing of the camps. ³And thou shalt sound with them, and all the congregation shall be gathered together at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁴But if they sound with but one trumpet, all the princes, even the leaders of Israel, shall come unto thee. ⁵And ye shall sound a signal, and the camps that are pitched to the east parts shall go foward. ⁶And ye shall sound a second signal, and the camps that are pitched to the south parts shall go forward; and ye shall sound a third signal, and the camps that are pitched to the west parts shall go forward; and ye shall sound a fourth signal, and they that encamp toward the north shall go forward: they shall sound a signal at their departure. ⁷And whensoever ye shall gather the congregation together, ye shall sound, but not with a signal.

⁸And the priests the sons of Aaron shall sound with the trumpets; and it shall be to you for a perpetual ordinance throughout your generations. ⁹And if ye go to war in your land against your enemies that oppose you, then ye shall sound a signal with the trumpets; and ye shall be had in remembrance before the Lord, and ye shall be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰Also in the days of your gladness, and in your feasts, and in your new moons, ye shall sound with the trumpets at your whole burnt offerings, and at the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and there shall be for you a memorial before your God: I am the Lord your God.

¹¹And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud went up from the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹²And the sons of Israel set forward with their baggage in the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested on the wilderness of Pharan. ¹³And the first rank departed by the voice of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ¹⁴And they first set in motion the order of the camp of the children of Judah with their host: and over their host was Nahshon the son of Aminadab. ¹⁵And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, was Nathanael the son of Zuar. ¹⁶And over the host of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. ¹⁷And they shall take down the tabernacle; and the sons of Gershon shall set forward, and the sons of Merari, who bear the tabernacle. ¹⁸And the order of the camp of Reuben set forward with their host; and over their host was Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹⁹And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ²⁰And over the host of the sons of Gad was Elisaph the son of Reuel. ²¹And the sons of Kohath shall set forward bearing the holy things: and they shall set up the tabernacle until they arrive. ²²And the order of the camp of Ephraim shall set forward with their hosts; and over their hosts was Elishama the son of Ammihud. ²³And over the hosts of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²⁴And over the hosts of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni. ²⁵And the order of the camp of the sons of Dan shall set forward the last of all the camps, with their hosts: and over their hosts was Ahiezer the son of Ammishadai. ²⁶And over the hosts of tribe of the sons of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran. ²⁷And over the hosts of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan. ²⁸These are the armies of the sons of Israel; and they set forward with their hosts.

²⁹And Moses said unto Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father inlaw, We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, This will I give unto you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel. ³⁰And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. ³¹And he said, Leave us not, forasmuch as thou hast been with us in the wilderness, and thou shalt be an elder among us. ³²And it shall be, if thou wilt go with us, yea, it shall be, that in whatsoever things the Lord shall do us good, we will also do thee good.

³³And they departed from the mount of the Lord three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of the Lord went before them a three days' journey, to search out rest unto them. ³⁴ And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, O Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; let all them that hate thee flee. ³⁵ And when it rested, he said, Turn again, O Lord, the thousands and ten thousands in Israel. ³⁶ And the cloud came, overshadowing them by day, when they went out of the camp.

CHAPTER 11

And the people murmured sinfully before the Lord: and the Lord heard, and was exceeding angry; and fire was kindled among them from the Lord, and devoured a part of the camp. ² And the people cried unto Moses; and Moses prayed unto the Lord, and the fire was quenched. ³ And the name of that place was called, Burning; because a fire was kindled among them from the Lord.

⁴ And the mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting exceedingly: and they sat down and wept, and the sons of Israel, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? ⁵ We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers also, and the melons, and the leeks, and the garlick, and the onions. ⁶ But now is our soul dried up: our eyes are toward nothing, but to the manna. ⁷ And the manna was as coriander seed, and the appearance thereof was the appearance of hoarfrost. ⁸ And the people went through the field, and gathered, and ground it in the mill, and baked it in a pan, and made cakes of it: and the sweetness of it was as the taste of wafer made with oil. ⁹ And when the dew came upon the camp in the night, the manna came down upon it. ¹⁰ And Moses heard them weep by their families, each man in his door: and the Lord was exceeding wroth; and the thing was evil in the sight of Moses. ¹¹ And Moses said unto the Lord, Wherefore hast Thou afflicted Thy servant? and wherefore have I not found grace in Thy sight, that Thou shouldest lay the onslaught of this people upon me? ¹² Have I conceived all this people, or have I begotten them, that Thou shouldest say unto me, Take them into thy bosom, as a nurse would take her suckling, into the land which thou swarest unto their fathers? ¹³ Whence have I flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat. ¹⁴ I shall not be able to bear this people alone, because this thing is too heavy for me. ¹⁵ And if Thou deal thus with me, kill me utterly, if I have found favour in Thy sight; that I may not see mine affliction. ¹⁶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest thyself that they are the elders of the people, and their scribes; and thou shalt bring them unto the tabernacle of the testimony, and they shall stand there with thee. ¹⁷ And I will go down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the onslaught of the people together with thee, and thou shalt not bear them alone. ¹⁸ And thou shalt say unto the people, Purify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept before the Lord, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: and the Lord shall give you flesh, and ye shall eat flesh. ¹⁹Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days; ²⁰ye shall eat for a month of days, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be cholera unto you, because that ye disobeyed the Lord which is among you, and wept before him, saying, What had we to do to come out of Egypt? ²¹And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and Thou hast said, I will give them flesh to eat, and they shall eat a whole month. ²²Shall sheep and oxen be slain for them, and shall it suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, and shall it suffice them? ²³And the Lord said unto Moses, Shall not the hand of the Lord be fully sufficient? now shalt thou know whether My word shall come to pass unto thee or not. ²⁴And Moses went out, and spake the words of the Lord unto the people, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. ²⁵And the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and when the spirit came upon them, they prophesied, and ceased. ²⁶And there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and these were of the number of them that were enrolled, but came not unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. ²⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, who ministered unto Moses, the chosen one, said, Lord Moses, forbid them. ²⁹And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? and would that all the Lord's people were prophets whensoever the Lord shall put His spirit upon them! ³⁰And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. ³¹And there went forth a wind from the Lord, and brought quails over from the sea, and brought them down upon the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on that side, round about the camp, as it were two cubits from the earth. ³²And the people rose up all the day, and all the night, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten measures: and they refreshed themselves round about the camp. ³³The flesh was yet between their teeth, before it failed, when the Lord was wroth with the people, and the Lord smote the people with a very great plague. ³⁴And the name of that place was called the Graves of Lust: because there they buried the people that lusted. ³⁵The people departed from the Graves of Lust unto Hazeroth; and the people were in Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12

And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom Moses had taken: for he had taken an Ethiopian woman. ²And they said, Hath the Lord spoken unto Moses only? hath He not also spoken unto us? And the Lord heard it. ³And the man Moses was very meek, beyond all the men which were upon the earth. ⁴And the Lord said suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out all ye three unto the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁵And the three came out unto the tabernacle of the testimony; and the Lord came down in a pillar of the cloud, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony; and Aaron and Miriam were called: and they both came forth. ⁶And He said unto them, Hear My words: If there be a prophet of you unto the Lord, I will be made known unto him in a vision, and will speak to him in sleep. ⁷My servant Moses is not so; he is faithful in all Mine house. ⁸With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and he hath seen the glory of the Lord: and wherefore were ye not afraid to speak against My servant Moses? ⁹And the anger of the Lord's wrath was upon them; and He departed. ¹⁰And the cloud departed from the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam was leprous, as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. ¹¹And Aaron said unto Moses, I beseech thee, my lord, lay not sin upon us; for we were ignorant wherein we sinned. ¹²Let her not be as it were like death, as an abortion that cometh out of his mother's womb, when the disease consumeth half of the flesh. ¹³And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, Heal her, O God, I beseech Thee. ¹⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be set apart from the camp seven days, and after that she shall come in. ¹⁵And Miriam was separated without the camp seven days: and the people moved not forward till Miriam was cleansed.

CHAPTER 13

And afterward the people set out from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran. ²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ³Send thou men, and let them search out the land of Canaan, which I give unto the sons of Israel for a possession: for a tribe one man, according to their families shalt thou send them away, every one a ruler among them. ⁴And Moses by the word of the Lord sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all these men were the rulers of the sons of Israel. ⁵And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur: ⁶of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori: ⁷of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh: ⁸of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph: ⁹of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun: ¹⁰of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu: ¹¹of the tribe of Zebulun, Gadiel the son of Sodi: ¹²of the tribe of Joseph, namely of the sons of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi: ¹³of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli: ¹⁴of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael: ¹⁵of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi: ¹⁶of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi: ¹⁷these are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua. ¹⁸And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up by this wilderness; and ye shall go up into the mountain: ¹⁹and ye shall see the land, what it is; and the people that dwell therein, whether it be strong or weak, or they be few or many; ²⁰and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in walled cities or unwalled: ²¹and what the land is, whether rich or poor; whether there be trees therein or no: and ye shall persevere, and take of the fruits of the land. And the days were the days of spring, the forerunners of the grape. ²²And they went up, and searched out the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come in to Hamath. ²³And they ascended by the wilderness, and came unto Hebron: and there were Ahiman, and Sheshai, and Talmai, the generations of Anak. Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan of Egypt. ²⁴And they came unto the valley of the cluster, and searched it, and cut down thence a bough with one cluster of grapes upon it, and they bare it upon staves; and took of the pomegranates, and of the figs. ²⁵And they called that place, The Valley of the Cluster, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut down from thence.

²⁶And they returned from thence, having searched out the land, after forty days. ²⁷And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed the fruit of the land: ²⁸and brought back word unto him, and said, We came into the land whither thou sentest us, a land flowing with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. ²⁹Nevertheless the nation be strong that dwelleth upon it, and the cities are strong, and walled, and very great; and we saw there the children of Anak. ³⁰And Amalek dwelleth in the land toward the south: and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite dwelleth in the hill country: and the Canaanite dwelleth by the sea, and by the river Jordan. ³¹And Caleb stilled the people toward Moses, and said unto him, Nay, but we will go up by all means, and inherit it; for we being powerful shall prevail against them. ³²But the men that went up together with him said, We will not go up, for we shall not by any means be able to go up against the nation; for they are much stronger than we. ³³And they brought up a consternation for the land which they searched out unto the sons of Israel, saying, The land which we have passed by to search it, is a land that eateth up them that dwell therein; and all the people we saw in it are men of a very great stature. ³⁴And there we saw the giants; and we were before them like grasshoppers; yea, even so were we in their sight.

CHAPTER 14

And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept all that night. ²And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! or if we had died in this wilderness! ³And wherefore doth the Lord bring us into this land, to fall in war? our wives and our children shall be a spoil: now then, it is better for us to return into Egypt. ⁴And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into

Egypt. ⁵And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the congregation of the sons of Israel. ⁶But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes, ⁷and they spake unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, The land which we searched, it is indeed exceeding good. ⁸If the Lord choose us, He will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. ⁹Only depart ye not from the Lord, neither fear ye the people of the land, for they are meat for us: for the season of prosperity is departed from them, but the Lord is among us: fear them not. ¹⁰And all the congregation bade that they stone them with stones; and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud upon the tabernacle of the testimony unto all the sons of Israel. ¹¹And the Lord said unto Moses, How long doth this people provoke Me? and how long do they refuse to believe Me, for all the signs which I have wrought among them? ¹²I will smite them with death, and destroy them, and will make of thee and of thy father's house a mighty nation, and much greater than this. ¹³And Moses said unto the Lord, And Egypt shall hear that Thou broughtest up this people by Thy might from among them: ¹⁴moreover, all they that dwell upon this land have heard that Thou art the Lord among this people; who, O Lord, art seen face to face, and Thy cloud resteth upon them, and Thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵And if Thou shalt destroy this people as one man, then all the nations which have heard Thy name will speak, saying, ¹⁶Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore unto them, He hath overthrown them in the wilderness. ¹⁷And now, O Lord, let Thy strength be exalted, as Thou hast spoken, saying, ¹⁸The Lord is longsuffering, and of great mercy, and true, removing transgressions and iniquities and sins; and He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the sins of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. ¹⁹Forgive this people their sin according to Thy great mercy, as Thou hast been favourable unto them from Egypt even until now. ²⁰And the Lord said unto Moses, I am merciful unto them according to thy word: ²¹but as I live, so the glory of the Lord shall fill all the earth. ²²For all the men which see My glory, and the signs which I wrought in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me now this tenth time; ²³surely they shall not see the land which I swore unto their fathers; but their children which are with Me here, as many as know not good nor evil, every youth that is without experience, unto them will I give the land; but none that provoked Me shall see it. ²⁴But My servant Caleb, because there was another spirit in him, and he followed Me, him will I bring into the land whereinto he entered; and his seed shall inherit it. ²⁵But Amalek and the Canaanite dwell in the valley: to morrow turn you, and depart for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

²⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, ²⁷How long shall I bear with this wicked congregation? I have heard their murmurings against Me, even the murmurings of the sons of Israel, which they have murmured concerning you. ²⁸Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord, as surely as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you. ²⁹Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness, and all that were numbered of you, from twenty years old and upward, all which have murmured against Me, ³⁰ye shall not come into this land, for which I stretched out Mine hand to stablsh you upon it, save only Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹And your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring into the land; and they shall inherit the land wherefrom ye turned away. ³²And your carcases shall fall in this wilderness. ³³And your children shall be fed in the wilderness forty years, and they shall bear your fornication, until your carcases be consumed in the wilderness. ³⁴After the number of the days during which ye searched out the land, even forty days, a day for a year, shall ye bear your sins, even forty years, and ye shall know My fierce anger. ³⁵I, the Lord, have spoken. Surely will I do thus unto this evil congregation, which hath risen up together against Me: in this wilderness they shall be utterly consumed, and there they shall die. ³⁶And the men, which Moses sent to search out the land, and who came and murmured against it unto the congregation, to bring out evil words concerning the land, ³⁷even the men which spake evil reports against the land, even they died of the plague before the Lord. ³⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, lived of those men which went to spy out the land. ³⁹And Moses spake these words unto all the sons of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. ⁴⁰And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we that be here will go up unto the place of which the Lord hath spoken: for we have sinned. ⁴¹And Moses said, Wherefore do ye transgress the word of the Lord? ye shall not prosper. ⁴²Go not up, for the Lord is not with you: so shall ye fall before the face of your enemies. ⁴³For Amalek and the Canaanite are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye have disobeyed the Lord, and the Lord will not be among you. ⁴⁴And they forced their passage, and went up into the top of the mountain; but the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and Moses, stirred not out of the camp. ⁴⁵And Amalek, and the Canaanite which dwelt in that mountain, came down, and routed them, and destroyed them, even unto Hormah; and they returned unto the camp.

CHAPTER 15

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitation, which I give unto you, ³and thou wilt make an offering unto the Lord, an whole burnt offering, or a meat offering to magnify a vow, or a freewill offering, or in your feasts to offer a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto the Lord, whether of the cattle, or of the sheep: ⁴then shall he that presenteth his gift unto the Lord bring also a meat offering of fine flour, a tenth part of an ephah mingled with oil, even with the fourth part of an hin. ⁵And for a drink offering a fourth part of an hin shall ye offer upon the whole burnt offering, or upon the meat offering: for one lamb shalt thou make so much as an offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ⁶And for a ram, when ye offer it as an whole burnt offering, or as a sacrifice, thou shalt prepare as a meat offering two tenths of fine flour mingled with oil, the third part of an hin. ⁷And thou shalt offer for a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord for a drink offering the third part of an hin. ⁸But if ye offer of the cattle for an whole burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to magnify a vow, or for a peace offering unto the Lord, ⁹then shall he also present upon the calf a sacrifice of fine flour, three tenth deals mingled with oil, even the half of an hin: ¹⁰and wine for a drink offering, the half of an hin, for an offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹¹Thus shalt thou do for the one calf, or for the one ram, or for the one lamb of the sheep or of the goats. ¹²According to the number of what ye shall offer, so shall ye do to the one, according to their number. ¹³Every one that is born of the country shall do these things after this manner, to present offerings as sacrifices for a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹⁴But if there be a stranger among you in your land, or one that is born among you in your generations, and he maketh an offering, a smell of a sweet savour unto the Lord; as ye do, so shall the whole congregation offer unto the Lord. ¹⁵One ordinance shall be for you, and for the strangers that sojourn with you, an ordinance for ever for your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger also be before the Lord. ¹⁶One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth among you.

¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, When ye come into the land wherein I bring you, ¹⁹then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall separate a wave offering, a special offering unto the Lord, of the firstfruits of your dough, ²⁰your bread shall ye offer as an heave offering, as an heave offering from the threshing floor, so shall ye separate it, ²¹even the firstfruits of your dough; and ye shall give the Lord an heave offering throughout your generations.

²²But whensoever ye transgress, and perform not these commandments, which the Lord hath spoken to Moses, ²³even as the Lord hath appointed you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the Lord appointed you, and henceforward throughout your generations, ²⁴then it shall be, if a trespass be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, then all the congregation shall offer a calf of the herd without blemish for an whole burnt offering of a sweet savour unto the Lord, and his meat offering, and his drink offering according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is through ignorance; and they have brought their gift, a burnt offering unto the Lord, for their trespass before the Lord, even for their sins of ignorance. ²⁶And it shall be forgiven in respect of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and the stranger that lieth near to you; because it is in ignorance for all the people. ²⁷And if one sin unwillingly, he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. ²⁸And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that trespassed unwillingly, and that sinned unwillingly before the Lord, to make an atonement for him. ²⁹There shall be one law for him that is born among the sons of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, whosoever shall commit a trespass unwillingly. ³⁰And whatsoever soul shall do aught with a presumptuous hand, either of them that are born of the land, or of the strangers, he shall provoke God: that soul shall be cut off from his people: ³¹for he hath set at nought the word of the Lord, and hath broken His commandments, that soul shall be utterly cut off; his sin is upon him.

³²And the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, and they found a man gathering sticks upon the sabbath day. ³³And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation of the sons of Israel. ³⁴And they put him in ward, because they determined not what they should do unto him. ³⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Let the man be surely put to death: all the congregation, stone him with stones. ³⁶And all the congregation brought him without the camp; and all the congregation stoned him with stones without the camp, and he died; as the Lord commanded Moses.

³⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ³⁸Speak unto the sons of Israel, and thou shalt tell them; and let them make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations; and ye shall put upon the fringes of the borders a thread of blue. ³⁹And it shall be for you upon the fringes, and ye shall look upon them, and remember the commandments of the Lord, and do them: and ye shall not turn back after your own imaginations, and after the sight of your eyes, in the things after which ye go a whoring: ⁴⁰that ye may remember, and do all My commandments; and ye shall be holy unto your God. ⁴¹I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 16

And Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, the son of Reuben, spake: ²and they rose up before Moses, and two hundred and fifty men of the sons of Israel, princes of the assembly, chosen councillors, and men of renown, ³stood together against Moses and Aaron, and said, Let it be enough for you that all the congregation are holy, and the Lord is among them: and wherefore set ye up yourselves above the congregation of the Lord? ⁴And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face: ⁵and he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, God hath visited and known them that are His, and that are holy, and hath brought them unto Him: and whom He hath chosen for Him, He hath brought unto Him. ⁶This do; take you censers, Korah, and all his company; ⁷and put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord to morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the Lord hath chosen, he shall be holy: let it be enough for you, ye sons of Levi. ⁸And Moses said unto Korah, Hear me, ye sons of Levi: ⁹is it but a small thing for you that the Lord hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, and brought you

near to Himself to minister in the services of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the tabernacle to minister for them? ¹⁰And He hath brought thee near, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye to be priests also? ¹¹Thus it is with thee and all thy company which is gathered together against God: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him? ¹²And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: and they said, We will not go up: ¹³is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up unto a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that thou altogether rulest over us as a prince? ¹⁴and even if thou hadst brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, and had given us an inheritance of land and vineyards, thou wouldest have put out the eyes of those men: we will not come up. ¹⁵And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the Lord, Respect not Thou their sacrifice: I have not taken away the desire of any one of them, neither have I hurt any one of them. ¹⁶And Moses said unto Korah, Sanctify thy company, and be thou ready before the Lord, thou, they, and Aaron, to morrow: ¹⁷and take each man his censer, and ye shall put incense thereon, and bring each man his censer before the Lord, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, shall bring each his censer. ¹⁸And they took each man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon; and Moses and Aaron stood by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁹And Korah raised up against them all his company by the door of the tabernacle of the testimony: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the congregation. ²⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²¹Be ye separate from this congregation, and I will utterly destroy them once for all. ²²And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of spirits and of all flesh, if one man have sinned, shall the wrath of God be upon all the congregation? ²³And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁴Speak unto the congregation, saying, Depart from the company of Korah round about. ²⁵And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and all the elders of Israel went with him. ²⁶And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Be ye separate from the tents of these stubborn men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye also perish in all their sin. ²⁷And they stood aloof from the tent of Korah round about: and Dathan and Abiram went out, and stood in the doors of their tents, and their wives, and their children, and their store. ²⁸And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works, that I have not done them of myself. ²⁹If these men die according to the death of all men, if also their visitation be according to visitation of all men, then the Lord hath not sent me. ³⁰But if the Lord shall shew by a wonder, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, and their houses, and their tents, and all that appertaineth unto them, and they go down alive into Hades; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord. ³¹When he had made an end of speaking all these words, the ground clave asunder that was under them: ³²and the earth opened, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that were with Korah, and their cattle: ³³and they went down, and all that they had, alive into Hades; and the earth covered them: and they perished from among the congregation. ³⁴And all Israel that were around them fled from the sound of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up.

³⁵And there went forth a fire from the Lord, and devoured the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

CHAPTER 17

And the Lord spake unto Moses, ²and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, Take up the brazen censers out of the midst of the men that are burnt, and scatter thou the strange fire yonder; ³for they have sanctified the censers of these sinners against their own souls: and do thou make them beaten plates for a covering unto the altar, because they were brought before the Lord, and hallowed: and they became a sign unto the sons of Israel. ⁴And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest took the brazen censers, which the men that were burnt had brought near; and they put them as a covering upon the altar, ⁵even a memorial unto the sons of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, might draw near to offer incense before the Lord; and it shall not be as Korah, and as they that made insurrection with him: as the Lord spake unto him by the hand of Moses.

⁶And the next day the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord. ⁷And it came to pass, when the congregation counselled against Moses and against Aaron, they ran headlong toward the tabernacle of the testimony: and the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared. ⁸And Moses and Aaron entered in before the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁹And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ¹⁰Depart out of this congregation, and I will utterly destroy them at once. And they fell upon their faces. ¹¹And Moses said unto Aaron, Take the censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and carry it away quickly into the camp, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from before the Lord; it hath begun to destroy the people. ¹²And Aaron took it as Moses spake unto him, and ran into the midst of the congregation; for already the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people. ¹³And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. ¹⁴And they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died by reason of Korah. ¹⁵And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony: and the plague was stayed.

¹⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁷Speak unto the sons of Israel, and take of them a rod, a rod according to the houses of their families, of all their princes according to the houses of their families, twelve rods: and write the name of each upon his rod. ¹⁸And write thou Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for there is one rod; they shall give them according to the tribe of the house of their families. ¹⁹And thou shalt put them in the tabernacle of the testimony, before the testimony, where I will be made known unto thee. ²⁰And it shall come to pass, that the man whom I shall choose, his rod shall blossom: and I will remove from Me the murmurings of the sons of Israel, which things they murmur against you. ²¹And Moses spake unto the sons of Israel, and all their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one rod, according to their families' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among the rods. ²²And Moses laid up the rods before the Lord in the tabernacle of the testimony. ²³And it came to pass, that on the next day Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the testimony; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi blossomed, and put forth a bud, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds. ²⁴And Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord unto all the sons of Israel: and they looked, and took each man his rod. ²⁵And the Lord said unto Moses, Lay up Aaron's rod before the testimonies, to be kept as a token for the children of the disobedient; and let their murmuring end from Me, and they shall surely not die. ²⁶And Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded Moses, so did they. ²⁷And the sons of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we are cut off, we are destroyed, we are consumed. ²⁸Every man that toucheth the tabernacle of the Lord, dieth: shall we then die utterly?

CHAPTER 18

And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house shall bear the sins of the holy things: and thou and thy sons shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. ²And take unto thyself thy brethren the tribe of Levi, the family of thy father, and let them be added unto thee, and minister unto thee; and thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of the testimony. ³And they shall keep thy charge, and the charges of the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the holy vessels and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die. ⁴And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charges of the tabernacle of the testimony, in all the services of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. ⁵And ye shall keep the charges of the holy things, and the charges of the altar: and there shall be no wrath among the sons of Israel. ⁶And I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the sons of Israel, even a gift given unto the Lord, to minister in the services of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁷And thou and thy sons after thee shall keep up your priestly ministration, according to the whole manner of the altar, and that which is within the veil; and ye shall minister in the services as the office of your priesthood: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall die.

⁸And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of the firstfruits of all things consecrated unto Me by the sons of Israel; unto thee have I given them as an honour, and to thy sons after thee as a perpetual law. ⁹And let this be unto thee from all the holy things that are consecrated unto Me, even the burnt offerings, from all their gifts, and from all their sacrifices, and from every trespass offering of theirs, and from all their sin offerings: whatsoever things they give unto me of all their holy things, they shall be thine, and thy sons'. ¹⁰In the holy of holies shall ye eat them; every male shall eat them, thou and thy sons: they shall be holy unto thee. ¹¹And this shall be unto you of the firstfruits of their gifts, of all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, even a perpetual ordinance; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of them. ¹²Every first offering of oil, and every first offering of wine, their firstfruits of corn, whatsoever they may give unto the Lord, them have I given thee. ¹³All the firstfruits that are in their land, whatsoever they shall offer unto the Lord, they shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of them. ¹⁴Every thing devoted among the sons of Israel shall be thine. ¹⁵And every thing that openeth the matrix of all flesh, whatsoever they bring unto the Lord, whether of man or beast, shall be thine: only the first born of men shall be surely redeemed, and the firstlings of unclean cattle shalt thou redeem. ¹⁶And the redemption of them shall be from a month old, their valuation of five shekels: it is twenty obols according to the holy shekel. ¹⁷But the firstling among calves, and the firstling of sheep, and the firstling of goats shalt thou not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt pour their blood upon the altar, and thou shalt offer the fat as a burnt offering for a smell of sweet savour unto the Lord. ¹⁸And the flesh shall be thine, as also the breast of the wave offering, and as the right shoulder: it shall be thine. ¹⁹Every special offering of the holy things, whatsoever the sons of Israel shall specially offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons and daughters with thee, a perpetual ordinance: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the Lord, unto thee, and unto thy seed after thee. ²⁰And the Lord said unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any portion among them: for I am thy portion and thine inheritance among the sons of Israel. ²¹And, behold, I have given the sons of Levi every tithe in Israel for an inheritance for their services, whereinsoever they minister in the tabernacle of the testimony. ²²And the sons of Israel shall no more draw nigh unto the tabernacle of the testimony, to incur deadly sin. ²³And the Levite himself shall do the service of the tabernacle of the testimony, and they shall bear their iniquities: it is a perpetual statute throughout their generations, and among the sons of Israel they shall not receive an inheritance. ²⁴Because the tithes of the sons of Israel, whatsoever they offer unto the Lord, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said unto them, Among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

²⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁶Thou shalt also speak unto the Levites, and shalt say unto them, If ye take of the sons of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for an inheritance, then shall ye separate an heave offering of it unto the Lord, even the tenth part of the tenth. ²⁷And your heave offerings shall be reckoned unto you as corn from the floor, and an offering from the wine press. ²⁸So shall ye also separate them from all the offerings of the Lord out of your tithes, whatsoever ye shall receive from the sons of Israel; and ye shall give thereof an offering unto the Lord to Aaron the priest. ²⁹Out of all your gifts ye shall offer and heave offering to the Lord, and of every firstfruit, even the consecrated part out of it. ³⁰And thou shalt say unto them, When ye offer the firstfruits of it, then shall it be counted unto the Levites as increase from the threshing floor, and as increase of the winepress.

³¹And ye shall eat it in any place, ye and your families: for this is your reward for your services in the tabernacle of the testimony. ³²And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, for ye shall have offered an offering of firstfruits of it: neither shall ye profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, that ye die not.

CHAPTER 19

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ²This is the requirement of the law, inasmuch as the Lord hath instructed, saying, Speak unto the sons of Israel, and let them take for thee a red heifer without blemish, which hath no blemish thereon, and upon which no yoke hath been put. ³And thou shalt give her unto Eleazar the priest; and they shall bring her forth without the camp into a clean place, and shall slay her before his face. ⁴And Eleazar shall take of her blood, and sprinkle of her blood over against the face of the tabernacle of the testimony seven times: ⁵and they shall burn her to ashes in His sight; and her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burned up. ⁶And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet; and they shall cast them into the midst of the burning of the heifer. ⁷And the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his body in water, and afterward he shall enter into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even. ⁸And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes, and bath his body, and shall be unclean until the even. ⁹And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place; and they shall be for the congregation of the sons of Israel to keep: the water of sprinkling, it is even a purification. ¹⁰And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: it shall be unto the sons of Israel, and unto the strangers that are joined unto them, for a perpetual law.

¹¹He that toucheth the dead soul of any man shall be unclean seven days. ¹²He shall be purified on the third day, and on the seventh day, and shall be clean: but if he be not purged on the third day, and one the seventh day he shall not be clean. ¹³Every one that toucheth the carcase of a man's soul, if he have died, and have not been purified, hath defiled the tabernacle of the Lord; that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of sprinkling hath not been sprinkled upon him: he is unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

¹⁴And this is the law: if a man die in a house, every one that goeth into the house, and all things that are in the house, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁵And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, shall be unclean. ¹⁶And every one that toucheth a man that is slain by violence, or a carcase, or a bone of a man, or a sepulchre, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁷And for the unclean they shall take of the burnt ashes of purification, and shall pour running water thereto in a vessel. ¹⁸And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the house, and upon the furniture, and upon all the souls that are therein, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or the corpse, or the tomb: ¹⁹and the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even. ²⁰And whatsoever man shall be defiled, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the holy things of the Lord, and the water of sprinkling hath not been sprinkled upon him: he is unclean. ²¹And it shall be a perpetual statute unto you; and he that sprinkleth the water of sprinkling shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until even. ²²And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

CHAPTER 20

Then came the sons of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin, in the first month, and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. ²And there was no water for the congregation; and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. ³And the people chode with Moses, saying, Would we had died in the destruction of our brethren before the Lord! ⁴And why have ye brought up the congregation of the Lord into this wilderness, to kill our cattle and us? ⁵And wherefore is this? ye have brought us up out of Egypt, that we should come into this evil place: it is a place where there is no sowing, neither figs, nor vines, nor pomegranates; neither is there water to drink. ⁶And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, and they fell upon their knees: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them. ⁷And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁸Take thy rod, and call thou the assembly, thou, and Aaron thy brother. And speak ye unto the rock before them, and it shall give forth the waters thereof, and ye shall bring forth for them water out of the rock, and give the congregation and their cattle drink. ⁹And Moses took his rod, which was before the Lord, as the Lord commanded. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and said unto them, Hear me, ye disobedient ones; must we bring you water out of this rock? ¹¹And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and much water came out, and the congregation drank, and their cattle also. ¹²And the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed Me not, to sanctify Me in the presence of the sons of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. ¹³This is the water of Strife; because the sons of Israel reviled before the Lord, and He was sanctified in them.

¹⁴And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trouble that hath found us: ¹⁵and how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we sojourned in Egypt many days; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers. ¹⁶and we cried unto the Lord, and the Lord heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, now we are in the city of Kadesh, at the extremity of thy coasts. ¹⁷We will pass through thy land: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink water of thy cistern: we will go by the king's highway, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders. ¹⁸And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass through me; and, if otherwise, I will go out to meet thee in war. ¹⁹And the sons of Israel said unto him, We will pass by the mountain: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay thee; but it is no matter of importance, we will go by the mountain. ²⁰And he said Thou shalt not pass through me: and Edom went forth to meet him with a great host, and with a strong hand. ²¹Thus Edom refused to let Israel pass through his borders, and Israel turned away from him.

²²And they departed from Kadesh; and the sons of Israel, even the whole congregation, came unto mount Hor. ²³And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, on the borders of the land of Edom, saying, ²⁴Let Aaron be added unto his people: for ye shall certainly not enter into the land which I have given unto the sons of Israel, because ye provoked Me at the water of Strife. ²⁵Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to the mount Hor, before all the congregation; ²⁶and take Aaron's apparel from off him, and put it upon Eleazar his son: and let Aaron die there. ²⁷And Moses did as the Lord commanded him, and took him up into mount Hor, before all the congregation. ²⁸And he took Aaron's garments from off him, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount. ²⁹And all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, and the wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

CHAPTER 21

And Canaanite king of Arad, which lived by the wilderness, heard tell that Israel came by way of Atharin; and he made war on Israel, and carried off a body of them captives. ²And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If Thou wilt deliver this people into my power, I will anathematize him and his cities unto destruction. ³And the Lord hearkened unto the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanite into his power; and Israel anathematized him and his cities: and they called the name of that place Anathema.

⁴And they departed from mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, and compassed the land of Edom: and the people were fainthearted by the way. ⁵And the people railed against God, and against Moses, saying, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to slay us in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there water; and our soul is weary by this light bread. ⁶And the Lord sent deadly serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of the sons of Israel died. ⁷And the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have railed against the Lord, and against thee; pray therefore unto the Lord, and let Him take away the serpents from us. ⁸And Moses prayed unto the Lord for the people; and the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a serpent, and set it upon a sign: and it shall come to pass, that whensoever a serpent biteth a man, every one that is bitten when he looketh upon it shall live. ⁹And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a sign, and it came to pass, that when a serpent bit a man, and he looked upon the serpent of brass, he lived.

¹⁰And the sons of Israel departed, and pitched in Oboth. ¹¹And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, on the farther side in the wilderness, which is over against Moab, toward the sunrising. ¹²And from thence they departed, and pitched in the valley of Zared. ¹³And they departed thence, and pitched on the other side of Arnon in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. ¹⁴Wherefore it is said in a book, A war of the Lord hath set on fire Zoob, and the brooks of Arnon. ¹⁵And He hath appointed brooks to cause Er to dwell there; and it lieth near to the coasts of Moab. ¹⁶And from thence they came to the well: this is the well whereof the Lord said unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water to drink. ¹⁷Then Israel sang this song at the well, Begin to sing of the well; ¹⁸the princes digged it, the kings of the nations in their kingdom, in their lordship sank it in the rock: and they went from the well to Mattanah: ¹⁹and from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth: and from Bamoth to Janen, that is in the plain of Moab, from the top of the quarried rock, which looketh toward the wilderness.

²⁰And Moses sent ambassadors unto Sihon king of the Amorites, with peaceable words, saying, ²¹We will pass through thy land: we will go by the road; we will not turn aside into the field, or into the vineyard. ²²We will not drink water out of thy well: we will go by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders. ²³And Sihon suffered not Israel to pass through his borders: and Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out to set the battle in array against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and arrayed his army against Israel. ²⁴And Israel smote him with the slaughter of the sword, and they became possessors of his land, from Arnon to Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for Jahaz is the border of the children of Ammon. ²⁵And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the cities pertaining thereto. ²⁶For Heshbon is the city of Sihon king of the Amorites; and he had fought before against the king of Moab; and they took all his land, from Aroer even unto Arnon. ²⁷Wherefore they that deal in dark speeches say, Come into Heshbon, that the city of Sihon may be built and prepared: ²⁸for there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon, and hath consumed unto Moab, and devoured the pillars of Arnon. ²⁹Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, thou people of Chemosh: their sons were given over to escape, and their daughters are captives unto Sihon king of the Amorites. ³⁰And their seed shall perish from Heshbon even unto Dibon; and their women have yet farther kindled a fire against Moab.

³¹And Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites. ³²And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took it, and the villages thereof, and cast out the Amorite that dwelt there. ³³And they returned, and went up the road to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went forth to meet them, and all his people, to war unto Edrei. ³⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hands, and all his people, and all his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Esebon. ³⁵And he smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until he left none of his to be taken alive: and they inherited their land.

CHAPTER 22

And the sons of Israel departed, and pitched on the west of Moab by Jordan over against Jericho. ²And when Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorite, ³then Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was vexed because of the sons of Israel. ⁴And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as a calf would lick up the green herbs of the field; and Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. ⁵And he sent ambassadors unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by a river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, and, behold, it hath covered the face of the earth, and it hath pitched nigh unto me. ⁶And now come, curse me this people, for it is stronger than we: that we may be able to smite some of them, and I will cast them out of the land: for I wot that whomsoever thou blessest, they are blessed, and whomsoever thou cursest, they are cursed. ⁷And the elders of Moab went, and the elders of Midian, and their instruments of divination in their hands; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak. ⁸And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will answer thee the things, which the Lord shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam. ⁹And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee? ¹⁰And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent them unto me, saying, ¹¹Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, and hath covered the face of the earth, and hath pitched nigh unto me: and now come, curse me it, if peradventure I shall be able to smite it, and cast it out of the land. ¹²And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them, neither shalt thou curse the people; for they are blessed. ¹³And Balaam rose up early in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you quickly unto your lord; God suffereth me not to go with you. ¹⁴And the princes of Moab rose up, and they came unto Balak, and said to him, Balaam will not come with us.

¹⁵And Balak sent yet again princes more, and more honourable than they. ¹⁶And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor: I beseech thee, delay not to come unto me: ¹⁷for I will greatly honour thee, and I will do whatsoever thou shalt say: come then, curse me this people. ¹⁸And Balaam answered and said unto the princes of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I shall not be able to go beyond the word of the Lord God, to make it little or great in my mind. ¹⁹And now do ye also tarry here this night, and I shall know what the Lord will say unto me more. ²⁰And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If these men come to call thee, rise up, and follow them; but yet the word which I shall speak unto thee, that shall ye do. ²¹And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab. ²²And God was very angry because he went: and the angel of the Lord rose up to withstand him. Now he had mounted upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. ²³And when the ass saw the angel of the Lord withstanding in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; then the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass with his staff, to direct her in the way. ²⁴And the angel of the Lord stood in the furrows of the vines, a fence being on this side, and a fence on that. ²⁵And when the ass saw the angel of God, she thrust herself against the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; and he smote her again. ²⁶And the angel of the Lord went further, and came and stood in a narrow place, wherein it was not possible to turn to the right hand or to the left. ²⁷And when the ass saw the angel of God, she lay down under Balaam: and Balaam was angry, and he smote the ass with his staff. ²⁸And God opened the mouth of the ass, and she saith unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me this third time? ²⁹And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: and if I had a sword in my hand, I would now have killed thee. ³⁰And the ass saith unto Balaam, Am I not thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden since thy youth unto this day? Did I ever do thus unto thee, utterly to disregard thee? ³¹And he said, Nay. ³¹Now God opened the eyes of Balaam, and he seeth the angel of the Lord withstanding him in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he stooped down, and did obeisance unto his face. ³²And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass this third time? And, behold, I came out to withstand thee, because thy way was not seemly before me: and when the ass saw me, she turned away from me this third time. ³³And if she had not turned out of the way, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive. ³⁴And Balaam said unto the angel of the Lord, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest opposed in the way to meet me: and now, if it displease thee, I will get me back again. ³⁵And the angel of the Lord said unto Balaam, Go with the men: nevertheless the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt take heed to speak. And Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

³⁶And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border. ³⁷And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? shall I not indeed be able to honour thee? ³⁸And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am now come unto thee: shall I be able to say any thing? The word that God shall put in my mouth, that shall I speak. ³⁹And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto the cities of streets. ⁴⁰And Balak offered sheep and calves, and sent to Balaam, and to his princes that were with him. ⁴¹And it was morning; and Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the pillar of Baal, and shewed him thence a part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven calves and seven rams. ²And Balak did in the manner Balaam told him; and he offered on every altar a calf and a ram. ³And Balaam said unto Balak, "Stand by thy sacrifice, and I will go, if God will appear unto me in a meeting: and whatsoever word He sheweth me, I will report unto thee. And Balak stood by his sacrifice: and Balaam went to enquire of God; and he went straight forward. ⁴And God appeared unto Balaam: and Balaam said unto him, I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered upon the altars a calf and a ram. ⁵And God put a word into the mouth of Balaam, and said, Thou shalt return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak. ⁶And he returned unto him, and moreover he stood over his whole burnt offerings, and all the princes of Moab with him. And the Spirit of God came upon him; ⁷and he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath sent for me out of Mesopotamia, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and Come, call for a curse for me upon Israel. ⁸How shall I curse, whom the Lord curseth not? or how shall I denounce, whom God denounceth not? ⁹For from the top of the mountains I shall see him, and from the hills I shall behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the Gentiles. ¹⁰Who hath counted exactly the seed of Israel, and who shall number the families of Israel? Let my soul die with the souls of the righteous, and let my seed be as their seed. ¹¹And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them with a blessing. ¹²And Balaam said unto Balak, As much as the Lord shall put into my mouth, shall I beware to speak it?

¹³And Balak said unto him, Come yet with me into another place, where thou shalt not see the people, but thou shalt see only a part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence. ¹⁴And he took him into an hewn place, and built there seven altars, and offered a calf and a ram on every altar. ¹⁵And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy sacrifice; but I will go to inquire of God. ¹⁶And God met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thou shalt say thus. ¹⁷And he returned unto him; and he also was standing by his whole burnt offering, and all the princes of Moab with him: and Balak said unto him, What hath the Lord spoken? ¹⁸And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; give ear as a witness, thou son of Zippor. ¹⁹God is not as man to waver, neither is He as the son of man to be threatened: what He Himself hath said, shall He not do? Shall He speak, and shall He not make it good? ²⁰Behold, I have taken myself to bless: I will bless, and will not turn back. ²¹There shall not be trouble in Jacob, neither shall sorrow be seen in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, the glories of princes are in him. ²²God it was that brought him out of Egypt as the glory of an unicorn to him. ²³For there is no omen in Jacob, neither is there any divination in Israel: in due season shall it be told to Jacob and to Israel what God shall perform. ²⁴Behold, the people shall rise up as a lion's whelp, and lift themselves up as a lion; they shall not rest until they have eaten of the prey, and drunk the blood of the slain. ²⁵And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse the people at all for me, nor bless them with blessing. ²⁶And Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Spake I not unto thee, saying, The word that God speaketh unto me, that will I do?

²⁷And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I will take thee to another place, if it shall please God, and curse me them from thence. ²⁸And Balak took Balaam unto the top of Pisgah, that goeth into the wilderness. ²⁹And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven calves, and seven rams. ³⁰And Balak did as Balaam told him, and he offered a calf and a ram on every altar.

CHAPTER 24

And when Balaam saw that it pleased God to bless Israel, he went not according to his custom to meet the omens, but he set his face toward the wilderness. ²And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he seeth Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him. ³And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor saith, the man that seeth truly ⁴saith he that heareth the oracles of the Mighty One, which saw a vision of God in sleep; his eyes were opened. ⁵How goodly are thine habitations, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel! ⁶As shady groves, and as gardens by a river's side, and as tabernacles which the Lord hath pitched, and as cedar trees beside the waters. ⁷There shall come a man out of his seed, and he shall rule over many nations; and his kingdom shall be exalted, and his kingdom shall be increased. ⁸God led him out of Egypt; he was unto him as it were the glory of an unicorn: he shall consume the nations of his enemies, and shall suck the marrow of their fat; and with his arrows he shall shoot through the enemy. ⁹He lay down; he rested as a lion, and as a young lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed are they that bless thee, and cursed are they that curse thee. ¹⁰And Balak was angry with Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed him with blessing this third time. ¹¹Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I said I will honour thee; but now the Lord hath deprived thee of glory. ¹²And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest me, saying, ¹³If Balak give me his house full of silver and gold, I shall not be able to go beyond the word of the Lord, to make it good or bad of myself; whatsoever things the Lord shall say, them will I speak. ¹⁴And now, behold, I return unto my place: come, I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. ¹⁵And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor saith; the man that truly seeth saith, ¹⁶which heareth the oracle of God, and understandeth knowledge of the Most High; and seeeth a vision of God in sleep, when his eyes were opened. ¹⁷I will point to him, but not now; I bless him, but he draweth not nigh: There shall arise a star out of Jacob, and a man shall spring out of Israel; and shall crush the princes of Moab, and spoil all the sons of Sheth. ¹⁸And Edom shall be an inheritance, Esau his enemy also shall be an inheritance; and Israel wrought with strength. ¹⁹Out of Jacob there shall arise one, and destroy him that escapeth out of the city. ²⁰And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek is the first of nations; yet his seed shall perish. ²¹And he looked on the Kenite, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place; yet though thou put thy nest in a rock, ²²and though Beor have a cunning nest, the Assyrians shall carry thee away captive. ²³And he looked upon Og, and took up his parable, and said, Oh, oh, who shall live, when God doeth these things? ²⁴And one shall come forth from the hands of the Chittimites, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict the Hebrews; and they shall perish together. ²⁵And Balaam rose up, and departed and returned to his place: and Balak went into his own home.

CHAPTER 25

And Israel sojourned in Shittim, and the people profaned itself by going a whoring after the daughters of Moab. ²And they called them unto the sacrifices of their idols: and the people did eat of their sacrifices, and worshipped their idols. ³And Israel was made initiate unto Baal-peor; and the Lord was exceeding angry with Israel. ⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and make example of them for the Lord in the face of the sun; and the anger of the Lord shall be turned away from Israel. ⁵And Moses said unto the tribes of Israel, Slay ye every one his friend that is made initiate unto Baal-peor.

⁶And, behold, a man of the sons of Israel came and brought his brother unto the Midianitish woman before Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the sons of Israel; and they were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁷And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, and rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand; ⁸and he went in after the man of Israel into the chamber, and pierced both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her womb; and the plague was stayed from the sons of Israel. ⁹And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

¹⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹¹Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath caused My wrath to cease from the sons of Israel, when I was exceeding jealous among them; and I destroyed not utterly the sons of Israel in My jealousy. ¹²Thus do thou say, Behold, I give him a covenant of peace; ¹³and he and his seed after him shall have a perpetual covenant of priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the sons of Israel. ¹⁴Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of an house of the tribe of Simeon. ¹⁵And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, a daughter of Zur, a prince over the nation of Ommoth, of the house of the family of those of Midian.

¹⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, Be ye at enmity with the Midianites, and smite them; for they hate you with deceitfulness, they deceived you through Peor, and through Cozbi, a daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake.

CHAPTER 26

And it came to pass after the plague, that the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Eleazar the priest, saying, ²Take the sum of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, according to the houses of their fathers' families, every one that goeth forth to set himself in array in Israel. ³And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake in Araboth of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying, ⁴From twenty years old and upward; as the Lord commanded Moses. And the sons of Israel, which came out of Egypt are: ⁵Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: and the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and the family of Hanoch: unto Pallu belongeth the family of the Palluites. ⁶Unto Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; unto Carmi, the family of the Carmites. ⁷These are the family of Reuben; and their numbering was forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty. ⁸And the sons of Pallu; Eliab. ⁹And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram: these are the men summoned to the congregation, these are they that rose up against Moses and against Aaron in the gathering of Korah, in the rebellion against the Lord. ¹⁰And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and Korah, when their company died, what time the fire devoured the two hundred and fifty: and these were made a sign. ¹¹Notwithstanding the sons of Korah died not. ¹²And the sons of Simeon: the family of the sons of Simeon: to Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites: to Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: to Jachin, the family of the Jachinites. ¹³To Zerah, the family of the Zarhites: to Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. ¹⁴These are the family of Simeon according to their numbering, twenty and two thousand and two hundred. ¹⁵And the sons of Judah, Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. ¹⁶And these were the sons of Judah, according to their family: to Shelah, the family of the Shelanites: to Pharez, the family of the Pharzites: to Zerah, the family of the Zarhites. ¹⁷And the sons of Pharez were; to Hezron, the family of the

Hezronites: to Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. ¹⁸These are the people of Judah according to their numbering, threescore and sixteen thousand and five hundred. ¹⁹And the sons of Issachar according to their families: to Tola, the family of the Tolaites: to Pua, the family of the Punites. ²⁰To Jashub, the family of the Jashubites: to Shimron, the family of the Shimronites. ²¹These are the families of Issachar according to their numbering, threescore and four thousand and three hundred. ²²The sons of Zebulun according to their families: to Sered, the family of the Seredites: to Elon, the family of the Elonites: to Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. ²³These are the families of Zebulun according to their numbering, threescore thousand and five hundred. ²⁴The sons of Gad according to their families: to Shuni the family of the Shunites: ²⁵to Ozni, the family of the Oznites: to Eri, the family of the Erites: ²⁶to Arod, the family of the Arodites: to Areli, the family of the Arielites. ²⁷These are the families of the sons of Gad according to their numbering, forty thousand and five hundred. ²⁸The sons of Asher according to their families: to Jimner, the family of the Jimnites: to Jesui, the family of the Jesuites: to Beriah, the family of the Beriites. ²⁹To Heber, the family of the Heberites: to Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. ³⁰And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah. ³¹These are the families of Asher according to their numbering, forty and three thousand and four hundred. ³²The sons of Joseph according to their families: Manasseh and Ephraim. ³³The sons of Manasseh: to Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machire begat Gilead: to Gilead, the family of the Gileadites. ³⁴And these are the sons of Gilead: to Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites: to Helek, the family of the Helekites. ³⁵To Azriel, the family of the Azrielites: to Shechem, the family of the Shechemites. ³⁶To Shemider, the family of the Shemidites: and to Hephher, the family of the Hephherites. ³⁷And to Zelophehad the son of Hephher there were no sons, but daughters: and these were the names of the daughters of Zelophehad: Mahlah, and Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. ³⁸These are the families of the sons of Manasseh according to their numbering, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred. ³⁹And these are the sons of Ephraim: to Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites: to Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. ⁴⁰These are the sons of Shuthelah: to Eran, the family of the Eranites. ⁴¹These are the families of Ephraim according to their numbering, thirty and two thousand and five hundred: these are the families of the sons of Joseph after their families. ⁴²The sons of Benjamin after their families: to Bela, the family of the Belaites: to Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: to Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites. ⁴³To Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites. ⁴⁴And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: to Ard, the family of the Ardites: and to Naaman, the family of the Naamites. ⁴⁵These are the sons of Benjamin by their families after their numbering, thirty and five thousand and five hundred. ⁴⁶And the sons of Dan after their families: to Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites: these are the families of Dan after their families. ⁴⁷All the families of Shuham according to their numbering, threescore and four thousand and four hundred. ⁴⁸The sons of Naphtali after their families: to Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites: to Guni, the family of the Gunites: ⁴⁹to Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: to Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. ⁵⁰These are the families of Naphtali according to their numbering, forty thousand and three hundred. ⁵¹This is the numbering of the sons of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

⁵²And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ⁵³Unto these the land shall be divided, that they may inherit according to the number of their names. ⁵⁴To the greater number thou shalt give the greater inheritance, and to the lesser number thou shalt give the lesser inheritance: to each one, as they have been numbered, shall their inheritance be given. ⁵⁵The land shall be divided unto the names by lot: according to the tribes of their families they shall inherit. ⁵⁶By lot shalt thou divide the inheritance thereof between the many and the few.

⁵⁷And the sons of Levi after their families: to Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: to Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: to Merari, the family of the Merarites. ⁵⁸These are the families of the sons of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Korathites, and the family of the Mushites: and Kohath begat Amram. ⁵⁹And the name of his wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who bare these to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁶¹And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶²And there were according to their numbering twenty and three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the sons of Israel, because they have no inheritance among the sons of Israel. ⁶³And this is the numbering of Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in Araboth of Moab, at Jordan by Jericho. ⁶⁴And among these there was not a man numbered by Moses and Aaron, whom, even the sons of Israel, they numbered in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵For the Lord had said unto them, They shall surely die in the wilderness: and there was not left even one of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

And the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, of the tribe of Manasseh, of the sons of Joseph, came near; (and these were their names; Mahlah, and Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah); ²and they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes, and before all the congregation, at the door of the tabernacle of the testimony, saying, ³Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company that rebelled against the Lord in the gathering together of Korah; for he died for his own sin, and he had no sons. Let not the name of our father be blotted out from among his people, because he hath no son: give us an inheritance among our father's brethren. ⁴And Moses brought their cause before the Lord. ⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying ⁶The daughters of Zelophehad have spoken right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt assign their father's inheritance unto them. ⁷And thou shalt speak unto the sons of Israel, saying, ⁸If a man die, and have no son, ye shall assign his inheritance unto his daughter. ⁹And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brother. ¹⁰And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brother. ¹¹And if there be no brethren of his father, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his tribe, to inherit his possessions: and this shall be unto the sons of Israel an ordinance of judgment, as the Lord commanded Moses.

¹²And the Lord said unto Moses, Get thee up into the mount that is in the country beyond Jordan (this is mount Nebo), and behold the land Canaan which I give unto the sons of Israel for a possession. ¹³And thou shalt see it, and thou also shalt be added unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was added in mount Hor: ¹⁴because ye transgressed My commandment in the wilderness of Zin, when the congregation resisted to sanctify Me; ye sanctified Me not at the water before their eyes. This is the water of strife in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin. ¹⁵And Moses said unto the Lord, ¹⁶Let the Lord God of spirits and of all flesh look for a man over this congregation, ¹⁷which shall go out before them, and which shall go in before them, and which shall lead them out, and which shall bring them in: that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheep which have no shepherd. ¹⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man that hath the spirit in him, and thou shalt lay thine hands upon him. ¹⁹And thou shalt set him before Eleazar the priest, and thou shalt give him a charge before all the congregation; and thou shalt give a charge concerning him in their sight. ²⁰And thou shalt put of thy glory upon him, that the sons of Israel may hearken unto him. ²¹And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest; and they shall ask of him the judgment of the clear ones before the Lord: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and the sons of Israel with one accord, and all the congregation. ²²And Moses did as the Lord commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: ²³and he laid his hands upon him, and appointed him, as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 28

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, My gifts, My presents, Mine offerings for a sweet smelling savour, shall ye observe to offer unto Me in My feasts. ³And thou shalt say unto them, These are the offerings, as many as ye shall bring unto Me; two lambs of the first year without blemish daily, for an whole burnt offering perpetually. ⁴The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the second lamb shalt thou offer toward even. ⁵And thou shalt offer the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, with the fourth part of an hin. ⁶It is a perpetual whole burnt offering, a sacrifice offered in the mount of Sinai for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord. ⁷And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin unto each lamb: in the holy place shalt thou pour strong drink unto the Lord for a drink offering. ⁸And the second lamb shalt thou offer toward even: thou shalt offer it according to the meat offering thereof, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord.

⁹And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without blemish shall ye offer, and two tenth deals of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering, and a drink offering. ¹⁰It is an whole burnt offering of the sabbaths on the sabbath days; beside the continual whole burnt offering, and the drink offering thereof.

¹¹And in the new moons ye shall bring an whole burnt offering unto the Lord: two calves of the herd, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish; ¹²three tenths deals of fine flour, mingled, with oil, for one calf; and two tenth deals of fine flour, mingled with oil, for one ram. ¹³A tenth deal of fine flour, mingled with oil, for each lamb, for a meat offering, a sweet smelling savour, a burnt offering unto the Lord. ¹⁴Their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a calf, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and the fourth part of an hin of wine unto a lamb: this is the whole burnt offering monthly throughout the months of the year. ¹⁵And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the Lord; it shall be offered, beside the continual whole burnt offering, and his drink offering.

¹⁶And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is the passover to the Lord. ¹⁷And on the fifteenth day of this month is a feast: seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread. ¹⁸And the first day shall be unto you an holy convocation; ye shall do not servile work. ¹⁹And ye shall bring whole burnt offerings, a sacrifice unto the Lord, two calves of the herd, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish. ²⁰And their meat offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals for one calf, and two tenth deals for one ram. ²¹Thou shalt offer a tenth for each lamb, for the seven lambs: ²²and thou shalt offer one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you. ²³Beside the perpetual whole burnt offering in the morning, which is an whole burnt sacrifice of perpetuity, ²⁴these shall ye offer daily for seven days, a gift, a sweet smelling sacrifice unto the Lord: beside the continual whole burnt offering, thou shalt offer the drink offering thereof. ²⁵And the seventh day shall be unto you an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein.

²⁶And in the day of the new corn, when ye offer a new sacrifice of weeks unto the Lord, there shall unto you an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: ²⁷and ye shall bring whole burnt offerings for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord; two calves of the herd, one ram, and seven lambs without blemish. ²⁸Their meat offering shall be fine flour mingled with oil; there shall be three tenth deals for one calf, and two tenth deals for one ram: ²⁹a tenth for each lamb separately, for the seven lambs; and a kid of the goats, ³⁰for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you, ³¹beside the continual whole burnt offering; and ye shall offer unto me their meat offering. They shall be unto you without blemish, and ye shall offer their drink offerings.

CHAPTER 29

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the week, there shall be unto you an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it shall be a day of giving signals unto you. ²And ye shall offer whole burnt offerings for a sweet savour unto the Lord; one calf of the herd, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish. ³Their meat offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for one calf, and two tenth deals for one ram; ⁴a tenth deal for each several ram, for the seven lambs; ⁵and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you. ⁶Beside the whole burnt offerings for the new moon, and their meat offerings, and their drink offerings, and their perpetual whole burnt offerings, according unto their ordinance, for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord.

⁷And on the tenth of this month, there shall be unto you an holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls, and ye shall not do any work. ⁸And ye shall bring near whole burnt offerings for a sweet savour unto the Lord, burnt sacrifices unto the Lord; one calf of the herd, one ram, seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish. ⁹Their meat offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to one calf, and two tenth deals to one ram; ¹⁰a tenth deal for each several lamb, for the seven lambs. ¹¹And one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for thee; beside the sin offering for atonement, and the continual whole burnt offering, and the meat offering of it, and the drink offering of it, according to the ordinance thereof, for a smell of sweet savour, a burnt sacrifice unto the Lord.

¹²And on the fifteenth day of this seventh month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep it a feast unto the Lord seven days. ¹³And ye shall bring near whole burnt offerings, a sacrifice for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord: on the first day thirteen calves of the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish. ¹⁴Their meat offerings shall be fine flour mingled with oil; there shall be three tenth deals unto one calf, for the thirteen calves, two tenth deals for one ram, to the two rams; ¹⁵a tenth deal unto every lamb, for the fourteen lambs, ¹⁶and one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ¹⁷And on the second day twelve calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: ¹⁸their meat offering and their drink offering shall be for the calves, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ¹⁹And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, the meat offering thereof, and their drink offerings.

²⁰On the third day eleven calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: ²¹their meat offering and their drink offering to the calves, and to the rams, and to the lambs, according to their number, after their ordinance: ²²and one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ²³On the fourth day ten calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ²⁴There shall be their meat offerings and their drink offerings to the calves, and the rams, and the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ²⁵And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ²⁶On the fifth day nine calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: ²⁷their meat offerings and their drink offerings to the calves, and to the rams, and to the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ²⁸And one kid of the goat for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ²⁹On the sixth day eight calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³⁰There shall be their meat offerings and their drink offerings to the calves, and to the rams, and to the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ³¹And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ³²On the seventh day seven calves, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³³Their meat offerings and their drink offerings shall be to the calves, and to the rams, and to the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ³⁴And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings. ³⁵And on the eighth there shall be unto you a release: ye shall do no servile work therein. ³⁶And ye shall offer whole burnt offerings as sacrifices unto the Lord: one calf, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish. ³⁷Their meat offerings and their drink offerings for the calf, and for the ram, and for the lambs, according to their number, according to their ordinance. ³⁸And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual whole burnt offering, their meat offerings, and their drink offerings.

³⁹These shall ye offer unto the Lord in your feasts, beside your vows, and your freewill offerings, and your whole burnt offerings, and your meat offerings, and your offerings unto salvation.

CHAPTER 30

¹And Moses spake unto the sons of Israel according to all that the Lord commanded Moses. ²And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded. ³Man by man, if he vow a vow unto the Lord, or bind himself by a bond upon his soul; he shall not break his word, he shall do all that proceedeth out of his mouth. ⁴Now if a woman vow a vow unto the Lord, or bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth; and her father hear her vows, and her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, ⁵and all the bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul shall remain with her. ⁶But if her father straitly disallow her in the day that he heareth all her vows and bonds, which she hath contracted upon her soul, they shall not stand: and the Lord shall hold her guiltless, because her father disallowed her. ⁷But if she be indeed married, and her vows be upon her according to the utterance of her lips, respecting the bonds which she hath contracted upon her soul; ⁸and her husband hear, and hold his peace at her in the day that he hear it: then thus shall all her vows be binding; and her bonds, which she hath contracted upon her soul, shall stand. ⁹However, if her husband in any wise straitly disallow her in the day that he hear her, none of her vows or bond, which she hath contracted upon her soul, shall stand; because her husband forbade her: and the Lord shall hold her guiltless. ¹⁰And the vow of a widow, and of her that is put away, whatsoever she shall bind upon her soul, shall stand to her. ¹¹And if her vow be made in her husband's house, or the bond upon her soul with an oath, ¹²and her husband hear, and hold his peace at her, and disallow her not: then all her vows shall stand, and all her bonds which she made against her soul, shall stand against her. ¹³But if her husband utterly disallow the vow on the day that he hear it; none of the things that proceed out of her lips in her vows, and in the bonds upon her soul, shall stand to her; her husband hath made them void, and the Lord shall hold her guiltless. ¹⁴Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband shall confirm it to her, or her husband shall make it void. ¹⁵But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he shall bind upon her all her vows; and the bonds, which are upon her: he shall confirm them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them. ¹⁶If her husband in any wise utterly make them void after the day that he hath heard them; then he shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁷These are the statutes which the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER 31

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Avenge thou utterly the sons of Israel of the Midianites: and at last shalt thou be added unto thy people. ³And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Fully arm men of you to do battle before the Lord against Midian, to avenge the Lord of Midian. ⁴Of a tribe a thousand by a thousand of a tribe of all the tribes of Israel, send ye to do battle. ⁵And they numbered of the thousands of Israel a thousand of a tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. ⁶And Moses sent them away, a thousand of a tribe by a thousand of a tribe, with their array, and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest: and the holy instruments, and the signal trumpets were in their hand. ⁷And they did battle against Midian, as the Lord commanded Moses; and they slew every male. ⁸And they slew the kings of Midian, together with their slain; even Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword, with their slain. ⁹And they spoiled the women of Midian, and their store, and their cattle, and goods: and they spoiled their army. ¹⁰And they burnt all their cities in the places of their habitation and their villages with fire. ¹¹And they took all their prey, and all their spoil, both of man and of beast. ¹²And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and unto all the sons of Israel, unto the camp to Araboth Moab, which is at Jordan over against Jericho.

¹³And Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to mee them without the camp. ¹⁴And Moses was wroth with the captains of the hosts, with the heads of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, which came from the battle array. ¹⁵And Moses said unto them, Wherefore have ye saved every female alive? ¹⁶For they were the occasion to the sons of Israel, through the word of Balaam, of their revolting and despising the word of the Lord, because of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord. ¹⁷Now therefore kill every male in all the chattel, and kill every woman that hath known a man by lying with him. ¹⁸And as for all the chattel of women, that have not known a man by lying with him, save ye them alive. ¹⁹And ye shall pitch without the camp seven days: every one that hath killed and touched a dead soul, shall be purified on the third day, and you and your captivity on the seventh day. ²⁰And ye shall purify every garment, and every leather utensil, and all furniture of goatskin, and every wooden vessel. ²¹And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of the host which came from the battle array, This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord commanded Moses; ²²beside the gold, and the silver, and the brass, and the iron, and the lead, and the tin, ²³every thing that shall pass through the fire shall so be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of sanctification; and whatsoever will not pass through the fire shall pass through water. ²⁴And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

²⁵And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²⁶Take the sum of the spoils of the captivity, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the rulers of the families of the congregation: ²⁷and ye shall divide the spoils between the warriors which went out the battle, and between all the congregation. ²⁸And ye shall levy a tribute for the Lord from the warriors which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, of the men, and of the cattle, and of the sheep, and of the asses: and ye shall take of their half. ²⁹And thou shalt give unto Eleazar the priest as the firstfruits of the Lord. ³⁰And of the sons of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the men, and of the oxen, and of the sheep, and of the asses, and of all the cattle: and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, which keep the commandments in the tabernacle of the Lord. ³¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the Lord commanded Moses. ³²And that which remained of the spoil, which the warriors took, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five hundred sheep, ³³and threescore and twelve thousand oxen, ³⁴and threescore and one thousand asses, ³⁵and thirty and two thousand persons, all the souls, of women that had not known man by lying with him. ³⁶And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, of the number of the sheep, was three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred: ³⁷and the Lord's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. ³⁸And the oxen were thirty and six thousand; and the tribute unto the Lord was threescore and twelve. ³⁹And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; and the tribute unto the Lord was threescore and one: ⁴⁰and the souls of men were sixteen thousand; and the tribute of them unto the Lord was thirty and two souls. ⁴¹And Moses gave the tribute, God's heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as the Lord commanded Moses. ⁴²And of the sons of Israel's half, which Moses separated from the men of war, ⁴³(and the half of the sheep that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty and seven thousand, ⁴⁴and the oxen were thirty and six thousand, ⁴⁵the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; ⁴⁶and sixteen thousand the souls of men;) ⁴⁷and even of the sons of Israel's half, Moses took the fiftieth part, both of men and of cattle, and gave them unto the Levites, which keep the commandments of the Lord in the tabernacle of the Lord: as the Lord commanded Moses.

⁴⁸And all them that were appointed to be officers of the host, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses: and they said unto Moses, ⁴⁹Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are with us, and not one is missing. ⁵⁰And we have brought our gift unto the Lord: every man who hath found an article of gold, whether an armlet, or a chain, or a ring, or a bracelet, or a clasp for the hair, to make an atonement for us before the Lord. ⁵¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even every wrought article. ⁵²And all the wrought gold, even the offering that they offered up to the Lord, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. ⁵³(For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) ⁵⁴And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and brought the vessels into the tabernacle of the testimony, a memorial of the sons of Israel before the Lord.

CHAPTER 32

And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a multitude of cattle, very great: and they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, and the place was a place for cattle; ²and the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, ³Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, ⁴even the land which the Lord delivered up before the sons of Israel is pasture land, and thy servants have cattle. ⁵And they said, If we have grace in thy sight, let this land be given

unto thy servants for a possession, and cause us not to pass over Jordan. ⁶And Moses said unto the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here? ⁷And wherefore pervert ye the minds of the sons of Israel, that they should not cross over into the land, which the Lord giveth them? ⁸Did not thy fathers thus, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land? ⁹and they went up into the valley of the cluster, and spied out the land, and turned aside the heart of the sons of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the Lord had given them. ¹⁰And the Lord was exceeding wroth in that day, and He sware, saying, ¹¹Surely these men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, that know good from evil, shall not see the land which I sware unto Abraham, and unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not closely followed Me: ¹²save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which was set apart, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have closely followed the Lord. ¹³And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the Lord, was utterly consumed. ¹⁴Behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an evil race, to augment yet farther the fierce anger of the Lord toward Israel. ¹⁵For ye will turn away from after Him, to forsake Him yet once more in the wilderness, and ye will sin against this whole congregation. ¹⁶And they came near unto him, and said, We will build folds here for our cattle, and cities for our store: ¹⁷and we will arm ourselves, and be a vanguard before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them into their place: and our store shall remain in walled cities because of the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸We will not return unto our houses, until the sons of Israel are apportioned, each one to his own inheritance. ¹⁹And we will not inherit with them on the other side Jordan, and forward; because we have our full inheritance on the side beyond Jordan eastward. ²⁰And Moses said unto them, If ye will do according to these words, if ye will arm yourselves before the Lord unto battle, ²¹and every one of you pass over Jordan fully armed before the Lord, until His enemy be destroyed from before his face, ²²and the land be subdued before the Lord: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before the Lord, and from Israel; this land shall unto you for a possession before the Lord. ²³But if ye will not do so, ye will sin against the Lord: and ye shall know your sin, when afflictions come upon you. ²⁴And ye shall build cities for your store, and folds for your cattle; and do that which proceedeth out of your mouth. ²⁵And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as our lord commandeth. ²⁶Our store, our wives, and all our cattle shall be in the cities of Gilead: ²⁷but thy servants will pass over all armed and set in order, as our lord saith. ²⁸And Moses appointed unto them judges, Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the princes of the families of the tribes of Israel. ²⁹And Moses said unto them, If the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed for war, before the Lord, and ye shall subdue the land before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession. ³⁰But if they will not pass over with you armed for war, before the Lord, then shall ye cause their store to pass over, and their wives, and their cattle before you into the land of Canaan; and they shall inherit with you in the land of Canaan. ³¹And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad answered, saying, Whatsoever the Lord saith unto His servants, so will we do. ³²We will pass over armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan; and ye shall give us our inheritance beyond Jordan. ³³And Moses gave unto them, even to the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Reuben, and unto the half tribe of Manasseh of the sons of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, and the cities thereof, with the coasts thereof, even the cities of the land round about.

³⁴And the sons of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, ³⁵and Shopan, and Jaazer; and they set them up; ³⁶and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, strong cities: and folds for sheep. ³⁷And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, ³⁸and Baal-meon, surrounded with walls, and Shibmah: and called the names of the cities, which they built, after their own names. ³⁹And a son of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and destroyed the Amorite which dwelt therein. ⁴⁰And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. ⁴¹And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took their villages, and called them the villages of Jair. ⁴²And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called them Nobah, after his own name.

CHAPTER 33

And these are the stations of the sons of Israel, as they went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies by the hand of Moses and Aaron. ²And Moses wrote their goings out and their stations by the word of the Lord: and these are the stations of their journeying. ³They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the sons of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. ⁴And the Egyptians buried all those that died of them, even all them which the Lord had smitten, every firstborn in the land of Egypt: upon their gods also the Lord executed vengeance. ⁵And the sons of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth: ⁶and they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is part of the wilderness. ⁷And they removed from Etham, and pitched at the mouth of Pi-hahiroth, which is over against Baal-zephon, and they pitched over against Migdol. ⁸And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three day's journey through the wilderness, and pitched in Pikrias. ⁹And they departed from Pikrias, and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten palm trees; and they pitched there by the water. ¹⁰And they departed from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea. ¹¹And they departed from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. ¹²And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah. ¹³And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush. ¹⁴And they departed from Alush, and encamped in Rephidim: and there was no water there for the people to drink. ¹⁵And they departed from Rephidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai. ¹⁶And they removed from the wilderness of Sinai, and pitched at the graves of lust. ¹⁷And they departed from the graves of lust, and encamped in Hazeroth. ¹⁸And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah. ¹⁹And they departed from Rithmah, and encamped in Rimmon-parez. ²⁰And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in Libnah. ²¹And they removed from Libnah, and encamped in Rissah. ²²And they departed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah. ²³And they departed from Kehelathah, and encamped at Shaphar. ²⁴And they removed from Saphar, and encamped in Haradah. ²⁵And they went from Haradah, and encamped in Makheloth. ²⁶And they removed from Makheloth, and encamped at Tahath. ²⁷And they departed from Tahath, and pitched at Tarah. ²⁸And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithcah. ²⁹And they departed from Mithcah, and pitched in Hashmonah. ³⁰And they departed from Hashmonah, and encamped at Moseroth. ³¹And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in Bene-jaakan. ³²And they removed from Bene-jaakin, and encamped in the mount Hor-ha-gidgad. ³³And they departed from the mount Hor-ha-gidgad, and pitched in Jotbathah. ³⁴And they departed from Jotbathah, and encamped in Ebronah. ³⁵And they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at Ezion-gaber. ³⁶And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin: and they departed from the wilderness of Zin, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran; this is Kadesh. ³⁷And they departed from Kadesh, and encamped in mount Hor, near the land of Edom. ³⁸And Aaron the priest went up at the commandment of the Lord, and died there, in the fortieth year after the departure of the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first of the month. ³⁹And Aaron was an hundred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount Hor. ⁴⁰And Arad the Canaanitish king (he also dwelt in the land of Canaan), heard of the coming of the sons of Israel: ⁴¹then they departed from mount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah. ⁴²And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon. ⁴³And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth. ⁴⁴And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, on the other side of the borders of Moab. ⁴⁵And they departed from Ije-abarim, and pitched in Dibon-gad. ⁴⁶And they departed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in Almon-diblathaim. ⁴⁷And they removed from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, over against Nebo. ⁴⁸And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped to the west of Moab, at Jordan by Jericho. ⁴⁹And they pitched by Jordan, between Beth-jesimoth, even unto Abel-shittim to the west of Moab.

⁵⁰And the Lord spake unto Moses at the west of Jordan by Jericho, saying, ⁵¹Speak unto the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Ye are to pass over Jordan in the land of Canaan. ⁵²And ye shall destroy all they that dwell in the land before your face, and destroy all their molten images, and destroy all their pillars. ⁵³And ye shall destroy all the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given their land unto you for an inheritance. ⁵⁴And ye shall inherit their land according to your tribes: to the greater number ye shall give the larger possession, and to the smaller ye shall give the less possession: unto whatsoever a man's name shall go forth, there shall be his; ye shall inherit according to the tribes of your families. ⁵⁵But if ye will not destroy the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, than whomsoever of them ye shall leave shall be thorns in your eyes, and darts in your sides, and shall be enemies unto you in the land wherein ye shall dwell: ⁵⁶and it shall come to pass, that as I had determined to do unto them, so will I do unto you.

CHAPTER 34

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel; and thou shalt say unto them, Ye enter into the land of Canaan: it shall be unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof. ³And your south side shall be from the wilderness of Zin unto the coast of Edom; and your border southward shall be on the salt sea eastward. ⁴And your border shall go round about you to the ascent of Akrabbim, and shall proceed by Zinnah: and the going forth thereof shall be unto the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to the village of Hazar-addar, and proceed by Azmon. ⁵And the border shall compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt; and the sea shall be the end. ⁶And ye shall even have your border on the sea, the great sea shall be your border: this shall be your border on the west. ⁷And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall measure to yourselves from the mountain to the mountain. ⁸And ye shall measure to yourselves the mountain from the mount Hor, at the entering in unto Hamath; and the goings out of it shall be the coast of Zedad. ⁹And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out thereof shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your border from the north. ¹⁰And ye shall measure to yourselves the east border from Hazar-enan unto Shepham. ¹¹And the border shall go down from Riblah behind the sea Chinnereth unto the east. ¹²And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the going out shall be the Salt Sea: this shall be your land, and the borders thereof round about. ¹³And Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, even as the Lord commanded us to give it unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh. ¹⁴For the tribe of the sons of Reuben and the tribe of the sons of Gad have received according to their families; and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritances. ¹⁵Two tribes and half a tribe have received their inheritance beyond Jordan by Jericho, from the south to the sunrising.

¹⁶And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁷These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you for an inheritance: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. ¹⁸And ye shall take one prince from each tribes, to divide the land unto you by lot. ¹⁹And the names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. ²⁰Of the tribe of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. ²¹Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. ²²Of the tribe of Dan, the prince was Bukki the son of Jogli. ²³Of the sons of Joseph, for the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, the prince was Hanniel the son of Ephod. ²⁴Of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, the prince was Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. ²⁵Of the tribe of Zebulun, the prince was Elizaphan the son of Parnach. ²⁶Of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, the prince was Paltiel the son of Azzan. ²⁷Of the tribe of the sons of Asher, the prince was Ahihud the son of Shelomi. ²⁸Of the tribe of Naphtali, the prince was Pedahel the son of Ammihud. ²⁹These did the Lord command to make the distribution unto the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35

And the Lord spake unto Moses to the west of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel; and they shall give unto the Levites of the lot of their possession cities to dwell in; and they shall give unto the Levites the suburbs of the cities round about them. ³And the cities shall be for them to dwell in; and their enclosures shall be for their cattle, and for all their beasts. ⁴And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall be from the wall of the city and outwards two thousand cubits round about. ⁵And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits: and your city shall be in the midst of this, and the suburbs of the cities. ⁶And ye shall give the cities unto the Levites, even the six cities for refuge, which ye shall give for the manslayer to flee thither: and in addition to these, forty two cities. ⁷Ye shall give unto the Levites in all forty eight cities: them and their suburbs. ⁸And the cities which ye shall give out of the possession of the sons of Israel: from them that have much, ye shall give much; but from them that have less, ye shall give less: each one shall give of their cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which they shall inherit.

⁹And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speak unto the sons of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, Ye are to cross over into the land of Canaan: ¹¹and ye shall appoint you cities; they shall be unto you cities of refuge, for the slayer to flee unto, every one which hath killed another unawares. ¹²And the cities shall be unto you places of refuge from the avenger of blood; and the slayer shall not die, until he stand before the congregation for judgment. ¹³And the cities, which ye shall assign, even the six cities, shall be places of refuge unto you. ¹⁴Ye shall assign three cities on the far side Jordan, and ye shall assign three cities in the land of Canaan. ¹⁵It shall be a refuge unto the sons of Israel, and unto the stranger, and unto him that sojourneth among you: these cities shall be for a place of refuge, for every one to flee thither, which hath killed a man unawares. ¹⁶And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, and the man die, he is a murderer: let the murderer by all means be put to death. ¹⁷And if he smite him with a stone from his hand, whereby a man may die, and dieth, he is a murderer: let the murderer by all means be put to death. ¹⁸And if he smite him with an instrument of wood in his hand, whereby he may die, and he dieth, he is a murderer: let the murderer by all means be put to death. ¹⁹The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: whensoever he meet him, he shall slay him. ²⁰If he thrust him through of enmity, or cast any thing upon him from an ambush, and the man die; ²¹or if he have smitten him with his hand through anger, and the man die: let the man that smote him be put to death by all means; he is a murderer: let the murderer by all means be put to death; the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him. ²²But if he thrust him suddenly, not through enmity, or cast any thing upon him, not from ambush, ²³or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, unawares, and it fall upon him, and he die, but was not his enemy, neither sought his hurt: ²⁴then the congregation shall judge between the smiter and the revenger of blood, according to these judgments. ²⁵And the congregation shall deliver the slayer from the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, whither he fled for refuge: and he shall dwell there unto the death of the high priest, which they anointed with the holy oil. ²⁶But if the slayer shall at any time without the borders of the city whither he fled for refuge, ²⁷and the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he is not guilty: ²⁸because he should have remained in the city of refuge until the high priest died: and after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession. ²⁹And these things shall be unto you for an ordinance of judgment throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³⁰Whoso killeth a man, thou shalt slay the murderer on the testimony of witnesses: and one witness shall not testify against a soul, that he should die. ³¹And ye shall not accept ransoms for life from a murderer, which is worthy of death: for he shall surely be put to death. ³²Ye shall not accept a ransom for his fleeing to the city of refuge, that he should again dwell in the land, until the death of the high priest. ³³So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye dwell with murder: for this blood polluteth the land: and the land shall not be cleansed of the blood that is shed thereon, but by the blood of him that shed it. ³⁴And ye shall not defile the land wherein ye dwell, wherein I dwell in the midst of you: for I am the Lord dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 36

And the heads of the tribe of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, came near, and spake before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes of the houses of the families of the sons of Israel: ²and they said, The Lord commanded our lord to render the land of inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel: and the Lord appointed our lord to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters. ³And they will become wives in one of the tribes of the sons of Israel; so shall their inheritance be taken away from the possession of our fathers, and shall be added unto the inheritance of the tribe whereinto the women marry: and their inheritance shall be taken away from the portion of our inheritance. ⁴And if there be a release of the sons of Israel, then shall their inheritance be added unto the inheritance of the tribe whereinto the women marry; and their inheritance shall be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our family. ⁵And Moses commanded the sons of Israel by the commandment of the Lord, saying, So saith the tribe of the sons of Joseph. ⁶This is the thing which the Lord hath appointed the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry where they please; only of the family of the tribe of their father let them marry. ⁷So shall not the inheritance of the sons of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for the sons of Israel shall steadfastly continue each in the inheritance of the tribe of his family. ⁸And whatsoever daughter is heiress to a property of the tribes of the sons of Israel, these women shall be married unto one of her father's tribe, that the sons of Israel may each inherit the property of his father's tribe. ⁹And the inheritance shall not remove from one tribe to another tribe, but the sons of Israel shall steadfastly continue each in his own inheritance. ¹⁰Even as the Lord commanded Moses, so did they to the daughters of Zelophehad: ¹¹so Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, and Mahlah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married their father's brothers' sons: ¹²they were married of the tribe of Manasseh, of the sons of Joseph, and their inheritance was for the tribe of the family of their father.

¹³These are the commandments and the ordinances, which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to the west of Moab, at Jericho by Jordan.

DEUTERONOMY

CHAPTER 1

These be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on the other side Jordan in the wilderness, toward the west near the Red Sea, between Paran Tophel, and Laban, and Hulon, and the gold works. ²*It is eleven days' journey* from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea. ³And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto all the sons of Israel, according unto all that the Lord had given him in commandment unto them: ⁴after he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth and at Edrei: ⁵on the far side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying, ⁶The Lord your God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Let it be enough for you to dwell in this mount: ⁷turn you, and take your journey, and go into the mount of the Amorites, and unto all them that dwell near about Araba, unto the mount, and the plain, and unto the south, and the land of the Canaanites nigh unto the sea, and AntiLebanon, unto the great river Euphrates. ⁸Behold, God hath delivered the land before you: go in, and inherit the land, which I sware unto your fathers, Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, to give it unto them, and to their seed after them. ⁹And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I shall not be able to bear you myself alone. ¹⁰The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. ¹²The Lord God of your fathers increase you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as He hath spoken unto you! ¹²How shall I alone be able to bear your labour, and your burden, and your gainsayings? ¹³Take you wise men, and understanding, and discerning among your tribes; and I will set your rulers over you. ¹⁴And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. ¹⁵So I took of you wise men and understanding and discerning, and made them to be rulers over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers unto your judges. ¹⁶And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and his stranger that is with him. ¹⁷Thou shalt not have respect unto a face in judgment; thou shalt judge according to small and great; thou shalt not shrink before the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and whatsoever matter shall be too hard for you, ye shall bring it unto me; and I will hear it. ¹⁸And I charged upon you at that time all the commandments which ye should do. ¹⁹And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorite, as the Lord our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. ²⁰And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorite, which the Lord our God doth give unto you.

²¹Behold the Lord your God hath given up unto you the land before you: go up and inherit it, as the Lord God of your fathers hath said unto you; fear not, neither be afraid. ²²And ye came unto me every one of you, and said, Let us send men before us, and let them go up unto the land for us, and let them bring us word again by what way we shall go up, and of the cities wherein we shall come in. ²³And the saying pleased me: and I took twelve men of you, one man of each tribe. ²⁴And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of the Cluster, and searched it out. ²⁵And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto you, and said, It is a good land which the Lord our God doth give us. ²⁶And ye would not go up, but rebelled against the words of the Lord our God; ²⁷and ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the Lord hated us, He hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us. ²⁸Whither do we go up? And your brethren drew away your heart, saying, The nation is great and of many people, and mightier than we; the cities also are great, and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the giants there. ²⁹Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them: ³⁰the Lord your God Which goeth before your face, He shall fight against them together with you, according to all that He did for you in the land of Egypt; ³¹and in this wilderness, which ye have seen, by the way of the mountain of the Amorite; how the Lord thy God will bear thee as a nursling, as a man should nurse his son, through all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place. ³²Yet in this thing ye did not believe the Lord our God, ³³Who goeth in the way before you, to choose you out a place, Who guideth you in fire by night, Who sheweth you by what way ye go, and in a cloud by day. ³⁴And the Lord heard the voice of your words, and was provoked, and sware, saying, ³⁵Not one of these men shall see this good land, which I swear unto their fathers, ³⁶save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his sons, because he hath wholly followed the things of the Lord. ³⁷Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Neither shalt thou by any means go in thither. ³⁸Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth by thee, he shall go in thither: strengthen him: for he shall inherit it for Israel. ³⁹And every young child, which in this day hath no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall inherit it. ⁴⁰And when ye have turned, march into the wilderness in the way by the Red Sea. ⁴¹Then ye answered and said, We have sinned against the Lord our God; we will go up and fight, according to all that the Lord our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, and ye had gathered together, ye went up into the mountain. ⁴²And the Lord said unto me, Say unto them, Ye shall not go up, neither shall ye fight; for I am not with you; thus shall ye not be destroyed before your enemies. ⁴³So I spake unto you; and ye did not hear me, but transgressed the word of the Lord, and by force ye went up into the mount. ⁴⁴And the Amorite, which dwelt in that mountain, came out to meet you, and chased you, as bees do, and wounded you from Seir, even unto Hormah. ⁴⁵And ye sat down and wept before the Lord our God; but the Lord hearkened not to your voice, nor give ear unto you. ⁴⁶So ye abode in Kadesh many days, as many days as ye abode.

CHAPTER 2

And we turned and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea, as the Lord spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days. ²And the Lord said unto me, ³Let it be enough for you to compass this mountain: turn you northward therefore. ⁴And command thou the people, saying, Ye do pass through the coasts of your brethren the sons of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you, and shall be exceeding cautious. ⁵Contend not in battle with them; for I will not give you of their land even enough to set your foot upon; because I have given mount Seir unto the sons of Esau for a possession. ⁶Buy meat of them for money, and ye shall eat; and ye shall also take water by measure of them for money, and ye shall drink. ⁷For the Lord our God hath blessed thee in every work of thy hands: consider how thou wentest through that great and terrible wilderness: behold, these forty years the Lord thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing. ⁸And we passed by our brethren the sons of Esau, which dwell in Seir, through the way of Araba from Aelon, and from Ezion Gaber; and we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. ⁹And the Lord said unto me, Do not ye quarrel with the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give you of their land for an inheritance; because I have given Aroer unto the children of Lot to inherit. (¹⁰The Emin dwelt therein in times past, a people great and many and powerful, as the Anakim. ¹¹These also shall be accounted Raphaim, as the Anakim; and the Moabites call them Emin. ¹²The Horite also dwelt in Seir beforetime; and the children of Esau destroyed them, and utterly consumed them from before them; and they dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his inheritance, which the Lord gave unto them.) ¹³Now then rise up, said I, and take your journey, and get you over the valley of Zared. ¹⁴And the days in which we travelled from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the valley of Zared, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war out of the camp was fallen away, as the Lord God sware unto them. ¹⁵And the hand of God was upon them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp; until they fell away. ¹⁶And it came to pass, when all the men of war were fallen away and dead from among the people, ¹⁷that the Lord spake unto me, saying, ¹⁸Thou art to pass over the borders of Moab to Aroer this day: ¹⁹and ye shall come nigh over against the sons of Ammon; do not ye quarrel with them, nor wage war with them, for I will not give thee of the land of the sons of Ammon for an inheritance: because I have given it unto the sons of Lot for a possession. (²⁰It shall be accounted a land of Raphaim: for the Raphaim dwelt therein beforetime; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummins; ²¹a people great, and many, and mightier than ye, as also the Anakims; but the Lord destroyed them before them; and they inherited their land, and dwelt therein in their stead until this day: ²²as they did to the sons of Esau, which dwell in Seir, even as they destroyed the Horims from before them; and inherited their land, and dwelt therein in their stead even until this day: ²³and the Hivites which dwelt in Azeroth, even unto Gaza, and the Cappadocians, which came forth out of Cappadocia, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.) ²⁴Now then, rise ye up, and take your journey, and pass over the valley of Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the king of Heshbon the Amorite, and his land: begin to inherit it; contend with him this day in battle. ²⁵Begin thou to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the face of all the nations that are under heaven; who shall be troubled when they have heard thy name, and shall be in anguish for fear of thee.

²⁶And I sent ambassadors out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, I will pass through thy land: ²⁷I will go along by the road, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. ²⁸Thou shalt give me meat for money, and I will eat: only I will go through on my feet; ²⁹(as the sons of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, and the Moabites, which dwelt in Aroer, did unto me;) until I have passed over Jordan into the land which the Lord our God giveth us. ³⁰And Sihon king of Heshbon would not that we should pass by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might be delivered into thy hands, as on this day. ³¹And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have begun to deliver Sihon the king of Heshbon, the Amorite, and his land before thee: and do thou begin to inherit his land. ³²Then Sihon the king of Heshbon, came out to meet us, he and all his people, to war at Jahaz. ³³And the Lord our God delivered him before our face; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. ³⁴And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every city in order, and their wives, and their children: we left none living to remain. ³⁵Only the cattle we took as a prey unto ourselves, and took the spoil of the cities. ³⁶From Aroer, which is by the brink of the brook of Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even unto the mount of Gilead, there was not one city which escaped us: the Lord our God delivered all into our hands. ³⁷Only unto the sons of Ammon we came not near, even all the parts bordering on the brook Jabbok, the cities also in the mountain country; as the Lord our God commanded us.

CHAPTER 3

And we turned, and went up by the way that leadeth to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Edraim. ²And the Lord said unto me, Fear him not: for I have delivered him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hands; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. ³And the Lord our God delivered him into our hands, even Og the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until we left none of his seed. ⁴And we mastered all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan: ⁵all these were strong cities, high walls, gates and bars; beside the cities of the Perezites, a great many. ⁶We utterly destroyed them, as we dealt with Sihon the king of Heshbon; so we utterly destroyed every city in order, and the women, and the children, ⁷and all the cattle: and the spoil of the cities we took for a prey to ourselves.

⁸And we took at that time the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Jordan, from the brook of Arnon unto Hermon. ⁹The Phoenicians call Hermon Sirion; but the Amorite called it Shenir. ¹⁰All were cities of Misor, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ¹¹For only Og king of Bashan remained of the Raphaim; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; behold, it is in the chief city of the sons of Ammon: nine cubits is the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. ¹²And that land we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the border of the torrent Arnon, and half the mount of Gilead; and his cities gave I unto Reuben and to Gad. ¹³And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the country round about Argob, all that Bashan; it shall be accounted the land of Raphaim. ¹⁴And Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country round about Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan Havoth Jair, unto this day. ¹⁵And I gave Gilead unto Machir. ¹⁶And unto Reuben and unto Gad I gave from Gilead even unto the brook of Arnon, the border between the brook even unto Jabbok; the brook is the border to the children of Ammon. ¹⁷Araba also, and Jordan, are the boundary of Chinnereth, even unto the sea of Araba, even the salt sea, under Ashdoth of Pisgah eastward. ¹⁸And I commanded you at that time, saying, The Lord your God hath given you this land by lot: arm yourselves, every one that is powerful, and go before your brethren the sons of Israel. ¹⁹Only your wives, and your children, and your cattle, (I know that ye have much cattle,) let them abide in your cities which I have given you, ²⁰until the Lord give rest unto your brethren, as also He hath given unto you, and they also shall inherit the land which the Lord our God giveth them on the other side Jordan: and then shall ye return each one unto his inheritance, which I have given you.

²¹And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all things that the Lord hath done unto these two kings: so shall the Lord do unto all the kingdoms against which thou passest over thither. ²²Ye shall not fear them: for the Lord our God Himself shall fight for you. ²³And I besought the Lord at that time, saying, ²⁴O Lord God, Thou hast begun to shew Thy servant Thy strength, and Thy power: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that will do as Thou hast done, and according to Thy might? ²⁵I will therefore go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, this goodly mountain, and AntiLebanon. ²⁶And the Lord because of you regarded me not, and hearkened not unto me: and the Lord said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto Me of this matter. ²⁷Get thee up into the top of the quarried rock, and look with thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan. ²⁸And charge Joshua, and strengthen him, and encourage him: for he shall go before the face of this people, and he shall give them the inheritance of all the land which thou hast seen. ²⁹And we abode in the valley near the house of Peor.

CHAPTER 4

And now hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, all that I teach you, for to do, that ye may live, and be multiplied, and go in and inherit the land which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you. ²Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye take from it: keep ye the commandments of the Lord our God, all that I command you this day. ³Your eyes have seen all that the Lord our God did in Baal-peor: for every man that went after Baal-peor, the Lord your God hath utterly destroyed him from among you. ⁴But ye that did cleave unto the Lord your God are all alive this day. ⁵Behold, I have shewed you statutes and ordinances, even as the Lord commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to inherit it. ⁶And ye shall keep and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of all the nations, as many as shall hear all these statutes; and they shall say, Behold, this great nation is a wise and understanding people. ⁷For what manner of nation is there so great, who hath a God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things whensoever we may call upon Him? ⁸And what manner of nation is there so great, that hath righteous statutes and judgments according to all this law, which I set before you this day? ⁹Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently: and forget not any of the things which thine eyes have seen, and let them not depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: and thou shalt teach thy sons, and thy sons' sons; ¹⁰even in the day that thou stoodest before the Lord our God in Horeb in the day of the assembly; for the Lord said unto me, Gather Me the people together, and let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and they shall teach their children. ¹¹And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire up to the heaven; with darkness, blackness, and tempest. ¹²And the Lord spake unto you out of the midst of the fire a voice of words, which ye heard; and ye saw no similitude, only a voice. ¹³And He declared unto you His covenant, which He commanded you to keep, even the ten commandments; and He wrote them upon two tables of stone. ¹⁴And the Lord commanded me at that time to teach you ordinances and judgments, that ye should do them in the land whither ye go to inherit it. ¹⁵And take ye good heed unto your souls; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the Lord spake unto you in Horeb in the mountain out of the midst of the fire: ¹⁶lest ye transgress, and make you a graven image, any kind of likeness, a likeness of male or female, ¹⁷a likeness of any beast of them that are on the earth, a likeness of any winged fowl that flieth under heaven, ¹⁸a likeness of any creeping thing that creepeth on the ground, a likeness of any fish of them that are in the waters beneath the earth: ¹⁹and lest, having looked up unto the sky, and having seen the sun, and the moon, and the stars, and all the order of heaven, thou shouldest go astray, and worship them, and serve them, which the Lord God hath distributed unto all nations under the heaven. ²⁰But God hath taken you, and hath brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, to be unto Him a people of inheritance, as at this day. ²¹And the Lord God was wroth with me for the things that were said by you, and sware that I should not go over this Jordan, and that I should not enter into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee as an inheritance. ²²For I am to die in this land, and shall not go over this Jordan: but ye are to pass over, and inherit this good land. ²³Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord our God, which He made with you, and ye transgress, and make you a graven image of any of the things, concerning the which the Lord thy God commanded thee. ²⁴For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

²⁵And when thou shalt beget children, and shalt have children's children, and dwell long in the land, and transgress, and make a graven image of any thing, and do wickedly in the sight of the Lord your God, to provoke Him: ²⁶I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall surely perish from off the land, whereunto ye go across Jordan to inherit it there; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall be utterly cut off. ²⁷And the Lord shall scatter you among all nations, and ye shall be left few in number among all the heathen, among the which the Lord shall lead you. ²⁸And there ye shall serve other gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stones, which cannot see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. ²⁹And there ye shall seek the Lord your God, and ye shall find Him, whensoever ye seek Him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, in thine affliction. ³⁰And all these things shall come upon thee, even in the latter days; and thou shalt turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt hearken to His voice. ³¹For the Lord thy God is a God of pity: He will not forsake thee, neither will he destroy thee: He will not forget the covenant of thy fathers which the Lord sware unto them. ³²Ask of the former days, which were before thee, since the day when the Lord created man upon the earth, and at the one end of heaven unto the other end of heaven; ask if there hath happened any such thing like unto this great event, if such a thing hath been heard: ³³if ever a nation have heard the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and hast lived: ³⁴if God hath assayed to go and take Him a nation from the midst of another nation, with trial, and with signs, and with wonders, and with war, and with a mighty hand, and with an high arm, and with great sights, according to all the things that the Lord our God did in Egypt before thine eyes? ³⁵So that thou mightest know that the Lord thy God He is God; and there is none beside Him. ³⁶Out of heaven was His voice made to be heard, that He might instruct thee: and upon earth He shewed thee His great fire; and thou heardest His words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷Because He loved thy fathers, He also chose you their seed after them, and brought thee Himself with His great strength out of Egypt; ³⁸to destroy nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou, to bring thee in, to give thee their land to inherit, as thou hast it this day. ³⁹And thou shalt know this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord thy God He is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else but He. ⁴⁰And keep ye His commandments, and His ordinances, all that I command you this day, that it may be well with thee, and with thy children after thee, that ye may be long lived upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever.

⁴¹Then Moses separated three cities beyond Jordan on the east; ⁴²that the slayer might flee thither, which have killed his neighbour unawares, and have hated him not in times past; and he shall flee to one of these cities and live: ⁴³Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country of Reuben; and Ramoth in Gilead, of Gadi; and Golon in Bashan, of Manasseh. ⁴⁴This is the law which Moses set before the sons of Israel: ⁴⁵these are the testimonies, and the ordinances, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the sons of Israel, when they came forth out of the land of Egypt, ⁴⁶on the other side Jordan, in the valley near the house of Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwell at Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel smote, when they came forth out of Egypt: ⁴⁷and they inherited his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Jordan eastward; ⁴⁸from Aroer, which is by the border of the brook Arnon, even unto the mount of Sion, which is Hermon, ⁴⁹all Araba beyond Jordan eastward, under Asedoth hewn in the rock.

CHAPTER 5

And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, and ye shall learn them, and observe to do them. ²The Lord your God established a covenant with you in Horeb: ³the Lord established not this covenant with your fathers, but with all of you here alive this day. ⁴The Lord talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire; ⁵and I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to shew you the words of the Lord: (for ye were afraid before the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying, ⁶I am the Lord thy God, Which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ⁷Thou shalt have none other gods before My face. ⁸Thou shalt not make thee a graven image, or likeness of any thing, whatsoever thing is in the heaven above, and whatsoever is in the earth beneath, and whatsoever is in the waters beneath the earth. ⁹Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I am the Lord thy God, a jealous God, visiting the sins of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation unto them that hate Me, ¹⁰and doing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments. ¹¹Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord thy God will never acquit him that taketh His name in vain. ¹²Keep the day of the sabbaths to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee. ¹³Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy works: ¹⁴but on the seventh day is the sabbath to the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and thine ox, and thine ass, and all thy cattle, and the stranger that sojourneth in the midst of thee; that thy manservant may rest, and thy maidservant, and thine ox, as well as thou. ¹⁵And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondservant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence with a mighty hand and with an high arm: therefore the Lord thy God hath appointed thee to keep the day of the sabbaths, and to sanctify it. ¹⁶Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that it may go well with thee, and that thou mayest live long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. ¹⁷Thou shalt not commit murder. ¹⁸Thou shalt not commit adultery. ¹⁹Thou shalt not steal. ²⁰Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour with false testimony. ²¹Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife; thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, nor his field, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any beast of his, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

²²These words the Lord spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, darkness, blackness, storm, a great voice: and He added no more. And He wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. ²³And it came to pass, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; ²⁴and ye said, Behold, the Lord our God hath shewed us His glory, and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God shall talk with man, and he shall live. ²⁵And now let us not die, for this great fire will consume us, if we hear the voice of the Lord our God any more, and we shall die. ²⁶For what flesh is there, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of fire, as we have, and shall live? ²⁷Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say: and thou shalt speak unto us all things whatsoever the Lord our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it. ²⁸And the Lord heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the Lord said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, even all the things which they have spoken unto thee: they have well spoken all that they have spoken. ²⁹Who shall give that their heart be in them in such a way that they fear Me, and keep My commandments in all their days, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! ³⁰Go say to them, Get you into your houses again: ³¹but stand thou here with Me, and I will tell thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them; and let them do so in the land which I give them for an inheritance. ³²And ye shall observe to do as the Lord thy God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, ³³according to the way which the Lord your God hath commanded you to walk in it, that He may give thee rest, and that it may be well with thee, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall inherit.

CHAPTER 6

And these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, as many as the Lord our God commanded to teach you to do so in the land wherein ye go to inherit it: ²that ye might fear the Lord thy God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments, which I command thee this day, thou, and thy sons, and thy sons' sons, all the days of thy life; that ye may live many days. ³Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do them; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may be greatly multiplied, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath spoken, to give thee a land that floweth with milk and honey. And these are the statutes, and the judgments, which the Lord commanded the sons of Israel, when they had gone forth from the land of Egypt.

⁴Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord: ⁵and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy power. ⁶And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart, and in thy soul. ⁷And thou shalt teach them unto thy sons, and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. ⁸And thou shalt fasten them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be immoveable before thine eyes. ⁹And ye shall write them upon the posts of your houses, and of your gates.

¹⁰And it shall come to pass, whensoever the Lord thy God bringeth thee into the land which He sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham and to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, ¹¹and houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged in the rock, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and oliveyards which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten, and been filled; ¹²*then* beware lest thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹³Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve: and thou shalt cleave unto Him, and swear by His name. ¹⁴Go ye not after other gods, of the gods of the nations which are round about you; ¹⁵(for the Lord thy God is a jealous God among you;) lest the Lord thy God be exceeding wroth with thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth. ¹⁶Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God, as ye tempted Him in the Temptation. ¹⁷Thou shalt diligently keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, the testimonies, and the statutes, which He hath commanded thee. ¹⁸And thou shalt do that which is pleasing and good in the sight of the Lord: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and inherit the good land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, ¹⁹to chase all thine enemies from before thy face, as the Lord hath spoken.

²⁰And it shall come to pass, when thy son asketh thee to morrow, saying, What are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the Lord our God hath commanded us? ²¹then shalt thou say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in the land of Egypt; and the Lord brought us forth thence with a mighty hand, and with an high arm. ²²And the Lord gave signs and wonders, great and sore, in Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon his household before us: ²³and He brought us out from thence to give us this land, which He sware to give unto our fathers. ²⁴And the Lord commanded us to observe all these statutes; to fear the Lord our God, that it may be well with us for ever; that we may live, even as this day. ²⁵And there shall be mercy unto us, if we take heed to keep all these commandments before the Lord our God, as He hath commanded us.

CHAPTER 7

And when the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and shall remove great nations from before thee, the Hittite, and the Gergesite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations more in number and mightier than you, ²and the Lord thy God shall deliver them into thy hands; then thou shalt smite them; thou shalt utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor pity them; ³neither shall ye make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. ⁴For he will draw away thy son from Me, and he will serve other gods: and the Lord will be exceeding wroth with you, and utterly destroy thee suddenly. ⁵But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their pillars, and cut down their groves, and burn the graven images of their gods with fire. ⁶For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, beyond all nations that are upon the face of the earth. ⁷It was not because ye are more in number than all other nations that the Lord preferred you, and the Lord made choice of you: for ye are fewer in number than all other nations: ⁸but because the Lord loved you; and in keeping the oath which He sware unto your fathers, the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁹Thou shalt know therefore that the Lord thy God, He is God, a faithful God, Which keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love Him, and for them that keep His commandments to a thousand generations; ¹⁰and Which repayeth them that hate Him to their face, to destroy them utterly; and will not be slack with them that hate Him: He will repay them to their face. ¹¹Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and these judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

¹²And it shall come to pass, when ye shall have hearkened to these statutes, and kept, and done them, that the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which He sware unto your fathers. ¹³And He will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: He will also bless the offspring of thy belly, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the herds of thine oxen, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which He sware unto thy fathers to give it thee. ¹⁴Thou shalt be blessed beyond all nations: there shall not be an impotent or barren one among you, and among your cattle. ¹⁵And the Lord thy God will take away from thee all sickness, and will lay none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou hast seen, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. ¹⁶And thou shalt consume all the spoils of the nations which the Lord thy God giveth thee; thine eye shall not spare them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for this is an offence unto thee. ¹⁷But if thou shalt say in thine heart, 'This nation is greater than I; how shall I be able to destroy them utterly?' ¹⁸thou shalt not be afraid of them: thou shalt surely remember all that the Lord thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt; ¹⁹the great temptations which thine eyes saw; those signs, and great wonders, the mighty hand, and the high arm; how the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shall the Lord thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid in their presence. ²⁰Moreover the Lord thy God will send the hornet against them, until they that are left, and are hid from thee, shall be utterly destroyed. ²¹Thou shalt not be wounded before them: for the Lord thy God among you is a great God and powerful. ²²And the Lord thy God will consume these nations before thee little by little: thou shalt not be able to consume them speedily, lest the land become desert, and the wild beasts of the field be increased against thee. ²³And the Lord thy God shall deliver them into thine hands, and thou shalt destroy them with a mighty destruction, until ye have utterly destroyed them. ²⁴And He shall deliver their kings into your hands, and ye shall destroy their name from that place: there shall none be able to stand in opposition before thee, until thou have utterly destroyed them. ²⁵The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire their silver, neither shalt thou take unto thee gold of them, lest thou offend thereby: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God. ²⁶Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house; so thou be a cursed thing like it: thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt altogether abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8

All the commandments which I command you this day shall ye observe to do; that ye may live, and multiply, and enter in and inherit the land which the Lord your God swore unto your fathers. ²And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee in the wilderness, that He might afflict thee, and prove thee, and that the things in thine heart might be revealed, whether thou wouldest keep His commandments, or no. ³And He afflicted thee, and straitened thee with hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thy fathers knew not; that He might teach thee that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God shall man live. ⁴Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, thy shoes were not worn from off thee, thy feet were not hardened, lo, these forty years. ⁵Thou shalt also know in thine heart, that, as any man chasten his son, so the Lord thy God will chasten thee. ⁶And thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him. ⁷For the Lord thy God will bring thee into a good land, and wide, where there are torrents of waters, and fountains of depths that issue out of the plains, and through the mountains; ⁸a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and figs, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey; ⁹a land wherein thou shalt not eat thy bread with scarceness, and thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron; and out of the mountains shalt thou dig brass. ¹⁰And thou shalt eat, and be filled, and shalt bless the Lord thy God upon the good land which He hath given thee. ¹¹Take heed to thyself that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not to keep His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes, which I command thee this day: ¹²lest when thou hast eaten, and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein; ¹³and when thine oxen and thy sheep are multiplied unto thee, and thy silver and gold is multiplied unto thee; and all thy possessions are multiplied unto thee, ¹⁴thou be lifted up in thy heart, and forget the Lord thy God, Which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; ¹⁵Who brought thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein is the biting serpent, and scorpion, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee a fountain of water out of the flinty rock; ¹⁶Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thou knewest not, and thy fathers knew not; that He might afflict thee, and and prove thee thoroughly, and do thee good in thy latter days. ¹⁷Lest thou shouldest say in thine heart, My might and the power of mine hand hath wrought for me this great wealth. ¹⁸But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God, that He giveth thee power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, as at this day. ¹⁹And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day that ye shall surely perish. ²⁰As also the other nations which the Lord destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 9

Hear, O Israel: Thou dost pass over Jordan this day, to inherit nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and walled up to heaven, ²a people great and tall, the children of Anak, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the sons of Anak? ³And thou shalt know this day, that the Lord thy God He shall go before thy face: He is a consuming fire; He shall destroy them, and He shall turn them back before thee, and shall destroy them quickly, as the Lord hath said unto thee. ⁴Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath destroyed these nations before thy face, saying, For my righteousness the Lord hath brought me in to inherit this good land. ⁵Not for thy righteousness, or for the holiness of thine heart, dost thou go in to inherit their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord will destroy them from before thee, and that He may establish the covenant which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶And thou shalt know this day that it is not for thy righteousness the Lord thy God giveth thee this good land to inherit; for thou art a stiffnecked people. ⁷Remember, forget not, how much thou provokedst the Lord thy God in the wilderness: from the day that ye came forth out of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have continued to be disobedient toward the Lord. ⁸Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord, so that the Lord was angry with you to destroy you. ⁹When I went up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Lord made with you, and I was in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water. ¹⁰And the Lord gave unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God: and on them was written all the words, which the Lord spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. ¹¹And it came to pass after forty days and forty nights, that the Lord gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant. ¹²And the Lord said, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. ¹³And the Lord spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: ¹⁴and now suffer Me utterly to destroy them; and I will blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation great and strong, and more in number than they. ¹⁵And I turned, and went down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire unto heaven: and the two tables of the testimonies were in my two hands. ¹⁶And when I saw that ye had sinned against the Lord your God, and had made you a molten calf, and had gone aside out of the way which the Lord had commanded you to do; ¹⁷then I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before you. ¹⁸And I made my petition before the Lord, as also at the first forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him. ¹⁹And I was greatly terrified because of the anger and hot displeasure, because the Lord was provoked with you utterly to destroy you; but the Lord hearkened unto me at this time also. ²⁰And He was angry with Aaron to destroy him utterly: and I prayed for Aaron also at that time. ²¹And I took your sin which ye had made, the calf, and burnt it with fire, and pounded it, and ground it down, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. ²²Also in the Burning, and in the Temptation, and at the graves of lust, ye provoked the Lord. ²³And when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and inherit the land which I give you; then ye disobeyed the word of the Lord your God, and ye believed Him not, and hearkened not to His voice. ²⁴Ye were disobedient toward the Lord from the day that He became known unto you. ²⁵And I prayed before the Lord forty days and forty nights, the number that I prayed before; because the Lord had said He would utterly destroy you. ²⁶And I prayed unto God, and said, O Lord King of gods, destroy not Thy people and Thine inheritance, which Thou hast redeemed, which Thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with Thy great power, and with Thy mighty hand, and with Thine high arm.

²⁷Remember Thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not upon the hardness of heart of this people, nor their ungodlinesses, nor their sins: ²⁸lest the inhabitants of the land whence Thou broughtest us out, speak, saying, Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land of which He spake unto them, and because He hated them, He hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. ²⁹And these are Thy people and Thy portion, which Thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt by Thy great strength, and Thy mighty arm, and with Thine high arm.

CHAPTER 10

At that time the Lord said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto Me in the mount, and thou shalt make thee an ark of wood. ²And thou shalt write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark. ³And I made an ark of boards of incorruptible wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, and the two tables were in mine hand. ⁴And He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the Lord spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: and the Lord gave them unto me. ⁵And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they were, as the Lord commanded me. ⁶Now the sons of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the sons of Jakin to Mosera; there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead. ⁷From thence they journeyed to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters. ⁸At that time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord, to minister unto Him, and to bless in His name, unto this day. ⁹Wherefore the Levites have no part nor inheritance with their brethren; the Lord is His inheritance, as He said unto him. ¹⁰And I stood in the mount forty days and forty nights, and the Lord hearkened unto me at that time also; and the Lord would not destroy you. ¹¹And the Lord said unto me, Arise, begin thy journey before the people, that they may go in and inherit the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

¹²And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, ¹³and to keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, and His statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good. ¹⁴Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heaven is the Lord thy God's, the earth also, with all that therein is. ¹⁵Only the Lord chose thy fathers, to love them, and He chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. ¹⁶Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. ¹⁷For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and terrible, which accepteth not persons, nor taketh reward. ¹⁸He doth execute the judgment of the stranger, and the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, giving him food and raiment.

¹⁹Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
²⁰Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God; Him shalt thou serve, and to Him thou shalt cleave, and swear by His name. ²¹He is thy praise, and He is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen. ²²Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the Lord thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11

Therefore thou shalt love the Lord thy God, and keep His charges, and his statutes, and his judgments, alway. ²And ye shall know this day, for I speak not with your children, which have not known or seen the discipline of the Lord your God, His magnificence, and His mighty hand, and His high arm, ³and His tokens, and His wonders, which He did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land; ⁴and what He did unto the army of the Egyptians, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how He made the waters of the Red Sea to overwhelm the face of them as they pursued after you, and how the Lord hath destroyed them unto this day; ⁵and all the things that He did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place; ⁶and all the things that He did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel: ⁷but your eyes have seen all the mighty works of the Lord which He wrought among you this day. ⁸Therefore shall ye keep all His commandments which I command thee this day, that ye may live, and increase, and go in and inherit the land which ye cross the Jordan to inherit it; ⁹and that ye may live long in the land, which the Lord sware to give unto your fathers, unto them and to their seed after them, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰For the land whither thou goest in to inherit, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs. ¹¹But the land which ye go to inherit is a land of mountains and plains, which drinketh water of the rain of heaven: ¹²a land which the Lord thy God surveyeth continually: the eyes of the Lord thy God are upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year.

¹³And if ye will indeed hearken unto all the commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord thy God, and to serve Him with all thine heart and with all thy soul, ¹⁴then He will give unto thy land the early and the latter rain in his due season, and thou shalt gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. ¹⁵And He shall send grass in thy fields for thy cattle; and when thou hast eaten, and art filled, ¹⁶take heed to thyself that thine heart be not broadened, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; ¹⁷and the Lord be wroth with you, and He shut up the heavens, and there be no rain, and the land yield no fruit, and ye be destroyed quickly from off the good land which the Lord hath given you. ¹⁸Therefore shall ye lay up these words in your heart and in your soul, and ye shall bind them for a sign upon your hand; and it shall be immovable before your eyes. ¹⁹And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. ²⁰And ye shall write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: ²¹that thy days may be long, and the days of your sons, in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth. ²²And it shall come to pass, that if ye will indeed hearken unto all these commandments which I command you this day, to do them, to love the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave unto Him; ²³then will the Lord drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall inherit great nations and mightier than yourselves. ²⁴Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and AntiLebanon, from the great river, the river Euphrates, even unto the western sea, shall your coasts be. ²⁵There shall no man be able to stand before you: the Lord your God shall lay the dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, even as the Lord hath said unto you.

²⁶Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; ²⁷the blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you this day: ²⁸and the curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known. ²⁹And it shall come to pass, when the Lord thy God hath brought thee in unto the land which thou goest to inherit, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Garizin, and the curse upon mount Gaibal. ³⁰(Behold, are they not on the other side Jordan, toward the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the plain over against Golgol, beside the lofty oak?) ³¹For ye shall pass over Jordan, to go in and inherit the land which the Lord your God giveth you to inherit alway, and ye shall dwell therein. ³²And ye shall be careful to observe to do all the statutes and judgments, as many as I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12

And these are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you for an inheritance, all the days that ye live upon the earth. ²Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein they served their gods, whose land ye shall possess, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree. ³And ye shall destroy their altars, and break their pillars, and hew down their groves; and ye shall burn the graven images of their gods with fire, and blot out the name of them out of that place. ⁴Ye shall not do so unto the Lord your God. ⁵But unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose in one of your cities to name His name there, and to be called upon, ye shall even seek Him, and thither ye shall go: ⁶and thither ye shall carry your whole burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your firstfruits, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, the firstlings of your herds, and of your flocks. ⁷And there ye shall eat before the Lord your God, and ye shall rejoice in all the things ye put your hand to, ye and your houses; as the Lord hath blessed you. ⁸Ye shall not do altogether as we do here this day, every man whatsoever is pleasing in his own eyes. ⁹For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the Lord our God giveth you. ¹⁰And ye shall go over Jordan, and dwell in the land, which the Lord our God taketh as an inheritance for you: and He shall give you rest from all your enemies round about, and ye shall dwell secure. ¹¹And there shall be a place which the Lord thy God shall choose for His name to be called there; thither shall ye bring all things that I command you this day; your whole burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the firstfruits of your hand, and every choice gift of yours, whatsoever ye shall vow unto the Lord your God. ¹²And ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is at your gates; forasmuch as he hath no portion nor inheritance with you. ¹³Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy whole burnt offerings in any place which thou shalt see: ¹⁴save in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy whole burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all things whatsoever I command thee this day. ¹⁵But thou shalt kill according to all thy desire, and eat flesh according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee in every city: the unclean that is within thee and the clean together shall eat it, as the doe, or the stag. ¹⁶Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. ¹⁷Thou shalt not be able to eat within thy cities the tithe of thy corn, and of thy wine, and of thine oil, the firstlings of thine herd, and of thy flock, and all your vows as many as ye have vowed, and your thankofferings, and the firstfruits of thine hand. ¹⁸But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose for Himself, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the stranger that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God on whatsoever thou layest thine hand. ¹⁹Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite all the time that thou livest upon the earth.

²⁰And if the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy borders, as He hath said unto thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh: if thy soul should long to eat flesh, thou shalt eat flesh according to all the lust of thy soul. ²¹And if the place which the Lord thy God shall choose for Himself, that His name be called upon it, be far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the Lord hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy cities according to all the lust of thy soul. ²²Even as the doe and the stag is eaten, so shalt thou eat it: the unclean and the clean shall eat of it in like manner. ²³Take diligent heed that thou eat no blood: for blood is the life of it; the life shall not be eaten with the flesh. ²⁴Ye shall not eat it; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. ²⁵Thou shalt not eat it, that it may be well with thee, and with thy children after thee, if thou shalt do that which is good and pleasing in the sight of the Lord. ²⁶But thy holy things, if thou hast any, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and come unto the place which the Lord shall choose to have His name named upon it: ²⁷and thou shalt sacrifice thy whole burnt offerings, the flesh shalt thou offer upon the altar of the Lord thy God: but the blood of thy sacrifices shalt thou pour out at the foot of the altar of the Lord thy God, but thou shalt eat the flesh. ²⁸Beware and hearken, and thou shalt do all the commandments which I charge thee, that it may be well with thee, and with thy children for ever, if thou shalt do that which is pleasing and good in the sight of the Lord thy God.

²⁹And if the Lord thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to inherit their land, and thou shalt inherit it, and dwell in their land; ³⁰take heed to thyself that thou seek not to follow them, after that they be destroyed before thee, saying, How do these nations act toward their gods? I will do likewise. ³¹Thou shalt not do so unto thy God: for the abominations of the Lord, which He hateth, have they sacrificed unto their gods; for their sons and their daughters they burn in fire to their gods.

CHAPTER 13

Every word that I command you this day, thou shalt observe to do: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. ²If there arise among thee a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and he giveth thee a sign or a wonder, ³and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye know not; ⁴ye shall not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or the dreamer of that dream: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁵Ye shall follow the Lord your God, and fear Him, and ye shall hear His voice, and cleave unto Him. ⁶And that prophet, or that dreamer of a dream, shall die; because he hath spoken to make thee turn away from the Lord thy God, Which brought you out of the land of Egypt, Which redeemed thee from bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in: so shalt thou blot out the evil from among you.

⁷But if thy brother by thy father or thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is equal to thee, entreat thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which neither thou, nor thy fathers, have known, ⁸of the gods of the nations which are round about you, which are nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; ⁹thou shalt not consent unto him, neither shalt thou hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye spare him, neither shalt thou feel regret for him, neither shalt thou protect him: ¹⁰thou shalt surely make report concerning him; and thine hands shall be upon him among the first to put him to death, and the hands of all the people at the last. ¹¹And they shall stone him with stones, and he shall die; because he hath sought to draw thee away from the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹²And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more according to this evil thing among you.

¹³If thou shalt hear men in one of thy cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to dwell there, saying, ¹⁴Evil men are gone out from you, and have caused all the inhabitants of their land to fall away, saying, Let us go and worship other gods, which ye have not known; ¹⁵then shalt thou inquire, and ask, and make search diligently; and, behold, if the thing be clearly true, and this abomination hath taken place among you; ¹⁶thou shalt utterly destroy all the inhabitants of that land with the edge of the sword: ye shall solemnly curse it, and all things that are in it. ¹⁷And thou shalt gather all the spoils of it into the public ways thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof, publicly before the Lord thy God: and it shall be uninhabited for ever; it shall not be built again. ¹⁸And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thine hand: that the Lord may turn from His fierce anger, and shew thee mercy, and pity thee, and multiply thee, as He sware unto thy fathers; ¹⁹if thou wilt hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep His commandments, all which I command thee this day, to do that which is good and pleasing before the Lord thy God.

CHAPTER 14

Ye are the sons of the Lord your God: ye shall not make any baldness between your eyes for the dead, ²for thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto Himself, of all the nations that are upon the face of the earth.

³Ye shall not eat any abomination. ⁴These are the beasts which thou shalt eat: calf of cows, and lamb of sheep, and kid of goats, ⁵hart, and doe, and pyrgarg, and wild goat, and the camelopard. ⁶Every beast that parteth the hoofs, and cleaveth the hoofs into two divisions, and that cheweth the cud among the beasts, these ye shall eat. ⁷And these ye shall not eat of them that bring up the cud, and of them that divide the hoofs, and make distinct claws; the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; these are unclean to you. ⁸And as for the swine, because he divideth the hoof, and maketh distinct claws of the hoof, yet he cheweth not the cud, he is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, ye shall not touch their dead bodies. ⁹And these ye shall eat of all that are in the water: all that have fins and scales ye shall eat: ¹⁰and all that have not fins and scales ye shall not eat; they are unclean unto you. ¹¹Of any clean bird ye shall eat. ¹²And these of them ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the sea eagle, ¹³and the vulture, and the kite, and the like unto it, ¹⁴and every raven and his kind, ¹⁵and the sparrow, and the owl, and seamew, ¹⁶and the heron, and the swan, and the stork, ¹⁷and the cormorant, and the hawk, and his kind, and the hoopoe, and the night raven, ¹⁸and the pelican, and the diver and his kind, and the redbill, and the bat. ¹⁹All winged animals that creep are unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of them. ²⁰Ye shall eat every clean fowl. ²¹Ye shall eat nothing that dieth of itself: it shall be given unto the sojourner that is in thy cities, and he shall eat it; or thou shalt sell it unto an alien: for thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a lamb in his mother's milk.

²²Thou shalt tithe a tenth of all the produce of thy seed, the fruit of thy field year by year. ²³And thou shalt eat it in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to have His name called there: ye shall bring the tithe of thy corn, and of thy wine, and of thine oil, the firstlings of thy herd and of thy flock; that thou mayest learn to fear the Lord thy God always. ²⁴And if the journey be too far for thee, and thou art not able to bring them, because the place is far from thee, which the Lord thy God shall choose to have His name called there, because the Lord thy God will bless thee: ²⁵then thou shalt sell them for money, and take the money in thine hands, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose: ²⁶and thou bestow the money for whatsoever thy soul shall desire, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or on strong drink, or on whatsoever thy soul may desire: and thou shalt eat there before the Lord thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, and thine house, ²⁷and the Levite that is within thy gates; for he hath no portion nor inheritance with thee. ²⁸After three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithes of thy fruits, in that year thou shalt lay it up within thy cities: ²⁹and the Levite shall come, (because he hath no portion nor lot with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which is within thy cities: and they shall eat and be satisfied; that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the works which thou shalt do.

CHAPTER 15

Every seven years thou shalt make a release. ²And this is the ordinance of the release: Every private debt that thy neighbour oweth thee, shalt thou release; and thou shalt not ask payment of it of thy brother; because it hath been called a release unto the Lord thy God. ³Of a stranger thou shalt ask it again, whatsoever he hath of thine; but unto thy brother shalt thou release his debt unto thee. ⁴For there shall be no poor among you; for the Lord shall surely bless thee in the land which the Lord giveth thee by inheritance, that thou inherit it. ⁵If ye indeed hearken unto the voice of the Lord your God, to observe to do all these commandments, as many as I command thee this day, ⁶because the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in the way whereof He spake unto thee: then thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over thee.

⁷If there be among you any one of thy brethren that is in need within one of thy cities in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother that is in need: ⁸thou shalt surely open thine hands unto him, and shalt lend him as much as he wanteth according to his need. ⁹Take heed unto thyself that there be no secret thing in thine heart, an iniquity, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye shall be evil unto thy brother that is in need, thou shalt not give unto him; and he shall cry unto the Lord against thee, and there shall be great sin in thee. ¹⁰Thou shalt surely give him, and thou shalt lend him as much as he needeth, according as he is in need; and thou shalt not grudge in thine heart as thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all thou layest thine hand unto. ¹¹For the poor shall never cease out of thy land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt surely open thine hands wide unto thy poor brother, and to him that is distressed upon thy land.

¹²But if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, he shall serve thee six years; and in the seventh year thou shalt send him out free from thee. ¹³And when thou shalt send him out free from thee, thou shalt not send him out empty: ¹⁴thou shalt give him provision for the way out of thy flock, and out of thy corn, and out of thy wine: as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee, thou shalt give unto him. ¹⁵And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee from thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing. ¹⁶And if he say unto thee, I will not go out from thee; because he continueth to love thee and thine house, because he is well with thee; ¹⁷then thou shalt take an aul, and bore his ear through unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever: and also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise. ¹⁸It shall not seem hard unto thee, when they are sent out free from thee; for he hath served thee six years according to the annual hire of an hired servant: so the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all things whatsoever thou mayest do.

¹⁹Every firstling that shall be born among thy kine and thy sheep thou shalt sanctify the males unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with thy firstling calf, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. ²⁰Thou shalt eat it before the Lord year by year in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou and thy household. ²¹And if there be a blemish therein, if it be lame, or blind, an ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the Lord thy God. ²²Thou shalt eat it within thy cities: the unclean in thee and the clean shall eat it in like manner, as the doe, or the hart. ²³Only ye shall not eat the blood; thou shalt pour it out upon the ground as water.

CHAPTER 16

Observe the month of new things, and thou shalt perform the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of new things thou camest out of Egypt by night. ²And thou shalt sacrifice the passover unto the Lord thy God, even sheep and oxen, in the place which the Lord shall choose to have His name called upon it. ³Thou shalt eat no leaven with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even bread of affliction; for ye came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that ye may remember the day of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life. ⁴There shall no leaven be seen with thee in all thy coasts seven days; and there shall not be left of the flesh, which thou shalt sacrifice the first day at even, until the morning. ⁵Thou shalt not have power to sacrifice the passover within any of the cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee: ⁶but in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to have His name called there, thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest out of Egypt. ⁷And thou shalt boil and roast and eat it in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose: and thou shalt return in the morning, and go unto thy houses. ⁸Six days shalt thou eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day is an holy day, a feast unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work therein, save what must be done by any soul. ⁹Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: when thou shalt begin to number seven weeks when thou hast begun to put the sickle to the corn. ¹⁰And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God, according as thine hand hath power in as many things as the Lord thy God shall give thee. ¹¹And thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that dwelleth among you, in whatsoever place which the Lord thy God shall choose, that His name should be called there. ¹²And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these commandments. ¹³Thou shalt observe for thyself the feast of tabernacles seven days, when thou gatherest in from thy corn floor, and thy wine press. ¹⁴And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow that is in thy cities. ¹⁵Seven days shalt thou keep a feast unto the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose for Himself: and if the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in every work of thine hands, then thou shalt rejoice. ¹⁶Three times in the year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: thou shalt not appear before the Lord thy God empty: ¹⁷each one according to your ability, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee.

¹⁸Judges and officers shalt thou take thee in thy cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee in thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. ¹⁹They shall not wrest judgment, nor favour persons, neither take a gift: for gifts do blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. ²⁰Thou shalt justly follow justice, that ye may live, and go in, and inherit the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

²¹Thou shalt not plant thee a grove, thou shalt not plant thee any tree near unto the altar of the Lord thy God. ²²Neither shalt thou set thee up a pillar; things the which the Lord thy God hath hated.

CHAPTER 17

Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the Lord thy God a calf, or a sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evil thing: for it is an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

²Now if there be found in any one of thy cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman, who shall do that which is evil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to transgress His covenant, ³and they go and serve other gods, and worship them, the sun, or the moon, or any of the host of heaven, which He commanded thee not to do; ⁴and it be told thee, and thou shalt have enquired diligently, and, behold, the thing surely took place, that this abomination is wrought in Israel: ⁵then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, and ye shall stone them with stones, and they shall die. ⁶On the testimony of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he die; a man that is put to death shall not be put to death for one witness. ⁷And the hand of the witnesses shall be upon him among the first to put him to death, and at the last the hand of the people: so shalt thou put the evil one away from among you.

⁸And if a be a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, and between cause and cause, and between stroke and stroke, and between controversy and controversy, even matters of judgment within thy cities: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the Lord thy God shall choose; ⁹and thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days; and they shall search out, and report the judgment unto thee. ¹⁰And thou shalt do according to the thing which they shall shew thee out of the place which the Lord thy God shall choose; and thou shalt observe to do all whatsoever shall have been by law appointed unto thee. ¹¹According to the law and the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not swerve from any sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left. ¹²And the man whosoever that doeth haughtily, by not hearkening unto the priest that standeth to minister in the name of the Lord thy God, or unto the judge that presideth in those days, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil one from Israel. ¹³And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more ungodliness.

¹⁴Now if thou come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and inherit it, and dwell therein, and thou say, I will set a ruler over me, like as also the other nations that are round about me; ¹⁵thou shalt surely set a ruler over thee, whom the Lord thy God shall choose: of thy brethren shalt thou set a ruler over thee: thou shalt not have power to set a stranger over thee, because he is not thy brother. ¹⁶For he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor turn the people back to Egypt, to multiply horses to himself:

forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall no more turn back that way. ¹⁷Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, lest his heart turn away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. ¹⁸And when he shall be established in his government, then shall he write him this second law in a book by the hands of the priests the Levites: ¹⁹and it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the Lord thy God, and to keep all these commandments, and to observe these ordinances, to do them; ²⁰that his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandments on the right hand, or on the left: to the end that he may live long in his dominion, he, and his sons, in the midst of the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 18

Unto the priests the Levites, even all the tribe of Levi, shall there be no part nor inheritance with Israel: the burnt offerings of the Lord are their inheritance; they shall eat them. ²But there shall be unto them no part nor inheritance among their brethren: the Lord Himself is his portion, as He said unto him. ³And this shall be the priests' in the things that are due from the people, from them that offer sacrifices, whether it be a calf or a sheep; and thou shalt give unto the priest the shoulder, and the cheeks, and the great maw. ⁴The firstfruits also of thy corn, and of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstfruits of the fleeces of thy sheep, shalt thou give Him: ⁵for the Lord hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand before the Lord thy God, to minister and bless in His name, him and his sons among the sons of Israel. ⁶And if a Levite come from one of the cities of all the sons of Israel, where he himself sojourneth, according as his mind desireth, unto the place which he hath chosen; ⁷he shall minister unto the name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there present before the Lord thy God. ⁸He shall eat an allotted portion, beside the sale of his patrimony.

⁹Now if thou come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰There shall not be found in thee one that purgeth his son or his daughter with fire, or one that useth divination, or that dealeth with omens and augury, ¹¹or a sorcerer that casteth spells, or one that hath in him a divining spirit, or an observer of signs, that questioneth the dead. ¹²For every one that doeth these things is an abomination unto the Lord: for because of these abominations the Lord will destroy them from before thy face. ¹³Thou shalt be perfect before the Lord thy God. ¹⁴For all these nations, which thou shalt inherit, they will hearken unto omens, and unto divinations: but the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do. ¹⁵The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet of thy brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear; ¹⁶according to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, We will not hear again the voice of the Lord thy God, neither will we see this great fire any more: and we shall not die. ¹⁷And the Lord said unto me, They have spoken rightly all that which they have spoken unto thee: ¹⁸I will raise them up a prophet of their brethren, like unto thee, and will put My words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them as I shall command him. ¹⁹And what man soever will not hearken unto whatsoever words that prophet shall speak in My name, I will take vengeance upon him. ²⁰But the prophet, whosoever shall impiously speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, even that prophet shall die. ²¹But if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken? ²²whatsoever words that prophet shall speak in the name of the Lord, and they shall not come true, nor come to pass, this is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken: that prophet hath spoken wickedly: ye shall not spare him.

CHAPTER 19

And when the Lord thy God hath cut off the nations, which God giveth thee, even the land; and ye shall inherit them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses, ²thou shalt separate three cities unto thee in the midst of thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee. ³Survey thou thy way, and thou shalt divide the coasts of thy land, which the Lord thy God apportioneth unto thee, into three parts; and there shall be there a refuge for every one that slayeth a man. ⁴And this shall be the ordinance of the slayer of man, which shall flee thither, and shall live: Whosoever shall have killed his neighbour ignorantly, whereas he hated him not in time past. ⁵And whosoever shall go into the thicket with his neighbour to gather wood, if the hand of him that cutteth wood with the axe be violently shaken, and the axe head fall from the helve, and light upon his neighbour, and he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live: ⁶lest the avenger of blood pursue the slayer, because his heart is hot, and overtake him, if the way be too long, and he slay him: though there be to this man no sentence of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past. ⁷Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities unto thee. ⁸If the Lord enlarge thy coasts, as He hath sworn unto thy fathers, and the Lord give thee all the land which He said He would give unto thy fathers; ⁹if thou shalt hearken to do all these commandments, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways continually, then thou shalt add three cities more unto thee unto these three: ¹⁰so innocent blood shall not be spilt in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, and there shall not be one guilty of blood in thee. ¹¹But if there be in thee a man that hateth his neighbour, and he lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and take his life, and he flee into one of these cities: ¹²then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hands of the avengers of blood; and he shall die. ¹³Thine eye shall not spare him: so shalt thou cleanse innocent blood from Israel; and it shall be well with thee.

¹⁴Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmarks, which thy fathers have set in the inheritance, wherein thou hast obtained a share in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit.

¹⁵One witness shall not stand to testify against a man for any iniquity, or for any fault, or for any sin that he may commit: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the every thing be established. ¹⁶If an unjust witness rise up against a man, and allegeth iniquity against him, ¹⁷then the two men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the Lord, and before the priests, and before the judges, which may be in those days. ¹⁸And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness hath borne unjust testimony, and hath stood against his brother; ¹⁹then shall ye do unto him, as he had wickedly thought to have done against his brother: and thou shalt put away the evil from you. ²⁰And those that remain shall hear and fear, and shall do no more according to this evil thing in the midst of thee. ²¹Thine eye shall not spare him; but life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER 20

And if thou go out to war against thine enemies, and see horse, and rider, and a people more in number than thou; thou shalt not be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, Which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. ²And it shall be, whensoever thou shalt come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, and shall say unto them, ³Hear, O Israel, ye go this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your heart faint, fear not, neither be ye confounded, neither turn aside from their face; ⁴for it is the Lord your God that goeth forward with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you. ⁵And the scribes shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the war, and another man dedicate it. ⁶And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet been made merry with it? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man be made merry with it. ⁷And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her. ⁸And the scribes shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there that feareth, and is cowardly in his heart? let him go and return unto his house, lest he make his brethren's heart fail, as his own. ⁹And it shall be, when the scribes have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall appoint generals of the army to be leaders of the people.

¹⁰If thou shalt come nigh unto a city to overcome them by war, then call them out peaceably. ¹¹If then they make answer peaceably unto thee, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributary, and subject unto thee. ¹²But if they will not hearken unto thee, but make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: ¹³until the Lord thy God shall deliver it into thine hands; and thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword: ¹⁴except the women, and the stuff, and all the cattle, and whatsoever shall be in the city: and all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take as spoil unto thyself; and thou shalt eat all the spoil of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God giveth thee. ¹⁵Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit their land. ¹⁶Behold, of the cities of these people, which the Lord doth give thee for an inheritance, ye shall not suffer any thing to live that breatheth: ¹⁷but ye shalt surely curse them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the Lord thy God commanded thee: ¹⁸that they teach you not to do all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; and so should ye sin against the Lord your God.

¹⁹If thou besiege a city many days, to prevail against it in war to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by putting iron against them: but thou shalt eat of it, and thou shalt not cut it down: (is the tree that is in the field a man, to enter before thee into the work of a siege?) ²⁰But the tree which thou knowest that they be not fruit bearing, this shalt thou destroy and cut it down; and thou shalt build a mound against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be delivered up.

CHAPTER 21

And if one be found wounded with the sword in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, having fallen in the field, and they know not who hath smitten him: ²then thine elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is wounded: ³and it shall be, that the city which is next unto the wounded man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer of the cattle, which hath not been wrought, and which hath not drawn in a yoke; ⁴and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which hath not been tilled, and is not sown, and shall hough the heifer in the valley: ⁵and the priests the Levites shall come forth; for them the Lord thy God hath chosen to stand by Him, and to bless in His name; and by their mouth shall every controversy and every stroke be tried: ⁶and all the elders of that city, that are next unto the wounded man, shall wash their hands over the head of the heifer that was houghed in the valley: ⁷and they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. ⁸Be merciful, O Lord, unto Thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, that innocent blood be among Thy people Israel. And the blood shall be atoned for unto them. ⁹So shalt thou put away innocent blood from among you, if thou shalt do that which is good and pleasing in the sight of the Lord thy God.

¹⁰And if when thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, the Lord thy God should deliver them into thine hands, and thou take their spoil, ¹¹and see among the captives a woman beautiful in countenance, and have a desire unto her, and thou take her to thee for a wife, ¹²and bring her within thine house; then shalt thou shave her head, and pare her nails, ¹³and take away her raiment of captivity from off her: and she shall abide in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother the days of a month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and she shall be thy wife. ¹⁴And if it be that thou have no delight in her, thou shalt send her out free; and she shall not at all be sold for money, thou shalt not treat her with contempt, because thou hast humbled her.

¹⁵And if a man have two wives, one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the son of her that was hated be firstborn: ¹⁶then it shall be, that whensoever he divideth by inheritance his goods unto his sons, he shall not be able to give the son of the beloved the right of the firstborn, having overlooked the son of the hated, which is the firstborn: ¹⁷but he shall acknowledge the firstborn of the hated by giving him double of all things which shall be found by him: for he is the beginning of his children; and unto him belongeth the birthright.

¹⁸And if any man have a disobedient and contentious son, which hearkeneth not unto the voice of his father, and the voice of his mother, and they chasten him, and he hearken not unto them: ¹⁹then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; ²⁰and they shall say unto the elders of the city, This our son is disobedient and contentious, he hearkeneth not unto our voice; he is a reveller, and a drunkard. ²¹And the men of the city shall stone him with stones, and he shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil one from you; and the rest shall hear, and fear.

²²And if there be any sin in any one, and the judgment of death be upon him, and ye hang him on a tree: ²³his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but ye shall in any wise bury it that day; (for accursed of God is every one that is hanged upon a tree;) and ye shall in no wise defile the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

CHAPTER 22

When thou seest thy brother's calf or his sheep go astray in the way, thou shalt not overlook them: thou shalt by all means turn them again unto thy brother, and bring them again unto him. ²And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, and thou know him not, thou shalt bring it unto thine own house within, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again. ³In like manner shalt thou do with his ass, and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and so shalt thou do unto every thing that thy brother hath lost; whatsoever shall have been lost by him, and thou shalt have found, thou shalt not be able to overlook. ⁴Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fallen in the way: thou shalt not overlook them; thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

⁵The apparel of a man shall not be upon a woman, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for every one that doeth these things is abomination unto the Lord thy God.

⁶And if thou come upon a brood of birds in the way, or in any tree, or on the ground, young ones, or eggs, and the dam be brooding upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young: ⁷thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, but thou shalt take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest live long.

⁸If thou build a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thine house: so shalt thou bring not bloodguiltiness upon thine house, if one in any wise fall from thence.

⁹Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit be devoted, whatsoever seed thou mayest sow, with the fruit of thy vineyard. ¹⁰Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together. ¹¹Thou shalt not wear a mingled garment, of woollen and linen together.

¹²Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou mayest be clothed.

¹³And if any man take a wife, and live with her, and hate her, ¹⁴and put words of allegation upon her, and bring up an evil name against her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found not her tokens of virginity: ¹⁵then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring out the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate: ¹⁶and the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave this my daughter unto this man to wife; ¹⁷and now he hath hated her; and attacheth words of allegation unto her, saying, I found not tokens of virginity with thy daughter; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall unfold the garment before the elders of the city. ¹⁸And the elders of the city shall take that man, and chastise him; ¹⁹and they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought forth an evil name against a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he shall never be able to put her away. ²⁰But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be found not for the damsel: ²¹then they shall bring out the damsel to the doors of her father's house, and shall stone her with stones, and she shall die: because she hath wrought folly among the sons of Israel, by playing the whore: so shalt thou put away the evil one from among you.

²²And if a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, ye shall kill both of them, the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away the evil one from Israel.

²³And if there be a young damsel espoused to a man, and a man have found her in the city, and have lain with her; ²⁴ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of the city, and they shall be stoned with stones; the damsel, because she cried not in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so shalt thou put away the evil one from you. ²⁵But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and force her, and lie with her: ye shall slay the man that lay with her only. ²⁶And the damsel hath not committed a sin worthy of death: as if a man should rise up against his neighbour, and slay him, even so is this matter: ²⁷for he found her in the field; the betrothed damsel cried; and there was none to save her.

²⁸And if any man find a young damsel, which is not betrothed, and force her, and lie with her, and be found; ²⁹the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty silver didrachmas, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her; he shall never be able to put her away.

CHAPTER 23

A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.

²He that is wounded in the stones, or cut off in his privy members, shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord. ³He that is born of an harlot shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord. ⁴The Ammonite and Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to the tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever: ⁵because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye went forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee. ⁶Nevertheless the Lord thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the Lord thy God turned the curses into blessings, because the Lord thy God loved thee. ⁷Thou shalt not speak peaceably nor profitably unto them all thy days for ever. ⁸Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land. ⁹If sons be born unto them, in the third generation they shall enter into the congregation of the Lord.

¹⁰If thou go forth to pitch against thine enemies, then shalt thou keep thee from every wicked thing. ¹¹If there be among you a man that is not clean by reason of his issue by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, and he shall not enter into the camp: ¹²but it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall enter into the camp. ¹³Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, and thou shalt go forth thither, ¹⁴and thou shalt have a paddle upon thy girdle; and it shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt bring back the earth, and cover thy nuisance. ¹⁵For the Lord thy God walketh in thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemy before thee; and thy camp shall be holy, and there shall appear in thee no disgraceful thing, and so He turn away from thee.

¹⁶Thou shalt not deliver unto his master a servant which cometh from his master, and attacheth himself unto thee. ¹⁷He shall dwell with thee, even he shall dwell among you where it liketh him best: thou shalt not oppress him.

¹⁸There shall be no whore among the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be one that whoreth among the sons of Israel: there shall be no initiate among the daughters of Israel, and there shall not be any initiated man among the sons of Israel. ¹⁹Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the exchange of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for even both of these are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

²⁰Thou shalt not lend upon usury of silver to thy brother; usury of meat, or usury of any thing which thou mayest lend out. ²¹Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all thy works upon the land whither thou goest to inherit it.

²²If thou vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee; it shall be sin in thee.

²³But if thou be unwilling to vow, it is not sin in thee. ²⁴The words that go out from between thy lips thou shalt keep and perform: and even as thou hast vowed a gift unto the Lord thy God, so shalt thou do that which thou hast spoken with thy mouth.

²⁵And if thou go into thy neighbour's standing corn, then thou mayest gather the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not put the sickle unto thy neighbour's corn. ²⁶And if thou go into thy neighbour's vineyard, thou shalt eat grapes sufficient to satisfy thy desire; but thou shalt not put any in a vessel.

CHAPTER 24

And if any one take a wife, and live with her, then it shall come to pass if she have found no favour in his eyes, because he have found some unbecoming thing in her, that he shall write for her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hands; and he shall send her away out of his house. ²And if she go away, and be married unto another man; ³and the latter man hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hands, and send her away out of his house; and the latter man die, which took her unto himself for a wife: ⁴the former man, which sent her away, shall not be able to return, and take her unto himself for a wife, after that she hath been defiled: because it is an abomination before the Lord thy God: and ye shall not defile the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit.

⁵And if any man have recently taken a wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall any thing be laid upon him: but he shall be free in his house: for one year he shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

⁶Thou shalt not take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for this man that doeth so taketh a life to pledge.

⁷And if a man be caught stealing a soul of his brethren of the sons of Israel, and overcome him, and sell him; that thief shall die; so shalt thou put away that evil one from you.

⁸Take heed unto thyself in the plague of leprosy: thou shalt take great heed to do according to all the law which the priests the Levites shall report unto you: as I commanded you, take ye heed to do. ⁹Remember all that the Lord thy God did unto Miriam in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt.

¹⁰If thy brother oweth thee a debt, thou shalt not go into his house to take his pledge. ¹¹Thou shalt stand without, and the man who is in thy debt shall bring out the pledge unto thee. ¹²And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge: ¹³thou shalt surely restore his pledge when the sun goeth down, and he shall sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be mercy unto thee before the Lord thy God.

¹⁴Thou shalt not unjustly withhold the wages of the poor and needy of thy brethren, or of the strangers that are in thy cities: ¹⁵the same day shalt thou pay him his wages; the sun shall not go down upon it, because he is poor, and trusteth in thee: and he shall cry against thee unto the Lord, and it shall be sin unto thee.

¹⁶The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the sons be put to death for the fathers: every man shall die in his own sin.

¹⁷Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of the stranger and the fatherless, and widow: thou shalt not take the widow's raiment to pledge. ¹⁸And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

¹⁹And when thou hast reaped corn in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to take it: it shall be for the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the works of thine hands. ²⁰And if thou gather thine olives, thou shalt not return to gather the remainder: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow; and thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing. ²¹And whensoever thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean what thou hast left: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: ²²and thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

CHAPTER 25

And if there be a dispute between men, and they come unto judgment, and they judge, and justify the righteous, and condemn the unrighteous; ²then it shall be, if the unrighteous be worthy to be beaten, that thou shalt lay him down before the judges, and they shall scourge him before them according to his iniquity. ³With forty stripes shall they scourge him; they shall not give more: for if thou beat him above these with more stripes, thy brother will be disgraced before thee.

⁴Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn.

⁵And if brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no seed, the wife of the dead shall not marry without the family unto a man not related: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and dwell with her. ⁶And it shall be, that the child which she beareth shall be named by the name of the dead man; and his name shall not be put out of Israel. ⁷And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then shall the woman go up to the gate unto the elders; and she shall say, My husband's brother will not raise up his brother's name in Israel; my husband's brother has not been willing. ⁸And the elders of the city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand, and say, I will not take her; ⁹then shall his brother's wife come forward in the presence of the elders, and loose one shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall they do unto that man that will not build up his brother's house in Israel. ¹⁰And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath had his shoe loosed.

¹¹And if men strive together, a man with his brother, and the wife of one of them draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him; and she put forth her hand, and take hold of his privy members: ¹²thou shalt cut off her hand; thine eye shall not spare her.

¹³Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. ¹⁴Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small. ¹⁵Thou shalt have a true and just weight, and a true and just measure: that thou mayest live long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. ¹⁶For every one that doeth this is an abomination unto the Lord thy God, even every one that doeth injustice.

¹⁷Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when thou wentest forth out of the land of Egypt: ¹⁸how he withstood thee in the way, and cut off thine hindmost, even them that were weary behind thee; and thou didst hunger, and wast weary: and he feared not God. ¹⁹And it shall be, whensoever the Lord thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit, that thou shalt blot out the name of Amalek from under heaven, and shalt not forget.

CHAPTER 26

And it shall be, when thou come in unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit it, and thou have inherited it, and have dwelt therein; ²that thou shalt take of the first of the fruits of thy land, that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt put them into a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to have His name called there. ³And thou shalt come unto the priest who shall be in those days, and say unto him, I testify this day unto the Lord my God, that I am come into the land which the Lord sware unto our fathers for to give us. ⁴And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the Lord thy God. ⁵And thou shalt answer and say before the Lord thy God, My father forsook Syria, and went down into Egypt; and sojourned there with a small number, and became there a mighty nation, and a great multitude. ⁶And the Egyptians evil entreated us, and humbled us, and laid upon us hard labour: ⁷and we cried unto the Lord our God; and the Lord heard our voice, and saw our humiliation, and our labour, and our oppression. ⁸And the Lord Himself brought us out of Egypt with His great strength, and with His mighty hand, and with His high arm, and with great visions, and with signs, and with wonders. ⁹And He hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which Thou, O Lord, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God: ¹¹and thou shalt rejoice in all the good things which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee, thou, and thine house, and the Levite, and the stranger that is within thee.

¹²And when thou hast made an end of all the tithings of thy increase in the third year, thou shalt give the second tenth unto the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow: and they shall eat within thy cities, and be merry. ¹³And thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I have gathered together in full all the holy things out of mine house, and have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all the commandments which Thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed Thy commandment, neither have I forgotten it. ¹⁴And I have not eaten thereof in my distress; I have not gathered of them for an unclean purpose; I have not given thereof unto the dead: I have hearkened unto the voice of the Lord my God, and have done as Thou hast commanded me. ¹⁵Look down from Thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Thy people Israel, and the land which Thou hast given them, as Thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

¹⁶This day the Lord thy God hath commanded thee to keep all the ordinances and judgments: and ye shall observe and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul. ¹⁷Thou hast chosen the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walk in His ways, and to keep His ordinances and judgments, and to hearken unto His voice. ¹⁸And the Lord hath chosen thee this day, that thou shouldest be unto Him a peculiar people, as He hath said, to keep His commandments; ¹⁹and that thou shouldest be above all nations, as He hath made thee renowned, and a boast, and glorious: that thou shouldest be an holy people unto the Lord thy God, as He hath spoken.

CHAPTER 27

And Moses and the elders of Israel commanded, saying, Keep all these commandments, all that I command you this day. ²And it shall be on the day when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister. ³And thou shalt write upon these stones all the words of this law, as soon as ye have passed over Jordan, when ye are entered into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; according as the Lord God of thy fathers hath said unto thee. ⁴And it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command thee this day, in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister. ⁵And

there shalt thou build an altar unto the Lord thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up an iron tool upon it. ⁶Thou shalt build an altar unto the Lord thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer whole burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord thy God. ⁷And thou shalt there offer a peace offering, and thou shalt eat and be filled, and rejoice before the Lord thy God. ⁸And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

⁹And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Keep silence, and hearken, O Israel; this day thou art become a people unto the Lord thy God. ¹⁰And thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and do all His commandments and His ordinances, which I command thee this day. ¹¹And Moses charged the people in that day, saying, ¹²These shall stand upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are gone over Jordan; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin: ¹³and these shall stand upon mount Ebal for to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. ¹⁴And the Levites shall answer and say unto all Israel with a loud voice, ¹⁵Cursed be the man whosoever shall make a graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of a craftsman, and shall put it in a secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, So be it. ¹⁶Cursed be the man that dishonoureth his father or his mother: and all the people shall say, So be it. ¹⁷Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmarks: and all the people shall say, So be it. ¹⁸Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander in the way: and all the people shall say, So be it. ¹⁹Cursed be he if he perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²⁰Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he hath uncovered his father's covering: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²¹Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²²Cursed be that lieth with his sister by his father, or his mother: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²³Cursed be he that lieth with his mother in law: and all the people shall say, So be it. Cursed is he that lieth with his wife's sister: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²⁴Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour secretly: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²⁵Cursed be he whosoever shall have taken reward to slay an innocent person: and all the people shall say, So be it. ²⁶Cursed be every man that continueth not in all the words of this law to do them: and all the people shall say, So be it.

CHAPTER 28

And it shall come to pass, if thou wilt indeed hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and to do all these commandments which I command thee this day, that the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth: ²and all these blessings shall come on thee, and find thee, if thou wilt indeed hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God. ³Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field; ⁴blessed shall be the offspring of thy belly, and the fruits of thy land, and the herds of thine oxen, and the flocks of thy sheep; ⁵blessed shall be thy barns, and thy stores; ⁶blessed shalt thou be in thy coming in, and blessed shalt thou be in thy going out. ⁷The Lord deliver thine enemies that withstand thee to be utterly broken before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee from before thee seven ways. ⁸The Lord send upon thee His blessing in thy barns, and in all that thou puttest thine hand upon, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. ⁹The Lord shall raise thee up an holy people unto Himself, as He sware unto thy fathers; if thou wilt hear the voice of the Lord thy God, and walk in His ways. ¹⁰And all the nations of the earth shall see thee, that the name of the name of the Lord is called upon thee; and they shall stand in awe of thee. ¹¹And the Lord thy God shall multiply thee for good in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruits of thy land, in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers to give thee. ¹²The Lord open unto thee His good treasure, the heaven, to give rain unto thy land in his season; may He bless all the works of thine hands: so shalt thou lend unto many nations, but shalt not borrow; and thou shalt rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over thee. ¹³The Lord thy God make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt then be above, and thou shalt not be below, if that thou hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, in all things which I command thee this day to observe and do. ¹⁴Thou shalt not go aside from any of the commandments, which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

¹⁵And it shall be, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe and do all His commandments, as many as I command thee this day, then all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. ¹⁶Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field; ¹⁷cursed shall be thy barns, and thy stores; ¹⁸cursed shall be the offspring of thy body, and the fruits of thy land, the herds of thine oxen, and the flocks of thy sheep; ¹⁹cursed shalt thou be in thy coming in, and cursed shalt thou be in thy going out. ²⁰The Lord send upon thee want, and famine, and consumption upon all things whereon thou shalt put thine hand, until He have utterly destroyed thee, and until He have consumed thee quickly, because of thine evil devices; because thou hast forsaken Me. ²¹The Lord make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until He have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to inherit it. ²²The Lord smite thee with distress, and with a fever, and with cold, and with inflammation, and with blighting, and with paleness; and they shall pursue thee until they have destroyed thee. ²³And thou shalt have over thine head a sky of brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. ²⁴The Lord thy God make the rain of thy land dust; from heaven shall dust come down upon thee, until it have destroyed thee, and until it have quickly consumed thee. ²⁵The Lord give thee up for slaughter before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and thou shalt be a dispersion in all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶And your dead men shall be meat unto the fowls of the sky, and unto the beasts of the earth; and there shall be none to fray them away. ²⁷The Lord smite thee with the botch of Egypt, in the seat, and with a malignant scab, and itch, that thou canst not be healed. ²⁸The Lord smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of mind; ²⁹and thou shalt grope at noonday, as a blind man would grope in the darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and then shalt thou be unjustly treated, and spoiled continually; and there shall be no helper. ³⁰Thou shalt take a wife, and another man shall have her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. ³¹Thy calf shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from thee, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have no helper. ³²Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another nation, and thine eyes shall look for them, and waste away: thine hand shall have no strength. ³³The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be injured, and crushed alway. ³⁴And thou shalt be mad, because of the sights of thine eyes, which thou shalt see. ³⁵The Lord smite thee with an evil sore, in the knees, and in the legs, that thou cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the crown of thine head. ³⁶The Lord carry thee away, and thy princes which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. ³⁷And thou shalt be there for a wonder, and a proverb, and a tale, among all the nations whither the Lord thy God shall carry thee away. ³⁸Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt bring but little in; for the locust shall devour it. ³⁹Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and dress it, and shalt not drink of the wine; neither shalt thou delight thyself with it, for the worm shall devour it. ⁴⁰Thou shalt have olive trees in all thy borders, and thou shalt not anoint thyself with oil; for thine olive shall utterly cast his fruit. ⁴¹Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, and they shall not be thine; for they shall depart into captivity. ⁴²All thy trees and fruits of thy land shall the blight consume. ⁴³The stranger that is within thee shall get up very high; and thou shalt come down very low. ⁴⁴He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tale. ⁴⁵And all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, until he have consumed thee, and until he have destroyed thee: because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep His commandments and His ordinances which He commanded thee. ⁴⁶And these things shall be in thee for signs, and for wonders among thy seed for ever: ⁴⁷and thou servedst not the Lord thy God with gladness, and with a good heart, for the abundance of all things. ⁴⁸And thou shalt serve thine enemies which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in the want of all things: and thou wear a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. ⁴⁹The Lord shall bring a nation upon thee from the ends of the earth, as the swift flying of an eagle; a nation whose voice thou shalt not understand; ⁵⁰a nation of bold countenance, which shall not regard the elder, nor pity the young. ⁵¹And he shall eat the young of thy cattle, and the fruits of thy land, until he have destroyed thee, ⁵²and have utterly crushed thee in thy cities, until the high and strong walls be destroyed, wherein thou trustest, in all thy land: and he shall afflict thee in thy cities, which he hath given thee. ⁵³And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, all that he hath given thee, in thy straitness, and in thine affliction, wherewith thine enemy shall afflict thee. ⁵⁴He that is tender among you, and delicate, shall look with an evil eye upon his brother, and the wife in his bosom, and the children that are left, which may have been left to him; ⁵⁵so as not to give to one of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he hath nothing left him in thy straitness, and in thine affliction, wherewith thine enemies shall afflict thee in all thy cities. ⁵⁶And she that is tender and delicate among you, whose foot hath not assayed to go upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, she shall look with an evil eye upon her husband in her bosom, and her son, and her daughter, ⁵⁷and her offspring that cometh out from between her feet, and the child which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things, secretly in thy straitness, and in thine affliction, wherewith thine enemy shall afflict thee in thy cities. ⁵⁸If thou wilt not hearken to do all the words of this law, which have been written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and wonderful name, LORD THY GOD; ⁵⁹then the Lord shall magnify thy plagues, and the plagues of thy seed, even great and wonderful plagues, and evil and abiding diseases. ⁶⁰And He shall bring upon thee all the evil pain of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee. ⁶¹Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the Lord bring upon thee, until He have destroyed thee. ⁶²And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of the sky in multitude; because thou didst not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God. ⁶³And it shall come to pass, that as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you; and ye shall be quickly removed from the land whither thou goest to inherit it. ⁶⁴And the Lord thy God shall scatter thee among all nations, from one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, wood and stone, which thou hast not known, nor thy fathers. ⁶⁵Moreover, among those nations He shall not give thee quiet, neither by any means shall the sole of thy feet have rest; and the Lord shall give thee there another and misgiving heart, and failing eyes, and a wasting soul. ⁶⁶And thy life shall be in suspense before thine eyes; and thou shalt fear, day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life. ⁶⁷In the morning thou shalt say, Would it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. ⁶⁸And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt in ships, by the way whereof I said, Thou shalt not see it again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and none shall buy you.

⁶⁹These are the words of the covenant, which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

CHAPTER 29

And Moses called all the sons of Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all things that the Lord did before you in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and his servants, and unto all his land; ²the great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders. ³Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until this day. ⁴And He led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes waxed not old upon you, and your sandals were not worn away off your feet. ⁵Ye did not eat bread, ye did not drink wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the Lord your God. ⁶And ye came as far as this place, and Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, came out to meet us unto war. ⁷And we smote them: and we took their land, and I gave it for an inheritance unto Reuben, and to Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁸And ye shall take heed to do all the words of this covenant, that ye may understand all things that ye shall do.

⁹Ye stand all of you this day before the Lord your God; the captains of tribes, your elders, and your judges, and your officers, every man of Israel, ¹⁰your wives and your children, and the stranger that is in the midst of your camp, from your hewer of wood unto your drawer of water: ¹¹that thou shouldest enter into the covenant of the Lord thy God, and into His oaths, as many as the Lord thy God appointeth thee this day: ¹²that He may appoint thee for a people unto Himself, and He shall be thy God, as He said unto thee, and as He sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ¹³And I appoint not unto you only this covenant and this oath; ¹⁴but unto them also that are here with you this day before the Lord our God, and unto them that are not here with you this day. ¹⁵For ye know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the midst of the nations through whom ye came. ¹⁶And ye beheld their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which are among them: ¹⁷lest there be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart hath turned away from the Lord our God, and hath gone to serve the gods of these nations; lest there be among you a root that springeth up with gall and bitterness. ¹⁸And it shall be, if one heareth the words of this curse, and flattereth himself in his heart, saying, Let good happen unto me, for I will walk in the error of my heart, lest the sinner destroy the guiltless: ¹⁹that God shall by no means be willing to pardon him, but then the anger of the Lord and His jealousy shall flame out against that man; and all the curses of this covenant that are written in this book shall attach themselves unto him; and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven. ²⁰And the Lord shall separate that man unto evil out of all the tribes of heaven, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in the book of this law. ²¹And another generation shall say, even your sons that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a land afar off, and shall see the plagues of that land, and their sicknesses which the Lord hath sent upon it, ²²brimstone, and burning salt, the whole land shall not be sown, neither shall any green thing spring, nor rise upon it, as Sodom, and Gomorrah were overthrown Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath: ²³and all the nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what is this great fierceness of anger? ²⁴And men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, the things which He appointed unto their fathers when He brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: ²⁵and they went, and served other gods, which they knew not; neither did He give them unto them. ²⁶And the Lord was exceeding wroth at that land, to bring upon it according to all the curses that are written in the book of this law: ²⁷and the Lord removed them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in very great indignation, and cast them out into another land, as at this day. ²⁸The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but the things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, to do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30

And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thy face, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, wherein the Lord hath scattered thee, ²and shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt hearken unto His voice, according to all things that I command thee this day, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; ³then the Lord shall heal thine iniquities, and pity thee, and again gather thee from all the nations, among the which the Lord hath scattered thee. ⁴If thy dispersion be from one end of heaven unto the other, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will the Lord thy God take thee. ⁵And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers have inherited, and thou shalt inherit it; and He will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. ⁶And the Lord will purge thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. ⁷And the Lord thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which have persecuted thee. ⁸And thou shalt return and hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and keep His commandments, all which I command thee this day. ⁹And the Lord thy God shall bless thee in every work of thine hands, in the seed of thy body, and in the seed of thy cattle, and in the fruits of thy land: for the Lord thy God will again rejoice over thee for good, as He rejoiced over thy fathers: ¹⁰if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep His commandments and His ordinances, and His judgments, which are written in the book of this law: if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

¹¹For this commandment which I give thee this day is not grievous, neither is it far from thee. ¹²It is not in heaven above, saying, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and take it for us; and we will hear, and do it? ¹³Neither is it beyond the sea, saying, Who shall go over unto the other side of the sea for us, and take it for us, and make it heard of us; and we will do it? ¹⁴The word is very nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thine heart, and in thine hands, to do it.

¹⁵Behold, I have set before thee this day life and death, good and evil. ¹⁶If thou wilt hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His ordinances, and His judgments, then ye shall live, and be many in number; and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all the land whither thou goest to inherit it. ¹⁷But if thine heart change, and thou wilt not hearken, and thou go astray, and worship other gods, and serve them; ¹⁸I declare unto you this day, that ye shall utterly perish, and that ye shall by no means live long upon the land, whither thou goest over Jordan to inherit it. ¹⁹I call both heaven and earth to witness this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: choose thou life, that both thou and thy seed may live; ²⁰to love the Lord thy God, to hearken unto His voice, and cleave unto Him: for this is thy life, and the length of thy days, that thou shouldest dwell upon the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

CHAPTER 31

And Moses finished speaking all these words unto all the sons of Israel, ²and said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day; I shall no more be able to come in or go out: also the Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. ³The Lord thy God that goeth before thee, He will utterly destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt inherit them: and Joshua shall go before thy face, as the Lord hath spoken. ⁴And the Lord thy God shall do unto them as He did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Jordan, and unto the land of them, as he destroyed them. ⁵And the Lord hath delivered them up to you; and ye shall do unto them as I have commanded you. ⁶Be of good courage, and strong, fear not: neither be thou afraid before them; for the Lord your God, He it is that doth go with you in the midst of you: neither will He by any means leave thee, nor forsake thee. ⁷And Moses called Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be of good courage, and strong: for thou shalt go in before this people into the land which the Lord hath sworn unto your fathers to give it them; and thou shalt give it them for an inheritance. ⁸And the Lord that goeth with thee shall not fail thee, nor forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

⁹And Moses wrote the words of this law in a book, and gave it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto the elders of the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And Moses commanded them in that day, saying, After seven years, in the time of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, ¹¹when all Israel cometh together to appear before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord shall choose, ye shall read this law before all Israel in their ears, ¹²when ye have assembled the people, the men, and the women, and the children, and the stranger that is in your cities, that they may hear, and that they may learn to fear the Lord thy God; and they shall hearken to do all the words of this law. ¹³And their sons, which have not known, shall hear, and shall learn to fear the Lord thy God all the days that they live upon the land, whither ye go over Jordan to inherit it.

¹⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, the days of thy death are at hand: call Joshua, and stand ye by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony; and I will give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went to the tabernacle of the testimony, and stood by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁵And the Lord descended in a cloud, and stood by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹⁶And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the strange gods of the land, whither they enter: and they will forsake Me, and break My covenant which I have made with them. ¹⁷And I will be exceeding angry against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and turn My face away from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and afflictions shall come upon them; and they shall say in that day, Because the Lord my God is not with me, these evils are come upon me. ¹⁸And I will surely turn away My face from them in that day, for all the evils which they have done, because they turned aside unto other gods. ¹⁹And now write ye the words of this song, and teach it the sons of Israel, and ye shall put it in their mouth, that this song may witness for Me among the sons of Israel to their face. ²⁰For I will bring them into the good land which I swore unto their fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey: and they shall eat, and be filled, and be satisfied themselves; then will they turn aside after other gods, and serve them, and provoke Me, and break My covenant. ²¹And this song shall stand for witness against them; for they shall not forget it out of their mouth, or out of the mouth of their seed: for I know their wickedness, what they do here this day, before I have brought them into the good land which I swore unto their fathers. ²²And Moses wrote this song in that day, and taught it the sons of Israel. ²³And he gave Joshua a charge, and said, Be of good courage, and strong: for thou shalt bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore unto them: and He shall be with thee.

²⁴And when Moses had made an end of writing all the words of this law in a book, even unto the end, ²⁵then he commanded the Levites which bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying, ²⁶Take the book of this law, and ye shall put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God; and it shall be there among you for a testimony. ²⁷For I know thy provocation, and thy stiff neck: for yet during my life with you at this day, ye have been provoking in your conduct toward God: how shall ye not also be so after my death? ²⁸Gather unto me the heads of your tribes, and your elders, and your judges, and your officers, that I may speak all these words in their ears, and call both heaven and earth to witness against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death ye will utterly transgress, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evils will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger by the works of your hands. ³⁰And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation all the words of this song, even unto the end.

CHAPTER 32

Give ear, O heaven, and I will speak; and let the earth hear the words out of my mouth. ²Let my speech be looked for as the rain, and my words come down as dew, as the shower upon the green herb, and as snow upon the grass. ³For I have called upon the name of the Lord: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. ⁴As for God, His works are true, and all His ways are judgments: God is faithful, and there is no unrighteousness in Him; just and holy is the Lord. ⁵They have sinned, not pleasing Him; spotted children, a froward and perverse generation. ⁶Do ye thus requite the Lord? is the people foolish and unwise? Did not He Himself thy Father purchase thee, and make thee, and fashion thee? ⁷Remember the days of old, consider the years of ages of ages: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thine elders, and they will tell thee. ⁸When the Most High divided the nations, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds of the nations according to the number of the angels of God. ⁹And Jacob His people was the Lord's portion; Israel was the line of His inheritance. ¹⁰He maintained him in the wilderness, in burning thirst, and in a desert land: He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of his eye. ¹¹As an eagle watcheth over his brood, and yearneth over his young, and spreadeth abroad his wings, and receiveth them, and taketh them up upon his back; ¹²the Lord alone did lead them, and there was no strange God with them. ¹³He brought them up on the strength of the land; He fed them with the increase of the fields; they sucked honey out of the rock, and oil out of the solid rock; ¹⁴butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with the fat of lambs and rams, of calves and kids, with fat of kidneys of wheat; and he drank wine, the blood of the grape. ¹⁵So Jacob ate, and was filled; and the beloved one kicked, he waxed fat, he grew thick and broad; then he forsook the God which made him, and departed from God his Saviour. ¹⁶They provoked Me to anger with strange gods; they embittered Me with their abominations. ¹⁷They sacrificed unto devils, and not to God; to gods whom they knew not; new and fresh gods came in, whom their fathers knew not. ¹⁸Thou hast forsaken God that begot thee, and forgotten God that feedeth thee. ¹⁹And the Lord saw, and was jealous; and was provoked by the anger of His sons and daughters: ²⁰and He said, I will turn away My face from them, and I will show what will come upon them in the latter days; for it is a perverse generation, sons in whom there is no faith. ²¹They provoked Me to jealousy with that which is not God, they have provoked Me with their idols; and I will provoke them to jealousy with them which are no nation; I will anger them with a nation which is void of understanding. ²²For a fire is kindled out of My wrath; it shall burn unto Hades below; it shall devour the land, and the fruits thereof; it shall set on fire the foundations of the mountains. ²³I will gather evils upon them, I will fight with My weapons against them. ²⁴They shall be consumed with hunger, and the devouring of birds; and there shall be irremediable destruction; I will send forth the teeth of wild beasts against them, with the rage of serpents that creep upon the ground. ²⁵From without the sword shall bereave them of children, and terror out of their inner chambers: the young man shall perish with the maiden, the suckling with him that is waxen old. ²⁶I said, I will scatter them, I will cause the memorial of them to cease from among men; ²⁷were it not for the wrath of the enemy, lest they should live long, and combine against them; lest they should say, Our own high hand, and not the Lord, hath done all these things. ²⁸For it is a nation that hath lost counsel, neither is there understanding in them; ²⁹they had not wit to understand: let them accept these things against the time that is to come. ³⁰How should one pursue a thousand, and two rout tens of thousands, if not that God had sold them, and the Lord delivered them up? ³¹For their gods are not as our God; but our enemies are void of understanding. ³²For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and their vine branch of Gomorrah; their grape is a grape of gall; their cluster is one of bitterness. ³³Their wine is the rage of serpents, and the incurable rage of asps. ³⁴Lo, are not these things laid up in store with Me, and sealed up among My treasures? ³⁵In the day of vengeance will I recompense, whensoever their foot shall be tripped up; for the day of their destruction is nigh unto them, and the judgments prepared for you are close upon you. ³⁶For the Lord shall judge His people, and shall be comforted for His servants: for He saw that they were palsied, and had failed in the hostile invasion; and that they were become feeble. ³⁷And the Lord said, Where are their gods, in whom they trusted, ³⁸the fat of whose sacrifices ye ate, and ye drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protectors. ³⁹Behold, behold, that I am, and there is no God beside Me: I kill, and I will make to live; I will smite, and I will heal; neither is there any that shall deliver out of My hands. ⁴⁰For I will lift up Mine hand unto heaven, and swear by My right hand; and I will say, I live for ever. ⁴¹For I will sharpen My sword like lightning, and My hand shall take hold on judgment; and I will render judgment to Mine enemies, and will reward them that hate Me. ⁴²I will make My weapons drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the wounded, and from the captivity of the heads of the enemies that rule over them. ⁴³Rejoice in Him, O ye heavens, and let all the angels of God worship Him: rejoice, O ye nations, with His people, and let all the sons of God strengthen themselves in Him; for He will avenge the blood of His sons, and will render vengeance, and recompense justice unto His enemies, and will reward them that hate Him: and the Lord shall purge the land of His people.

⁴⁴And Moses wrote this song in that day, and taught it unto the sons of Israel: and Moses went in and spake all the words of this law in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. ⁴⁵And Moses made an end of speaking to all Israel. ⁴⁶And he said unto them, Take heed with your heart unto all these words which I testify to you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe and to do all the words of this law. ⁴⁷For this is no vain thing for you; because it is your life; and because of this words ye shall live long in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to inherit it.

⁴⁸And the Lord spake unto Moses in that day, saying, ⁴⁹Get thee up into mount Abarim, this mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the sons of Israel for a possession: ⁵⁰and die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be added unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was added unto his people: ⁵¹because ye disobeyed my word among the sons of Israel at the waters of strife of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not among the sons of Israel. ⁵²Thou shalt see the land before thee; but thou shalt not enter therein.

CHAPTER 33

And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. ²And he said,

The Lord is come from Sinai, and hath appeared from Seir unto us; and He hath hasted out of the mount of Paran, with the ten thousands of Kadesh: on His right hand were His angels with Him. ³And He spared His people, and all His sanctified ones are under thy hands: and they are under thee; and he received of His words ⁴the law which Moses commanded us, even an inheritance unto the congregations of Jacob. ⁵And he shall be a ruler with the beloved one, when the heads of the people are gathered together with the tribes of Israel. ⁶Let Reuben live, and not die; and let him be many in number. ⁷And this is the blessing of Judah; Hear, Lord, the voice of Judah, and do Thou visit his people: his hands shall contend for him, and Thou shalt be an help from his enemies. ⁸And unto Levi he said, Give unto Levi his manifestations, and his truth unto a holy man, whom they tempted with temptation; they reviled him at the water of strife; ⁹who saith unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen you: and he acknowledged not his brethren, and acknowledged his sons; he kept Thine oracles, and observed Thy covenant. ¹⁰They shall declare Thine ordinances unto Jacob, and Thy law to Israel: they shall put incense in the time of Thy wrath continually upon Thine altar. ¹¹Bless, Lord, his strength, and accept the works of his hands; break the loins of his enemies that are risen up against him, and them that hate him, let them not rise up again. ¹²And unto Benjamin he said, The beloved of the Lord shall dwell in confidence, and God overshadoweth him always; and he rested between His shoulders. ¹³And unto Joseph he said, His land is of the blessing of the Lord, of the seasons of the sky and dew, and of the deeps of wells beneath, ¹⁴and of the fruits of the changes of the sun in season, and of the fruit of the months, ¹⁵from the top of the ancient mountains, and from the top of the everlasting hills, ¹⁶and of the fulness of the land in season: and let the things that are pleasing to him come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of him that was glorified above his brethren. ¹⁷His beauty is like the firstling of his bull; his horns are the horns of an unicorn: with them shall he push the nations at once unto the ends of the earth: these are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh. ¹⁸And unto Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out, and Issachar in his tents. ¹⁹They shall utterly destroy the nations; and ye shall call men there, and there offer the sacrifice of righteousness: for the wealth of the sea shall suckle thee; and so shall the marts of them that dwell by the sea coast. ²⁰And unto Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he rested as a lion, after that he brake the arm and the ruler. ²¹And he saw his first fruits, that there the land of the princes gathered with the rulers of the people was divided: the Lord wrought righteousness, and His judgment with Israel. ²²And unto Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp, and shall leap out of Bashan. ²³And unto Naphtali he said, Naphtali hath the fulness of good things; and let him be filled with blessing from the Lord: he shall inherit the west and the south. ²⁴And unto Asher he said, Asher is blessed with sons; and he shall be acceptable to his brethren: he shall dip his foot in oil. ²⁵His sandal shall be iron and brass; as thy days, so shall thy strength be. ²⁶There is none like unto the God of the beloved: He that rideth upon the heaven is thy help, and the Great One of the firmament. ²⁷And the rule of God shall protect thee, and under the strength of the everlasting arms: and He shall cast forth the enemy from before thy face, saying, Perish. ²⁸And Israel shall dwell in confidence alone in the land of Jacob, with corn and wine; and the sky shall be misty with dew upon thee. ²⁹Blessed art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord? thine help shall hold His shield over thee, and His sword is thy boast: and thine enemies shall speak falsely unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their neck.

CHAPTER 34

And Moses went upon from Araboth Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is before Jericho. And the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, ²and all the land of Naphtali, and all the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea, ³and the wilderness, and the country round about Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar. ⁴And the Lord said unto Moses, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, and unto Isaac, and and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto your seed: and I have shewed it to thine eyes, but thou shalt not go in thither. ⁵So Moses the servant of the Lord died in the land of Moab by the word of the Lord. ⁶And they buried him in Gai, near the house of Peor: and none hath seen his sepulchre unto this day. ⁷And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old at his death: his eyes were not dimmed, nor were his natural powers destroyed. ⁸And the people of Israel wept for Moses in Araboth of Moab at Jordan nigh unto Jericho thirty days: and the days of mourning and weeping for Moses were ended. ⁹And Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of knowledge; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the sons of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁰And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face, ¹¹in all the signs and wonders, which the Lord sent him to do in Egypt upon Pharaoh, and his servants, and all his land; the great wonders, and the mighty hand, which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

JOSHUA THE SON OF NUN

CHAPTER 1

And after the death of Moses it came to pass, that the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, ²Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over the Jordan, thou, and all this people, into the land which I do give to them. ³Every place whereon ye shall tread with the sole of your foot, I will give it unto you, as I said unto Moses, ⁴the wilderness, and AntiLebanon, even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, and unto the farthest sea: from the going down of the sun shall be your coasts. ⁵There shall not any man stand against you all the days of thy life: and as I was with Moses, so also I will be with thee; and I will not forsake thee, nor overlook thee. ⁶Be strong, and quit thyself like a man: for unto this people shalt thou divide the land, which I swore unto your fathers to give them. ⁷Be strong, therefore, and quit thee like a man, to observe and do as Moses My servant commanded thee: and thou shalt not turn from it to the right hand or to the left; that thou mayest be wise in whatsoever thou mayest do. ⁸And the book of this law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest know to do all the things that are written therein: then thou shalt prosper, and make thy ways prosperous, and then thou shalt be wise. ⁹Behold, I have commanded thee: be strong and quit thee like a man; be not fainthearted, neither be thou afraid: for the Lord thy God is with thee in all places whither thou goest.

¹⁰And Joshua commanded the scribes of the people, saying, ¹¹Pass into the midst of the camp of the people, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for yet three days and ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you. ¹²And to Reuben, and to Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, ¹³Remember the word which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, saying, The Lord your God hath made you to rest, and hath given you this land. ¹⁴Your wives, and your children, and your cattle, let them dwell in the land, which He hath given you; and ye shall pass over before your brethren well armed, every one of you that is strong; and ye shall fight on their side, ¹⁵until the Lord your God have given your brethren rest, as also unto you, and they also have inherited the land which the Lord your God giveth them: then ye shall depart each one unto his inheritance, which the Lord gave you beyond Jordan toward the sunrising. ¹⁶And they answered Joshua, and said, All that thou commandedst us we will do, and every place whither thou sendest us, we will go. ¹⁷According as we hearkened unto Moses, we will hearken unto thee: only the Lord thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. ¹⁸And whosoever shall disobey thee, and whosoever will not hearken unto thy words as thou shalt command him, let him die: but be thou strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER 2

And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two young men to spy, saying, Go up, and view the land, even Jericho. And the two young men went, and entered into Jericho, and came into an harlot's house, whose name was Rahab, and lodged there. ²And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, There came men in hither of the sons of Israel to search out the country. ³And the king of Jericho sent, and spake unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men which are entered into thine house this night: for they be come to search out the country. ⁴And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and spake unto the messengers, saying, The men came in to me; ⁵but at the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, the men went out: whither they be gone, I wit not: pursue after them, if ye may overtake them. ⁶But she had brought them up upon the house, and hid them in the stalks of flax, which were spread by her in the roof. ⁷And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the ford; and the gate was shut. ⁸And it came to pass, when the men which pursued after them were gone out, and before the spies lay down to sleep, that she came up unto them upon the roof of the house; ⁹and she said unto them, I know that the Lord hath given you the land: for the fear of you is fallen upon us. ¹⁰For we have heard that the Lord God dried up the Red Sea before you, when ye came out of the land of Egypt; and all that He did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, unto Sihon, and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. ¹¹And when we heard it, we were dismayed in our heart, neither did there remain any spirit in any of us, because of you: for the Lord your God, He is God in heaven above, and in the earth beneath. ¹²And now, swear unto me by the Lord God; since I shew mercy unto you, so do ye also shew mercy unto my father's house, ¹³and save alive my father's house, my mother, and my brethren, and all my house, and all that they have; and ye shall rescue my soul from death. ¹⁴And the men said, Our life for yours, even unto death: and she said, When the Lord hath delivered the city to you, ye shall deal mercifully and truly with me. ¹⁵And she let them down by the window; ¹⁶and she said unto them, Get you into the mountain country, lest the pursuers meet you; and ye shall be hid there three days, until your pursuers return from after you; and afterward ye shall depart on your way. ¹⁷And the men said unto her, We be clear of this thine oath. ¹⁸Behold, when we enter into a part of the city, and thou shalt set a sign: thou shalt bind this scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring in to thyself, thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all the household of thy father, into thy house. ¹⁹And it shall be, that whosoever shall go outside the door of thy house into the street, his guilt shall be upon him, and we shall be quit of this thine oath; and we will be liable for all that shall be found with thee in thine house. ²⁰But if any one wrong us, or utter these our businesses, we shall be quit of this thine oath. ²¹And she said unto them, According to your words, so be it: and she sent them out, and they departed. ²²And they came into the mountain country, and abode there three days; and the pursuers searched all the ways, and found them not. ²³And the two young men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them: ²⁴and they said unto Joshua, The Lord hath delivered into our hand all the land; and even all the inhabitants of that country do tremble because of us.

CHAPTER 3

And Joshua rose early in the morning, and removed from Shittim; and they came to Jordan, and lodged there before they passed over. ²And it came to pass after three days, that the scribes went through the camp; ³and they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord our God, and our priests and the Levites bearing it, ye shall depart from your places, and go after it. ⁴Yet let there be a space between you and it; and ye shall stand as much as two thousand cubits from it: draw not nigh unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye are to go: for ye have not gone the way since yesterday and three days before. ⁵And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow; for to morrow the Lord will do wonders among you. ⁶And Joshua said unto the priests, Take up the ark of the covenant, and go before the people: and the priests took up the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and went before the people. ⁷And the Lord said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to exalt thee in the sight of all the sons of Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will also be with thee. ⁸And now command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye enter in upon a part of the water of Jordan, then shall ye stand still in Jordan. ⁹And Joshua said unto the sons of Israel, Come hither, and hear the word of the Lord our God. ¹⁰Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will utterly destroy from before our face the Canaanite, and the Hittite and Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Amorite, and the Gergashite, and the Jebusite. ¹¹Behold, the ark of the covenant passeth over Jordan. ¹²Choose you twelve men of the sons of Israel, one of each tribe. ¹³And it shall come to pass, when the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth shall rest in the water of Jordan, the water of Jordan below shall fail, and the water that cometh down from above shall stop. ¹⁴And the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord before the people. ¹⁵And when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord entered upon Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord were dipped in part of the water of Jordan, (now Jordan overflowed all his banks about the time of wheat harvest,) ¹⁶then the waters which came down from above stopped; there stood one solid heap very far off, unto the region of Kirjath Jearim, and the lower part came down to the sea of Araba, even the salt sea, till it utterly failed: and the people stood over against Jericho. ¹⁷And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood on dry land in the midst of Jordan, and all the sons of Israel passed over on dry land, until all the people were clean passed over Jordan.

CHAPTER 4

And when the people were clean passed over Jordan, the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying, ²Take you men out of the people, one out of each tribe, ³and command ye them, saying, Take you twelve prepared stones out of the midst of Jordan; and carry them across with you, and put them in your camp, where ye shall lodge for the night. ⁴And Joshua called twelve men of honour among the sons of Israel, out of each tribe one man; ⁵and said unto them, Draw near before me in the presence of the Lord into the midst of Jordan; and let each take up a stone from thence, and bear it upon his shoulders, according unto the number of the twelve tribes of Israel: ⁶that these may be for a sign unto you continually, that when your son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What are these stones unto us?, ⁷then thou mayest make manifest unto thy son, saying, The river Jordan dried up before the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth, when it passed it: and these stones shall be for a memorial for you unto the sons of Israel for ever. ⁸And the sons of Israel did so as the Lord commanded Joshua, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the Lord commanded Joshua, when the sons of Israel were clean passed over, and carried these stones with them into the camp, and laid them down there. ⁹And Joshua set up also other twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place that was under the feet of the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord: and they are there unto this day. ¹⁰And the priests which bare the ark stood in Jordan until Joshua had ended all that the Lord commanded him to speak unto the people: and the people hastened and passed over. ¹¹And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the covenant of the Lord passed over, and the stones before them. ¹²And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, passed over being equipped before the sons of Israel, as Moses commanded them. ¹³Forty thousand equipped for battle went over before the Lord unto war against the city of Jericho. ¹⁴On that day the Lord magnified Joshua in the sight of all the people of Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, as long as he lived.

¹⁵And the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying, ¹⁶Command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant of the testimony of the Lord, that they go up out of Jordan. ¹⁷And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, Go up out of Jordan. ¹⁸And it came to pass, as the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord went up out of Jordan, and set their feet upon the land, that the water of Jordan returned headlong unto his place, and flowed as also yesterday and the third day before over all his banks. ¹⁹And the people went up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month; and the sons of Israel encamped in Gilgal, in the region eastward of Jericho. ²⁰And these twelve stones, which he took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal, ²¹saying,

When your children shall ask you, saying, What are these stones?, ²²tell your sons that Israel went over this Jordan on dry land, ²³when the Lord our God dried up the water of Jordan from before them, until they were passed over, as the Lord our God did to the Red Sea, which the Lord our God dried up from before us, until we were passed over: ²⁴that all the nations of the earth might know that the power of the Lord is mighty, and that ye might worship the Lord our God for all time.

CHAPTER 5

And it came to pass, when the kings of the Amorites, which were on the other side of Jordan, and the kings of the Phoenicians by the sea, heard that the Lord God had dried up the river Jordan from before the sons of Israel, when they passed over, that their thoughts melted, and they were stricken with terror, neither was there understanding in them, before the sons of Israel. ²And about this time the Lord said unto Joshua, Make thee stone knives of sharp stone, and circumcise the sons of Israel a second time. ³And Joshua made him sharp knives of stone, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the place called the hill of the foreskins. ⁴And this is the way wherein Joshua did purify the sons of Israel, as many as were born in the way, and as many as were uncircumcised of them that came out of Egypt, ⁵all these Joshua circumcised, (for Israel wandered forty and two years in the wilderness of Mabdarish); ⁶wherefore most of the men of war, that came out of the land of Egypt, were uncircumcised, who obeyed not the commandments of God; concerning whom also He determined that they should not see the land, which the Lord sware to give unto their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷And their sons He raised up in their stead, whom Joshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised which had been born by the way. ⁸And when they had been circumcised, they rested, and sat there in the camp until they were whole. ⁹And the Lord said unto Joshua son of Nun, This day have I removed the reproach of Egypt from off you: and he called the name of that place Gilgal.

¹⁰And the sons of Israel kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, to the westward of Jericho, on the far side Jordan in the plain. ¹¹And they did eat of the grain of the land unleavened, and new corn. ¹²In this day the manna failed after they ate of the corn of the land; neither had the sons of Israel manna any more; and they did take of the fruits of the land of the Phoenicians in that year.

¹³And it came to pass, when Joshua was in Jericho, that he looked up with his eyes, and saw a man standing before him, and a drawn sword in his hand: and Joshua drew near, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? ¹⁴And he said unto him, I, the chief captain of the host of the Lord am now come. ¹⁵And Joshua fell on his face upon the earth, and said unto him, Lord, what commandest Thou Thy servant? ¹⁶And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou now standest is holy.

CHAPTER 6

Now Jericho was straitly shut up and besieged; and none went out therefrom, and none came in. ²And the Lord said unto Joshua, See, I do deliver Jericho under thine hand, and the king thereof, that is therein, which are mighty in strength. ³And do thou set the men of war round about it. ⁴And it shall come to pass, when ye sound with the trumpet, let all the people shout together. ⁵And when they have shouted, the walls of the city shall fall of themselves; and all the people shall enter, each one hastening straight into the city. ⁶And Joshua son of Nun went before the priests, ⁷and spake unto them, saying, Command the people to go round about, and compass the city; and let your men of war pass on armed before the Lord. ⁸And let seven priests with seven trumpets pass on thus before the Lord, and let them sound loudly; and let the ark of the covenant of the Lord follow them. ⁹And let the men of war go before, and the priests which bring up the rear behind the ark of the covenant of the Lord, pass on, sounding the trumpets. ¹⁰And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor let any one hear your voice, until the day he himself declare unto you to cry out; and then shall ye cry out. ¹¹And the ark of the covenant of the Lord went about, and returned at once into the camp, and lodged there. ¹²And Joshua rose up in the morning on the second day, and the priests took up the ark of the covenant of the Lord. ¹³And the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets went on before the Lord: and afterward the men of war went on, and the remainder of the multitude went after the ark of the covenant of the Lord; and the priests sounded with the trumpets. ¹⁴And all the rest of the multitude compassed the city six times from within a short distance, and went back again into the camp: so they did six days. ¹⁵And on the seventh day they rose up early, and on that day they compassed the city seven times. ¹⁶And it came to pass at the seventh circuit, that the priests blew the trumpets; and Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the Lord hath given you the city. ¹⁷And the city shall be devoted to the Lord of Sabaoth, even it, and all things that are therein: only do ye save Rahab the harlot, and all things that are in her house. ¹⁸But ye, in any wise, keep yourselves from the devoted thing; lest ye set your mind upon it, and take of the devoted thing, and make the camp of the Lord an accursed thing, and destroy us. ¹⁹And all the silver, or gold, or brass, or iron, shall be holy unto the Lord: it shall be carried into the treasury of the Lord. ²⁰And the priests sounded with the trumpets: and when the people heard the trumpets, all the people shouted at once with a loud and strong shout; and all the wall fell round about, and all the people went up into the city: ²¹and Joshua devoted it to destruction, and all things that were in the city, both man and woman, young man and old, and calf, and ass, with the edge of the sword. ²²And Joshua said unto the two young men that had been spies, Go into the woman's house, and bring her out thence, and all that she hath. ²³And the two young men that had spied out the city entered into the house of the woman, and brought out Rahab the harlot, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and her kindred, and all that she had, and set her without the camp of Israel. ²⁴And the city was burnt with fire, with all things that were therein: only of the silver, and gold, and brass, and iron, they gave to be brought into the treasury of the Lord. ²⁵And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and all her father's house, and caused her to dwell in Israel even until this day; because she hid them that spied, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. ²⁶And Joshua sware in that day before the Lord, saying, Cursed be the man that buildeth that city: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. And thus did Hozan of Bethel: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and in his youngest son he set up the gates of it. ²⁷And the Lord was with Joshua; and his name was in all the land.

CHAPTER 7

And the sons of Israel committed a great trespass, and took of the devoted thing; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the devoted thing: and the Lord was exceeding wroth with the sons of Israel. ²And Joshua sent men to Ai, which is beside Bethel, saying, Spy out Ai: ³and the men went up, and spied out Ai. And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and take the city by siege: carry not up thither all the people; for they are but few. ⁴And there went up about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai. ⁵And the men of Ai slew of them to the number of thirty and six men; and they chased them from the gate, and destroyed them in the going down: and the heart of the people was affrighted, and became as water. ⁶And Joshua rent his clothes; and Joshua fell to the earth upon his face before the Lord until the eventide, he and the elders of the Lord, and put dust upon their heads. ⁷And Joshua said, I pray, Lord, wherefore hath Thy servant brought this people over Jordan, to deliver them unto the Amorites, to destroy us? would we had remained, and settled ourselves beyond Jordan. ⁸And what shall I say, since Israel hath turned his back before his enemy? ⁹And when the Canaanite and all the inhabitants of the land hear of it, they shall environ us round, and destroy us from off the land: and what wilt Thou do unto Thy great name? ¹⁰And the Lord said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore art thou fallen upon thy face? ¹¹The people hath sinned, and transgressed the covenant, which I made with them: for they have even stolen of the devoted thing, and they have put it even into their own stuff. ¹²And the sons of Israel will not be able to stand before their enemies; they will turn their back before their enemies, because they are become a accursed thing: I will not be with you any more, except ye remove the accursed thing from you. ¹³Up, sanctify the people, and tell them to sanctify themselves against the morrow: thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is a devoted thing in the midst of you: ye shall not be able to stand before your enemies, until ye have taken away the accursed thing from among you. ¹⁴And in the morning ye shall all be gathered together according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the Lord sheweth, ye shall bring by households; and the household which the Lord shall shew ye shall bring man by man. ¹⁵And the man that is pointed out, shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought wickedness in Israel. ¹⁶And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought the people by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was pointed out. ¹⁷And it was brought by their families; and the family of the Zarhites was pointed out. ¹⁸And it was brought man by man; and Achan, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, was pointed out. ¹⁹And Joshua said unto Achan, Give glory this day unto the Lord, make confession; and tell me what thou hast done, and hide it not from me. ²⁰Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel; thus and thus have I done: ²¹I saw among the spoil an embroidered mantle, and two hundred didrachmas of silver, and one golden wedge of fifty didrachmas; and I desired them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in my tent, and the silver is hid under them. ²²And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent into the camp; and these things were hid in his tent, and the silver under them. ²³And they brought them out of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and the elders of Israel, and laid them out before the Lord. ²⁴And Joshua took Achan the son of Zerah, and brought him unto the valley of Achor, and his sons, and his daughters, and his calves, and his asses, and all his sheep, and his tent, and all his substance: and all the people were with him: and he brought them unto Emek Achor. ²⁵And Joshua said unto Achan, Why hast thou destroyed us? the Lord destroy thee as at this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones. ²⁶And they set up over him a great heap of stones; and the Lord ceased from His fierce anger. Therefore he called the place Emek Achor until this day.

CHAPTER 8

And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou afraid: take all the men of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hands the king of Ai, and his lands. ²And thou shalt do to Ai as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: and the spoil of the cattle thereof shalt thou take to thyself: lay thee now an ambush for the city behind it. ³And Joshua and all the men of war arose, to go up to Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men, and sent them away by night. ⁴And he charged them, saying, Do ye lie in wait even behind the city: go not far from the city, and ye shall all be ready. ⁵And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when the inhabitants of Ai come forth to meet us, as at the first, that we will flee from before them. ⁶And when they come out after us, we will draw them away from the city; and they will say, They flee from before us, as also at the first. ⁷And ye shall rise up from the ambush, and go into the city. ⁸Ye shall do according to this commandment; see, I have commanded you. ⁹And Joshua sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and lay between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai. ¹⁰And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. ¹¹And all the men of war went up with him, and went forward, and came over against the city on the east side. ¹²And the ambush was on the west side of the city. ¹⁴And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that he hasted, and went out to meet them straight into the battle, he and all the people that were with him: but he wist not that there was an ambush against him behind the city. ¹⁵And Joshua and Israel saw, and withdrew from before them. ¹⁶And they pursued after the sons of Israel; and they themselves went to a distance from the city. ¹⁷There was not a man left in Ai, that pursued not after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. ¹⁸And the Lord said unto Joshua, Stretch out thine hand with the spear that is in thine hand toward the city; for I have delivered it into thine hands; and they that lie in wait shall rise up quickly out of their place. ¹⁹And Joshua stretched out his hand and his spear toward the city, and the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they came forth when he stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire. ²⁰And when the inhabitants of Ai looked round behind them, then they saw the smoke going up out of the city to heaven, and they no longer had power to flee this way or that way. ²¹And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up to heaven; and they turned back, and smote the men of Ai. ²²And the other issued out of the city to meet them; and they were in the midst of the army, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, until there was not one of them that survived and escaped. ²³And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua. ²⁴And when the sons of Israel had made an end of slaying all them that were in Ai, and in the fields, and in the mountain on the going down, from whence they pursued them even to the end; then Joshua returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵And they that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷Beside the spoils that were in the city, all things which the sons of Israel took as spoil for themselves were according unto the commandment of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Joshua. ²⁸And Joshua burnt the city with fire: he made it an uninhabited heap for ever, even unto this day. ²⁹And the king of Ai he hanged upon a double tree; and he remained on the tree unto the even: and when the sun went down, Joshua gave charge; and they took his body down from the tree, and cast it into the pit, and set over him an heap of stones unto this day.

CHAPTER 9

Now when the kings of the Amorites which were on the other side Jordan, which were in the mountain country, and which were in the plain, and which were in all the coasts of the great sea, and those which were near AntiLebanon, and the Hittites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Amorites, and the Gergashites, and the Jebusites, heard thereof; ²they came together at the same time, to make war against Joshua and Israel, with one accord. ^{2a}Then Joshua built an altar unto the Lord God of Israel in mount Ebal, ^{2b}as Moses the servant of the Lord commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the law of Moses, an altar of unhewn stones, upon which iron had not been lift up: and he offered there whole burnt offerings unto the Lord, and a peace offering. ^{2c}And Joshua wrote upon the stones a second law, even the law of Moses, which he wrote in the sight of the sons of Israel. ^{2d}And all Israel, and their elders, and their judges, and their scribes, passed on one side and on the other before the ark; and the priests and the Levites took up the ark of the covenant of the Lord; and the stranger and the native, which were half of them near unto mount Gerizim, and half near unto mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded at first, to bless the people. ^{2e}And afterward Joshua read accordingly all the words of this law, the blessings and the curses, according to all things written in the law of Moses. ^{2f}There was not a word of all that Moses had charged Joshua, which Joshua read not in the ears of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, the men, and the women, and the children, and the strangers that joined themselves unto Israel.

³And the inhabitants of Gibeon heard of all that the Lord did to Jericho and to Ai. ⁴And they also did work wilily, and went and made provision, and prepared themselves, and told old sacks upon their shoulders, and wine skins, old, and rent, and patched, ⁵and the uppers of their shoes and their sandals old and clouted upon their feet, and their garments old upon them; and the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy and eaten of maggots. ⁶And they came to Joshua into the camp of Israel unto Gilgal, and said unto Joshua, and to Israel, We be come from a far country: now then make ye a covenant with us. ⁷And the sons of Israel said unto the Hivite, Peradventure thou dwellest among us; and how should I make a covenant with thee? ⁸And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants: and Joshua said unto them, Whence are ye, and whence are ye come. ⁹And they said, From a very far country thy servants are come in the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard the name of Him, and all that He did in Egypt, ¹⁰and all that He did to the kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of the Amorites, and to Og king of Bashan, which dwelt in Ashtaroth and in Edrain. ¹¹And our elders and all that inhabit our country, when they heard, spake unto us, saying, Take to you victual for the way, and go to meet them, and ye shall say unto them, We are thy servants: therefore now make ye a covenant with us. ¹²These be the loaves; we took them hot for our journey on the day we came forth to come unto you; and now they are dried, and become mouldy, ¹³and these be the skins of wine, which we filled when new; and they be rent: and our garments and our shoes are worn out by reason of the very long journey. ¹⁴And the chiefs took of their provision, and asked not counsel of the Lord. ¹⁵And Joshua made peace with them, and they made a covenant with them, to preserve them: and the princes of the congregation swore unto them. ¹⁶And it came to pass after three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were near neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel departed, and came unto their cities: and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and the cities of Kirjath-jearim. ¹⁸And the sons of Israel fought them not, because all the princes had sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: and all the congregation murmured at the princes. ¹⁹And the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: and now we shall not be able to touch them. ²⁰This will we do: take them alive, and we will even preserve them, that there shall not be wrath against us by reason of the oath which we swore unto them. ²¹They shall live, and be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had said unto them. ²²And Joshua called them together, and said unto them, Wherefore have ye deceived us, saying, We dwell very far from you; seeing ye are fellow countrymen of them that dwell among us? ²³And now ye are cursed: there shall not fail of you a bondman, or hewer of wood, or drawer of water unto me, and to my God. ²⁴And they answered Joshua, saying, It was told us what the Lord thy God commanded His servant Moses, to give you this land, and to destroy us and all that dwelt thereon from before you: and we were sore afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. ²⁵And now, behold, we are in your power: as it is pleasing unto you, and as it seemeth good unto you, do you unto us. ²⁶And so did they unto them; and Joshua delivered them in that day out of the hands of the sons of Israel, and they slew them not. ²⁷And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water to all the congregation, and for the altar of God, even unto this day, even for the place which the Lord should choose.

CHAPTER 10

And when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so they had done to Ai and her king; and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had gone over to Joshua and to Israel; ²then they were sore afraid of them; for they knew that Gibeon was a great city, as one of the chief cities, and all the men thereof were mighty. ³Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying, ⁴Come up hither unto me, and help me, and let us take Gibeon: for they are gone over to Joshua, and to the sons of Israel. ⁵And the five kings of the Jebusites went up, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, they and all their people, and encamped round about Gibeon, and laid siege to it. ⁶And the inhabitants of Gibeon sent unto Joshua into the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hands from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and help us, and rescue us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country are gathered together against us. ⁷And Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him; every one mighty in strength. ⁸And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hands; there shall not one of them be left before you. ⁹Joshua therefore came upon them suddenly, for he had gone up from Gilgal all night. ¹⁰And the Lord discomfited them with terror before the sons of Israel, and the Lord destroyed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon; and they pursued them by the way of the going up of Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. ¹¹And as they fled from the face of the sons of Israel, at the going down of Beth-horon, then the Lord cast down hailstones from heaven upon them unto Azekah: and they were more which died with the hailstones than they whom the sons of Israel slew with the sword.

¹²Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorite into the power of Israel, when he destroyed them in Gibeon, and when they were destroyed from before the sons of Israel: and Joshua said, Let the sun stand over against Gibeon, and the moon over against the valley of Ajalon. ¹³And the sun and the moon stood still, until God had avenged them upon their enemies: and the sun stood still in the midst of heaven; it proceeded not to go down until the end of one day. ¹⁴And there was not seen such a day, either before or after, that God should hearken unto a man: for the Lord fought on the side of Israel. (no verse 15)

¹⁶And these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave that is in Makkedah. ¹⁷And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in the cave that is in Makkedah. ¹⁸And Joshua said, Roll stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men to watch over them: ¹⁹but stand ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and seize the hindmost of them: for the Lord our God hath delivered them into our hands. ²⁰And it came to pass, when Joshua and all Israel had made an end of smiting them with a very great slaughter; that they which escaped took refuge in strong cities. ²¹And all the people returned to Joshua to Makkedah in safety: and not one of the sons of Israel murmured with his tongue. ²²Then said Joshua, Open the cave, and bring out these five kings out of the cave. ²³And they brought forth the five kings out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, and the king of Hebron, and the king of Jarmuth, and the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. ²⁴And when they brought out them unto Joshua, then Joshua called together all Israel, and the chiefs of the men of war which went with him, saying unto them, Come forward, and put your feet upon their necks: and they came, and put their feet upon the necks of them. ²⁵And Joshua said unto them, Fear them not, nor be fainthearted: be of good courage, and strong: for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. ²⁶And Joshua slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. ²⁷And it came to pass toward the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had fled for refuge, and rolled stones unto the cave, which remain until this day.

²⁸And that day they took Makkedah, and slew it with the edge of the sword; and they utterly destroyed every thing that breathed that was therein; and there was none left therein that was preserved, and had escaped: and they did unto the king of Makkedah as they did unto the king of Jericho. ²⁹And Joshua departed from Makkedah unto Libnah, and all Israel with him, and besieged Libnah. ³⁰And the Lord delivered it into the hands of Israel: and they took it, and the king thereof, and slew the inhabitants with the edge of the sword, and every thing that breathed therein; and there was not left therein any that survived and escaped: and they did unto the king thereof as they did unto the king of Jericho. ³¹And Joshua departed from Libnah unto Lachish, and all Israel with him, and encamped round about it, and laid siege to it. ³²And the Lord delivered Lachish into the hands of Israel, and they took it on the second day, and they put the inhabitants to death with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed it, as they had done to Libnah. ³³Then Horam king of Gezer went up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people with the edge of the sword, until there was not left to him one that was preserved, and escaped. ³⁴And Joshua departed from Lachish unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and he besieged it, and took it. ³⁵And the Lord delivered it into the hand of Israel: and he took it on that day, and slew the inhabitants with the edge of the sword, and all the living creatures that were therein; there was none preserved; they destroyed it, and all things therein, as they did unto Lachish. ³⁶And Joshua departed unto Hebron, and all Israel with him, and encamped round about it. ³⁷And he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the living creatures that were therein; there was none preserved: they destroyed it, and all things therein, as they did unto Eglon. ³⁸And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and they encamped round about it: ³⁹and they took it, and the king thereof, and the villages thereof; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and destroyed it, and every thing that breathed therein; and they left not therein any that was preserved: as they did unto Hebron, and her king, so they did to Debir, and to her king. ⁴⁰And Joshua smote all the land of the hill country, and Negev, and the country of the plain, and Asedoth, and her kings: they left not of them one that was saved, and utterly destroyed every thing that had the breath of life, as the Lord God of Israel commanded, ⁴¹from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, all Goshen, even unto Gibeon. ⁴²And all their kings and their land did Joshua smite, once for all, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

CHAPTER 11

And when Jabin king of Hazor heard, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, ²and to the kings that were by the great Sidon, to the hill country, and to Araba over against Chinneroth, and to the plain, and to Dor, ³and to the Canaanites on the coast eastward, and to the Amorites on the coast, and the Hittites, and Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the mounts, and the Hivites, and those dwelling under mount Hermon in the land Mizpeh. ⁴And they went out, they and their kings with them, even as the sand of the sea in multitude, and horses and chariots very many. ⁵And all the kings met together in person, and came unto the same place, and pitched at the waters of Merom, to make war with Israel. ⁶And the Lord said unto Joshua, Be not afraid of them: for to morrow at this time I will put them to flight before Israel: thou shalt hock their horse, and burn their chariots with fire. ⁷And Joshua, and all the men of war, came upon them at the waters of Merom suddenly; and they attacked them in the hill country. ⁸And the Lord delivered them into the power of Israel; and they smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephoth-maim, and unto the plains of Mizpeh eastward; and they destroyed them, until there was not one of them that was left alive. ⁹And Joshua did unto them as the Lord bade him; he hocked their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

¹⁰And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor and her king: now Hazor beforetime was the head of those kingdoms. ¹¹And they slew with the sword everything that breathed therein, and utterly destroyed them all; and there was not any living thing left therein: and they burnt Hazor with fire. ¹²And all the cities of the kings, and the kings of them, did Joshua take, and slew them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly slew them, as Moses the servant of the Lord commanded. ¹³But all the walled cities Israel burned not; but Hazor only did Israel burn. ¹⁴And all the spoils thereof the sons of Israel took unto themselves; and all the men they slew with the edge of the sword, until he destroyed them; neither left they one of them to breathe. ¹⁵As the Lord commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he transgressed nothing of all that Moses commanded him.

¹⁶And Joshua took all the hill country, and all the land of Negev, and all the land of Goshen, and the land of the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the low country by the mountain; ¹⁷even from the mount of Halak, and that which goeth up to mount Seir, even unto Baal-gad and the plains of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and destroyed them, and slew them. ¹⁸And Joshua made war many days with these kings. ¹⁹And there was no city that Israel took not: they took everything in war. ²⁰For it was of the Lord to harden their heart to go forth to war against Israel, that they might be utterly destroyed; that mercy might not be given them, but that they be utterly destroyed, as the Lord commanded Moses.

²¹And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the hill country, from Hebron, and from Debir, and from Anab, and from all the race of Israel: and Joshua destroyed them utterly. ²²There was none of the Anakims left by the sons of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod was there remaining of them. ²³And Joshua took the whole land, as the Lord commanded Moses; and Joshua gave them for an inheritance unto Israel by division according to their tribes. And the land ceased from war.

CHAPTER 12

Now these are the kings of the land, which the sons of Israel slew, and inherited their land on the other side Jordan from the rising of the sun, from the valley of Arnon unto the mount of Hermon, and all the land of Araba on the east: ²Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is in the valley, on the far side of the valley, and in half of Gilead, even unto Jabbok, the borders of the children of Ammon: ³and Araba to the sea of Chinneroth eastward, and unto the sea of Araba, even the salt sea eastward, by the way to Beth-jeshimoth, from Teman under Ashdoth-pisgah. ⁴And Og king of Bashan, that dwelt in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, was the remnant of the giants, ⁵which reigned from mount Hermon, and from Salcah, and in all the land of Bashan, unto the borders of Geshurim, and Maachathim, and half of Gilead. ⁶Them did Moses the servant of the Lord and the sons of Israel smite: and Moses gave them by way of inheritance unto Reuben, and Gad, and unto the half tribe of Manasseh.

⁷And these are the kings of the Amorites which Joshua and the sons of Israel slew beyond Jordan by the sea of Baal-gad in the plain of Lebanon even unto the mount of Halak, as men go up to Seir; and Joshua gave it unto the tribes of Israel to inherit according to their portion; ⁸in the mountain, and in the plain, and in Araba, and in Ashdoth, and in the wilderness, and Negev; the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ⁹The king of Jericho, and the king of Ai, which is near Bethel; ¹⁰the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, ¹¹the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish; ¹²the king of Eglon, the king of Gezer; ¹³the king of Debir, the king of Geder; ¹⁴the king of Hormah, the king of Arad; ¹⁵the king of Libnah, the king of Adullam; ¹⁶the king of Elath; ¹⁷the king of Tappuah, the king of Hepher; ¹⁸⁻²²the king of Aphek of Zarok, the king of Asor, the king of Symoon, the king of Mambroth, the king of Aziph, the king of Kadesh, the king of Zachak, the king of Maredoth, the king of Jekom of Carmel, ²³the king of Dor of Naphedor, the king of Goim of Gilgal: ²⁴the king of Tizrah: all these were twenty and nine kings.

CHAPTER 13

And Joshua was old, and stricken in days; and the Lord said unto Joshua, Thou art stricken in days, and there remaineth very much land to be inherited. ²And this is the land that yet remaineth: the borders of the Philistines, the Geshurite, and the Canaanite, ³from the wilderness before Egypt, even unto the borders of Askelon on the left side of the Canaanites, is counted unto the five principalities of the Philistines, to the inhabitants of Gaza, and to Ashdod, and to Askalon, and to Gath, and to Ekron, and to the Hivite; ⁴from Teman even unto all the land of Canaan before Gaza, and the Sidonians unto Aphek, unto the borders of the Amorites. ⁵And all the land of Gabli of the Philistines, and all Lebanon eastward from Gilgal, under the mount Hermon, unto the entering in of Hamath; ⁶every one that inhabiteth the hill country from Lebanon unto Misrephoth-maim. All the Sidonians, them will I destroy from before Israel; but do thou give them unto Israel by inheritance, as I have charged thee. ⁷And now divide this land by lot unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁸From Jordan unto the great sea westward shalt thou give it them: the great sea shall be the boundary. But unto the two tribes, and unto the half tribe of Manasseh, ⁸unto Reuben and Gad, Moses gave beyond Jordan: Moses the servant of the Lord gave it to them eastward, ⁹from Aroer, that is upon the bank of the brook of Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the valley, and all Misor from Medeba. ¹⁰All the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned from Heshbon, unto the borders of the children of Ammon, ¹¹and of Gilead, and the borders of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all the mount of Hermon, and all the land of Bashan unto Salcha. ¹²All the kingdom of Og in the region of Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei: he remained of the giants; and him did Moses smite, and destroy. ¹³Nevertheless the sons of Israel destroyed not the Geshurite, and the Maachathite, and the Canaanite: and the king of the Geshuri, and the Maachathite, dwelt among the sons of Israel until this day. ¹⁴Only no inheritance was given unto the tribe of Levi: the Lord God of Israel, He is their inheritance, as the Lord said unto them: and this is the division which Moses made unto the sons of Israel in Araboth Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho.

¹⁵And Moses gave unto the tribe of Reuben according to their families. ¹⁶And their borders were from Aroer, which is over against the brook of Arnon, and the city that is in the valley of Arnon; and all Misor, ¹⁷unto Heshbon; and all the cities in Misor, and Dibon, and Bamoth-baal; and the house of Baal-meon; ¹⁸and Bashan, and Kedemoth; and Mephaath, ¹⁹and Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zerath, and Zion in mount Emak; ²⁰and Beth-peor, and Ashdoth Pishgah, and Beth-jesimoth; ²¹and all the cities of Misor, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, whom Moses smote, even him and the princes of Midian; and Evi and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba prince of the lands of Zion, and the inhabitants of Zion. ²²And Balaam the son of Beor, the prophet, did they slay in battle. ²³And the borders of Reuben: even Jordan was the boundary. ²⁴And Moses gave an inheritance unto the children of Gad according to their families. ²⁵And their borders were Jazer, all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Araba that is before Rabba. ²⁶And from Heshbon to Araboth by Mizpha, and Betonim, and Mahanaim unto the borders of Debir, ²⁷and Enemek, and Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon; and the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon: and Jordan shall be the boundary unto part of the sea of Chinnereth, beyond Jordan eastward. ²⁸This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad, and according to their cities: according to their families they will turn their backs before their enemies, because their cities and their villages were according to their families. ²⁹And Moses gave to half the tribe of Manasseh according to their families. ³⁰And their borders were from Mahanaim, and all the kingdom of Bashan, and all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the villages of Jair, which are in the region of Bashan, threescore cities: ³¹and the half of Gilead, and in Astharoth, and in Edrei, royal cities of Og in the land of Bashan, were belonging unto the children of Machir, the sons of Manasseh according to their families. ³²These are they which Moses caused to inherit beyond Jordan in Araboth Moab, beyond Jordan by Jericho eastward.

CHAPTER 14

And these are the sons of Israel which received their inheritance in the land of Canaan, unto whom Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of the sons of Israel, gave inheritance. ²By lots they inherited, according as the Lord commanded by the hand of Joshua to the nine tribes, and to the half tribe, on the other side Jordan. ³But unto the Levites He gave none inheritance among them. ⁴For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: and there was given unto the Levites none inheritance in the land, save cities to dwell in, and their suburbs separated unto their cattle and their cattle. ⁵As the Lord commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did, and they divided the land.

⁶And the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunnah the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the word that the Lord spake unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. ⁷For forty years old was I when Moses the servant of God sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I returned to him an answer according to his mind. ⁸My brethren that went up with me turned away the heart of the people: but I wholly followed the Lord my God. ⁹And Moses swore on that day, saying, The land whereon thou art gone up, it shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord our God. ¹⁰And now the Lord hath kept me alive, as He said: this is the forty and fifth year since the Lord spake the word unto Moses; and Israel journeyed in the wilderness: and now, behold, I am this day fourscore and five years old. ¹¹As yet I am strong this day, as when the Lord sent me; even so strong am I now, both to go out and to come in for war. ¹²And now I ask of thee this mountain, as the Lord said in that day; for thou heardest His word in that day; and now the Anakims are there, cities great and strong: if then the Lord be with me, I will utterly destroy them, as the Lord said unto me. ¹³And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite Hebron for an inheritance. ¹⁴Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he followed the commandment of the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁵And the name of Hebron before was the city Arbai; it is the mother city of the Anakims: and the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

And the borders of the tribe of Judah according to their families were from the borders of Edom from the wilderness of Zin, unto Kadesh southward. ²And their borders were from the south, even unto part of the salt sea from the high country that goeth southward. ³And they pass along before the ascent of Maaleh-acrabbim; and go about Zin, and ascend up from the south side unto Kadesh-barnea; and go out to Hezron, and pass along up to Adar; and fetch a compass to the west of Kadesh. ⁴And they go out to Azmon, and pass out at the valley of Egypt; and the goings out of the coasts thereof shall be at the sea: these are their coasts from the south. ⁵And their borders from the east are all the salt sea, even unto Jordan; and their borders from the north quarter are from the coast of the sea, and from part of the Jordan: ⁶the borders go up to Beth-hoglah; and they go along from the north to Beth-araba: and the borders go on up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. ⁷And the borders continue on to the fourth part of the valley of Achor, and go down into Gilgal, which is before the going in to Adummim, which is toward the south in the valley, and passeth out at the waters of the fountain of the sun; and the goings out thereof shall be the fountain of En-rogel. ⁸And the borders go up to the valley of Hinnom, behind Jebus toward the south (this is Jerusalem): and the borders end at the top of the mountain, which is before the valley of Hinnom toward the sea; which is by the land of Rephaim northward: ⁹and the border goeth forth from the top of the mountain unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and goeth through unto mount Ephron; and the border will lead to Baalah (this is the city of Kirjath-jearim). ¹⁰And the border will go about from Baalah unto the sea, and will pass on to the mount of Ashar behind the city of Jearim northward (this is Chesalon), and it will come down to the city of the sun, and will pass on to the south. ¹¹And the border will go forth toward Askalon northward; and the borders will end at Succoth; and the borders will pass on to the south, and will end at Libnah, and the issue of the borders shall be toward the sea; the great sea shall be the border. ¹²These are the borders of the sons of Judah round about according to their families. ¹³And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, by the command of God: and Joshua gave him the city of Arbok the chief city of Anak: this is Hebron. ¹⁴And Caleb the son of Jephunneh destroyed from thence the three sons of Anak; Sheshai, and Talmai, and Ahiman. ¹⁵And Caleb went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was the city of letters. ¹⁶And Caleb said, Whosoever shall take and destroy the city of letters, and master it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife. ¹⁷And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. ¹⁸And it came to pass, as she went out, that she counselled him, saying, I will ask of my father a field: and she cried out from her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What is it? ¹⁹And she said, Give me a blessing; for thou hast set me in the land of Negev; give me Golath-maim: and he gave her Golath-maim the upper, and Golath-maim the nether. ²⁰This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah.

²¹And these were their cities; first city of the children of Judah at the borders of Edom by the wilderness: Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, ²²and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, ²³and Kadesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, ²⁴and Baal-mainam, and their villages, ²⁵and the cities of Hezron (this is Hazor), ²⁶and Amam, and Shema, and Moladah, and ²⁷and Hazar-gaddah, and Beth-palet, ²⁸and Hazar-shual, and Beersheba and their villages, and their hamlets, ²⁹Baalah, and Iim, and Azem, ³⁰and Eltodad, and Bethel, and Hormah, ³¹and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah, ³²and Leboath, and Shilhim, and Ain: twenty and nine cities, and their villages. ³³In the country of the plain, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, ³⁴and Zanoah, and Engannim, and Tappuah, and Enam, ³⁵and Jarmuth, and Adullam, and Mimbrah, and Socoh, and Azekah; ³⁶and Sharaim and Gederah, and the villages thereof; fourteen cities, and their villages: ³⁷Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad, ³⁸and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel, and Lachish, ³⁹and Bozkath, and Eglon; ⁴⁰and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, ⁴¹and Gederath, and Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities, and their villages; ⁴²Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, ⁴³and Janah, and Nezib, ⁴⁴and Keilah, and Akiezi, and Kezib, and Bathesar, and Ailom: ten cities, and their villages; ⁴⁵Ekron and her villages, and their hamlets: ⁴⁶from Askelon, Gemnah, and all the villages that are near unto Ashdod; and their villages. ⁴⁷Ashedod and her villages, and her hamlets: Gaza, and the villages thereof, and the hamlets thereof, unto the river of Egypt; and the great sea is the boundary. ⁴⁸And in the hill country, Shamir, and Jattir, and Sochoh, ⁴⁹and Dannah, and the city of letters (this is Debir); ⁵⁰and Anab, and Eshtemoth, and Anim, ⁵¹and Goshen, and Holon, and Channa, and Giloh: eleven cities and their villages; ⁵²Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, ⁵³and Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, ⁵⁴and Humtah, and the city Kirjath-arba (which is Hebron), and Zior; nine cities, and their villages: ⁵⁵Maon, and Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, ⁵⁶and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, ⁵⁷and Gibeah, and Timnah; nine cities, and their villages: ⁵⁸Halhul, and Beth-zur, and Gedor, ⁵⁹and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six cities, and their villages: Kirjath-baal, and Ephratha (which is Bethlehem), and Phagoor, and Aetan, and Culon, and Tatam, and Thobes, and Carem, and Galem, and Thether, and Mancho: eleven cities, and their villages: ⁶⁰Kirjath-baal (which is the city of Jarim), and Rabbah: two cities, and their villages; ⁶¹and Beth-arabah, and Middim, and Enon; ⁶²and Secacah, and Nibsham, and the cities of Zadon, and En-gedi: seven cities, and their villages. ⁶³And the Jebusite dwelt in Jerusalem, and the children of Judah could not destroy them: and the Jebusites dwell in Jerusalem unto this day.

CHAPTER 16

And the borders of the children of Joseph were from Jordan by Jericho on the east; and they will go up from Jericho unto the hill country, to the wilderness unto Bethel Luz; ²and they will go out unto Bethel, and pass along unto the borders of Archi, ³and they will go across to the sea unto the borders of Japhleti, unto the borders of Beth-horon the nether: and the goings out thereof shall be to the sea. ⁴And the children of Joseph, Ephraim, and Manasseh, took their inheritance: ⁵and the borders of the children of Ephraim were according to their families, and the borders of their Inheritance were eastward to Ataroth-addar and Erok, unto Beth-horon the upper, and Gezer; ⁶and the borders will pass along unto the sea to Ikasmon, north of Therma: they will go about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and will pass along eastward unto Janohah, ⁷and to Macho, and to Ataroth; and these are their villages: and they will come unto Jericho, and issue at Jordan. ⁸And the borders will go out from Taphuah to the sea unto Kanah; and their end will be at the sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of Ephraim according to their families. ⁹And the cities that were separated unto the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. ¹⁰And Ephraim destroyed not the Canaanite which dwelt in Gezer; and the Canaanite dwelt in Ephraim unto this day, until Pharaoh king of Egypt went up, and took it, and burnt it with fire: and they destroyed the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and they that dwelt in Gaza; and Pharaoh gave it for a dowry unto his daughter.

CHAPTER 17

The borders also of the tribe of the children of Manasseh (for he was the firstborn of Joseph) were: unto Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, in the land of Gilead and Bashan. ²And unto the other children of Manasseh, according to their families they were: unto the children of Abiezer, and the children of Helek, and for the children of Azriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Shemida, and for the children of Hepher: these were the male children according to their families. ³And unto Zelophehad, the son of Hepher: he had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of the daughters of Zelophehad; Mahlah, and Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcha, and Tirzah. ⁴And they stood before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua, and before the princes, saying, God commanded by the hand of Moses, to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore by the commandment of the Lord there was given them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. ⁵And there fell to them their lot from Anassah, and unto the plain of Labed of the land of Gilead, which is beyond Jordan. ⁶For the daughters of the sons of Manasseh inherited a portion among their brethren: but the land of Gilead was for the rest of Manasseh's sons. ⁷And the borders of the children of Manasseh were

Delanath, which is before the children of Anath; and it goeth out to the borders even unto Jamin, and Jassib, to the fountain of Tappuah. ⁸It shall belong to Manasseh and Tappuah on the borders of Manasseh to the children of Ephraim. ⁹And the borders shall go down to the valley of Kanah southward, by the valley of Jariel; there is a turpentine tree that belongeth to Ephraim in the midst of the city of Manasseh; and the borders of Manasseh northward are toward the brook; and the sea shall be the outgoing of it. ¹⁰Southward it is Ephraim's, and northward Manasseh's; and the sea shall be their coast: and northward they shall border upon Aseb, and eastward upon Issachar. ¹¹And Manasseh shall have in Issachar and Asher Beth-shean and their villages, and the inhabitants of Dor and her villages, and the inhabitants of Meggido and her villages, and the third part of Napheta and her villages. ¹²And the children of Manasseh could not destroy these cities; and the Canaanite began to dwell in this land. ¹³And it came to pass, when the sons of Israel were strong, that they made the Canaanites subject; but did not utterly destroy them. ¹⁴Now the children of Joseph answered Joshua, saying, Why hast thou caused us to inherit but one inheritance, and one line; seeing I am a great people, and God hath blessed me? ¹⁵And Joshua said unto them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the forest, and clear it for thyself, if mount Ephraim be too little for thee. ¹⁶And they said, The mount of Ephraim pleaseth us not, and the Canaanite that dwelleth therein in Bethshean, and in her villages, in the valley of Jezreel, hath choice cavalry and iron. ¹⁷And Joshua said unto the children of Joseph, If thou art a great people, and have great power, thou shalt not have one inheritance only: ¹⁸for thou shalt have the wood; for there is a wood, and thou shalt clear it: and the land shall be thine: even when thou hast utterly destroyed the Canaanite; for he hath chosen cavalry, yet art thou stronger than he.

CHAPTER 18

And the whole congregation of the sons of Israel were assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the testimony there: and the land was subdued by them. ²And there remained among the sons of Israel, even those which had not received their inheritance, seven tribes. ³And Joshua said unto the sons of Israel, How long will ye be slack to inherit the land, which the Lord our God hath given you? ⁴Bring out from among you three men of each tribe: and let them rise, and go through the land; and let them describe it before me, as will be proper to divide it. ⁵And they came unto him: and he divided unto them seven portions, saying, Judah shall stand to them a border to the south, and the children of Joseph shall stand to them to the north. ⁶And ye shall divide the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, and I will bring out a lot for you before the Lord our God. ⁷For the children of Levi have no part among you; for the priesthood of the Lord is His portion: and Gad, and Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan to the east, which

Moses the servant of the Lord gave them. ⁸And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged the men that went to walk through the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and come unto me, and I will bring you forth a lot here before the Lord in Shiloh. ⁹And they went, and passed through the land, and viewed it, and described it according to the cities, even seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua. ¹⁰And Joshua cast the lot for them in Shiloh before the Lord.

¹¹And the lot of the tribe of Benjamin came forth first according to their families: and the borders of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. ¹²And their borders were northward: their borders went up from Jordan behind Jericho to the north, and went up to the mountain westward; and the going out of it shall be Madbaritis Bethon. ¹³And the borders shall go forth from thence toward Luz, behind Luz, from the south of it (this is Bethel): and the border descended to Ataroth Adder, unto the hill country, which is southward of Beth Horon the nether. ¹⁴And the borders shall pass through, and go along to the part that looketh toward the sea, on the south, from the mountain that lieth before Beth Horon southward: and the goings out thereof shall be at Kirjath-baal, (this is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of Judah; this is the part toward the west. ¹⁵And the south side on the part of Kirjath-baal; and the borders shall go across to Gasin, to the fountain of the water of Jephthoah. ¹⁶And the borders shall pass along down on one side; this is before the forest of Hinnom, which is on the side of Emekraphaim northward; and it shall descend to Gahennah behind Jebus southward: and it shall descend to the fountain of Rogel, ¹⁷and shall go across to the fountain of Beth-shemesh, and shall pass along unto Galioth, which is before against the going up of Arabah, and they shall descend to the stone of Bohan of the sons of Reuben, ¹⁸and shall pass over behind Beth-arabah to the north, and shall descend to the borders behind the sea northward. ¹⁹And the outgoing of the borders shall be at the ridge of the salt sea northward to the side of Jordan southward: these are their borders to the south. ²⁰And Jordan shall be the boundary of them on the east side: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin; these are the borders thereof round about, according to their families. ²¹And the cities of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-keziz, ²²and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Besana, ²³and Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah, ²⁴and Chephar, and Kephira, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities and their villages: ²⁵Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth; ²⁶and Mizpah, and Miron, and Amokah; ²⁷and Pirah, and Caphan, and Nahan, and Zelah, and Eleph; ²⁸and Jebus (which is Jerusalem), and Gibeath; thirteen cities and their villages: this is the inheritance of Benjamin according to their families.

CHAPTER 19

And the second lot came forth to the children of Simeon: and their inheritance was within the lots of the children of Judah. ²And their lot was Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, ³and Hazar-shual, and Balah, ⁴and Ethulah, and Bulah, and Herma, ⁵and Sichelach, and Beth-machereb, and Sarsusin, ⁶and Batharoth, and their farms; thirteen cities and their villages. ⁷Eremmon, and Talchah, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages, ⁸round about their cities to Barech, as men go to Bameth to the south: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. ⁹Of the lot of Judah was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon: for the portion of the children of Judah was larger than theirs: and the children of Simeon inherited in the midst of their lot.

¹⁰And the third lot came out to Zebulun according to their families: the bounds of their inheritance shall be Esedechgolah, ¹¹the sea and Maragilah shall be their border, and it shall be unto Beth-araba, in the valley which is over against Jekman., ¹²and they returned from Sedduk in a contrary direction eastward from Beth-samys unto the borders of Chisloth, and shall pass on to Daberath, and go up to Phaggai. ¹³And from thence it shall come round in the opposite direction eastward to Gebere unto the city of Katasem, and go on to Rimmon Amathar Aosa. ¹⁴And the borders shall come round northward to Amoth; and their outgoing shall be at Gaiphael, ¹⁵and Katanath, and Nabaal, and Symoon, and Jericho, and Bethman. ¹⁶This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Zebulun according to their families, the cities and their villages.

¹⁷And the fourth lot came out to Issachar. ¹⁸And their borders were Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, ¹⁹and Haphraim, and Shihon, and Reeroth, ²⁰and Anaharath, and Dabiron, and Kishion, and Abez, ²¹and Remeth, and En-gannim, and Tomman, and Aimarek, and Beer-saphez. ²²And the boundaries shall border upon Gethbar, and upon Shahazinah westward, and Beth-shemesh; and the outgoing of his borders shall be Jordan. ²³This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

²⁴And the fifth lot came out to Asher according to their families. ²⁵And their borders were Helkath, and Hali, and Beton, and Achshaph, ²⁶and Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and their lot will border on Carmel westward, and on Zion, and on Libnath. ²⁷And it will return from the sunrising from Beth-dagon, and will join Zebulun and Jiphthah-el, and Pethiel northward; and the borders will come to Beth-emek, and Neiel, and will go on to Cabul, ²⁸and Akran, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah unto great Sidon. ²⁹And the borders shall turn back to Ramah, and to the fountain of Masplassat, and the Tyrians; and the borders shall return unto Hosah; and the outgoing thereof shall be the sea, and Apoleb, and Achzib, ³⁰and Archob, and Aphek, and Rehob. ³¹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, the cities and their villages.

³²And the sixth lot came out to Naphtali. ³³And their borders were Moolam, and Mola, and Besemiin, and Armah, and Nabok, and Jephthamai, unto Dodam; and the outgoings thereof were Jordan. ³⁴And the coasts thereof shall return westward by Aznoth, and shall go out from thence to Hukkok, and shall border on Zebulun to the south, and Asher shall join it on the west side, and Jordan toward the sunrising. ³⁵And the walled cities of the Tyrians; Tyre, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, ³⁶and Armath, and Arah-el, and Azor, ³⁷and Kedesh, and Edrei, and the well of Hazor; ³⁸and Iron, and Migdal-el, and Beth-anath, and Tessamith. ³⁹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali.

⁴⁰And the seventh lot came out to Dan. ⁴¹And the borders thereof were Zorah, and Eshtaol, and the cities of Shemesh, ⁴²and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, ⁴³and Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron; ⁴⁴and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, ⁴⁵and Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon. ⁴⁶And from the sea of Rakkon the border was near unto Japho. ⁴⁷This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families; these are their cities and their villages: and the children of Dan did not drive out the Amorite, which afflicted them in the mountain; and the Amorite would not suffer them to come down into the valley, but forcibly took from them the border of their portion. ⁴⁸And the children of Dan went and fought against Lachis, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and dwelt in it, and called the name of it Lesen: and the Amorite continued to dwell in Edom, and in Zalamin: and the hand of Ephraim prevailed against them, and they became tributary unto them.

⁴⁹And they began to take possession of the land according to their borders; and the sons of Israel gave an inheritance unto Joshua the son of Nun among them, ⁵⁰by the command of God; and they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah, which is in the mount of Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein. ⁵¹These are the divisions, which Eleazar the priest divided by lot, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the families among the tribes of Israel, according to the lots, in Shiloh before the Lord, by the doors of the tabernacle of the testimony: and they went to take possession of the land.

CHAPTER 20

The Lord also spake unto Joshua, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Give the cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by Moses: ³even a refuge unto the slayer that hath smitten a man unawares: and the cities shall be unto you a refuge, and the slayer shall not be put to death by the avenger of blood, until he have stood before the congregation for judgment.* ⁷And He separated Kedesh in Galilee, in the mount Naphtali, and Shechem in the mount Ephraim, and the city of Arba: which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. ⁸And beyond Jordan He gave Bezer in the wilderness in the plain, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, out of the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹These were the cities appointed for the sons of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them; that every one that smiteth a soul unawares should flee thither; that he die not by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stand before the congregation for judgment.

(The following verses are from the Codex Alexandrinus:)* ⁴And he shall flee unto one of those cities, and shall stand in the gate of the city, and speak in the ears of the elders of the city, about his words: and the congregation shall return him unto them, and shall appoint him a place; and he shall dwell among them. ⁵And when he that acteth as next of kin for blood pursueth after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand; because he slew his neighbour unawares, and hated him not, even from yesterday and three days ago. ⁶And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the face of the congregation for judgment, or until the death of the high priest, that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, from whence he fled.

CHAPTER 21

Then came near the heads of the families of the children of Levi unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of families of the tribes of Israel. ²And they spake unto them in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord gave commandment by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, and the country round about for our cattle. ³So the sons of Israel gave unto the Levites in their inheritance, by the commandment of the Lord, the cities and the country round about. ⁴And the lot came out for the family of Kohath; and the sons of Aaron, the priests the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. ⁵And unto the children of Kohath that were left were given by lot, out of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. ⁶And the children of Gershon had out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. ⁷And the children of Merari according to their families had by lot out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. ⁸And the sons of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites the cities and their suburbs, as the Lord commanded Moses. ⁹And the tribe of the children of Judah, and the tribe of the children of Simeon, and part of the tribe of the children of Benjamin gave these cities: and they were assigned ¹⁰unto the children of Aaron, of the family of Kohath, of the sons of Levi; for the lot fell unto these. ¹¹And they gave them Kirjath-arba, the chief city of the children of Anak; this is Hebron, in the mountain country of Judah, and the suburbs round about it. ¹²But the lands of the city, and the villages thereof, gave Joshua to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for a possession. ¹³And unto the children of Aaron he gave the city of refuge for the slayer, Hebron, and the suburbs that belong to it; and Libna, and the suburbs that belong to it; ¹⁴and Holon and her suburbs, and Themah and her suburbs, ¹⁵and Gella and her suburbs, and Debir and her suburbs, ¹⁶and Asher and her suburbs, and Tany and her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh and her suburbs: nine cities out of these two tribes. ¹⁷And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and her suburbs, and Geba and her suburbs, ¹⁸and Anathoth and her suburbs, and Almon and her suburbs: four cities. ¹⁹All the cities of the children of Aaron the priest, thirteen. ²⁰And unto the families, even the children of Kohath the Levites, that were left of the sons of Kohath, there was given their priests' city, ²¹out of the tribe of Ephraim; and they gave them the slayer's city of refuge, Shechem and her suburbs, and Gezer and her appendages and her suburbs, ²²and Beth-horon and her suburbs; four cities: ²³and out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and her suburbs, and Gibbethon and her suburbs, ²⁴and Aijalon and her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon and her suburbs; four cities. ²⁵And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach and her suburbs, and Jebatha and her suburbs; two cities. ²⁶In all, ten cities, and the suburbs of each belonging to them, unto the families of the children of Kohath that remained. ²⁷And unto the children of Gershon the Levites out of the other half tribe of Manasseh gave Joshua cities set apart for the slayers, Golan in the country of Bashan and her suburbs, and Be-eshterah and her suburbs; two cities. ²⁸And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion and her suburbs, and Daberath and her suburbs, ²⁹and Remmath and her suburbs, and the well of letters and her suburbs; four cities. ³⁰And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and her suburbs, and Abdon and her suburbs, ³¹and Helkath and her suburbs, and Rehob and her suburbs; four cities. ³²And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the city set apart for the slayer, Kedesh in Galilee and her suburbs, and Hammoth and her suburbs, and Timmon and her suburbs; three cities. ³³All the cities of Gershon according to their families were thirteen cities. ³⁴And unto the family of the children of Merari, the Levites that remained, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Mahanaim and her suburbs, and Kadesh and her suburbs, ³⁵and Zella and her suburbs; three cities. ³⁶And beyond Jordan, over against Jericho, out of the tribe of Reuben, the city of refuge for the slayer, Bezer in the wilderness, Misor and her suburbs, and Jahaz and her suburbs, ³⁷and Kedemoth and her suburbs, and Mepphath and her suburbs; four cities. ³⁸And out of the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge for the slayer, both Ramoth in Gilead and her suburbs, and Kamin and her suburbs, ³⁹and Heshbon and her suburbs, and Jahaz and her suburbs; the cities were four in all. ⁴⁰All these cities were given unto the children of Merari according to the families of them that were left out of the tribe of Levi; and the limits of them were the twelve cities. ⁴¹All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were forty and eight cities, ⁴²and their suburbs round about these cities; a city and the suburbs round about the city unto all these cities.

^{42a}And Joshua ceased from dividing the land by their borders. ^{42b}And the sons of Israel gave a portion unto Joshua because of the commandment of the Lord: they gave him the city which he asked; they gave him Thamnaschar in mount Ephraim. ^{42c}And Joshua built the city, and dwelt therein. ^{42d}And Joshua took the knives of stone, wherewith he circumcised the sons of Israel that were born in the desert by the way, and put them in Timnath-serah.

⁴³So the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which He sware to give unto their fathers; and they inherited it, and dwelt therein. ⁴⁴And the Lord gave them rest round about, as He sware unto their fathers: there maintained not one of their enemies his ground against them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands. ⁴⁵There failed not one of the good things which the Lord had spoken unto the sons of Israel; all came to pass.

CHAPTER 22

Then Joshua called the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, ²and said unto them, Ye have heard all that Moses the servant of God commanded you, and have hearkened unto my voice in all that I commanded you. ³Ye have not left your brethren these many days; unto this day ye have kept the commandment of the Lord your God. ⁴And now the Lord our God hath given rest unto our brethren, as He told them: therefore now return ye, and get ye unto your homes, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses gave you on the other side Jordan. ⁵But take great heed to do the commandments and the law, which Moses the servant of the Lord charged you to do, to love the Lord our God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, and to cleave unto Him, and to serve Him with all your mind, and with all your soul. ⁶And Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their homes. ⁷And to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a portion in the land of Bashan: and unto the other half thereof gave Joshua a portion with his brethren on the far side Jordan toward the sea. And when Joshua sent them away unto their homes, then he blessed them; ⁸and they departed with much riches unto their houses, and divided the spoil of their enemies with their brethren: very much cattle, and silver, and gold, and iron, and much raiment.

⁹So the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh departed from the sons of Israel in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go away into Gilead, into the land of their possession, which they inherited by the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ¹⁰And they came unto Gilgal of the Jordan, which is in the land of Canaan: and the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see. ¹¹And the sons of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the borders of the land of Canaan, at Gilead of Jordan, on the other side of the sons of Israel. ¹²And all the sons of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. ¹³And the sons of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, ¹⁴and with him ten of the princes, one chief out of every household out of all the tribes of Israel (the heads of families are the captains of thousands in Israel). ¹⁵And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying, ¹⁶Thus saith the whole congregation of Israel, What trespass is this that ye have transgressed before the God of Israel, to turn away this day from the Lord, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might become rebels from the Lord? ¹⁷Is the sin of Peor too little for you, that we are not cleansed from it until this day, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord? ¹⁸And shall ye turn away this day from the Lord? and it will be, if ye revolt this day from the Lord, that to morrow there shall be wrath upon all Israel. ¹⁹And now, if the land of your possession be too little, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lord's tabernacle dwelleth, and receive ye an inheritance among us: and be not rebels from the Lord, neither turn from following the Lord, in having built you an altar beside the altar of the Lord our God. ²⁰Lo, did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and there was wrath on all the congregation of Israel? and he himself died alone in his own sin.

²¹And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and spake unto the captains of the thousands of Israel, saying, ²²God is the Lord God; and God, even God, Himself knoweth, and Israel himself shall know; if we have transgressed before the Lord by not following Him, let Him not deliver us this day. ²³And if we have built us an altar to turn from following the Lord our God, to offer thereon a sacrifice of whole burnt offering, to offer thereon a sacrifice of peace offering, the Lord shall require it. ²⁴But if we have done this rather for fear of this thing, saying, Lest tomorrow your children say unto our children, What have ye to do with the Lord God of Israel? ²⁵and the Lord hath set borders between us and you, even Jordan, and ye have no portion in the Lord: so shall your children alienate our children, that they worship not the Lord. ²⁶And we said to do thus, to build this altar, not for burnt offerings, nor for meat offerings: ²⁷but that this may be a witness between us, and you, and between our posterity after us, that we might do service unto the Lord before Him with our burnt offerings and our meat offerings and our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no portion in the Lord. ²⁸And we said, If ever it come to pass that they should speak so to us, or to our posterity hereafter, then shall they say, Behold the likeness of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, nor for the sake of burnt offerings, nor for the sake of meat offerings; but it is a witness between you and us, and between our children. ²⁹Far be it from us therefore that should turn away from the Lord this day, to rebel from the Lord, to build an altar for burnt offerings, and for peace offerings, beside the altar of the Lord that is before His tabernacle.

³⁰And when Phinehas the priest, and all the princes of the congregation of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh spake, it pleased them. ³¹And Phinehas the priest said unto the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the Lord is with us, because ye have not committed a trespass against the Lord, and that ye have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of the Lord. ³²So Phinehas the priest and the princes departed from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, and from the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and told the words to them. ³³And it pleased the sons of Israel; and they spake unto the sons of Israel, and blessed the God of the sons of Israel, and told them to go up no more against them, to destroy the land of the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh: so they dwelt upon it. ³⁴And Joshua called the altar of them of Reuben and them of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh, and said, It is a witness in the midst of them, that the Lord is their God.

CHAPTER 23

And it came to pass after many days after that the Lord had given rest unto Israel from all his enemies round about, and Joshua waxed old and advanced in days, ²that Joshua called for all the sons of Israel, and the council of elders, and their heads, and their scribes, and their judges, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in days. ³And ye have seen all that the Lord our God hath done unto all these nations before us; for it is the Lord our God Which hath fought for you. ⁴Behold that I have cast upon you these nations that are left unto you by lots unto your tribes, from Jordan all the nations that I have cut off; and from the great sea it shall be the border westward. ⁵And the Lord our God, He shall destroy them from before us, until they perish utterly; and He shall send against them the wild beasts, until He have utterly destroyed them and their kings from before you: and ye shall inherit the land, as the Lord our God hath said unto you. ⁶Do ye therefore strive diligently to keep and to do all things that are written in the book of the law of Moses; that ye turn not aside unto the right hand, or unto the left hand: ⁷that ye go not in among these nations that remain; neither shall the name of their gods be named among you, nor shall ye serve them; neither shall ye bow yourselves unto them. ⁸But ye shall cleave unto the Lord your God, as ye have done unto this day. ⁹And the Lord shall destroy them from before you, great nations and strong: and no man hath stood before us unto this day. ¹⁰One man of you hath chased thousands: for the Lord our God, He hath fought for you, as He hath said unto you. ¹¹And now take heed to love the Lord our God. ¹²For if ye turn aside and join yourselves unto these nations that are left with you, and make marriages with them, and be mingled with them, and they with you: ¹³know that the Lord will no more destroy these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and nails in your heels, and darts in your eyes, until ye be destroyed from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. ¹⁴But I am going the way, as also all that are upon the earth: and know ye in your heart and in your soul, that not one word hath fallen of all the words which the Lord our God spake of all that concerneth us: not one thing hath failed thereof. ¹⁵And it shall come to pass, that as all the good things are come upon you, which the Lord spake concerning us, so shall the Lord God bring upon you all the evil things, until He have utterly destroyed you from off this good land which the Lord hath given you, ¹⁶when ye transgress the covenant of the Lord our God, which He commanded us, and go, and serve other gods, and bow yourselves down to them.

CHAPTER 24

And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shiloh, and called for their elders, and for their scribes, and for their judges; and set them before God. ²And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers sojourned beyond the river in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. ³And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the river, and led him in all the land, and multiplied his seed, ⁴and gave him Isaac; and unto Isaac, Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, for him to inherit; and Jacob and his sons went down into Egypt, and became there a great nation, and many and mighty: and the Egyptians afflicted them. ⁵And the Lord smote Egypt with the things that He wrought among them. ⁶And afterward He brought our fathers out of Egypt: and ye came into the Red Sea. And the Egyptians pursued after our fathers with chariots and horses into the Red Sea; ⁷and we cried aloud unto the Lord; and He gave a cloud and darkness between us and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen all that the Lord did in the land of Egypt: and ye were in the wilderness many days. ⁸And He brought us into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan, and the Lord delivered them into our hands; and ye inherited their land, and utterly destroyed them from before you. ⁹And Balak king of Moab, the son of Zippor, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam to curse us. ¹⁰But the Lord thy God would not destroy thee; and He blessed you with a blessing, and rescued you out of their hands, and delivered them. ¹¹And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the inhabitants of Jericho fought against us, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, and the Hittite, and the Gergashite; and the Lord delivered them into your hands. ¹²And He sent the hornet before you, and drave them out from before you, even twelve kings of the Amorites; not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. ¹³And He gave you a land, that whereon ye laboured not, and cities which ye built not, and ye were settled in them; of vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not shall ye eat. ¹⁴And now fear the Lord, and serve Him in righteousness and justice: and put away the strange gods which our fathers served on the other side of the river, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. ¹⁵But if it seem not good unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods of your fathers that were on the other side of the river, or the gods of the Amorites, among whom ye dwell upon their land: but I and my house will serve the Lord; for He is holy.

¹⁶And the people answered and said, Far be it from us to forsake the Lord, to serve other gods. ¹⁷The Lord our God, He is God: He brought us up and our fathers out of Egypt, and protected us in all the way wherein we walked, and among all the nations through whom we passed. ¹⁸And the Lord drave out from before us the Amorite and all the nations which inhabited the land: but we also will serve the Lord, for He is our God. ¹⁹And Joshua said unto the people, Ye will not be able to serve the Lord: for God is holy; and He, being jealous, will not forgive your sins and your transgressions. ²⁰Whensoever ye forsake the Lord, and serve other gods, then He will come upon you, and afflict you, and consume you, instead of having done you good. ²¹And the people said unto Joshua, Nay, but we will serve the Lord. ²²And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the Lord, to serve Him. ²³And now put away the strange gods which are among you, and set your heart right toward the Lord God of Israel. ²⁴And the people said unto Joshua, We will serve the Lord, and hearken unto His voice. ²⁵So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and gave them a law and an ordinance in Shiloh before the tabernacle of the God of Israel. ²⁶And he wrote these words in the book of the laws of God; and Joshua took a great stone, and set it up under the turpentine tree before the Lord. ²⁷And Joshua said unto the people, Behold, this stone shall be for a witness among you, for it hath heard all the words that have been spoken unto it by the Lord; for He hath spoken unto you this day: and this stone shall be among you for a witness in the last days, whensoever ye deal falsely with the Lord my God. ²⁸And Joshua sent the people away, and they went every man into his own place. ²⁹And Israel served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that drew out the time with Joshua, and all that had known all the works of the Lord, that He had wrought for Israel.

³⁰And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died, being an hundred and ten years. ³¹And they buried him by the borders of his inheritance in Timnath-serah in the mount of Ephraim, to the north of the mount of Gaash: there they put within the tomb wherein they buried him, the knives of stone wherewith he circumcised the sons of Israel in Gilgal, when he brought them out of Egypt; as the Lord appointed him: and there they are unto this day. ³²And the bones of Joseph were brought up by the sons of Israel out of Egypt, and buried in Shechem, in the parcel of land which Jacob bought of the Amorites which dwelt in Shechem for an hundred ewe lambs; and he gave it unto Joseph for a portion. ³³And it came to pass after these things, that Eleazar the high priest, the son of Aaron, died, and was buried in Gabaath of Phinehas his son, which he gave him in mount Ephraim. In that day the sons of Israel took the ark of God, and carried it about among them; and Phinehas served as priest in the room of Eleazar his father until he died, and was buried in his own place Gabaath.

But the sons of Israel departed every one unto their place, and unto their own city; and the sons of Israel worshipped Astarte, and Astaroth, and the gods of the nations round about them: and the Lord delivered them into the hands of Eglom king of Moab, and he ruled over them eighteen years.

JUDGES

CHAPTER 1

And after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the sons of Israel enquired of the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them. ²And the Lord said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. ³And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, and let us array ourselves against the Canaanites; and I also will go with thee into thy lot: and Simeon went with him. ⁴And Judah went up; and the Lord delivered the Canaanite and the Perizzite into their hands: and they smote of them in Bezek to ten thousand men. ⁵And they overtook Adoni-zedek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they smote the Canaanite and the Perizzite. ⁶And Adoni-zedek fled; and they pursued after him, and took him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. ⁷And Adoni-zedek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I therefore have done, so God hath requited me: and they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

⁸And the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and burned the city with fire. ⁹And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight with the Canaanite that dwelt in the hill country, and in the south, and in the country of the plain. ¹⁰And Judah went unto the Canaanite that dwelt in Hebron; and Hebron came out against him: (and the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba:) and they smote Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, children of Anak. ¹¹And from thence they went up unto the inhabitants of Debir: but the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sephar, the city of letters. ¹²And Caleb said, Whosoever smiteth the city of letters, and first taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife. ¹³And Othniel the younger son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took it; and Caleb gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. ¹⁴And it came to pass, when she went in, that Othniel moved her to ask of her father a field: and she murmured and cried from off her ass, Thou hast given me away into a south land; and Caleb said unto her, What aileth thee? ¹⁵And Achsah said unto him, Give me a blessing, I pray thee: for thou hast given me away into a south land; thou shalt give me also the ransom of water: and Caleb gave her according to her heart the ransom of the upper springs, and the ransom of the nether springs.

¹⁶And the children of Jothor the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness that is in the south of Judah, which is at the descent of Arad; and they dwelt with the people. ¹⁷And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they smote the Canaanite that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed them; and they called the name of the city Anathema. ¹⁸But Judah inherited not Gaza, nor the coasts thereof, nor Askalon, nor the coasts thereof, nor Ashdod, nor the lands round about it. ¹⁹And the Lord was with Judah; and he inherited the mountain; for they could not destroy the inhabitants of the valley, because Recab commanded them. ²⁰And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and thence he inherited the three cities of the sons of Anak. ²¹But the children of Benjamin inherited not the inheritance of the Jebusite that dwelt in Jerusalem; and the Jebusite dwelt with the children of Benjamin unto this day. ²²And the children of Joseph, they also went up unto Bethel: and the Lord was with them. ²³And they encamped, and descried Bethel: and the name of the city before was Luz. ²⁴And the spies looked; and, behold, a man went out of the city, and they took him, and said unto him, Shew us the way into the city, and we will deal mercifully with thee. ²⁵And he shewed them the way into the city, and they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family. ²⁶And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built there a city, and called the name thereof Luz: this is the name thereof unto this day. ²⁷Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean, which is a city of the Scythians, nor her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor, nor her towns, nor the inhabitants of Balak, nor her suburbs, nor her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo, nor her suburbs, nor her towns, nor the inhabitants of Jebelaam, nor her suburbs, nor her towns; and the Canaanite began to dwell in this land. ²⁸And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that he made the Canaanite tributary, but did not utterly drive them out. ²⁹Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanite dwelt in the midst of him in Gezer, and became tributary. ³⁰Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanite dwelt among them, and became tributary unto him. ³¹Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, (and that people became tributary unto him;) nor the inhabitants of Dor, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor the inhabitants of Ahlab, nor Achzib, nor Helbah, nor Nai, nor Ereio. ³²And Asher dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite that inhabited the land; for he could not drive him out. ³³Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; and Naphtali dwelt in the midst of the Canaanite that inhabited the land: but the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh and of Beth-anath became tributary unto him. ³⁴And the Amorite drove out the children of Dan into the mountain: for they did not suffer them to come down into the valley. ³⁵And the Amorite began to dwell in the mount of shells, wherein are bears, and foxes, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim; and the house of Joseph was heavy upon the Amorite; and he became tributary unto him. ³⁶And the border of the Amorite was from the going up of Akkrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER 2

And an angel of the Lord went up from Gilgal to the place of weeping, and to Bethel, and to the house of Israel, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord: I have brought you up out of Egypt, and have brought you into the land which I swore unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant that I have made with you. ²And ye shall make no covenant with them that dwell in this land, neither shall ye worship their gods; but ye shall destroy their graven images, ye shall pull down their altars: but ye have hearkened not unto My voice, for ye have done these things. ³And I said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall for a distress unto you, and their gods shall be for an offence unto you. ⁴And it came to pass, when the angel of the Lord spake these words unto all the sons of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. ⁵And they called the name of that place Weepings: and they sacrificed there unto the Lord.

⁶And Joshua let the people go, and they went every man unto his inheritance, to inherit the land. ⁷And the people served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that drew out the time with Joshua, as many as knew all the great work of the Lord, what things he had wrought in Israel. ⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died, being an hundred and ten years old. ⁹And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the Mount of Gaash. ¹⁰And all that generation were laid unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the Lord, nor yet the work which He had done in Israel.

¹¹And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and served Baalim. ¹²And they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and walked after other gods, of the gods of the nations that were round about them, and worshipped them. ¹³And they provoked the Lord to anger, and forsook Him, and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. ¹⁴And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and He gave them into the hands of the spoilers; and they spoiled them: and He sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, and they could not any longer stand against their enemies, ¹⁵among whomsoever they went: and the hand of the Lord was against them for evil, as the Lord had spoken, and as the Lord had sworn unto them: and He greatly afflicted them. ¹⁶And the Lord raised up judges, and the Lord saved them out of the hands of those that spoiled them: and yet they hearkened not unto the judges, ¹⁷for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them: and they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, to hearken unto the words of the Lord; they did not so. ¹⁸And because the Lord raised them up judges, so the Lord was with the judge, and saved them out of the hands of their enemies all the days of the judge: for the Lord repented at their groaning, by reason of them that oppressed them and afflicted them. ¹⁹And it came to pass, when the judge died, that they returned, and again corrupted themselves more than their fathers, to go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them: they forsook not their own devices, nor their stubborn ways. ²⁰And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and said, Because that this nation hath forsaken my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and hath not hearkened unto My voice, ²¹there I will not henceforth cast out any from before them of the nations which Joshua the son of Nun left in the land, and let be, ²²to prove Israel with them, whether they would keep the way of the Lord to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. ²³Therefore the Lord left these nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered He them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

And these are the nations which the Lord left, to prove Israel by them, even all such as had not known the wars of Canaan; ²only for the sake of the generations of the sons of Israel, to teach them war; at the least such as knew not these things: the five lordships of the Philistines, and every Canaanite, and the Sidonian, and the Hivite that dwelt in Lebanon, from the mount of Hermon unto Hamath. ⁴And this was done to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the Lord, which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵And the sons of Israel dwelt among the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite: ⁶and they took their daughters for wives unto them, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

⁷And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and forgot the Lord their God, and served Baalim and the groves. ⁸And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Syria of the rivers: and the sons of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years. ⁹And the sons of Israel cried unto the Lord, and the Lord raised up a saviour unto Israel; and he saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, younger than him. ¹⁰And the spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war against Chushan-rishathaim: and the Lord delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Syria of the rivers into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim. ¹¹And the land was quiet forty years: and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

¹²And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the Lord. ¹³And he gathered unto him all the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and inherited possession of the city of palm trees. ¹⁴So the sons of Israel served Eglon eighteen years. ¹⁵And the sons of Israel cried unto the Lord, and He raised them up a saviour, Ehud the son of Gera, a son of Benjamin, a man that used both hands alike: and by his hand the sons of Israel sent presents unto Eglon the king of Moab. ¹⁶And he made him a dagger of two edges, of a span length; and he did gird it under his cloak upon his right thigh. ¹⁷And he went and brought the presents unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was an exceeding well favoured man. ¹⁸And it came to pass, when Ehud had made an end to offer his presents, that he sent away them that brought the presents. ¹⁹But he himself turned again from the quarries that are by Gilgal; and Ehud said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: and Eglon said unto him, Keep silence; and he sent away from his presence all that waited upon him. ²⁰And Ehud went in unto him; and he sat in his own summer parlour, quite alone: and Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee, O king; and Eglon arose from his throne that was near him. ²¹And it came to pass, as he arose, that Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly: ²²and drave in also the haft after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, for he drew not the dagger out of his belly. ²³And Ehud went forth through the porch by them that were appointed, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them. ²⁴And he went out; and Eglon's servants came, and saw, and, behold, the doors of the upper parlour were locked; and they said, Doth he not uncover his feet in the summer chamber? ²⁵And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, there was none that opened the doors of the upper parlour; therefore they took the key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth. ²⁶And Ehud escaped while they were in a tumult, and none heeded him; and he passed the beyond quarries, and escaped unto Seirath. ²⁷And it came to pass, when Ehud was come into the land of Israel, that he blew the trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the sons of Israel came down with him from the mount; and he was before them. ²⁸And he said unto them, Come down after me: for the Lord hath delivered our enemies, even Moab, into our hand: and they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan before Moab, and he suffered not a man to pass over. ²⁹And they smote Moab in that day about ten thousand men, every person, and every man of might; and there escaped not a man. ³⁰So Moab was put to shame in that day under the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscore years; and Ehud judged them till he died.

³¹And after him there arose Shamgar the son of Anath; and he smote the Philistines to the number of six hundred men with an ox's ploughshare: and he also delivered Israel.

CHAPTER 4

And the sons of Israel again did evil against the Lord; and Ehud was dead. ²And the Lord sold the sons of Israel into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; and the chief of his host was Sisera, and he dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. ³And the sons of Israel cried unto the Lord: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed Israel. ⁴And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. ⁵And she sat under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim: and the sons of Israel went up to her for judgment. ⁶And Deborah sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded thee? and thou shalt depart to mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun. ⁷And I will bring unto thee to the torrent of Kishon Sisera, the captain of of Jabin's host, and his chariots, and his multitude; and I will deliver them into thine hands. ⁸And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, I will go: and if thou wilt not go, I will not go; for I know not the day wherein the Lord prospereth his angel with me. ⁹And she said, I will surely go with thee: but know that thine honour shall not attend upon the journey that thou goest; for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hands of a woman: and Deborah arose, and went with Barak out of Kedesh. ¹⁰And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali out of Kedesh; and there went up at his feet ten thousand men: and Deborah went up with him. ¹¹And Heber the Kenite had removed from Caina, from the children of Jobab the father in law of Moses, and pitched his tent by the oak of the covetous, which is near Kedesh. ¹²And it was shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. ¹³And Sisera called all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the brook of Kishon. ¹⁴And Deborah said unto Barak, Rise up; for this is the day in which the Lord hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: for the Lord shall go out before thee: and Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. ¹⁵And the Lord discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak: and Barak lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. ¹⁶And Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army, into Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not one left. ¹⁷And Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite, his friend: for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; fear not: and he turned aside unto her into the tent, and she covered him with a mantle. ¹⁹And Sisera said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty: and she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him to drink, and covered him. ²⁰And Sisera said unto her, Stand now by the door of the tent, and it shall be, if any man doth come to thee, and ask of thee, and say, Is there any man here? then thou shalt say, There is not. ²¹ And Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went secretly unto him, and fastened the nail into his temple: and it went through into the ground, and he fainted away, and darkness fell upon him; and he died. ²²And, behold, Barak pursued Sisera: and Jael went out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest: and he went in to her; and, behold, Sisera was fallen dead, and the nail was in his temple. ²³So God routed in that day Jabin king of Canaan before the sons of Israel. ²⁴And the hand of the sons of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had utterly destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 5

Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam in that day, saying,

²A revelation was revealed in Israel, when the people were made willing: bless ye the Lord. ³Hear, O ye kings, and hearken, O rulers, It is I, even I, will sing unto the Lord; it is I, even I, will sing praise to the Lord God of Israel. ⁴O Lord, in Thy going forth upon Seir, when Thou wentest forth out of the land of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped dews, the clouds also dropped water. ⁵The mountains were moved before the face of the Lord Eli, even this Sinai from before the face of the Lord God of Israel. ⁶In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, they forsook the ways, and went in byways; they went in crooked ways. ⁷The mighty men in Israel failed; they failed until that Deborah arose, until that she arose a mother in Israel. ⁸They chose new gods; then the cities of princes fought; there was not a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel. ⁹My heart is with the things that are ordained in Israel: ye that are willing among the people, bless ye the Lord. ¹⁰Ye that mount a she ass at noon day, ye that sit in the judgment seat, and walk by the roads of them that sit in judgment by the way: declare, ¹¹from the sound of them that made music among the drawers of water; there shall they give righteousness unto the Lord, increase righteousness in Israel. Then the people of the Lord went down to the cities. ¹²Awake, awake, Deborah; awake, awake utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam. ¹³Then went down a remnant unto the strong, the people of the Lord went down unto Him with my mighty ones. ¹⁴Ephraim rooted them out in Amalek, after thee was Benjamin, among thy people: the inhabitants of Machir came down with me seeking out the enemy, and from Zebulun came them that wrote the record as a scribe. ¹⁵And the princes in Issachar were with Deborah and Barak; thus sent she Barak on his feet in the valleys, into the divisions of Reuben, there were great pangs, reaching to the heart. ¹⁶Why sat they between the sheepfolds, to hear the bleating of the flocks? in the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of hearts. ¹⁷Gilead is on the other side of Jordan, where he pitched his tents: and why doth Dan remain in ships? Asher sat down on the sea shore, and will abide in his ports. ¹⁸The people of Zebulun jeoparded their soul unto the death, and Naphtali came unto the high places of their land. ¹⁹Kings set themselves in array, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach at the waters of Megiddo; they took no gift of money. ²⁰The stars of heaven set themselves in array; they set themselves to fight with Sisera out of their paths. ²¹The brook of Kison swept them away; the ancient brook, the brook of Kishon: my strong soul shall trample him down. ²²When the horsehoofs were were entangled, his mighty ones earnestly hasted ²³to curse Meroz: Curse ye it, said the angel of the Lord; cursed is every one that dwelleth therein; because they came not to the help of the Lord, to His help among the mighty. ²⁴Blessed among women be Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; let her be blessed above women in tents. ²⁵He asked water, she gave him milk in a dish; she brought butter of princes. ²⁶She stretched forth her left hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; and with it she smote Sisera, she nailed through his head, and smote him; she nailed through his temples. ²⁷He rolled down between her feet; he fell down, and lay between her feet; he bowed and fell: where he bowed, there fell he dead. ²⁸The mother of Sisera looked down through the window out of the loophole, saying, Why was his chariot ashamed? Why tarried the wheels of his chariots? ²⁹Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answers to herself, saying, ³⁰Will not they find him dividing the spoil? He will surely be gracious unto every man: unto Sisera are spoils of dyed garments, spoils of divers dyed garments, dyed embroidered garments; they are the spoils for his neck. ³¹So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: and they that love Him shall be as the going forth of the sun in his strength.

And the land had rest forty years.

CHAPTER 6

And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord gave them into the hand of Midian seven years. ²And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of Midian the sons of Israel made them the caves in the mountains, and the dens, and the holes in the rocks. ³And it came to pass, when the sons of Israel had sown, that Midian and Amalek went up; and the children of the east went up together with them. ⁴And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of them, until they came unto Gaza, and left no support of life in the land of Israel, not even an ox or ass among the herds. ⁵For they came up, and their cattle; and their tents were with them as the locust for multitude; and of them and their camels there was no number: and they came into the land of Israel, and laid it waste. ⁶And Israel was greatly impoverished before the face of Midian: ⁷and the sons of Israel cried unto the Lord before the face of Midian. ⁸And the Lord sent a man, a prophet, unto the sons of Israel; and he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I am He that brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of your bondage. ⁹And I delivered you out of the hand of Egypt, and out of the hand of all that afflicted you, and cast them out before you, and gave you their land. ¹⁰And I said unto you, I am the Lord your God: ye shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye hearkened not unto My voice.

¹¹And there came an angel of the Lord, and sat down under a turpentine tree which was in Ophrah, in the land of Joash the father of Abiezerite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to escape from before the face of Midian. ¹²And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou mighty in strength. ¹³And Gideon said unto him, With me, my Lord; but if the Lord be with us, why have these evils found us? and where be all His wonders which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? and now he hath cast us out, and given us into the hand of Midian. ¹⁴And the angel of the Lord turned to him, and said, Go in this thy strength, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of Midian: behold, I have sent thee. ¹⁵And Gideon said unto him, With me, my Lord; whereby shall I save Israel? behold, my thousand is weakened in Israel, and I am the least in my father's house. ¹⁶And the angel of the Lord said unto him, The Lord shall be with thee, and thou shalt smite Midian as one man. ¹⁷And Gideon said unto him, If now I have found mercy in thine eyes, and thou wilt do this day for me all that thou hast spoken with me, ¹⁸depart not hence until I come unto thee, and I will bring forth an offering, and offer it before thee: and he said, I will tarry until thou come again. ¹⁹And Gideon went, and made ready a kid of the goats, and an ephah of fine flour unleavened: and the flesh he put in the basket, and he poured the broth into the pot, and brought them out unto him under the turpentine tree, and drew nigh. ²⁰And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and put them upon that rock, and pour out the broth close by: and he did so. ²¹And the angel of the Lord stretched forth the end of the rod that was in his hand; and there came up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the Lord vanished out of his sight. ²²And Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord; and Gideon said, Ah, ah, O Lord my God! for because I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face. ²³And the Lord said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not; thou shalt not die. ²⁴Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it Peace of the Lord, unto this day, as it is yet in Ophrah of the father of Ezri.

²⁵And it came to pass the same night, that the Lord said unto him, Take the young bullock which thy father hath, even the second bullock of seven years old; and thou shalt destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and the grove that is by it shalt thou destroy. ²⁶And thou shalt build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this Maozi, in the ordered place; and thou shalt take the second bullock, and thou shalt offer whole burnt offerings with the wood of the grove which thou shalt destroy. ²⁷And Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord spake unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, if he should do it by day, that he did it by night. ²⁸And the men of the city arose early in the morning; and, behold, the altar of Baal was thrown down, and the grove was destroyed that was by it; and they saw the second bullock, which Gideon offered upon the altar that was built. ²⁹And a man said unto his neighbour, Who hath done this thing? and they enquired, and searched, and learnt that Gideon the son of Joash had done this thing. ³⁰And the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, and let him die, because he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and because he hath destroyed the grove that is by it. ³¹And Gideon the son of Joash said unto all the men that rose up against him, Do ye now plead for Baal, or will ye save him? Whosoever will plead for him, let him be put to death this morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath thrown down his altar. ³²And in that day he called it Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead thereby, because his altar hath been thrown down. ³³And all Midian and Amalek and the children of the east gathered themselves together, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. ³⁴And the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew with the horn; and Abi-ezer came to help after him. ³⁵And Gideon sent messengers unto all Manasseh, and into Asher, and into Zebulun, and into Naphtali; and he went up to meet them. ³⁶And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, ³⁷behold, I put the fleece of wool in the threshing floor; if there be dew on the fleece only, and drought upon all the earth, then shall I know that Thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as Thou hast said. ³⁸And it was so: and he rose up early in the morning, and wringed the fleece, and dew dropped from the fleece, a bowl full of water. ³⁹And Gideon said unto God, Let not Thine anger be kindled with me, and I will speak but once: I will even yet make one trial more with the fleece; let now the drought be upon the fleece only, and upon all the ground let there be dew. ⁴⁰And God did so in that night: and there was drought upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER 7

And Jerubbaal rose up early, (the same is Gideon,) and all the people with him, and pitched at the fountain of Harod: and the camp of Midian was to the north of him, from Gabaath Moreh, in the valley. ²And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people with thee are many, so that I may not deliver Midian into their hand, lest at any time Israel boast against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. ³And now, speak in the ears of the people, saying, Who is afraid and fearful? Let him return and depart from mount Gilead: and there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. ⁴And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people is yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will purge them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, even he shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, even he shall not go with thee. ⁵So he brought down the people unto the water: and the Lord said unto Gideon, Whosoever lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set apart; and likewise whosoever boweth down upon his knees to drink. ⁶And the number of them that lapped, with their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: and all the rest of the people bowed upon their knees to drink water. ⁷And the Lord said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and give Midian into thine hand: and all the other people shall go every man unto his place. ⁸And they took the provision of the people in their hand, and their horns: and he sent away every man of Israel each unto his tent, and strengthened the three hundred: and the army of Midian was beneath him in the valley. ⁹And it came to pass in that night, that the Lord said unto him, Arise, get thee down into the camp; for I have delivered it into thine hand. ¹⁰And if thou fear to go down, go thou with thy servant Phurah down into the camp. ¹¹And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hand be strong, and thou shalt go down into the camp: and he went down, and Phurah his servant, unto the outside of the fifty that were in the camp. ¹²And Midian and Amalek and all the children of the east were scattered in the valley as the locust for multitude; and there was no number to their camels, but they were as the sand on the sea shore for multitude. ¹³And Gideon came, and, behold, a man told a dream unto his neighbour, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread rolled into the camp of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it, and it fell, and it overturned, and the tent fell. ¹⁴And his neighbour answered and said, This is none other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joas, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host. ¹⁵And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped the Lord, and returned unto the camp of Israel, and said, Arise; for the Lord hath delivered into our hand the camp of Midian. ¹⁶And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put horns into the hand of all, and empty pitchers, and torches with the pitchers. ¹⁷And he said unto them, Ye shall look at me, and so shall ye do; and, behold, I will go into the beginning of the host; and as I do so, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do. ¹⁸And I will sound with the horn, and all ye that are with me shall sound with the horn round about all the camp, and say, For the Lord, and Gideon. ¹⁹And Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the army in the beginning of the middle watch; and they utterly roused the guards, and sounded with the horns, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands: ²⁰and the three companies sounded with the horns, and brake the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and their horns in their right hands to sound withal: and they cried out, A sword for the Lord, and for Gideon. ²¹And they stood every man in his place round about the host: and all the host ran, and sounded an alarm, and fled. ²²And they sounded with the three hundred horns, and the Lord set every man's sword against his neighbour, even in all the host. ²³And the host fled to Beth-shittah Zererath, unto the border of Abel-meholah, even unto Tabbath. And the men of Israel out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, came to help, and followed after Midian. ²⁴And Gideon sent messengers into all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down to meet Midian, and take unto you the water unto Beth-barah and Jordan: and every man of Ephraim cried out, and took the water before them unto Beth-barah and Jordan. ²⁵And they took the princes of Midian, even Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb in Zur, and Zeeb they slew in Jakeph-zeph, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from the other side Jordan.

CHAPTER 8

And the men of Ephraim said unto Gideon, What is this that thou hast done unto us, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with Midian? And they did chide with him sharply. ²And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparision of you? is not the gleaning of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer? ³The Lord hath delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparision of you? Then was their spirit abated toward him, when he spake this word.

⁴And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, hungry, yet pursuing them. ⁵And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, bread to feed this people that follow me; for they be faint, and, behold, I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunnah, kings of Midian. ⁶And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunnah now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army? ⁷And Gideon said, Therefore when the Lord giveth Zebah and Zalmunnah into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and the Barkenim. ⁸And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him. ⁹And Gideon said unto the men of Penuel, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower. ¹⁰And Zebah and Zalmunnah were in Karkor, and their host was with them, about fifteen thousand, all that were left of all the host of the strangers: and they that fell were and hundred and twenty thousand men that drew the sword. ¹¹And Gideon went up by way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host; and the host was secure. ¹²And Zebah and Zalmunnah fled, and he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunnah, and discomfited all the host. ¹³And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle, down from the battle of Ares. ¹⁴And he took prisoner a young lad of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he wrote unto him the names of the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men. ¹⁵And Gideon came unto the princes of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunnah, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunnah now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are faint? ¹⁶And he took the elders of the city with the thorns of the wilderness and the Barkenim, and with them he tore the men of the city. ¹⁷And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city. ¹⁸And he said unto Zebah and Zalmunnah, Where are the men whom ye slew in Tabor? and they said, As thou, so were they, according to the likeness of the son of a king. ¹⁹And Gideon said, They were my brethren, and the sons of my mother: as the Lord liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not have slain you. ²⁰And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them: but the lad drew not his sword, for he feared; for he was yet very young. ²¹And Zebah and Zalmunnah said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for thy strength is that of a man: and Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunnah, and took away the round ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

²²And the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou, my lord, over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son: for thou hast saved us out of the hand of Midian. ²³And Gideon said, I will not rule, and my son shall not rule among you: the Lord shall rule over you. ²⁴And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you; and do ye give me every man an earring out of his spoils: for they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites. ²⁵And they said, We will certainly give them: and he opened his garment, and each man did cast therein an earring of his spoils. ²⁶And the weight of the golden earrings that he asked was a thousand and seven hundred pieces of gold, beside the round ornaments, and the chains, and the garments, and the purple cloths that were upon the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were on their camels' necks. ²⁷And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: and it became a stumblingblock to Gideon and his house. ²⁸And Midian was straitened before the sons of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more: and the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. ²⁹And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and sat in his own house. ³⁰And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives. ³¹And his concubine was in Shechem, and she also bare him a son, and gave him the name Ahimelech. ³²And Gideon the son of Joash died in his city, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of Abiezri.

³³And it came to pass, when Gideon was dead, that the sons of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made them a covenant with Baal, that he should be their god. ³⁴And the sons of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all them that had afflicted them round about. ³⁵And they did not deal mercifully with the house of Jerubbaal, (the same is Gideon,) according to all the good which he did unto Israel.

CHAPTER 9

And Ahimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, ²Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, saying, Which is better for you, either that threescore and ten men, even all the sons of Jerubbaal, reign over you, or that one man reign over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh. ³And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts turned after Ahimelech; for they said, He is our brother. ⁴And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith: and Ahimelech hired him vain and fainthearted men; and they followed him. ⁵And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. ⁶And all the men of Shechem were gathered together, and all the house of Beth-millo; and they went and made Ahimelech king by the oak of Sedition, which was at Shechem.

⁷And it was told to Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and wept, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, and God shall hearken unto you. ⁸The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us. ⁹But the olive tree said unto them, Shall I leave my fatness, wherewith men shall glorify God, and to be promoted over the trees? ¹⁰And the trees said unto the fig tree, Come thou, reign over us. ¹¹But the fig tree said unto them, Shall I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruits, and go to be promoted over the trees? ¹²And the trees said unto the vine, Come thou, reign over us. ¹³And the vine said unto them, Shall I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? ¹⁴Then all the trees said unto the bramble, Come thou, reign over us. ¹⁵And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me to reign over you, then come, stand under my shadow: and if not, let fire come from me, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. ¹⁶Now therefore, if ye have done it in truth and integrity, and have made Ahimelech king, and if ye have done well with Jerubbaal, and with his house, and have done unto him according to the reward of his hand; (¹⁷as my father fought for you, and put his life in jeopardy, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;) ¹⁸and ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, being threescore and ten men, upon one stone, and have made Ahimelech the son of his bondwoman king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother; ¹⁹if ye then have done truly and faithfully with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Ahimelech, and let him also rejoice over you: ²⁰but if not, let fire come out from Ahimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Beth-millo, and devour Ahimelech. ²¹And Jotham fled, and ran away, and went unto Beer, and dwelt there, out of the way of Ahimelech.

²²And Ahimelech reigned three years over Israel. ²³And God sent an evil spirit between Ahimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with the house of Ahimelech: ²⁴to bring the injury done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal, and to lay their blood upon Ahimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, because they strengthened his hands to slay his brethren. ²⁵And the men of Shechem set liers in wait against him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed every one that passed by them on the way: and it was told king Ahimelech. ²⁶And Gaal the son of Ebed came, and his brethren, and passed by Shechem; and the men of Shechem trusted in him. ²⁷And they went out into the field, and gathered their grapes, and trod them, and made merry; and they brought the grapes into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Ahimelech. ²⁸And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Ahimelech, and who is the son of Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his steward, his servant with the son of Hamor, the father of Shechem? and why should we serve him? ²⁹And would that this people were under my hand! Then would I remove Ahimelech, and say unto him, Multiply thy host, and come out. ³⁰And Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, and he was exceeding angry. ³¹And he sent messengers unto Ahimelech privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they have laid siege to the city against thee. ³²And now rise up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field: ³³and it shall be, that in the morning, at the sunrising, thou shalt rise early, and draw toward the city: and, behold, he and the people that is with him will come out against thee, and thou shalt do to him whatsoever thine hand shall find. ³⁴And Ahimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. ³⁵And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in at the entering of the gate of the city: and Ahimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait. ³⁶And Gaal the son of Ebed saw the people, and said unto Zebul, Behold, there cometh down a people from the tops of the mountains: and Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as men. ³⁷And Gaal spake yet more, and said, See there cometh a people down westward from the part that bordereth on the middle of the land, and another company cometh by the way of mount Meonenim. ³⁸And Zebul said unto him, And where is thy mouth, as thou saidst, Who is Ahimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou despisest? Go out now, and set the battle in array against him. ³⁹And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and set the battle in array against Ahimelech. ⁴⁰And Ahimelech chased him, and Gaal fled from before him; and many fell down slain, even unto the entering in of the gate. ⁴¹And Ahimelech entered into Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem. ⁴²And it came to pass on the second day, that the people went out into the field: and one brought word to Ahimelech. ⁴³And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people went forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them. ⁴⁴And Ahimelech, and the captains of companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies rushed forward upon all them that were in the field, and smote them. ⁴⁵And Ahimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew all the people that were therein, and destroyed the city, and sowed it with salt. ⁴⁶And all the men of the tower of Shechem heard, and came unto the gathering of Bethel-berith. ⁴⁷And it was told Ahimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. ⁴⁸And Ahimelech gat him up to the mount of Zalmon, and all the people that were with him; and Ahimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough of a tree, and took it, and laid it on his shoulders, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye see me do, do quickly as I. ⁴⁹And they likewise cut down every man a bough, and went after Ahimelech, and laid them against the place of gathering, and burnt the place of gathering over them with fire; and they died, even all the men of the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰And Ahimelech went out of Bethel-berith, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. ⁵¹And there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women of the city, and shut the door without them, and gat them up on to the roof of the tower. ⁵²And Ahimelech drew near unto the tower, and they laid siege to it; and Ahimelech drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. ⁵³And a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Ahimelech's head, and all to brake his skull. ⁵⁴And he cried out hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, lest at any time they say, A woman slew him: and his young man thrust him through, and he died. ⁵⁵And the men of Israel saw that Ahimelech was dead, and they went each unto his place. ⁵⁶Thus God rendered the wickedness of Ahimelech, which he wrought against his father, in slaying his seventy brethren. ⁵⁷And all the wickedness of the men of Shechem did God render upon their head: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

CHAPTER 10

And after Ahimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of his father's brother, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim. ²And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

³And after him arose Jair of Gilead, and judged Israel twenty and two years. ⁴And he had thirty and two sons that rode on thirty and two colts, and they had thirty and two cities; and they called them Jair's towns unto this day in the land of Gilead. ⁵And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

⁶And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord, and served the Baalim, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the Lord, and served not Him. ⁷And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and He sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon. ⁸And they afflicted and bruised the sons of Israel at that time eighteen years, all the sons of Israel that were beyond Jordan the land of the Amorite in Gilead. ⁹Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight with Judah, and with Benjamin, and with Ephraim; and the sons of Israel were sore afflicted. ¹⁰And the sons of Israel cried unto the Lord, saying, We have sinned against Thee, because we have forsaken God, and served the Baalim. ¹¹And the Lord said unto the sons of Israel, Did I not save you from Egypt, and from the Amorite, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, ¹²and from the Zidonians, and from Amalek, and from Midian, which afflicted you?: and ye cried unto Me, and I saved you out of their hand. ¹³Yet ye have forsaken Me, and served other gods: wherefore I save you no more. ¹⁴Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen unto you, and let them save you in the time of your tribulation. ¹⁵And the sons of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned: do Thou unto us according to all that is good in Thine eyes; deliver us only this day. ¹⁶And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord only: and His soul was pained for the trouble of Israel.

¹⁷And the children of Ammon went up, and encamped in Gilead: and the sons of Israel were assembled together, and encamped on the hill. ¹⁸And the people the princes of Gilead said every man unto his neighbour, Who is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all that dwell in Gilead.

CHAPTER 11

And Jephthah the Gileadite was exalted in might, and he was the son of an harlot, which bare Jephthah to Gilead. ²And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they cast out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a concubine. ³And Jephthah fled from the face of his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him. ⁴And it came to pass, when the sons of Ammon prepared to fight with Israel, ⁵that the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob. ⁶And they said, Come, and be our captain, and we will fight with the sons of Ammon. ⁷And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did ye not hate me, and cast me out of my father's house, and banish me from you? and why are ye come unto me now when ye want me? ⁸And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore have we now turned unto thee, that thou shouldest go with us, and fight against the sons of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead. ⁹And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye turn me back to fight with the sons of Ammon, and the Lord deliver them before me, then will I be your head. ¹⁰And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The Lord be witness between us, if we do not according to thy word. ¹¹And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and ruler over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the Lord in Mizpeh.

¹²And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, What have to do with thee, that thou art come against me to fight in my land? ¹³And the king of the sons of Ammon said unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when he went up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now then, return them peaceably, and I will depart. ¹⁴And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the sons of Ammon, ¹⁵and said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, Israel took away not the land of Moab, nor the land of the sons of Ammon: ¹⁶for in their going up out of Egypt, Israel went in the wilderness unto the sea of Ziph, and came unto Kadesh. ¹⁷And Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, I will pass, if it please thee, by thy land; but the king of Edom did not hearken thereto: and they sent also unto the king of Moab, but he would not consent: and Israel sojourned in Kadesh. ¹⁸And they journeyed in the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east of the land of Moab, and pitched in the country beyond Arnon, and came not within the borders of Moab: for Arnon is the border of Moab. ¹⁹And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorite, king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, by thy land into our place. ²⁰And Sihon trusted not Israel to pass by his coast; and Sihon gathered all his people together, and they pitched in Jahaz, and he set the battle in array against Israel. ²¹And the Lord God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote him: and Israel inherited all the land of the Amorite which dwelt in that land, ²²from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan. ²³And now the Lord God of Israel hath removed the Amorite from before His people Israel, and shalt thou inherit it? ²⁴Wilt thou not inherit those possessions which Chemosh thy god causeth thee to inherit; and shall we not inherit the land of all whom the Lord our God hath removed from before you? ²⁵And now art thou any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he indeed fight with Israel, or indeed make war with him, ²⁶when Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her coasts, and in the land of Aroer and her coasts, and in all the cities by Jordan, three hundred years? And why therefore didst thou not recover them within that time? ²⁷And now I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong in preparing war against me: let the Lord the Judge be judge this day between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon. ²⁸Howbeit the king of the sons of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

²⁹And the Spirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed by the watch tower of Gilead unto the other side of the sons of Ammon. ³⁰And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If Thou wilt indeed deliver the sons of Ammon into mine hand, ³¹then it shall be, that whosoever first cometh out of the door of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, he shall be the Lord's: I will offer him up for an whole burnt offering. ³²And Jephthah went forward to meet the sons of Ammon to fight against them; and the Lord delivered them into his hand. ³³And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Arnon, even twenty cities, and unto Minnith, with a very great destruction: and the sons of Ammon were straitened before the sons of Israel.

³⁴And Jephthah came to Mizpah unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; he had not another son or daughter. ³⁵And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Ah, ah, my daughter! thou hast indeed troubled me, and thou wast the cause of my trouble: and I have opened my mouth against thee unto the Lord, and I shall not be able to go back from it. ³⁶And she said unto him, Father, hast thou opened thy mouth unto the Lord? do to me according as the word went out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the Lord hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies of the sons of Ammon. ³⁷And she said unto her father, Let my father now do this thing: let me alone for two months, and I will go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions. ³⁸And he said, Go: and he sent her away for two months: and she went, and her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. ³⁹And it came to pass at the end of the two months, that she returned unto her father; and he performed upon her his vow which he vowed: and she knew no man: ⁴⁰and it was an ordinance in Israel, that the daughters of Israel went yearly to bewail the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

CHAPTER 12

And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and passed on northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight with the sons of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thy house over thee with fire. ²And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people and the sons of Ammon were at much great strife; and I called for you, and ye saved me not out of their hand. ³And I saw that ye were no helper, and I put my life in my hand, and passed on to the sons of Ammon; and the Lord delivered them into my hand: and wherefore are ye come up against me this day, to fight with me? ⁴And Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they that were escaped of Ephraim said, Ye are of Gilead in the midst of Ephraim, and in the midst of Manasseh. ⁵And Gilead took the fords of Jordan before Ephraim; and they that escaped of Ephraim said unto them, Let us go over; and the men of Gilead said, Art thou an Ephraimite?, and he said, Nay. ⁶Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth; and he did not frame to pronounce it right: and they took him, and slew him at the fords of Jordan: and there fell at that time of Ephraim forty and two thousand. ⁷And Jephthah judged Israel six years; and Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his city Gilead.

⁸And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. ⁹And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad, and brought in thirty daughters from without for his sons: and he judged Israel seven years. ¹⁰Then died Ibzan, and was buried in Bethlehem. ¹¹And after him Elon of Zebulun judged Israel ten years. ¹²And Elon of Zebulun died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. ¹³And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged Israel. ¹⁴And he had forty sons, and thirty grandsons, that rode on threescore and ten colts: and he judged Israel eight years. ¹⁵And Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of Amalek.

CHAPTER 13

And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord; and the Lord delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. ²And there was a man of Zorah, of the family of the kindred of Dan, and his name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not. ³And an angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold, thou art barren, and hast not borne; yet thou shalt conceive a son. ⁴Now therefore beware, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing; ⁵for, lo, thou art with child, and shalt bring forth a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazirite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. ⁶And the woman went in, and spake unto her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his appearance was as of an angel of God, very terrible: and I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name: ⁷and he said unto me, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bring forth a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be holy to God from the womb to the day of his death. ⁸And Manoah prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray Thee, O Lord Adonai, the man of God which thou didst send, let him come now once more unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. ⁹And the Lord hearkened unto the voice of Manoah; and the angel of the Lord came yet again unto the woman; and she sat in the field, and Manoah her husband was not with her. ¹⁰And the woman made haste, and ran, and brought word unto her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day. ¹¹And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? and the angel said, I am. ¹²And Manoah said, Now shall thy word come to pass; what shall be the ordering of the child, and our dealings with him? ¹³And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Of all things concerning which I spake unto the woman, she shall beware. ¹⁴She shall eat of nothing that cometh of the vine that yieldeth wine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean: all things that I have commanded her, she shall observe. ¹⁵And Manoah said unto the angel of the Lord, Let us detain thee here, and make ready a kid of the goats for thee. ¹⁶And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, If thou shouldest detain me, I will not eat of thy bread; and if thou wouldest offer an whole burnt offering, thou shalt offer it unto the Lord: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the Lord. ¹⁷And Manoah said unto the angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy word cometh to pass, we may glorify thee? ¹⁸And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou after my name, seeing it is Wonderful? ¹⁹And Manoah took a kid of the goats, and the meat offering thereof, and offered it upon the rock unto the Lord: and the angel did a wondrous work, and Manoah and his wife looked on. ²⁰For it came to pass, when the flame went up above the altar toward heaven, that the angel of the Lord ascended in the flame; and Manoah and his wife looked, and they fell on their faces to the ground. ²¹And the angel appeared no more to Manoah and to his wife: then Manoah knew that this was an angel of the Lord. ²²And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God. ²³But his wife said, If the Lord were pleased to kill us, He would not have received an whole burnt offering of our hand, neither would He have shewed us these things, nor would have caused us to hear all these things as at this time. ²⁴And the woman brought forth a son, and called his name Samson; and the child grew, and the Lord blessed him. ²⁵And the Spirit of the Lord began to go out with him in the camp of Dan, and between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines. ²And he went up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: and now take her to me for wife. ³And his father and his mother said, Are there no daughters of thy brethren, and is there not a woman of all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Take her for me; for she is right in my eyes. ⁴And his father and his mother knew not that it was of the Lord, that he sought occasion to be avenged on the Philistines: and at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel. ⁵And Samson, and his father and his mother, went down to Timnath, and he came to the vineyard of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him. ⁶And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he crushed him as he would a kid of the goats, and there was nothing in his hands: and he told not his father and his mother what he had done. ⁷And they went down, and spake unto the woman; and she was pleasing in the eyes of Samson. ⁸And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the mouth of the lion. ⁹And he took it into his hands, and went on eating, and went to his father and mother, and gave them, and they did eat: but he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁰So his father went down unto the woman, and Samson made there a feast for seven days; for so the young men are used to do. ¹¹And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they took thirty guests, and they were with him. ¹²And Samson said unto them, I put forth a riddle unto you: if ye will indeed tell it me, and find it out, within the seven days of this feast, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty changes of garments. ¹³And if ye cannot tell it me, ye shall give me thirty napkins and thirty changes of garments: and they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, and we will hear it. ¹⁴And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness: and they could not in three days expound the riddle. ¹⁵And it came to pass on the fourth day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Deceive now thy husband, and let him tell thee the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye invited us to do us violence? ¹⁶And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: for the riddle which thou hast put forth unto the children of my people, thou hast not told it me. And Samson said unto her, If I have not told it my father and my mother, shall I tell it thee? ¹⁷And she wept before him the seven days, in which their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she vexed him: and she told it to the children of her people. ¹⁸And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day, before sunrising, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And Samson said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye would not have known my riddle. ¹⁹And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he went down to Askalon, and destroyed thirty men of the inhabitants, and took their garments, and gave the changes of raiment unto them which told the riddle. And Samson was exceeding angry, and he went up to his father's house. ²⁰And Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

CHAPTER 15

And it came to pass after some days, in the days of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats; and he said, I will go in to my wife, into the chamber: but her father did not suffer him to go in. ²And her father spake, saying, I said that thou didst surely hate her, and I gave her to one of thy friends: is not her younger sister better than she? let her be unto thee instead of her. ³And Samson said unto them, Now for once am I guiltless regarding the Philistines, in that I do mischief among them. ⁴And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch between two tails, and fastened it. ⁵And he set fire to the torches, and sent the foxes into the corn of the Philistines; and every thing was burnt, from the threshing floor unto the standing corn, and even unto the vineyard and olive. ⁶And the Philistines said, Who hath done these things? and they said, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he hath taken his wife, and given her to one of his friends. And the Philistines went up, and burnt her and her father's house with fire. ⁷And Samson said, Though ye have dealt thus with her, verily I will be avenged of you; and afterward I will cease. ⁸And he smote them leg on thigh with a great overthrow: and he went down and dwelt in a cave of the rock Etam.

⁹And the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves abroad in Lehi. ¹⁰And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And the Philistines said, To bind Samson are we come up, and to do to him as he hath done to us. ¹¹And the three thousand men of Judah went down to the hole of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines rule over us? and what is this that thou hast done unto us?; and Samson said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. ¹²And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, to deliver thee into the hands of the Philistines: and Samson said, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. ¹³And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will only bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand, and will by no means slay thee: and they bound him with two new cords, and brought him from the rock. ¹⁴And they came unto Lehi, and the Philistines shouted, and ran to meet him: and the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax which is burnt with fire, and his bands were consumed from off his hands. ¹⁵And he found the jawbone of an ass, that had been cast away; and he put forth his hand, and took it, and smote a thousand men therewith. ¹⁶And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass have I destroyed them utterly, for with the jawbone of an ass have I smitten a thousand men. ¹⁷And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place the Lifting of the Jawbone. ¹⁸And he was sore athirst, and wept before the Lord, and said, Thou hast been well pleased to grant this great deliverance by the hand of Thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? ¹⁹And God brake open an hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout, and he drank; and his spirit came again, and he revived; wherefore the name of the fountain was called The well of the Caller, which is in Lehi unto this day. ²⁰And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

And Samson went to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. ²And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither: and they compassed him, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, Let us wait until the sunrising appear, and we shall kill him. ³And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city, with the two posts, and lifted them up with the bar, and laid them upon his shoulders, and went up to the top of the mount that is before Hebron, and laid them there.

⁴And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in Al-sorek, and her name was Delilah. ⁵And the princes of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Beguile him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and wherewith we shall prevail against him, and bind him to humble him: and we will give thee each man eleven hundred pieces of silver. ⁶And Delilah said unto Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou shalt be bound, that thou mayest be humbled. ⁷And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven moist cords that have not been spoiled, then shall I be weak, and as another man. ⁸And the princes of the Philistines brought her seven moist cords that had not been spoiled, and she bound him with them. ⁹And the liers in wait abode with her in her chamber; and she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: and he brake the cords, as if one should break a thread of tow when it hath touched the fire; and his strength was not known. ¹⁰And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast cheated me, and told me lies; now then, tell me wherewith thou shalt be bound. ¹¹And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes wherewith work hath never been done, then shall I be weak, and shall be as another man. ¹²And Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and the liers in wait came out of the chamber; and she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: and he brake them from off his arms like a thread. ¹³And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast deceived me, and told me lies: tell me, I entreat thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weave the seven locks of my head with the web, and fasten them with the pin into the wall, then shall I be weak as another man. ¹⁴And it came to pass when he was asleep, that Delilah took the seven locks of his head, and fastened them with the pin into the wall, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: and he awaked out of his sleep, and carried away the pin of the web out of the wall. ¹⁵And Delilah said unto Samson, How sayest thou, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? This third time hast thou deceived me, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. ¹⁶And it came to pass, when she pressed him sore with her words continually, and straitened him, that his spirit failed almost unto death. ¹⁷Then he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not a razor come upon mine head; for I have been an holy one of God from my mother's womb: if then I be shaven, my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like all other men. ¹⁸And Delilah saw that he told her all his heart, and she sent and called for the princes of the Philistines, saying, Come up yet this once; for he hath told me all his heart. And the chiefs of the Philistines went up to her, and brought the money in their hands. ¹⁹And Delilah made Samson sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and he shaved the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength departed from him. ²⁰And Delilah said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: and he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at former times, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord had departed from him. ²¹And the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

²²And the hair of his head began to grow as before it was shaven. ²³And the princes of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their God, and to make merry: and they said, God hath given Samson our enemy into our hand. ²⁴And the people saw him, and sang praises unto their God: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, who wasted our land, and multiplied our slain. ²⁵And when their heart was merry, then they said, Call for Samson out of the prison house, and let him make sport before us: and they called for Samson out of the prison house, and he made sport for them; and they smote him with the palms of their hands, and set him between the pillars. ²⁶And Samson said unto the young man that held his hand, Suffer me to feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, and I will stay myself upon them. ²⁷And the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld the sports of Samson. ²⁸And Samson wept before the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, remember me, I pray Thee, and strengthen me, yet this once, O God, and I will requite one recompense to the Philistines for my two eyes. ²⁹And Samson took hold of the two pillars of the house, upon which the house stood, and leaned upon them, and laid hold of one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. ³⁰And Samson said, Let my life perish with the Philistines: and he bowed himself mightily; and the house fell upon the princes, and upon all the people that were in it: and the dead which Samson slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life. ³¹And his brethren and his father's house went down, and took him; and they went up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father: and he judged Israel twenty years.

CHAPTER 17

And there was a man of mount Ephraim, and his name was Micah.
²And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred pieces of silver which thou tookest unto thyself, and about which thou cursedst me, and spakest of in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it: and his mother said, Blessed be my son of the Lord. ³And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the Lord from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image: and now I will restore it unto thee. ⁴Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to a founder, and he made thereof a graven and a molten image; and it was in the house of Micah. ⁵And the house of Micah was to him the house of God; and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, and he became a priest to him. ⁶And in those days there was no king in Israel; every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

⁷And there was a young man in Bethlehem of the tribe of Judah; and he was a Levite, and he sojourned there. ⁸And the man departed out of Bethlehem the city of Judah to sojourn in whatsoever place he might find; and he came unto mount Ephraim, and to the house of Micah, to accomplish his journey. ⁹And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? and he said unto him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-judah, and I go to sojourn in any place that I can find. ¹⁰And Micah said, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten pieces of silver by the year, and a change of apparel, and thy living. ¹¹And the Levite went, and began to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons. ¹²And Micah consecrated the Levite, and he became unto him a priest, and was in the house of Micah. ¹³And Micah said, Now know I that the Lord will do me good, because a Levite is become my priest.

CHAPTER 18

In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day no inheritance had fallen unto them among the tribes of the sons of Israel. ²And the sons of Dan sent of their families five men of valour, from Zorak, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, and search the land. And they came unto the mount of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they lodged there, ³in the house of Micah; and they recognised the voice of the young man the Levite, and turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee in hither? and what doest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? ⁴And he said unto them, Thus and thus hath Micah dealt with me, and hath hired me, and I am become his priest. ⁵And they said Enquire now of God, and we shall know whether our way which we go will prosper. ⁶And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the Lord is your way wherein ye go. ⁷And the five men went on, and came unto Laish, and saw the people that were in the midst thereof, dwelling securely at ease, as is the manner of the Zidonians; and there is none that perverteth or shameth a matter in the land, no heir extorting treasures; and they are far from the Zidonians, and they have no business with any man. ⁸And the five men came unto their brethren to Zorak and Eshtaol, and said unto their brethren, Why sit ye here idle? ⁹And they said, Arise, and let us go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: yet ye are still: delay not to go, and to enter in to possess the land. ¹⁰And whensoever ye go, ye shall come in upon a people secure, and the land is large: for God hath given it into your hand; a place where there is no want of any thing that the earth affordeth.

¹¹And there went from thence of the families of Dan, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war. ¹²And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim in Judah: wherefore it was called in that place the camp of Dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim. ¹³And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah. ¹⁴Then the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish answered and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in this place an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? and now consider what ye shall do. ¹⁵And they turned aside there, and went into the house of the young man the Levite, even into the house of Micah, and asked him how he fared as to peace. ¹⁶And the six hundred men of the sons of Dan, which were appointed with their weapons of war, stood by the entering in of the gate. ¹⁷And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and entered into the house of Micah; and the priest stood. ¹⁸And they took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image; and the priest said unto them, What do ye? ¹⁹And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be the priest of the house of one man, or to be the priest of a tribe and an house for a family of Israel? ²⁰And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and the molten image, and went in the midst of the people. ²¹So they turned and departed, and put their children and their substance and their baggage before them. ²²They went a good way from the house of Micah; and, behold, Micah and the men that were in the houses near to Micah' house cried out, and overtook the sons of Dan. ²³And the sons of Dan turned their face, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou hast cried out? ²⁴And Micah said, Because ye have taken away my graven image which I made, and my priest, and ye are gone away; and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee? ²⁵And the sons of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard with us, lest angry men run upon thee, and take away thy life, and the lives of thine household. ²⁶And the sons of Dan went their way: and Micah saw that they were stronger than he, and he went back unto his house. ²⁷And the sons of Dan took what Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and they came to Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. ²⁸And there was no deliverer, because the city is far from the Zidonians, and they have no business with men; and it is in the valley of the house of Rehob; and they built the city, and dwelt therein. ²⁹And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel; and the name of the city was Laish before. ³⁰And the sons of Dan set them up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the carrying away of the land. ³¹And they set them up the graven image which Micah made, all the days that the house of God was in Shiloh; and it was so in those days that there was no king in Israel.

CHAPTER 19

And there was a man a Levite sojourning in the sides of mount Ephraim; and he took him a concubine out of Bethlehem-judah. ²And his concubine departed from him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Bethlehem-judah, and was there four months. ³And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly unto her, to recover her to him; and he had his young man with him, and a pair of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and the father of the damsel saw him, and was well pleased to meet him. ⁴And his father in law, the damsel's father, constrained him; and he staid with him three days: and they did eat and drink, and lodged there. ⁵And it came to pass on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he stood up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, Strengthen thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward ye shall go. ⁶So they two sat down together, and did eat and drink: and the damsel's father said unto her husband, Tarry now the night, and let thine heart be merry. ⁷And the man rose up to depart; but his father in law constrained him, and he staid and lodged there. ⁸And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Strengthen now thine heart, and quit thyself as a soldier until the day decline. ⁹And the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his young man; but his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold now, the day hath declined toward evening; lodge here, and let thine heart rejoice: and ye shall arise to morrow for your journey, and thou shalt go unto thy habitation. ¹⁰But the man would not lodge there, but he rose up and departed, and came to the part over against Jebus, (this is Jerusalem,) and there was with him a pair of asses saddled, and his concubine also was with him. ¹¹And they came unto Jebus: and the day was far spent; and the young man said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn aside into this city of the

Jebusites, and lodge in it. ¹²And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside into a strange city, where there is not one of the sons of Israel; but we will pass on as far as Gibeah. ¹³And he said unto his young man, Come, and let us draw near to one of the places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah. ¹⁴And they passed by, and went on; and the sun went down upon them near to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin. ¹⁵And they turned aside thither, to go in and lodge in Gibeah: and they went in, and sat down in the street of the city: and there was no man that led them into a house to lodge. ¹⁶And, behold, there came an old man from his work at even; and the man was of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah; and the men of the city were sons of Benjamin. ¹⁷And he lifted up his eyes, and saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city; and the old man said unto him, Whither goest thou, and whence comest thou? ¹⁸And he said unto him, We are passing from Bethlehem-judah toward the sides of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went as far as Bethlehem-judah, and I am now going home, and there is no man to take me into his house. ¹⁹Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses, and bread and wine for me and mine handmaid, and the young man with thy servants: there is no want of any thing. ²⁰And the old man said, Peace be unto thee; only be every want of thine upon me; only lodge not in the street. ²¹And he brought him into his house, and made room for his asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink. ²²And they were comforting their heart, when, behold, the men of the city, sons of transgressors, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the old man, the owner of the house, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. ²³And the master of the house came out unto them, and said, Nay, my brethren, do not ye wrong, I pray you, after this man hath come into mine house; do not this folly. ²⁴Behold, my daughter, a maiden, and the man's concubine: them will I bring out, and humble ye them, and do with them what is good in your eyes: but unto this man do not this folly. ²⁵But the men would not consent to hearken unto him: so the man laid hold of his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all night until the morning: and when the morning dawned, they let her go. ²⁶Then came the woman toward the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the house where her husband was, till it was light. ²⁷And her husband rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go on his journey: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the doors of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. ²⁸And he said unto her, Rise up, and let us be going; and she answered not, for she was dead: and he took her up upon his ass, and gat him unto his place. ²⁹And he took his sword, and laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve parts, and sent them into every coast of Israel. ³⁰And it was so, that every one which saw it said, Such as this hath not happened nor hath been seen from the day of the going up of the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt unto this day: take ye counsel concerning it, and speak.

CHAPTER 20

And all the sons of Israel went out, and all the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and in the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in Mizpeh. ²And all the tribes of Israel stood before the Lord in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword. ³And the sons of Benjamin heard that the people of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh; and the sons of Israel came and said, Tell us, where did this wickedness take place? ⁴And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah of Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. ⁵And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about against me by night; they wished to slay me: and my concubine they humbled, and she is dead. ⁶And I laid hold of my concubine, and divided her in pieces, and sent her into every coast of the inheritance of the sons of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and abomination in Israel. ⁷Behold, ye are sons of Israel; and consider, and take counsel among yourselves. ⁸And all the people rose up as one man, saying, Not one of us will return to his tent, neither will any one of us return into his house. ⁹And now this is the thing that shall be done in Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it; ¹⁰moreover we will take ten men for an hundred for all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred for a thousand, and a thousand for ten thousand, to take provision, to cause them to come unto Gibeah of Benjamin, to do unto it according to all the abomination that they have wrought in Israel. ¹¹And all the men of Israel were gathered unto the city as one man.

¹²And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What is this wickedness that is wrought among you? ¹³Now then give up the men, the sons of transgressors, which are in Gibeah, and we will put them to death, and purge out wickedness from Israel. But the sons of Benjamin consented not to hearken unto the voice of their brethren the sons of Israel. ¹⁴And the sons of Benjamin were gathered together out of their cities unto Gibeah, to go out to fight with the sons of Israel. ¹⁵And the sons of Benjamin were numbered in that day out of their cities twenty and three thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men out of all the people, able to use both hands alike: ¹⁶all of these could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss. ¹⁷And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war. ¹⁸And they arose, and went up to Bethel, and enquired of God; and the sons of Israel said, Who shall go up for us first to fight with the sons of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judah shall go up first as leader. ¹⁹And the sons of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. ²⁰And all the men of Israel went out to fight with Benjamin; and they engaged with them at Gibeah. ²¹And the sons of Benjamin went forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground in Israel that day twenty and two thousand men. ²²And the men of Israel strengthened themselves, and again engaged in battle in the place where they had engaged the first day. ²³And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the Lord until even, and enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall we again draw nigh to battle against the sons of Benjamin our brethren? and the Lord said, Go up against them. ²⁴And the sons of Israel advanced against the sons of Benjamin the second day. ²⁵And the sons of Benjamin went forth to meet them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the sons of Israel again eighteen thousand men: all these drew the sword. ²⁶And the sons of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto Bethel, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day until even, and offered whole burnt offerings and perfect sacrifices before the Lord, ²⁷(for the ark of the Lord was there in those days, ²⁸and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days;) and the sons of Israel enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall we yet again go out to fight with the sons of Benjamin our brethren? and the Lord said, Go up; to morrow I will give them into your hands.

²⁹And the sons of Israel set an ambush against Gibeah round about it. ³⁰And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as before. ³¹And the sons of Benjamin went out to meet the people, and were all drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as before, in the highways, of which one goeth up to Bethel, and one to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. ³²And the children of Benjamin said, They fall before us, as at the first: but the sons of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways; and they did so. ³³And all the men of Israel rose up out of their places, and engaged in Baal-tamar; and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their place from Marah-gibeah. ³⁴And there came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the fight was sore: and they knew not that the evil came upon them. ³⁵And the Lord smote Benjamin before the sons of Israel: and the sons of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day an hundred and twenty and five thousand men: all these drew the sword. ³⁶And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: and the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin, because they trusted in the ambush which they had set against Gibeah. ³⁷And when they retreated, then the liers in wait rose up, and moved on toward Gibeah, and all the ambush came forth, and smote the city with the edge of the sword. ³⁸And the sons of Israel had a sign of battle with the liers in wait, that they should send up a signal of smoke out of the city. ³⁹And the sons of Israel saw that the liers in wait had seized Gibeah, and they stood in the line of battle; and Benjamin began to smite down of the wounded among the men of Israel about thirty men: for they said, Surely they fall again before us, as in the first battle. ⁴⁰And the signal went up more and more over the city as a pillar of smoke; and Benjamin looked behind him, and, behold, the destruction of the city ascended up to heaven. ⁴¹And the men of Israel turned back, and the men of Benjamin hasted; for they saw that evil had come upon them. ⁴²And they turned unto the way of the wilderness from before the sons of Israel, and fled; but the battle overtook them; and they that came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them. ⁴³And they cut down Benjamin, and pursued him from Nuah closely until they came over against Gibeah toward the sunrising. ⁴⁴And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of might. ⁴⁵And the rest turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and the sons of Israel gleaned of them five thousand men; and the sons of Israel went down after them unto Gidom, and smote two thousand men of them. ⁴⁶And all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword: all these were men of might. ⁴⁷And the rest turned, and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon, even six hundred men, and abode in the rock of Rimmon four months. ⁴⁸And the sons of Israel returned unto the sons of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword from the city of Mitlah, even to the cattle, and every thing that was found in all the cities: also they set on fire the cities that they found.

CHAPTER 21

Now the sons of Israel sware in Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any man of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. ²And the people came to Bethel, and sat there till even before God: and they lifted up their voice, and wept with a great weeping; ³and said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to pass, that there should be today one tribe accounted as lacking from Israel? ⁴And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵And the sons of Israel said, Who is there of all the tribes of Israel that went not up in the congregation unto the Lord? for there was a great oath made concerning those that went not up to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death. ⁶And the sons of Israel repented them toward Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. ⁷How shall we do for wives for the rest that remain? seeing we have sworn by the Lord not to give them of our daughters to wives? ⁸And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the Lord? and, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly. ⁹And the people were numbered, and there was not a man from the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there. ¹⁰And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the strongest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword. ¹¹And this shall ye do: ye shall devote to destruction every male, and every woman that hath known lying with man; but the virgins shall ye save alive: and they did so. ¹²And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with him: and they brought them unto Shiloh in the land of Canaan. ¹³And the whole congregation sent and spake unto the sons of Benjamin that were in the rock of Rimmon, and besought them to make peace. ¹⁴And Benjamin came again unto the sons of Israel at that time; and the sons of Israel gave them the women which they had saved alive of the daughters of Jabesh-gilead: and they were content.

¹⁵And the people repented them for Benjamin because that the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶And the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain? for the women have been destroyed out of Benjamin. ¹⁷And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin; and so a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. ¹⁸For we shall not be able to give them wives of our daughters: for we have sworn among the sons of Israel, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin. ¹⁹And they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, eastward on the highway that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem, and from the south of Lebonah. ²⁰And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards; ²¹and ye shall see; and, behold, if the daughters of the inhabitants of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then shall ye go out of the vineyards, and catch you every man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Benjamin. ²²And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come to dispute with us, that we will say unto them, Grant them freely unto us, for we have not taken every man his wife in the battle: because ye did not give unto them according to the occasion, ye transgressed. ²³And the sons of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and dwelt in them. ²⁴And the sons of Israel went thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his kindred, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. ²⁵And in those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

RUTH

CHAPTER 1

And it came to pass when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land: and a certain man went from Bethlehem-judah to sojourn in the land of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. ²And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-judah: and they came into the country of Moab, and abode there. ³And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons. ⁴And they took them wives, women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the second Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years. ⁵And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her husband and her two sons. ⁶And she arose, and her two daughters in law, and they returned from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the Lord had visited His people to give them bread. ⁷And she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went by the way to return unto the land of Judah. ⁸And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go now, return each to her mother's house: the Lord deal mercifully with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me. ⁹The Lord grant that you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. And she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept. ¹⁰And they said unto her, We will return with thee unto thy people. ¹¹And Naomi said, Return now, my daughters; and why do ye go with me? have I yet sons in my womb, to be your husbands? ¹²Turn now, my daughters; for I am too old to be married: for I said, Suppose that I were married, and should bear sons; ¹³would ye tarry for them until they were grown? or would ye refrain from being married for their sakes? Not so, my daughters; for I am grieved for you that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me. ¹⁴And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law, and returned unto her people; but Ruth followed her. ¹⁵And Naomi said unto Ruth, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: turn thou also after thy sister in law. ¹⁶And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whithersoever thou goest, I will go; and wheresoever thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God. ¹⁷And wheresoever thou diest, I will die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do so to me, and more also, if I leave thee, for death only shall divide between me and thee. ¹⁸And Naomi seeing that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, left speaking unto her more. ¹⁹And they went both of them until they came unto Bethlehem: and it came to pass, when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city rang with them, and they said, Is this Naomi? ²⁰And she said unto them, Nay, call me not Naomi, call me Bitter: for the Mighty One hath dealt very bitterly with me. ²¹I went out full, and the Lord hath brought me back: and why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Mighty One hath afflicted me? ²²So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2

And Naomi had a friend, an acquaintance of her husband; and the man was a mighty man of the kindred of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz. ²And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and I will glean behind the man in whose eyes soever I shall find favour: and she said unto her, Go, daughter. ³And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the land of Boaz, of the kindred of Elimelech. ⁴And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they said unto him, The Lord bless thee. ⁵And Boaz said unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this? ⁶And his servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the land of Moab: ⁷and she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: and she came, and stood from the morning until even, and rested not even a little in the field. ⁸And Boaz said unto Ruth, Hast thou not heard, my daughter? go not to glean in another field, neither depart thou from hence; join thyself here with my damsels. ⁹Let thine eyes be on the field where my men shall reap, and thou shalt go after them: behold, I have charged the young men that they shall not touch thee; and when thou shalt thirst, then shalt thou go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn. ¹⁰And she fell upon her face, and did reverence to the ground, and said unto him, How is it that I have found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? ¹¹And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me how thou hast dealt with thy mother in law after the death of thine husband: and how thou didst leave thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy captivity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not yesterday and the third day heretofore. ¹²The Lord recompense thy work: a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, unto whom thou art come to trust under His wings. ¹³And she said, Let me find grace in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid: and, behold, I shall be as one of thy servants. ¹⁴And Boaz said unto her, Now is it time to eat; come thou hither, and thou shalt eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar: and Ruth sat beside the reapers, and Boaz heaped her meal, and she ate, and was satisfied, and left. ¹⁵And she rose up to glean; and Boaz charged his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and shame her not. ¹⁶And do ye by all means carry if for her, and ye shall surely let fall for her some of that which is heaped up; and let her eat, and glean, and reproach her not. ¹⁷So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley. ¹⁸And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and Ruth brought forth, and gave to her what she had left from that wherewith she had been satisfied. ¹⁹And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And Ruth shewed her mother in law where she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz. ²⁰And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed is he of the Lord, for He hath not failed in his mercy with the living and with the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, he is one of our next kinsmen. ²¹And Ruth said unto her mother in law, Yea, he said unto me also, Keep fast by my damsels, until the men have finished all my reaping. ²²And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is well, daughter, that thou wentest out with his damsels; thus shall they not meet thee in another field. ²³And Ruth kept fast by the damsels of Boaz to glean until they had finished the barley harvest and the wheat harvest.

CHAPTER 3

And she lodged with her mother in law: and Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee? ²And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose damsels thou wast? Behold he winnoweth barley to night in the threshing floor. ³But wash thyself, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee up to the threshing floor: and make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking. ⁴And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he lieth down, and thou shalt come in, and lift up the covering of his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do. ⁵And Ruth said unto her, All that thou sayest I will do. ⁶And she went down unto the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her. ⁷And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was glad, and he came to lie down by the side of the heap of corn: and she came secretly, and lifted up the covering of his feet. ⁸And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was amazed, and troubled: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. ⁹And he said, Who art thou? and she said, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near relation. ¹⁰And Boaz said, Blessed be thou of the Lord God, my daughter; for thou hast made thy latter kindness greater than the former, inasmuch as thou followest not young men, whether poor or rich. ¹¹And now, my daughter, fear not; whatsoever thou shalt say, I will do to thee: for all the tribe of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman. ¹²And now I am truly akin to thee: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I. ¹³Lodge here for the night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do it: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then I will do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the Lord liveth: lie down until the morning. ¹⁴And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before a man could know his neighbour: and Boaz said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. ¹⁵And he said unto her, Bring the apron that thou hast upon thee; and she held it, and he measured six measures of barley, and put them on her: and she went into the city. ¹⁶And Ruth went in to her mother in law, and she said unto her, My daughter; and Ruth told her all that the man had done to her. ¹⁷And she said unto her, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law. ¹⁸And she said, Be still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not rest until the thing be accomplished this day.

CHAPTER 4

And Boaz went up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake passed by; and Boaz said unto him, Turn aside, sit down here, such an one: and he turned aside, and sat down. ²And Boaz took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here; and they sat down. ³And Boaz said unto the kinsman, As concerning the portion of the field which was our brother Elimelech's, which was given unto Naomi returning out of the land of Moab: ⁴and I said, I will inform thee, saying, Buy it before them that sit, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, and I shall know: for there is none to do the office of a kinsman beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I am here, I will redeem it. ⁵And Boaz said, In the day of thy buying the field of the hand of Naomi and of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, thou must also buy her, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. ⁶And the kinsman said, I shall not be able to redeem it of myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I shall not be able to redeem it. ⁷And this was in former time the ordinance in Israel concerning redemption, and concerning a bargain, for to confirm every word: a man loosed his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour that redeemed his right: and this was a testimony in Israel. ⁸And the kinsman said, Buy my right for thee: and he drew off his shoe, and gave it him. ⁹And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon, of the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased for myself for to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, so the name of the dead shall not be cut off from among his brethren, and from the tribe of his people: ye are witnesses this day. ¹¹And all the people that were in the gate, said, We are witnesses: and the elders said, The Lord make thy wife that goeth into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which both together did build the house of Israel, and wrought mightily in Ephratah; and there shall be a name to thee in Bethlehem. ¹²And let thine house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the Lord shall give thee of this handmaid. ¹³And Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the Lord gave her conception, and she bare a son. ¹⁴And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not suffered a redeemer to fail thee this day, even to make thy name famous in Israel. ¹⁵And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy soul, and one to cherish thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which hath loved thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath borne him. ¹⁶And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became a nurse unto it. ¹⁷And the neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: this is the father of Jesse, the father of David. ¹⁸And these are the generations of Pharez: Phares begat Hezron; ¹⁹Hezron begat Ram; and Ram begat Amminadab. ²⁰And Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon. ²¹And Salmon begat Boaz; and Boaz begat Obed. ²²And Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David.

1 REIGNS

CHAPTER 1

There was a man of Ramah Zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, a son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, in Nazib Ephraim: ²and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the second Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no child. ³And the man went up out of his city from day to day, out of Ramah, to worship and sacrifice unto the Lord God of Sabaoth in Shiloh: and there Eli and his two sons Hophni and Phinehas were the priests of the Lord. ⁴And the day came, and Elkanah sacrificed and gave to Peninnah his wife, and to her children, portions. ⁵And unto Hannah he gave one portion, because she had no child; only Elkanah loved Hannah more than the other; but the Lord had shut up her womb. ⁶For the Lord gave her no child in her affliction, and according to the sadness of her affliction: and she was sad because of this, that the Lord shut up her womb, and gave not her a child. ⁷So did she year after year, when she went up to the house of the Lord: and she was downcast, and wept, and did not eat. ⁸And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Hannah; and she said unto him, Here am I, my lord: and he said unto her, What aileth thee that thou weepest? and why eatest thou not? and why doth thy heart smite thee? am I not better to thee than ten children? ⁹And Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and stood before the Lord: and Eli the priest was upon a seat by the doorposts of the temple of the Lord. ¹⁰And she was sore grieved in soul, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore. ¹¹And she vowed a vow unto the Lord, saying, O Lord God of Sabaoth, if Thou wilt indeed look on the humiliation of Thine handmaid, and remember me, and give unto Thine handmaid a man child, then will I put him before Thee unto the day of his death; and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink, and there shall no razor come upon his head. ¹²And it came to pass, while she was long praying before the Lord, that Eli the priest marked her mouth. ¹³And she spake in her heart, and her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: and Eli counted her a drunken woman. ¹⁴And Eli's servant said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee, and go out from the presence of the Lord. ¹⁵And Hannah said, Nay, my lord, I live in an hard day, and have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, and I pour out my soul unto the Lord. ¹⁶Count not thine handmaid for a pestilent woman: for out of the abundance of my meditation have I continued my prayer until now. ¹⁷And Eli answered and said, Go in peace: the Lord God of Israel grant thee all thy petition that thou hast asked of him. ¹⁸And she said, Thine handmaid hath found favour in thine eyes: and the woman went her way, and entered into her lodging, and did eat and drink with her husband, and her countenance was no more sad. ¹⁹And they rise up in the morning early, and worship the Lord, and go their way: and Elkanah went into his house at Ramah, and knew Hannah his wife; and the Lord remembered her, and she conceived. ²⁰And it came to pass, when the time was come, that she brought forth a son, and called his name Samuel, and said, Because I asked him of the Lord God of Sabaoth.

²¹And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer in Shiloh the yearly sacrifice, and his vows, and all the tithes of his land. ²²But Hannah went not up with him; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child goeth up, when I have weaned him; and he shall be presented before the Lord, and abide there continually. ²³And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do that which is good in thine eyes; abide still until thou have weaned him; only the Lord establish that which cometh out of thy mouth. And the woman tarried, and gave her son suck until she weaned him. ²⁴And she went up with him unto Shiloh, with a calf of three years, and loaves, and an ephah of fine flour, and a bottle of wine: and she entered into the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the child with them. ²⁵And they brought him before the Lord; and his father slew his offering, which he offered from year to year unto the Lord, and brought the child near, and slew the calf: and Hannah the mother of the child brought him to Eli. ²⁶And she said, I pray thee, my lord, as thy soul liveth, I am the woman that stood in thy presence with thee, while praying unto the Lord. ²⁷For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of Him. ²⁸And I do lend him to the Lord all his days that he liveth, a loan unto the Lord. And she said,

CHAPTER 2

My heart is established in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in my God: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; I have rejoiced in Thy salvation. ²For there is none holy as the Lord; for there is none that is righteous as our God, and there is none holy beside Thee. ³Boast not, and utter not high things; let not high words come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and a God that prepareth His own ways. ⁴The bow of the mighty is become weak, and the weak have girded themselves with strength. ⁵They that were full of bread are brought low, and the hungry have forsaken the land: for the barren hath borne seven, and she that hath many children is waxed feeble. ⁶The Lord killeth, and maketh alive: He bringeth down to Hades, and bringeth up. ⁷The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: He bringeth low, and lifteth up. ⁸He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the needy from the dunghill, to seat him with the princes of the people, and to make them inherit the throne of glory, ⁹granting his petition unto him that prayeth: and He blesseth the years of the righteous; for by strength can no man prevail. ¹⁰The Lord shall weaken his adversary; the Lord is holy. Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, nor let the mighty man boast in his own strength, and let not the rich man boast in his riches: but let him that boasteth boast in this: to understand and know the Lord, and to execute judgment and justice in the midst of the earth. The Lord is gone up into the heavens, and hath thundered: He shall judge the ends of the earth, and shall give strength unto our kings, and exalt the horn of His anointed. And she left him there before the Lord, ¹¹and departed to Ramah: and the child did minister in the presence of the Lord before Eli the priest.

¹²And the sons of Eli were evil sons, not knowing the Lord. ¹³And the priest's claim from every one of the people that sacrificed was, that the servant of the Lord came when the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand. ¹⁴And he struck it into the great cauldron, or brasen vessel, or pot; and whatsoever came up with the fleshhook, the priest took for himself: so they did unto all Israel that came to sacrifice unto the Lord in Shiloh. ¹⁵And before the fat was burnt for a sweet savour, the servant of the Lord would come, and say unto the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; and I will by no means take of the sodden flesh out of the cauldron. ¹⁶And if the man that sacrificed said, First let the fat be burned, as it is fitting, and take for thee of all things which thy soul desireth; then he would say, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. ¹⁷So the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord: for they set at nought the offering of the Lord. ¹⁸And Samuel ministered before the Lord, being a child, girt with a linen ephod. ¹⁹And his mother made him a little doublet, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up in company with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. ²⁰And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, saying, The Lord recompense thee seed of this woman for the loan which thou hast lent to the Lord: and the man returned to his place. ²¹And the Lord visited Hannah, and she bare yet three sons, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

²²And Eli was very old; and he heard what his sons did unto the sons of Israel. ²³And he said unto them, Why do ye according to this thing, which I hear from the mouth of all the people of the Lord? ²⁴Nay, my sons; for the report which I hear is not good: do not so, for the reports which I hear are not good, so that the people serve not God. ²⁵If one man sin against another, then shall they pray for him unto the Lord: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall intreat for him? But they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would by all means destroy them. ²⁶And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the Lord, and with men. ²⁷And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, I plainly revealed Myself unto the house of thy father, when they were servants in Egypt to the house of Pharaoh. ²⁸And I did choose the house of thy father out of all the tribes of Israel to minister unto Me in the priest's office, to go up unto mine altar, and to burn incense, and to wear an ephod. And I gave unto the house of thy father all the offerings by fire of the sons of Israel for meat. ²⁹And wherefore hast thou looked upon Mine incense offering and My meat offering with a shameless eye, and hast honoured thy sons above Me, that they should bless themselves with the firstfruits of every sacrifice of Israel before Me? ³⁰Wherefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel; I said, Thy house and the house of thy fathers shall walk before Me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from Me; for only them that honour Me will I honour, and he that setteth Me at nought shall be despised. ³¹Behold, the days come when I will cut off thy seed, and the seed of thy father's house. ³²And thou shalt not have an old man in My house for ever. ³³And if I cut off not a man of thine from Mine altar, it shall be that his eyes may fail, and his soul may perish: and every one that remaineth in thine house shall fall by the sword of men. ³⁴And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, upon Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them. ³⁵And I will raise Me up a faithful priest, that shall do all that is in Mine heart and in My soul: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before Mine Anointed for ever. ³⁶And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in thine house, shall come to do obeisance before him for a little piece of silver, saying, Put me into one of thy priest's offices, to eat bread.

CHAPTER 3

And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli the priest: and the word of the Lord was precious in those days, and there was no open vision. ²And it came to pass at that time, that Eli did sleep, and his eyes began to wax dim, and could not see. ³And the lamp of God went out ere it was trimmed, and Samuel slept in the temple, where the ark of God was. ⁴And the Lord called, Samuel, Samuel; and he said, Behold, here am I. ⁵And he ran to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called thee not; return, sleep; and he returned, and slept. ⁶And the Lord called yet again, Samuel, Samuel: and he went to Eli the second time, and said, Behold, here am I, for thou didst call me. And he said, I called thee not; return, sleep. ⁷And it was before Samuel knew the Lord, and before the word of God was revealed unto him. ⁸And the Lord called Samuel again the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Behold, here am I; for thou didst call me: and Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child. ⁹And he said, Return, child, sleep; and it shall be, if He call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, Lord; for Thy servant heareth. And Samuel went and lay down in his place. ¹⁰And the Lord came, and stood, and called him as before: and Samuel said, Speak; for Thy servant heareth. ¹¹And the Lord said unto Samuel, Behold, I do perform My words in Israel; whosoever heareth them, his ears shall tingle. ¹²In that day I will raise up against Eli all things which I have spoken against his house: I will begin, I will also make an end. ¹³And I have told him that I will be avenged upon his house for ever for the iniquities of his sons, and he admonished them not. ¹⁴And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with incense nor sacrifice for ever. ¹⁵And Samuel lay until the morning, and rose up early in the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the Lord; and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. ¹⁶And Eli said unto Samuel, Samuel, my son; and he said, Behold, here am I. ¹⁷And he said, What was the word that was spoken unto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me: God do these things to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the words that were spoken unto thee in thine ears. ¹⁸And Samuel told all the words, and hid them not from him. And Eli said, He is the Lord; He shall do what is good in His sight. ¹⁹And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and there did none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was faithful as a prophet unto the Lord. ²¹And the Lord appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord revealed Himself to Samuel; and Samuel was believed unto all Israel to be a prophet unto the Lord, from one end of the land unto the other: and Eli was very old; and his sons advanced, and their way was evil before the Lord.

CHAPTER 4

And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered themselves together against Israel to war; and Israel went out to meet them, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek. ²And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel; and the battle was turned against them: and the men of Israel fell before the Philistines, and there were smitten in the battle in the field four thousand men. ³And the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord caused us to fall to day before the Philistines? let us fetch the ark of our God out of Shiloh, and let it go out from the midst of us; and it shall save us out of the hand of our enemies. ⁴And the people sent to Shiloh, and they take from thence the ark of the Lord, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and both the sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were with the ark. ⁵And it came to pass, when the ark of the Lord came into the camp, that all Israel cried out with a great shout, and the earth rang again. ⁶And the Philistines heard the cry, and the Philistines said, What is this great cry in the camp of the Hebrews?: and they understood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp. ⁷And the Philistines were afraid, and said, These are the gods that are come unto them in the camp. ⁸Woe unto us, O Lord! deliver us this day; for there hath not been such a thing heretofore: woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that smote Egypt with every plague, and in the wilderness. ⁹Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have served us: but be ye men, and fight with them. ¹⁰And they fought with them: and the men of Israel fell; and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; and there fell of Israel thirty thousand fighting men. ¹¹And the ark of God was taken, and both the sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

¹²And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh that same day; and his clothes were rent, and earth was upon his head. ¹³And he came, and, lo, Eli was upon the seat by the gate watching along the way: for his heart was sore alarmed for the ark of God. And the man came into the city to bring tidings; and the city cried out. ¹⁴And Eli heard the sound of the cry, and said, What is the voice of this cry? and the man hasted, and went in, and reported to Eli. ¹⁵Now Eli was ninety years old, and his eyes were fixed, and he saw not. ¹⁶And Eli said unto them that stood round about him, What is the voice of this sound? And the man hasted, and came unto Eli, and said unto him, I am he that is come out of the camp, and I fled to day out of the battle. And Eli said, What is there fallen out, my son? ¹⁷And the young man answered and said, The men of Israel fled from before the face of the Philistines, and there was a great slaughter among the people, and both thy sons are dead, and the ark of God is taken. ¹⁸And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward near the gate, and his back was broken, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy: and he had judged Israel twenty years.

¹⁹And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to bring forth: and she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead; and she wept, and was delivered; for her pains came upon her. ²⁰And in her time she was at the point of death; and the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not; for thou hast borne a son: but she answered not, neither did her heart regard it. ²¹And she called the child Woe, Ichabod, because of the ark of God, and because of her father in law and her husband. ²²And they said, The glory of Israel is departed: forasmuch as the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER 5

And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod. ²And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. ³And they of Ashdod rose early, and entered into the house of Dagon, and looked; and, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face before the ark of the Lord: and they lifted up Dagon, and set him in his place. And the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and He plagued them, and smote them in their buttocks, Ashdod and her coasts. ⁴And it came to pass, when they arose early in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off each before the threshold, and both the wrists of his hands were fallen upon the floor of the porch; only the stump of Dagon was left. ⁵Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor every one that entereth into the house of Dagon, tread on the threshold of the house of Dagon unto this day; for they tread over. ⁶And the hand of the Lord was heavy upon Ashdod, and He brought evil upon them; and it burst out upon them into the ships, and mice sprang up in the midst of their country, and there was a great confusion of death in the city. ⁷And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for His hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our God. ⁸They send therefore, and gather the lords of the Philistines unto them, and say, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they of Gath say, Let the ark of God come over unto us: and the ark of the God of Israel came unto Gath. ⁹And it was so, after that it went about to Gath, that the hand of the Lord cometh upon the city, a very great confusion; and He smote the men of the city, both small and great, and smote them in their secret parts, and the men of Gath made them images of secret parts. ¹⁰And they send away the ark of God to Askelon; and it came to pass, when the ark of God went into Askelon, that the men of Askelon cried out, Why have ye brought back the ark of God to us, to slay us and our people. ¹¹And they send and gather together the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it abide in his own place; and let it not slay us and our people. ¹²For there was a very great confusion in all the city, when the ark of the God of Israel entered there; and they that lived and died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6

And the ark was in the country of the Philistines seven months, and their land brought forth swarms of mice. ²And the Philistines call for their priests, and their prophets, and their enchanter, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? teach us wherewith we shall send it to his place. ³And they said, If ye send away the ark of the covenant of the Lord God of Israel, in no wise send it empty; but when you give it back, return for it an offering for the plague: and then ye shall be healed, and it shall make an atonement for you: shall not His hand be thus stayed from off you? ⁴And they say, What is the offering for the plague which we shall return to Him?, and they said, ⁵Five golden emerods, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for the plague was on you, and on your lords, and on the people; and golden mice, the likeness of the mice that destroy your land; and ye shall give glory unto the Lord, that He may lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. ⁶Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as Egypt and Pharaoh hardened their heart? Was it not so when He mocked them, that they did let the people go, and they departed? ⁷Now therefore take wood, and make a new cart, and take two kine, that have calved for the first time, without their calves: and yoke the kine to the cart, and lead away their calves home from behind them. ⁸And ye shall take the ark, and put it upon the cart, and restore to it the things of gold for the trespass offering in a coffer by the side thereof; and ye shall let it go, and send it away, and ye shall depart. ⁹And ye shall see, if it goeth the way of the coasts along by Beth-shemesh, He hath brought upon us this great affliction: and if not, then we shall know that His hand hath not touched us, but this was a chance that happened to us. ¹⁰And the Philistines did so; and took two kine that had calved for the first time, and yoked them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. ¹¹And they set the ark of the Lord, and the coffer, and the golden mice, on the cart. ¹²And the kine went straight on the way to the way of Beth-shemesh; they went along one track, and laboured, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the borders of Beth-shemesh. ¹³And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping the wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to meet it. ¹⁴And the cart entered into the field of Osee, which was in Beth-shemesh, and they set it there by a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for an whole burnt offering unto the Lord. ¹⁵And the Levites brought up the ark of the Lord, and the coffer with it, and the things of gold upon it, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered whole burnt offerings and meat offerings in that day unto the Lord. ¹⁶And the five lords of the Philistines saw, and returned to Askelon the same day. ¹⁷And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines gave as a trespass offering unto the Lord; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; ¹⁸and the golden mice according to all the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, from the fenced city to the village of the Perizzite, even unto the great stone, whereon they put the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that was in the field of Osea the Beth-shemite.

¹⁹And the sons of Jechonias were not pleased with the men of Beth-shemesh, because they saw the ark of the Lord; and the Lord smote among them fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people mourned, because the Lord had afflicted the people with a very great plague. ²⁰And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who shall be able to pass before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall the ark of the Lord go up from us? ²¹And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the Lord; go ye down, and fetch it home to you.

CHAPTER 7

And the men of Kirjath-jearim come, and bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord: and they bring it into the house of Abinadab in the hill; and they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

²And it came to pass, from the time that the ark was in Kirjath-jearim, that the days were multiplied, and the time was twenty years: and all the house of Israel looked after the Lord. ³And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your heart, then take away the strange gods from among you, and the groves, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve Him only: and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. ⁴And the sons of Israel did take away Baalim and the groves of Ashtaroth, and served the Lord only. ⁵And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the Lord. ⁶And they were gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out upon the ground before the Lord, and fasted on that day, and said, We have sinned before the Lord. And Samuel judged the sons of Israel in Mizpeh. ⁷And the Philistines heard that all the sons of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, and the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel: and the sons of Israel heard, and they were afraid before the Philistines. ⁸And the sons of Israel said unto Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord thy God for us, and He shall save us out of the hand of the Philistines. ⁹And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for an whole burnt offering with all the people unto the Lord: and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel; and the Lord heard him. ¹⁰And Samuel offered up the whole burnt offering, and the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: and the Lord thundered with a mighty sound in that day upon the Philistines; and they were confounded and overthrown before Israel. ¹¹And the men of Israel went forth out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them to the parts under Beth-car. ¹²And Samuel took a stone, and set it up between Mizpeh and the old city, and called the name of it Ebenezer, stone of the helper; and he said, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us. ¹³So the Lord humbled the Philistines, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored; and they restored them to Israel, from Askelon even to Azob; and the coast of Israel did they take out of the hand of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the Amorite. ¹⁵And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. ¹⁶And he went year by year, and went round about Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all these consecrated places. ¹⁷And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the Lord.

CHAPTER 8

And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel. ²And these are the names of his sons; Joel the firstborn, and the name of the second, Abiah, they were judges in Beer-sheba. ³And his sons walked not in his way; but they turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgments. ⁴And the men of Israel gather themselves together, and come to Samuel unto Ramah; ⁵and they said unto him, Behold, thou art grown old, and thy sons walk not in thy way: and now set over us a king to judge us, as also the other nations. ⁶But the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the Lord. ⁷And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in whatsoever they shall say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them. ⁸According to all their works which they have done unto Me, since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, even as they have forsaken Me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee. ⁹Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit thou shalt protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. ¹⁰And Samuel told every word of the Lord unto the people that asked of him a king. ¹¹And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and put them in his chariots, and among his chariots, and running before his chariots, ¹²and make him of them captains of hundreds, and captains of thousands; and to reap his harvest, and to gather his vintage, and to prepare his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. ¹³And he will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. ¹⁴And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your good oliveyards, and give them to his servants. ¹⁵And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give it to his eunuchs, and to his servants. ¹⁶And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your good herds, and your asses, and will take the tenth of them for his works. ¹⁷And he will take the tenth of your flocks: and ye shall be his servants. ¹⁸And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you in those days, because ye have chosen you a king. ¹⁹Nevertheless the people would not hearken unto Samuel; and they said unto him, Nay, but there shall be a king over us. ²⁰And we also shall be like all the nations; and our king shall judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. ²¹And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the Lord. And the Lord said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Let each man depart unto his city.

CHAPTER 9

Now there was a man of the sons of Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Jared, the son of Bechorah, the son of Aphia, the son of a Benjamite, a man of power. ²And this man had a son, and his name was Saul, of great stature, a goodly man: and there was not among the sons of Israel a goodlier than he: from his shoulders and upward he was high above all the people. ³And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost; and Kish said to Saul his son, Take one of the servants with thee, and arise, and go and seek the asses. ⁴And they passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: and they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and they passed through the land of Jamin, but they found them not. ⁵And when they were come to Zuph, then Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave the asses, and take thought for us. ⁶And the lad said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and the man is of high reputation; all that he shall speak shall come surely to pass: now then let us go, that he may shew us the way whereon we have set out. ⁷And Saul said to his servant that was with him, Behold, then, we will go; but what shall we bring the man of God? for the loaves are spent out of our vessels, and we have nothing more that is ours to bring to the man of God. ⁸And the lad answered Saul again, and said, Behold, there is found in my hand a fourth part of a shekel of silver; and thou shalt give it to the man of God, and he shall tell us our way. ⁹Now beforetime in Israel every one when going to enquire of God said, Come, and let us go to the seer: for the people beforetime called the prophet, the seer. ¹⁰Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, and let us go: and they went unto the city where the man of God was. ¹¹As they went up the ascent to the city, they find young maidens come out to draw water, and they say unto them, Is the seer here? ¹²And the virgins answered them, and they say unto them, He is; behold, he is before you: now he cometh to the city, because of the day: for to day there is a sacrifice for the people in Bamah. ¹³As soon as ye be come into the city, so shall ye find him in the city, before he go up unto Bamah to eat: for the people will not eat until he come in, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterward the guests eat. Now therefore, get ye up; for ye shall find him because of the day. ¹⁴And they go up into the city: and as they entered the city, behold, Samuel came out to meet them, for to go up to Bamah. ¹⁵And the Lord uncovered the ear of Samuel the day before Saul came unto him, saying, ¹⁶To morrow at this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be ruler over My people Israel, and he shall save My people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon the humiliation of My people, because their cry is come unto Me. ¹⁷And Samuel looked upon Saul, and the Lord answered him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of, This one shall rule over My people. ¹⁸And Saul drew near to Samuel in the midst of the city, and said, Tell me now, which is the seer's house? ¹⁹And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am he: go up before me unto Bamah, and eat with me to day; and in the morning I will send thee away, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. ²⁰And concerning thine asses that have been lost these three days, care not for them; for they are found. And unto whom is the excellency of Israel? is it not to thee, and to thy father's house? ²¹And Saul answered and said, Am I not the son of a Benjamite, the least tribe of the people of Israel, and of the least family of all the tribe of Benjamin? And wherefore hast thou spoken unto me according to this word? ²²And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them to the inn, and set them there a place among the chief of them that were called, about threescore and ten men. ²³And Samuel said unto the cook, Give me the portion which I gave thee, which I told thee to set by thee. ²⁴Now the cook had boiled the shoulder, and he set it before Saul; and Samuel said unto Saul, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for it is set for thee for a testimony above the others; take of it: and Saul ate with Samuel on that day. ²⁵And he went down from Bamah into the city; and they prepared a bed for Saul upon the roof, and he lay down. ²⁶And it came to pass when the morning dawned, that Samuel called Saul upon the roof, saying, Rise up, and I will send thee away. And Saul arose, and he and Samuel went out. ²⁷And as they were going down to a part of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Speak to the lad, and let him pass on before us; and stand thou as to day, and hearken unto the word of God.

CHAPTER 10

Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said unto him, Hath not the Lord anointed thee for a ruler over His people, over Israel? And thou shalt rule among the people of the Lord, and thou shalt save them out of the hand of their enemies: and this shall be the sign to thee that the Lord hath anointed thee for a ruler over His inheritance. ²When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's buryingplace on the mount of Benjamin, rejoicing greatly; and they will say unto thee, The asses which ye went to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath given up the matter of the asses, and is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? ³And thou shalt depart from thence, and go beyond there unto the oak of Tabor, and there shalt thou find three men going up to God to Bethel; one carrying three kids, and another carrying three vessels of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. ⁴And they shall ask thee how thou doest, and shall give thee two presents of bread; and thou shalt receive them of their hand. ⁵And after that thou shalt go to the hill of God, where is the encampment of the Philistines; there is Nazib the Philistine: and it shall come to pass, when ye have entered the city, that thou shalt meet a band of prophets coming down from the Bamah; and before them will be a lute, and a drum, and a pipe, and a harp; and they shall prophesy. ⁶And the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. ⁷And it shall be, when these signs come upon thee, then do thou whatsoever thine hand shall find, because God is with thee. ⁸And thou shalt go down in front of Gilgal, and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer an whole burnt offering, and peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee; and I will shew thee what thou shalt do. ⁹And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all these signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰And he cometh thither to the hill, and, behold, a band of prophets over against him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. ¹¹And all that knew him beforetime came, and saw; and, behold, he was among the prophets: and the people said every one to his neighbour, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? is Saul also among the prophets? ¹²And one of them answered and said, And who is his father? and therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? ¹³And he made an end of prophesying, and cometh to the hill. ¹⁴And his kinsman said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? and they said, To seek the asses; and we saw that they were lost, and went in to Samuel. ¹⁵And his kinsman said unto Saul, Tell me, I pray thee, What said Samuel unto thee? ¹⁶And Saul said unto his kinsman, He verily told me that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, he told him not.

¹⁷And Samuel called all the people together before the Lord to Mizpeh. ¹⁸And he said unto the sons of Israel, Thus hath the Lord God of Israel spoken, saying, I brought up the sons of Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and from all the kingdoms that afflicted you. ¹⁹And ye have this day rejected God, Who is Himself your deliverer out of all your evils and afflictions; and ye have said, Nay, but thou shalt set a king over us: and now stand before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your families. ²⁰And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel, and the tribe of Israel is taken by lot. ²¹And he bringeth near the tribe of Benjamin by families, and the family of Matri is taken by lot; and they bring near the family of Matri, man by man, and Saul the son of Kish is taken; and he sought him, but he was not found. ²²And Samuel asked of the Lord yet further, Doth the man come hither?: and the Lord said, Behold, he is hid among the stuff. ²³And he ran and fetched him thence, and set him the midst of the people; and he was higher than all of the people by his shoulders and upward. ²⁴And Samuel said to all the people, Have ye seen whom the Lord hath chosen to himself, that there is none like him among you all? And all the people took notice, and said, Let the king live! ²⁵And Samuel told the people the manner of the king, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord: and Samuel sent away all the people, and each went to his place. ²⁶And Saul departed to his house to Gibeah; and there were with Saul mighty men, whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷But evil men said, Who is this man that shall save us? and they despised him, and brought him no presents.

CHAPTER 11

And it came to pass, about a month after this, that Nahash the Ammonite went up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee. ²And Nabash the Ammonite said unto them, On these conditions will I make a covenant with you, that I put out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon Israel. ³And the men of Jabesh say unto him, Give us seven days, and we will send messengers into all the coasts of Israel: if there be none to deliver us, we will come out to you. ⁴And the messengers came to Gibeah unto Saul, and speak the words in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept. ⁵And, behold, Saul came after the early morning out of the field; and Saul said, Why doth the people weep? and they tell him the words of the men of Jabesh. ⁶And the Spirit of the Lord did leap upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger was kindled greatly against them. ⁷And he took two kine, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them into all the coasts of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall they do unto his oxen. And an ecstasy fell upon the people of Israel, and they came out to battle as one man. ⁸And he numbereth them at Bezek in Bamah, every man of Israel six hundred thousand, and the men of Judah seventy thousand. ⁹And he said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh, To morrow, when the sun be hot, ye shall have deliverance. And the messengers came to the city, and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. ¹⁰And the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash the Ammonite, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us what seemeth good in your sight. ¹¹And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they go into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and they smote the children of Ammon until the day was hot: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, and there were not two among them left together. ¹²And the people said unto Samuel, Who hath said that Saul shall not reign over us? Give up the men, and we will put them to death. ¹³And Saul said, There shall not a man die this day: for to day the Lord hath wrought deliverance in Israel. ¹⁴And Samuel spake unto the people, saying, Let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. ¹⁵And all the people went to Gilgal; and there Samuel anointed Saul to be king before the Lord in Gilgal: and Samuel and all Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12

And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all things that ye said unto me, and have set a king over you. ²And now, behold, the king goeth before you; and I am waxen old, and shall rest; and, behold, my sons are among you; and behold, I have gone about before you from my youth unto this day. ³Behold, here I am: answer against me before the Lord, and before His anointed: whose calf have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom of you have I oppressed? or with whom have I been violent? or of whose hand have I taken a bribe, even to a sandal? Bear witness against me, and I will make restitution to you. ⁴And they said unto Samuel, Thou hast not injured us, nor oppressed us, nor hast thou afflicted us; neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand. ⁵And Samuel said unto the people, The Lord is witness among you, and His anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand: and they said, He is witness. ⁶And Samuel spake unto the people, saying, The Lord that appointed Moses and Aaron is witness, that brought our fathers up out of Egypt. ⁷And now stand still, and I will judge you before the Lord; and I will reason with you all the righteousness of the Lord, of the things which He wrought among you and your fathers. ⁸When Jacob and his sons went into Egypt, and Egypt humbled them, then our fathers cried unto the Lord, and the Lord sent Moses and Aaron; and they brought our fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. ⁹And they forgot the Lord their God, and He sold them into the hands of Sisera, captain of the host of Jabin king of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the kings of Moab; and he fought with them. ¹⁰And they cried unto the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baalim and the groves; and now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve Thee. ¹¹And He sent Jerubbaal, and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered us out of the hand of our enemies round about; and ye dwelt in security. ¹²And ye saw that Nahash king of the children of Ammon came against you, and ye said, Nay; none but a king shall reign over us; whereas the Lord our God is our king. ¹³And now behold the king whom ye have chosen; and, behold, the Lord hath set a king over you. ¹⁴If ye will fear the Lord, and serve Him, and hearken unto His voice, and not withstand the mouth of the Lord, and ye and your king that reigneth over you follow the Lord, well. ¹⁵But if ye will not hearken unto the voice of the Lord, and withstand the mouth of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be upon you and upon your king. ¹⁶And now stand still, and see this great thing, which the Lord will do before your eyes. ¹⁷Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call upon the Lord, and He shall send thunder and rain; and know ye and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in having asked you a king. ¹⁸And Samuel called upon the Lord, and the Lord sent thunders and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel. ¹⁹And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, and let us not die: for we have added unto all our sins this iniquity, in asking us a king. ²⁰And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness; only turn not from following the Lord, and serve the Lord with all your heart. ²¹And turn ye not aside after the gods that are nought, which will do nought, and will not deliver you; for they are nought. ²²For the Lord will not cast off His people for His great name's sake: because the Lord graciously took you unto Himself for a people. ²³And far be it from me to sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you: but I will serve the Lord, and shew you the good and the right way. ²⁴Only fear the Lord, and serve Him in truth and with all your heart: for ye see what great things He hath done with you. ²⁵But if ye continue to do evil, then ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

CHAPTER 13

²And Saul chooseth him three thousand men of the men of Israel; and there were with Saul two thousand that were in Michmash, and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. ³And Jonathan smote Nasib the Philistine that dwelt in the hill, and the Philistines hear of it; and Saul soundeth the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, The servants have rejected us. ⁴And all Israel heard say, Saul hath smitten Nasib the Philistine: now Israel had been put to shame before the Philistines; and the sons of Israel went up after Saul in Gilgal. ⁵And the Philistines gather themselves together to war with Israel; and then come up against Israel thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is by the sea shore for multitude: and they come up, and pitch in Michmash, over against Beth-aven southward. ⁶And the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, that they could not draw nigh to battle; and the people hid themselves in caves, and in sheepfolds, and in rocks, and in ditches, and in pits. ⁷And they that went over went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people that followed after him were amazed.

⁸And he tarried seven days for a testimony, as Samuel had told him: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and his people were scattered from him. ⁹And Saul said, Bring hither, that I may offer whole burnt offerings and peace offerings: and he offered the whole burnt offering. ¹⁰And it came to pass, when he had made an end of offering the whole burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, and to bless him. ¹¹And Samuel said, What hast thou done?; and Saul said, Because I saw how the people were scattered from me, and that thou wast not present as thou purposedst according to the testimony of the days, and that the Philistines were gathered together to Michmash: ¹²then said I, Now will the Philistines come down to me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the face of the Lord: I forced myself therefore, and offered the whole burnt offering. ¹³And Samuel said unto Saul, Thou hast done foolishly; for thou hast not kept my commandment, which the Lord commanded thee: for now the Lord would have confirmed thy kingdom over Israel for ever. ¹⁴But now thy kingdom shall not stand to thee; and the Lord shall seek Him a man after His own heart, and the Lord shall appoint him to be a ruler over His people, because thou hast not kept all that the Lord commanded thee. ¹⁵And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal, and the remnant of the people went after Saul, to meet him after the men of war, when they were come out of Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men. ¹⁶And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with him, halted in Gibeah of Benjamin, and they wept; and the Philistines encamped in Michmash. ¹⁷And men came forth to destroy out of the land of the Philistines in three companies; one company turning by the way of Ophrah toward the land of Shual, ¹⁸and another company turning the way of Beth-horon, and another company turning by the way of Gibeah, that turneth aside to Ai of Zeboim. ¹⁹And there was no smith found in all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them sword or spear. ²⁰And all Israel went down to the land of the Philistines, to forge every man his reaping hook, and his tool; and every man his axe, and his sickle. ²¹And it was near the time of vintage: and their tools were valued at three shekels for a ploughshare, and there was the same rate for the axe and the sickle. ²²And it came to pass in the days of the war of Michmash, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of all the people that were with Saul and Jonathan, but with Saul and Jonathan his son was there found. ²³And there went out some from the camp of the Philistines to the place beyond Michmash.

CHAPTER 14

And a day came, and Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to Messab of the Philistines, that is on the other side yonder: but he told not his father. ²And Saul sat on the top of the hill under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron:

and there were with him about six hundred men. ³And Ahijah the son of Achitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, was the priest of God in Shiloh, wearing an ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. ⁴And in the midst of the passage, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' encampment, there was a sharp rock on this side, and a sharp rock on the other side: the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. ⁵The one way was situate northward to one coming from Michmash, and the other way was southward to one coming from Gibeah. ⁶And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, let us go over to Messab of these uncircumcised, if peradventure the Lord my do some thing for us: for the Lord is not straitened to save by many or by few. ⁷And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that thine heart inclineth to; behold, I am with thee: as is thine heart, so is my heart also. ⁸And Jonathan said, Behold, we do pass over unto the men, and we will come down suddenly unto them. ⁹If they say thus unto us, Stand aloof there until we send you word; then we will stand still by ourselves, and will not go up unto them. ¹⁰But if they say thus to us, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hands: this shall be a sign unto us. ¹¹And both of them went into Messab of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of their caves where they had hid themselves. ¹²And the men of Messab answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing; and Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me, for the Lord hath delivered them into our hands: this shall be a sign to us. ¹³And Jonathan went up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer with him: and they looked upon the face of Jonathan, and he smote them, and his armourbearer smote after him. ¹⁴And the first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was twenty men, with darts, and with slings, and with pebbles of the field. ¹⁵And there was dismay in the camp, and in the field; and all the people of Messab, and the spoilers, were amazed: they also would not act, and the land was terrorstricken, and there was dismay from the Lord. ¹⁶And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the army was thrown into confusion on every side. ¹⁷And Saul said unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone out from you: and they numbered themselves, and, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not found. ¹⁸And Saul unto Ahiah, Bring the ephod: for he wore the ephod that day before Israel. ¹⁹And it came to pass, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise that was in the camp of the Philistines went on to increase greatly: and Saul said unto the priest, Put thine hands together. ²⁰And Saul and all the people that were with him, went up; and they come to the battle, and, behold, every man's sword was against his neighbour, a very great confusion. ²¹And the servants that had been with the Philistines yesterday and the day before, which had gone up into the army, even they turned themselves also to be with Israel, which were with Saul and Jonathan. ²²And all them of Israel which were hid in mount Ephraim heard also that the Philistines fled; and they also gather themselves after them to battle. ²³And the Lord delivered

Israel that day; and the war passed through Beth-aven; and all the people that were with Saul were about ten thousand men.

And the war was dispersed unto every city in mount Ephraim. ²⁴And Saul was ignorant with great ignorance that day; and he layeth a curse upon the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth bread before the evening; so will I avenge myself upon mine enemies: and none of the people tasted bread, though all the land was dining. ²⁵And Jaal was a wood that abounded in swarms of bees upon the face of the ground. ²⁶And the people went into the place of the bees, and, behold, they continued speaking; and, behold, there was none that put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath of the Lord. ²⁷And Jonathan heard not when his father adjured the people: and he put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and returned his hand to his mouth; and his eyes recovered their sight. ²⁸Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food this day. And the people were very faint; ²⁹and Jonathan knew it, and said, My father hath destroyed the land: see how mine eyes have received sight, now that I have tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰Surely if the people had eaten freely to day of the spoils of their enemies which they found, the slaughter had been much greater among the Philistines. ³¹And he smote some of the Philistines that day in Michmash: and the people were very faint. ³²And the people turned to the spoil; and the people took flocks, and herds, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood. ³³And it was told Saul, saying, The people have sinned against the Lord, in eating with the blood: and Saul said, Roll a great stone out of Gethem unto me hither. ³⁴And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them to bring hither every one his calf, and every one his sheep: and let them lay it upon this stone, and sin not against the Lord in eating with the blood: and the people brought each one that which was in his hand, and slew them there. ³⁵And Saul built there an altar unto the Lord: the same was the first altar that Saul built unto the Lord. ³⁶And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines this night, and spoil among them until the day break, and let us not leave a man among them. And they said, Do all that is good in thy sight: and the priest said, Let us draw near hither unto God. ³⁷And Saul enquired of God, If I go down after the Philistines, wilt Thou deliver them into the hands of Israel? And He answered him not in that day. ³⁸And Saul said, Bring hither all the chiefs of Israel: and know and see by whom this sin hath been committed this day. ³⁹For as the Lord liveth, which hath saved Israel, if He should give answer against Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. And there was not a man out of all the people that answered him. ⁴⁰And he said unto all the men of Israel, Ye shall be under subjection; and I and Jonathan my son shall be under subjection: and the people said unto Saul, Do that which is good in thy sight. ⁴¹And Saul said, O Lord God of Israel, wherefore hast Thou not answered Thy servant this day? is the iniquity in me, or in Jonathan my son? O Lord God of Israel, give clear manifestations: and if the lot should declare this, give, I pray Thee, unto Thy people Israel, give, I pray, holiness. And Jonathan and Saul are taken by lot, and the people escaped. ⁴²And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son: whomsoever the Lord shall cause to be taken by lot, let him die: and the people said unto Saul, This thing is not to be done: and Saul prevailed against the people, and they cast lots between him and Jonathan his son; and Jonathan is taken by lot. ⁴³And Saul said unto Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done: and Jonathan told him, and said, I did indeed taste a little honey with the end of my staff, and lo, I am to die. ⁴⁴And Saul said unto him, God do so to me, and more also: thou shalt surely die to day. ⁴⁵And the people said unto Saul, Shall he put to death this day that hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? As the Lord liveth, there shall not one of the hairs of his head fall to the ground: for the people of God have wrought successfully this day. And the people prayed for Jonathan in that day; and he died not. ⁴⁶And Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines departed to their own place.

⁴⁷And Saul received the kingdom, by lot he inheriteth the office over Israel; and he fought against his enemies round about, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against the children of Edom, and against Beth-aor, and against the king of Zobah, and against the Philistines: whithersoever he turned himself, he had the victory. ⁴⁸And he wrought valiantly, and smote Amalek, and rescued Israel out of the hand of them that trod on him. ⁴⁹And the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishui, and Melchishua: and these were the names of his two daughters; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the second Michal. ⁵⁰And the name of his wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of the host was Abner, the son of Ner, the son of Saul's kinsman. ⁵¹And Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Jamin, the son of Abiel. ⁵²And the war was hard against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong man, and any valiant man, he took them unto him.

CHAPTER 15

Samuel also said unto Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint thee to be king over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the Lord. ²Thus said the Lord of Sabaoth, Now will I take vengeance for that which Amalek did unto Israel, when he met him in the way, as he came up out of Egypt. ³And now go; and thou shalt smite Amalek and Jerim, and all that he hath; and thou shalt not save anything of him alive, but shalt utterly destroy him: and thou shalt devote him and all that is his unto destruction, and shalt spare nothing that belongeth to him; and thou shalt slay from man and unto woman, and from infant unto suckling, and from calf unto sheep, and from camel unto ass. ⁴And Saul summoned the people, and numbereth them in Gilgal, four hundred thousand of ranks, and Judah thirty thousand of ranks. ⁵And Saul came to the cities of Amalek, and laid wait in the brook. ⁶And Saul said unto the Kenite, Go, and get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I put thee with them: for thou didst deal mercifully with the sons of Israel when they went up out of Egypt. ⁷And Saul smote Amalek from Havilah to Shur, that is over against Egypt. ⁸And he took Agag the king of Amalek alive, and slew all the people and Jerim with the edge of the sword. ⁹And Saul and all the people saved Agag alive, and the good of the flocks, and of the herds, and of the fruits, of the vineyards, and of all the good things, and would not destroy them: but every thing that was worthless and refuse they destroyed.

¹⁰And the word of the Lord came unto Samuel, saying, ¹¹It repenteth me that I have made Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following Me, and hath not kept My word. And Samuel was grieved, and he cried unto the Lord all night. ¹²And Samuel rose early, and went to meet Israel in the morning; and it was told Saul, saying, Samuel is come to Carmel, and he hath raised him up help: and he turned his chariot, and came down to Gilgal unto Saul; and, behold, he was offering up an whole burnt offering unto the Lord, the chief of the spoils which he brought out of Amalek. ¹³And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord: I have performed all that the Lord said. ¹⁴And Samuel said, What meaneth then the voice of this flock in mine ears, and the sound of the oxen which I hear? ¹⁵And Saul said, I have brought them out of Amalek, that which the people preserved, even the best of the sheep, and of the cattle, that it might be sacrificed unto the Lord thy God; and the rest have I utterly destroyed. ¹⁶And Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night; and he said unto him, Say on. ¹⁷And Samuel said unto Saul, Art thou not a little in His eyes, though a leader of one of the tribes of Israel? and yet the Lord anointed thee to be king over Israel. ¹⁸And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy: thou shalt slay the sinners against Me, even the Amalekites; and thou shalt war against them until thou have consumed them. ¹⁹And wherefore didst thou not hearken to the voice of the Lord, but didst haste to fasten upon the spoils, and didst that which was evil in the sight of the Lord? ²⁰And Saul said unto Samuel, Because I hearkened unto the voice of the people: yet I went the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have destroyed Amalek. ²¹But the people took of the spoils the best flocks and herds out of that which was destroyed, to sacrifice before the Lord our God in Galgal. ²²And Samuel said, Doth the Lord take pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in hearing the words of the Lord? behold, to obey is better than a good sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. ²³For sin is as divination; idols bring on pain and grief. Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, the Lord also shall reject thee from being king over Israel. ²⁴and Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned, in that I have transgressed the word of the Lord, and thy direction; because I feared the people, and hearkened unto their voice. ²⁵And now, I pray thee, remove my sin, and turn back with me; and I will worship the Lord thy God. ²⁶And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not turn back with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord will reject thee from being king over Israel. ²⁷And Samuel turned his face to go away, and Saul laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and rent it. ²⁸And Samuel said unto him, The Lord hath rent thy kingdom from Israel out of thine hand this day, and will give it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. ²⁹And Israel shall be divided to two: and God will not turn nor repent; for he is not as a man to repent. ³⁰And Saul said, I have sinned: yet honour me, I pray thee, before the elders of Israel, and before my people; and turn back with me, and I will worship the Lord thy God. ³¹So Samuel turned back after Saul; and he worshipped the Lord. ³²And Samuel said, Bring me Agag the king of Amalek: and Agag came unto him trembling; and Agag said, Is death thus bitter? ³³And Samuel said unto Agag, As thy sword hath bereaved women of their children, so shall thy mother be made childless among women: and Samuel slew Agag before the Lord in Galgal. ³⁴And Samuel departed to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah. ³⁵And Samuel saw not Saul again until the day of his death: for Samuel mourned after Saul; and the Lord repented that He had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

And the Lord said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and come, and I will send thee to Jesse, to Bethlehem: for I have seen Me a king among his sons. ²And Samuel said, How can I go? seeing that Saul will hear it, and kill me; and the Lord said, Take an heifer of the oxen in thine hand; and thou shalt say, I am come to sacrifice to the Lord. ³And thou shalt call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will make known to thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint him whom I shall mention to thee. ⁴And Samuel did all that the Lord told him, and came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the city were amazed at meeting him, and said, Is thy coming for peace, thou seer? ⁵And he said, Peace: I am come to sacrifice unto the Lord: sanctify yourselves, and rejoice with me this day: and he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. ⁶And it came to pass, when they were come, that he saw Eliab, and said, Surely the Lord's anointed is before him. ⁷But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, nor on his stature; because I have rejected him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. ⁸And Jesse called Abinadab, and he passed before Samuel: and he said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this. ⁹And Jesse caused Shammah to pass by: and he said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this. ¹⁰And Jesse caused his seven sons to pass before Samuel: and Samuel said, The Lord hath not chosen these. ¹¹And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are there no more sons? and Jesse said, There is yet a little one; behold, he keepeth the flock. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we may not sit down before he cometh. ¹²And he sent, and fetched him; and he was ruddy, with comeliness of eyes, and goodly in the sight of the Lord. ¹³And Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward: and Samuel rose up, and departed to Armathaim.

¹⁴And the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord choked him. ¹⁵And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from the Lord choketh thee. ¹⁶Let now thy servants speak before thee, and let them seek out for our lord a man cunning to play upon the harp: and it shall come to pass, when an evil spirit cometh upon thee, and he shall play upon his harp, that thou shalt be well, and he shall refresh thee. ¹⁷And Saul said unto his servants, Look now for me a cunning player, and bring him to me. ¹⁸And one of his servants answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, and he hath understanding in playing on the harp; and the man is prudent, and a warrior, and wise in speech; and the man is comely, and the Lord is with him. ¹⁹And Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, saying, Send me David thy son, which is with thy flock. ²⁰And Jesse took an homer of bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid of the goats, and sent them by the hand of David his son unto Saul. ²¹And David went in to Saul, and stood before him; and he loved him greatly, and he became his armourbearer. ²²And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found grace in my sight. ²³And it came to pass, when the evil spirit was upon Saul, that David took his harp, and played with his hand; and Saul was refreshed, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER 17

And the Philistines gather together their armies to battle, and gather together to Shochoh of Judah, and pitch between Shochoh and Azekah Ephes-dammin. ²And Saul and the men of Israel gather together, and pitch in the valley, and set the battle in array over against the Philistines. ³And the Philistines stand on the mountain on the one side, and Israel standeth on the mountain on the other side; and the valley was between them. ⁴And there went out a mighty man out of the army of the Philistines, Goliath by name, out of Gath: his height was four cubits and a span. ⁵And he had an helmet upon his head, and wore a breastplate of mail; and the weight of his breastplate was five thousand shekels of brass and iron. ⁶And greaves of brass were upon his head, and a target of brass between his shoulders. ⁷And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head was six hundred shekels of iron: and his armourbearer went before him. ⁸And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array against us? Am I not a Philistine, and ye Hebrews of Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. ⁹And if he be able to fight against me, and to smite me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail, and smite him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. ¹⁰And the Philistine said, Behold, I have defied the armies of Israel this very day; give me a man, and we will fight together. ¹¹And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, and they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

³²And David said unto Saul, Let not, I pray thee, the heart of my lord be downcast within him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. ³³And Saul said unto David, Thou shalt not in any wise be able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a mere youth, and he a man of war from his youth. ³⁴And David said unto Saul, Thy servant tended his father's flock; and when there came a lion, and a she bear, and took a sheep out of the flock, ³⁵then I went our after him, and smote him, and drew it out of his mouth; and when he arose against me, then I caught hold of his throat, and smote him, and slew him. ³⁶Thy servant smote both the lion and the bear: and the uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them: shall I not go and smite him, and remove this day a reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised one, which hath defied the army of the living God? ³⁷The Lord that hath delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this uncircumcised Philistine. And Saul said, Go; and the Lord shall be with thee. ³⁸And Saul clothed David with a coat of armour, and he put his helmet of brass upon his head. ³⁹And he girt David with his sword over his coat: and he laboured, walking with them once and again: and David said unto Saul, I shall not be able to go with these, for I have not proved them; so they remove them from him. ⁴⁰And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's scrip which he had for his store, and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine. ⁴²And Goliath saw David, and despised him; for he was a lad, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance. ⁴³And the Philistine said unto David, Am I as a dog, that thou comest against me with a staff and stones? And David said, Nay, but worse than a dog. And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴And the Philistine said unto David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. ⁴⁵And David said unto the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord God of Sabaoth of the army of Israel, whom thou hast defied ⁴⁶this day. And this day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand; and I will slay thee, and take thine head from off thee, and give thy limbs and the limbs of the army of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth: and all the earth shall know that there is a God in Israel. ⁴⁷And all this assembly shall know that the Lord delivereth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the Lord's, and the Lord will deliver thee into our hands. ⁴⁸And the Philistine arose, and went to meet David. ⁴⁹And David stretched out his hand to his scrip, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone penetrated through the helmet into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. ⁵¹And David ran, and stood upon him, and took his sword, and slew him, and cut off his head; and the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, and they fled. ⁵²And the men of Israel and Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued them unto the entry to Gath, and unto the gate of Askalon; and the men that were slain of the Philistines fell in the way of the gates, both to Gath, and to Ekron. ⁵³And the men of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they trod down their camp. ⁵⁴And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

¹²Now David was the son of the man of Ephratha: he was from Bethlehem Judah, and his name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul. ¹³And the three elder sons of Jesse went, and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and the second Abinadab, and the third Shammah. ¹⁴And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul. ¹⁵But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep in Bethlehem. ¹⁶And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. ¹⁷And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; ¹⁸and carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge. ¹⁹Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of the oak, fighting with the Philistines. ²⁰And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle. ²¹For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army. ²²And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren. ²³And as he talked with them, behold, there came up a man, the champion, Goliath by name out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them. ²⁴And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid. ²⁵And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. ²⁶And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? ²⁷And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him. ²⁸And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab was angry with David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? And with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the wickedness of thine heart; for thou art come down to see the battle. ²⁹And David said, What have I now done? is there not a cause? ³⁰And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner. ³¹And the words were heard which David spake, and they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.*

⁴¹And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.*

⁵⁰So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.*

⁵⁵And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistines, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. ⁵⁶And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is. ⁵⁷And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistines, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. ⁵⁸And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? and David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite”.*

CHAPTER 18

⁶And there came out women in dances to meet David out of all the cities of Israel, with timbrels, and with rejoicing, and with cymbals. ⁷And the women began, and said, Saul has smitten in his thousands, and David in his ten thousands. ⁸And it seemed evil in the sight of Saul; and he said, They have given unto David ten thousands, and to me they have given but thousands: and what more can he have but the kingdom? ¹²And Saul was afraid before the face of David. ¹³And he removed him from him, and made him captain of a thousand for himself; and he went out and came in before the people. ¹⁴And David was prudent in all his ways, and the Lord was with him. ¹⁵And Saul saw that he was very wise, and he was afraid before his face. ¹⁶And all Israel and Judah loved David, because he came in and went out before the face of the people.

²⁰And Michal Saul's daughter loved David; and it was told Saul, and the thing was pleasing in his eyes. ²¹And Saul said, I shall give her to him, and she shall be a stumblingblock to him. Now the hand of the Philistines was against Saul. ²²And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David privily, saying, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee; and be thou the king's son in law. ²³And the king's servants spake these words in the ears of David; and David, said, Is it a light thing in your eyes to be a king's son in law, seeing I am an humble man, and not esteemed? ²⁴And the servants of Saul told him according to these words, which David spake. ²⁵And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth no gift, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. Now Saul thought to cast him into the hands of the Philistines. ²⁶And Saul's servants tell David these words; and David was pleased well to be the king's son in law. ²⁷And David arose, and went, he and his men, and smote among the Philistines an hundred men; and he brought their foreskins, and he becometh the king's son in law, and Saul giveth him

Michal his daughter to wife. ²⁸And Saul saw that the Lord was with David, and that all Israel loved him; ²⁹and he was yet the more afraid of David.

And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. ²And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more to his father's house. ³Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. ⁴And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. ⁵And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was pleasing in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.*

⁹And Saul eyed David from that day and onward. ¹⁰And it came to pass on the morrow, that an evil spirit from God fell upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of his house: and David played on the harp with his hand, according to his daily custom: and Saul's javelin was in his hand. ¹¹And Saul took his javelin, and said, I will smite David even to the wall. But David avoided out of his presence twice.*

¹⁷And Saul said unto David, Behold my elder daughter Merob, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou a mighty man to me, and fight the Lord's wars. And Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be upon him. ¹⁸And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is the life of my family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king? ¹⁹But it came to pass at the time when Merob Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Israel the Meholathite to wife.

CHAPTER 19

And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. ²And Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David; and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul seeketh to kill thee; therefore take heed to thyself to morrow morning, and hide thyself, and abide in secret. ³And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and I will see what it might be, and I will tell thee. ⁴And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against thy servant David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and his works are very good. ⁵And he did put his life in his hand, and smote the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great deliverance; and all Israel saw, and rejoiced: wherefore then dost thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? ⁶And Saul hearkened unto to the voice of Jonathan; and Saul sware, saying, As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain. ⁷And Jonathan called David, and shewed him all these things; and Jonathan brought David in to Saul, and he was in his presence, as yesterday and the third day before. ⁸And there continued war against Saul; and David grew strong, and fought with the Philistines, and smote them with a very great blow; and they fled from before him.

⁹And an evil spirit from God was upon Saul, and he rested in his house, and a javelin was in his hand: and David played on the harp with his hands. ¹⁰And Saul sought to strike the javelin into David; and David withdrew out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall; and David fled, and escaped. ¹¹And it came to pass in that night, that Saul sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, to slay him in the morning; and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life this night, to morrow thou shalt be slain. ¹²So Michal letteth David down by the window; and he went forth, and fled, and escaped. ¹³And Michal took the images, and laid them in the bed; and she put a goat's liver by his head, and covered them with a cloke. ¹⁴And Saul sent messengers to take David, and they say that he is sick. ¹⁵And he sendeth to David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. ¹⁶And the messengers come, and, behold, there were images in the bed, and the goat's liver at his head. ¹⁷And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me, and suffered mine enemy to depart; and he is escaped? And Michal said unto Saul, He said, Let me go; and if not, I will kill thee.

¹⁸So David fled, and escaped, and cometh to Samuel to Ramah, and telleth him all that Saul hath done to him; and Samuel and David went, and dwelt in Naioth in Ramah. ¹⁹And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is in Naioth in Ramah. ²⁰And Saul sent messengers to take David: and they saw the company of the prophets, and Samuel stood as appointed over them; and the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they prophesied. ²¹And it was told Saul; and he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise; and Saul sent again a third company of messengers, and they prophesied likewise. ²²And Saul was exceeding angry, and went also to Armathaim; and cometh unto the well of the threshing floor that is in Sechu; and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? and they said, Behold, in Naioth in Ramah. ²³And he went thence to Naioth in Ramah; and there came the Spirit of God upon him also, and he went, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴And he stripped off his clothes, and prophesied before them, and lay down naked all that day and all that night: wherefore they said, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAPTER 20

And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and cometh before Jonathan, and said, What have I done, and what is mine iniquity, and wherein have I sinned before thy father, that he seeketh my life? ²And Jonathan said unto him, Far be it from thee; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will not do anything either great or small, and not uncover mine ear; and why should my father hide this thing from me? this is not so. ³And David answered Jonathan, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes, and he hath said, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he refuse his consent: but as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, as I said, between me and death is filled up. ⁴And Jonathan said unto David, What doth thy soul desire, and what shall I do for thee? ⁵And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I shall by no means sit down to eat; but thou shalt let me go, and I will hide in the field until even. ⁶And if thy father in any wise enquire for me, then shalt thou say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family. ⁷If he say thus, It is well, then there is peace for thy servant: but if he answer thee harshly, then be sure that evil is determined by him. ⁸And thou shalt deal mercifully with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the Lord with thee: and if there be iniquity in thy servant, slay me thyself; and why shouldest thou thus bring me to thy father? ⁹And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I know certainly that evil is determined by my father to come upon thee, and it be not against thy cities, I will tell thee. ¹⁰And David said unto Jonathan, Who can tell me if thy father answer roughly? ¹¹And Jonathan said unto David, Go, and abide in the field. And they went out both of them into the field. ¹²And Jonathan said unto David, The Lord God of Israel knoweth that I will sound my father, as I have opportunity, three several times; and, behold, if good be determined concerning David, and I send thee not unto the field, ¹³God do so and more also to Jonathan: as I shall also report the evil unto thee, and make it known to thee, and I will let thee go; and thou shalt depart in peace, and the Lord shall be with thee, as he was with my father. ¹⁴And if indeed, I continue to live, then shalt thou deal mercifully with me; and if indeed I die, ¹⁵thou shalt not withdraw thy mercy from my house for ever: and if thou doest not, when the Lord cutteth off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth, and it happen that the name of Jonathan be discovered by the house of David; then let the Lord seek out the enemies of David. ¹⁷And Jonathan sware yet again unto David, because he loved the soul of him that loved him. ¹⁸And Jonathan said, To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be enquired for, because thy seat will be observed as empty. ¹⁹And thou shalt stay three days, and watch an opportunity, and shalt come to thy place where thou mayest hide thyself in the day of thy business; and thou shalt wait by that ergab. ²⁰And I will shoot three arrows, and aim them at the mark. ²¹And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find me out the arrow. ²²If I expressly say unto the lad, The arrow is here, and on this die of thee, take it; then come, for it is well with thee, and there is no reason for fear, as the Lord liveth: but if I say thus unto the young man, The arrow is on that side of thee, and beyond; go, for the Lord hath sent thee away. ²³And as touching the word which thou and I have spoken, behold, the Lord is witness between me and thee for ever.

²⁴So David hideth himself in the field: and the new moon cometh, and the king cometh to the table to eat. ²⁵And he sat upon his seat as at other times, even upon his seat by the wall, and he went on before Jonathan; and Abner sat on one side of Saul, and David's place was empty. ²⁶And Saul spake not any thing that day: for he said, It seemeth to have fallen out that he is not clean, because he hath not purified himself. ²⁷And it came to pass on the morrow, on the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore hath not the son of Jesse attended both yesterday and to day at the table? ²⁸And Jonathan answered Saul, and said unto him, David asked leave of me to go unto Bethlehem his city: ²⁹and he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for we have a family sacrifice in the city; and my brethren, they have sent for me: and now, if I have found grace in thine eyes, I will even go over, and see my brethren: therefore he is not present at the king's table. ³⁰And Saul was exceeding wroth with Jonathan, and said unto him, Thou son of treacherous damsels! for know I not that thou art confederate with the son of Jesse to thine own shame, and unto the shame of thy mother's nakedness? ³¹For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thy kingdom shall not be established: now send and take the young man, for he shall surely die. ³²And Jonathan answered Saul, Wherefore is he to die? what hath he done? ³³And Saul lifted up his javelin against Jonathan to slay him: so Jonathan knew that this evil was determined of his father to slay David. ³⁴And Jonathan gat him up from the table in great anger, and did eat no bread the second day of the month: for he grieved bitterly for David, because his father had determined against him.

³⁵And morning came, and Jonathan went out into the field as he appointed for a signal to David, and a little lad with him. ³⁶And he said unto the lad, Run, find out me the arrows which I shoot: and the boy ran, and Jonathan shot an arrow, and sent it beyond him. ³⁷And the boy was come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot; and Jonathan cried after the lad, The arrow is on that side of thee, and beyond thee. ³⁸And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make all speed, and stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and brought the arrows to his master. ³⁹And the lad knew not any thing, only Jonathan and David. ⁴⁰And Jonathan gave his weapons unto the lad, and said unto his lad, Go, enter into the city. ⁴¹And when the lad was gone in, then David arose from the ergab, and fell on his face, and did obeisance unto him three times: and they kissed each other, and wept for each other, for a great while. ⁴²And Jonathan said unto David, Go in peace; and as we have both sworn in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord shall be witness between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever.

CHAPTER 21

And David arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city. ²And David cometh to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech was amazed at the meeting of him, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? ³And David said unto the priest, The king hath commanded me a business this day, and hath said unto me, Let no man know the business whereabout I send thee, and concerning the which I have commanded thee: and I have testified unto my servants in the place that is called the Faithfulness of God, Phalanni Alomni. And now, if there be under thine hands five loaves, give into mine hand what is found. And the priest answered David, and said, There are no common loaves under mine hand, for I have none but hallowed loaves: if the young men have kept themselves at least from a woman, then shall they eat. ⁵And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Yea, we have kept ourselves from women since yesterday and the day before: when I came forth for my journey all the young men were purified: but this journey is profane; wherefore it shall be sanctified this day because of my weapons. ⁶So Ahimelech the priest gave him the loaves of the presence: for there were no loaves there but only the loaves of the presence, that are taken from the presence of the Lord, to set on hot bread in the day wherein he took them away. ⁷And one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the Lord; and his name was Doeg the Syrian, and he tended the asses of Saul. ⁸And David said unto Ahimelech, See if there be here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons in mine hand, because the king's word was in haste. ⁹And the priest said, Behold the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou smotest in the valley of Elah; and it is wrapped in a cloth: if thou wilt take it, take it for thyself, for there is no other save it here. And David said, Behold, there is none like it; give it me. ¹⁰And he gave it him; and David arose, and fled that day from the presence of Saul.

And David came to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did not the dancing women begin the song to him, saying, Saul hath smitten his thousands, and David his ten thousands? ¹²And David laid up the words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish king of Gath. ¹³And he changed his appearance before them, and feigned himself a false character in that day, and drummed upon the doors of the gate, and his spittle ran down upon his beard. ¹⁴And Achish said unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore have ye brought him in to me? ¹⁵Am I in need of mad men, that ye have brought him in to me to play the mad man? He shall not come into the house.

CHAPTER 22

And David departed thence, and escaped; and he cometh to the cave of Adullam: and his brethren hear, and his father's house, and they go down thither to him. ²And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was troubled in soul, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a leader over them: and there were with him about four hundred men. ³And David departed thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, be with thee, till I know what God will do to me. ⁴And he appealed to the person of the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him continually, while David was in the hold. ⁵And Gad the prophet said unto David, Abide not in the hold; go, and thou shalt enter into the land of Judah. So David went, and came and dwelt in the city of Hareth.

⁶And Saul heard that David was discovered, and his men with him: now Saul dwelt in the hill under the field that is in Ramah; and his spear was in his hand, and all his servants stood near him. ⁷And Saul said unto his servants that stood by him, Hear now, ye sons of Benjamin; will the son of Jesse indeed give all of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of hundreds, and captains of thousands; ⁸that all of you conspire against me, and there is none that uncovereth mine ear, seeing my son hath made a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me for an enemy, as this day? ⁹Then answered Doeg the Syrian, which was set over the asses of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub the priest. ¹⁰And he enquired of God for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. ¹¹Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, and all his father's sons, the priests that were in Nob; and they came all of them unto the king. ¹²And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he said, Lo, I am here; speak now, my lord. ¹³And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, that thou shouldest give him bread, and a sword, and shouldest enquire of God for him, to raise him up against me as an enemy, as at this day? ¹⁴And he answered the king, and said, And who is there so faithful among thy servants as David; and he is the king's son in law, and doer of all thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? ¹⁵Did I then begin this day to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king bring a charge against his servant, and against all the house of my father, for thy servant knew not in all this matter any thing, great or small. ¹⁶And king Saul said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house. ¹⁷And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Draw nigh, and slay the priests of the Lord; because their hand is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to fall upon the priests of the Lord. ¹⁸And the king said unto Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests; and Doeg the Syrian turned, and slew the priests of the Lord in that day, three hundred and five men, all wearing an ephod. ¹⁹And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, infant and suckling, and calf, and ox, and sheep. ²⁰And one son of Ahimelech escapeth; and his name was Abiathar; and he fled after David. ²¹And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain all the Lord's priests. ²²And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, that Doeg the Syrian would surely tell Saul: I am guilty of the death of thy father's house. ²³Abide thou with me, fear not; for wheresoever I shall seek a place of safety for my life, I will also seek a place for thy life, for with me thou art in safeguard.

CHAPTER 23

And it was told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines make war in Keilah, and they rob and trample the threshingfloors. ²And David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? and the Lord said, Go; and thou shalt smite these Philistines, and save Keilah. ³And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: and how shall it be if we go to Keilah? shall we go after the spoils of the Philistines? ⁴And David enquired of the Lord yet again; and the Lord answered him, and said unto him, Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hands. ⁵So David and his men with him went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines; and they fled from before him, and carried off their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter: and David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah.

⁶And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David, that he went down with David to Keilah, having an ephod in his hands. ⁷And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah; and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hands; for he is shut in, having entered into a city that hath gates and bars. ⁸And Saul charged all the people to lay siege unto David and his men. ⁹And David knew that Saul openly spake of mischief against him; and David said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod of the Lord. ¹⁰And David said, O Lord God of Israel, Thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come against Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. ¹¹Will the place be shut up? and now will Saul come down, as Thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, tell Thy servant. And the Lord said, It will be shut up. ¹³And David arose, and the men with him, in number about four hundred, and they went forth out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go: and it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to come.

¹⁴And David abode in Masherem in the wilderness, in the narrow passes; and abode in the wilderness in mount Ziph, in the dry country. And Saul sought him continually, but the Lord delivered him not into his hands. ¹⁵And David perceived that Saul went out to seek David; and David was in the dry mountain in the New Ziph. ¹⁶And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David in New, and strengthened his hands in the Lord. ¹⁷And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be second unto thee; and that Saul my father knoweth. ¹⁸So they both made a covenant before the Lord; and David abode in New Ziph, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹Then came up the Ziphites out of the dry country unto Saul to the hill, saying, Behold, is not David hid with us in Massarah, in the narrows in New in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side of Jerusalem? ²⁰And now according to all the king's desire to come down, let him come down to us: they have shut him up into the hands of the king. ²¹And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the Lord, for ye have been grieved for my sake. ²²Go, I pray you, and make preparation yet, and notice his place where his foot shall be, quickly, in that place ye spake of, lest by any means he deal subtilly. ²³Take notice then, and learn, and I will go with you; and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah. ²⁴And the Ziphites arose, and went before Saul; and David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, westward, to the right of Jeshimon. ²⁵Saul also and his men went to seek him, and they brought word to David; and he went down to the rock that was in the wilderness of Maon; and Saul heard, and pursued after David to the wilderness of Maon. ²⁶And Saul and his men go on one side of the mountain, and David and his men are on the other side of the mountain: and David hid himself to get away from Saul; and Saul and his men encamped against David and his men to take them. ²⁷And there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come hither; for the Philistines have invaded the land. ²⁸Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went to meet the Philistines: therefore that place was called the Divided Rock.

¹²Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hands of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up.

CHAPTER 24

And David rose up from thence, and dwelt in the narrow places of Engedi. ²And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from pursuing the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, David is in the wilderness of Engedi. ³And he took three thousand men chosen out of all Israel with him, and went to seek David and his men before Zadaim. ⁴And he came to the flocks of sheep that were by the way, and there was a cave there; and Saul went in to make preparation; and David and his men sat in the inner part of the cave. ⁵And the men of David said unto him, Behold, this is the day of which the Lord said unto thee that he would deliver thine enemy into thy hands; and thou shalt do to him as it is good in thy sight. So David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's garment privily. ⁶And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off the skirt of his garment. ⁷And David said unto his men, The Lord forbid it me that I should do this thing unto my lord, the Lord's anointed, to lift mine hand against him: for he is the anointed of the Lord. ⁸So David persuaded his men by his words, and suffered them not to rise and slay Saul; and Saul rose up, and went his way. ⁹David also arose, and went after him out of the cave: and David cried after Saul, saying, My lord, O king! and Saul looked behind him, and David stooped with his face to the earth, and did obeisance to him. ¹⁰And David said unto Saul, Wherefore hearest thou the people's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy life? ¹¹Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the Lord hath delivered thee into mine hands in the cave; and I said I would not slay thee, but spared thee, and said, I will not lift up mine hand against my lord, for he is the Lord's anointed. ¹²And see, the skirt of thy mantle is in mine hand: I cut off the skirt, and did not slay thee: know then, and see to day, there is neither evil nor ungodliness in mine hand, nor rebellion; yet thou bindest my soul to take it. ¹³The Lord judge between me and thee, and the Lord requite thee on thyself; but mine hand shall not be upon thee. ¹⁴As saith the old proverb, Transgression shall come out of the wicked, but mine hand shall not be upon thee. ¹⁵And now after whom dost thou come out, O king of Israel? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea? ¹⁶The Lord be judge and umpire between me and thee; the Lord look upon and judge my cause, and rescue me out of thine hand. ¹⁷And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? and Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. ¹⁸And Saul said unto David, Thou art more righteous than I, for thou hast rewarded me good, but I have rewarded thee evil. ¹⁹And thou hast shewed me this day what good thou hast done me; how the Lord shut me up into thine hands, and thou killedst me not. ²⁰And if any one find his enemy in distress, and send him forth in a good way, then the Lord will reward him good, as thou hast done this day. ²¹And now, behold, I know that thou shalt surely reign, and the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. ²²Now then swear unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, that thou wilt not blot out my name out of my father's house. ²³So David sware unto Saul: and Saul departed to his place, and David and his men gat them up to the strong hold of Massarah.

CHAPTER 25

And Samuel died; and all Israel gather together and bewail him, and bury him in his house in Ramah: and David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Maon. ²And there was a man in Maon, and his flocks were in Carmel; and he was a very great man, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand she goats: and it happened when he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. ³And the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife was Abigail: and his wife was of good understanding, and very beautiful in person: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and the man was like a dog. ⁴And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal the Carmelite did shear his sheep. ⁵And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and ask him in my name the things that are for peace. ⁶And thus shall ye say, Thou and thine house seasonably prosper, and all thine be in peace. ⁷And now, behold, I have heard that thy shepherds that were with us in the wilderness are shearing for thee, and we hindered them not; neither did we demand aught of them, all the while they were in Carmel. ⁸Ask thy servants, and they will shew thee. Let then thy servants find grace in thine eyes, for we are come in a good day: give, we pray thee, whatsoever thine hand may find, unto thy son David. ⁹So the servants come, and speak these words to Nabal, according to all these words in the name of David. ¹⁰And Nabal sprang up, and answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be abundance of servants now a days that depart every man from his master. ¹¹And shall I take my bread, and my wine, and my beasts that I have killed for them that shear my sheep, and shall I give them to men, of whom I know not whence they are? ¹²So David's servants turned their way, and returned, and told David according to all these words. ¹³And David said, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they went up after David, about four hundred men; and two hundred abode with the stuff. ¹⁴And one of the servants told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our lord; but he turned away from them. ¹⁵And the men were very good to us; they hindered us not, neither did they demand of us any thing all the days that we were with them. ¹⁶And when we were in the field, they were as a wall round about us both by night and day, all the days we were with them feeding the flock. ¹⁷And now consider and see what thou wilt do; for mischief is determined against our lord, and against his household; and he is a pestilent son, and a man cannot speak to him. ¹⁸And Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two vessels of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five ephahs of fine flour, and one homer of dried grapes, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. ¹⁹And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you: but she told not her husband Nabal. ²⁰And it was so, when she had mounted on her ass, and went down by the covert of the mount, behold, David and his men came down to meet her; and she met them. ²¹And David had said, Mayhap I have kept all his substance in the wilderness that he should wrong me; and we ordered not the taking of aught of all that pertained unto him: yet hath he requited me evil for good. ²²So and more also do God unto David, if I leave of all that pertain to Nabal one that pisseth against the wall. ²³And Abigail saw David, and she hastened, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and did obeisance unto him, bowing herself to the ground, ²⁴even unto his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, let the injustice be: let thy servant, I pray thee, speak in thine ears, and hear the words of thine handmaid. ²⁵Let not my lord, I pray thee, take to heart this pestilent man; for according to his name, even so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I thine handmaid saw not the servants of my lord, whom thou didst send. ²⁶And now, my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming against innocent blood, and from executing vengeance for thyself with thine own hand; now therefore let thine enemies, and they that seek evil against my lord, become as Nabal. ²⁷And now accept this blessing, which thy servant hath brought unto my lord; and thou shalt give it unto the servants that wait upon my lord. ²⁸I pray thee, remove the trespass of thy servant: for the Lord will certainly make my lord a sure house; because the Lord fighteth the battles of my lord, and there shall no evil ever be found in thee. ²⁹And if a man rise up to persecute thee, and to seek thy soul, yet the soul of my lord shall be bound up in the bundle of life with the Lord God; and the soul of thine enemies shalt thou whirl out, as in the middle of a sling. ³⁰And it shall come to pass, when the Lord shall have wrought to my lord all the things He hath spoken concerning thee, and shall appoint thee to be ruler over Israel; ³¹then this shall not be an abomination and offence unto my lord, to have shed innocent blood, and for my lord to have avenged himself: and so may the Lord do good unto my lord, and thou shalt remember thine handmaid to do her good. ³²And David said unto Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this very day to meet me: ³³and blessed be thy conduct, and blessed be thou, which hast hindered me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself. ³⁴And surely as the God of Israel liveth, which hath hindered me this day from hurting thee, if thou hadst not hasted and come to meet me, then had I said, Shall there be left unto Nabal till the morning light one that pisseth against the wall? ³⁵And David received of her hand all that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have chosen thy countenance. ³⁶And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, and he was very drunken; and she told him nothing, great or small, until the morning light. ³⁷And it came to pass in the morning, when Nabal was sobered from his wine, that his wife told him these words, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. ³⁸And it came to pass, after about ten days, that the Lord smote Nabal, and he died. ³⁹And David heard it, and said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath judged the cause of my reproach at the hand of Nabal, and hath delivered His servant from the hand of evil; and the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. ⁴⁰So the servants of David came to Abigail to Carmel, and they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. ⁴¹And she arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, Behold, thy servant is for an handmaid to wash the feet of thy servants. ⁴²And Abigail arose, and mounted upon the ass; and five damsels followed her; and she went after the servants of David, and became his wife. ⁴³David also took Ahinoam of Jezrael; they were also both of them his wives. ⁴⁴And Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

And the Ziphites came out of the dry country unto Saul to the hill, saying, Behold, David hideth himself with us in the hill of Hachilah, which is over against the face of Jeshimon. ²And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him went three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. ³And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah before Jeshimon, by the way; and David abode in the wilderness: and David saw that Saul cometh after him in the wilderness. ⁴And David sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come prepared out of Keila. ⁵And David arose secretly, and goeth into the place where Saul slept; and there was Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul slept in a covered chariot, and the people pitched round about him. ⁶Then answered David and spake unto Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go in with thee. ⁷So David and Abishai go in to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping in the covered chariot, and his spear stuck in the ground by his head; and Abner and his people slept round about him. ⁸Then said Abishai unto David, The Lord hath shut up thine enemy into thine hands this day: and now will I smite him with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him again. ⁹And David said unto Abishai, Bring him not down: for who shall bring his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? ¹⁰And David said, As the Lord liveth, if the Lord smite him not; or his day come, and he die; or he shall descend into battle, and be added unto his fathers. ¹¹The Lord forbid that I should bring mine hand against the Lord's anointed: and now, I pray thee, take thou now the spear from by his head, and the cruse of water, and let us go. ¹²So David took the spear and the cruse of water from by his head; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor know it, neither awaked, for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them. ¹³Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; and there was a great space between them. ¹⁴And David called to the people, and spake unto Abner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that callest me? ¹⁵And David said unto Abner, Art thou not a man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then dost thou not keep thy lord the king? for there went one of the people in to destroy thy lord the king. ¹⁶And this thing is not good that thou hast done. As the Lord liveth, ye are sons of death that keep your king, the Lord's anointed: and now behold, I pray you, where are the king's spear, and the cruse of water that are at his head? ¹⁷And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, son David? And David said, It is thy servant, O lord king. ¹⁸And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for wherein have I sinned? and what unrighteousness hath been found in me? ¹⁹And now let my lord the king hear the word of his servant. If God stir thee up against me, let Him accept the savour of thine offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the Lord; for they have driven me out this day, that I be not established in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serve other gods. ²⁰And now let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord; for the king of Israel is come out to seek my life, as the night hawk pursueth his prey in the mountains. ²¹And Saul said, I have sinned: return, my son David, for I will not do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: and I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. ²²And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear: let one of the servants come over and receive it. ²³And the Lord shall render to each according to his righteousness and his truth, as the Lord delivered thee into my hand to day, and I would not bring mine hand against the Lord's anointed. ²⁴And, behold, as thy life hath been magnified this day in mine eyes, so let my life be magnified before the Lord; and let him protect me, and deliver me out of all tribulation. ²⁵And Saul said unto David, Blessed be thou, my son; and thou shalt do great things, and surely shalt thou prevail". And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

And David said in his heart, I shall now be added one day into the hands of Saul: and there is no good thing for me except that I escape into the land of the Philistines, and Saul cease from seeking me within every coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand. ²And David arose, and the six hundred men that were with him, and he went unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath. ³And David dwelt with Achish, he and his men, each one with his household, and David and both his wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁴And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath; and he sought no more after him. ⁵And David said unto Achish, If thy servant have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me, I pray thee, a place in one of the cities of the country, and I will dwell there; for why doth thy servant dwell in a royal city with thee? ⁶And he gave him Ziklag in that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the king of Judah unto this day. ⁷And the number of days that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was four months. ⁸And David and his men went up, and made an attack on all the Geshurites, and the Amalekites: and, behold, the land was inhabited, even the land from Gelamp-shur, from the fortified cities, even unto the land of Egypt. ⁹And he smote the land, and saved neither man nor woman alive; and they took flocks, and herds, and asses, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achish. ¹⁰And Achish said unto David, Against whom have ye made an attack to day? And David said unto Achish, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of Jesmega, and on the south of the Kenite. ¹¹And I have saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they bring word to Gath against us, saying, These things doeth David. And this was his manner all the days that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines. ¹²So David was fully trusted by Achish, which said, He hath surely made himself utterly to be ashamed among his people in Israel; and he shall be my servant for ever.

CHAPTER 28

And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered together in their camps, to go forth for war with Israel: and Achish said unto David,

Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out to battle with me, thou and thy men. ²And David said unto Achish, Thus now shalt thou know what thy servant shall do. And Achish said unto David, Therefore will I make thee chief of my guard for ever.

³And Samuel died, and all Israel lamented for him; and they bury him in his city, in Ramathaim. And Saul had put away those that had in them divining spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. ⁴And the Philistines gather themselves together, and come and pitch in Shunem: and Saul gathereth all the men of Israel: and they pitch in Gilboa. ⁵And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, and was afraid, and his heart was sore dismayed. ⁶And Saul inquired of the Lord; and the Lord answered him neither by dreams, nor by manifestations, nor by prophets. ⁷Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath in her a divining spirit; and I will go to her, and enquire of her: and his servants said unto him, Behold, there is a woman that hath in her a divining spirit at En-dor. ⁸And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment; and he goeth, and two men with him, and they come to the woman by night: and he said unto her, I pray thee, divine unto me by the divining spirit within thee, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. ⁹And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou surely knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that had in them divining spirits, and the wizards out of the land: and wherefore dost thou spread a snare for my life, to destroy it? ¹⁰And Saul sware to her, and said, As the Lord liveth, there shall no injustice come upon thee for this thing. ¹¹And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? and he said, Bring me up Samuel. ¹²And the woman saw Samuel, and cried out with a loud voice: and the woman said unto Saul, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. ¹³And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: tell me whom thou hast seen. And the woman said unto him, I saw gods ascending out of the earth. ¹⁴And he said unto her, What didst thou perceive? and she said unto him, A man upright cometh up out of the earth; and he is covered with a double mantle. And Saul knew that this was Samuel; and he stooped with his face to the ground, and did obeisance to him. ¹⁵And Samuel said, Why hast thou troubled me, that I should come up? And Saul said, I am sore distressed; and the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and hearkeneth to me no more, neither by the hand of prophets, nor by dreams: and now have I called thee to tell me what I shall do. ¹⁶And Samuel said, Wherefore dost thou ask me, seeing the Lord is departed from thee, and taken part with thy neighbour? ¹⁷And the Lord hath done to thee, as the Lord spake by me: for the Lord will rend the kingdom out of thine hand, and will give it to thy neighbour David, ¹⁸because thou hearkenedst not to the voice of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek: therefore hath the Lord done this thing unto thee this day. ¹⁹And the Lord shall deliver Israel with thee into the hands of the Philistines; and to morrow thou, and thy sons with thee, shall fall: the Lord also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hands of the Philistines. ²⁰And Saul hastened, and fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no more any strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all that day, nor all that night. ²¹And the woman went in to Saul, and saw that he was sore distressed, and said unto him, Behold now, thine handmaid hath hearkened unto thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have obeyed the words which thou spakest unto me. ²²And now, I pray thee, hearken thou unto the voice of thine handmaid, and I will set a morsel of bread before thee: and eat, and there will be strength in thee, for thou wilt be going thy way. ²³But he would not eat; so his servants and the woman constrained him; and he hearkened unto their voice, and rose up from the earth, and sat upon a bench. ²⁴And the woman had an heifer in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened cakes. ²⁵And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat, and rose up, and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

And the Philistines gather together all their armies to Aphek, and Israel pitched in En-dor, which is in Jezreel. ²And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands, and David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish. ³And the lords of the Philistines said, Who are these that pass by? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul king of Israel? He hath been with us some time, even this second year, and I have found no fault in him from the day that he joined himself unto me even unto this day. ⁴And the captains of the Philistines were displeased with him; and they say unto him, Send this fellow away, and let him go again to his place where thou didst set him; and let him not come down with us to the war, and let him not be a traitor in the camp: and wherewith will he be reconciled unto his master? will it not be at the heads of these men? ⁵Is not this David whom they celebrated in dances, saying, Saul hath smitten his thousands, and David his ten thousands? ⁶And Achish called David, and said unto him, As the Lord liveth, thou art right and approved in mine eyes, and so is thy going out and thy coming in with me in the army; and I have not found evil to charge against thee from the day that thou camest unto me unto this day: nevertheless thou art not approved in the eyes of the lords. ⁷Now then, return, and go in peace: thus shalt thou do no evil in the sight of the lords of the Philistines. ⁸And David said unto Achish, What have I done unto thee? and what hast thou found in thy servant from the day I was before thee unto this day, that I should not come and make war against the enemies of my lord the king? ⁹And Achish answered David, I know that thou art good in my sight: notwithstanding the lords of the Philistines say, He shall not come with us to the war. ¹⁰Now then, rise up early in the morning, thou and thy lord's servants that are come with thee, and go unto the place where I appointed you; and entertain no evil thought in thine heart, for thou art good in my sight: and rise up early for your journey when it is light, and depart. ¹¹So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart, and guard the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went up to fight against Israel.

CHAPTER 30

And it came to pass, when David and his men were entered into Ziklag on the third day, that Amalek had made an invasion upon the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire. ²And as to the women, and all things that were therein, great and small, they slew neither man nor woman, but carried them away captives, and went on their way. ³And David and his men came into the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were carried captive. ⁴And David and his men lifted up their voice and wept, until there was no more power within them to weep. ⁵And both of David's wives were carried captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, each for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the Lord his God. ⁷And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, Bring near the ephod. ⁸And David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? and He said unto him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and shalt surely rescue. ⁹So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him; and they come unto the brook Besor, and they that were in reserve stayed. ¹⁰And he pursued them with four hundred men: and there abode two hundred men, which tarried on the other side of the brook Besor. ¹¹And they find an Egyptian in the field, and take him, and bring him to David; and they gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water. ¹²And they give him a piece of a cake of figs; and he did eat, and his spirit was restored in him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. ¹³And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? and the young man the Egyptian said, I am the servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I was taken sick. ¹⁴And we made an invasion on the south of the Cherethite, and on the parts of Judah, and on the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire. ¹⁵And David said unto him, Wilt thou bring me down to this company? and he said, Swear now unto me by God, that thou wilt not kill me, and that thou wilt not deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down upon this company. ¹⁶So he brought him down thither, and, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the face of the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoils that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. ¹⁷And David came upon them, and smote them from the morning even unto the evening, and on the next day: and there escaped not one of them, save four hundred young men, which were mounted on camels, and fled. ¹⁸And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: and he rescued both his wives. ¹⁹And there was nothing lacking to them of great or small, either of the spoils, or the sons or daughters, or any thing that they had taken of theirs: and David recovered all. ²⁰And he took all the flocks, and the herds, and led them away before the spoils: and it was said of these spoils, These are David's spoils. ²¹And David cometh to the two hundred men, which were left behind that they should not follow after David; and he had made them to remain by the brook of Besor: and they came forth to meet David, and to meet his people with him: and David drew near to the people, and they asked him how he did. ²²Then answered every ill disposed and bad man that went with David, and said, Because they did not pursue together with us, we will not give them of the spoils that we have recovered; only let each one lead away with him his wife and his children, and let them return. ²³And David said, Ye shall not do so, after the Lord hath delivered the enemy unto us, and guarded us: and the Lord hath delivered the company that came against us into our hands. ²⁴And who will hearken unto these your words? for they are not lesser than us; for according to the portion of him that went down to the battle, so shall his portion be that abideth with the stuff: they shall part alike. ²⁵And it was so from that day forward, that it became an ordinance and a custom in Israel unto this day.

²⁶And David came to Ziklag, and sent of the spoils unto the elders of Judah, and unto his friends, saying, Behold, of the spoils of the enemies of the Lord; ²⁷to them which were in Beth-shur, and to them which were in Ramah of the south, and to them which were in Jattir; ²⁸and to them which were in Aroer, and to them which were in Amadi, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in Eshtemoa, ²⁹and to them which were in Gath, and to them which were in Kinan, and to them which were in Saphek, and to them which were in Thimath, and to them which were in Carmel, and to them which were in the cities of Jerahmeel, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenite; ³⁰and to them which were in Jerimouth, and to them which were in Beersheba, and to them which were in Noo; ³¹and to them which were in Hebron, and to all the places which David and his men passed through.

CHAPTER 31

Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines; and they fall down wounded in the mount of Gilboa. ²And the Philistines pressed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines smite Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, Saul's sons. ³And the battle prevaieth against Saul, and the shooters of arrows, even the archers, find him; and he was wounded under the ribs. ⁴And Saul said unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and pierce me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and pierce me through, and mock me. But his armourbearer would not, for he was sore afraid: so Saul took his sword, and fell upon it. ⁵And his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, and he fell likewise himself upon his sword, and died with him. ⁶So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, in that day together. ⁷And the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were beyond Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead: and they forsake their cities, and flee; and the Philistines come and dwell in them. ⁸And it came to pass on the morrow, that the Philistines come to strip the dead, and they find Saul and his three sons fallen in the mountains of Gilboa. ⁹And they turned him, and stripped off his armour, and sent it into the land of the Philistines, publishing abroad the glad tidings to their idols, and unto their people. ¹⁰And they set up his armour in the temple of Ashtaroath: and they fastened his body on the wall of Beth-shan. ¹¹And the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines did to Saul. ¹²And they rose up, even every man of might, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the body of Jonathan his son from the walls of Beth-shan: and they bring them to Jabesh, and burn them there. ¹³And they take their bones, and bury them in the field that is in Jabesh, and fast seven days.

2 REIGNS

CHAPTER 1

And it came to pass, after that Saul was dead, that David was returned from smiting Amalek; and David had abode two days in Ziklag. ²And it came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from the people of Saul, and his clothes were rent; and so it was, when he went in to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance to him. ³And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? and he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. ⁴And David said unto him, What is the matter? tell me. And he said, The people fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. ⁵And David said unto the young man that brought him tidings, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead? ⁶And the young man that told him said, I happened by chance to be on mount Gilboa; and, behold, Saul lent upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and captains of horse followed hard upon him. ⁷And he looked behind him, and saw me, and called unto me; and I said, Behold, here am I. ⁸And he said unto me, Who art thou? and I said, I am an Amalekite. ⁹And he said unto me, Stand over me, and slay me, for a dread darkness hath laid hold upon me, because my life is yet whole within me. ¹⁰So I stood over him, and slew him, because I knew that he could not live after that he was fallen; and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. ¹¹And David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and all the men that were with him rent their clothes. ¹²And they beat themselves, and wept, and fasted until even for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of Judah, and for the house of Israel, because they were smitten by the sword. ¹³And David said unto the young man that brought the tidings unto him, Whence art thou? and he said, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. ¹⁴And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the Lord's anointed? ¹⁵And David called one of the young men, and said, Go, and fall upon him; and he smote him, and he died. ¹⁶And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head, for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed.

¹⁷And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son. ¹⁸And he gave charge to teach it unto the children of Judah; behold, it is written in the book of the upright.

¹⁹Set up a pillar, O Israel, for the slain that have died upon thy high places; how are the mighty fallen! ²⁰Tell it not in Gath, and publish it not in glad tidings in the streets of Askalon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult. ²¹Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain come down upon you, nor fields of firstfruits; for there the shield of the mighty ones hath been sore vexed; the shield of Saul was not anointed with oil. ²²From the blood of the slain and from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back empty rearward, and the sword of Saul returned not empty. ²³Saul and Jonathan, the beloved and the comely, were not divided; comely were they in their life, and in their death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, and they were stronger than lions. ²⁴Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with scarlet together with your adorning, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel. ²⁵How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle, O Jonathan, slain upon thy high places! ²⁶I am grieved for thee, my brother Jonathan; very pleasant hast thou been unto me; thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women. ²⁷How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2

And it came to pass after this, that David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah? and the Lord said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? and He said, Unto Hebron. ²And David went up thither to Hebron, he and both his wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite, ³and the men that were with him, every one and his family: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. ⁴And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

And they told David, saying, The men of Jabesh of the country of Gilead have buried Saul. ⁵And David sent messengers unto the rulers of Jabesh of the country of Gilead; and David said unto them, Blessed be ye of the Lord, because that ye have wrought this mercy toward your lord, even toward Saul the anointed of the Lord, and have buried him, and Jonathan his son. ⁶And now the Lord do mercy and truth with you; and I also will requite you this goodness, because ye have done this thing. ⁷And now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye mighty men, for your master Saul is dead, and moreover the house of Judah have anointed me to be king over them.

⁸And Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him out of the camp to Manaem, ⁹and made him king over Gilead, and over Thasiri, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. ¹⁰Ishbosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he reigned over Israel, and reigned two years, but not over the house of Judah, which followed David. ¹¹And the days that David reigned in Hebron over the house of Judah were seven years and six months.

¹²And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. ¹³And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out from Hebron, and met them at the well of Gibeon, at the same place; and these sat down by the well on the one side, and the other at the well on the other side. ¹⁴And Abner said unto Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

¹⁵And they arose and went over, to the number of twelve of the children of Benjamin, which pertained to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. ¹⁶And they caught every one by the hand the head of his fellow, and his sword in his fellow's side, and they fall down together; and the name of that place was called The Portion of the Treacherous Ones, which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷And the battle was very sore that day; and Abner stumbled, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David. ¹⁸And there were three sons of Zeruah there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel; and Asahel was as light of foot as a roe in the field. ¹⁹And Asahel pursued after Abner, and in going he turned not to the right hand or to the left from following Abner. ²⁰And Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? and he said, I am. ²¹And Abner said unto him, Turn thee aside to the right hand or to the left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour; but Asahel would not turn back from following of him. ²²And Abner said yet again to Asahel, Stand aloof from me, lest I smite thee to the ground; and how should I lift up my face to Joab thy brother? ²³And what meaneth this? return unto Joab thy brother. But he would not stand aloof, and Abner with the hinder end of the spear smiteth him on the loins, and the spear went out behind him, and he falleth there, and dieth on the field; and it came to pass, that every one that came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. ²⁴And Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner; and the sun went down, and they went unto the hill of Ammah, which lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. ²⁵And the children of Benjamin which followed Abner gathered themselves together, and made themselves one troop, and stood on the top of an hill. ²⁶And Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour unto victory? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness at the latter end? How long then wilt thou refuse to tell the people to turn from following our brethren? ²⁷And Joab said, As the Lord liveth, if thou hadst not spoken, even from the morning had the people gone up every one from following his brother. ²⁸And Joab sounded the trumpet, and all the people departed, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. ²⁹And Abner and his men departed at even, and went all that night, and passed over Jordan, and went along all the neighbouring country: and they come to the camp. ³⁰And Joab returned from following Abner, and gathered all the people; and there lacked of David's people nineteen men and Asahel. ³¹But the servants of David had smitten of the children of Benjamin, of Abner's men, three hundred and threescore men pertaining to him. ³²And they take up Asahel, and bury him in the tomb of his father in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men with him went all the night, and the morning rose on them in Hebron.

CHAPTER 3

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and the house of David waxed stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

²And unto David were sons born in Hebron, and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess. ³And his second was Daluiah, of Abigail the Carmelitess; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur. ⁴And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith, and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital. ⁵And the sixth Ithream, of Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner prevailed over the house of Saul. ⁷And Saul had a concubine, Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ishbosheth the son of Saul said, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine? ⁸And Abner was very wroth for this word of Ishbosheth, and Abner said unto him, Am I a dog's head? I have shewn mercy this day with the house of Saul thy father, and his brethren, and his friends, and have not gone over to the house of David; and dost thou charge me to day concerning an injustice to a woman? ⁹So do God to Abner, and more also, for as the Lord hath sworn to David, so will I do to him this day; ¹⁰to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba. ¹¹And Ishbosheth could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

¹²And forthwith sent Abner messengers to David to Thailam, where he was, saying, Make thy covenant with me, and, behold, my hand is with thee, to bring about all the house of Israel unto thee. ¹³And David said, Well; I will make a covenant with thee, but one thing I require of thee, saying, Thou shalt never see my face, except thou bring Michal Saul's daughter when thou comest to see my face. ¹⁴And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth Saul's son, saying, Give me back my wife Michal, which I took for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines. ¹⁵And Ishbosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Phaltiel the son of Laish. ¹⁶And her husband went with her weeping behind her unto Bahurim. And Abner said unto him, Go, return; and he returned. ¹⁷And Abner spake unto the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in days past to reign over you; ¹⁸now then, do it, for the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of My servant David I will save Israel out of the hand of all her enemies. ¹⁹And Abner spake in the ears of Benjamin, and Abner went to speak in the ears of David at Hebron all that seemed good in the sight of Israel, and in the sight of the house of Benjamin.

²⁰So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. ²¹And Abner said unto David, I will arise now, and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king; and I will make a covenant with him, and thou shalt reign over all that thy soul desireth. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace. ²²And, behold, the servants of David and Joab arrived from the expedition, and brought great spoil with them; and Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. ²³And Joab and all his army came, and it was told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner is come unto David, and David hath let him go, and he is gone in peace. ²⁴Then Joab went in to the king, and said, What is this that thou hast done? behold, Abner came unto thee, and why hast thou let him go, and he is gone in peace? ²⁵Knowest thou not the mischief of Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest? ²⁶And Joab returned from David, and sent messengers to Abner after him, and they bring him again from the well of Sirah, but David knew it not. ²⁷And he brought back Abner to Hebron; and Joab caused him to turn aside from the gate to speak with him, and lay wait for him, and smote him there in the loins, and he died for the blood of Asahel Joab's brother.

²⁸And afterward David heard of it, and said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the Lord for ever for the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹Let it fall upon the head of Joab, and upon all the house of his father, and let their not be wanting of the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth by the sword, or that wanteth bread. ³⁰For Joab and Abishai his brother laid wait continually for Abner, because he slew their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. ³¹And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and lament before Abner. And king David followed the bier. ³²And they bury Abner in Hebron, and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at his tomb, and all the people wept for Abner. ³³And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Shall Abner die according to the death of Nabal? ³⁴Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put in fetters; one brought thee not near as Nabal; thou didst fall before the children of iniquity. ³⁵And all the people gathered to weep for him. And all the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day; and David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I eat bread, or aught else, before the sun goeth down. ³⁶And all the people took notice, and all things the king did were pleasing in their sight. ³⁷So all the people and all Israel understood in that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. ³⁸And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a great prince fallen this day in Israel, ³⁹And that I am this day but a kinsman of his, and a man appointed by a king? But these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me; the Lord reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER 4

And Ishbosheth Saul's son heard that Abner the son of Ner was dead in Hebron, and his hands were weakened, and all the men of Israel waxed faint. ²And Ishbosheth the son of Saul had two captains of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin; for Beeroth was reckoned to the sons of Benjamin. ³And the Beerothites escaped to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day. ⁴And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet; and he was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled; and it came to pass, as she made haste and withdrew, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Memphibosheth. ⁵And the sons of Remmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day into the house of Memphibosheth; and he was sleeping on a bed at noon. ⁶And, behold, the porter of the house winnowed wheat, and he slumbered and slept, and the brothers Rechab and Baanah went privily into the house; ⁷and Memphibosheth slept on his bed in his bedchamber; and they smite him, and slay him, and beheaded him, and they took his head, and gat them away all night by the western road. ⁸And they brought the head of Memphibosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Memphibosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the Lord hath avenged my lord the king this day upon his enemies, of Saul thine enemy, and of his seed. ⁹And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, ¹⁰he that told me that Saul was dead, even he was as one that brought good tidings before me; but I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, to whom I ought to have given a reward for his tidings. ¹¹And now wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house upon his bed; now then I will require his blood of your hand, and destroy you from off the earth. ¹²And David commanded his young men, and they slay them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and they hanged them up at the well in Hebron; and they buried the head of Memphibosheth in the sepulchre of Abner the son of Ner.

CHAPTER 5

Then come all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and say unto him, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. ²Also yesterday, and the third day, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel; and the Lord said to thee, Thou it is that shalt shepherd My people Israel, and thou shalt be for a leader to My people Israel. ³And all the elders of Israel come to the king in Hebron, and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord; and they anoint David king over all Israel. ⁴And David was a son of thirty years when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. ⁵In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

⁶And David and his men departed to Jerusalem unto the Jebusite that inhabited the land; and it was said to David, Thou shalt not come in hither, for the blind and the lame withstood him, saying, David shall not come in hither. ⁷And David took first the strong hold of Zion; the same is the city of David. ⁸And David said on that day, Every one that smiteth the Jebusite, let him attack with the dagger both the lame and the blind, and them that hate David's soul. Wherefore they say, The lame and the blind shall not enter into the house of the Lord. ⁹And David dwelt in the fort, and it was called the city of David; and he built the city itself round about from the citadel, and his own house. ¹⁰And David went on, and grew great, and the Lord Almighty was with him. ¹¹And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar wood, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David an house. ¹²And David perceived that the Lord had established him to be king over Israel, and that his kingdom was exalted for his people Israel's sake. ¹³And David took him again wives and concubines out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and David had yet more sons and daughters born unto him. ¹⁴And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, ¹⁵Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ¹⁶and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet, and Shamaeh, and Jessibath, and Nathan, and Galamahan, and Jebahar, and Theasous, and Elphalat, and Naged, and Napheg, and Janatha, and Leasamus, and Baalimath, and Eliphalath.

¹⁷And the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David, and David heard of it, and went down to the strong hold. ¹⁸The Philistines also came and gathered themselves together in the valley of the Giants. ¹⁹And David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt Thou deliver them into mine hands? and the Lord said unto David, Go up; for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thy hands. ²⁰And David came from the Upper Breaches, and smote the Philistines there; and David said, The Lord hath destroyed mine enemies the Philistines before me, as the breach of waters; therefore the name of that place was called the Over Breaches. ²¹And there they leave their gods, and David and his men that were with him took them. ²²And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of the Giants. ²³And David enquired of the Lord, and the Lord said, Thou shalt not go up to meet them; turn from them, and thou shalt meet them in the place of weeping. ²⁴And it shall come to pass, when thou hearest the sound of a going together from the grove of weeping, then shalt thou go down to them; for then the Lord shall go forth before thee to smite down in the battle with the Philistines. ²⁵And David did so, as the Lord commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Gibeon unto the land of Gazer.

CHAPTER 6

And again David gathered together every young man of Israel, about seventy thousand. ²And David arose, and went, he and all the people that were with him, and of the princes of Judah, on an ascent, to bring up from thence the ark of God, on which is called the name of the Lord of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubims. ³And they set the ark of the Lord upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab upon the hill; and Uzzah and his brethren, the sons of Abinadab, led the cart with the ark, ⁴and his brethren went before the ark. ⁵And David and the sons of Israel played before the Lord on well tuned instruments with strength, and with songs, and with harps, and with lutes, and with cymbals, and with pipes. ⁶And they come as far as Nachon's threshingfloor, and Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, to hold it steady; and he took hold of it, for the oxen shook it out of the place thereof. ⁷And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Uzzah, and the Lord smote him there, and there he died by the ark of the Lord before God. ⁸And David was sorrowful, because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzzah; and that place was called the Breach of Uzzah unto this day. ⁹And David feared the Lord in that day, saying, How shall the ark of the Lord come to me? ¹⁰And David would not turn aside the ark of the covenant unto him into the city of David, and David turned it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹¹And the ark of the Lord sat in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the Lord blessed all the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertained unto him. ¹²And it was told king David, saying, The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of the Lord from the house of Obed-edom unto the city of David with gladness. ¹³And there were with him bearing the ark seven companies of singers, and for a sacrifice a calf and a lamb. ¹⁴And David played with well tuned instruments before the Lord; and David was girded with an especial garment. ¹⁵And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of a trumpet. ¹⁶And it came to pass, as the ark came into the city of David, that Michal Saul's daughter looked through the window and saw king David dancing and playing instruments before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. ¹⁷And they bring in the ark of the Lord, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it, and David offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord. ¹⁸And David made an end of offering the whole burnt offerings and peace offerings, and blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, ¹⁹and he dealt to all the people, even to all the host of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, both to men and women, to every one a cake of bread, and a joint of meat, and a cake from the frying pan; and all the people departed every one to his own home. ²⁰Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and blessed him, and said, How hath the king of Israel honoured himself to day, who was uncovered to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the dancers wantonly uncovereth himself! ²¹And David said unto Michal, I will dance before the Lord; blessed be the Lord, Which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me leader over His people, even over Israel; therefore will I play musick and dance before the Lord. ²²And I will again uncover myself thus, and will be worthless in thine eyes, and with the maidservants whom thou saidst that I was not had in honour. ²³And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the Lord had given him an inheritance round about of all his enemies that were round about him, ²that the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, and the ark of God dwelleth within a tent. ³And Nathan said to the king, Go, and do all that is in thine heart; for the Lord is with thee. ⁴And it came to pass in that night, that the word of the Lord came unto Nathan, saying, ⁵Go and say unto My servant David, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build Me an house for Me to dwell in; ⁶whereas I have not dwelt in an house from the day that I brought up the sons of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a lodge and in a tabernacle. ⁷Wheresoever I went with all Israel, spake I ever a word with one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, Why have ye not built Me an house of cedar? ⁸And now so shalt thou say unto My servant David, Thus saith the Lord Almighty: I took thee from the sheepcote, that thou shouldest be ruler over My people, over Israel. ⁹And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have destroyed all thine enemies before thee, and have made thee renowned, according unto the renown of the great men that are in the earth. ¹⁰And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in a place of their own; neither shall the son of wickedness afflict them any more, as he hath done from the beginning, ¹¹from the days that I appointed judges over My people Israel; and I will give thee rest from all thine enemies; also the Lord shall tell thee that thou shalt build him an house. ¹²And it shall come to pass, when thy days have been fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, that I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³He shall build Me an house for My name, and I will stablish his throne for ever. ¹⁴I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to Me a son, and whensoever he commit injustice, then will I chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men. ¹⁵But My mercy will I not take from him, as I took it from them whom I put away out of My sight. ¹⁶And his house shall be made sure, and his kingdom before me for ever, and his throne shall be set established for ever. ¹⁷According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David. ¹⁸Then went King David in, and sat before the Lord, and he said, Who am I, O Lord my Lord, and what is my house, that thou hast loved me so much as this? ¹⁹And I was yet very little in thy sight, O Lord my Lord, yet thou hast spoken also of Thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the law of man, O Lord my Lord? ²⁰And what shall David say more unto Thee? and now Thou, O Lord my Lord, knowest Thy servant. ²¹And Thou hast wrought for Thy servant's sake, and according to Thine heart hast Thou done all these great things, to make it known unto Thy servant, ²²that he may magnify Thee, O Lord my God; for there is none like Thee, neither is there any god beside Thee, among all of whom we have heard with our ears. ²³And what one nation in the earth is like Thy people Israel, how God guide them, to redeem to Himself a people; to make Thee a name; to do mightily and nobly, that Thou shouldest cast out nations and their tabernacles from the presence of Thy people, which Thou redeemedst to Thee from Egypt? ²⁴And Thou hast prepared to Thyself Thy people Israel, to be a people for ever; and Thou, Lord, art become their God. ²⁵And now, Lord my Lord, the word that Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, O Lord Almighty; and now as Thou hast said, ²⁶Let Thy name be magnified for ever. ²⁷O Lord Almighty, God of Israel, Thou hast uncovered the ear of Thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath Thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto Thee. ²⁸And now, O Lord my Lord, Thou art God, and Thy words shall be true, and Thou hast spoken these good things concerning Thy servant. ²⁹And now begin, and bless the house of Thy servant, that it may continue for ever before Thee; for Thou, O Lord my God, hast spoken, and with Thy blessing shall the house of Thy servant be blessed, to continue for ever.

CHAPTER 8

And after this it came to pass that David smote the Philistines, and put them to flight; and David took what had been set aside out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And David smote Moab, and measured them out with lines, when he had made them to sleep on the ground; and two lines there were for slaying, and two lines he kept alive; and Moab became servants to David, and yielded tribute. ³And David smote Hadadezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to establish his hand unto the river Euphrates. ⁴And David took a thousand chariots of his, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David houghed all his chariot horses, and reserved of them for an hundred chariots. ⁵And Syria of Damascus cometh to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, and David smote of the Syrian two and twenty thousand men. ⁶And David put a garrison in Syria near Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David, and tributary, and the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went. ⁷And David took the bracelets of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer king of Zobah, and brought them to Jerusalem. And Susakim the king of Egypt took them, when he went up to Jerusalem in the days of Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ⁸Also from Mazbak, and from the choice cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass: with that Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the lavers, and all the furniture. ⁹And Toi the king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Adraazar. ¹⁰And Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to ask peace of him, and to salute him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him, for he was an enemy to Hadadezer; and in his hands were vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass. ¹¹And these king David did dedicate unto the Lord, with the silver and the gold that he had dedicated out of all the cities which he conquered, ¹²out of Edom, and out of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoils of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. ¹³And David gat him a name, and when he returned he smote Edom in Gaimale to the number of eighteen thousand men. ¹⁴And he put garrisons in Edom, even in all Edom, and all they of Edom became servants to the king. And the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went. ¹⁵And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people. ¹⁶And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder. ¹⁷And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests, and Seraiah was the scribe, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was counsellor, and the Cherethite and the Pelethite, and David's sons were princes of the court.

CHAPTER 9

And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, and I will do mercifully with him for Jonathan's sake? ²And there was of the house of Saul a servant, and his name was Ziba; and they call him unto David, and the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? and he said, I am thy servant. ³And the king said, Is there yet left a man of the house of Saul, and I will do the mercy of God unto him?" and Siba said, There is yet a son of Jonathan, which is lame on his feet. ⁴And the king said, Where is he? and Ziba said unto the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. ⁵Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar. ⁶And Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, cometh unto king David, and he fell on his face, and did reverence unto him. And David said unto him, Mephibosheth; and he said Behold thy servant. ⁷And David said unto him, Fear not, for I will surely do mercifully with thee for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul, the father of thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. ⁸And Mephibosheth bowed himself, and said, What am I thy servant, that thou hast looked upon such a dead dog as I am? ⁹Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertaineth to Saul and to all his house. ¹⁰Thou therefore shalt till the land for him, thou, and thy sons, and thy servants, and thou shalt bring in bread to thy master's son, and he shall eat it, and Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. ¹¹And Ziba said unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. And Mephibosheth did eat at David's table, as one of the king's sons. ¹²And Mephibosheth had a young son, and his name was Micha. And all the household of Ziba became servants unto Mephibosheth. ¹³So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he did eat continually at the king's table, and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER 10

And it came to pass after this, that the king of the sons of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. ²And David said, I will do mercifully unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father did mercifully with me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father; and David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon, ³and the princes of the sons of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Is it to glorify thy father before thee that David hath sent comforters unto thee? Hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, that they should search the city, and to spy it out, and to examine it? ⁴And Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵And they told David about the men, and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly dishonoured; and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then ye shall return. ⁶And the sons of Ammon saw that David's people were ashamed; and the sons of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, and Rehob, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Amalek with a thousand men, and Ish-tob with twelve thousand men. ⁷And David heard of it, and sent Joab, and all his host, even the mighty men. ⁸And the sons of Ammon went forth, and set the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: those of Syria, and of Zoba, and those of Rehob, and of Ish-tob, and of Amalek were by themselves in the open field. ⁹And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, and he chose of all the young men of Israel, and set them in array against Syria. ¹⁰And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of Abishai his brother, and he set them in array over against the children of Ammon. ¹¹And he said, If Syria be too strong for me, then ye shall be a deliverance unto me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then we will be ready to save thee. ¹²Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God, and the Lord shall do that which is good in His eyes. ¹³And Joab advanced against Syria, and the people that were with him; and they fled before him. ¹⁴And the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the Syrians saw that they fell before Israel, and they gathered themselves together. ¹⁶And Hadarezer sent, and gathered together the Syrians that were beyond the river Chalamak; and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. ¹⁷And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam; and the Syrians set the battle in array against David, and fought with him. ¹⁸And Syria fled before Israel, and David destroyed seven hundred chariots of Syria, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, and he died there. ¹⁹And all the kings the servants of Hadarezer saw that they stumbled before Israel, and they went over to Israel, and were subject unto them. So Syria feared to save the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

And it came to pass, after the year was turned, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah; but David sat in Jerusalem. ²And it came to pass toward eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house; and from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. ³And David sent and enquired after the woman. And he said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? ⁴And David sent messengers, and took her, and went in unto her, and he lay with her; and she was purified from her uncleanness; and she returned unto her house. ⁵And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child. ⁶And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite; and Joab sent Uriah the Hittite to David. ⁷And Uriah was come, and went in unto him; and David inquired of him after the peace of Joab, and after the peace of the people, and after the peace of the war. ⁸And David said unto Uriah, Go down to thine house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a portion from the king. ⁹And Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house. ¹⁰And they brought David word, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house. And David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house? ¹¹And Uriah said unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents, and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? How should I? as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. ¹²And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the day following. ¹³And David called him, and he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk; and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house. ¹⁴And it came to pass in the morning came, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from behind him, and he shall be smitten, and die. ¹⁶And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were. ¹⁷And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab; and there fell some of the people of the servants of David, and Uriah the Hittite died also. ¹⁸And Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war, to tell them to the king, ¹⁹and charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling all the matters of the war unto the king, ²⁰then it shall come to pass, if the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city to fight? Knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall? ²¹Who smote Ahimelech, the son of Jerubbesheth, the son of Ner? Did not a woman cast a piece of millstone upon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then shalt thou say, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. ²²And Joab's messenger went, and came, and shewed David all that Joab had told him, all the matters of the war. And David was exceeding wroth with Joab, and said unto the messenger, Wherefore approached ye nigh unto the wall to fight? Knew ye not that ye would be wounded from off the wall? Who smote Ahimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast a piece of millstone upon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? Wherefore approached ye nigh unto the wall? ²³And the messenger said unto David, Because the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering in of the gate. ²⁴And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants died, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. ²⁵And David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing be evil in thy sight, for the sword devoureth now one way, and then another; make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it, and strengthen thou it. ²⁶And the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, and she mourned for her husband. ²⁷And the mourning passed, and David sent, and fetched her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the sight of the Lord.

CHAPTER 12

And the Lord sent Nathan the prophet unto David, and he went in unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor. ²And the rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds. ³But the poor man had but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought, and nourished up, and reared; and it grew up together with him and with his children; it did eat of his own bread, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. ⁴And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flocks and of his own herds, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come to him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. ⁵And David was greatly moved with anger against the man; and David said unto Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die. ⁶And he shall restore the lamb sevenfold, because he did this thing, and because he hath not spared. ⁷And Nathan said unto David, Thou art the man that hath done this. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I AM; I anointed thee to be king over Israel, and I rescued thee out of the hand of Saul; ⁸and I gave thee thy lord's house, and thy lord's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that is too little, I will add to thee according to these things. ⁹Wherefore hast thou set at nought the word of the Lord, to do that which is evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁰Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house, because thou hast set Me at nought, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. ¹¹Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. ¹²For thou didst it secretly; but I will do this thing in the sight of all Israel, and before the sun. ¹³And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said unto David, The Lord also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. ¹⁴Howbeit, because provoking thou hast by this thing given great provocation to the enemies of the Lord, thy son also that is born unto thee shall surely die. ¹⁵And Nathan departed unto his house. And the Lord struck the child that Uriah the Hittite's wife bare unto David, and it was sick. ¹⁶And David enquired of the Lord concerning the child, and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth. ¹⁷And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. ¹⁸And it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died, and the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he hearkened not unto our voice; and how should we tell him that the child is dead? so would he vex himself. ¹⁹And David saw that his servants whispered, and David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. ²⁰Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of God, and worshipped him, and he entered into his own house, and required bread to eat, and they set bread before him, and he did eat. ²¹And his servants said unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done concerning the child? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was yet living; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. ²²And David said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, Who knoweth if the Lord will pity me, and the child live? ²³But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast thus? shall I be able to bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me. ²⁴And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Solomon; and the Lord loved him. ²⁵And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, for the Lord's sake.

²⁶And Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and took the royal city. ²⁷And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. ²⁸Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it, lest I take me the city first, and my name be called upon it. ²⁹And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it for himself. ³⁰And he took the crown of Melchol their king from off his head; and the weight thereof was a talent of gold and of precious stone; and it was upon David's head. And he carried forth very much spoil of the city. ³¹And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under the saw, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln; and thus did he unto all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had an exceeding fair sister, and her name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. ²And Amnon was vexed even to sickness, because of Tamar his sister, for she was a virgin, and it seemed too hard for Amnon to do any thing to her. ³And Amnon had a friend, and his name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtil man. ⁴And he said unto him, What aileth thee, O son of the king, that thou art thus lean morning by morning? wilt thou not tell me? and Amnon said, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. ⁵And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick, and thy father shall come into see thee; and thou shalt say unto him, Let my sister Tamar come, and feed me with morsels, and dress food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat at her hands. ⁶So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick, and the king came in to see him, and Amnon said unto the king, Let Tamar my sister come unto me, and make me some morsels in my sight, and I will eat them at her hand. ⁷And David sent Tamar to the house, saying, Go now to thy brother's house, and dress him food. ⁸And Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, and he was laid down. And she took the dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. ⁹And she took the frying pan, and poured them out before him, but he would not eat. And Amnon said, Have out every man from about me. And they led out every man from about him. ¹⁰And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, and I will eat out of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. ¹¹And she brought them unto him to eat, and he caught hold of her, and said unto her, Come, lie with me, my sister. ¹²And she said unto him, Nay, my brother, do not humble me, for it shall not be done so in Israel; do not thou this folly. ¹³And I, whither shall I carry away my shame? And as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, speak unto the king; for surely he will not withhold me from thee. ¹⁴Howbeit Amnon would not hearken unto her voice, and he prevailed against her, and humbled her, and lay with her. ¹⁵Then Amnon hated her with an exceeding great hatred; for the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, and begone. ¹⁶And Tamar said unto him, No, brother; for this last evil is greater than the first that thou didst unto me, to send me away. But Amnon would not hearken unto her. ¹⁷Then he called his servant that had charge of the house, and said unto him, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. ¹⁸And upon her there was a garment that fell unto her wrists, for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled; and the servant led her out, and bolted the door after her. ¹⁹And Tamar took ashes, and put them on her head, and rent the garment that reached unto her wrists, and laid her hands on her head, and went away, walking and crying. ²⁰And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? But hold now thy peace, my sister, for he is thy brother; have a care not to speak of this thing. So Tamar dwelt as a widow in her brother Absalom's house. ²¹And king David heard of all these things, and was very wroth; but he grieved not the spirit of Amnon his son, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn. ²²And Absalom spake unto Amnon neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had humbled his sister Tamar.

²³And it came to pass after two full years of days, that they sheared sheep for Absalom in Baal-hazor beside Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons. ²⁴And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold, thy servant hath a sheepshearing; let now the king and his servants go with thy servant. ²⁵And the king said unto Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all go, and let us not be burdensome to thee. And he pressed him; howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. ²⁶And Absalom said unto him, And if not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? ²⁷And Absalom pressed him, and he sent Amnon and all the king's sons with him; and Absalom made a banquet, like unto the banquet of the king. ²⁸And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and I say unto you, Smite Amnon, and kill him, fear not; for it is I that command you. Be courageous, and be valiant. ²⁹And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded them; and all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled. ³⁰And it came to pass, when they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. ³¹Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth, and all king's servants that stood round about him tare their clothes. ³²And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord the king say that he hath slain all the young men the king's sons, for Amnon only of them is dead; for it was appointed by the mouth of Absalom from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar. ³³And now let not my lord the king take the thing to heart, saying, All the king's sons are dead, for Amnon only is dead. ³⁴And Absalom escaped, and the young man the watchman lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there went much people in the way behind him from the side of the mountain in the descent: and the watchman came and told the king, and said, I have seen men by the way of Oronen, by the side of the mountain. ³⁵And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons are nigh; according to the word of thy servant, so it is. ³⁶And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voices, and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept with a very sore weeping. ³⁷But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur, unto the land of Machad. And king David mourned for his son all the days. ³⁸So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. ³⁹And the spirit of the king ceased to go forth after Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing that he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. ²And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, Mourn, I pray thee, and put on mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, and thou shalt be as a woman that mourneth for one that is dead here for many days. ³And thou shalt go to the king, and speak according to this word unto him. And Joab put the words in her mouth. ⁴So the woman of Tekoah went in to the king, and fell upon her face to the ground, and did obeisance unto him, and said, Help, O king, help. ⁵And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she said, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. ⁶And moreover thine handmaid had two sons, and they strove together in the field, and there was none to part them; but the one smote the other his brother, and slew him. ⁷And, behold, the whole family rose up against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, and we will kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew, and we will take away thine heir also; so they shall quench my coal which is left, to leave to my husband neither remainder nor name on the face of the earth. ⁸And the king said unto the woman, Go in peace to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee. ⁹And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless. ¹⁰And the king said, Who was it that spake unto thee? thou shalt even bring him to me, and none shall touch him any more. ¹¹And she said, Let now the king remember his Lord God, that a kinsman of blood succeed in destroying him, and let them not take away my son. And he said, As the Lord liveth, there shall not an hair of thy son fall to the earth. ¹²And the woman said, Let now thine handmaid speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. ¹³And the woman said, Wherefore hast thou devised this thing against the people of God? Indeed this word out of the king's mouth is as a transgression, in that the king fetch not back his banished. ¹⁴For we shall surely die, and be as water poured upon the ground, which shall not be gathered up; and God shall take the life, even as he deviseth to expel from him his banished one. ¹⁵And now seeing I came to speak this word unto the king, it is that the people will see me; and thine handmaid will say, Let one now speak unto my lord the king, if peradventure the king will perform the request of his handmaid, ¹⁶for the king will hear. Let him rescue his handmaid out of the hand of the man that seeketh to cast me and my son out of the inheritance of God. ¹⁷And the woman said, If now the word of my lord the king be gracious, well; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to hear good and evil, and the Lord thy God shall be with thee. ¹⁸And the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, (I pray thee – del.), the thing that I ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king by all means speak. ¹⁹And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this matter? And the woman said unto the king, As thy soul liveth, my lord, O king, there is no turning to the right hand or to the left from all that the lord my king hath spoken; for thy servant Joab, he charged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid. ²⁰To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab framed this matter; and my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. ²¹And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done unto thee according to this thy word; go, bring back the young man Absalom. ²²And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and blessed the king, and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, for my lord the king hath performed the request of his servant. ²³And Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴And the king said, Let him return to his own house, and not see my face. And Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face. ²⁵And in Israel there was not a man so praised as Absalom; from the sole of his feet even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶And when he polled his head, (for it was at the beginning of every year that he polled it, because it grew heavy upon him), even when he polled it, he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels according to the royal shekel. ²⁷And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, and her name was Tamar: she was an exceeding fair woman, and she becometh the wife of Rehoboam Solomon's son, and unto him she beareth Abia. ²⁸And Absalom remained two full years of days in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. ²⁹And Absalom sent to Joab to bring him to the king, and he would not come to him; and he sent to him the second time, and he would not come. ³⁰And Absalom said unto his servants, See, Joab's portion in the field is next to mine, and he hath barley therein; go, and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire, and Joab's servants come to him with their clothes torn, and said unto him, Absalom's servants have set the field on fire. ³¹And Joab arose, and came to Absalom into the house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? ³²And Absalom said unto Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, and I will send thee to the king, saying, Wherefore did I come out of Geshur? it had been better for me to have remained there. And now, behold, I have not seen the king's face; but if there be iniquity in me, then let the king put me to death. ³³And Joab went in to the king, and brought him word, and he called for Absalom, and he went in unto the king, and did obeisance to him, and fell upon his face to the ground in the presence of the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER 15

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. ²And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate; and it was so, that every man that had a cause came to the king for judgment; and Absalom cried unto him, and said unto him, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is one of the tribes of Israel. ³And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are right and clear; yet thou hast none appointed of the king to hear thee. ⁴And Absalom said, Who will make me a judge in the land? then every man that hath a cause will come unto me, and I will do him justice. ⁵And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. ⁶And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment, and Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. ⁷And it came to pass at the end of forty years, that Absalom said unto his father, I will go now and pay my vows, which I vowed unto the Lord, in Hebron. ⁸For thy servant vowed a vow when I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord should restore me indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord. ⁹And the king said unto him, Go in peace. And he arose, and went to Hebron. ¹⁰And Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then shall ye say, Absalom is become king in Jerusalem. ¹¹And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing. ¹²And Absalom sent to Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices, and the conspiracy was strong, and the people, going and increasing in number, were with Absalom. ¹³And there came a messenger to David, saying, The heart of the men of Israel is gone after Absalom. ¹⁴And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee, for there is no deliverance for us from Absalom. Make speed, and go, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword. ¹⁵And the king's servants said unto the king, In all things which our lord chooseth, behold, we are thy servants. ¹⁶And the king and all his household went forth on foot, and the king left ten women of his concubines to keep the house. ¹⁷And the king and all his servants went forth on foot, and abode in a distant house. ¹⁸And all his servants passed on by his side, and every Cherethite, and every Pelethite; and they stood by the olive tree in the wilderness, and all the people marched near him, and all his court, and all the men of might, and all the men of war, six hundred, and they were present at his side, and every Chelerhite, and every Pelethite, and all the six hundred Gittites, that came on foot out of Gath; and they passed on before the king. ¹⁹And the king said unto Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return, and abide with the king, for thou art a stranger, and thou hast come forth as a sojourner out of thy place. ²⁰Whereas thou camest but yesterday, shall I to day make thee go up and down with us, and thou shalt thus change thy place? thou didst come forth yesterday, and to day shall I set thee in motion to go along with me? I indeed will go whithersoever I may go; return thou then, and make thy brethren return with thee, and the Lord deal mercifully and truly with thee. ²¹And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, in the place wheresoever my lord shall be, whether it be for death or life, even there will thy servant be. ²²And the king said unto Ittai, Come, and pass over with me. So Ittai the Gittite and the king passed over, and all his servants, and all the multitude with him. ²³And all the land wept with a loud voice. And all the people passed by over the brook of Kidron, and the king passed the brook Kidron, and all the people and the king passed on toward the way of the wilderness. ²⁴And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of the Lord from Bethor; and they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. ²⁵And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city; if I shall find favour in the eyes of the Lord, then he will bring me again, and shew me it, and the beauty thereof. ²⁶But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me according to that which is good in his eyes. ²⁷And the king said unto Zadok the priest, Behold, thou shalt return unto the city in peace, and thy son Ahimaaz, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar, thy two sons with you. ²⁸Behold, I continue in arms in Araboth of the wilderness, until there come tidings from you to certify me. ²⁹So Zadok and Abiathar brought back the ark of the Lord to Jerusalem, and it continued there. ³⁰And David went up by the ascent of the mount of Olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot; and all the people that were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. ³¹And it was told David, saying, Ahithophel also is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray Thee, scatter abroad the counsel of Ahithophel. ³²And David came unto Ros, where he worshipped God; and, behold, Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came out to meet him, with his coat rent, and earth upon his head. ³³And David said unto him, If thou go over with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me, ³⁴but if thou return to the city, and say to Absalom, Thy brethren are passed over, and the king thy father is passed over after me; and now I am thy servant, O king, suffer me to live; at one time even of late I was thy father's servant, and now I am thine humble servant; so shalt thou for me scatter abroad the counsel of Ahithophel. ³⁵And, behold, there are with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests; and it shall be, that every word thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶Behold, there are with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye shall hear. ³⁷So Hushai David's friend went into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

And David passed on a little way from Ros; and, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth came to meet him, and he had a couple of asses laden, and upon them two hundred loaves, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred dates, and a bottle of wine. ²And the king said unto Ziba, Why hast thou done these things? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to sit upon, and the loaves and the dates for the young men to eat, and the wine for such as be faint in the wilderness to drink. ³And the king said, And where is thy master's son? and Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem; for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore to me the kingdom of my father. ⁴Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine is all that pertaineth unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba did obeisance, and said, Let me find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king. ⁵And king David came to Bahurim, and, behold, there came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, and his name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came forth, and cursed as he went, ⁶and cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David; and all the mighty men were on the right hand of the king and on the left. ⁷And thus said Shimei when he cursed him, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of sin. ⁸The Lord hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, because thou hast reigned in his stead; and the Lord hath given the kingdom into the hands of Absalom thy son; and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man. ⁹And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said unto the king, Why doth this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over now, and take off his head. ¹⁰And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? even let him alone, and so let him curse, for the Lord hath told him to curse David; and who shall say, Why hast thou done this? ¹¹And David said unto Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life; still more now may the son of Benjamin; let him curse, for the Lord hath bidden him. ¹²If by any means the Lord look upon mine affliction, He shall requite me good for his cursing this day. ¹³And David, and all his men went on the way, and Shimei went along the side of the hill next to him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and sprinkled him with dust. ¹⁴And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

¹⁵And Absalom, and every man of Israel, went into Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. ¹⁶And it came to pass, when Hushai, David's chief friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, Long live the king. ¹⁷And Absalom said unto Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not forth with thy friend? ¹⁸And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but I follow he whom the Lord, and this people, and all Israel, have chosen; his will I be, and with him will I abide. ¹⁹And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence. ²⁰And Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. ²¹And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep his house, and all Israel shall hear that thou hast ashamed thy father, and the hands of all that are with thee shall be strengthened. ²²And they pitched Absalom a tent upon the roof, and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in former days, was as if one should enquire of the word of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both to David and also to Absalom.

CHAPTER 17

And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, I will now choose me out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: ²and I will come upon him, and he will be weary and weak handed, and I will strike him with terror, and all the people that are with him shall flee, and I will smite the king only of all. ³And I will turn back all the people unto thee, as a bride returneth to her husband. Only thou seekest the life of one man; and there shall be peace unto all the people. ⁴And the saying was right in the sight of Absalom, and in the sight of all the elders of Israel. ⁵And Absalom said, Call now Hushai the Archite, and let us hear what is in his mouth, even in his also. ⁶And Hushai went in to Absalom, and Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner; shall we do after his saying? but if not, speak thou. ⁷And Hushai said unto Absalom, This counsel that Ahithophel hath counselled is not good at this one time. ⁸And Hushai said, Thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be very mighty, and bitter in their spirit, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field, and as a wild boar in the plain. And thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. ⁹For, behold, he is hid now in one of the hills, or in some other place; and it will come to pass, when he falleth upon them at the beginning, that one will certainly hear, and say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. ¹⁰Then even he that is strong, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, it shall utterly melt, for all Israel knoweth that thy father is mighty, and they that are with him are sons of might. ¹¹For thus have I surely counselled that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is upon the shore of the sea for multitude; and that thy presence go in the midst of them. ¹²So shall we come upon him in one of the places where we may find him, and we will pitch against him, as the dew falleth on the ground, and of him and of his men shall we leave behind not so much as one. ¹³Moreover, if he be gathered in a city, then shall all Israel take ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, that there be not even a stone left there. ¹⁴And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai that Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the Lord had appointed to scatter abroad the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom. ¹⁵And Hushai the Archite said unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and thus have I counselled. ¹⁶And now send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in Araboth of the wilderness; even go, and speedily make haste, lest one swallow up the king, and all the people that are with him. ¹⁷And Jonathan and Ahimaaz stood by the well of En-rogel, and a serving wench went and told them, and they go and tell king David; for they might not be seen to come into the city. ¹⁸Nevertheless a young man saw them, and told Absalom, and the two went away quickly, and entered into a man's house in Bahurim; and he had a well in his court, and they went down into it. ¹⁹And a woman took a covering, and spread it over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon to dry, and the thing was not known. ²⁰And Absalom's servants came to the woman in the house, and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone a little way beyond the water. And they sought, and found them not, and returned to Jerusalem. ²¹And it came to pass, after they were gone, that they came up out of the pit, and went on their way, and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water, for thus hath Ahithophel counselled concerning you. ²²And David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan till the morning light; there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan. ²³And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, and he saddled his ass, and gat him to his house, into his city, and gave orders to his household, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father. ²⁴And David passed over to Manahaim, and Absalom passed over Jordan, he and every man of Israel with him. ²⁵And Absalom set Amasa over the host in the room of Joab. And Amasa was a man's son whose name was Ithra of Jezreel; he went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, the sister of Zeruiah Joab's mother. ²⁶So all Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead. ²⁷And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, ²⁸brought ten beds, with double coverings, and ten caldrons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and meal, and beans, ²⁹and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheeses of kine, and they brought them to David and to his people with him, to eat; for one said, The people is faint, and hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

CHAPTER 18

And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ²And David sent away the third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and the third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and the third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And David said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you. ³And they said, Thou shalt not go forth; for if we indeed flee, they will not care for us, neither if half of us die, will they mind us; for thou art as ten thousand of us, and now it is well that thou be to us an help to help us in the city. ⁴And the king said unto them, Whatsoever shall seem good in your eyes, I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Spare for my sake the young man Absalom. And all the people heard the king when he gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. ⁶And all the people went out into the wood against Israel, and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim. ⁷And the people of Israel fell there before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter in that day, even twenty thousand men. ⁸And the battle there was scattered over the face of all the land, and the wood devoured more of the people in that day than the sword devoured among the people. ⁹And Absalom met the servants of David face to face, and Absalom was mounted upon his mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head was hung in the oak, and he was hung up between the heaven and the earth, and the mule that was under him passed on. ¹⁰And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. ¹¹And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him; why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle. ¹²And the man said unto Joab, Though I were to receive even a thousand shekels of silver, I would not lift up mine hand against the king's son; for in our ears the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Protect the young man Absalom for me, ¹³to do no harm to his life; and there is nothing of the matter that will be hid from the king, and thou wilt set thyself against me. ¹⁴And Joab said, I will begin this; I will not tarry thus with thee. And Joab took three darts in his hand, and thrust them into the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the heart of the oak. ¹⁵And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed Absalom about, and smote him, and slew him. ¹⁶And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel, for Joab spared the people. ¹⁷And he took Absalom, and cast him into a great cavern in the wood, into a deep pit, and set up a very great heap of stones over him; and all Israel fled every man to his tent. ¹⁸Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar nigh unto which he was taken, and set it up to have the pillar in the king's dale, for he said that he had no son to keep his name in remembrance; and he called the pillar, Absalom's Hand, until this day. ¹⁹And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Let me now run, and carry good tidings unto the king, for the Lord hath delivered him out of the hand of his enemies. ²⁰And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not be a man of good tidings this day, but thou shalt bear good tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no good tidings, because the king's son is dead. ²¹And Joab said unto Hushai, Go tell the king all that thou hast seen. And Hushai bowed himself unto Joab, and went out. ²²And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, But however, let me also run after Hushai. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son? Give heed: thou hast no good tidings for profit, if thou go. ²³And he said, Wherefore should I not run? and Joab said unto him, Run. And Ahimaaz rang along the way of Kechar, and overran Hushai. ²⁴And David sat between the two gates, and the watchman went up on the top of the gate of the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone before him. ²⁵And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there are good tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. ²⁶And the watchman saw another man running, and said, And, behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth good tidings. ²⁷And the watchman said, I see the running of the first as the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and will come to tell good tidings. ²⁸And Ahimaaz cried, and said unto the king, Peace. And he did obeisance unto the king with his face to the ground, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath delivered up the men that hate, that lifted up their hand against the king. ²⁹And the king said, Is there peace for young man Absalom? And Achimaaz said, When Joab sent the king's servant and thy servant, I saw a great multitude, but I knew not what was there. ³⁰And the king said, Turn aside, stand still here. And he turned aside, and stood. ³¹And, behold, Hushai came up; and Hushai said unto the king, Let my lord the king hear good tidings, for the Lord hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. ³²And the king said unto Hushai, Is there peace for the young man Absalom? And Hushai said, The enemies of my lord the king, and all whosoever have risen up against him for evil, be as that young man. ³³And the king was troubled, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! who will give my death for thee, I for thee? O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER 19

And it was told Joab, saying, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. ²And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people, for the people heard say that day, The king grieveth for his son. ³And the people gat them by stealth that day to go into the city, as people steal away when they are ashamed when they flee in battle. ⁴And the king hid his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom! O Absalom my son! ⁵And Joab went in to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have delivered thee, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and of thy concubines, ⁶forasmuch as thou lovest them that hate thee, and hatest them that love thee. And thou hast declared this day, that thy princes and thy servants are as nothing; for this day I know, that if Absalom were alive, and all of us dead this day, then it would have been right in thy sight. ⁷And now, arise, and go forth, and speak unto the heart of thy servants, for I have sworn by the Lord, that except thou wilt go forth this day, there shall not a man tarry with thee this night; and know for thyself, this thing indeed will be evil unto thee beyond all the evil that hath come upon thee from thy youth until now. ⁸Then the king arose, and sat in the gate, and all the people told it, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people went in before the king unto the gate, for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

⁹And all the people were at strife among all the tribes of Israel, saying, King David delivered us from all our enemies, and he rescued us out of the hand of the Philistines, and now he is fled out of the land, out of his kingdom, and from the hand of Absalom. ¹⁰And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle; and now wherefore speak ye not a word of bringing the king back? And the word of all Israel came to the king. ¹¹And king David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Israel, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the word of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house. ¹²Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh; and wherefore are ye the last to bring back the king to his house? ¹³And ye shall say to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? And now God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. ¹⁴And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as that of one man; and they sent to the king, saying, Return thou, and all thy servants. ¹⁵And the king returned, and came unto Jordan. And the men of Judah came to Gilgal, on their way to meet the king, to cause the king to pass over Jordan. ¹⁶And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite of Bahurim, hasted and went down with the men of Judah to meet king David. ¹⁷And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons with him, and his twenty servants with him; and they went straightway down to Jordan before the king, ¹⁸and did the office of bringing over the king; and there went a ferry boat to remove the king's household, and to do that which was right in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera fell on his face before the king, as he was come over Jordan; ¹⁹and said unto the king, Let not my lord now impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember the iniquity of thy servant in the day that my lord went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. ²⁰For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come this day before all Israel and the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king. ²¹And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei therefore be put to death for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed? ²²And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye as it were lie in wait against me this day? there shall no man be put to death this day in Israel, for I know not if I this day be king over Israel. ²³And the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die; and the king sware unto him. ²⁴And Mephibosheth the son of Saul's son went down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor pared his nails, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day that the king departed until the day he came again in peace. ²⁵And it came to pass, when he was come into Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest thou not with me, Mephibosheth? ²⁶And Mephibosheth said unto him, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said unto him, Saddle me the ass, and I will ride thereon, and go with the king, because thy servant is lame. ²⁷And he hath dealt deceitfully with thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God; and do thou what is good in thine eyes. ²⁸For all of my father's house were but as dead men before my lord the king, yet thou didst set thy servant among them that eat at thy table; and what right have I to cry any more unto the king? ²⁹And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba shall divide the land. ³⁰And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come in peace unto his own house. ³¹And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and crossed over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. ³²And Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old; and he had provided the king of sustenance while he dwelt in Mahanaim, for he was a very great man. ³³And the king said unto Barzillai, Thou shalt go over with me, and I will nourish thine old age with me in Jerusalem. ³⁴And Barzillai said unto the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? ³⁵I am this day fourscore years old: can I then discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste any more what I eat or drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men or singing women? And wherefore shall thy servant be any more a burden unto my lord the king? ³⁶Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king; and why doth the king recompense me this reward? ³⁷Let thy servant remain, and I will die in mine own city, by the tomb of my father and of my mother. And, behold, thy servant Chimham shall go over with my lord the king; and do to him what is good in thy sight. ³⁸And the king said, Let Chimham go over with me, and I will do to him that which is good in my sight; and whatsoever thou shalt choose at my hand, I will do for thee. ³⁹And all the people went over Jordan, and the king went over; and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place. ⁴⁰And the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him: and all the men of Judah went over with the king, and also half the people of Israel. ⁴¹And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and caused the king and all his house to pass over Jordan, and all David's men with him? ⁴²And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, and said, Because the king is near of kin to us; and wherefore were you thus angry concerning this matter? have we indeed eaten of the king's bread? or hath he given us a gift? or hath he sent us a portion? ⁴³And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we are older than you, and we have also an interest in David above you: and why have ye thus reproached us, and why was our advice not taken before that of Judah, to bring back our king? And the word of the men of Judah was sharper than the speech of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20

And there was a transgressor called there, and his name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to thy tents, O Israel. ²And all the men of Israel went up from following David after Sheba the son of Bichri, but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. ³And David went into his house in Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and sustained them, and went not in unto them; and they were shut up unto the day of their death, living as widows. ⁴Then said the king to Amasa, Call to me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present. ⁵And Amasa went to call Judah, but he tarried beyond the set time which David had appointed him. ⁶And David said to Amasa, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom; now then, take with thee thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he find him strong cities, and so overshadow our eyes. ⁷And there went out after him Amasa and Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸And they were by the great stone which is in Gibeon, and Amasa went in before them; and Joab was girded about with a cloke over his apparel, and over it he was girded with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and the sword came out, and fell. ⁹And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? and the right hand of Joab took hold of Amasa's beard to kiss him. ¹⁰But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand, and Joab smote him therewith in the loins, and his bowels were shed out upon the ground, and struck not the blow a second time; and he died. And Joab and his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹¹And one of Joab's men stood over him, and said, Who is he that favoureth Joab, and who is for David? Let him go after Joab. ¹²And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And a man saw that all the people stood still, and removed Amasa out of the highway, and cast a garment upon him, because he saw every one that came to him stood still. ¹³And when he was removed out of the road, every man of Israel went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹⁴And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah; and all them in Charri were gathered together, and went after him. ¹⁵And they came and besieged him in Abel and Beth-maacah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood close to the wall, and all the people that were with Joab purposed to throw down the wall. ¹⁶Then cried a wise woman from the wall, and said, Hear, hear; say unto Joab, Come near hither, and I will speak with him. ¹⁷And he came near unto her, and the woman said unto him, Art thou Joab? and he said, I am. And she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid, and Joab said, I do hear. ¹⁸And she spake, saying, Of old time they spake thus, Surely one was asked in Abel, and Dan, whether the faithful in Israel failed in what they purposed: they will surely ask in Abel, even in like manner, whether they have failed. ¹⁹I am a peaceable one of them that are strong in Israel, but thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother city in Israel; why seekest thou to ruin the inheritance of the Lord? ²⁰And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹The matter is thus, that a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath even lifted up his hand against king David. Give him only to me, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall. ²²And the woman went in to all the people, and spake unto all the city in her wisdom; and they took off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and took it away, and cast it out to Joab; and he blew the trumpet, and the people retired from the city, every man to his tent, and Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

²³And Joab was over all the hosts of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites. ²⁴And Adoram was over the tribute, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder. ²⁵And Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests. ²⁶Moreover Ira the Jairite was priest unto David.

CHAPTER 21

And there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year, and David sought the face of the Lord. And the Lord said, There is iniquity upon Saul, and upon his house, because of his bloody murder, because he slew the Gibeonites. ²And king David called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (now the Gibeonites are not the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorite; and the sons of Israel had sworn unto them, but Saul sought to smite them in his zeal to the sons of Israel and Judah.) ³And David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do unto you? and wherewithal shall I make atonement, and you will bless the inheritance of the Lord? ⁴And the Gibeonites said unto him, For us it is not silver or gold with Saul, and with his house; neither for us shall any man be put to death in Israel. ⁵And he said, What say ye? and I will do it for you. And they said unto the king, The man that had made an end of us, and persecuted us, that devised against us to destroy us, let us utterly destroy him, that he have no standing in all the coasts of Israel. ⁶Let one give us seven men of his sons, and let us hang them up in the sun unto the Lord in Gibeon of Saul, as chosen ones for the Lord. And the king said, I will give them. ⁷But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the Lord's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. ⁸And the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bare unto Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite, ⁹and he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them up unto the sun in the mount before the Lord, and they fell, even the seven together. Moreover they were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest. ¹⁰And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, at the beginning of barley harvest, until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. ¹¹And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done, and they were faint; and Dan the son of Joah, of the offspring of the giants, overtook them. ¹²And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of the sons of Jabesh Gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan; for the Philistines had set them there in the day wherein the Philistines smote Saul in Gilboa. ¹³And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son, and the bones of them that were hanged. ¹⁴And the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, and the bones of them that were hanged, buried they in the land of Benjamin in the hill, in the sepulchre of Kish his father, and they performed all things that the king commanded; and after this God hearkened unto the land.

¹⁵Moreover the Philistines yet had war with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and they fought with the Philistines, and David waxed faint. ¹⁶And Ishbi, which was of the progeny of Raphah, and the head of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, which also was girt with a club, even he thought to smite David. ¹⁷But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and slew him. Then the men of David swear, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, and thou shalt not quench the light of Israel. ¹⁸And after this there was again a battle in Gath with the Philistines; then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph of the progeny of Raphah. ¹⁹And there was a battle in Rom with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite slew Goliath the Gittite; and the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰And there was yet a battle in Gath; and there was a man of stature, and the fingers of his hands, and the toes of his feet were six each, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to Raphah. ²¹And he reproached Israel, and Jonathan the son of Shimei the brother of David smote him. ²²These four were born seed of the giants in Gath, the family of Raphah; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

And David spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul; ²and he said:

O Lord, my rock, and my fortress, and for me the One that delivereth me; ³my God shall be my keeper; in Him I will hope; my protector, and the horn of my salvation; my support, and my refuge for my salvation; Thou shalt save me from wrong. ⁴I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, and I shall be saved from mine enemies. ⁵For the troubles of death

compassed me, the floods of ungodliness amazed me; ⁶the pangs of death compassed me about; the agonies of death prevented me. ⁷In mine affliction I will call upon the Lord, and cry unto my God; and He shall hear my voice out of His temple, and my cry shall enter into His ears. ⁸And the earth was shaken, and trembled; the foundations of heaven were troubled and rent asunder, because the Lord was wroth with them. ⁹There went up a smoke in His wrath, and fire out His mouth shall devour; coals were kindled at it. ¹⁰He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet. ¹¹And He rode upon the cherubim, and did fly; and He was seen upon the wings of the wind. ¹²And He made darkness His hiding place, His pavilion round about Him was the darkness of waters; He thickened it by the clouds of the air. ¹³At the brightness that was before Him were coals of fire kindled. ¹⁴The Lord thundered out of heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice. ¹⁵And He sent out arrows, and scattered them; and He flashed forth lightning, and discomfited them. ¹⁶And the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the breath of His anger. ¹⁷He sent from on high, and took me; He drew me out of many waters. ¹⁸He delivered me from my strong enemies, from them that hated me, for they were too strong for me. ¹⁹They prevented me in the day of mine affliction, but the Lord was my stay. ²⁰He brought me forth also into a wide place, and delivered me, because He delighted in me. ²¹And the Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath He recompensed me. ²²For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God. ²³For all His judgments were before me, and as for His statutes I did not depart from them. ²⁴I shall be also blameless before Him, and will keep myself from mine iniquity. ²⁵And the Lord will recompense me according to my righteousness, and according to the cleanness of my hands in His eye sight. ²⁶With the holy Thou wilt be holy, and with the perfect man Thou wilt be perfect; ²⁷and with the elect Thou wilt be elect, and with the froward Thou wilt be froward. ²⁸And the poor people wilt Thou save, and the eyes of the haughty wilt Thou bring down. ²⁹For Thou art my lamp, O Lord, and the Lord will lighten my darkness. ³⁰For by Thee shall I run as a lighty armed man, and by my God shall I leap over a wall. ³¹As for the Mighty One, His way is blameless; the word of the Lord is strong, and tried in the fire; He is a protector to all them that trust in Him. ³²Who is strong, save the Lord? and who will be a creator, except our God? ³³It was the Mighty One that strengthened me with power, and made my way blameless. ³⁴He maketh my feet like hart's feet, and setteth me upon the high places. ³⁵He teacheth my hands to war, and hath broken a bow of brass by mine arm. ³⁶Thou hast also given me the protection of my salvation, and Thine answer hath increased me, ³⁷to make room under me for my goings; and my legs did not slip. ³⁸I will pursue mine enemies, and destroy them, and I will not turn again until I have consumed them. ³⁹And I will crush them, and they shall not arise, and they shall fall under my feet. ⁴⁰For Thou shalt strengthen me with power for the war; them that rise up against me shalt Thou cause to bow down before me. ⁴¹As for mine enemies,

Thou hast given me their back, even them that hated me, and Thou hast slain them. ⁴²They shall cry, but there is no help; even to the Lord, but He heareth them not. ⁴³And I did beat them to pieces as the dust of the earth; I beat them small as the mire of the street. ⁴⁴Thou shalt also deliver me from the striving of the people; Thou shalt keep me to be head of the heathen; a people which I knew not served me. ⁴⁵Strange children lied to me; at the hearing of the ear they hearkened unto me. ⁴⁶Strange children shall be cast away, and shall be overthrown out of their close places. ⁴⁷The Lord liveth, and blessed be my keeper; and my God, that keepeth my salvation, shall be exalted. ⁴⁸The Lord that avengeth me is strong, and chasteneth the nations under me, ⁴⁹and bringeth me forth from mine enemies; Thou also shalt lift me up on high from them that rise up against me; Thou shalt deliver me from the man of wrong. ⁵⁰Therefore I will give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto Thy name. ⁵¹Magnifying the salvation of His king, and working mercy to His anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

CHAPTER 23

And these be the last words of David:

Faithful is David the son of Jesse, and faithful the man whom the Lord raised up to be the anointed of the God of Jacob, and fitting are the psalms of Israel. ²The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and His word was in my tongue. ³The God of Israel saith, A guardian out of Israel spake to me a parable; I said, How will ye strengthen the fear of God among men among men? ⁴And in God let the sun rise at the light of early morning; the early morning passed not from splendour, and it was as it were from the rain for the tender grass out of the earth. ⁵For is my house not so with the Mighty One? for He hath made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered in every season, and kept sure; for all my salvation and all my desire is that the wicked flourish not. ⁶All of them are as thorns thrust out, for they cannot be taken with the hand; ⁷and a man shall not wax weary among them, and full of iron also is the staff of a spear; and with fire, with burning, they shall be burned by their shame.

⁸These be the names of the mighty men of David: Jebosheth the Canaanite, captain of the third part. The second was called Adino the Eznite; he drew his sword against eight hundred men at one time. ⁹And after him was Eleazar his uncle's son, son of Zousitos, one of the three mighty men; he was with David in Zerran, and when he defied the Philistines, they were gathered there to war, and the men of Israel went up. ¹⁰He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave to the sword; and the Lord wrought a great salvation in that day, and the people rested behind him only to spoil the slain. ¹¹And after him was Shammah the son of Asa the Arouchaite; and the Philistines were gathered together to Theria, and there was piece of ground full of lentils, and the people fled before the Philistines. ¹²And he stood firm in the midst of the ground, and delivered it, and smote the Philistines, and the Lord wrought a great deliverance. ¹³And three out of the Thirty went down, and came unto Kason to David, to the cave of Adullam; and an army of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴And David was then in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁵And David longed, and said, Who will give me water to drink out of the well, which is in Bethlehem by the gate? Now the band of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁶And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well that was in Bethlehem in the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; and he would not drink it, but poured it out before the Lord. ¹⁷And he said, Be merciful to me, O Lord, for that I did this, if I should drink the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives; and he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men. ¹⁸And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, he was chief among three; and he lifted up his spear against three hundred whom he slew, and had a name among these three. ¹⁹He was most honourable of the three, and became captain over them: howbeit he attained not unto the first three. ²⁰And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, he was a man abundant in deeds, of Kabzeel, and he smote the two sons of Ariel of Moab, and he went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. ²¹He smote an Egyptian, a man goodly to be seen, and in the hand of the Egyptian was a spear like the side of a ladder; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²²These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he had a name among the three mighty men. ²³He was honourable among the second three, but he attained not to the first three; and David appointed him to his hearings. And these are the names of David's mighty men. ²⁴Asahel the brother of Joab, (he was one of the thirty;) Elhanan the son of Dodo, his uncle in Bethlehem. ²⁵Shammah the Harodite. ²⁶Helez the son of Palti: Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. ²⁷Abiezer the Anethonite, of the sons of the Anethonite. ²⁸Zalmon the Ahohite: Mahari the Netophathite. ²⁹Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, the son of Benjamin the Ephrathite: Azmaveth the Barhumite: Eliabha the Shaalbonite. ³⁰Benaiah the son of the Pirathonite: Uriah of Nahalgaiah. ³¹Abiel the son of the Arabathite: Amsol the Barsamite. ³²Eliabha the Shaalbonite, the son of Jashen, Jonathan. ³³Shammah the Hararite: Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite: ³⁴Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite: Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite: ³⁵Hezrai the Carmelite: Paarai the son of the Arbite. ³⁶Igal the son of Nathan: of much valour, the son of Gilead. ³⁷Elie the Ammonite: Gelorai the Beerothite, the armourbearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah. ³⁸Ira the Ithrite: Gareb the Ethenite. ³⁹Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

CHAPTER 24

And again the anger of the Lord burned again in Israel, and He stirred up David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah. ²And the king said to Joab the commander of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel and Judah, from Dan even to Bathsheba, and number ye the people, and I will know the number of the people. ³And Joab said unto the king, Now the Lord thy God add unto the people, an hundredfold as many as they are, and the eyes of my lord the king see it: but why doth my lord the king desire this thing? ⁴Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out before the king to number the people of Israel. ⁵And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the midst of the valley of Gad and Eliezer. ⁶And they came to Gilead, and into the land of Thabason, which is Hodshai; and they came to Dan-jaan and Houdan, and compassed Sidon. ⁷And they came to Mapsar of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivite and Canaanite; and they came by the south of Judah even to Beer-sheba. ⁸And they compassed all the land, and arrived at Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹And Joab gave the sum of the number of the census of the people unto the king: and Israel was eight hundred thousand men of might that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand fighting men. ¹⁰And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people, and David said unto the Lord, I have sinned grievously, O Lord, in that I have now done: take away, I pray Thee, the iniquity of Thy servant, for I have been exceeding foolish. ¹¹And David rose early in the morning, and the word of the Lord came unto the prophet Gad, the seer, saying, Go and speak unto David, saying, ¹²Thus saith the Lord, I bring three things upon thee; now choose thee one of them, and I will do it thee. ¹³And Gad went in to David, and told him, and said unto him, Choose to befall thee, whether there shall come upon thee three years famine in thy land; or that thou flee for three month from thine enemies, and they pursue thee; or that there be three days of death in thy land. Now then decide, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me. ¹⁴And David said unto Gad, On every side I am much straitened; let me now fall into the hands of the Lord, for His tender mercies are very many, and let me not fall into the hands of man. ¹⁵So David chose him the death, and they were the days of the wheat harvest, and the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to noon, and the plague began among the people: and there died of the people of Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. ¹⁶And the angel of the Lord stretched out his hand against Jerusalem to destroy it, and the Lord repented Him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough, now; stay thine hand. And the angel of the Lord was by the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁷And David spake unto the Lord when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, it is I that have done wrong, and I the shepherd have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? let Thine hand, I pray thee, be upon me, and upon my father's house. ¹⁸And Gad came in that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, and rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁹And David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the Lord commanded. ²⁰And Araunah looked out, and saw the king and his servants coming on before him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²¹And Orna said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? and David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may be stayed from off the people. ²²And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up to the Lord that which is good in his eyes; behold, here are oxen for an whole burnt offering, and the wheels and furniture of the oxen for wood. ²³All these things did Araunah give unto the king: and Araunha said unto the king, The Lord thy God bless thee. ²⁴And the king said unto Orna, Nay, I will surely buy it of thee at a fair price: neither will I offer an whole burnt offering unto the Lord my God for nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings; and Solomon after made addition to the altar, for it was little at first. And the Lord hearkened to the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

3 KINGDOMS

CHAPTER 1

And king David was old advanced in days; and they covered him with clothes, but he was not warmed. ²And his servants said, Let them seek for the king a young virgin: and she shall wait upon the king, and keep him warm, and lie with him; and my lord the king shall be warmed. ³So they sought for a fair damsel out of all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. ⁴And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

⁵And Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. ⁶And his father had not hindered him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was very goodly in appearance; and he was born after Absalom. ⁷And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they followed after Adonijah. ⁸But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men of David, followed not Adonijah. ⁹And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and calves and lambs by the stone of Zohelath, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren, and all the men of Judah the king's servants. ¹⁰But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

^{*11}And Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith is become king, and David our lord knoweth it not? ¹²And now come, let me give thee counsel, and thou shalt rescue thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. ¹³Haste thee, and get thee in unto king David, and thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?' ¹⁴And, behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words. ¹⁵So Bathsheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king. ¹⁶And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king: and the king said, What wouldest thou? ¹⁷And she said, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. ¹⁸And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and thou, my lord, O king, knowest it not. ¹⁹And he hath sacrificed calves and lambs and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. ²⁰And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹And it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders. ²²And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came. And it was told the king, ²³Behold, Nathan the prophet: and he came into the king's presence, and did obseisance to the king with his face to the ground. ²⁴And Nathan said, My lord, O king, didst thou say, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? ²⁵For he is gone down this day, and hath sacrificed calves and lambs and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him; and they have said, Long live king Adonijah. ²⁶But me, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. ²⁷Is this thing done by my lord the king, and hast thou not shewed unto thy servant who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him? ²⁸And king David answered and said, Call me Bathsheba: and she came in, and stood before the king. ²⁹And the king sware, and said, As the Lord liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all affliction, ³⁰even as I sware unto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I do this day.

³¹And Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever. ³²And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada: and they came before the king. ³³The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son mount upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. ³⁴And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there to be king over Israel: and sound ye the trumpet; and ye shall say, Let king Solomon live forever. ³⁵And he shall sit upon my throne, and be king in my stead: and I have given charge that he be for a prince over Israel and Judah. ³⁶And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, So be it: the Lord God of my lord the king confirm it. ³⁷As the Lord hath been with my lord the king, even so be He with Solomon, and exalt his throne beyond the throne of my lord king David.
³⁸And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethite, and the Pelethite, went down, and mounted Solomon upon king David's mule, and led him away to Gihon. ³⁹And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon, and blew the trumpet; and all the people said, Let king Solomon live forever.
⁴⁰And all the people went up after him, and they danced in choirs, and rejoiced with great joy; and the earth burst with the sound of them.

⁴¹And Adonijah and all his guests heard, and they had made an end of eating: and Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, and said, Wherefore is the voice of the city being in an uproar? ⁴²While he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came in: and Adonijah said, Come in; for thou art a mighty man, and comest to bring good tidings. ⁴³And Jonathan answered and said, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king: ⁴⁴and the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethite, and the Pelethite, and they have mounted him upon the king's mule: ⁴⁵and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him in Gihon: and they are gone up from thence rejoicing, and the city rang again: this is the noise that ye have heard. ⁴⁶And Solomon is seated upon the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷And the king's servants are gone in to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne: and the king worshipped upon his bed. ⁴⁸And also thus said the king, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, Which hath this day given one of my seed to sit upon my throne, and mine eyes even seeing it.

⁴⁹And all the guests that were with Adonijah were dismayed, and arose, and went every man his way. ⁵⁰And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and departed, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. ⁵¹And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon, and layeth hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword. ⁵²And Solomon said, If he be a worthy man, there shall not an hair of his fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die. ⁵³And king Solomon sent, and they brought him away from the altar: and he went in, and did obeisance to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAPTER 2

And the days of king David drew nigh that he should die; and he answered Solomon his son, saying, I go the way of all the earth: ²be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man; ³and keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, to keep the commandments, and the ordinances, and the judgments, which are written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest understand what thou shalt do in all things that I command thee: ⁴that the Lord may confirm His word which He spake, saying, If thy children take heed to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their heart, saying, There shall not fail thee a man on the throne of Israel. ⁵Moreover thou knowest all that Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether; that he slew them, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put innocent blood upon his girdle that was about his loins, and on his sandal that was on his feet. ⁶Therefore thou shalt do with him according to thy wisdom, and thou shalt not bring down his grey hairs into Hades in peace. ⁷But thou shalt deal kindly with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and they shall be among those that eat at thy table: for so they drew nigh unto me when I fled from the face of Absalom thy brother. ⁸And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim: and he cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went into the camps: and he came down to Jordan to meet me, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. ⁹But thou shalt by no means hold him guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and wilt know what thou shalt do unto him; and his grey hairs shalt thou bring down into Hades with blood. ¹⁰And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

¹²Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly. ¹³And Adonijah the son of Haggith came in to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, and did obeisance to her: and she said, Comest thou peaceably? and he said, Peaceably: ¹⁴I have a word with thee. And she said unto him, Say on. ¹⁵And he said unto her, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel turned the face toward me for a king: howbeit the kingdom was turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the Lord. ¹⁶And now I make one request of thee: turn not away thy face. And Bathsheba said unto him, Say on. ¹⁷And he said unto her, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, for he will not turn away his face from thee, and let him give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. ¹⁸And Bathsheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king. ¹⁹And Bathsheba went in unto king Solomon, to speak unto him concerning Adonijah: and the king rose up to meet her, and kissed her, and sat down on the throne, and a throne was set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. ²⁰And she said unto him, I desire one small petition of thee; turn not away thy face from me. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother, and I will not say thee nay. ²¹And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite, I pray thee, be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. ²²And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why hast thou asked Abishag for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother, and he hath for his companion Abiathar the priest, and Joab the son of Zeruiah the chief captain. ²³And king Solomon swore by the Lord, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. ²⁴And now, as the Lord liveth, Which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and hath made me an house, as the Lord spake, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. ²⁵So king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he slew him, and Adonijah died in that day.

²⁶And the king said unto Abiathar the priest, Get thee quickly to Anathoth, unto thine own farm; for thou art worthy of death this day: but I will not put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the covenant of the Lord before my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all things wherein my father was afflicted. ²⁷And Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being a priest of the Lord; that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled, which He spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. ²⁸And the tidings came to Joab the son of Zeruiah: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, and he went not after Solomon: and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. ²⁹And it was told king Solomon, saying, Joab hath fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord; and, lo, he hath hold of the horns of the altar. And king Solomon sent unto Joab, saying, What aileth thee, that thou art fled unto the altar? and Joab said, Because I was afraid of thee, and fled for refuge unto the Lord. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go and slay him, and bury him. ³⁰And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada came to Joab unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And Joab said, I will not come forth; for I will die here. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada returned and spake unto the king, saying, Thus hath Joab spoken, and thus hath he answered me. ³¹And the king said unto him, Go, and do unto him as he hath spoken, and kill him; and thou shalt bury him, and take away the blood, which he shed without cause, from me, and from the house of my father. ³²And the Lord hath returned the blood of his unrighteousness upon his own head; forasmuch as he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David knew not of their blood, to wit, Abner the son of Ner the chief captain of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether the chief captain of Judah. ³³And their blood is returned upon his own head, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but unto David, and unto his seed, and unto his house, and unto his throne, be there peace for ever from the Lord. ³⁴So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him, and buried him in his own house in the wilderness. ³⁵And the king appointed Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and the king reigned in Jerusalem: and Zadok the priest did the king appoint to be high priest in the room of Abiathar. ^{35a}And the Lord gave understanding to Solomon, and very great wisdom, and largeness of heart, as the sand by the shore of the sea. ^{35b}And the wisdom of Solomon abounded exceedingly, beyond all the wisdom of the ancients, and beyond all the wise men of Egypt. ^{35c}And he took the daughter of Pharaoh, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord first, and the walls of Jerusalem round about: in seven years made he them, and finished them. ^{35d}And Solomon had seventy thousand bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers of stone in the mountain: ^{35e}and Solomon made the sea, and the bases, and the great lavers, and the pillars, and the fountain of the court, and the brazen sea: ^{35f}and he built the citadel as a defence above it; he made a breach in the wall of the city of David: thus did the daughter of Pharaoh go up out of the city of David unto her house which he built for her; then built he the citadel. ^{35g}And Solomon offered up three whole burnt offerings in the year, and peace offerings, upon the altar which he built unto the Lord: and he burned incense before the Lord, and he finished the house. ^{35h}And these be the chief persons that did preside over the works of Solomon: three thousand and six hundred masters of the people that wrought the works. ³⁵ⁱAnd he built Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer, and upper Beth-horon, and Baalath: ^{35j}only after he had built the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about, afterward built he these cities. ^{35k}And while David was yet living, he charged Solomon, saying, Behold, there is with thee Shimei the son of Gera, of the seed of Benjamin out of Hebron: ^{35l}he cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went into the camp: ^{35m}and he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore unto him by the Lord, saying, He shall not be put to death with the sword. ³⁵ⁿAnd now hold him not guiltless: for thou art a man of understanding, and thou wilt know what thou shalt do unto him; and his grey hairs shalt thou bring down into Hades with blood.

³⁶And the king called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there; and thou shalt not go forth thence any whither. ³⁷And it shall be, that in the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head. And the king caused him to swear in that day. ³⁸And Shimei said unto the king, The word which thou hast spoken is good, my lord, O king: so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem three years. ³⁹And it came to pass, after the three years, that two servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. ⁴⁰And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹And it was told Solomon, saying, Shimei is gone out of Jerusalem unto Gath, and hath brought back his servants. ⁴²And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not adjure thee by the Lord, and testify to thee, saying, Know for a certain, on whatsoever day thou goest out of Jerusalem, and go to the right, or to the left, that thou shalt surely die? ⁴³And why hast thou not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? ⁴⁴And the king said unto Shimei, Thou knowest all thy mischief which thine heart knoweth, that thou didst to David my father: and the Lord hath recompensed thy mischief upon thine own head. ⁴⁵And king Solomon is blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever. ⁴⁶And Solomon commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went forth, and slew him.

^{46a}And king Solomon was exceeding prudent and wise: and Judah and Israel were very many, even as the sand which is by the sea for multitude; eating, and drinking, and rejoicing. ^{46b}And Solomon was chief in all the kingdoms; and they brought gifts, and served Solomon all the days of his life. ^{46c}And Solomon began to open the domains of Lebanon, ^{46d}and he built Termah in the wilderness. ^{46e}And this was the daily provision of Solomon: thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of ground meal, ten choice calves, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep; beside stags, and harts, and choice fatted fowl. ^{46f}For he reigned in all the country beyond the river, from Tiphseh unto Azzah, over all the kings beyond the river: ^{46g}and he was at peace on all sides round about; and Judah and Israel dwelt in safety, every man under his vine, and under his fig tree; eating and drinking, and feasting, from Dan even unto Bathsheba, all the days of Solomon. ^{46h}And these were the princes of Solomon: Azariah the son of Zadok the priest; and Azariah the son of Nathan chief of the officers (and he went to his own house); and Zobia the scribe, and Basah the son of Ahithalam, the recorder; and Abi the son of Joab was chief captain; and Adoniram the son of Abdon was over the tribute; and Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the household, and over the brickwork; and Zabud the son of Nathan was counsellor. ⁴⁶ⁱAnd Solomon had forty thousand brood mares for his chariots, and twelve thousand horses. ^{46j}And he reigned over all the kings from the river even to the land of the Philistines, and unto the coasts of Egypt: so Solomon the son of David reigned over Israel and Judah in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3

^{*1}And when the kingdoms had been given into the hands of Solomon, then Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about. ²Nevertheless the people burned incense in the high places, because there was no house yet built unto the Lord. ³And Solomon loved the Lord, to walk in the statutes of David his father; only he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. ⁴And he arose, and went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the highest place, and great: an whole burnt offering of a thousand did Solomon offer upon the altar in Gibeon. ⁵And the Lord appeared unto Solomon in a dream by night; and the Lord said unto Solomon, Ask thee some petition. ⁶And Solomon said, Thou hast dealt very mercifully with Thy servant David my father, according as he walked before Thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and Thou hast kept for him this great mercy, to set his son upon his throne, as it is this day. ⁷And now, O Lord my God, Thou hast appointed Thy servant in the room of David my father: and I am but a little child, and know not my going out and my coming in. ⁸But Thy servant is in the midst of Thy people which Thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered. ⁹Thou shalt give therefore Thy servant an heart to hear and judge Thy people justly, and to discern between good and evil: for who will be able to judge this Thy great people? ¹⁰And it was pleasing before the Lord, that Solomon asked this thing. ¹¹And the Lord said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing of Me, and hast not asked for thyself long life, and hast not asked riches, nor hast asked for the lives of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to hear judgment; ¹²behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee an understanding and wise heart: there hath not been any like thee before thee, neither after thee shall there arise one like unto thee. ¹³And I have given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and glory, so that there hath not been any among the king like unto thee. ¹⁴And if thou wilt walk in My way, to keep My commandments, and Mine ordinances, as thy father David did walk, then will I multiply thy days. ¹⁵And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream: and he arose, and came to Jerusalem, and stood before the altar that was in front of the ark of the covenant of the Lord in Zion: and he offered whole burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings, and made a great feast for himself and all his servants.

¹⁶Then appeared there two harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. ¹⁷And the one woman said, O my lord, hear me; I and this woman dwelt in the one house; and we were delivered in the house. ¹⁸And it came to pass the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; and there was none beside out two selves in the house. ¹⁹And this woman's child died in the night; because she slept upon it. ²⁰And she arose in the middle of the night, and took my son from mine arms, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom. ²¹And I arose in the morning to give my son suck, and he was dead: and, behold, I considered him in the morning, and, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. ²²And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. So they spake before the king. ²³And the king said unto them, Thou sayest, This is my son, even the living; and this woman's son is the dead one: and thou sayest, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. ²⁴And the king said, Fetch a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵And the king said, Divide the living child, the suckling, in two; and give half of it to the one, and half of it to the other. ²⁶And the woman whose the living child was answered and said unto the king, for her bowels yearned over her son, O my lord, I pray thee give her the child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor hers, but divide it. ²⁷Then the king answered and said, Give her the child that said, Give it to her, and by no means slay it: she is the mother thereof. ²⁸And all Israel heard this judgment which the king had judged, and they feared before the king; because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to execute judgment.

CHAPTER 4

And king Solomon reigned over Israel. ²And these are the princes which he had: Azariah the son of Zadok. ³Elihoreph and Ahijah the son of Shisha, scribes; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder. ⁴And Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. ⁵And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was the king's friend. ⁶And Ahishar was the steward, and Eliab the son of Saph was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute. ⁷And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, to provide for the king and his household: each man's turn came to supply for a month in the year. ⁸And these were their names: Been the son of Hur in the mount of Ephraim, one month. ⁹The son of Rechab in Makaz, and in Bethlehem, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon unto Beth-hanan, one month. ¹⁰The son of Heshed in Arubboth; his was Sochoh, and all the land of Hephher, one month. ¹¹All Naphthador pertained to the son of Abinadab, (Taphath the daughter of Solomon was his wife), one month. ¹²Baana the son of Ahilud had Taanach, and Megiddo; and his was all the house of Shean, which was by Zaretan below Jezreel, and from Beth-shean unto Abel-meholah, unto Jokneam, one month. ¹³The son of Geber on Ramoth-gilead, unto him fell the lot of Argob in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and bars of brass, one month. ¹⁴Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim. ¹⁵Ahimaaz was in Naphtali, and he took Basemath the daughter of Solomon to wife, one month. ¹⁶Baanah the son of Hushai, in Asher and in Maaeth, one month; ¹⁷Shimei the son of Elahom, in Benjamin. ¹⁸Geber the son of Adai in the land of Gad and Sihon king of Heshbon, and of Og the king of Bashan, and one officer in the land of Judah. ¹⁹Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah was in Issachar. ²⁰*And Judah and*

Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

CHAPTER 5

¹And Solomon was king over all the kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life. And thus the officers provided victual for king Solomon, and all the orders for the table every one in his month: they omit nothing. ²The barley also, and the straw for the horses and the chariots carried they unto the place where the king might be, every man according to his charge. And these were the requisite supplies for Solomon: thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of fine pounded meal, ³and ten choice calves, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, besides harts, and choice fatted does. ⁴For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river: and he was at peace on all sides round about.*

⁵And the Lord gave understanding unto Solomon, and exceeding much wisdom, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore. ¹⁰And Solomon abounded greatly, beyond the wisdom of all the ancients, and beyond all the wise men of Egypt. ¹¹And he was wiser than all other men: and he was wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda the sons of Mahol. ¹²And Solomon spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were five thousand. ¹³And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that cometh out of the wall: he spake also of cattle, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes. ¹⁴And there came of all the nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and from all the kings of the earth, as many as had heard of his wisdom.

^{14a}And Solomon took unto himself the daughter of Pharaoh to wife, and brought her into the city of David until he had finished the house of the Lord, and his own house, and the wall of Jerusalem. ^{14b}Then went up Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and took Gezer, and burned it and the Canaanite dwelling in Mergab: and Pharaoh gave them as a dowry unto his daughter Solomon's wife: and Solomon rebuilt Gezer.

¹⁵And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to anoint Solomon in the room of David his father: for Hiram ever loved David. ¹⁶And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ¹⁷Thou knewest David my father, how that he could not build an house unto the name of the Lord my God for the wars which were compassed him about, until the Lord put them under the soles of his feet. ¹⁸And now the Lord my God hath given me rest on every side: there is none that deviseth against me, and there is no evil trespass. ¹⁹And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord God spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name. ²⁰And now command thou, and let men hew wood for me out of Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give the wages of thy service, according to all that thou shalt say: for thou knowest that we have none skilled to hew timber like unto the Zidonians. ²¹And it came to pass, as soon as Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be God this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. ²²And he sent unto Solomon, saying, I have hearkened concerning all which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy will; as concerning timber of cedar and of fir, ²³my servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: I will form them into floats unto the place that thou shalt send to me about, and will land them there, and thou shalt take them up: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. ²⁴So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, and all his desire. ²⁵And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat as food for his household, and twenty thousand baths of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram yearly. ²⁶And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they made a covenant between them. ²⁷And the king raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. ²⁸And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand taking turn every month: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy. ²⁹And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers of stone in the mountain; ³⁰beside the rulers that were appointed over the works of Solomon, three thousand and six hundred masters, which wrought in the works. ³²And three years they prepared the stones and the timber.

CHAPTER 6

And it came to pass in the four hundred and fortieth year after the departure of the sons of Israel out of Egypt, in the fourth year and second month of king Solomon's reign over Israel, (Ch.5 v.31) ^{1a}that the king commanded that they should take great and costly stones for the foundation of the house, and hewn stones. (Ch.5 v.32) ^{1b}And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and lay them. ^{1c}In the fourth year did he lay the foundation of the house of the Lord, in the month Zif, even in the second month. ^{1d}In the eleventh month, (this is the month Baal), was the house finished according to all the plan thereof, and according to all the arrangement thereof. ²And the house which the king built unto the Lord, the length thereof was forty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof five and twenty cubits. ³And the porch before the temple, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house. So he built the house, and finished it. ⁴And for the house he made secret windows inclining inward. ⁵And against the wall of the house he set chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the ark; and he made chambers round about. ⁶The nethermost side was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without the house he fashioned an interval to the house round about, that they might not touch the walls of the house. ⁷And the house was built in the construction thereof with rough hewed stones: and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building. ⁸And the porch of the nether side was under the right wing of the house; and there was a winding ascent into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third. ⁹So he built the house, and finished it; and he made the building of the house with cedar trees. ¹⁰And he made the partitions through all the house, each five cubits high, and enclosed each partition with cedar boards. ^{*11}And it came to pass that the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying, ¹²*Concerning this house which thou art building, if thou wilt walk in My statutes, and execute My judgments, and keep all My commandments to walk in them; then will I perform My word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father: ¹³and I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel. ¹⁴So Solomon built the house, and finished it. ¹⁵And he framed the walls of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor of the house, and on to the inner walls, and to the beams: he lined the parts enclosed with boards within, and compassed the inward parts of the house with planks of fir. ¹⁶And he built the twenty cubits from the top of the wall, one side from the floor to the beams, and made it from the oracle unto the most holy place. ^{17}*And the innermost temple was forty cubits long, ¹⁸and the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: and all was cedar: there was no stone seen. ¹⁹In front of the oracle in the midst of the house within, to put there the ark of the covenant of the Lord, ²⁰the length was twenty cubits, and the breadth was twenty cubits, and the height thereof was twenty cubits: and he covered it with perfect gold. And he made an altar ^{*of cedar, ²¹and Solomon overlaid the house within with perfect gold, and made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. ²²And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished the whole house ^{also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold. ²³And within the oracle he made two cherubims of ten cubits in measured size. ²⁴And five cubits was the wing of one cherub, and the other wing thereof was five cubits; from the tip of one wing unto the tip of the other was ten cubits. ²⁵Thus it was with the other cherub; both alike were finished with one measure. ²⁶And the height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so it was with the other cherub. ²⁷And both the cherubims were in the midst of the innermost part of the house: and they stretched forth their wings, and one wing touched the wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched each other in the midst of the house. ²⁸And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. ²⁹He graved all the walls of the house round about with the graving of cherubims, and palm trees within and without the house. ³⁰And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. ³¹And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of juniper wood: there was a lintel of five sides:}}

³²two doors also made of boards of fir; and carved upon them were carved cherubims and palm trees and open flower leaves; and it was overlaid with gold gilt, and the gold went down upon the cherubim and upon the palm trees. ³³So made he also for the door of the temple posts of juniper, porticoes of four sides. ³⁴And there were fir boards in both of the two doors: the one door two leaves and their foldings, and the second door two leaves, folding; ³⁵carved cherubims and palm trees and open flower leaves, and overlaid in gold down upon the carved work. ³⁶And he built the inner court, three rows of hewed stone, and a row of wrought cedar round about. ^{36a}And he made the curtain of the court of the porch of the house that was before the temple.

CHAPTER 7

And king Solomon sent, and fetched Hiram out of Tyre, ²the son of a widow woman; and he was of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass, and skilled in art and cunning and knowledge to work every work in brass: and he was brought in unto king Solomon; and he wrought all the works. ³And he cast the two pillars of brass for the porch of the house: eighteen cubits was the height of each pillar: and a round of fourteen cubits did compass it about, even the thickness of the pillar: the flutings were four fingers wide, and thus was the other pillar. ⁴And he made the two molten chapiters, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits. ⁵And he made two nets of checker work to cover the chapiters of the pillar: even a net for one chapter, and a net for the other chapter. ⁶And hanging work, two rows of pomegranates of brass, formed with net work, hanging work, row upon row: and thus he framed for the second chapter. ⁷And he set up the pillars of the porch of the temple: and he set up the one pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin; and he set up the second pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz. ⁸And on the heads of the pillars there was lily work against the porch, of four cubits; ⁹And there was a beam over both the pillars, and above the sides the beam was as a cover in thickness. ¹⁰And he made the sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other; the same was round in a circle: his height was five cubits, and drawn together, three and thirty cubits compassed it about. ¹¹And under the rim of it round about there were knops that compassed it; ¹²and his work was as the work of a rim of a cup, a lily flower, and the thickness of it was a span. ¹³And under the sea there were twelve oxen, three looking north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east, and all their hinder parts were toward the house. ¹⁴And he made ten bases of brass; five cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and six cubits the height thereof. ¹⁵And this was the work of the bases: they were formed with a border to them, and a border between the projections. ¹⁶And on their borders that were between the projections were lions, and oxen, and cherubims, and on the projections on this manner: enclosed spaces above and also beneath the lions and the oxen, hanging work. ¹⁷And the one base had four brasen wheels, and the additions of brass, and the four sides thereof undersetters under the lavers. ¹⁸And there were hands in the wheels under the base; and the height of one wheel was a cubit and an half. ¹⁹The work of the wheels was like the work of chariot wheels: their hands and their backs, and the rest of the work thereof, were all molten. ²⁰The four side pieces were at the four corners of each base: the undersetters were of the very base itself. ²¹And on the top of the base (half a cubit was the size thereof) was there a round compass around on the top of the base, and a beginning of the hands thereof, and the borders thereof: and it was open at the beginning of the hands thereof. ²²And the borders thereof were cherubims, and lions, and palm trees, standing; each one was joined in front and within and round about. ²³After this manner he made all the ten bases, even one order and one measure to all. ²⁴And he made ten lavers of brass, each laver containing forty gallons, by measurement four cubits; each laver on a several base throughout the ten bases. ²⁵And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and the sea was set on the right side of the house eastward on the side of the south. ²⁶And Hiram made the caldrons, and the pans, and the bowls; and Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made for king Solomon in the house of the Lord: ²⁷two pillars, and the wreathen works of the pillars on the heads of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover both the wreathen works of the flutings that were upon the pillars; ²⁸the four hundred pomegranates for both the networks, two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover both the wreathen works of the pillars pertaining to both pillars; ²⁹and the ten bases, and the ten lavers upon the bases; ³⁰and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; ³¹and the caldrons, and pans, and bowls, and all the furniture, which Hiram made to king Solomon in the house of the Lord; and the eight and forty pillars of the house of the king, and of the house of the Lord: all the works of the king, which Hiram made, were all of brass. ³²There was no reckoning of the brass wherewith he made all these works, from the exceeding great abundance; there was no end of the weight of the brass. ³³In the country round about Jordan did he cast them, in the clay part of the land between Succoth and Zarthan. ³⁴And king Solomon gave the furniture, which he made, into the house of the Lord, the altar of gold, and the table of gold of the loaves of presentation, ³⁵and the five candlesticks on the left side, and five on the right side, before the oracle, or pure gold; and the lampstands, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold; ³⁶and the work about the door, and the nails, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the golden censers of pure gold; and the panels of the doors of the innermost part of the house, even the holy of holies, and the golden doors of the temple. ³⁷So was ended the work of the house of the Lord that Solomon wrought; and Solomon brought in all the holy things of David his father, and all the holy things of Solomon: he put the silver, and the gold, and the furniture, into the treasures of the house of the Lord.

³⁸And Solomon built an house for himself in thirteen years. ³⁹And he built the house with the wood of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof was fifty cubits, and the height thereof of thirty cubits; and of three rows of pillars of cedar wood, and the pillars had side pieces of cedar. ⁴⁰And he formed the house with beams above, on the sides of the pillars; and the number of the pillars was each row five and forty. ⁴¹And there were three beams, and space over against space in three rows. ⁴²And all the doors and spaces that were formed of beams were square, and from door to door in three rows. ⁴³And he made the porch of the pillars fifty cubits long, and fifty broad, the porch joining them before, and the pillars and the thick beam before the house by the porches. ⁴⁴And there was the porch of seats, where he would judge, the porch of Judgment. ⁴⁵And their house where he would dwell had one court connecting with these according to this work; and he built the house for the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon had taken, according to this porch. ⁴⁶And these were of costly stones, graven at intervals within, even from the foundation to the chapiters, and outward to the great court, founded with large and costly stones of ten cubits and eight cubits; ⁴⁸and above with costly stones, according to the measure of hewed stones, and with cedar trees. ⁴⁹There were three rows of hewed stones round about the great hall, and a row of wrought cedar: and Solomon made an end of building all his house.

CHAPTER 8

And it came to pass when Solomon had made an end of building the house of the Lord and his own house after twenty years, then king Solomon assembled all the elders of Israel in Zion, to bring back the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David, (this is Zion,) ²in the month of Ethanim. ³And the priests took up the ark, ⁴and the tabernacle of the testimony, and the holy furniture that was in the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁵And the king and all Israel were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen without number. ⁶And the priests bring in the ark into the place thereof, into the oracle of the house, into the holy of holies, even under the wings of the cherubims. ⁷For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the holy things thereof above. ⁸And the holy staves projected, and the ends of the holy staves appeared out of the holy places before the oracle, and they were not seen without. ⁹There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, the tables of the covenant, which Moses put there in Horeb, which the Lord made with the sons of Israel, when they went forth from the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And it came to pass, when the priest were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house. ¹¹And the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord filled the house. (no vv. 12-13)

¹⁴And the king turned his face about; and the king blessed all Israel: (and all the congregation stood;) ¹⁵and he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel this day, which spake by His mouth concerning David my father, and hath with His hands fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶Since the day that I brought forth

My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any of the tribes of Israel to build an house, that My name might be therein; but I chose Jerusalem that My name might be there, and I chose David to be over My people Israel. ¹⁷And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house to the name of the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁸And the Lord said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto My name, thou didst well that it came into thine heart. ¹⁹Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that hath come forth out of thy sides, he shall build the house unto My name. ²⁰And the Lord hath confirmed the word that He spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am sat down on the throne of Israel, as the Lord spake, and have built an house to the name of the Lord God of Israel. ²¹And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which the Lord made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

²²And Solomon stood up before the altar in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven: ²³and he said, Lord God of Israel, there is no God like Thee, in heaven above, and on the earth beneath, Who keepest covenant and mercy with Thy servant that walketh before Thee with all his heart: ²⁴which Thou hast kept toward Thy servant David my father: for Thou hast spoken by Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thine hands, as this day. ²⁵And now, Lord God of Israel, keep for Thy servant David my father that which Thou spakedst unto him, saying, There shall not be taken from thee a man that sitteth before Me on the throne of Israel; so only that thy children take heed to their ways, to walk before Me as thou hast walked before Me. ²⁶And now, O Lord God of Israel, I pray Thee, let Thy word unto David my father be confirmed. ²⁷But will God indeed dwell with men upon the earth? if the heaven, and heaven of heavens will not suffice Thee; how much less this house that I have builded to Thy name? ²⁸Yet Thou, O Lord God of Israel, shalt have respect unto my supplication, to hearken unto the prayer which Thy servant maketh unto Thee in Thy presence this day; ²⁹that Thine eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place whereof Thou saidst, My name shall be there: that Thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which Thy servant prayeth at this place day and night. ³⁰And Thou shalt hearken unto the prayer of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and Thou shalt hear in Thy dwelling place in heaven; and Thou shalt do, and be gracious. ³¹Whatsoever trespasses each shall commit against his neighbour, if he take upon him an oath that he swear, and come and make confession before Thine altar in this house; ³²then shalt Thou hear from heaven, and do; and Thou shalt judge Thy people Israel, that the wicked be condemned, to recompense his way upon his head; and to justify the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. ³³When Thy people Israel falleth before the enemy, because they shall sin against Thee, and shall turn again to Thee, and confess Thy name, and pray, and make supplication in this house: ³⁴then shalt Thou hear from heaven, and be gracious to the sins of Thy people Israel; and Thou shalt restore them unto the land which Thou gavest unto their fathers. ³⁵When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they shall sin against Thee; they shall also pray toward this place, and make confession unto Thy name, and shall turn from their sins when Thou shalt have humbled them: ³⁶then shalt Thou hear out of heaven, and be merciful unto the sins of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel; for Thou shalt shew them the good way to walk therein, and shalt give rain upon the land, which Thou hast given to Thy people for an inheritance. ³⁷If there be famine, if there be death, because there be blasting, locust; or if there be mildew, and if their enemy oppress them in one of their cities, with every occurrence, every trouble; ³⁸every prayer, every supplication whatsoever shall be made by any man, as they shall know each the plague of his heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: ³⁹then shalt Thou hearken out of heaven, out of Thy prepared dwelling place, and shalt be merciful, and do, and recompense to every man according to his ways, as Thou shalt know his heart; (for Thou alone knowest the heart of all the children of men;) ⁴⁰that they may fear Thee all the days that they may live upon the land, which Thou hast given unto our fathers. ⁴¹And for the stranger, that is not of Thy people, ⁴²when they come and pray toward this place; ⁴³then shalt Thou hear out of heaven, out of Thy prepared dwelling place: and Thou shalt do according to all that the stranger shall call upon Thee for: that all the nations may know Thy name, and fear Thee, as do Thy people Israel; and that they may know that Thy name hath been called upon in this house, which I have builded. ⁴⁴If it be that Thy people go out to war against their enemies in the way whithersoever Thou shalt turn them, and pray in the name of the Lord toward the city which Thou hast chosen: ⁴⁵then shalt Thou hear out of heaven their supplication and their prayer, and execute judgment for them. ⁴⁶If it be that they sin against Thee, (for there is no man that will not sin,) and Thou bring them, and deliver them up before their enemies, and they that take them captive carry them unto a land, far or near; ⁴⁷and they turn their hearts in the land whither they have been carried captives, and turn in the land of their sojourning, and make supplication unto Thee, saying, We have sinned, we have done unjustly, we have transgressed; ⁴⁸and they turn unto Thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies whither Thou hast carried them captives, and pray unto Thee toward their land, which Thou gavest unto their fathers, and the city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built to Thy name: ⁴⁹then shalt Thou hear out of heaven Thy prepared dwelling place, ⁵⁰and shalt be merciful to their unrighteousness wherein they have trespassed against Thee, and shalt cause them to be pitied before them that carried them captives, and they shall have compassion on them: ⁵¹for they be Thy people, and Thine inheritance, which Thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, out of the midst of the furnace of iron. ⁵²And let Thine eyes and Thine ears be opened unto the supplication of Thy servant, and unto the supplication of Thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all things for which they shall call upon Thee. ⁵³For Thou didst set them apart for an inheritance unto Thyself out of all the nations of the earth, as Thou spakest by the hand of Moses Thy servant, when Thou broughtest our fathers out of the land of Egypt, LORD, O Lord.

^{53a}Then spake Solomon concerning the house, when he had finished building it, He revealed the sun in the heaven: the Lord said that He would dwell in darkness: Build thou Mine house, a fair house for Thee to dwell therein anew. Behold, is not this written in the book of the song?

⁵⁴And was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, having knelt upon his knees; and his hands were spread out to heaven.

⁵⁵And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶Blessed be the Lord this day, that hath given rest unto His people Israel, according to all that He said: there hath not failed one word among all His good words, which He spake by the hand of Moses His servant. ⁵⁷The

Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers: let Him not desert us, nor turn from us: ⁵⁸that He may turn our hearts toward Him, to walk in all His ways, and to keep all His commandments, and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹And let these words, which I have prayed before the Lord our God, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, to maintain the cause of Thy servant, and the cause of Thy people Israel for ever; ⁶⁰that all the nations of the earth may know that the Lord God, He is God, and there is none beside. ⁶¹And let our hearts be perfect toward the Lord our God, to walk also in holiness in His ordinances, and to keep His commandments, as at this day.

⁶²And the king and all the sons of Israel offered sacrifice before the Lord. ⁶³And king Solomon offered for the sacrifices of peace offering, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: and the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord. ⁶⁴The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered the whole burnt offering, and the sacrifices, and the fats of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the Lord was too little to bear the whole burnt offering and the sacrifices of peace offerings. ⁶⁵And in that day did Solomon keep the feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, eating, and drinking, and rejoicing before the Lord our God seven days. ⁶⁶And on the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and each departed to his tent rejoicing; and their heart was glad because of the good things which the Lord had done to David His servant, and unto Israel His people.

CHAPTER 9

And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the work of Solomon, whatsoever he desired to perform, ²that the Lord appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared unto him in Gibeon. ³And the Lord said unto him, I have heard the voice of thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before Me: I have done for thee according to all thy prayer: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put My name there for ever; and Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there perpetually. ⁴And if thou wilt walk before Me, as David thy father walked, in holiness of heart, and in uprightness, and to do according to all that I commanded him, and wilt keep Mine ordinances and My commandments: ⁵then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom in Israel for ever, as I spake to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to rule in Israel. ⁶But if ye or your children in any wise revolt from Me, and keep not My commandments and Mine ordinances, which Moses set before you, and ye go and serve other gods, and worship them: ⁷then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for My name, will I cast out of My sight; and Israel shall be a desolation and a byword unto all nations. ⁸And this house, which is high, shall be that every one that passeth it by shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house? ⁹And men shall say, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, and have attached themselves to strange gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them this evil.

^{9a}Then Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David into his house, which he built for himself in those days.

¹⁰Twenty years, wherein Solomon builded the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the king's house, ¹¹Hiram the king of Tyre helped Solomon with cedar wood, and fir wood, and with gold, and all that he desired: then the king gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹²And Hiram departed from Tyre, and went into Galilee to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not. ¹³And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, brother? And he called them Boundary until this day. ¹⁴And Hiram brought to Solomon sixscore talents of gold, (no verses 15-25) ²⁶even that for which king Solomon built a ship in Ezion-geber nigh unto Eloth on the shore of the last part of the sea in the land of Edom. ²⁷And Hiram sent in the ship with his own servants, shipmen to row, men that had knowledge of the sea, together with Solomon's servants. ²⁸And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

And the queen of Sheba heard of the name of Solomon, and the name of the Lord, and came to prove him with hard questions. ²And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, and camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and she came in to Solomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart. ³And Solomon told all her questions: and there was not a question overlooked by the king, which he told her not. ⁴And the queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, ⁵and the provision of Solomon, and the sitting of his attendants, and the standing of his servants, and his apparel, and his cupbearers, and his whole burnt offering which he offered in the house of the Lord; and she was in an ecstasy. ⁶And she said to king Solomon, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy words and of thy wisdom. ⁷Howbeit I believed not them that told me, until I came, and mine eyes had seen: and, behold, the words as they told me are not the half: thou hast exceeded in goodness all the report which I heard in my land. ⁸Blessed are thy wives, blessed are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, that hear all thy wisdom. ⁹Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath taken pleasure in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the Lord loved Israel, to establish him for ever; and He hath made thee king over them, to do judgment with justice, and in their causes. ¹⁰And she gave Solomon an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very many spices, and precious stones: there had not come any other spices so abundant as those which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. (¹¹And the ship of Hiram, that brought the gold from Suphir, brought very much hewed timber and precious stones. ¹²And the king made of the hewed timber buttresses for the house of the Lord, and for the king's house, and lyres and harps for singers: such hewed timber had not come upon the earth, nor had been seen any where until this day.) ¹³And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatsoever she asked, beside all that he had given her by the hand of king Solomon: and she returned, and came into her own land, she and her servants.

¹⁴And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, ¹⁵beside the tribute of them that were his subjects, both merchantmen and all the kings of the country beyond the river, and of the princes of the land. ¹⁶And Solomon made three hundred spears of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold were upon one spear: ¹⁷and three hundred targets of beaten gold: and three pounds of gold were in one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁸And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁹The throne had six steps, and calves in high relief to the throne behind it, and side pieces on either hand of the place of the seat, and two lions that stood by the side pieces, ²⁰and twelve lions that stood there upon the six steps: it was not done so in any other kingdom. ²¹And all the vessels made by Solomon were of gold; and the lavers were golden; and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: there was no silver, for it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. ²²For Solomon had at sea a ship of Tharshish with the ships of Hiram: every three years came one ship out of Tharshish unto the king, laden with gold and silver and wrought stones, and hewed stones.

^{22a}This was the arrangement of the provision which king Solomon fetched to build the house of the Lord, and the house of the king, and the wall of Jerusalem, and the citadel; to fortify the city of David, and Assur, and Migdol, and Gezer, and Beth-horon the upper, and Jethermath, and all the cities of the chariots, and all the cities of the horsemen, and the work of Solomon which he purposed to build in Jerusalem, and in all the land, ^{22b}that none of the people should rule over him that was left of the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the the Hivite, and the Jebusite, and the Gergesite, which were not of the sons of Israel, their children that were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, and Solomon reduced them to tribute unto this day. ^{22c}But of the sons of Israel did Solomon make nothing: for they were the warriors, and his servants, and his princes, and captains of the third order, and the captains of his chariots, and his horsemen.

²³And Solomon increased beyond all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom. ²⁴And all the kings of the earth sought the face of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which the Lord had put in his heart. ²⁵And they brought every one their presents, and vessels of gold, and garments, and stacte, and spices, and horses, and horses, and mules, a rate year by year. ²⁶And Solomon had four thousand mares for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen: and he bestowed them in the cities of his chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. ^{26a}And he ruled over all the kings, from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the borders of Egypt. ²⁷And the king made gold and silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the plain for abundance. ²⁸And the goings forth of Solomon's horsemen were also out of Egypt, and the king's merchants were of Tekoa; and they received them out of Tekoa at a price. ²⁹And that which proceeded out of Egypt went up a chariot for an hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for fifty shekels of silver: and thus for all the kings of the Chettians, and the kings of Syria: they came out by the sea.

CHAPTER 11

And king Solomon was a lover of women. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. And he took strange women, and the daughter of Pharaoh; Moabitish, Ammonitish women, Syrians, and Edomites, Hittites, and Amorites; ²concerning which the Lord said unto the sons of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, and they shall not come in to you, lest they turn away your hearts after their idols of the nations: Solomon clave unto these in love. ^{*3}And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart. ⁴And it came to pass, in the time of Solomon's old age, that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of David his father, and the strange women turned away his heart after their gods. ⁵Then Solomon built an high place unto Chemosh the idol of Moab, and unto their king the idol of the children of Ammon, ⁶and unto Ashtaroth the abomination of the Zidonians: ⁷and likewise did he toward all his strange wives, which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their idols. ⁸And Solomon did that was evil in the sight of the Lord: he went not after the Lord, as David his father. ⁹And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because he turned away his heart from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice, ¹⁰and had charged him concerning this thing, by no means to go after other gods, but to take heed to do that which the Lord commanded him: neither was his heart perfect with the Lord, according to the heart of David his father. ¹¹And the Lord said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as it hath been thus with thee, and thou hast not kept My commandments and Mine ordinances, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend thy kingdom out of thine hand, and will give it to thy servant. ¹²Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will take it out of the hand of thy son. ¹³Howbeit I will not take away all the kingdom: I will give one tribe to thy son for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

¹⁴And the Lord raised up an enemy unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite, and Rezon the son of Eliadah, which dwelt in Ramoth, and Hadadezer the king of Zobah his master; (and men gathered unto him, and he was the chief of the conspiracy; and he seized on Damascus,) and they were adversaries to Israel all the days of Solomon: and Hadad the Edomite was of the seed royal in Edom. ¹⁵And it came to pass, when David utterly destroyed Edom, while Joab the captain of the host was gone to bury the dead, when they slew every male in Edom, (for six months did Joab and all Israel remain there, until he had cut off every male in Edom,) ¹⁶that Hadad ran away, he and all the Edomites of his father's servants with him: and they went into Egypt: and Hadad was then a little child. (no verse ¹⁷) ¹⁸And there arise up men out of the city of Midian, and they come to Paran, and take men with them, and come unto Pharaoh king of Egypt: and Hadad went in to Pharaoh, and he gave him an house, and appointed him provision. ¹⁹And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the elder sister of Tahpenes. ²⁰And the sister of Taphenes bare unto him, even to Hadad, Genubath her son: and Taphenes brought him up in the midst of Pharaoh's sons; and Gennubath was in the midst of Pharaoh's sons. ²¹And Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead; and Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will return to mine own country. ²²And Pharaoh said unto Hadad, What lackest thou with me, that, behold, thou seekest to depart to thine own country? And Hadad said unto him, Let me go in any wise. So Hadad returned to his own country: this is the mischief that Hadad did; and he was a bitter enemy of Israel; and he reigned in the land of Edom. ²³And the Lord stirred up to Solomon another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer the king of Zobah. ²⁴And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵And it came to pass that he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon.*

²⁶And Jeroboam the son of Nebat the Ephraimite, the son of a widow, was Solomon's servant. ²⁷And this was the occasion of his lifting up his hand against the king: now king Solomon built the citadel; he finished the fortification of the city of David his father. ²⁸And the man Jeroboam was very strong; and Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, and set him over the levies of the house of Joseph. ²⁹And it came to pass at that time, that Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah the Shilonite the prophet found him in the way, and caused him to turn aside out of the way: and Ahijah was clad in a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. ³⁰And Ahijah caught the new garment that was upon him, and rent it in twelve pieces: ³¹and he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give thee ten tribes. ³²Yet shall he have two tribes for My servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel; ³³and hath forsaken Me, and hath sacrificed unto Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and unto Chemosh, and unto all the idols of Moab, and unto their king the abomination of the children of Ammon, and hath not walked in My ways, to do that which is right in Mine eyes, as did David his father. ³⁴Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, (for I will certainly resist him all the days of his life,) for David My servant's sake, whom I chose. ³⁵But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and give thee ten tribes. ³⁶But to his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have an establishment always before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put My name there. ³⁷And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign as thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. ³⁸And it shall be, if thou wilt keep all the commandments that I shall give thee, and wilt walk in My ways, and do that is right in My sight, to keep Mine ordinances and My commandments, as David My servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David. (no verse 39) ⁴⁰And Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam: but he arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until Solomon died.

⁴¹And the rest of the words of Solomon, and all that he did, and all his wisdom, behold, are not these things written in the book of the life of Solomon? ⁴²And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years. ⁴³And Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father. And it came to pass when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it even while he was in Egypt, (as he fled from the face of Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt;) he straightway cometh into his own city, into the land of Zereda in the mount of Ephraim. ⁴⁴And king Solomon slept with his fathers: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 12

And king Rehoboam goeth to Shechem; for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. ²*And it came to pass, that Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)* ³*and they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came.* And the people spake unto king Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy; ⁴but do thou now lighten somewhat the hard service of thy father, and of the heavy yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee. ⁵And he said unto them, Depart for three days, and come again to me. And they departed. ⁶And the king conferred to the elders, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, How do ye advise that I should answer this people? ⁷And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and wilt speak good words to them, then will they be thy servants continually. ⁸But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, which stood in his presence. ⁹And he said, What counsel give ye? and what shall I answer this people, who speak to me, saying, Lighten somewhat of the yoke which thy father did put upon us? ¹⁰And the young men that were grown up with him, which stood before his face, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, and do thou now lighten it from off us'; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹And seeing my father did lade you with an heavy yoke, I also will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹²And all Israel came to king Rehoboam the third day, as the king spake unto them, saying, Come to me again the third day. ¹³And the king answered the people roughly; and Rehoboam forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him. ¹⁴And he spake unto them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, I also will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵And the king hearkened not unto the people; for the change was of the Lord, that he might establish His word, which He spake by Ahijah the Shilonite concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ¹⁶And all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them; and the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we any inheritance in the son of Jesse: depart to your tents, O Israel: now feed thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto his tents. (no verse 17) ¹⁸And the king sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and they stoned him with stones, and he died: and king Rehoboam made speed to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel forswore allegiance against the house of David unto this day. ²⁰And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again out of Egypt, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: and none followed the house of David but the tribe of Judah and Benjamin only. ²¹And Rehoboam went into Jerusalem, and he gathered together the congregation of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and twenty thousand young men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ²²And the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ²³Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ²⁴Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight with your brethren the sons of Israel:

return each man to his own house; for this thing is from Me: and they hearkened to the word of the Lord, and ceased from going up, according to the word of the Lord.

^{24a}And king Solomon sleepeth with his fathers, and is buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead in Jerusalem, being sixteen years old when he began to reign: and he reigned twelve years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Naamah the daughter of Anah son of Nahash king of the children of Ammon. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked not in the way of David his father. ^{24b}And there was a man of mount Ephraim, a servant to Solomon, and his name was Jeroboam; and his mother's name was Zeruah, an harlot: and Solomon made him head of the levies of the house of Joseph: and he built for Solomon Zereda in mount Ephraim; and he had three hundred chariots of horses: he built the citadel with the levies of the house of Ephraim; he fortified the city of David, and aspired unto the kingdom. ^{24c}And Solomon sought to kill him; and he was afraid, and escaped to Shishak king of Egypt, and was with him until Solomon died. ^{24d}And Jeroboam heard in Egypt that Solomon was dead; and he spake in the ears of Shishak king of Egypt, saying, Let me go, and I will depart into mine own land: and Shishak said unto him, Ask any request, and I will grant it thee. ^{24e}And Shishak gave unto Jeroboam Anna the eldest sister of Taphenes his wife, to be his wife: she was great among the daughters of the king, and she bare unto Jeroboam Abijah his son: and Jeroboam said unto Shishak, Let me indeed go, and I will depart. And Jeroboam departed out of Egypt, and came into the land of Zereda that was in mount Ephraim; and thither cometh together all the tribe of Ephraim; and Jeroboam built a stronghold there.

^{24f}And his young child was sick with a very grievous sickness; and Jeroboam went to enquire concerning the child: and he said unto Anna his wife, Arise, go; enquire of God concerning the child, whether he shall recover from his sickness. ^{24g}Now there was a man in Shiloh, and his name was Ahijah: and he was threescore years old; and the word of the Lord was with him. And Jeroboam said unto his wife, Arise, and take in thine hand loaves for the man of God, and cakes for his children, and grapes, and a pot of honey. And the woman arose, and took in her hand bread, and two cakes, and grapes, and a pot of honey for Ahijah: and the man was old, and his eyes were dim, that he could not see. ^{24h}And she arose up from Zereda, and went; and it came to pass, when she had come into the city unto Ahijah the Shilonite, that Ahijah said unto his servant, Go out now to meet Anna the wife of Jeroboam; and thou shalt say unto her, Come in, and stand not still; for thus saith the Lord, I bring grievous tidings unto thee. ²⁴ⁱAnd Anna went in to the man of God; and Ahijah said unto her, Wherefore hast thou brought me bread, and grapes, and cakes, and a pot of honey? Thus saith the Lord, Behold, thou shalt depart from me; and it shall come to pass, when thou art come into the city, even to Zereda, that thy maidens shall come out to meet thee, and shalt say unto thee, The child is dead. ^{24j}For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will destroy every male of Jeroboam, and there shall be the dead of Jeroboam in the city; the dogs shall eat them, and him that hath died in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: and he shall make lamentation for the child, saying, Woe is me, Lord! for there hath been found in him some good thing touching the Lord. ^{24k}And the woman departed when she heard this: and it came to pass, as she entered into Zereda, that the child died; and there came forth a wailing to meet her.

^{24l}And Jeroboam went unto Shechem in mount Ephraim, and there gathered together the tribes of Israel: and Rehoboam the son of Solomon went up thither. And the word of the Lord came unto Shemaiah the son of Elami, saying, Take thee a new garment that hath not gone into the water, and rend it in twelve pieces: and thou shalt give to Jeroboam, and shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Take thee ten pieces to cover thee: and Jeroboam took them: and Shemaiah said, Thus saith the Lord concerning the ten tribes of Israel.

^{24m}And the people said unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, Thy father made his yoke heavy upon us, and made the meat of his table heavy: and now shalt thou lighten them upon us, and we will serve thee. And Rehoboam said unto them, Wait yet for three days, and I will return you an answer. ²⁴ⁿAnd Rehoboam said, Bring in to me the elders, and I will take counsel with them what I shall answer to the people on the third day. So Rehoboam spake in their ears, as the people said unto him to say: and the elders of the people said, Thus have the people spoken unto thee. ^{24o}And Rehoboam rejected their counsel, and it pleased him not: and he sent and brought in them that had been brought up with him; and he said unto them, Thus and thus hath the people sent unto me to say: and they that had been brought up with him said, Thus shalt thou speak unto the people, saying, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins: my father scourged you with whips, but I will rule you with scorpions. And the saying pleased Rehoboam, and he answered the people as the young men, they that were brought up with him, counselled him: and all the people spake as one man every man to his neighbour; and they cried out all together, saying, We have no part in David, neither inheritance in the son of Jesse: to thy tents, O Israel, every one, for this man is not for a prince or a ruler over us. ^{24p}And all the people was dispersed from Shechem, and they departed every one to his own tent: and Rehoboam strengthened himself, and departed, and mounted his chariot, and entered into Jerusalem; and there follow him the whole tribe of Judah, and the whole tribe of Benjamin. ^{24q}And it came to pass, at the beginning of the year, that Rehoboam gathered together all the men of Judah and Benjamin, and went up the fight with Jeroboam at Shechem. ^{24r}And it happened that the word of the Lord came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying, Speak to Rehoboam king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and unto the remnant of the people, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, neither shall ye fight with your brethren the sons of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. ^{24s}And they hearkened to the word of the Lord, and forbore to go up, according to the word of the Lord.

²⁵And Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel. ²⁶And Jeroboam said in his heart, Behold, now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: ²⁷if this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto the Lord, and to their master, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will slay me. ²⁸And the king took counsel, and went, and made two golden heifers, and said unto the people, Let it suffice you to have gone hitherto unto Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. ²⁹And he set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. ³⁰And it came to pass that this thing became a sin; and the people went before the one, even unto Dan; and they forsook the house of the Lord. ³¹And he made houses on the high places, and made priests of any part of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. ³²And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, according to the feast that is in the land of Judah; and he went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel, to sacrifice unto the heifers that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. ³³And he went up unto the altar which he had made on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, at the feast which he had devised of his own heart; and made a feast unto the sons of Israel, and went up unto the altar to do sacrifice.

CHAPTER 13

And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the Lord unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to do sacrifice. ²And he cried against the altar by the word of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord; Behold, a son shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places, even of them that sacrifice upon thee, and he shall burn men's bones upon thee. ³And in that day shall one give a sign, saying, This is the word which the Lord hath spoken, saying, Behold, the altar is rent, and the fatness that is upon it shall be poured out. ⁴And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had called upon the altar that was in Bethel, that the king put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold of him. And, behold, his hand, which he put forth against him, withered, and he could not draw it back again to him. ⁵The altar also was rent, and the fatness was poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God gave by the word of God. ⁶And king Jeroboam said unto the man of God, Intreat the Lord thy God, and let my hand be restored to me again. And the man of God intreated the Lord, and He restored the king's hand unto him; and it became as it was before. ⁷And the king said unto the man of God, Come in with me into the house, and dine, and I will give thee a gift. ⁸And the man of God said unto the king, If thou shouldest give me the half of thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

for so the Lord charged me by His word, saying, ⁹Eat no bread, and drink no water, nor turn again by the way that thou camest. ¹⁰So he departed by another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

¹¹Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the words which he had spoken to the king; and they turned the face of their father. ¹²And their father spake unto them, saying, What way went he?: and his sons shew him the way that the man of God went up, which came from Judah. ¹³And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass: and they saddled him the ass: and he mounted it, ¹⁴and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said unto him I am. ¹⁵And he said, Come with me, and eat bread. ¹⁶And he said, I shall not by any means be able to return with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place. ¹⁷For thus the Lord commanded me by word, saying, Eat not bread there, and drink not water, and return not thither by the way that thou camest. ¹⁸And he said unto him, I also am a prophet as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of God, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, and let him eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. ¹⁹And he brought him back; and he ate bread and drank water in his house. ²⁰And it came to pass, while they sat at table, that the word of God came unto the prophet that brought him back: ²¹and he spake unto the man of God that came out of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast embittered the word of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee, ²²but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he spake unto thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat bread, and shalt not drink water; therefore thy body shall in no wise enter into the sepulchre of thy fathers. ²³And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread and drunk water, that he saddled the ass for him; and he turned and departed. ²⁴And a lion found him by the way, and slew him; and his body was cast out in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the body. ²⁵And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing near the carcase: and they went in and spake of it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. ²⁶And the prophet that turned him back out of the way heard, and said, This is the man of God, which rebelled against the word of the Lord. (no verse 27) ²⁸And he went and found the body cast in the way; and the ass and the lion stood by the body; and the lion had not devoured the body of the man of God, neither had it torn the ass. ²⁹And the prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon his ass; and the prophet brought him back to his city, to bury him in his own tomb: ³⁰and they bewailed him, saying, Alas, brother! ³¹And it came to pass, after he had lamented him, that he spake unto his sons, saying, Whensoever I die, bury me in this sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay me beside his bones, that my bones may be preserved with his bones. ³²For the saying which he spake by the word of the Lord against the altar in Bethel, and against the high houses in Samaria, shall surely come to pass. ³³And after this thing Jeroboam turned not from his sin, but turned and made of part of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became a priest for the high places. ³⁴And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to the destruction thereof, and the removal thereof, from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. ²And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, and thou shalt not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to Shiloh: and, behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people. ³And take in thy hands loaves for the man of God, and cakes for his children, and grapes, and a pot of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child. ⁴And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah: and the man was old, and his eyes were dim by reason of his age. ⁵And the Lord said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh in to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: and it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman. ⁶And it was so, that Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, and he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? And I am sent to thee with heavy tidings. ⁷Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and gave thee rule over My people Israel, ⁸and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in Mine eyes; ⁹but hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke Me to anger, and hast cast Me behind thy back: ¹⁰therefore I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man picketh over dung, until it be all gone. ¹¹Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath spoken it. ¹²But do thou arise, get thee to thine own house: when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die: ¹³and all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him, for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him is found some good thing toward the Lord God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴And the Lord shall raise Him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now. ¹⁵The Lord shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and He shall root up Israel out of this good land, which He gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the Lord to anger. ¹⁶And the Lord shall give Israel up, because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and made Israel to sin. ¹⁷And*

Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Zereda: and it came to pass, when she came to the threshold of the door, that the child died. ¹⁸*And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet.* ¹⁹*And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.* ²⁰*And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nebat his son reigned in his stead.* ²¹*And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem the city, which the Lord did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.* ²²*And Rehoboam did evil in the sight of the Lord, and he provoked Him to anger in all the things which their fathers did in their sins which they sinned.* ²³*And they built them high places, and pillars, and groves, on every high hill, and under every shady tree.* ²⁴*And there was a conspiracy in the land, and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the Lord cast out from the face of the sons of Israel.* ²⁵*And it came to pass in the fifth year of the reign of Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem: ²⁶and took all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and the golden spears which David took out of the hand of the sons of Hadadezer king of Syria, and brought them to Jerusalem, even all that he had, even the shields of gold which Solomon had made, and carried them away into Egypt.* ²⁷*And king Rehoboam made in their stead brazen shields; and the chiefs of the guard, which kept the gate of the king's house, were put in charge over them.* ²⁸*And it was so, when the king went into the house of the Lord, that the guard took them up, and set them in the chamber of the guard.* ²⁹*And the rest of the history of Jeroboam, and all that he did, behold, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?* ³⁰*And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.* ³¹*And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Abijam his son reigned in his stead.*

CHAPTER 15

And in the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigneth Abijam the son of Rehoboam over Judah. ²And three years reigned he over Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. ³And he walked in the sins of his father, which he wrought in his presence; and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father. ⁴Nevertheless for David's sake did the Lord give him a remnant, that he might establish his children after him, and establish Jerusalem: ⁵forasmuch as David did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord: he turned not aside from any thing that He commanded him all the days of his life. (no verse 6) ⁷And the rest of the history of Abijam, and all that he did, behold, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. ⁸And Abijam slept with his fathers; and he is buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Asa his son reigneth in his stead.

⁹In the four and twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel beginneth Asa to reign over Judah. ¹⁰And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father. ¹²And he took away the sacrifices out of the land, and abolished all the practices which his fathers had done. ¹³And Maachah his mother he removed from being queen, forasmuch as she gathered a meeting together in her grove: and Asa hewed down her retreats, and burnt them with fire in the brook of Kidron. ¹⁴But the high places removed he not: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the Lord all his days. ¹⁵And he brought in the pillars of his father; even he brought in his gold and silver pillars into the house of the Lord, and his vessels. ¹⁶And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ¹⁷And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that none should go out or come in for Asa king of Judah. ¹⁸And Asa took all the silver and the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hands of his servants: and king Asa sent them out to the son of Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt in Damascus, saying, ¹⁹Make thou a covenant between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee gold and silver for gifts; come, and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may go up from me. ²⁰And the son of Hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his hosts unto the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel of the house of Maachah, and all Chinneroth, unto all the land of Naphtali. ²¹And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and returned to Tirzah. ²²And king Asa charged all Judah, without exemption: and they take up the stones of Ramah, and the timbers thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and king Asa built with them all the hill of Benjamin, and the watch tower. ²³And the rest of the history of Asa, and all his mighty deeds which he wrought, and the cities which he built, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. ²⁴And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigneth in his stead.

²⁵And Nadab the son of Jeroboam reigneth over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned in Israel two years. ²⁶And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sins, wherewith he made Israel to sin. ²⁷And Baasha the son of Ahijah, who was over the house of Belaan the son of Ahijah, conspired against him, and smote him in Gibbethon of the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel lay siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸And in the third year of Asa, the son of Asa king of Judah, did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. ²⁹And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; and he left none that breathed of Jeroboam, until he had destroyed him utterly, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰for the sins of Jeroboam, which led Israel into sin, even by his provocations wherewith he provoked the Lord God of Israel to anger. ³¹And the rest of the history of Nadab, and all that he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

³³And in the third year of Asa king of Judah beginneth Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years. ³³And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins, as he made Israel to sin.

CHAPTER 16

And the word of the Lord came by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani, unto Baasha, saying, ²Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee ruler over My people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and hast made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their vanities; ³behold, I do raise up enemies after Baasha, and after his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs devour; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air devour. ⁵Now the rest of the history of Baasha, and all that he did, and his mighty deeds, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁶And Baasha slept with his fathers, and they bury him in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigneth in his stead. ⁷And the Lord spake by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil which he did before the Lord, to provoke Him to anger by the works of his hands, in being like unto the house of Jeroboam; and because he smote him.

⁸And Elah the son of Baasha reigned over Israel two years in Tirzah. ⁹And Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him while he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza the steward at Tirzah. ¹⁰And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹And it came to pass, when he reigned, when he sat upon his throne, ¹²that he smote all the house of Baasha, according to the word which the Lord spake against the house of Baasja, and to Jehu the prophet, ¹³for all the sins of Baasha, and Elah his son, as he led Israel astray to sin, to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger with their vanities. ¹⁴And the rest of the deeds of Elah, which he did, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

¹⁵And Zimri reigned in Tirzah seven days: and the army of Israel was encamped against Gibbethon of the Philistines. ¹⁶And the people heard in the army, saying, Zimri hath conspired, and hath slain the king: and the people of Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that his city was taken, that he goeth into the inner chamber of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him, and died, ¹⁹because of his sins which he committed, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, to walk in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherein he made Israel to sin. ²⁰And the rest of the history of Zimri, and his conspiracies wherein he conspired, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

²¹Then the people of Israel divideth: half of the people followeth Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half the people followeth Omri. ²²The people that followed Omri overpowered the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: and Tibni died, and Jehoram his brother at that time; and Omri reigned after Tibni. ²³In the thirty and first year of king Asa, Omri reigneth over Israel twelve years: six years reigneth he in Tirzah. ²⁴And Omri bought the mount Samaria of Shemer the lord of the mountain for two talents of silver, and built on the mountain; and they called the name of the city whereon he built after the name of Shemer, the lord of the mount, Samaria. ²⁵And Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and did wickedly beyond all that were before him. ²⁶And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger by their vanities. ²⁷And the rest of the acts of Omri, and all that he did, and all his might, behold, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁸And Omri slept with his fathers, and is buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

^{28a}And in the eleventh year of Omri Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigneth, being thirty and five years old in the beginning of his reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. ^{28b}And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and turned not from it, even from doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord: only they removed not any of the high places: they sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places. ^{28c}Now the engagements which Jehoshaphat made with the king of Israel, and all his mighty deeds which he performed, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ^{28d}And the remnants of the prostitution which they did practise in the days of Asa his father removed he out of the land. ^{28e}And there was no king in Syria, but a deputy was king. ^{28f}And king Jehoshaphat made a ship at Tharshish, to go to Ophir for gold; but it went not, for the ship was broken at Ezion-geber. ^{28g}Then the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will send forth thy servants and my servants in the ship: but Jehoshaphat would not. ^{28h}And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

²⁹In the second year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah reigned Ahab the son of Omri over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. ³⁰And Ahab did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and did more wickedly than all that were before him. ³¹And it was not enough for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat; but he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. ³²And he reared up an altar to Baal in the house of his abominations, which he had built in Samaria. ³³And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did yet more abominably, to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger, and to sin against his own life, that he should be destroyed: he did evil above all the kings of Israel that were before him. ³⁴And in his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundations thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the doors thereof in his younger son Segub, according to the word of the Lord, which He spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

And Elijah the prophet, the Tishbite of Tishbe of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except by the word of my mouth. ²And the word of the Lord came unto Elijah, saying, ³Get thee hence eastward, and hide thyself by the brook of Cherith, that is before Jordan. ⁴And it shall be, that thou shalt drink water of the brook; and I will charge the ravens to feed thee there. ⁵And Elijah did according to the word of the Lord: and he sat by the brook of Cherith before Jordan. ⁶And the ravens brought him loaves in the morning, and flesh in the evening; and he drank water of the brook. ⁷And it came to pass after a while, that the brook was dried up, because there had been no rain upon the earth. ⁸And the word of the Lord came unto Elijah, saying, ⁹Arise, and get thee hence to Zarephath of the Zidonian land: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to maintain thee. ¹⁰And he arose and went up to Zarephath, and came unto the gate of the city; and, behold, a widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and Elijah cried after her, and said unto her, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. ¹¹And she went to fetch it, and Elijah cried after her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of the bread that is in thine hand. ¹²And the woman said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but only an handful of meal in the pitcher, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I go to gather two sticks, and I shall go in and dress it for me and my children; and we shall eat it, and die. ¹³And Elijah said unto her, Be of good courage; go in and do according to thy word: but make me thereof a little cake, and thou shalt bring it out to me first; and thou shalt make some for thee and for thy children last. ¹⁴For thus saith the Lord, The pitcher of meal shall not fail, neither shall the cruse of oil be diminished, until the day that the Lord giveth rain upon the earth. ¹⁵And the woman went and did so, and did eat, she and he, and her children. ¹⁶And the pitcher of meal failed not, and the cruse of oil was not diminished, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Elijah. ¹⁷And it came to pass afterward, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was very sore, until there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸And she said unto

Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come into me to bring my sins to remembrance, and to slay my son? ¹⁹And Elijah said unto the woman, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and took him up into the chamber wherein he himself abode, and laid him upon his own bed. ²⁰And Elijah cried aloud, and said, Alas, O Lord, the witness of the widow with whom I sojourn, Thou hast wrought evil for her, in slaying her son. ²¹And he breathed upon the child three times, and called upon the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray Thee, let this child's soul come into him again. ²²And it was so; and the child cried out, ²³and he brought him down out of the upper chamber into the house, and gave him to his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth. ²⁴And the woman said unto Elijah, Behold, I know that thou art a man of God, and the word of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

CHAPTER 18

And it came to pass after many days, that the word of the Lord came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, and appear unto Ahab; and I will give rain upon the face of the earth. ²And Elijah went to appear unto Ahab: and the famine was sore in Samaria. ³And Ahab called Obadiah the steward; (now Obadiah feared the Lord greatly, ⁴and it came to pass, when Jezebel smote the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water); ⁵and Ahab said unto Obadiah, Come, and let us go through the land, and unto the fountains of water, and unto the brooks, if peradventure we may find grass, and save the horses and mules; and so they will not perish from the tents. ⁶And they made a division of the way between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way, and Obadiah went another way alone. ⁷And Obadiah was alone in the way; and Elijah came alone to meet him: and Obadiah hasted, and fell on his face, and said, My lord Elijah, art thou indeed he? ⁸And Elijah said unto him, I am: go, say to thy master, Behold, Elijah is here. ⁹And Obadiah said, What sin have I committed, that thou givest thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? ¹⁰As the Lord thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and if they said, He is not here, he hath set fire to the kingdom and the lands thereof, because he hath found thee not. ¹¹And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. ¹²And it shall come to pass, when I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee unto a land which I know not; and I shall go in to tell the thing to Ahab, and he shall not find thee, and shall slay me: but thy servant feareth the Lord from his youth. ¹³Was it not told thee, my lord, what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the Lord; that I hid an hundred men of the Lord's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴And now thou sayest unto me, Go, say to thy master, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me. ¹⁵And Elijah said, As the Lord liveth, before whom I stand, I will appear before him to day. ¹⁶And Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab ran forth, and went to meet Elijah.

¹⁷And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto Elijah, Art thou he that perverteth Israel? ¹⁸And Elijah said, I pervert not Israel; but it is thou, and thy father's house, in that ye forsake the Lord your God; and thou hast followed Baalim. ¹⁹And now send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of shame four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the grove four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table. ²⁰And Ahab sent unto all Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. ²¹And Elijah drew nigh unto them all; and Elijah said unto them, How long will ye halt upon both feet? If the Lord be God, follow Him. And the people answered him not a word. ²²And Elijah said unto the people, I am left, the only one prophet of the Lord; and Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men, and the prophets of the grove are four hundred. ²³Let them give us two oxen; and let them choose one for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire on the wood: and I will dress the other bullock, and put on no fire: ²⁴and call ye loudly on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord my God: and it shall be, that the God that answereth by fire, He is God. And all the people answered and said, The word that thou hast spoken is good. ²⁵And Elijah said unto the prophets of shame, Choose you one calf for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your god; but kindle no fire. ²⁶And they took the calf, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Hear us, O Baal, hear us. And there was no voice, neither was there hearing; and they ran up and down upon the altar which they had made. ²⁷And it was noon, and Elijah the Tishbite mocked them, and said, Call with a loud voice, for he is a god; for he meditateth, or mayhap he is engaged upon business, or peradventure he is asleep, and will awake. ²⁸And they cried with a loud voice, and cut themselves according to their custom with knives and with lancets, until the blood gushed out upon them. ²⁹And they prophesied until the evening came: and it came to pass, as it was at the time of the offering of the sacrifice, that Elijah the Tishbite spake unto the prophets of the abominations, saying, Stand by for the while, and I will offer my sacrifice. And they stood aside, and departed. ³⁰And Elijah said unto the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. ³¹And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of Israel, as the Lord spake unto him, saying, Israel shall be thy name. ³²And he built up the stones in the name of the Lord, and repaired the altar that had been broken down: and he made a trench about the altar, that would hold two measures of seed. ³³And he piled the cleft wood upon that altar which he had made, and divided the whole burnt offering, and laid it on the wood, and laid it in order upon the altar, and said, Fetch me four pitchers of water, and pour it on the whole burnt offering, and on the wood. And they did so. ³⁴And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. ³⁵And the water ran round about the altar; and they filled the trench with water. ³⁶And Elijah cried aloud to heaven, and said, Lord God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Israel, answer me this day by fire, and let all this people know that Thou art the Lord, the God of Israel, and I am Thy servant, and for Thy sake have I done these works. ³⁷Hear me, O Lord, hear me, and let this people know that Thou art the Lord God, and that Thou hast turned back the heart of this people. ³⁸Then fire fell from the Lord out of heaven, and devoured the whole burnt offerings, and the wood, and the water that was in the trench; and the fire licked up the stones and the earth. ³⁹And all the people fell on their faces, and said, Verily, the Lord is God; He is God. ⁴⁰And Elijah said unto the people, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them; and Elijah bringeth them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

⁴¹And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, and eat and drink; for there is a sound of the coming of rain. ⁴²And Ahab went up to eat and to drink: and Elijah went up to Carmel, and stooped to the ground, and put his face between his knees, ⁴³and said to his servant, Go up, and look toward the sea. And the servant looked, and said, There is nothing: and Elijah said, Do thou then go again seven times. ⁴⁴And the servant went again seven times: and it came to pass at the seventh time, that, behold, a little cloud, like the sole of a man's foot, brought water: and he said, Go up, and say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, lest the rain prevent thee. ⁴⁵And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab wept, and went to Jezreel. ⁴⁶And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

And Ahab told Jezebel his wife all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain the prophets with the sword. ²And Jezebel sent unto Elijah, and said, If thou art Elijah, and I am Jezebel, so let God do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow this time. ³And Elijah feared; and he arose, and departed for his life: and he cometh to Beersheba to the land of Judah, and left his servant there. ⁴And he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for his life that he might die; and said, Let it be enough, O Lord: take away my life from me; for I am not better than my fathers. ⁵And he lay down and slept there under a tree; and, behold, one touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. ⁶And Elijah looked, and, behold, there was a cake of meal, and a cruse of water: and he arose, and did eat and drink, and returned, and lay down. ⁷And the angel of the Lord came again, and touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat; because the journey is far from thee. ⁸And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto mount Horeb. ⁹And he entered there into a cave, and rested there; and, behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and He said, What doest thou here, Elijah? ¹⁰And Elijah said, I have been very jealous for the Lord Almighty: for the sons of Israel have forsaken Thee; they have digged down Thine altars, and have slain Thy prophets with the sword; and I only am left alone; and they seek my life, to take it away. ¹¹And He said, Thou shalt go forth to morrow, and shalt stand before the Lord in the mount: behold, the Lord will pass by. And, behold, a great and strong wind that rent the mountain, and brake in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the Lord was not in the earthquake: ¹²and after the earthquake a fire; but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire the voice of a gentle breeze. ¹³And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the cave: and, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah? ¹⁴And Elijah said, I have been very jealous for the Lord Almighty: because the sons of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, thrown down Thine altars, and slain Thy prophets with the sword; and I only am left alone; and they seek my life, to take it away. ¹⁵And the Lord said unto him, Go, return; and thou shalt come into the way of the wilderness of Damascus: and thou shalt anoint Hazael to be king over Syria: ¹⁶and Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. ¹⁷And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. ¹⁸And thou shalt leave in Israel seven thousand men, all the knees which have not bowed a knee unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not worshipped him.

¹⁹And he departed thence, and findeth Elisha the son of Shaphat; and he was plowing with oxen, twelve yoke before him, and he with the twelve: and he passed by unto him, and cast his mantle upon him. ²⁰And Elisha left the cattle, and ran after Elijah, and said, I will kiss my father, and follow after thee. ²⁰And Elijah said, "Go back again; for I am done with thee. ²¹And he returned from following him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: and he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

CHAPTER 20 (Masoretic Text Ch. 21)

And Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was hard by the threshingfloor of Ahab king of Samaria. ²And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, and I will have it for a garden of herbs, for it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it please thee, I will give thee money, the price of this thy vineyard, and I will have it for a garden of herbs. ³And Naboth said unto Ahab, My God forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto ⁴And Ahab's spirit was troubled; and he laid him down upon his bed, and covered his face, and did eat no bread. ⁵And Jezebel his wife went in to him, and spake unto him, saying, Why is thy spirit troubled, and why eatest thou no bread? ⁶And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, saying, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if thou wilt, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. ⁷And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now thus act the king over Israel? arise, and eat bread, and be thine own self: and I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. ⁸So she wrote a letter in Ahab's name, and sealed it with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles which dwelt with Naboth. ⁹And it was written in the letters, saying, Keep a fast, and set Naboth in a chief place among the people; ¹⁰and set two men, sons of transgressors, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, He blessed God and a king; and let them lead him forth, and stone him, and let him die. ¹¹And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them. ¹²And they proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth in a chief place among the people. ¹³And two men, sons of transgressors, came in and sat over against him, and bare witness against him, saying, Thou hast blasphemed God and a king. And they led him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, and he died. ¹⁴And they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead. ¹⁵And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard it, that she said unto Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which would not sell it thee; for Naboth is not alive, but dead. ¹⁶And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth the Jezreelite was dead, that he rent his garments, and put on sackcloth. And it came to pass afterward, that Ahab rose up and went down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to inherit it.

¹⁷And the Lord spake unto Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸Arise, and go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria, for he is in the vineyard of Naboth; for he is gone down thither to inherit it. ¹⁹And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast killed, and taken possession, therefore thus saith the Lord, In every place where the swine and the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, there shall the dogs lick thy blood; and the harlots shall wash themselves in thy blood. ²⁰And Ahab said unto Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? and he said, I have found thee: because thou hast vainly sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord: ²¹behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will kindle a fire after thee, and will utterly destroy from Ahab every man that pisseth against a wall, and him that is shut up, and him that is left in Israel. ²²And I will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocations wherewith thou hast provoked Me to anger, and made Israel to sin. ²³And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the fortification of Jezreel. ²⁴Him that is dead of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. ²⁵But Ahab did wickedly, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as Jezebel his wife led him astray.

²⁶And he did very abominably in going after the abominations, according to all things as did the Amorite, whom the Lord utterly destroyed before the sons of Israel. ²⁷And because of the word, Ahab was pierced with sorrow before the Lord, and he went weeping, and rent his clothes, and girt sackcloth upon his body, and fasted: he put on sackcloth also in the day that he smote Naboth the Jezreelite, and went his way. ²⁸And the word of the Lord came by the hand of His servant Elijah concerning Ahab; and the Lord said, Hast thou not seen how Ahab is pricked to the heart before me? I will not bring on evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring on the evil.

CHAPTER 21 (Masoretic text Ch. 20)

And the son of Hadad gathered all his hosts together; and he went up and besieged Samaria, and there were thirty and two kings with him, and all his horses, and chariots: and they went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it. ²And he sent to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith the son of Hadad, ³Thy silver and thy gold are mine; thy wives also and thy children are mine. ⁴And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, as thou hast said, I am thine, and all mine also. ⁵And the messengers came again, and said, Thus saith the son of Hadad, I sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt give me thy silver and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children. ⁶For I will send my servants unto thee to morrow at this time, and thy shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that all the desirable objects of their eyes, whereon they shall lay their hands, they shall even take them. ⁷And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark now, I pray you, and consider, that this man seeketh mischief: for he hath sent unto me concerning my wives, and concerning my sons, and concerning my daughters: I have not kept back from him my silver and my gold. ⁸And the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not, and consent not. ⁹And he said unto the messengers of the son of Hadad, Say unto your master, All things that thou didst send for thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the men departed, and carried back the answer to him. ¹⁰And the son of Hadad sent unto him, saying, God do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for foxes for all the people, even my footmen. ¹¹And the king of Israel answered and said, Let it suffice; let not the hunchback boast as he that is upright. ¹²And it came to pass, when he returned him this answer, he and all the kings with him were drinking in tents; and he said unto his servants, Build a palisade. And they made a palisade against the city. ¹³And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, and he said, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou seen this great multitude? Behold, I do give it into thine hands this day; and thou shalt know that I am LORD. ¹⁴And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. And Ahab said, Who shall order the battle? and he said, Thou. ¹⁵And Ahab numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty: and afterward he numbered the people, even every son of strength, being seven thousand. ¹⁶And he went out at noon: and the son of Hadad was drinking himself drunk in Socchoth, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings his allies. ¹⁷And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out among the first: and they send and report to the king of Syria, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. ¹⁸And he said unto them, If they come out for peace, take them alive; and if they come out for war, take them alive: ¹⁹and let not the young men of the princes of the provinces go forth out of the city. And the army which was behind them ²⁰smote each one the man next to him: and Syria fled; and Israel pursued them: and the son of Hadad, even the king of Syria, escapeth on an horse of an horseman. ²¹And the king of Israel went out, and took all the horses and the chariots, and smote with a great slaughter in Syria. ²²And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou shalt do: for at the return of the year the son of Hadad king of Syria cometh up against thee. ²³And the servants of the king of Syria said, The God of Israel is a God of mountains, and not a God of valleys; therefore hath He prevailed against us; but if we fight against them in the plain, surely we shall prevail against them. ²⁴And do this thing, Send away the kings, each one to his place, and put princes in their room. ²⁵And we will give thee an army like to the army that was lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and we will prevail against them. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so. ²⁶And it came to pass at the return of the year, that the son of Hadad mustered Syria, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. ²⁷And the sons of Israel were numbered, and came to meet them: and Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but Syria filled the land. ²⁸And there came the man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Syrians have said, The Lord God of Israel is a God of mountains, and he is not a God of valleys, therefore will I give this great host into thine hand, and thou shalt know that I am LORD. ²⁹And they pitch one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that on the seventh day the battle drew on: and Israel smote Syria, an hundred thousand footmen in one day. ³⁰And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand men that were left: and the son of Hadad fled, and entered into an inner chamber, a closet. ³¹And he said unto his servants, I know that the kings of Israel are merciful kings: let us now put sackcloth upon our loins, and put ropes on our heads, and let us go forth to the king of Israel, if peradventure he will save our souls alive. ³²So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant the son of Hadad saith, I pray thee, let our souls live. And he said, Doth he yet live? he is my brother. ³³And the men divined, and offered drink offerings; and they caught the word out of his mouth: and they said, Thy brother the son of Hadad. And he said, Go ye in, and fetch him. And the son of Hadad went out to him; and they cause him to go up to him into the chariot. ³⁴And he said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father I will restore unto thee; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made streets in Samaria; and I will let thee go with a covenant. And he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

³⁵And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour by the word of the Lord, Smite me, I pray. And the man would not smite him. ³⁶And he said unto him, Because thou hast not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord, therefore, behold, as thou departest from me, a lion shall smite thee: and he departed from him, and a lion found him, and smote him. ³⁷And he findeth another man, and saith, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting he wounded him. ³⁸And the prophet went and stood before the king of Israel, and bound his eyes with a bandage. ³⁹And it came to pass as the king passed by, that he cried aloud unto the king, and said, Thy servant went out to war; and, behold, a man brought a man to me, and said unto me, Keep this man: and if he by any means escape, then shall thy life go for his life, or thou shalt pay a talent of silver. ⁴⁰And it came to pass, that thy servant looked round this way and that way, and the man was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, Behold, thou hast also destroyed snares set for me. ⁴¹And he hasted, and took the bandage away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was one of the prophets. ⁴²And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast suffered to escape out of thine hand a man appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. ⁴³And the king of Israel departed confounded and discouraged, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 22

And he rested three years; and there was no war between Syria and Israel. ²And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to the king of Israel. ³And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we be silent to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria? ⁴And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go up with us to battle to Ramoth-gilead? ⁵And Jehoshaphat said, As I am, so art thou also; as thy people, so is my people; as my horses, so are thy horses. And Jehoshaphat king of Judah said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, of the Lord to day. ⁶And the king of Israel gathered all the prophets together, about four hundred men; and the king said unto them, Shall I go up to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? and they said, Go up; and the Lord shall surely give it into the hands of the king. ⁷And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may enquire of the Lord by him? ⁸And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is one man here, to enquire of the Lord by him: but I hate him; for he doth not speak good of me, but evil only, Micaiah the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat king of Judah said, Let not the king say so. ⁹And the king of Israel called an eunuch, and said, Bring hither quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah. ¹⁰And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat

the king of Judah sat each on his throne, armed in the gates of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. ¹¹And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shall thou gore Syria, until it be consumed. ¹²And all the prophets prophesied in like manner, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: and the Lord shall deliver it and the king of Syria into thine hands. ¹³And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, all the prophets speak with one mouth good concerning the king: let thy words be like the words of one of them, and speak good. ¹⁴And Micah said, As the Lord liveth, whatsoever the Lord shall say unto me, these things will I speak. ¹⁵And he came to the king; and the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall I go up to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go up; and the Lord shall deliver it into the king's hand. ¹⁶And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou speak unto me truth in the name of the Lord? ¹⁷And he said, Not so: I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as a flock which hath no shepherd: and the Lord said, Is not God Lord of these? let each man return to his house in peace. ¹⁸And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Did I not say unto thee that this man doth not prophesy good to me; for he speaketh nothing but evil? ¹⁹And Micah said, Not so; not I: hear the word of the Lord: it is not so. I saw the God of Israel sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven stood round about Him on His right hand and on His left. ²⁰And the Lord said, Who will deceive Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall in Ramoth-gilead?" and one spake on one manner, and another spake on another manner. ²¹And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will deceive him. ²²And the Lord said unto him, Whereby? And he said, I will go forth, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, Thou shalt deceive him, yea, and prevail: go forth, and do so. ²³And now, behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil against thee. ²⁴And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, What manner of spirit hath spoken in thee? ²⁵And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself there. ²⁶And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and convey him away unto Amon the governor of the city; ²⁷and tell Joash the king's son to put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. ²⁸And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. ²⁹So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. ³⁰And the king of Judah said unto Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; and do thou put on my raiment. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. ³¹And the king of Syria commanded the thirty and two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small and great, save with the king of Israel only. ³²And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, that they said, This seemeth to be the king of Israel. And they compassed him about to fight him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that this was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from him. ³⁴And one drew a bow with a good aim, and smote the king of Israel between his lungs and the breastplate: and he said unto his charioteer, Turn thine hands, and carry me out of the battle; for I am wounded. ³⁵And the war was turned that day: and the king of Israel remained in his chariot against Syria from morning until even: and he shed the blood out of his wound, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. ³⁶And the herald of the army stood at the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and his land; ³⁷for the king is dead. And they came to Samaria, and buried the king at Samaria. ³⁸And they washed the chariot at the fountain of Samaria; and the swine and the dogs licked up the blood; and the harlots washed themselves in the blood, according unto the word of the Lord which He spake. ³⁹And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, behold, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰And Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

⁴¹And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned over Judah: in the fourth year of Ahab began Jehoshaphat to reign. ⁴²Thirty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; and he turned not aside from it, even from doing that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. ⁴⁴Only he took not away any of the high places: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. ⁴⁵And Jehoshaphat was at peace with the king of Israel. ⁴⁶And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his mighty deeds, whatsoever he did, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁴⁷*And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.* ⁴⁸*There was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.* ⁴⁹*Josaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships of Tharshish were broken at Ezion-geber.* ⁵⁰*Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships: but Jehoshaphat would not.* ⁵¹And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried by his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

⁵²And Ahaziah the son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Ahaziah the son of Ahab reigned two years over Israel in Samaria. ⁵³And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of Ahab his father, and in the way of Jezebel his mother, and in the sins of the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ⁵⁴And he served Baalim, and worshipped them, and provoked to anger the Lord God of Israel, according to all that had been done before him.

4 KINGDOMS

CHAPTER 1

Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ²And Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal the fly god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this my sickness: and they went to inquire of him. ³And an angel of the Lord called Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Arise, and go to meet the messengers of Ahaziah king of Samaria; and thou shalt say unto him, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal the fly god of Ekron? And not so: ⁴for thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah went, and said so unto them. ⁵And the messengers turned back unto him, and he said unto them, Why are ye turned back? ⁶And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou goest to inquire of Baal fly god of Ekron? not so: the bed on which thou art gone up, thou shalt not come down from it; for thou shalt surely die. ⁷So they turned back, and told the king as Elijah said: and he said unto them, What was the manner of the man which went up to meet you, and spake unto you these words? ⁸And they said unto him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, This is Elijah the Tishbite. ⁹And he sent unto him a captain of fifty and his fifty; and he went up to him: and, behold, Elijah sat on the top of a mountain. And the captain of fifty spake unto him, and said, Thou man of God, the king hath called thee; come down. ¹⁰And Elijah answered and said unto the captain of fifty, And if I be a man of God, fire shall come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. ¹¹And the king sent a second time another captain of fifty and his fifty. And the captain of fifty spake unto him, and said, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly. ¹²And Elijah answered and spake unto him, If I be a man of God, fire shall come from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty. ¹³And the king sent yet again a captain and his fifty. And the third captain of fifty came, and knelt on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and spake unto him, and said, O man of God, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight. ¹⁴Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and consumed the two first captains of fifty: and now, I pray, let my life be precious in thy sight. ¹⁵And the angel of the Lord said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And Elijah arose, and went down with him unto the king. ¹⁶And Elijah spake unto him, and said, Thus saith the Lord, Wherefore hast thou sent messengers to inquire of Baal fly god of Ekron? it shall not be so: the bed on which thou art gone up, thou shalt not come down from it, for thou shalt surely die. ¹⁷So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. ¹⁸And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, which he did, behold, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

^{18a}And Jehoram the son of Ahab reigneth over Israel in Samaria twelve years the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah: and he wrought that which was evil in the sight of the Lord; only not like his brethren, nor like his mother: and he put away the pillars of Baal which his father made, and brake them in pieces: only he was joined to the sins of Jeroboam, which led Israel into sin; he departed not therefrom. And the Lord was exceeding angry with the house of Ahab.

CHAPTER 2

And it came to pass, when the Lord would take up Elijah as it were into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah and Elisha went from Gilgal. ²And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, The Lord liveth, and thy soul liveth, if I will leave thee: and they came to Bethel. ³And the sons of the prophets that were at Bethel drew near unto Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Lord is about to take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. ⁴And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, The Lord liveth, and thy soul liveth, if I will leave thee. And they came to Jericho. ⁵And the sons of the prophets that were in Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Lord is about to take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace. ⁶And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. And Elisha said, The Lord liveth, and thy soul liveth, if I will leave thee: and they two went on. ⁷And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite afar off: and they two stood by Jordan. ⁸And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the water, and the water was divided hither and thither, and they two went over into a wilderness. ⁹And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken up from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let there be a double portion of thy spirit to be upon me. ¹⁰And Elijah said, Thou hast asked a hard thing for thyself: if thou see me when I am taken up from thee, then it shall be so unto thee; and if not, it shall not be so. ¹¹And it came to pass, as they went on, they walked and talked: and, behold, a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and they separated between both; and Elijah was taken up in a whirlwind as it were into heaven. ¹²And Elisha saw, and cried, Father, father, the chariot of Israel, and the horseman thereof! And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. ¹³And he took up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him upon Elisha: and Elisha turned back, and stood upon the brink of Jordan, ¹⁴and took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the water, and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? and he smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, and Elisha went over. ¹⁵And the sons of the prophets which were in Jericho on the other side, saw him, and said, The spirit of Elijah hath rested on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and did obeisance to him unto the ground. ¹⁶And they said, Behold, there be with thy servants fifty sons of strength; let them go now, and seek thy lord: peradventure the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him up, and cast him into Jordan, or upon one of the mountains, or on to one of the hills. And Elisha said, Ye shall not send. ¹⁷And they urged him till he was ashamed; and he said, Send. And they sent fifty men; and they sought him three days, but found him not. ¹⁸And they came again to him, for he dwelt in Jericho: and Elisha said, Did I not say unto you, Go not? ¹⁹And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, the situation of the city is good, and our lord seeth: but the waters are bad, and the ground barren. ²⁰And Elisha said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they took one, and brought it to him. ²¹And Elisha went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast salt in there, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any longer death or barren land. ²²And the waters were healed until this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spake. ²³And he went up from thence to Bethel: and as he was going by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head, go up. ²⁴And he turned after them, and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. And, behold, there came forth two bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them. ²⁵And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and turned back from thence to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. ²And he wrought that which was evil in the sight of the Lord; only not as his father, nor as his mother: and he put away the pillars of Baal which his father had made. ³Only he cleaved unto the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. ⁴And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel in the beginning of the year an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool. ⁵And it came to pass, after the death of Ahab, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶And king Joram went out of Samaria that day, and numbered Israel. ⁷And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to war? And he said, I will go up: thou art as I am; as are my people, so are thy people; as are my horses, so are thy horses. ⁸And he said, Which way shall I go up? and he said, The way of the wilderness of Edom. ⁹And the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them. ¹⁰And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the Lord should have called the three kings on their way, to give them into the hand of Moab! ¹¹And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, There is here Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah. ¹²And Jehoshaphat said, He hath the word of the Lord. And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and the king of Edom went down to him. ¹³And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Is it that the Lord hath called the three kings, to deliver them into the hands of Moab? ¹⁴And Elisha said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, but that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not have looked upon thee, nor seen thee. ¹⁵And now, fetch me an harper. And it came to pass, as the harper played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him. ¹⁶And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches. ¹⁷For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet this valley shall be filled with water, and ye shall drink, and your flocks, and your cattle. ¹⁸And this is but a light thing in the eyes of the Lord: I will also deliver Moab into your hand. ¹⁹And ye shall smite every strong city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. ²⁰And it came to pass in the morning, when the sacrifice was offered, that, behold, there came waters by the way of Edom, and the land was filled with water. ²¹And all Moab heard that the three kings were come up to fight against them; and they cried out on every side, even all that were girt with a girdle: and they said, Ho! and stood in the border. ²²And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun rose upon the waters, and Moab saw the waters of the other side as red as blood: ²³and they said, This is the blood of the sword: the kings also have fought, and each man hath smitten his neighbour: now then, Moab, to the spoils. ²⁴And they came into the camp of Israel: and Israel rose up and smote Moab, and they fled from before them: and they went onward, smiting Moab as they went. ²⁵And they beat down the cities, and on every good pieces of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped every well, and felled every good tree, until they left the stones of the wall cast down; and the slingers compassed the land, and smote it. ²⁶And the king of Moab saw that the battle prevailed against him; and he took with him seven hundred men that drew sword, to cut through even to the king of Edom: but they could not. ²⁷And he took his eldest son that that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for an whole burnt offering upon the walls. And there came to pass a great repentance upon Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

Now there cried one of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant feared the Lord: and the creditor is come to take my two sons to be his bondmen. ²And Elisha said, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save oil, wherewith I shall anoint myself. ³And he said unto her, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few. ⁴And thou shalt go in, and shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all these vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is filled. ⁵And she departed from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons: they brought the vessels near to her; and she poured in until the vessels were filled. ⁶And she said unto her sons, Bring me yet a vessel. And they said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. ⁷And she came and told the man of God: and Elisha said, Go, and sell the oil, and thou shalt pay thy debts, and thou and thy sons shall live by the oil that remaineth. ⁸And there came a day when Elisha passed over to Shunem, and there was a great lady there; and she constrained him to eat bread: and it was so, that as oft as he passed by, that he turned aside thither to eat. ⁹And the woman said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which cometh over unto us continually. ¹⁰Let us now make him an upper chamber, a little place; and let there set for him a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh in to us, that he shall turn in thither. ¹¹And a day came, and he went in thither, and he turned aside into the upper chamber, and lay there. ¹²And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call me this Shunammite. And he called her, and she stood before him. ¹³And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast astonished us with all this astonishment; what is there that we must do for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?. And she said, I dwell among mine own people. ¹⁴And he said unto Gehazi, What must we do for her? and Gehazi his servant said, Verily she hath no son, and her husband is old. ¹⁵And he called her, and she stood in the door. ¹⁶And Elisha said unto her, At this time, when the season is, thou, being alive, shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, do not lie unto thine handmaid. ¹⁷And the woman conceived in the womb, and bare a son at the very time, as the season was, being alive, as Elisha had said unto her. ¹⁸And the child grew; and it came to pass, when he went out to his father to the reapers, ¹⁹that he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said unto the servant, Carry him to his mother. ²⁰And he carried him to his mother, and he lay upon her knees till noon, and died. ²¹And she carried him up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out. ²²And she called her husband, and said, Send now for me one of the young men, and one of the asses, and I will ride quickly to the man of God, and come again. ²³And he said, Wherefore dost thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, Peace. ²⁴And she saddled the ass, and said to her servant, Be quick, proceed; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee. Go; and thou shalt proceed, and come unto the man of God to mount Carmel. ²⁵And she went and came unto the man of God to the mount: and it came to pass, when Elisha saw her come, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold now, that Shunammite cometh. ²⁶Run now to meet her, and say unto her, Is it peace with thee? is it peace with thy husband? is it peace with the child? And she said, Peace. ²⁷And she came to Elisha on the mount, and caught him by the feet; and Gehazi drew near to thrust her away. And Elisha said, Let her alone, for her soul is vexed within her: and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told me. ²⁸And she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? for did I not say, Do not deceive me? ²⁹And Elisha said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, bless him not; and if any man salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staff upon the face of the child. ³⁰And the mother of the child said, As the Lord liveth, and as my soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And Elisha arose, and followed her. ³¹And Gehazi passed on before her, and laid his staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor any hearing. Wherefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. ³²And Elisha went into the house; and, behold, the dead child was laid upon his bed. ³³And Elisha went into the house, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. ³⁴And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his hand upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he bowed himself upon him; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. ³⁵And he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and bowed himself upon the child seven times: and the child opened his eyes. ³⁶And Elisha cried out to Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her; and she came in unto him: and Elisha said, Take up thy son. ³⁷Then the woman went in, and fell at his feet, and did obeisance, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out. ³⁸And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And Elisha said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets. ³⁹And he went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a vine in the field, and gathered thereof wild gourds his garment full, and cast it into the cauldron of pottage: for they knew them not. ⁴⁰And he poured it out for the men to eat; and it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot: and they could not eat. ⁴¹And he said, Take meal, and cast it into the pot: and Elisha said unto Gehazi his servant, Pour out for the people, and let them eat. And there was no longer any hurtful thing in the pot. ⁴²And there came a man over from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God of the firstfruits twenty barley loaves, and cakes of figs. And he said, Give unto the people, and let them eat. ⁴³And his servant said, Why should I set this before an hundred men? And he said, Give unto the people, and let them eat: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. ⁴⁴And they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the Lord.

CHAPTER 5

Now Naaman, the captain of the host of Syria, was a great man before his master, and was marvelled at in countenance, because by him the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria: the man also was mighty in strength, but he was a leper. ²And the Syrians went out by companies, and took captive out of the land of Israel a little maid: and she waited on Naaman's wife. ³And she said unto her mistress, Would that my lord were before the prophet of God in Samaria! then he would recover him of his leprosy. ⁴And she went in, and told her lord, and said, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel. ⁵And the king of Syria said unto Naaman, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took in his hand ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. ⁶And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now then when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to thee, and thou shalt recover him of his leprosy. ⁷And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see that this man seeketh an occasion against me. ⁸And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let Naaman, I pray thee, come to me, and let him know that there is a prophet in Israel. ⁹So Naaman came with horse and chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed. ¹¹And Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I said, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of his God, and lay his hand upon the place, and recover the leper. ¹²Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Shall I not wash in them, and be cleansed? And he turned, and went away in a rage. ¹³And his servants came near, and said unto him, If the prophet had spoken a great thing unto thee, wouldest thou not have performed it? yet he hath but said unto thee, Wash, and be cleansed. ¹⁴So Naaman went down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of Elisha: and his flesh came again to him like the flesh of a little child, and he was cleansed. ¹⁵And he returned to Elisha, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him, and said, Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but only in Israel: and now take a blessing of thy servant. ¹⁶And Elisha said, As the Lord liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he pressed him to take it: but he would not. ¹⁷And Naaman said, Well then, if not, let there be given to thy servant, I pray thee, the load of a yoke of mules; and thou shalt give me of the red earth: for thy servant will henceforth offer neither whole burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but only unto the Lord. ¹⁸And let the Lord be propitious to thy servant, when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, when he boweth down in the house of Rimmon; even let the Lord, I pray thee, be merciful unto thy servant in this thing. ¹⁹And Elisha said unto Naaman, Go in peace. And he departed from him a little way. ²⁰And Gehazi the servant of Elisha said, Behold, my lord hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not taking of his hand that which he brought: as the Lord liveth, I will surely run after him, and take somewhat of him. ²¹So Gehazi followed after Naaman: and Naaman saw him running after him, and turned back from his chariot to meet him, and said, Is it peace? ²²And he said, It is peace: my master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. ²³And he said, Take two talents of silver. And he took two talents of silver in two bags, and two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. ²⁴And he came to a privy place, and took them from their hands, and laid them up in the house, and dismissed the men. ²⁵And he went in, and stood before his master; and Elisha said unto him, ²⁶Whence comest thou, Gehazi? and Gehazi said, Thy servant went not hither and thither. And Elisha said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? And now thou hast received garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants. ²⁷The leprosy also of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence, leprous, like snow.

CHAPTER 6

And the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us. ²Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and thence take every man a beam, and make there for ourselves a place of habitation. ³And he said, Go. And one of them said gently, Come with thy servants. And he said, I will go. ⁴And he went with them; and they came to Jordan, and began to cut down wood. ⁵And, behold, one was felling a beam, and the axe head fell into the water: and he cried out, Alas, master! and it was hidden. ⁶And the man of God said, Where fell it? and he shewed him the place: and he broke off a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron came to the surface. ⁷And he said, Take it up to thee: and he put out his hand, and took it. ⁸And the king of Syria was at war with Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place will I encamp. ⁹And Elisha sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not by that place; for the Syrians are hid there. ¹⁰And the king of Israel sent to the place which Elisha had told him, and saved himself thence, not once but twice. ¹¹And the mind of the king of Syria was sore disturbed for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not tell me who betrayeth me unto the king of Israel? ¹²And one of his servants said, Nay, my lord, O king: for Elisha the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel all the words whatsoever thou speakest in thy bedchamber. ¹³And he said,

Go, see where this man is, and I will send and take him. And they sent him word, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. ¹⁴And he sent thither horses, and chariots, and a mighty host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about. ¹⁵And the servant of Elisha rose up early, and went out: and, behold, an host compassed the city, and horses and chariots; and the servant said unto him, O master, what shall we do? ¹⁶And Elisha said, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they which be with them. ¹⁷And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray Thee, open the eyes of the servant, and let him see. And the Lord opened his eyes, and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses, and there were chariots of fire round about Elisha. ¹⁸And they came down to him; and he prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray Thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. ¹⁹And Elisha said unto them, This is not the city, neither is this the way: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. And he led them away to Samaria. ²⁰And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Lord, open their eyes, I pray Thee, and let them see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. ²¹And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I not verily smite them? ²²And he said, Thou shalt not smite them, unless thou wouldest smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow. Set bread and water before them, and let them eat and drink, and depart to their master. ²³And he prepared a great feast for them, and they ate and drank; and he sent them away, and they departed to their master. And the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

²⁴And it came to pass after this, that the son of Hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was at fifty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung at five pieces of silver. ²⁶And the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, and there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. ²⁷And he said unto her, Except the Lord help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the cornfloor, or out of the winepress? ²⁸And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And the woman said unto him, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, and we will eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow. ²⁹So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the second day, Give thy son, and let us eat him: and she hath hid her son. ³⁰And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by on the wall, and the people saw sackcloth within upon his flesh. ³¹And he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha shall stand on him this day. ³²And Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye that this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? Look, as soon as the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? ³³While he yet talked with them, behold, a messenger came unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the Lord; why should I wait for the Lord any longer?

CHAPTER 7

And Elisha said, Hear thou the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord, As at this time to morrow shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gates of Samaria. ²And the officer on whose hand the king leaned answered Elisha, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make floodgates in heaven, might this thing be? and Elisha said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. ³And there were four leprous men at the gate of the city: and one said unto his neighbour, Why sit we here until we die? ⁴If we say, Let us go into the city, then there is famine in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit here, then we shall die. Now then come, and let us fall upon the camp of the Syrians: if they take us alive, then we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. ⁵And they rose up in the dark, to go into the camp of Syria: and they came into a part of the camp of Syria; and, behold, there was no man there. ⁶For the Lord had made the host of Syria to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and each man said to his fellow, Now the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Egypt, to come against us. ⁷And they arose and fled while it was yet dark, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even in the camp as it was, and fled for their lives. ⁸And these lepers came a little way into the camp, and went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and took thence silver, and gold, and raiment; and they went and returned thence, and entered into another tent, and took thence, and went and hid it. ⁹And one said unto his neighbour, We do not well thus: this is a day of glad tidings, and we hold our peace: and we tarry till the morning light, and we shall find mischief: now then come, and let us go into the city, and tell the king's household. ¹⁰So they went in, and cried unto the gate of the city, and told them, saying, We went into the camp of Syria, and, behold, there is no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses, and their tents as they were. ¹¹And the porter cried aloud, and told it to the king's house within. ¹²And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They knew that we be hungry; and they are gone out of the camp, and have hid themselves in the field, saying, They will come out of the city, and we will catch them alive, and get into the city. ¹³And one of his servants answered and said, Let them now take five of the horses that were left, which were left here, (behold, they are the number left to all the multitude of Israel), and we will send thither and see. ¹⁴They took therefore two horsemen; and the king of Israel sent after the king of Syria, saying, Go and see. ¹⁵And they went after them even unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their panic. And the messengers returned, and brought word unto the king. ¹⁶And the people went out, and spoiled the camp of Syria: and a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, according to the word of the Lord, and two measures of barley for a shekel. ¹⁷And the king appointed the officer on whose hand the king leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the messenger came down to him. ¹⁸And it came to pass as Elisha had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel: and it shall be as at this time to morrow in the gate of Samaria. ¹⁹And the officer had answered Elisha, and said, Behold, if the Lord should make floodgates in heaven, might this thing be? and Elisha had said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. ²⁰And it so fell out: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAPTER 8

And Elisha spake unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the Lord hath called for a famine upon the land: indeed it is come upon the land seven years. ²And the woman arose, and did after the word of Elisha, both she and her household: and they sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines unto the city: and she came to cry unto the king for her house and for her lands. ⁴And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done. ⁵And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead son to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son Elisha had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and her lands. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. ⁶And the king asked the woman, and she told him; and the king appointed unto her an eunuch, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

⁷And Elisha came to Damascus; and the king of Syria, the son of Ader, was sick; and they brought him word, saying, The man of God is come hither. ⁸And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recover of this my disease? ⁹And Hazael went to meet him, and took a present in his hand, even all the good things of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said unto Elisha, Thy son the son of Ader, the king of Syria, hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this my disease? ¹⁰And Elisha said, Go, say, Thou shalt certainly live: howbeit the Lord hath shewed me that by death thou shalt die. ¹¹And he stood before him, and settled his countenance steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. ¹²And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? and he said, Because I know all the evil that thou wilt do unto the sons of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou utterly destroy with fire, and their choice men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their little ones, and rip up their women with child. ¹³And Hazael said, Who is thy servant, a dead dog, that he should do this thing? ¹⁴And he departed from Elisha, and went in to his lord; and he said to him, What said Elisha to thee? and he said, He said to me, Thou shalt surely live. ¹⁵And it came to pass on the next day, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and put it on his face, and he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

¹⁶In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. ¹⁷Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁹Yet the Lord would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, as he said that he would give him a light unto him, and to his children continually. ²⁰In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. ²¹And Joram went up to Zair, and all the chariots that were with him: and it came to pass after he had risen, that he smote Edom, which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents. ²²Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at that time. ²³And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁴And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram begin to reign. ²⁶Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as did the house of Ahab. ²⁸And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of the Syrians in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. ²⁹And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds wherewith they wounded him in Ramoth, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

CHAPTER 9

And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this cruse of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. ²And thou shalt enter there, and shalt there see Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and shalt go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and bring him into a privy chamber. ³And thou shalt take the cruse of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the Lord, I have anointed thee king over Israel: and thou shalt open the door, and flee, and not tarry. ⁴And the young man, even the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. ⁵And he went in; and, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have a message for thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all of us? And he said, Unto thee, O captain. ⁶And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have anointed thee to be king over the people of the Lord, even over Israel. ⁷And thou shalt utterly destroy the house of Ahab thy master from before Me, and shalt avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord, at the hand of Jezebel, ⁸and at the hand of the whole house of Ahab: and thou shalt utterly cut off from the house of Ahab every one that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel. ⁹And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. ¹⁰And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled. ¹¹And Jehu went forth to the servants of his Lord: and they said unto him, Is it peace? Wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know this man, and his communication. ¹²And they said, Wrong; tell us now. And Jehu said unto them, Thus and thus spake he unto me, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I have anointed thee to be king over Israel. ¹³And when they heard it, they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with the trumpet, and said, Jehu is king. ¹⁴So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram: and Joram was defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. ¹⁵And king Joram was returned to be healed of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, in his war with Hazael king of Syria. And Jehu said, If your heart be with me, let there go not forth out of the city one that hath escaped to go to tell it to Jezreel. ¹⁶And Jehu rode and went forward, and came down to Jezreel; for Joram king of Israel was in Jezreel being healed of the arrow wounds wherewith the Syrians had wounded him in Ramoth in the war with Hazael king of Syria; for he was strong, and a mighty man: and Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. ¹⁷And there went up a watchman on the tower of Jezreel, and saw the dust that was made by Jehu as he came, and said, I see dust. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say Peace. ¹⁸And there went an horseman to meet them, and said, Thus saith the king, Peace. And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. ¹⁹And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came up to them, and hath not come again. ¹⁹And he sent another horseman, and he came unto him, and said, Thus saith the king, Peace. And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. ²⁰And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and hath not come again: and he that was driving was driving Jehu the son of Nimshi; for it happened in perturbation. ²¹And Joram said, Make ready. And one made ready the chariot: and Joram king of Israel went forth, and Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²²And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And Jehu said, How can it be peace? when as yet the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many. ²³And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, It is treachery, Ahaziah. ²⁴And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and smote Joram between his arms; and his arrow went out at his heart, and he bowed upon his knees. ²⁵And Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, Cast him into the portion of ground of Naboth the Jezreelite: for I and thou do remember, when we rode together in chariots after Ahab his father, that the Lord took up this burden against him; ²⁶Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the Lord; and I will requite him in this portion, saith the Lord. Now then, I pray thee, take him up, and cast him into the portion, according to the word of the Lord. ²⁷And Ahaziah king of Judah saw, and fled by the way of Beth-haggan. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Slay him also. And one smote him in the chariot at the going up of Gur, which is Ibleam: and he fled to Megiddo, and died there. ²⁸And his servants put him in a chariot, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre in the city of David. ²⁹And in the eleventh year of Joram king of Israel, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah. ³⁰And Jehu came to Jezreel; and Jezebel heard of it, and painted her eyes, and adorned her head, and looked through the window. ³¹And Jehu entered into the city; and she said, Had Zimri peace, the murderer of his master? ³²And he lifted up his face to the window, and saw her, and said, Who art thou? come down with me. And there looked down to him two eunuchs. ³³And he said, Throw her down. And they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and they trod her under foot. ³⁴And Jehu went in, and did eat and drink, and said, Look now after this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter. ³⁵And they went to bury her: but they found nothing of her but the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶And they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the Lord, which He spake by the hand of His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel. ³⁷And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

CHAPTER 10

And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote a letter, and sent it to Samaria, unto the rulers of Samaria, and to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying, ²Now then as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, strong cities also, and weapons; ³look even out the best and meetest among your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. ⁴And they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: and how then shall we stand?

⁵So they that were over the house, and they that were over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We also are thy servants, and we will do whatsoever thou shalt say to us; we will not make any man king: we will do that which is right in thine eyes. ⁶And Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, If ye be for me, and if ye hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and bring them to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons were seventy men: these great men of the city brought them up. ⁷And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew them, even seventy men, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them him to Jezreel. ⁸And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps by the door of the gate until the morning. ⁹And the morning came, and he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? ¹⁰See now that there shall not fall unto the earth any thing of the word of the Lord which the Lord spake against the house of Ahab: for the Lord hath performed all that He spake of by the hand of his servant Elijah. ¹¹And Jehu smote all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his acquaintance, and his priests, so no remnant of him was left.

¹²And he arose, and went to Samaria, and he was at the house of sheepshearing in the way. ¹³And Jehu found the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they said, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we are come down to salute the sons of the king and the sons of the queen. ¹⁴And he said, Take them alive. And they slew them at the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he a man of them. ¹⁵And he went thence, and found Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and Jehu said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab said, It is. And Jehu said, If it is, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶And he said unto him, Come with me, and see my zeal for the Lord. And he made him sit in his chariot. ¹⁷And he entered into Samaria, and smote all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had utterly destroyed him, according to the saying of the Lord, which He spake unto Elijah.

¹⁸And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much. ¹⁹Now then do all ye the prophets of Baal call unto me all his servants and his priests; let not a man be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; every one that shall be wanting shall die. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the servants of Baal. ²⁰And Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn festival to Baal: and they made a proclamation. ²¹And Jehu sent through all Israel, saying, Now then let all Baal's servants, and all his priests, and all his prophets come; let none be wanting: for I am offering a great sacrifice: whosoever shall be missing shall not live. So all the servants of Baal came; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. ²²And he said unto the man that was over the house of the wardrobe, Bring forth a robe for all the servants of Baal. And the keeper of the robes brought forth to them. ²³And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab entered into the house of Baal, and said unto the servants of Baal, Search, and see whether there is among you any of the servants of the Lord, or the servants of Baal only, by themselves. ²⁴And he went in to offer sacrifices and whole burnt offerings; and Jehu appointed him fourscore men without, and said, Every man of the men whom I bring into your hand that shall escape, the life of him that spareth him shall go for his life. ²⁵And it came to pass, when he had made an end of offering the whole burnt offering, that Jehu said to the footmen and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let not a man of them escape. So they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the footmen and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. ²⁶And they brought forth the pillar of Baal, and burnt it. ²⁷And they tore down the pillars of Baal, and made the house of Baal a draught house unto this day.

²⁸Thus Jehu abolished Baal out of Israel. ²⁹Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from following them, to wit, the golden heifers in Bethel, and in Dan. ³⁰And the Lord said unto Jehu, Because of all thy deeds wherein thou hast acted well in executing that which was right in Mine eyes, according to all things that thou hast done unto the house of Ahab, and all that was in My heart, thy sons unto the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. ³¹But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart: he departed not from following the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin. ³²In those days the Lord began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in every coast of Israel; ³³from Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead pertaining to the Gadites, that of Gad, and that of Reuben, and of Manasseh, from Aroer, which is on the brink of the brook of Arnon, and Gilead and Bashan. ³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, and all the wars wherein he was engaged, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³⁵And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria: and Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. ³⁶And the days that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

CHAPTER 11

And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, and she destroyed all the seed royal of the kingdom. ²And Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of her brother, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber, and hid him from the face of Athaliah; and he was not slain. ³And he remained with her hid in the house of the Lord six years: and Athaliah did reign over the land. ⁴And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and took the captains of hundreds of the Chorri, and of the Rasim, and brought them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a covenant of the Lord with them, and adjured them; and Jehoiada shewed them the king's son.

⁵And he charged them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do. ⁶Let a third part of you enter in on the sabbath day, and keep ye the watch of the king's house in the porch; and another third in the gate of the high way; and a third at the gate behind the footmen; and keep ye the watch of the house. ⁷And there shall be two parties among you, even every one that goeth forth on the sabbath, and they shall keep the watch of the Lord's house before the king. ⁸And do ye compass the king round about, every man with his weapon in his hand: and he that goeth into the ranges shall die: and they shall be with the king in his going in and in his coming in. ⁹And the captains of hundreds did all that the wise Jehoiada commanded: and they took each his men, both them that went in on the sabbath day, and them that went out on the sabbath day; and went in to Jehoiada the priest. ¹⁰And to the captains of hundreds did the priest give king David's swords and spears that were in the house of the Lord. ¹¹And the footmen stood each with his weapon in his hand, from the right hand of the house to the left hand of the house, along by the altar and the house round about the king. ¹²And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the Testimony; and he made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, Long live the king. ¹³And Athaliah heard the sound of the people running, and went in to the people to the house of the Lord. ¹⁴And she looked, and, behold, the king stood near a pillar, as the manner was, and the singers and the trumpeters were before the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Conspiracy, conspiracy! ¹⁵And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds, who were over the host, and said them, Have her forth without the ranges: and he that goeth in after her, by death shall he be put to death by the sword. For the priest said, Let her not however be slain in the house of the Lord. ¹⁶And they laid hands on her; and went in by the way of the horses' entrance into the king's house: and there was she slain. ¹⁷And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the Lord's people; between the king also and the people. ¹⁸And all the people of the Lord went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; and his altars and his images brake they in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed overseers over the house of the Lord. ¹⁹And he took the captains of the hundreds, and the Chorri, and the Rasim, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the Lord, and went by the way of the gate of the footmen of the king's house, and seated him there on the throne of the kings. ²⁰And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was at rest: and they slew Athaliah with the sword in the king's house. ²¹Seven years old was Joash when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

In the seventh year of Jehu Joash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ²And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the Lord all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him. ³Only there were not any of the high places taken away: and the people still sacrificed there, and burnt incense in the high places. ⁴And Joash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the Lord, even the money of valuation, as each man bringeth the money of valuation, even all the money that any man is disposed to bring into the house of the Lord, ⁵let the priests take it to them, every man of his sale: and they shall repair the breaches of the house, in all places wheresoever a breach shall be found. ⁶And it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Joash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. ⁷And king Joash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why have ye not repaired the breaches of the house? now then receive no more money of your sales; for ye shall give it to repair the breaches of the house. ⁸And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it by the altar in the house of a man of the house of the Lord: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was found in the house of the Lord. ¹⁰And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest went up, and they tied up and told the money that was found in the house of the Lord. ¹¹And they gave the money, prepared, into the hands of them that did the works, the overseers of the house of the Lord: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the Lord, ¹²and to the masons, and hewers of stone, to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches in the house of the Lord, for all that was laid out for the house of the Lord to repair it. ¹³Howbeit there were not to be made for the house of the Lord doors of silver, studs, basons, or trumpets, any vessel of gold, or vessel of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord: ¹⁴for they were to give it to the workmen; and they repaired therewith the house of the Lord. ¹⁵Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they gave the money to be bestowed on the workmen: for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶Money for a sin offering, and money for a trespass offering, whatsoever happened to be brought into the house of the Lord, went to the priests. ¹⁷Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go against Jerusalem.

¹⁸And Joash king of Judah took all the holy things which Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had consecrated, and what he had himself dedicated, and all of the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria: and he went up from Jerusalem. ¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, behold, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and smote Joash in the house of Mallo, that is in Sela. ²¹And Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomar, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. ²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which led Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. ³And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of the son of Hada the son of Hazael, all their days. ⁴And Jehoahaz besought the Lord, and the Lord hearkened unto him: for He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. ⁵And the Lord gave deliverance unto Israel, and they escaped from under the hand of Syria: and the sons of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime. ⁶Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which led Israel to sin: they walked therein; and there remained the grove also in Samaria. ⁷Whereas there was left no army to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen: for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and made them like the dust for treading. ⁸And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his mighty acts, behold, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁹And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁰In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Joash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria sixteen years. ¹¹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which led Israel to sin: he walked therein. ¹²And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his mighty acts which he performed together with Amaziah king of Judah, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹³And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and he was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died: and Joash the king of Israel went down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horseman thereof. ¹⁵And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows. ¹⁶And he said unto the king, Put thine hand upon the bow. And Joash put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. ¹⁷And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. And Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And Elisha said, The arrow of the Lord's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: and thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them. ¹⁸And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And the king smote thrice, and stayed. ¹⁹And the man of God was grieved at him, and said, Hadst thou smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed them: seeing now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice. ²⁰And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites came into the land at the coming in of the year. ²¹And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that they saw a band of men; and they cast the man into the grave of Elisha: and as soon as he touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet. ²²And Hazael greatly afflicted Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³And the Lord had mercy and compassion upon them, and had respect unto them, because of His covenant with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob; and the Lord would not destroy them, neither did he cast them out from His presence. ²⁴And Hazael died; and the son of Hadad his son reigned in his stead. ²⁵And Joash the son of Jehoahaz returned, and took again out of the hand of the son of Hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father in the war: three times did Joash smite him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER 14

In the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel began Amaziah also the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. ²He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ³And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did. ⁴Howbeit he took not away the high places: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places. ⁵And it came to pass, when the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father. ⁶But the sons of them which had slain him he slew not: according as it is written in the book of the laws of Moses, as the Lord gave commandment, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin. ⁷He smote of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took the Rock in the war, and called the name of it Joktheel unto this day. ⁸Then Amaziah sent messengers to Joash the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ⁹And Joash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by the wild beasts that were in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. ¹⁰Thou hast smitten and wounded Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glorify thee, as thou sittest in thine house: for why art thou quarrelsome to thine hurt? so wilt thou fall, and Judah with thee. ¹¹But Amaziah hearkened not: so Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face in Beth-shemesh of Judah. ¹²And Judah fell before Israel, and he fled every man to his tent. ¹³And Joash king of Israel took Amaziah the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, in Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem at the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ¹⁴And he took the gold, and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria. ¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Joash, all that he did in his might, how he warred with Amaziah king of Judah, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶And Joash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead. ¹⁷And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. ¹⁸And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, and all that he did, are these not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ¹⁹And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. ²⁰And they brought him on horses: and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. ²¹And all the people of Judah took Azariah; and he was fifteen years old; and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. ²²He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

²³In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years. ²⁴And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which led Israel to sin. ²⁵He recovered the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath to the sea of Arabah, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet of Gath-hepher. ²⁶For the Lord saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter, and that they were few in number, straitened, and in want, and destitute; and Israel had no helper. ²⁷And the Lord said not that He would blot out the seed of Israel from under heaven: so He delivered them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. ²⁸And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his mighty deeds, which he achieved in war, and how recovered Damascus and Hamath to Judah in Israel, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁹And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 15

In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Uzziah the son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. ²Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ³And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all things that his father Amaziah had done. ⁴Only he removed not any of the high places: as yet the people sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places. ⁵And the Lord touched the king, and he was leprous unto the day of his death, and reigned in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land. ⁶And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, and all that he did, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁷And Uzziah slept with his fathers: and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

⁸In the thirty and eighth year of Uzziah king of Judah began Zachariah the son of Jeroboam to reign over Israel in Samaria six months. ⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as his fathers had done: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ¹⁰And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and they smote him in Keblaam, and slew him; and he reigned in his stead. ¹¹And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ¹²*This was* the word of the Lord which He spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons of the fourth generation shall sit upon the throne of Israel: and so it came to pass.

¹³And Shallum the son of Jabesh reigned: and in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah began Shallum to reign a full month in Samaria. ¹⁴And Menahem the son of Gadi went up out of Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him. ¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy wherein he was engaged, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ¹⁶Then Menahem smote both Tirzah, and all that was therein, and the coasts thereof beyond Tirzah because they opened not to him: and he smote it, and the women with child he ripped up.

¹⁷In the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ¹⁹In his days went Pul the king of the Assyrians against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, to aid him with his power. ²⁰And Menahem raised the silver by a tax upon Israel, even of every mighty man of wealth, to give to the king of the Assyrians, of each man fifty shekels: and the king of Assyria departed, and stayed not there in the land. ²¹And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²²And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

²³In the fiftieth year of Uzziah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria two years. ²⁴And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ²⁵And Pekah the son of Remeliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the front of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the four hundred: and he killed him, and reigned in his room. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

²⁷In the two and fiftieth year of Uzziah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remeliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years. ²⁸And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ²⁹In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of the Assyrians, and took Ijon, and Abel Beth Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them away to the Assyrians. ³⁰And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remeliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. ³¹And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

³²In the second year of Pekah the son of Remeliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. ³³Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all things that his father Azariah had done. ³⁵Howbeit he took not away the high places: as yet the people sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the Lord's house. ³⁶And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁷In those days the Lord began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remeliah. ³⁸And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 16

In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remeliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. ²Twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not that which was right in the sight of the Lord his God faithfully, like David his father. ³And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, he made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the sons of Israel. ⁴And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every tree of the grove. ⁵Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remeliah king of Israel went up against Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not prevail against him. ⁶At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath: and the Idumeans came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day. ⁷And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of the Assyrians, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and deliver me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me. ⁸And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and of the king's house, and sent presents to the king. ⁹And the king of the Assyrians hearkened unto him: and the king of the Assyrians went up to Damascus, and took it, and removed the people of it, and slew king Rezin. ¹⁰And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of the Assyrians at Damascus, and saw an altar that was at Damascus. And the king sent to Urijah the priest the pattern of the altar, and the proportions of it, and all the workmanship thereof. ¹¹And Urijah the priest built the altar, according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus. ¹²And the king saw the altar, and went up to it, ¹³and offered his whole burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering, and poured out the blood of his peace offerings upon the brasen altar, which was before the Lord. ¹⁴And he brought forward the altar, which was before the house of the Lord, from between the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it openly by the side of the altar northward. ¹⁵And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar offer the whole burnt offering in the morning, and the meat offering in the evening, and the whole burnt offering of the king, and his meat offering, and the whole burnt offering of all the people, and their meat offering, and their drink offering; and thou shalt pour upon it all the blood of the whole burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me in the morning. ¹⁶And Urijah the priest did all that king Ahaz commanded him. ¹⁷And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them, and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a base of stone. ¹⁸And he made it a base for the throne in the house of the Lord, and turned the king's entrance without in the house of the Lord, because of the king of the Assyrians. ¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Ahaz, even all that he did, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 17

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. ²And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. ³Against him came up Shalmaneser king of the Assyrians; and Hoshea became his servant, and rendered him tribute. ⁴And the king of the Assyrians found iniquity in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of the Assyrians in that year: and the king of the Assyrians besieged him, and bound him in the prison house. ⁵And the king of the Assyrians came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. ⁶In the ninth year of Hosheah the king of the Assyrians took Samaria, and carried Israel away to the Assyrians, and settled them in Halah and in Habor by the rivers of Gozan, and in the mountains of the Medes. ⁷For so it was, that the sons of Israel had transgressed against the Lord their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, ⁸and walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from the face of the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, as many as did such things, ⁹and of the sons of Israel, as many as did secretly practise customs against the Lord their God: ¹⁰and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the strong city. And they made them pillars and groves in every high hill, and under every shady tree: ¹¹and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the Lord removed from before them; and dealt with familiar spirits, and carved images to provoke the Lord to anger. ¹²And they served the idols, whereof the Lord had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing against the Lord. ¹³And the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah, by the hand of all His prophets, and of every seer, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and Mine ordinances, and all the law which I commanded your fathers, and all that I sent to them by the hand of My servants the prophets. ¹⁴Notwithstanding they hearkened not; and hardened their neck harder than the neck of their fathers. ¹⁵And they kept not any of His testimonies which He charged them; and they walked after vanities, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, not to do accordingly. ¹⁶They left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them graven images, even two heifers, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. ¹⁷And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divinations and auspices, and sold themselves to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger. ¹⁸And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight: and there was left only the tribe of Judah quite alone. ¹⁹Nay, even Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked according to the customs of Israel which they practised, and rejected the Lord. ²⁰And the Lord was angry with all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of them that spoiled them, until He had cast them out of His sight; ²¹forasmuch as Israel revolted from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drew off Israel from following the Lord, and led them to sin a great sin. ²²And the sons of Israel walked in all the sin of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not therefrom; ²³until the Lord removed Israel out of His sight, as the Lord spake by the hand of all His servants the prophets: and Israel was removed from off their land to the Assyrians unto this day.

²⁴And the king of Assyria brought from Babylon, the men out of Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and Sepharvaim; and they were settled in the cities of Samaria in the room of the sons of Israel: and they inherited Samaria, and were settled in the cities thereof. ²⁵And so it was at the beginning of their placing there, that they feared not the Lord: and the Lord sent lions among them, and they slew some of them. ²⁶And they spake unto the king of the Assyrians, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and substituted in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: and He hath sent the lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. ²⁷And the king of the Assyrians commanded, saying, Bring some from thence, and let them go and dwell there; and let them teach them the manner of the God of the land. ²⁸And they brought one of the priests whom they had removed from Samaria, and he settled in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the Lord. ²⁹Howbeit the nations made each their own gods, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, each nation in the cities wherein they dwelt. ³⁰And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergel, and the men of Hamath made Ashima. ³¹And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and them of Sepharvaim burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³²And they feared the Lord, yet they established their abominations in the houses of the high places which they made in Samaria, each nation in the city wherein they dwelt, and unto themselves priests of the high places, and sacrificed for themselves in the house of the high places. ³³And they feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from whence their lords had brought them. ³⁴Unto this day they did after their manner: they fear the Lord, and do according to their customs, and according to their manner, and according to the law, and according to the commandment which the Lord commanded the sons of Jacob, whose name He made Israel. ³⁵And the Lord made a covenant with them, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, neither shall ye worship them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: ³⁶but only to the Lord, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and an high arm: Him shall ye fear, and Him shall ye worship; to Him shall ye do sacrifice. ³⁷The ordinances, and the judgments, and the law, and the commandments, which He wrote for you to do, ye shall observe continually; and ye shall not fear other gods. ³⁸And the covenant which He made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods. ³⁹But the Lord your God ye shall fear: and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. ⁴⁰Neither shall ye do after the practices of them. ⁴¹So these nations feared the Lord, and served their graven images: yea, their children, and their children's children do even as their fathers did unto this day.

CHAPTER 18

And it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ²Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah. ³And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father did. ⁴He removed the high places, and brake in pieces the pillars, and utterly destroyed the groves, and the brazen serpent which Moses made: for unto those days the sons of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. ⁵He hoped in the Lord God of Israel; and after him there was not any like him among the kings of Judah, nor among those that were before him. ⁶And he clave to the Lord, and departed not from following Him, and kept His commandments, as many as He commanded Moses. ⁷And the Lord was with him; and he was wise in all that he undertook: and he revolted from the king of the Assyrians, and served him not. ⁸He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and to the border thereof, from the tower of the watchman to the strong city.

⁹And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, (this was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel,) that Shalmaneser king of the Assyrians came up against Samaria, and besieged it. ¹⁰And at end of three years he took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah: this is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, when Samaria was taken. ¹¹And the king of the Assyrians did carry away Samaria to the Assyrians, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the mountains of the Medes: ¹²because they hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord their God, and transgressed His covenant, even in all things that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded, and hearkened not to them, nor did them.

¹³And in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of the Assyrians come up against the strong cities of Judah, and took them. ¹⁴And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of the Assyrians to Lachish, saying, I have offended; depart from me: whatsoever thou layest upon me, I will bear. And the king of the Assyrians laid upon Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. ¹⁵And Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house. ¹⁶At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid with gold, and gave it to the king of the Assyrians. ¹⁷And the king of the Assyrians sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a heavy force against Jerusalem. And they went and came to Jerusalem, and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is by the way of the fuller's field. ¹⁸And they cried to Hezekiah, and there came to him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah the steward, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. ¹⁹And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the king, the great king of the Assyrians, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? ²⁰Thou hast said, (but they are but words,) I have counsel and strength for war. Now then on whom dost thou trust, that thou hast revolted from me? ²¹Now see, dost thou trust for thyself upon this broken staff of reed, even upon Egypt? whosoever stayest himself thereon, it will even go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. ²²And seeing thou hast said unto me, We trust in the Lord God: is not this He, whose high places and whose altars

Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? ²³And now, I pray thee, make an agreement with my lord the king of the Assyrians, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. ²⁴How then wilt thou turn away the face of one local ruler from among the least of my lord's servants, seeing thou puttest thy trust on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ²⁵And now are we come up without the Lord against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. ²⁶And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, said unto Rabshakeh, Speak now to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language: and wherefore speakest thou in the ears of the people that are on the wall. ²⁷And Rabshakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss together with you? ²⁸And Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jewish language, and spake, and said, Hear the words of the great king of the Assyrians: ²⁹Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah encourage you with words: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand: ³⁰neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliver us; this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of the Assyrians. Hearken not to Hezekiah: ³¹for thus saith the king of the Assyrians, Gain ye my favour, and come out to me: and every man shall drink of his own vine, and every man shall eat of his own fig tree, and shall drink water out of his own cistern: ³²until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, and bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and of honey; and ye shall live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, for he deceiveth you, saying, The Lord will deliver you. ³³Have the gods of the nations at all delivered each their own land out of the hand of the king of the Assyrians? ³⁴Where is the god of Hamath, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharvaim, Henah, and Ivah? for have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? ³⁵Who is there among the gods of the countries, that have delivered their countries out of mine hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand? ³⁶But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for there was a commandment of the king, saying, Answer him not. ³⁷Then came in Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, the steward, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, having rent their clothes, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER 19

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord. ²And he sent Eliakim the steward, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, clothed with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amos. ³And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke, and of provocation: for the children are come to the travail, but the mother hath no strength. ⁴It may be the Lord thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shekah, whom the king of the Assyrians his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and to revile Him with the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: and thou shalt offer thy prayer for the remnant that is found. ⁵So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶And Isaiah said unto them, "Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of the Assyrians have blasphemed. ⁷Behold, I do send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a report, and shall return to his own land; and I will overthrow him with the sword in his own land.

⁸So Rab-shekah returned, and found the king of the Assyrians warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. ⁹And he heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, saying, Behold, he is come out to fight with thee: and he returned, and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰Let not thy God in whom thou trustest encourage thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of the Assyrians. ¹¹Behold, thou hast heard all that the kings of the Assyrians have done in all the lands, to anathematize them: and shalt thou be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; both Gozan, and Haran, and Rezep, and the sons of Eden which were in Thelasar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad? and where is the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? ¹⁴And Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spread it before the Lord, ¹⁵and said, O Lord God of Israel, Which dwellest over the cherubim, Thou art the only God in all the kingdoms of the earth; Thou hast made heaven and earth. ¹⁶Lord, bow down Thine ear, and hear: open, Lord, Thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he hath sent to reproach the living God. ¹⁷For of a truth, Lord, the kings of the Assyrians have wasted the nations, ¹⁸and have cast their gods into the fire: for they are no gods, but the works of men's hands, wood and stone: and they have destroyed them. ¹⁹And now, O Lord our God, deliver us out of his hand, and all the kingdoms of the earth shall know that Thou only art the Lord God.

²⁰And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, I have heard thy prayer to me concerning Sennacherib king of the Assyrians. ²¹This is the word that the Lord hath spoken against him; The virgin daughter of Zion hath made light of thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. ²²Whom hast thou reproached, and whom hast thou reviled? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high: even against the Holy One of Israel? ²³By the hand of thy messengers hast thou reproached the Lord, and said, With the multitude of my chariots will I go up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I have cut down the height of His tall cedar tree, and His choice cypresses: and I am come into the midst of the forest, and of Carmel. ²⁴I have refreshed and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of fortified places. ²⁵I have brought it about, I have brought it to an end; and it is come to the destruction of the bands of warlike prisoners, even of strong cities. ²⁶And they that dwelt in them were weak of hand; they did tremble, and were confounded; they became as the grass of the field, or as the green herb, the grass that groweth on the houses, and that which is trod down by him that standeth upon it. ²⁷But I know thy downsitting, and thy going out, and thy rage against Me. ²⁸Because thou wast angry against Me, and thy fierceness is come up even into Mine ears, therefore will I put My hook into thy nostrils, and My bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. ²⁹And this shall be a sign unto thee: eat thou this year the things that grow of themselves, and in the second year the things which spring up; and in the third year let there be sowing, and reaping, and planting of vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. ³⁰And him that is escaped of the house of Judah shall He increase: and the remnant shall take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³¹For out of Zion shall go forth a remnant, and he that escapeth out of mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord shall do this. ³²Is it not so? Thus saith the Lord, concerning the king of the Assyrians, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall a shield come against it, nor shall he heap a mound against it. ³³By the way that he cometh, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord. ³⁴And I will defend this city as with a shield, for Mine own sake, and for My servant David's sake.

³⁵And it came to pass at night, that the angel of the Lord went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and they arose early in the morning, and, behold, they were all dead corpses. ³⁶And Sennacherib king of the Assyrians departed, and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. ³⁷And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia; and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 20

In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came in to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Give charge to thine household; thou shalt die, and not live. ²And Hezekiah turned to the wall, and prayed unto the Lord, saying, ³O Lord, I pray Thee, remember how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Thy sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. ⁴And Isaiah was in the middle court, and the word of the Lord came to him, saying, ⁵Turn back; and thou shalt say to Hezekiah the ruler of My people, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the Lord. ⁶And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of the Assyrians; and I will defend this city for Mine own sake, and for My servant David's sake. ⁷And he said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it upon the ulcer, and he shall be well. ⁸And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the Lord the third day? ⁹And Isaiah said, This is the sign of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that He hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or if it should go back ten degrees? ¹⁰And Hezekiah said, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward on the dial ten degrees. ¹¹And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord: and the shadow returned ten degrees backward on the dial. ¹²At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ¹³And Hezekiah rejoiced at them, and shewed them all the house of his spices, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the fine oil, and the armoury, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his dominions, that Hezekiah shewed them not. ¹⁴And Isaiah the prophet went in unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come unto me from a distant land, even from Babylon. ¹⁵And he said, What saw they in thine house? And he said, All the things that are in mine house they saw: there was nothing among my treasures that I shewed them not; yea, all that was in my treasures also. ¹⁶And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord: ¹⁷Behold, the days come, that all things that are in thine house, and that which thy fathers have treasured up unto this day, shall be taken into Babylon: and there shall not fail a word which the Lord hath spoken. ¹⁸And as for thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, they shall be taken; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ¹⁹And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken: only let there be peace in my days. ²⁰And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and all that he made, the fountain, and the conduit, and how he brought water into the city, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²¹And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 21

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. ²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the sons of Israel. ³And he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up an altar to Baal, and made groves, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. ⁴And he built an altar in the house of the Lord; whereas He had said, In Jerusalem will I put My name. ⁵And he built an altar for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord. ⁶And he made his sons pass through the fire, and used divination, and auspices, and made groves, and multiplied wizards, to do that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger. ⁷And he set the graven image of the grove in the house of which the Lord had said to David, and to Solomon his son, in his house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I even put My name for ever. ⁸And I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I gave their fathers, who shall keep all that I have commanded, according to all the commandments that My servant Moses commanded them. ⁹But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do evil in the sight of the Lord, more than the nations whom the Lord utterly destroyed from before the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And the Lord spake by His servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹Forasmuch as Manasseh the king of Judah hath done all these evil abominations, beyond all that the Amorite did, which lived before him, and hath led Judah also into sin by their idols, ¹²it shall not be so. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing calamities upon Jerusalem and Judah, that both the ears of every one that heareth shall tingle. ¹³And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measure of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem, as a jar is wiped, and turned upside down in the wiping. ¹⁴And I will reject the remnant of Mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hands of their enemies; and they shall be for a plunder and a spoil to all their enemies: ¹⁵forasmuch as they have done wickedly in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger from the day that I brought their fathers out of Egypt, even unto this day. ¹⁶Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to the other; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing evil in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁷And all the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ¹⁸And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzzah: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁹Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasseh did. ²¹And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them. ²²And he forsook the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord. ²³And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house. ²⁴And the people of the land smote all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead. ²⁵And the rest of the acts of Amon, even all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁶And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzzah: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 22

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of David his father: he turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. ³And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, in the eighth month, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azalaiah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe of the house of the Lord, saying, ⁴Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest, and seal the amount of the money which is brought into the house of the Lord, which they that keep the door have collected of the people. ⁵And let them give it into the hand of the workmen that are appointed in the house of the Lord. And he gave it to the workmen in the house of the Lord, to repair the breaches in the house, ⁶even unto the carpenters, and builders, and masons, and also to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the breaches of the house. ⁷Only they did not call them to account for the money that was given them, because they dealt faithfully. ⁸And Hilkiyah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹And he went into the house of the Lord unto the king, and reported the matter to the king, and said, Thy servants have collected the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have given it into the hand of the workmen that are appointed in the house of the Lord. ¹⁰And Shaphan the scribe spake unto the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹¹And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. ¹²And the king commanded Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah the servant of the king, saying, ¹³Go ye, inquire of the Lord for me, and for all the people, and for all Judah, and concerning the words of this book of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all things that are written concerning us. ¹⁴So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the mother of Shallum, the son of Tikvah the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in Masena;) and the communed with her. ¹⁵And she said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Say unto the man that sent you to me, ¹⁶Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: ¹⁷because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall burn forth against this place, and shall not be quenched. ¹⁸But to the king of Judah which sent you to inquire of the Lord, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; ¹⁹because thine heart was softened, and thou wast humbled before Me, when thou heardest all that I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that it should be for an abolition, and for a curse, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before Me; I also have heard, saith the Lord. ²⁰It shall not be so therefore: behold, I will add thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy sepulchre in peace; and thine eyes shall not see any among all the evils which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word.

CHAPTER 23

And the king sent, and gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ²And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and every man of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Lord. ³And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His ordinances with all the heart and all the soul, to confirm the words of this covenant, even the things written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant. ⁴And the king commanded Hilkiyah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and them that kept the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and took the ashes of them to Bethel. ⁵And he burned the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained; (and they burned incense in the high places, and in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem;) them also that burned incense unto Baal, and to the sun, and to the moon, and to the mazuroth, and to all the hosts of heaven. ⁶And he carried out the grove from the house of the Lord unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and reduced it to ashes, and cast the powder thereof upon the sepulchres of the children of the people. ⁷And he brake down the house of the sodomites, that were by the house of the Lord, where the women wove tents for the grove. ⁸And he brought all the priests up from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba even to Beer-sheba, and brake down the house of the gates that was by the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ⁹Nevertheless the priests of the high places went not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, for they only did eat unleavened bread among their brethren. ¹⁰And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, which was for a man to make his son or his daughter to pass through fire to Moloch. ¹¹And he burned the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the Lord, by the treasury of Nathan the king's eunuch, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariot of the sun with fire. ¹²And the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king pull down, and remove them by force from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. ¹³And the house that was before Jerusalem, which was on the right hand of the mount of Mosoath, which Solomon the king had builded to Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and to Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and to Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. ¹⁴And he brake in pieces the pillars, and utterly destroyed the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men. ¹⁵Also the high altar in Bethel, which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that high altar he tore down, and brake in pieces the stones thereof, and reduced it to powder, and burned the grove. ¹⁶And Josiah turned himself aside, and spied the sepulchres that were there in the city, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord which the man of God spake, when Jeroboam stood by the altar at the feast: and he turned, and lifted up his eyes unto the sepulchre of the man of God, which spake these words. ¹⁷And he said, What is that mound which I see? And the men of the city said unto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God that came out of Judah, and invoked these words, which he invoked against the altar of Bethel. ¹⁸And he said, Let him alone; let none disturb his bones. So his bones were spared, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria. ¹⁹Moreover all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the Lord to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them all that he did in Bethel. ²⁰And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

²¹And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the Lord your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. ²²For such a passover such as this had not been holden from the days of the judges that judged Israel, even all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah. ²³But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was the passover holden to the Lord in Jerusalem. ²⁴Moreover the sorcerers, and the wizards, and the theraphin, and the idols, and all the abominations that had been set up in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might keep the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the Lord. ²⁵Like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there not one like him. ²⁶Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fierceness of His great wrath, wherewith He was wroth in His anger against Judah, because of the provocations that Manasseh had provoked Him withal. ²⁷And the Lord said, I will remove Judah also out of My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there. ²⁸And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁹And in his days went up Pharaoh Nechoh king of Egypt against the king of the Assyrians to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went out to meet him; and Nechoh slew him in Megiddo when he had seen him. ³⁰And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre: and the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead. ³¹Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers did. ³³And Pharaoh Nechoh removed him to Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put a tribute on the land of an hundred talents of silver, and an hundred talents of gold. ³⁴And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king of Judah over them in the room of Josiah his father: and he turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away, and brought him to Egypt; and he died there. ³⁵And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he assessed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: they gave the silver and the gold of each man according to his assessment, together with the people of the land, to give it unto Pharaoh Nechoh. ³⁶Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

¹In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: and he turned and revolted from him. ²And the Lord sent against him the bands of the Chaldees, and the bands of Syria, and the bands of Moab, and the bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them into the land of Judah to prevail, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of His servants the prophets. ³Moreover it was the purpose of the Lord concerning Judah, to remove them out of His sight, because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did. ⁴Moreover he shed innocent blood, and filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the Lord would not be propitiated. ⁵And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, behold, are not these written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁶And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. ⁷And the king of Egypt came not any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

⁸Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done. ¹⁰At that time Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. ¹¹And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it. ¹²And Jehoiachin the king of Judah came forth to the king of Babylon, he, and his servants, and his mother, and his princes, and his eunuchs: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³And he brought forth thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, according to the word of the Lord. ¹⁴And he away all Jerusalem, and all the captains, and the mighty men, and took captive ten thousand prisoners, every artificer and smith: and only the poor of the land were left. ¹⁵And he carried away Joachim to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his eunuchs: and all the mighty men of the land carried he away into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and artificers and smiths a thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, them the king of Babylon carried captive to Babylon. ¹⁷And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his son king in his stead, and called his name Zedekiah.

¹⁸Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah. ¹⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiachin did. ²⁰For it was according to the Lord's mind to bring evil upon Jerusalem and upon Judah, until He had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah revolted against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built a mound against it. ²And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah, on the ninth day of the month. ³And the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁴And the city was broken up, and all the men of war went forth by night by the way of the gate between the walls; (this is the gate of the king's garden;) and the Chaldees were against the city round about: and the king went by the way of the plain. ⁵And the force of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army was scattered from about him. ⁶And they took the king, and brought him to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and he gave judgment upon him. ⁷And he slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and brought him to Babylon.

⁸And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, (this is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan the chief cook, which stood before the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem. ⁹And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem: even every house did the chief cook burn. ¹⁰And the force of the Chaldees did pull down the walls of Jerusalem round about. ¹¹And the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the deserters that fell away to the king of Babylon, and the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the chief cook carry away. ¹²But the chief cook left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. ¹³And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldees brake in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. ¹⁴And the caldrons, and the shovels, and the bowls, and the censers, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they would minister, took he. ¹⁵And the firepans, and the gold and silver bowls, the chief cook took. ¹⁶Two pillars, and one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord; of the brass of all the vessels was there no weight. ¹⁷The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was of brass: and the height of the chapter was three cubits; the border, and the pomegranates on the chapter round about were all of brass: and so it was with the second pillar with the border thereof. ¹⁸And the chief cook took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah, the second in order, and the three keepers of the door. ¹⁹And out of the city they took one eunuch that was commander of the men of war, and five men that saw the face of the king, that were found in the city, and the scribe of the chief commander, which drew up the order of battle of the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city. ²⁰And Nabuzar-adan the chief cook took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²¹And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of his land.

²²And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he set Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan. ²³And all the captains of the armies, they and their sons, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah: and they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. ²⁴And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not the passing of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you. ²⁵But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and went into Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

²⁷And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the carrying away of Joakim king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmarodek king of Babylon in the first year of his reign did lift up the head of Joachim king of Judah, and brought him out of his prison house. ²⁸And he spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the thrones of the kings that were with him in Babylon; ²⁹and changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life. ³⁰And his portion, a continual portion, was given him out of the house of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

1 PARALEIPOMENON

CHAPTER 1

Adam, Sheth, Enosh, ²Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, ³Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, ⁴Noah; the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ⁵The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Elishah, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ⁶And the sons of Gomer were Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁷And the sons of Javan were Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. ⁸And the sons of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. ⁹And the sons of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan. ¹⁰And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a giant, an hunter upon the earth. ^{*11}And Mizraim begat Ludiim, and Ananim, and Lehaabim, and Naphtuhim, ¹²and Pathrusim, and Casluhim, whence came forth the Philistines, and Caphthorim. ¹³And Canaan begat Zidon, his firstborn, and Heth, ¹⁴the Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite, ¹⁵and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, ¹⁶and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. ¹⁷And the sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad. ^{18}And Arphaxad begat Cainan, and Cainan begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber. ¹⁹And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. ²⁰And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, ²¹Hadoram also, and Usal, and Diklah, ²²and Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²³and Ophir, and Hevi, and Oram: all these were the sons of Joktan. ²⁴The sons of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, Shelah, ²⁵Eber, Peleg, Reu, ²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah, ²⁷Abraham. ²⁸And the sons of Abraham; Isaac and Ishmael. ²⁹And these are their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, and Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ³⁰Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema, ³¹Jetur, Naphish, Kedemah: these are the sons of Ishmael. ³²And the sons of Keturah Abraham's concubine: she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan were Dedan, and Sheba: ³³and the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Ephher, and Henoah, and Abida, and Eldaah: all these were the sons of Keturah. ³⁴And Abraham begat Isaac: and the sons of Isaac were Jacob, and Esau. ³⁵The sons of Esau were; Eliphaz, and Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. ³⁶The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Gatam, and Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. ³⁷And the sons of Reuel were Nahath, and Zerah, and Shammah, and Mizzah. ³⁸The sons of Seir were Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. ³⁹And the sons of Lotan were Hori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotan's sister. ⁴⁰The sons of Shobal were Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, and Shephi, and Onam: and the sons of Zibeon were Aiah, and Anah. ⁴¹The sons of Anah were Dishon: and the sons of Dishon were Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. ⁴²And the sons of Ezer were Bilhan, and Zavan, and Jakan: the sons of Dishan were Uz, and Aran.

⁴³And these are their kings: Balak the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhabah. ⁴⁴And Balak died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead. ⁴⁵And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. ⁴⁶And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad reigned in his stead, which smote Midian in the plain of Moab: and the name of his city was Avith. ⁴⁷And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead. ⁴⁸And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead. ⁴⁹And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. ⁵⁰And Baal-hanan died, and Hadad the son of Barad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pai. ⁵¹The princes of Edom were: prince Timnah, prince Aliah, prince Jetheth, ⁵²prince Aholibamah, prince Elah, prince Pinon, ⁵³prince Kenaz, prince Teman, prince Mizbar, prince Magdiel, ⁵⁴prince Iram. These are the princes of Edom.

CHAPTER 2

These are the names of the sons of Israel; ²Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. ³The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah. These three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitish woman: and Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the Lord; and He slew him. ⁴And Tamar his daughter in law bare him Perez, and Zerah: all the sons of Judah were five. ⁵The sons of Perez were Hezron, and Hamul. ⁶And the sons of Zerah were Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of them in all. ⁷And the sons of Carmi were Achar the troubler of Israel, who was disobedient in the thing accursed. ⁸And the sons of Ethan; Azariah. ⁹The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him were Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. ¹⁰And Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon, prince of the house of Judah. ¹¹And Nahshon begat Salma; and Salma begat Boaz; ¹²and Boaz begat Obed; and Obed begat Jesse. ¹³And Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab; Abinadab was the second, Shimma the third, ¹⁴Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, ¹⁵Ozem the sixth, David the seventh. ¹⁶And their sister was Zeruiah, and Abigail: and the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. ¹⁷And Abigail bare Amasa: and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite. ¹⁸And Caleb the son of Hezron took Azubah to wife, and Jerioth: and her sons were these; Jeshar, and Shobab, and Ardon. ¹⁹And Azubah died; and Caleb took unto him Ephrath, and she bare him Hur. ²⁰And Or begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel. ²¹And after this Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead; and he took her when he was threescore and five years old; and she bare him Segub. ²²And Segub begat Jair; and he had three and twenty cities in Gilead. ²³And he took Geshur, and Aram, the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. ²⁴And after the death of Hezron, Caleb came to Ephrathah; and Hezron's wife was Abiah: and she bare him Ashur the father of Tekoa. ²⁵And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and his brother Ozem. ²⁶And Jerahmeel had another wife, and her name was Atarah: she is the mother of Onam. ²⁷And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. ²⁸And the sons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada: and the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abishur. ²⁹And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail: and she bare him Ahban, and Molid. ³⁰And the sons of Nadab were Seled, and Appaim: and Seled died without children. ³¹And the sons of Appaim; Ishi: and the sons of Ishi; Sheshan: and the sons of Sheshan; Ahlai. ³²And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai were Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children. ³³And the sons of Jonathan were Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel. ³⁴And Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant, and his name was Jarha. ³⁵And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai. ³⁶And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad, ³⁷and Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed. ³⁸And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah, ³⁹and Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah, ⁴⁰and Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, ⁴¹and Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama, and Elishama begat Ishmael. ⁴²And the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn; this is the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. ⁴³And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappua, and Rekem, and Shema. ⁴⁴And Shema begat Raham the father of Jorkoam: and Jorkoam begat Shammai. ⁴⁵And his son was Maon: and Moan was the father of Bethzur. ⁴⁶And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez. ⁴⁷And the sons of Jahdai were, Regem, and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph. ⁴⁸And Caleb's concubine Maachah bare Sheber, and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹She bare him also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, and Sheva the father of Machabenah, and the father of Gibeon and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah. ⁵⁰These were the sons of Caleb: the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah; Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim, ⁵¹Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth-gader. ⁵²And the sons of Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim were, Haroeh, and Aesi, and Ammanith, ⁵³and Umasphae, cities of Jair; Aethalim, and Miphithim, and Hesamathim, and Hemasaraim: from these went forth the Sarathaeans, and the sons of Esthaam. ⁵⁴The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth of the house of Joab, and half of the family of Manahethites, and the Zorites. ⁵⁵The families of the scribes dwelling in Jabez were the Tirathites, and Shimeathites, and Suchathites, these are the Kinites that came of the Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

CHAPTER 3

Now these were the sons of David that were born unto him in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess. ²The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth Adonijah the son of Haggith: ³the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah his wife. ⁴Six were born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years. ⁵And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel: ⁶Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, ⁷and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ⁸and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. ⁹*These were* all the sons of David, beside the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister. ¹⁰The sons of Solomon were Rehoboam; Abijah was his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, ¹¹Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, ¹²Amasiah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, ¹³Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, ¹⁴Amon his son, Josiah his son. ¹⁵And the sons of Josiah were the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. ¹⁶And the sons of Jehoiakim were Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son. ¹⁷And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸Malchiram, and Pedaiah, and Shenazzar, and Jecamiah, and Hoshama, and Nebadiah. ¹⁹And the sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam, and Hananiah; and Shelomith was their sister. ²⁰And Haashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, and Jushabhesed, five. ²¹And the sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah, and Jeshaiah was his son, Rephaiah his son, Arnan his son, Obadiah his son, and Shechaniah his son. ²²And the son of Shechaniah was Shemaiah: and the sons of Shemaiah were Hattush, and Igal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. ²³And the sons of Neariah were Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three. ²⁴And the sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Delaiah, and Anani, seven.

CHAPTER 4

And the sons of Judah were Perez, and Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal, ²and Reaiah his son: and Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad: these are the generations of the Zorathites. ³And these were the sons of Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi. ⁴And Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah: these were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem. ⁵And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah, and Naarah. ⁶And Naarah bare him Ahuzam, and Hephher, and Teman, and Haahashtari: all these were the sons of Naarah. ⁷And all the sons of Helah were Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan. ⁸And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah; they are the families of Aharhel the brother of Rechab, the son of Harum. ⁹And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, I bare with sorrow. ¹⁰And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that Thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coasts, and that Thine hand might be with me, and that Thou wouldest give me knowledge not to humble me! And God granted him all that he asked. ¹¹And Chelub the father of Shuah begat Mehir; he was the father of Eshton. ¹²And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of the city of Nahash, the brother of Heslon the Kenezite: these were the men of Rechah. ¹³And the sons of Kenez were Othniel, and Seraiah: and the sons of Othniel; Hathath. ¹⁴And Meonothal begat Ophrah: and Seraiah begat Joab, the father of Ge-Harashim; for they were craftsmen. ¹⁵And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even Kenaz. ¹⁶And the sons of Jehalelel were Ziph, and Ziphah, and Tiria, and Azarel. ¹⁷And the sons of Ezra were Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon: and Jether begat Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸And his wife, that is Jehudijah, bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah: and these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, which Mered took. ¹⁹And the sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham the father of Keilah; Garmi, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. ²⁰And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, and Rinnah the son of Hanan, and Tilon: and the sons of Ishi were Zoheth, and the sons of Zoheth. ²¹The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the seed of the family of Ephrathabah, of the house of Ashbea. ²²And Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who dwelt in Moab; and he changed their names to Habederin, and Athoukiin. ²³These are the potters that dwell in Netaim and Gederah with the king: they grew strong in his kingdom, and dwelt there. ²⁴The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul, ²⁵Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son, ²⁶Hamuel his son, Shabud his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son. ²⁷Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brethren had not many sons, neither did all their family multiply, like to the children of Judah. ²⁸And they dwelt in Beersheba, and Moladah, and in Hazar-shual, ²⁹and in Bilhah, and in Ezem, and in Tolad, ³⁰and in Bethuel, and in Hormah, and in Ziklag, ³¹and in Bethmarcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and the house of Beth-biri: these were their cities until the time of king David. ³²And their villages were, Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities. ³³And all their villages were round about these cities, unto Baal: this was their possession, and their distribution. ³⁴And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah; ³⁵and Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel; ³⁶and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimel, and Benaiah; ³⁷and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah. ³⁸These went by the name of princes in their families, and they increased abundantly in their fathers' houses. ³⁹And they went until they came to Gedor, even unto the east side of Ai, to seek pasture for their cattle. ⁴⁰And they found abundant and good pastures, and the land before them was wide, and there was peace and quietness; for there were some of the children of Ham which dwelt there before. ⁴¹And these who are written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and they smote the people's houses, and the Meunites whom they found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their room: because there was pasture there for their cattle. ⁴²And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, went unto mount Seir, five hundred men; and Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, sons of Ishi, were their rulers. ⁴³And they smote the remnant that were left of Amalek, unto this day.

CHAPTER 5

And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but forasmuch as he went up to his father's couch, his father gave his blessing unto his son Joseph the son of Israel: and he was not reckoned as the firstborn: ²for Judah was very mighty even among his brethren, and of him was one to be a ruler; but the blessing was Joseph's.) ³The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoah, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ⁴The sons of Joel were Shemaiah, and Banaia his son, and the sons of Gog the son of Shimei. ⁵His son was Michah, his son Reaiah, his son Joel, ⁶his son Baal, whom Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was the prince of the Reubenites. ⁷And his brethren in the family, in their distribution according to their generations: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah. ⁸And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel: he dwelt in Aroer, and even unto Nebo and Baal-meon: ⁹and eastward he dwelt unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because they had much cattle in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰And in the days of Saul they made war upon the sojourners in the land; and they fell into their hands all of them that dwelt in their tents eastward of Gilead. ¹¹The children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan even unto Salcah. ¹²Joel was the firstborn, and Shapham the second, and Jaani the scribe in Bashan. ¹³And their brethren according to the houses of their fathers' families were; Michael, Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Eber, seven. ¹⁴These are the sons of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Joaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz, ¹⁵the brother of the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their families. ¹⁶They dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan, and in their villages, and in all the country round about Sharon, unto the border. ¹⁷The reckoning of them all took place in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel. ¹⁸The sons of Reuben, and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, of mighty men, bearing shields and sword, and bending the bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to battle. ¹⁹And they made war with the Hagarites, and Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab, ²⁰and they prevailed against them: and the Hagarites were given into their hands, they and all their tents: for they cried unto God in the battle, and He hearkened unto them, because they trusted on Him. ²¹And they took away captive their store; of camels five thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, two thousand of asses, and of men an hundred thousand: ²²for there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their stead until the captivity. ²³And the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt from Bashan unto Baal-hermon, and Senir, and unto the mount of Hermon: and they increased in Lebanon. ²⁴And these were the heads of the houses of their families; even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, men of renown, heads of the houses of their families. ²⁵But they rebelled against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the nations of the land, whom God cast out from before them. ²⁶And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and carried away Reuben, and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah and Habor, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

²⁷The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ²⁸And the sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁹And the sons of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³⁰Eleazar begat Phinehas, Phinehas begat Abishua, ³¹Abishua begat Bukki, Bukki begat Uzzi, ³²Uzzi begat Zerahiah, Zerahiah begat Meraioth, ³³and Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Achitub, ³⁴and Achitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaaz, ³⁵and Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan; ³⁶and Johanan begat Azariah: he ministered as priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem. ³⁷And Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Achitub, ³⁸and Achitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum; ³⁹and Shallum begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah; ⁴⁰and Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah begat Jehozadak; ⁴¹and Jehozadak went into captivity with Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

CHAPTER 6

The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ²And these are the names of the sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimei. ³The sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ⁴The sons of Merari were Mahli, and Mushi: and these are the families of Levi, according to their families. ⁵Of Gershon were Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, ⁶Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son. ⁷The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son. ⁸Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son; ⁹Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziel his son, Shaul his son. ¹⁰And the sons of Elkanah; Amasai, and Ahimoth, ¹¹As for Elkanah, his sons were Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, ¹²Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. ¹³The sons of Samuel; the firstborn was Vashni, and Abiah. ¹⁴The sons of Merari; Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son; ¹⁵Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son. ¹⁶And these are they whom David set over the service of the singers, after that the ark was at rest in the house of the Lord. ¹⁷And they ministered before the tabernacle of the testimony on instruments, until Solomon had built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem: and they stood for their services according to their order. ¹⁸And these are they that stood, and their sons, of the sons of Kohath: Heman the psalm singer, the son of Joel, the son of Shemuel, ¹⁹the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, ²⁰the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ²¹the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, ²²the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ²³the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. ²⁴And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, ²⁵the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah, ²⁶the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, ²⁷the son of Adaiah, the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ²⁸the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi. ²⁹And the sons of Merari their brethren on the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, ³⁰the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, ³¹the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. ³²Their brethren also according to the houses of their fathers were the Levites, which were given all the work of ministration of the tabernacle of the house of God. ³³And Aaron and his sons burned incense upon the altar of whole burnt offering, and upon the altar of incense, for all the ministry in the holy of holies, and make atonement for Israel, according to all things that Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded. ³⁴And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, ³⁵Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son. (no verse 36) ³⁷Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ³⁸Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son. ³⁹And these are their dwelling places in their villages in their coasts, to the sons of Aaron, to their family the Kohathites: for theirs was the lot. ⁴⁰And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it. ⁴¹But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. ⁴²And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, even Hebron, and Libnah and her suburbs round about, and Eshtemoa and her suburbs, ⁴³and Jatthir and her suburbs, and Debir and her suburbs, ⁴⁴and Ashan and her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh and her suburbs: ⁴⁵and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba and her suburbs, and Alemeth and her suburbs, and Ananthoth and her suburbs: all their cities were thirteen cities according to their families. ⁴⁶And unto the sons of Kohath, which were left of their families, there were given out of the tribe, namely, out of the half tribe of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities. ⁴⁷And unto the sons of Gershom according to their families there were given of the tribe of Issachar, of the tribe of Asher, of the tribe of Naphtali, of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. ⁴⁸And unto the sons of Merari according to their families by lot, out of the tribe of Reuben, out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. ⁴⁹And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites the cities and their suburbs. ⁵⁰And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities, which they call by their name. ⁵¹And unto the members of the families of the sons of Kohath there were also given the cities of their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim. ⁵²And they gave unto them, of the cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim and her suburbs, and Gezer and her suburbs, ⁵³and Jokmeam and her suburbs, and Beth-horon and her suburbs, ⁵⁴and Aijalon and her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon and her suburbs: ⁵⁵and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Aner and her suburbs, and Bileam and her suburbs, unto the sons of Kohath that were left, according to each several family. ⁵⁶Unto the sons of Gershon were given out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan of Bashan and her suburbs, and Ashtaroth and her suburbs. ⁵⁷And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh and her suburbs, and Daberath and her suburbs, and Dabor and her suburbs, ⁵⁸and Ramoth, and Anem and her suburbs. ⁵⁹And out of the tribe of Asher; Mashal and her suburbs, and Abdon and her suburbs, ⁶⁰and Hukok and her suburbs, and Rehob and her suburbs. ⁶¹And out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee and her suburbs, and Hammon and her suburbs, and Kirjathaim and her suburbs. ⁶²Unto the sons of Merari that were left were given out of the tribe of Zebulun Rimmon and her suburbs, and Tabor and her suburbs, ⁶³out of the country beyond Jordan, Jericho westward of Jordan, were given out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness and her suburbs, and Jahzah and her suburbs, ⁶⁴and Kedemoth and her suburbs, and Mephaath and her suburbs, and Mephlah and her suburbs, ⁶⁵and out of the tribe of Gad; Ramoth Gilead, and her suburbs, ⁶⁶and Heshbon and her suburbs, and Jazer and her suburbs.

CHAPTER 7

And to the sons of Issachar were Tola, and Puah, and Jashub, and Shimron, four. ²And the sons of Tola were Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsan, and Shemuel, heads of their father's houses, to wit, of Tola: they were men of might according to their generations; their number was in the days of David two and twenty thousand and six hundred. ³And the son of Uzzi was Izraiah: and the sons of Izraiah were Michael, Obadiah, and Joel, and Ishiah, five, all of them rulers. ⁴And with them, according to their generations, after the houses of their fathers, were men mighty to set armies in array for war, six and thirty thousand: for they had multiplied wives and children. ⁵And their brethren among all the families of Issachar, also mighty men, fourscore and seven thousand. ⁶The sons of Benjamin were Bela, and Becher, and Jediah, three. ⁷And the sons of Belah were Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of houses of their families, mighty men; and their number was twenty and two thousand and thirty and four. ⁸And the sons of Becher were Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abdiah, and Anathoth, and Alameth: all these were the sons of Becher. ⁹And the number of them, after their generations, heads of the houses of their fathers, men of might, was twenty thousand and two hundred. ¹⁰And the sons of Jediah; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharsish, and Ahishahar. ¹¹All these were the sons of Jediah, heads of their families, men of might, seventeen thousand and two hundred, going out to war with might. ¹²Shuppim also, and Huppim, and the sons of Ir, and Hushim, whose son was Aher. ¹³The sons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah. ¹⁴The sons of Manasseh; Ashriel, whom his Syrian concubine bare; and she bare unto him also Machir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵And Machir took a wife for Huppim and Shuppim, and his sister's name was Maachah; and the name of the second son was Zelophehad: and unto Zelophehad were born daughters. ¹⁶And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a son, and called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; his sons were Ulam, and Rakem. ¹⁷And the son of Ulam were Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸And his sister Hammoleketh bare Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. ¹⁹And the sons of Shemida were, Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam. ²⁰And the sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Sahath his son, ²¹and Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead: and the men of Gath who were born in the land slew them, because they went down to take their cattle. ²²And their father Ephraim mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. ²³And he went in to his wife, and she conceived, and bare a son, and he called his name Beriah, Because, said he, he was afflicted in mine house. ²⁴And his daughter was Sherah, and he was among them that were left, and he built Beth-horon the upper, and the nether. And the sons of Uzzen were, Sherah, ²⁵and Rephah his son, Resheph, and Telah his sons, Tahan his son. ²⁶Unto Laadan his son was born his son Ammihud, his son Elishama, his son ²⁷Non, his son Jehoshua: these were his sons. ²⁸And their possession and habitation were Bethel and the towns thereof, and eastward Naaran, westward Gezer and the towns thereof; Shechem also and the towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof. ²⁹And unto the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shean and the towns thereof, Taanach and the towns thereof, Megiddo and the towns thereof, Dor and the towns thereof. In this dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel. ³⁰The sons of Asher were Imnah, and Isuiag, and Ishuai, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. ³¹And the sons of Beriah were Heber, and Malchiel; he was the father of Birzavith. ³²And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister. ³³And the sons of Japhlet were Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath: these are the sons of Japhlet. ³⁴And the sons of Shamer were Ahi, and Rohgah, and Jehubbah, and Aram. ³⁵And the sons of Helem his brother were Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal. ³⁶The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, ³⁷and Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera. ³⁸And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. ³⁹And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel, and Rezia. ⁴⁰All these were the sons of Asher, all heads of families, choice and mighty men, chief leaders: their number for battle array, their number was twenty and six thousand men.

CHAPTER 8

Now Benjamin begat Bela his firstborn, and Ashbel his second, Aharah the third, Nohah the fourth, ²and Rapha the fifth. ³And the sons of Bela were, Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, ⁴and Abishuah, and Naaman, and Ahoah, ⁵and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram. ⁶These were the sons of Ehud: these are the heads of families unto them that dwell in Geba; and they sent them away to Manahath; ⁷and Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera, he removed them, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud. ⁸And Shaharaim begat children in the plain of Moab, after that he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives. ⁹And he begat of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham, ¹⁰and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma: these were heads of families. ¹¹And of Hushim he begat Abitubl, and Elpaal. ¹²And the sons of Elpaal; Eber, and Misham, and Shamed: he built Ono, and Lod, and the towns thereof: ¹³Beriah also, and Shema: these were the heads of families among the dwellers in Elam, and they drove out the inhabitants of of Gath. ¹⁴And his brethren were; Shashak, and Jeremoth, ¹⁵and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader, ¹⁶and Michael, and Isphah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah: ¹⁷and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, ¹⁸Ishmeri also, and Jezliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal: ¹⁹and Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, ²⁰and Eliensi, and Zilthai, ²¹and Eliel, and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons of Shimhi: ²²and Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel, ²³and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, ²⁴and Hananiah, and Amri, and Elam, and Antothijah, ²⁵and Jathin, and Jephadiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak: ²⁶and Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, ²⁷and Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, the son of Jeroham. ²⁸These were the heads of families, chiefs according to their generations: these dwelt in Jerusalem. ²⁹And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon; and his wife's name was Maachah. ³⁰And her firstborn son was Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, and Ner, ³¹and Gedor, and his brother, and Zechur, and Mikloth. ³²And Mikloth begat Shemeah: for these dwelt in Jerusalem in the presence of their brethren, with their brethren. ³³And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. ³⁴And the son of Jonathan was Meri-baal; and Meri-baal begat Michah. ³⁵And the sons of Michah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. ³⁶And Ahaz begat Jehodoah, and Jehodoah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri: and Zimri begat Moza; ³⁷and Moza begat Binea: Rapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. ³⁸And Azel had six sons, and their names are these, Azrikam his firstborn, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan, and Asah: all these were the sons of Azel. ³⁹And the sons of Azel his brother; Ulam his firstborn, and Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third. ⁴⁰And the sons of Ulam were mighty men, bending the bow, and multiplying sons and grandsons, an hundred and fifty. All these were the sons of Benjamin.

CHAPTER 9

And this is all Israel, their enrollment; and these are written down in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, with the names of them that were carried away to Babylon for their transgressions. ²And they that dwelt before in their possessions in the cities of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the appointed ones. ³And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh. ⁴And Uthai, and the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, son of the sons of Pharez, the son of Judah. ⁵And of the Shilonites; Asaiah his firstborn, and his sons. ⁶Of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety. ⁷And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah. ⁸And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah: these are the sons of Uzzi, the son of Michri: and Meshullam, the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah, ⁹and their brethren according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty six: all the men were the heads of families according to the houses of their fathers. ¹⁰And of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoharib, and Jachin, ¹¹and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; ¹²and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasiai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshilemith, the son of Immer; ¹³and their brethren, the heads of their families, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; mighty men for the ministration of the house of God. ¹⁴And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari. ¹⁵And Bakbakkar, and Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; ¹⁶and Obabdiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites. ¹⁷The doorkeepers were; Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren; Shallum was the chief; ¹⁸and he hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: these are the gates of the companies of the son of Levi. ¹⁹And Shallum, the son of Korah, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren pertaining to the house of his father; the Korahites were over the works of the service, keeping the watches of the tabernacle, and their fathers over the camp of the Lord, keeping the entry. ²⁰And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them before the Lord, and these were with him. ²¹Zechariah the son of Meshullam was the keeper of the door of the tabernacle of the testimony. ²²All the chosen porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve; these were in their courts, this was their distribution: these David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their charge. ²³And these and their sons were over the gates in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the tabernacle, to keep watch. ²⁴The gates were toward the four winds, eastward, westward, northward, and southward. ²⁵And their brethren were in their courts, to enter in every seven days from time to time with these. ²⁶For four strong men have the charge of the gates; and the Levites were over the chambers, and they keep watch over the treasures of the house of God. ²⁷For the charge was upon them; and these were over the keys, to open the doors of the temple every morning. ²⁸And of them had the charge of the vessels of service, that they should carry them in by number, and carry them out by number. ²⁹And some of them were appointed over the furniture, and over all the holy vessels, and over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰And some of the priests were makers of the ointment, and the spices. ³¹And Mattithiah of the Levites, (he was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite,) was set in charge over the works of the sacrifices of meat offering of the pan pertaining to the high priest. ³²And Banaiah the Kohathite, from among their brethren, was over the loaves of presentation, to prepare it every sabbath. ³³And these were the singers, the heads of families of the Levites, to whom were established daily courses, for they were employed in the services day and night. ³⁴These were the heads of the families of the Levites according to their generations; these dwelt in Jerusalem. ³⁵And Jehiel the father of Gibeon dwelt in Gibeon; and his wife's name was Maachah. ³⁶And his firstborn son was Abdon, and he had Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadad, ³⁷and Gedor and his brother, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸And Makeloth begat Shimeam: and these dwelt among their brethren in Jerusalem, even in the midst of their brethren. ³⁹And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. ⁴⁰And the son of Jonathan was Meribaal: and Meribaal begat Micah. ⁴¹And the sons of Michah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea. ⁴²And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza. ⁴³And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. ⁴⁴And Azel had six sons, and these were their names; Azrikam his firstborn, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan, and Asah: these were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER 10

Now the Philistines warred against Israel; and they fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul. ³And the battle prevailed against Saul, and the archers hit him with bows and arrows, and they were wounded of the bows. ⁴And Saul said to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and mock me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid: so Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. ⁵And his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, and he likewise fell upon his sword. ⁶So Saul died, and his three sons on the same day, and all his house died at the same time. ⁷And all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, and they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. ⁸And it came to pass on the morrow, that the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa. ⁹And they stripped him, and took his head, and his armour, and sent them into the land of the Philistines round about, to shew the glad tidings unto their idols, and to the people. ¹⁰And they put their armour in the house of their god, and put his head in the house of Dagon. ¹¹And all the dwellers in Gilead heard of all that the Philistines had done to Saul, and to Israel. ¹²And all the mighty men arose from Gilead, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. ¹³So Saul died for his transgressions wherein he transgressed against God, even against the word of the Lord, forasmuch as he kept it not; because Saul enquired of a wizard to seek counsel, and Samuel the prophet answered him; ¹⁴and he sought not the Lord: so he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER 11

And all Israel came to David in Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bones, and thy flesh. ²And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the Lord of Israel said unto thee, Thou shalt feed My people Israel, and thou shalt be for a ruler over Israel. ³And all the elders of Israel came to the king in Hebron; and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord; and they anointed David to be king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord by Samuel.

⁴And the king and his men went to Jerusalem, this is Jebus; and there the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, said unto David, ⁵Thou shalt not come in hither. But he took the strong hold of Zion: this is the city of David. ⁶And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief. ⁷And David dwelt in the strong hold; therefore he called it the city of David. ⁸And he built the city round about. ⁹And David continued to increase; and the Lord Almighty was with him.

¹⁰These also are the chiefs of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the Lord concerning Israel. ¹¹And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, the son of Hachmon, first of the thirty: he drew his sword once against three hundred slain, whom he slew at one time. ¹²And after him Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite: he was among the three mighty men. ¹³He was with David in Pasdammin, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, and there was a parcel of the field full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. ¹⁴And he stood in the midst of the parcel, and rescued it, and smote the Philistines; and the Lord wrought a great deliverance. ¹⁵And three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam; and the camp of the Philistines was in the giants' valley. ¹⁶And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁷And David longed, and said, Who will give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, that is in the gate? ¹⁸And the three brake through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well that was in Bethlehem, that was in the gate, and took it, and came to David: but David would not drink of it, and poured it out to the Lord, and said, ¹⁹God forbid that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men with their lives? for with their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men. ²⁰And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: he drew his sword against three hundred slain at one time, and he had a name among the second three. ²¹He was more honourable than the two others of the three, and was chief over them: howbeit he attained not to the first three. ²²And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was the son of a mighty man: many were his acts for Kabzeel; he smote two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and smote a lion in a pit in a snowy day. ²³And he smote an Egyptian, a wonderful man five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and Benaiah went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²⁴These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and his name was among the three mighties. ²⁵He was honourable beyond the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his family. ²⁶Also the mighty men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, ²⁷Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, ²⁸Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Antothite, ²⁹Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahonite, ³⁰Maharai the Netophathite, ³¹Ithai the son of Ribai of the hill of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, ³²Hurai of Nahali Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, ³³Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaabonite, ³⁴the son of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite, ³⁵Ahiam the son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Tiropah ³⁶the Mecherathrite, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, ³⁸Joel the son of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri, ³⁹Zelek the son of Ammoni, Nahari the Berothite, armourbearer to the son of Zeruiah. ⁴⁰Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, ⁴¹Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai. ⁴²Adina the son of Shiza, a chief of Reuben, and thirty with him, ⁴³Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother the Tizite, ⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah his son, Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel of Mesobia.

CHAPTER 12

And these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and these were among the mighty men, helping him in war, ²and bending the bow with the right hand and the left, and slingers with stones, and shooters with bows. Of the brethren of Saul of Benjamin, ³the chief was Ahiezar, and Joash the son of Shemaar the Giabeathite, and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berechah, and Jehu of Ananoth, ⁴and Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thrity, and over the thirty; ⁵and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad of Gederathite; ⁶Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, ⁷Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, and the Korahites, ⁸and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham, and the men of Gedor. ⁹And of Gad there separated themselves unto David from the wilderness, strong mighty men of array of war, bearing bucklers and spears; and their faces were as the face of a lion, and they were nimble in speed as the roes upon the mountain. ¹⁰Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹¹Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹²Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, ¹³Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹⁴Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh. ¹⁵These were the chiefs of the army of the sons of Gad, the least one commander of an hundred, and the greatest one of a thousand. ¹⁶These are they that crossed over Jordan in the first month, and it had overflown all his banks; and they drave out all the inhabitants of the valleys, from the east to the west. ¹⁷And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the help of David. ¹⁸And David went out to meet them, and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me, let mine heart be at peace with you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies unfaithfully, the God of your fathers look thereon, and reprove it. ¹⁹And the Spirit came upon Amasai, a captain of the thirty, and he said, Go, David, son of Jesse, thou and thy people: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers, for thy God hath helped thee. And David received them, and made them captains of the forces. ²⁰And there came some of Manasseh to David, when the Philistines came against Saul to war: and he helped them not: for the captains of the Philistines took counsel, saying, He will return to his master Saul with the heads of these men. ²¹When David went to Ziklag, there came to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediahel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai: these are the captains of thousand that were of Manasseh. ²¹And they fought on the side of David against a troop, for they were all men of might, and were commanders in the host, because of their might. ²³For daily there came men to David, until it was a great host, like the host of God. ²⁴And these are the names of the commanders of the army, which came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord. ²⁵The children of Judah that bare shield and spears were six thousand and eight hundred, mighty in war. ²⁶Of the children of Simeon, mighty for battle, seven thousand and one hundred. ²⁷Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

²⁸And Jehoiada was the chief of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred. ²⁹And Zadok, a young man mighty in strength, and of his father's house there were twenty and two captains. ³⁰And of the children of Benjamin, the brethren of Saul, three thousand: and still the greater part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. ³¹And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred mighty men, famous in the houses of their fathers. ³²And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, even them that were named by name, to make David king. ³³And of the children of Issachar, which had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, two hundred; and all their brethren with them. ³⁴And of Zebulun, such as went out to battle with all weapons of war, fifty thousand to help David; not weak handed. ³⁵And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shields and spears thirty and seven thousand. ³⁶And of the Danites ready for war twenty and eight thousand and eight hundred. ³⁷And of Asher, that set themselves in array for war, forty thousand. ³⁸And of the country beyond Jordan, of Reuben, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of weapons of war, an hundred and twenty thousand. ³⁹All these men of war, that set the army in battle array, with a peaceful soul; and they came to Hebron to make David king over all Israel: and the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king. ⁴⁰And there they were three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had made preparations. ⁴¹And they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought them on camels, and on asses, and on mules, and on calves, victuals, meal, cakes of figs, raisins, wine, and oil, and calves and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13

And David consulted with the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, even with every leader. ²And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and it be prospered by the Lord our God, let us send unto our brethren, that are left in all the land of Israel, and let the priests the Levites which are with them in the cities of their possession come, and let them be gathered unto us. ³And let us bring over to us the ark of our God: for men have not enquired at it since the days of Saul. ⁴And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the saying was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵So David gathered all Israel together, from the borders of Egypt even unto the entering in of Hamath, to bring in the ark of God from the city of Jearim. ⁶And David brought it up: and all Israel went up to the city of David, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of the Lord God, that sitteth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it. ⁷And they set the ark of God on a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and his brethren drave the cart. ⁸And David and all Israel played before the Lord with all their might, and together with singers, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. ⁹And they came unto the threshingfloor; and Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark, for the bullock moved it from the place thereof. ¹⁰And the Lord was very angry with Uzza, and He smote him there, because of his stretching forth his hand to the ark: and there he died before God. ¹¹And David was despondent, because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzza: and he called that place the Breach of Uzza to this day. ¹²And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God in to me? ¹³So David brought not the ark home to himself into the city of David, but turned it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴And the ark of God abode in the house of Obed-edom three months: and God blessed Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 14

Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, and masons and carpenters, to build him an house. ²And David perceived that the Lord had prepared him to be king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

³And David took more wives in Jerusalem: and there were born to David more sons and daughters. ⁴And these are the names of them that were born, which were born to him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, ⁵and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, ⁶and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ⁷and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

⁸And the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out to meet them. ⁹And the Philistines came and gathered together in the giants' valley. ¹⁰And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt Thou deliver them into mine hand? ¹¹And he went up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there: and David said, God hath broken through mine enemies by mine hand like a breach of water: therefore he called the name of that place the Breach of Perazim. ¹²And the Philistines left their gods there; and David gave commandment to burn them with fire. ¹³And the Philistines yet again gathered themselves together in the giants' valley. ¹⁴And David enquired of God again; and God said unto him, Thou shalt not go after them; turn away from them, and thou shalt come upon them over against the pear trees. ¹⁵And it shall be, when thou shalt hear the sound of their tumult in the tops of the pear trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines. ¹⁶And he did as God commanded him: and he smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. ¹⁷And the name of David was in all the land; and the Lord brought the fear of him upon all the nations.

CHAPTER 15

And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and made a tent for it. ²Then David said, It is not lawful for any to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto Him for ever. ³And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto the place which he had prepared for it. ⁴And David assembled the children of Aaron the Levites. ⁵Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty. ⁶Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty. ⁷Of the sons of Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty. ⁸Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred. ⁹Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore. ¹⁰Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve. ¹¹And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, and Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹²and said unto them, Ye are the heads of the families of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren; and ye shall carry up the ark of the God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it. ¹³For because ye were not ready at the first, our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought Him not according to the ordinance. ¹⁴So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the God of Israel. ¹⁵And the children of the Levites took the ark of God upon their shoulders with staves, as Moses commanded by the word of God according to the scriptures. ¹⁶And David said to the chiefs of the Levites, Appoint your brethren the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, to sound aloud with a voice of joy. ¹⁷So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; one of his brethren, Asaph the son of Bereachiah; and one of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; ¹⁸and with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, and Uzziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Oziah, the porters. ¹⁹And the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, to make a sound to be heard, with cymbals of brass; ²⁰Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, Benaiah, with psalteries according to Alamoth. ²¹And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps of Sheminith, to make a loud noise. ²²And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was the master of the songs, because he was skilful. ²³And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers of the ark. ²⁴And Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nathanael, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers of the ark of God. ²⁵So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains of thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. ²⁶And it came to pass, when God strengthened the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they sacrificed at the rate of seven calves and seven rams. ²⁷And David was girt with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the songs of singers: also upon David there was a robe of fine linen. ²⁸And all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of an horn, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, playing loudly upon psalteries and harps. ²⁹And the ark of the covenant arrived, and came to the city of David; and Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through a window, and saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16

And they brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and they offered whole burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ²And David made an end of offering whole burnt offerings and peace offerings, and blessed the people in the name of the Lord. ³And he divided to every one of Israel, both men and women, to every one a baker's loaf, and a cake. ⁴And he appointed Levites before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to minister and lift up the voice, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel: ⁵Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Matthithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel sounding with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps, and Asaph with cymbals; ⁶Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of the Lord in that day. ⁷On that day at that time David first gave commandment to praise the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

⁸ODE. Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon Him by His name, make known His deeds among the people. ⁹Sing unto Him, and sing hymns to Him, tell ye to all people of His wondrous works, which the Lord hath done. ¹⁰Praise ye His holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek His pleasure. ¹¹Seek the Lord, and be strengthened; seek His face continually. ¹²Remember His marvellous works that He hath done, His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth; ¹³O ye seed of Israel His servants, ye seed of Jacob, His chosen ones. ¹⁴He is the Lord our God; His judgments are in all the earth. ¹⁵Let us be mindful for ever of His covenant; His word which He commanded to a thousand generations; ¹⁶which He covenanted with Abraham, and His oath unto Isaac. ¹⁷He hath confirmed the same to Jacob for an ordinance, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the line of your inheritance; ¹⁹when they were but few in number, when they were but little, and dwelt as strangers in it; ²⁰and went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people. ²¹He suffered no man to oppress them, yea, He reprov'd kings for their sake, ²²saying, Touch not Mine anointed, and deal not wrongfully with My prophets. ²³Sing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day His salvation. ²⁴Declare His glory among the heathen, His marvellous works among all peoples. ²⁵For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: He is to be feared above all gods. ²⁶For all the gods of the nations are idols: but our God made the heavens. ²⁷Glory and praise are in His presence; strength and rejoicing are in His place. ²⁸Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples, give unto the Lord glory and strength. ²⁹Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name: take gifts, and offer them before Him; and worship the Lord in His holy courts. ³⁰Let all the earth fear before Him: let the earth be stablished, and not be moved. ³¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth exult; and let them say among the nations, The Lord reigneth. ³²The sea shall resound, and the fulness thereof: the trees of the field also, and all things that are therein. ³³Then shall the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord, for He is come to judge the earth. ³⁴O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good; for His mercy endureth for ever. ³⁵And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and rescue us from among the heathen, that we may praise Thy holy name, and glory in Thy praises. ³⁶Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people shall say, Amen. So they praised the Lord.

³⁷And they left there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, according to the service of each day, from day to day. ³⁸And Obed-edom and his brethren were threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers. ³⁹And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the Lord in the high place that was in Gibeon, ⁴⁰to offer whole burnt offerings unto the Lord upon the altar of whole burnt offerings continually morning and evening, and according to all things that are written in the law of the Lord, which He commanded the sons of Israel by the hand of Moses the servant of God. ⁴¹And with him were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen out by name to praise the Lord, because His mercy endureth for ever. ⁴²And with them were trumpets and cymbals to sound aloud, and instruments of musick for the songs of God: and the sons of Jeduthun were at the gate. ⁴³And all the people went every one to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER 17

And it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord is under curtains of skins. ²And Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee. ³And it came to pass in that night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴Go and say to David My servant, ⁵Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build Me an house for Me to dwell in: ⁶for I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have been in a tabernacle and a tent, ⁷in all places whither I have gone with all Israel: spake I ever to one tribe of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying, Why is it that ye have not built Me an house of cedar? ⁸And now thus shalt thou say unto My servant David,

Thus saith the Lord Almighty, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the flocks, to be a ruler over My people Israel: ⁸and I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and I destroyed all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name according to the name of the great ones that are in the earth. ⁹And I will ordain a place for My people Israel, and will plant him, and he shall dwell by himself, and shall be disquieted no more; neither shall the son of wickedness afflict him any more, as at the beginning, ¹⁰and since the days that I appointed judges over My people Israel. Moreover I have humbled all thine enemies, and I will increase thee, and the Lord will build thee an house. ¹¹And it shall come to pass, when thy days shall be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy bowels; and I will establish his kingdom. ¹²He shall build Me an house, and I will set up his throne for ever. ¹³I will be to him a father, and he shall be to Me a son: and I will not take away My mercy from him, as I took it away from them that were before thee. ¹⁴And I will establish him in Mine house and in his kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be set up for evermore. ¹⁵According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David. ¹⁶And king David came and sat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that Thou hast loved me for ever? ¹⁷And these were small things in Thine eyes, O God; Thou hast also spoken of Thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me as a man regardeth his fellow, and hast exalted me, O Lord God. ¹⁸What shall David do more to Thee to glorify Thee? and Thou knowest Thy servant. ¹⁹And according to Thine own heart, hast Thou hast done all this greatness. ²⁰O Lord, there is none like Thee, and there is no God beside Thee, according to all things that we have heard with our ears. ²¹Neither is there another nation in the earth like Thy people Israel, seeing God led him in the way, to redeem a people for Himself, to make Him a great and glorious name, to cast out nations from before Thy people, whom Thou redeemedst out of Egypt. ²²And Thy people hast Thou ordained as a people unto Thee for ever; and Thou, O Lord, becamest unto them their God. ²³And now, Lord, let the thing that Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do Thou as Thou hast spoken. ²⁴And let Thy name be established and magnified for ever, saying, Lord, Lord, Almighty God of Israel; and let the house of David Thy servant be established before Thee. ²⁵For Thou, O Lord my God, hast revealed unto the ear of Thy servant that Thou wilt build him an house: therefore Thy servant hath found it in his heart to pray before Thee. ²⁶And now, Lord, Thou Thyself art God, and Thou hast spoken these good things concerning Thy servant. ²⁷And now Thou hast begun to bless the house of Thy servant, that it be before Thee for ever: for Thou, Lord, hast blessed it; and do Thou bless it for ever.

CHAPTER 18

And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and routed them, and took Gath and her villages out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and tributary. ³And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah of Hamath, as he went to establish power toward the river Euphrates. ⁴And David took from them a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but there were reserved of them an hundred chariots. ⁵And the Syrian came from Damascus to help Haderezer king of Zobah; and David smote of the Syrian two and twenty thousand men. ⁶And David put a garrison in Syria near Damascus; and they became tributary servants unto David: and the Lord delivered David withersoever he went. ⁷And David took the golden collars that were on the servants of Haderezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸And out of Tibhath, and out of the chief cities of Haderezer, took David very much brass: of this Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. ⁹And Tou king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Haderezer king of Zobah; ¹⁰and he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Haderezer, and smitten him; for Tou was the enemy of Haderezer. ¹¹And all the vessels of gold and silver and brass, even these king David consecrated unto the Lord, with the silver and gold that he took from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. ¹²And Abishai the son of Zeruiah smote Edom in the valley of salt eighteen thousand. ¹³And he put garrisons in the valley; and all the Edomites became David's servants: and the Lord delivered David whithersoever he went. ¹⁴So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice unto all his people. ¹⁵And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder. ¹⁶And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe; ¹⁷and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethite and the Pelethite; and the sons of David were the chief deputies of the king.

CHAPTER 19

And it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. ²And David said, I will deal kindly toward Hanan the son of Nahash, as his father dealt kindly toward me. And David sent messengers to comfort Hanan concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of children of Ammon to Hanan, to comfort him. ³And the princes of children of Ammon said unto Hanan, Is it to honour thy father before thee, that David hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search the city, and to spy out the land? ⁴Moreover Hanan took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off the half of their garments hard by their tunic, and sent them away. ⁵And there came men to report to David concerning the men: and he sent to meet them, for they were greatly disgraced: and the king said, Dwell in Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. ⁶And the children of Ammon saw that the people of David were ashamed; and Hanan and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Syria of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria Maachah, and out of Zobah. ⁷And they hired them thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; and they came and pitched before Medaba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to fight. ⁸And David heard, and sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. ⁹And the children of Ammon came forth, and set themselves in array for battle by the gate of the city: and the kings that were come forth pitched by themselves in the field. ¹⁰And Joab saw that they were fronting him, to fight against him before and behind, and he chose out of all the young men of Israel, and they set themselves in array against the Syrians. ¹¹And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon. ¹²And he said, If the Syrian prevail against me, then shalt thou deliver me: but if the children of Ammon prevail against thee, then will I deliver thee. ¹³Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the Lord shall do what is good in His sight. ¹⁴So Joab and the people that were with him set themselves in battle array against the Syrians; and they fled from them. ¹⁵And the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they also fled from before Abishai, and from before Joab his brother, and they came to the city; and Joab came to Jerusalem. ¹⁶And the Syrian saw that Israel had defeated him, and sent messengers, and they drew forth the Syrians from beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the hosts of Haderezer was before them. ¹⁷And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So David put the battle in array to fight against the Syrians; and they fought against him. ¹⁸And the Syrians fled from before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the hosts. ¹⁹And the servants of Haderezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, and they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 20

And it came to pass at the return of the year, at the time of the going forth of kings to war, that Joab gathered together the whole power of the army, and they wasted the land of the children of Ammon; and he came and besieged Rabbah. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it. But David abode in Jerusalem. ²And David took the crown of Molchol their king from off his head; and the weight thereof was found to be a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought out the spoils of the city, exceeding great. ³And he brought out the people that were in it, and sawed them asunder with saws, and with axes of iron, and with harrows: and even so dealt David with all the children of Ammon. And David and all his people returned to Jerusalem. ⁴And it came to pass after this, that there was war again with the Philistines in Gezer: then Sibbechai the Hushathite smote Sippai, that was of the children of the giants, and laid him low. ⁵And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair smote Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite; and the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam. ⁶And there was war again in Gath, and there was a man of great stature; and his fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he was of the seed of the giants. ⁷And he defied Israel, and Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him. ⁸These were born unto Raphah in Gath; all four were giants, and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21

And the devil stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. ²And king David said to Joab and to the captains of the hosts, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring me the number, and I shall know their number of them. ³And Joab said, The Lord add unto His people an hundredfold so many as they be, and let the eyes of my lord the king see it: all are my lord's servants. Why doth my lord seek this thing? lest it become a sin to Israel. ⁴Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab: and Joab went out, and passed throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. ⁵And Joab gave the number of the mustering of the people unto David: and all Israel was a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. ⁶But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was painful to Joab. ⁷And it appeared evil in the sight of the Lord in respect of this thing; and He smote Israel. ⁸And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, I beseech Thee, remove the sin of Thy servant; for I have been exceeding foolish. ⁹And the Lord spake unto Gad the seer, saying, ¹⁰Go and speak unto David, saying, Thus saith the Lord: I do bring three things upon thee: choose thee one of them, and I will do it unto thee. ¹¹And Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Choose thee ¹²either three years' famine; or that thou flee three months from the face of thine enemies, and the sword of thine enemies be employed to destroy thee; or else three days the sword of the Lord and pestilence be in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying in all the inheritance of Israel. And now consider what word I shall answer to Him that me. ¹³And David said unto Gad, They are very strait for me, even all the three: let me now fall into the hands of the Lord; for very abundant are

His mercies: but let me not by any means fall into the hands of man. ¹⁴So the Lord brought pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. ¹⁵And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and He repented Him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, Let it suffice thee, stay thine hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord standing between the earth and the heaven, and his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem: and David and the elders, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. ¹⁷And David said unto God, Was it not I that gave commandment to number the people? and I am the guilty one; I have greatly sinned: but these sheep, what have they done? Let Thine hand, O Lord God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on Thy people for destruction, O Lord. ¹⁸And the angel of the Lord told Gad to tell David, that he should go up to set up an altar unto the Lord in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹And David went up according to the word of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lord. ²⁰And Ornan turned, and saw the king; and he hid himself, and his four sons with him. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. ²¹And David came to Ornan; and Ornan came forth from the threshingfloor, and did obeisance to David with his face to the ground. ²²And David said to Ornan, Give me thy place of the threshingfloor, and I will build an altar therein unto the Lord: give it me for the worth thereof in money; and the plague shall cease from among the people. ²³And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do what is right in his eyes: see, I have given the calves for an whole burnt offering, and the plough for wood, and the corn for a meat offering; I have given all. ²⁴And king David said to Ornan, Nay; for I will verily buy it for the worth thereof in money: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, to offer an whole burnt offering unto the Lord without cost. ²⁵And David gave to Ornan for his place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. ²⁶And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered up whole burnt offerings and peace offerings, and cried unto the Lord; and He answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of whole burnt offerings: and it consumed the whole burnt offering. ²⁷And the Lord spake unto the angel; and he put up the sword into the sheath thereof. ²⁸At that time when David saw that the Lord had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, he also sacrificed there. ²⁹And the tabernacle of the Lord, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of whole burnt offerings, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰And David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he hasted from before the face of the sword of the angel of the Lord.

CHAPTER 22

And David said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of whole burnt offering for Israel. ²And David commanded to gather together all the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew hewn stones to build the house of God. ³And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors, and of the gates, and for the hinges, and brass in abundance; there was no weighing of it: ⁴also cedar trees without number: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David. ⁵And David said, Solomon my son is a tender child, and the house for me to build unto the Lord must be unto lofty magnificence for a name and a glory throughout all the earth; I will make preparation for it. And David made abundant preparation before his death. ⁶And he called Solomon his son, and charged him to build the house for the Lord God of Israel. ⁷And David said to Solomon, Child, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the Lord God. ⁸But the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast carried on great wars: Thou shalt not build an house unto My name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in My sight. ⁹Behold, a son is born to thee; he shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. ¹⁰He shall build an house to My name; and he shall be a son to Me, and I will be a father unto him; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom in Israel for ever. ¹¹And now, my son, the Lord shall be with thee, and prosper thee; and thou shalt build an house unto the Lord thy God, as He spake concerning thee. ¹²Only the Lord give thee wisdom and prudence, and strengthen thee over Israel, both to keep and to do the law of the Lord thy God. ¹³Then shall He prosper thee, if thou take heed to do the commandments and judgments which the Lord commanded Moses for Israel: be of good courage, and strong; fear not, nor be dismayed. ¹⁴And, behold, according to my poverty I have prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without measure; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and do thou add thereto. ¹⁵And with thee do thou add to the multitude of workmen; artificers, and masons, and carpenters, and every cunning man in every work: ¹⁶in gold, and silver, and brass, and iron, there is no number. Arise, and be doing, and the Lord be with thee. ¹⁷And David commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, Is not the Lord with you? and He hath given you rest round about, for He hath given the inhabitants of the land into your hands; and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before His people. ¹⁹Now give your hearts and your souls to seek the Lord your God; and arise, and build ye a sanctuary to your God, to carry in the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 23

And David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel in his stead. ²And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites. ³And the Levites numbered themselves from thirty years old and upward: and their number by their polls amounted to thirty and eight thousand men. ⁴Of the overseers over the works of the house of the Lord were twenty and four thousand; and six thousand were scribes and judges; ⁵and four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand to praise the Lord with instruments which he made to praise the Lord. ⁶And David divided them into daily courses by the sons of Levi, by Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ⁷And by Gershon, Edan, and Shimei. ⁸The sons of Edan were Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three. ⁹The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, Haziel, and Dan, three: these were the chiefs of the families of Edan. ¹⁰And to the sons of Shimei; Jahath, and Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah: these were the four sons of Shimei. ¹¹And Jahath was the chief, and Zina the second: but Jeush and Beriah multiplied not sons, and they became one reckoning, according to their father's house. ¹²The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, Uzziel, four. ¹³The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was appointed for the sanctification of the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the Lord, to minister and bless in His name for ever. ¹⁴And concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were reckoned unto the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵The sons of Moses; Gershom, and Eliezer. ¹⁶The sons of Gershom; Shebuel the chief. ¹⁷And the sons of Eliezer were; Rebahiah the chief: and Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rebahiah were very greatly multiplied. ¹⁸The sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief. ¹⁹The sons of Hebron; Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰The sons of Uzziel; Michah the chief, and Jesiah the second. ²¹The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi: the sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish. ²²And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them. ²³The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. ²⁴These are the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chiefs of their families according to their numbering, according to the number of their names, according to their polls, that did the works of service of the house of the Lord, from twenty years old and upward. ²⁵For David said, The Lord God of Israel hath given unto His people, and hath taken up His abode in Jerusalem for ever. ²⁶And the Levites bare not the tabernacle, and all the vessels of it for the service thereof. ²⁷For by the last words of David the number of the Levites was taken from twenty years old and above. ²⁸For he appointed them to wait on the sons of Aaron, to minister in the house of the Lord, over the courts, and over the chambers, and over the purifying of all the holy things, and over the works of the service of the house of God; ²⁹and for the bread of proposition, and for the fine flour of the meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the frying pan, and for the dough, and for every measure; ³⁰and to stand in the morning praise and give thanks unto the Lord, and likewise at even; ³¹and to be over all the whole burnt offerings that were offered up unto the Lord on the sabbaths, and at the new moons, and at the feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the Lord. ³²And they are to keep the charge of the holy place, and the charges of the sons of Aaron their brethren, to minister in the house of the Lord.

CHAPTER 24

And the sons of Aaron in their division: Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no sons: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar the sons of Aaron ministered as priests. ³And David distributed them, even Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their numbering, according to their service, according to the houses of their fathers. ⁴And there were more chief men of the mighty ones found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar: ⁵and he divided them according to their lots, one with the other: for there were those which had charge of the holy things, and those which had charge of the house of the Lord among the sons of Eleazar, and among the sons of Ithamar. ⁶And Shemaiah the son of Nathanael the scribe, of the tribe of Levi, wrote them down before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar: and the heads of the families of the priests and the Levites, each of an house, were assigned one to Eleazar, and one to Ithamar. ⁷And the first lot came out to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, ⁸the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, ¹⁰the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, ¹¹the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shechaniah, ¹²the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, ¹⁴the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses, ¹⁶the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, ¹⁷the one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, ¹⁸the three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. ¹⁹This is the numbering of them according to their service, to go into the house of the Lord, according to their appointment by the hand of Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

²⁰And for the sons of Levi that were left, even for the sons of Amram; Shubael: for the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. ²¹For Rehabiah, the chief was Isshiah, ²²and for Izhari, Shelomoth: for the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath. ²³The sons of Jeriah; Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. ²⁴For the sons of Uzziel; Michah: the sons of Michah; Shamir. ²⁵The brother of Michah was Ishiah: the son of Ishiah was Zechariah. ²⁶The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah, ²⁷*the sons of* Merari by Jaaziah; his sons were Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸Unto Mahli were born Eleazar, and Ithamar; and Eleazar died, and had no sons. ²⁹For Kish: the son of Kish was Jerameel. ³⁰And the sons of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to the houses of their families. ³¹And they also received lots as their brethren the sons of Aaron before the king; Zadok also, and Ahimelech, and the chiefs of the families of the priests, and of the Levites, principal heads of families, even as their younger brethren.

CHAPTER 25

And king David and the captains of the host appointed to their services the sons of Asaph, and the sons of Hman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, and psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of them was according to their polls serving in their ministrations: ²the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Azarelah: the sons of Asaph were next the king. ³To Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, and Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six after their father Jeduthun, who sounded loudly upon the harp thanksgiving and praise unto the Lord. ⁴To Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, and Mattaniah, and Uzziel, and Shebuel, and Jerimoth, and Hananiah, and Hanani, and Eliathah, and Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, and Joshbekashah, and Mallothi, and Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵All these were in the sons of Heman the king's chief player in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. ⁶All these sang hymns with their father in the house of God, with cymbals, psalteries, and herps, for the service of the house of God, near to the king, and Asaph, and Jeduthun, and Heman. ⁷And the number of them after their brethren, that were instructed to sing to God, even all that were instructed in singing, was two hundred fourscore and eight. ⁸And they also cast lots for the daily courses, for the great and the small, of them that were perfedct, and them that learned. ⁹And the first lot of his sons and brethren came forth for Asaph the son of Joseph, namely Gedaliah: the second Iniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁰the third Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹¹the fourth Jizri, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹²the fifth Nathan, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹³the sixth Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁴the seventh Jesharelah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁵the eighth Jeshariah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁶the ninth Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁷the tenth Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁸the eleventh Azarel, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ¹⁹the twelfth Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁰the thirteenth Shubael, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²¹the fourteenth Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²²the fifteenth Jeremoth, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²³the sixteenth Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁴the seventeenth Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁵the eighteenth Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁶the nineteenth Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁷the twentieth Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁸the one and twentieth Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ²⁹the two and twentieth Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve: the three and twentieth Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve: ³⁰the four and twentieth Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

CHAPTER 26

And concerning the divisions of the gates: the sons of the Korahites were Meshelemiah, of the sons of Asaph. ²And the firstborn son of Meshelemiah was Zechariah, the second Jedaiel, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh, Obed-edom the eighth. ⁴And unto Obed-edom there were born sons, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed him. ⁶And unto Shemaiah his son were born the sons of his firstborn, rulers over the house of their father; for they were mighty. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, and Elzabad, and Achihud, mighty sons; Elihu, and Semachiah, and Izhar-edom. ⁸All these were of the sons of Obed-edom; they, and their sons, and their brethren, which did mightily in service: in all threescore and two. ⁹And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, mighty men, eighteen. ¹⁰Also to Hosah of the sons of Merari there were born sons, which kept the dominion; though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief of the second division. ¹¹Hilkiah the second, and Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth: all these were the sons and brethren of Hosah, thirteen. ¹²Unto these were assigned the divisions of the gates, unto the chiefs of the mighty men the daily courses, even their brethren, to minister in the house of the Lord. ¹³And they cast lots as well for the small as the great, according to the families of their fathers for the several gates. ¹⁴And the lot of the east gate fell out to Shelemiah, and Zechariah: the sons of Joash cast lots for Melchiah; and the lot came out northward. ¹⁵To Obed-edom the south, over against the house of Assupim. ¹⁶For the second unto Hosah westward, after the gate of the chamber by the going up, ward against ward. ¹⁷Eastward were six watchmen in the day, northward four by the day, southward four by the day, and at the Assupim two ¹⁸to relieve the guard; also for Hosah westward after the chamber gate, three. There was a ward over against the ward of the going up eastward, six men in a day; and four for the north, and four for the south: and at the Assupim two to relieve guard at the causeway. ¹⁹These are the divisions of the porters for the sons of Korah, and for the sons of Merari.

²⁰And the Levites their brethren were over the treasures of the house of the Lord, and over the treasures of the hallowed things. ²¹These were the sons of Laadan, the sons of the Gershonite: unto Laadan pertained the heads of the families: the son of Laadan the Gershonite was Jehieli. ²²The sons of Jehieli were Zetham, and Joel, brethren which were over the treasures of the house of the Lord. ²³To Amram and Izhar pertained Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁴And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was over the treasures. ²⁵And Rehabiah was son to his brother Eliezer; and likewise Jeshiah, and Joram, and Zichri, and Shelomith. ²⁶This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the sacred treasures, which David the king, and the heads of families, had consecrated, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the princes of the hosts; ²⁷even the things which he took out of cities, and out of the spoils, and did consecrate some of them, that the building of the house of the Lord should not want; ²⁸and over all the holy things of God dedicated by Samuel the prophet, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah: whatsoever they sanctified was by the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

²⁹For the Izharite, Chenaniah and his sons were over the outward ministration over Israel, to record, and to judge. ³⁰For the Hebronite, Hashabiah and his brethren, a thousand and seven hundred mighty men, were over the charge of Israel beyond Jordan westward for all the service of the Lord, and the work of the king. ³¹Of Hebron Jerijah was chief, even of the Hebronites according to their generations, according to their families. In the fortieth year of his reign were they numbered; and there were found mighty men among them in Jazer of Gilead. ³²And his brethren were two thousand and seven hundred mighty men, chiefs of their families: and king David set them over the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every ordinance of the Lord, and word of the king.

CHAPTER 27

Now the sons of Israel after their number, to wit, the heads of families, the captains of thousands and hundreds, and the scribes that ministered unto the king, and for every matter of the king, according to their divisions, for every ordinance of coming in and going out monthly, for all the months of the year: one division of them was twenty and four thousand. ²And over the first division of the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: in his division were twenty and four thousand. ³Of the sons of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. ⁴And over the division of the second month was Mikloth also chief; and in his division twenty and four thousand, chief men of the host. ⁵The third captain for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the chief priest: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ⁶This Benaiah was mighty above the thirty, and over the thirty: and over his division was Amminazabad his son. ⁷The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son, and his brethren: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ⁸The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ⁹The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁰The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez of Pelon of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹¹The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, pertaining to Zarhai: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹²The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer of Anathoth, of the land of Benjamin: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹³The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, pertaining to Zarhai: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁴The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah of Pirathon, of the sons of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty and four thousand. ¹⁵The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, pertaining to Othoniel: and in his division were twenty and four thousand.

¹⁶And over the tribes of Israel: the ruler for Reuben was Eliezer the son of Zichri: for Simeon, Shephatiah the son of Maachah: ¹⁷for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: for Aaron, Zadok: ¹⁸for Judah, Elihu of the brethren of David: for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: ¹⁹for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: for Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel: ²⁰for Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: for the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah: ²¹for the half tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead, Jadai the son of Zadaias: for the sons of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner: ²²for Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham: these are the princes of the tribes of Israel. ²³But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said that He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven. ²⁴And Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number the people, but he finished not the work; neither was the number recorded in the book of the chronicles of king David.

²⁵And over the king's treasures was Asmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the country, and in the towns, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah. ²⁶And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub. ²⁷And over the fields was Shimei of Ramatha: and over the storehouses of wine in the fields was Zabdi the son of Shiphmi. ²⁸And over the oliveyards, and over the sycamore trees that were in the plain country was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash. ²⁹And over the oxen that pastured in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the oxen in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai. ³⁰Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah of Meronthon. ³¹And over the sheep was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were rulers of the substance which was king David's. ³²Also Jonathan David's uncle by the father's side was a counsellor, a wise man: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. ³³Ahitophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai was the king's chief companion. ³⁴And after this Ahithophel Jehoiada the son of Benaiah came next, and Abiathar: and the chief general of the king was Joab.

CHAPTER 28

And David assembled all the chief men of Israel, the chief of the judges, and all the chief men of the courses of attendance on the person of the king, and the captains of thousands and hundreds, and the treasurers, and the lords of his substance, and of his sons, together with the eunuchs, and the mighty men, and the men of war of the army, at Jerusalem. ²And David stood in the midst of the assembly, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: it was in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and a footstool for for our Lord, and had made ready for the building: ³but God said, Thou shalt not build Me an house, to call My name upon it, for thou art a man of war, and hast shed blood. ⁴Howbeit the Lord God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: and He chose Judah to be the kingly house; and out of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father He preferred me, that I should be king over all Israel. ⁵And of all my sons, (for the Lord hath given me many sons,) He hath chosen Solomon my son to set him upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel. ⁶And God said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build My house and My court: for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be unto him a father. ⁷And I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he continue to keep My commandments, and My judgments, as at this day. ⁸And now in the sight of all the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord our God, that ye may inherit the good land, and leave it for your children to inherit after you for ever. ⁹And now, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy fathers, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing soul: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth every thought: but if thou seek Him, He will be found of thee; but if thou forsake Him, He will forsake thee for ever. ¹⁰See now; for the Lord hath chosen thee to build Him an house for a sanctuary: be strong, and do it. ¹¹And David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the temple, and of the buildings thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner storerooms thereof, and of the house of the atonement; ¹²and the pattern which he had in his mind of the courts of the house of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the holy things: also of the chambers of resting; ¹³also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and of the stores of vessels for ministration of the service of the house of the Lord. ¹⁴And he gave him the account of the weight of them, both of gold and silver. ¹⁵He gave him the weight of the candlesticks, and of the lamps. ¹⁶Likewise he gave him the weight of the tables of loaves of presentation, of each table of gold, and likewise of silver: ¹⁷also of the fleshhooks and vessels for drink offering, and golden bowls: and the weight of the gold and silver articles, and of censers, and of bowls, according to the weight of each. ¹⁸And he shewed him the weight of the altar of incense, of refined gold, and the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the Lord. ¹⁹David gave all unto Solomon in the Lord's hand, according unto the understanding given him of the work of the pattern. ²⁰And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be thou terrified: for the Lord my God is with thee; He will not forsake thee, nor fail thee, until thou hast finished all the work of the service of the house of the Lord. And, behold, the pattern of the temple, even His house, and treasury thereof, and the upper chambers, and the inner storerooms, and the house of propitiation, and the pattern of the house of the Lord. ²¹And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even for all the service of the house of the Lord: and there shall be with thee men for all manner of workmanship, and every man of ready skill in every manner of art: also the princes and all the people for all thy commandments.

CHAPTER 29

And David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom the Lord hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for it is not for man, but for the Lord God. ²I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God gold, silver, brass, iron, wood, onyx stones, and costly and varigated stones to be set, and all manner of precious stones, and much Parian marble. ³And still farther, because I took pleasure in the house of my God, I have gold and silver which I procured me; and, behold, I have given them to the house of my God over and above, beyond what I have prepared for the holy house. ⁴Three thousand talents of gold of Souphir, and seven thousand talents of fine silver, for the overlaying of the wall of the sanctuary withal: ⁵the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for every work by the hand of the artificers. And who is willing to fill his hands in work this day for the Lord? ⁶Then the heads of the families, and princes of the sons of Israel, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the overseers of the king's work, offered willingly. ⁷And they gave for the service of the house of the Lord of gold five thousand talents, and ten thousand pieces of gold, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. ⁸And they which had precious stone gave it into the treasuries of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Jeiel the Gershonite. ⁹And the people rejoiced, because of their willingness, for with a full heart they offered willingly to the Lord: and king David rejoiced greatly. ¹⁰And king David blessed the Lord before the congregation, saying, Blessed be Thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, from everlasting and unto everlasting. ¹¹Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the might: for of all things that are in heaven and upon the earth Thou art Lord: before Thy face every king and nation is troubled. ¹²Both riches and glory come of Thee: Thou, Lord, rulest over all, the Lord of all dominion; and in Thine hand are strength and rule; and with Thine hand Thou art Almighty, to increase and establish all things. ¹³And now, Lord, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious name. ¹⁴But who am I, and what is my people, that we have been able to be thus forward unto Thee? for all things are Thine, and of Thine own have we given Thee; ¹⁵for we are strangers before Thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. ¹⁶O Lord our God, as for all this adundance which I have prepared, that an house should be built unto Thy holy name, it came of Thine hand, and all is Thine. ¹⁷I know also, Lord, that thou art He that searcheth the hearts; and Thou lovest righteousness. As for me, in simplicity of heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy Thy people here present, offering willingly unto Thee. ¹⁸O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, preserve these things in the thought of the heart of Thy people for ever, and order their hearts unto Thee. ¹⁹And give unto Solomon my son a good heart, to perform thy commandments, and Thy testimonies, and Thine ordinances, and to accomplish the preparation of Thine house. ²⁰And David said to all the congregation, Bless ye the Lord our God. And all the congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed the knee, and worshipped the Lord, and the king. ²¹And David sacrificed unto the Lord, and offered whole burnt offerings unto the Lord, on the morrow after the first day, even a thousand calves, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, and their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²And they did eat and drink joyfully before the Lord on that day: and they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him king before the Lord, and Zadok unto the priesthood. ²³And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and was honoured exceedingly; and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴The princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons of king David his father, were subject unto him. ²⁵And the Lord magnified Solomon over all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal glory as had not been on any king before him. ²⁶And David the son of Jesse reigned over Israel forty years; ²⁷seven years in Hebron, and thirty and three years in Jerusalem. ²⁸And he died in a good old age, full of days, in riches, and glory: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. ²⁹And the rest of the acts of David, the former and the latter, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, ³⁰with all his reign and his power, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the earth.

2 PARALEIPOMENON

CHAPTER 1

And Solomon the son of David was established over his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. ²Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands, to the captains of hundreds, and to the judges, and to all the rulers before Israel, even the chiefs of the families: ³and Solomon and all the congregation went to the high place that was in Gibeon, where was the tabernacle of the testimony of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness. ⁴But the ark of God had David brought up from the city of Kirjath-jearim; for David had prepared a place for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ⁵Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation inquired at it. ⁶And Solomon brought thither to the brasen altar, which was before the Lord in the tabernacle, and offered a thousand whole burnt offerings upon it. ⁷In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. ⁸And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast dealt exceeding mercifully with my father David, and hast made me king in his stead. ⁹And now, O Lord God, let Thy name be established upon David my father, for Thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in number. ¹⁰Give me now wisdom and understanding, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this Thy great people? ¹¹And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked great riches, nor glory, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and understanding for thyself, that thou mayest judge My people, over whom I have made thee king: ¹²this wisdom and understanding will I give thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and glory, that there shall not have been any like unto thee among the kings that have been before thee, neither shall there be any such after thee. ¹³Then Solomon came from the high place that was in Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the testimony, and reigned over Israel. ¹⁴And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he left them in the chariot cities, and the people that were with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the king made silver and gold as Jerusalem to be as stones, and cedar trees in Judah as sycamore trees that are in the plain for multitude. ¹⁶And there was an exodus of the horses unto Solomon from Egypt, and they were bought by the value of the king's merchants for going: and they went up, and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty pieces of silver: and so brought they out for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

CHAPTER 2

And Solomon said that he would build an house unto the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom. ²And Solomon gathered together threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers of stone in the mountain: and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. ³And Solomon sent to Hiram king of Tyre, saying, Whereas thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, ⁴behold I also his son build an house to the name of the Lord my God, to consecrate it to Him, and to burn before Him incense, and loaves of presentation continually, and to offer up whole burnt offerings continually morning and evening, and on the sabbaths, and at the new moons, and at the feasts of the Lord our God: this is a perpetual ordinance for Israel. ⁵And the house which I build is great: for great is the Lord our God beyond all gods. ⁶And who shall be able to build Him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot bear His glory: and who am I, that I should build Him an house, save only to burn incense before Him? ⁷Send me now therefore a man wise and cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in blue, and one that knoweth to grave together with the cunning men that are with me in Judah, and in Jerusalem; which stuff David my father did provide. ⁸Send me also cedar wood, and wood of juniper, and of pine: for I know that thy servants are skilled to cut timber in Lebanon: and, behold, thy servants shall go with my servants, ⁹even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I build shall be great and glorious. ¹⁰And, behold, I have given freely to thy servants that work and cut the wood, corn for food, even twenty thousand measures of corn, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand measures of wine, and twenty thousand measures of oil. ¹¹Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, and sent to Solomon, saying, Because the Lord hath loved His people, He hath made Thee king over them. ¹²And Hiram said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, that hath made heaven and earth, who hath given to king David a wise son, and one endued with knowledge and understanding, who shall build an house for the Lord, and an house for his kingdom. ¹³And now I have sent thee a wise and understanding man, who was of Hiram my father's (¹⁴his mother was of the daughters of Dan, and his father a Tyrian,) skilled to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in stones and timber; and to weave with purple, and blue, and fine linen, and scarlet; and to grave, and to find out every device whatsoever thou shalt give him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my Lord David my father. ¹⁵And now the wheat, and the barley, and the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants. ¹⁶And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, according to all thy need, and we will bring it in floats to the sea of Joppa; and thou shalt bring it to Jerusalem. ¹⁷And Solomon gathered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and there were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred. ¹⁸And he made of them threescore and ten thousand of them bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers of stone, and three thousand and six hundred taskmasters over the people.

CHAPTER 3

Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem in the mount of Moriah, where the Lord appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. ²And he began to build in the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. ³And thus Solomon began to build the house of God: the length by cubits, even the measure from end to end, was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. ⁴And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it in front of the breadth of the house was twenty cubits, and the height of it was an hundred and twenty cubits: and he overlaid it within with pure gold. ⁵And the great house he lined with cedar wood, and overlaid it with pure gold, and carved thereon palm trees and chains. ⁶And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty, and overlaid it with gold of the gold of Parvaim. ⁷He overlaid also the house, and the walls thereof, and the doorposts, and the roofs, and the doors with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls. ⁸And he made the house of the holy of holies; the length thereof was according to the front of the house, the breadth of the house twenty cubits, and the length twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with pure gold for cherubims, amounting to six hundred talents. ⁹And the weight of the nails, even the weight of each was fifty shekels of gold: and he overlaid the upper chamber with gold. ¹⁰And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of woodwork, and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: and one wing of five cubits touched the wall of the house: and the other wing of five cubits touched the wing of the other cherub. (no verse 12) ¹³And the wings of these cherubims spread forth were twenty cubits long: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. ¹⁴And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and wrought cherubims thereon. ¹⁵Also he made before the house two pillars, thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiters of them were of five cubits. ¹⁶And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. ¹⁷And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and one on the left; and called the name of the one on the right hand 'Uprightness', and the name of the one on the left 'Strength'.

CHAPTER 4

Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof. ²Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits in diameter, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof, and thirty cubits the compass round about. ³And under it was the similitude of calves; they do compass it round about; ten cubits compassed the laver round about: they cast the calves, two rows in their casting, ⁴wherein they made them twelve calves, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was above upon them, and their hinder parts were inward. ⁵And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it as the brim of a cup, graven with flowers of lilies, holding three thousand measures; and he finished it. ⁶He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them the instruments of the whole burnt offerings, and to rinse in them; and the sea was for the priests to wash in. ⁷And he made the ten candlesticks of gold according to their judgment, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. ⁸He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basons of gold. ⁹Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors to the court, and the panels of them were overlaid with brass. ¹⁰And he set the sea at the corner of the house on the right side, as it were fronting the east. ¹¹And Hiram made the fleshhooks, and the fire pans, and the grate of the altar, and all the instruments thereof: and Hiram finished all the work which he wrought for king Solomon in the house of God; ¹²to wit, the two pillars, and upon them an embossed work for the chapiters which were on the heads of the two pillars, and the two nets to cover the two heads of the chapiters which are on the heads of the pillars; ¹³and four hundred golden bells for the two nets, and two rows of pomegranates in each net, to cover the two embossed rims of the chapiters which are upon the pillars. ¹⁴He made also the ten bases, and lavers made he upon the bases; ¹⁵and the one sea, and the twelve calves under it; ¹⁶the foot baths also, and the buckets, and the caldrons, and the fleshhooks, and all their furniture, (which Hiram made, and brought to king Solomon in the house of the Lord,) of pure brass. ¹⁷In the country round about Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground in the house of Succoth, and between that and Zeredathah. ¹⁸So Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the quantity of brass failed not. ¹⁹And Solomon made all the vessels of the house of the Lord, the golden altar also, and the tables, and upon them were to be the loaves of loaves of presentation; ²⁰also the candlesticks, and the lamps to give light according to the judgment, and before the oracle, of pure gold; ²¹also their snuffers, and their lamps, and the bowls, and the censers, and the fire pans, of pure gold; ²²and the inner door of the house into the holy of holies, and the inner doors of the temple of gold.

CHAPTER 5

Thus all the work that Solomon wrought for the house of the Lord was finished. And Solomon brought in the holy things of David his father, the silver and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasury of the house of the Lord. ²Then Solomon assembled all the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chiefs of the families of the sons of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David; this is Zion. ³And all Israel were assembled unto the king in the feast, this is the seventh month. ⁴And all the elders of Israel came; and all the Levites took up the ark, ⁵and the tabernacle of the testimony, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle; and the priests and the Levites brought it up. ⁶And king Solomon, and all the elders of Israel, and the religious men of them, and they of them that were assembled before the ark, sacrificed calves and sheep, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude. ⁷And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord into his place, into the oracle of the house, into the holy of holies, even under the wings of the cherubims. ⁸And the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. ⁹And the staves extended, and the heads of the staves were seen from the holy place before the oracle; they were not seen without: and they they were unto this day. ¹⁰There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, which God did give in covenant with the sons of Israel, when they went out of the land of Egypt. ¹¹And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were found were sanctified; they were not then arranged according to their daily course:) ¹²that all the singing Levites which were assigned unto the sons of Asaph, to Heman, to Jeduthun, and unto his sons, of them that were arrayed in linen clothes, with cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, stood before the altar; and with an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets. ¹³And there was as one voice in the trumpeting, and the singing, and in giving thanks, and praising the Lord, when they lifted up their voices with trumpets, and cymbals, and instruments of musick: and they said, O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy endureth for ever; then was the house filled with the cloud of the glory of the Lord. ¹⁴And the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord filled the house of God.

CHAPTER 6

Then said Solomon, The Lord hath said that He would dwell in thick darkness. ²But I have built an house unto Thy name, holy unto Thee, and prepared for to dwell in for ever. ³And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood by. ⁴And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: He hath with His hands even fulfilled as He spake with His mouth unto my father David, saying, ⁵From the day when I brought up My people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that My name should be there; neither chose I a man to be a leader over My people Israel. ⁶But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name should be there; and have chosen David to be over My people Israel. ⁷And it came into the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. ⁸But the Lord said to David my father, Forasmuch as it came into thine heart to build an house for My name, thou didst well in that it came into thine heart. ⁹Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house: for thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for My name. ¹⁰And the Lord hath confirmed this word that He spake: and I am raised up in the room of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord said, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel: ¹¹and there have I set the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that He made with Israel.

¹²And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands. ¹³For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, and had set it in the midst of the court of the sanctuary: the length thereof was five cubits, and the breadth thereof five cubits, and the height thereof three cubits: and upon it he stood, and fell upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread abroad his hands toward heaven, ¹⁴and said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; Which keepest covenant and mercy with Thy servants, that walk before Thee with all their heart. ¹⁵Even as Thou hast kept them with Thy servant David my father, as Thou hast spoken unto him in words: Thou hast spoken with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thine hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶And now, O Lord God of Israel, keep with Thy servant David my father the things which thou spakest unto him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in My sight that sitteth upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children will take heed to their ways to walk in My law, as thou hast walked before Me. ¹⁷And now, O Lord God of Israel, I pray Thee, let Thy word be confirmed, which Thou hast spoken unto thy servant David. ¹⁸For will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? if the heaven, and the heaven of heavens will not suffice Thee, what then is this house which I have built? ¹⁹Yet Thou shalt have respect to the prayer of Thy servant, and to my supplication, O Lord God; to hearken unto the petition and the prayer which Thy servant prayeth before Thee this day: ²⁰that Thine eyes may be open over this house day and night, toward this place whereon Thou hast said Thy name should be called; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this house. ²¹And Thou shalt hear the supplication of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel, whatsoever prayers they shall make toward this place: and Thou shalt hearken in Thy dwelling place even from heaven; yea, Thou shalt hear, and be merciful. ²²If a man sin against his neighbour, and he bring an oath upon him to make him swear, and he come and swear before the altar in this house; ²³then shalt Thou hearken out of heaven, and do, and judge Thy servants, to requite the transgressor, and to return his ways upon his own head; and to justify the righteous, to recompense him according to his righteousness. ²⁴And if Thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, if they sin against Thee; and shall turn and confess unto Thy name, and pray and make supplication before Thee in this house; ²⁵then shalt Thou hearken out of heaven, and be merciful unto the sins of Thy people Israel, and shalt restore them to the land which Thou gavest to them and to their fathers. ²⁶When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against Thee, and when they pray toward this place, and confess Thy name, and turn from their sins, because Thou shalt afflict them; ²⁷then shalt Thou hear from heaven, and be merciful to the sins of Thy servants, and of Thy people Israel: for Thou shalt shew them the good way wherein they shall walk; and Thou shalt send rain upon Thy land, which Thou gavest unto Thy people for an inheritance. ²⁸If there be dearth in the land; if there be death, a pestilent wind and blight; if there be locust and caterpillar; and if the enemy harass them before their cities; in whatsoever plague whatsoever and distress: ²⁹then what prayer and what supplication soever shall be made of any man, and of all Thy people Israel, if a man know his own plague and his own sickness, and spread forth his hands toward this house; ³⁰then shalt Thou hear from heaven out of Thy prepared dwelling place, and be merciful, and render unto the man according to his ways, as Thou shalt know his heart; (for Thou only knowest the heart of the children of men:) ³¹that they may reverence all Thy ways in all the days which they live upon the face of the land, which Thou gavest unto our fathers. ³²And every stranger, which is not of Thy people Israel, and is come from a far country for Thy great name's sake, and Thy mighty hand, and Thy high arm; when they come and worship at this place; ³³then shalt Thou hear from the heaven, even from Thy prepared dwelling place, and shalt do according to all that the stranger calleth upon Thee for: that all the nations of the earth may know Thy name, and that they may fear Thee, as doth Thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by Thy name. ³⁴And if Thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that Thou shalt send them, and they pray unto Thee toward this city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built unto Thy name; ³⁵then shalt Thou hear from the heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. ³⁶Whereas if they sin against Thee, (for there is no man that will not sin,) and Thou smite them, and deliver them up before their enemies, and they that take them captive carry them into a land far off or near; ³⁷and if they repent themselves in the land whither they were carried captive, and also turn and make supplication unto Thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have transgressed, and have done unrighteously; ³⁸and if they return to Thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of them that carried them captives, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which Thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which Thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built unto Thy name: ³⁹then shalt Thou hear from the heaven, even from Thy prepared dwelling place, their prayer and their supplication, and Thou shalt execute judgments, and be merciful unto Thy people that sin against Thee. ⁴⁰And

now, O Lord, I pray Thee, let Thine eyes be opened, and Thine ears attentive to the petition that is made in this place. ⁴¹And now arise, O Lord God, into Thy resting place, Thou, and the ark of Thy strength: let Thy priests clothe themselves with salvation, and Thy sons rejoice in prosperity. ⁴²O Lord God, turn not away the face of Thine anointed: remember the mercies of Thy servant David.

CHAPTER 7

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, then the fire came down from heaven, and devoured the whole burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. ²And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord at that time, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. ³And all the sons of Israel saw the fire come down, and the glory of the Lord was upon the house; and they fell upon their face to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, for it is good; because His mercy endureth for ever. ⁴And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord. ⁵And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand calves: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of the Lord. ⁶And the priests stood at their watches: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the Lord, of king David, to give thanks before the Lord; for His mercy endureth for ever; with the hymns of David by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. ⁷And Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was in the house of the Lord: for there he offered the whole burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not sufficient to receive the whole burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat. ⁸Also at that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath and unto the river of Egypt. ⁹And in the eighth day he kept a solemn assembly: for he kept a feast for the dedication of the altar seven days. ¹⁰And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, rejoicing and with a glad heart because of the good deeds that the Lord had done unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people.

¹¹So Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king's house: and in whatsoever Solomon wished in his heart to do in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prospered. ¹²And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for an house of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut up the heaven, and there be no rain, and if I command the locust to devour the trees, and if I send pestilence upon My people; ¹⁴then if My people, upon whom My name is called, shall be ashamed, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I also hear from heaven, and be merciful unto their sins, and will heal their land. ¹⁵And now Mine eyes shall be open, and Mine ears attent unto the prayer of this place. ¹⁶And now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that

My name may be there for ever: and Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there always. ¹⁷And if thou wilt walk before Me, as did David thy father, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe Mine ordinances and My judgments; ¹⁸then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to rule in Israel. ¹⁹But if ye turn away, and forsake Mine ordinances and My commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; ²⁰then will I remove you from the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed to My name, will I remove out of My sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations. ²¹And as for this high house, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this house? ²²And men shall say, Because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: all therefore hath He brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER 8

And it came to pass after twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the Lord, and his own house, ²that Solomon rebuilt the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, and caused the sons of Israel to dwell therein. ³And Solomon came to Hamath-zobah, and strengthened it. ⁴And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the strong cities, which he built in Hamath. ⁵Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, strong cities; they had walls, gates, and bars; ⁶and Balaath, and all the strong cities which Solomon had, and all his chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all things that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all his kingdom. ⁷As for all the people that was left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which are not of Israel, ⁸but were of the children, whom the sons of Israel destroyed not, who were left after them in their land, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day. ⁹But of the sons of Israel did Solomon make no servants in his kingdom; for, behold, they were men of war and rulers, and mighty men, and captains of chariots and horsemen. ¹⁰And these are the chiefs of the officers of king Solomon, even two hundred and fifty that bare oversight of the work among the people.

¹¹And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the city of David the king of Israel, because the place is holy whereunto the ark of the Lord hath come.

¹²Then Solomon offered whole burnt offerings unto the Lord on the altar which he had built unto the Lord before the temple, ¹³according to the daily rate, to offer according to the commandments of Moses, on the sabbaths, and at the new moons, and at the feasts, three times in the year, even at the feast of unleavened bread, and at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁴And he established, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests, and according to their public ministrations, and the Levites over their charges; to praise and minister before the priests according to the daily order: the porters also were appointed according to their courses to the different gates: for thus were the commandments of David the man of God. ¹⁵They transgressed not the commandments of the king concerning the priests and the Levites in respect of everything else, and in respect of the treasures. ¹⁶Now all the work was prepared from the day when the foundation was laid, until Solomon finished the house of the Lord.

¹⁷Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, near the sea in the land of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent by the hand of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and brought thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold; and they came to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

And the queen of Sheba heard of the name of Solomon, and came to Jerusalem to prove Solomon with hard questions, with a very great force, and camels that bare spices in abundance, and gold, and precious stones: and she came to Solomon, and told him all that was in her mind. ²And Solomon told her all her words; and there passed not a word from Solomon which he told her not. ³And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of the tables, and the sitting of his servants, and the standing of his ministers, and their apparel, and the whole burnt offerings which he offered up in the house of the Lord; and she was in an ecstasy. (no verse 4) ⁵And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land concerning thy words, and concerning thy wisdom. ⁶Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen: and, behold, the one half of the abundance of thy wisdom was not told me: thou hast exceeded the fame that I heard. ⁷Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. ⁸Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on His throne to be king for the Lord thy God: because thy Lord thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore He set thee over them for a king, to do judgment and justice. ⁹And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in very great abundance, and precious stones: neither were there any such spices as those which the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. ¹⁰And the servants of Solomon and the servants of Hiram brought gold to Solomon from Ophir, and pine timber, and precious stones. ¹¹And the king made of the pine timber steps to the house of the Lord, and to the king's house, and harps and psalteries for the singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.) ¹²And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she asked, beside that which she had brought unto king Solomon: and she returned to her own land.

¹³And the weight of the gold that was brought to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore talents of gold; ¹⁴beside that which the men that arranged and the merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the princes of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: there were six hundred shekels of pure gold to one target. ¹⁶And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: the weight of three hundred shekels went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸And there were six steps to the throne, riveted with gold, and stays on each side of the sitting place of the throne, and two lions standing by the stays: ¹⁹and twelve lions standing there on the six steps on each side. there was not the like in any other kingdom. ²⁰And all the vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were covered with gold: silver was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. ²¹For a ship went for the king to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish unto the king, laden with gold, and silver, ivory, and apes. ²²And Solomon passed all kings in riches and wisdom. ²³And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put into his heart. ²⁴And they brought every man his presents, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, stacte, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate every year. ²⁵And Solomon had four thousand mares for chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he bestowed them in the chariot cities, and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁶And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the borders of Egypt. ²⁷And the king made gold and silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the plain for abundance. ²⁸And there was an exodus of the horses unto Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all the lands.

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, the first and the last, behold, these are written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the words of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Joel the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ³⁰And Solomon reigned over all Israel forty years. ³¹And Solomon fell asleep; and they buried him in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 10

And Rehoboam came to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. ²And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it, (now he was in Egypt, forasmuch as he had fled thither from the face of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt,) that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. ³And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all the congregation came to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴Thy father made our yoke grievous:

now therefore ease thou somewhat of the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee. ⁵And he said unto them, Go away for three days. So the people departed. ⁶And king Rehoboam gathered together the elders that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, How counsel ye me to return answer to this people? ⁷And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wouldest befriend this people this day, and be kind to them, and speak good words to them, then will they be thy servants for ever. ⁸But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which took counsel with him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him. ⁹And he said unto them, What do ye advise that I should answer this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat of the yoke which thy father did lay upon us? ¹⁰And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, and do thou lighten somewhat of it from us; thus shalt thou say, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹And seeing my father chastised you with an heavy yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹²And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had spoken, saying, Return to me on the third day. ¹³And the king answered roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, ¹⁴and spake unto them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵And the king hearkened not unto the people: for it was a turn of events from God, saying, The Lord hath confirmed His word, which He spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ¹⁶and all Israel; for the Lord hearkened not unto them. And the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David, or inheritance in the son of Jesse? to thy tents, O Israel: now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents. ¹⁷And the men of Israel, even those that dwelt in the cities of Judah, remained, and made Rehoboam king over them. ¹⁸And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute unto them; and the sons of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up into his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel rebelled against the house of David until this day.

CHAPTER 11

And Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem; and he gathered of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand young men, for to make war; and he waged war against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. ²And the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ³Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, and to all Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor wage war against your brethren: return every man to his home: for this thing is done of

Me. And they hearkened unto the word of the Lord, and returned from going against Jeroboam. ⁵And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built walled cities in Judah. ⁶And he built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, ⁷and Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, ⁸and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, ⁹and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, ¹⁰and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which pertaineth to Judah and Benjamin, walled cities. ¹¹And he fortified them with walls, and put captains in them, and store of victual, oil and wine, ¹²in every several city shields and spears; and he fortified them in great number, and had Judah and Benjamin on his side. ¹³And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel were gathered unto him out of all their coasts. ¹⁴For the Levites left the tents of their possession, and went to Judah to Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off, that they might not minister unto the Lord. ¹⁵And he made him priests for the high places, and for the idols, and for the vanities, and for the calves which Jeroboam had made. ¹⁶And he cast out from the tribes of Israel such as set their heart to seek the Lord God of Israel: and they came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the Lord God of their fathers. ¹⁷And they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and strengthened Rehoboam the son of Solomon, three years: for three years he walked in the way of David and Solomon. ¹⁸And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abigail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. ¹⁹And she bare him sons; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham. ²⁰And after he took him Maachah the daughter of Absalom; and she bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he had eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.) ²²And he made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, leader among his brethren: for he thought to make him king. ²³And he was exalted beyond all his other sons in all the coasts of Judah and Benjamin, and in the strong cities: and he gave them victual in abundance: and he desired many wives.

CHAPTER 12

And it came to pass, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and when he had grown strong, that he forsook the commandments of the Lord, and all Israel with him. ²And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had sinned against the Lord, ³with twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and there was no number of the multitude that came with him from Egypt; the Lubim, the Sukkim, and the Ethiopians. ⁴And they obtained possession of the strong cities which were in Judah, and came to Jerusalem. ⁵Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye have forsaken Me, and I will leave you in the hand of Shishak. ⁶And the elders of Israel and the king were ashamed, and said, The Lord is righteous. ⁷And when the Lord saw that they were ashamed, then came the word of the Lord to Shemaiah, saying, They have repented; I will not destroy them, but will set them in safety for a little, and My wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem. ⁸Nevertheless they shall be servants, and know My service, and the service of the kings of the earth. ⁹So Shishak king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures that were in the house of the Lord, and the treasures that were in the king's house; he took all: and he took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ¹⁰And instead of them king Rehoboam made shields of brass. And Shishak set over him captains of footmen, as keepers of the gate of the king. ¹¹And it came to pass, when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guards and the footmen went in, and they returned to meet the footmen. ¹²And when he repented, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, and did not destroy him altogether: for there were good things in Judah.

¹³So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, in the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to call His name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did evil; for he prepared not his heart to seek the Lord. ¹⁵And the acts of Rehoboam, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and Iddo the seer, with his achievements? ¹⁶And Rehoboam made war against Jeroboam all his days. And Rehoboam died with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Michajah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeon. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of mighty men of war, even four hundred thousand mighty men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand men, mighty warriors of the host. ⁴And Abijah rose up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear ye, Jeroboam, and all Israel: ⁵ought ye not to know that the Lord God of Israel gave a king over Israel to David for ever, and to his sons, by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet Jeroboam the son of Nabat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath revolted from his master: ⁷and there are gathered unto him pestilent men, transgressors, and he rose up against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and fearful in heart; and he withstood him not. ⁸And now ye profess to withstand the kingdom of the Lord in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. ⁹Did ye not cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make you priests of the people of any land? whosoever came to consecrate himself with a calf of the herd and seven rams, forthwith he became a priest to that which is no god. ¹⁰But we have not forsaken the Lord our God; and his priests, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, do minister unto the Lord; and in their daily courses ¹¹they sacrifice unto the Lord whole burnt offering, morning and even, and compound incense: the loaves of proposition also set they upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold, and the lamps for burning, to light in the evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord God of our fathers; but ye have forsaken him. ¹²And, behold, the Lord and his priests are with us at our head, and the signal trumpets to sound an alarm over us. O sons of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of our fathers; for ye shall not prosper. ¹³Now Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind him: and he was before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them. ¹⁴And Judah looked back, and, behold, the battle was against them before and behind: and they cried unto the Lord, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. ¹⁵And the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that the Lord smote Jeroboam and Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel fled before Judah; and the Lord delivered them into their hands. ¹⁷And Abijah and his people smote them with a great slaughter: and there fell slain of Israel five hundred thousand mighty men. ¹⁸So the sons of Israel were brought low in that day, and the sons of Israel prevailed, because they hoped in the Lord God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took the cities from him, Bethel with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah and the towns thereof, and Ephraim and the towns thereof. ²⁰Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again all the days of Abijah: and the Lord smote him, and he died. ²¹But Abijah strengthened himself, and took him fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. ²²And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his deeds, and his sayings, are written in the book of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER 14

And Abijah died with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In the days of Asa the land of Judah had rest ten years. ²And he did that which was good and right in the sight of the Lord his God. ³And he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake the pillars in pieces, and cut down the groves: ⁴and told Judah to seek earnestly the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandments. ⁵Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the altars and the images, and established in quietness ⁶fortified cities in the land of Judah: for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years; because the Lord had given him rest. ⁷And he said unto Judah, Let us fortify these cities, and make walls, and towers, and gates, and bars; we shall prevail over the land, because as we have sought out the Lord our God, He hath sought us out, and hath given us rest on every side, and prospered us. ⁸And Asa had a force of armed men that bare targets and spears in the land of Judah, three hundred thousand; and in the land of Benjamin two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of war. ⁹And there went out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah. ¹⁰And Asa went out to meet him, and set the battle in array in the valley north of Mareshah. ¹¹And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is not impossible with Thee to save by many or by few: strengthen us, O Lord our God; for we hope in Thee, and in Thy name are we come against this great multitude. O Lord, our God, let not man prevail against Thee. ¹²And the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³And Asa and his people pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians fell, that they could not recover themselves; for they were crushed before the Lord, and before His host; and they took away much spoil. ¹⁴And they destroyed their towns round about Gerar; for a terror of the Lord was upon them: and they spoiled all their cities; for they had much spoil. ¹⁵Also they destroyed the tents of cattle, and the Amazons, and took many sheep and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

And the spirit of the Lord came upon Azariah the son of Oded, ²and he went out to meet Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The Lord is with you, while ye be with Him; and if ye seek Him out, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake Him, He will forsake you. ³And for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a priest to teach, and without the law. ⁴But He shall turn them unto the Lord God of Israel, and He will be found of them. ⁵And in that time there is no peace to him that goeth out, nor to him that cometh in, for the terror of the Lord is upon all the inhabitants of the land. ⁶And nation shall fight against nation, and city against city: for God hath confounded them with every affliction. ⁷But be ye strong, and let not your hands be weakened: for there is a reward for your work. ⁸And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, then he strengthened himself, and cast out the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which Jeroboam had possessed in mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the Lord, that was before the temple of the Lord. ⁹And he gathered Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers that dwelt with them out of Ephraim, and out of Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for many of Israel were joined unto him, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him. ¹⁰And they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹And he sacrificed unto the Lord in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred calves and seven thousand sheep. ¹²And he entered into a covenant that they should seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul: ¹³and that whosoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel should die, whether young or old, whether man or woman. ¹⁴And they swore unto the Lord with a loud voice, and with trumpets, and with cornets. ¹⁵And all Judah rejoiced concerning the oath: for they swear with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about. ¹⁶And he removed Maachah his mother from being priestess to Asherah, and cut the idol, and burnt it in the brook of Kidron. ¹⁷Nevertheless they took not away the high places: they remained yet in Judah: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. ¹⁸And he brought in the holy things of David his father, and the holy things of the house of God, silver, and gold, and vessels. ¹⁹And there was no war with him until the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER 16

And in the eight and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, the king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he should not allow going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah. ²And Asa took silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the Lord and of the king's house, and sent to the son of Hadad king of Syria, that dwelt in Damascus, saying, ³Make a covenant between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent gold and silver; come, and turn away from me Baasa king of Israel, and let him depart from me. ⁴And the son of Hada hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the country round Naphtali. ⁵And it came to pass, when Baasa heard it, that he left off building Ramah, and put a stop to his work: ⁶then king Asa took all Judah, and took the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha built; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah. ⁷And at that time Hanani the prophet came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast trusted on the king of Syria, and not trusted on the Lord thy God, therefore is the army of Syria escaped out of thine hand. ⁸Were not the Ethiopians and Libyans a great force, in courage and in horsemen in great numbers? and did not He deliver them into thine hands, because thou trustedst in the Lord? ⁹For the eyes of the Lord look upon all the earth, to strengthen every heart that is perfect toward Him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: from henceforth there shall be war with thee. ¹⁰And Asa was exceeding wroth with the prophet, and put him in a prison house; for he was angry at this: and Asa vexed some of the people the same time. ¹¹And, behold, the acts of Asa, the first and the last, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until he was very ill: yet in his disease he sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians. ¹³And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the fortieth year of his reign. ¹⁴And they buried him in the sepulchre, which he had digged for himself in the city of David, and laid him on a bed, and filled it with spices and all kinds of perfumes of the apothecaries: and they made a very great funeral for him.

CHAPTER 17

And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead; and Jehoshaphat strengthened himself against Israel. ²And he placed garrisons in all the strong cities of Judah, and appointed captains in all the cities of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. ³And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father, and sought not unto idols; ⁴but sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in the commandments for his father, and not after the works of Israel. ⁵And the Lord prospered the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat; and he had great riches and glory. ⁶And his heart was lifted up in the way of the Lord: and he took away the high places and groves out of the land of Judah. ⁷Also in the third year of his reign he sent his chief men, and his mighty men, Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethaneel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. ⁸And with them were the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. ⁹And they taught in Judah, and the book of the law of the Lord with them, and passed through the cities of Judah, and taught the people. ¹⁰And a terror of the Lord was upon all the kingdoms of the land round about Judah, and they made no war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver, and gifts; and the Arabians brought him seven thousand and seven hundred rams. ¹²And Jehoshaphat increased in greatness exceedingly; and he built in Judah places of abode, and strong cities. ¹³And he had many works in Judah; and the mighty men of war, of valour, were in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And this is the number of them according to the houses of their fathers; even the captains of thousands in Judah were Adnah the chief; and with him mighty men of strength three hundred thousand. ¹⁵And after him Jehohanan the captain; and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand. ¹⁶And after him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who was zealous for the Lord; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of strength. ¹⁷And of Benjamin; Eliada, a mighty man of strength; and with him two hundred thousand armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand. ¹⁸And after him Jehozabad; and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand mighty men of war. ¹⁹These were the servants of the king, beside those whom the king put in the strong cities in all Judah.

CHAPTER 18

Now Jehoshaphat had yet great riches and glory, and joined himself by marriage with the house of Ahab. ²And after a term of years he went down to Ahab to Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and calves for him in abundance, and for the people that were with him; and he much desired him to go up with him to Ramoth of the hill country of Gilead. ³And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth of the hill country of Gilead? And he said unto him, As I am, so also art thou; as is thy people, so also is my people with thee for the war. ⁴And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Seek, I pray thee, the Lord to day. ⁵And the king of Israel gathered together of the prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; and God shall deliver it into the king's hands. ⁶And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord besides, that we might inquire of him? ⁷And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom to inquire of the Lord: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, for all his days are for evil: this is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. ⁸And the king called an eunuch, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. ⁹And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat each of them on his throne, clad in their robes, sitting in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. ¹⁰And Zedekiah son of Canaan had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these thou shalt push Syria until it be consumed. ¹¹And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and thou shalt prosper: and the Lord shall deliver it into the hands of the king. ¹²And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold, the prophets have spoken favourably concerning the king with one mouth; let now thy words, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good things. ¹³And Micaiah said, As the Lord liveth, whatsoever God shall say unto me, that will I speak. ¹⁴And he came to the king, and the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall I go up to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go up; and thou shalt prosper, and they shall be given into your hands. ¹⁵And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the Lord? ¹⁶And he said, I saw Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep without a shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no commander; let each return to his home in peace. ¹⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁸But he said, Not so. Hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting upon His throne; and all the host of heaven stood by on His right hand and His left. ¹⁹And the Lord said, Who will deceive Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall in Ramoth Gilead? And one spake after this manner, and another spake after that manner. ²⁰And there came out a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will deceive him. And the Lord said, Whereby? ²¹And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said, Thou shalt deceive him, and thou shalt prevail: go out, and do even so. ²²And now, behold, the Lord hath put a false spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil against thee. ²³Then Zedekiah the son of Canaan drew near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, unto him, Which way came the spirit of the Lord from me to speak unto thee? ²⁴And Micah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hide thyself. ²⁵And the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the captain, the king's son; ²⁶and ye shall say, Thus said the king, Put this fellow in the prison house, and let him eat the bread of affliction, and drink the water of affliction, until I return in peace. ²⁷And Micaiah said, If thou at all return in peace, then hath the Lord not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

²⁸So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Disguise me, and I will go into the battle; and do thou put on my raiment. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. ³⁰Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye neither against small nor great, save only against the king of Israel. ³¹And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel: and they compassed about him to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord delivered him; and God turned them away from him. ³²And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned away from him. ³³And a man drew a bow with a good aim, and smote the king of Israel between the lungs and the breastplate: and he said to the chariot man, Turn thine hand, drive me out of the battle; for I am wounded. ³⁴And the battle turned in that day; and the king of Israel remained in the chariot against Syria until the even: and at time of the sun going down he died.

CHAPTER 19

And Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his house at Jerusalem. ²And Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet went out to meet him, and said unto him, King Jehoshaphat, helpest thou a sinner, or actest thou friendly toward one that is hated of the Lord? Therefore is wrath come upon thee from the Lord. ³Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, forasmuch as thou hast taken away the groves out of the land of Judah, and hast ordered thine heart to seek the Lord. ⁴And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beer-sheba to the mount of Ephraim, and turned them back to the Lord God of their fathers. ⁵And he appointed judges in all the strong cities of Judah, city by city. ⁶And he said to the judges, Take good heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord, and with you are matters of judgment. ⁷And now let the fear of the Lord be upon you, and be wary, and do it: for there is no unrighteousness with the Lord our God, neither to respect persons, nor to take bribes. ⁸Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat appointed some of the priests, and Levites, and the heads of houses of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord, and to judge them that dwelt in Jerusalem. ⁹And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, in truth, and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰What man soever with a cause that cometh before you of your brethren that dwell in the cities, between blood and blood, and between precept and commandment, and ordinances and judgments, ye shall even decide for them; that they shall not sin against the Lord, and there be not wrath upon you and upon your brethren: thus shall ye do, and ye shall not sin. ¹¹And, behold, Amariah the priest is head over you in every matter of the Lord; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael is head over the house of Judah in every matter of the king: also the scribes and the Levites are before you. Be strong, and act; and the Lord shall be with the good.

CHAPTER 20

And after this the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Meunites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. ²And they came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, There is come against thee a great multitude from beyond the sea, from Syria; and, behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar (this is Engedi). ³And Jehoshaphat feared, and set his face to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a fast in all Judah. ⁴And Judah gathered themselves together, to seek the Lord: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the Lord. ⁵And Jehoshaphat stood up in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, before the new court. ⁶And he said, O Lord God of my fathers, art not Thou God in heaven above, and art not Thou Lord of all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in Thine hand is there not the might of dominion? and there is none that can resist Thee. ⁷Art not Thou the Lord that didst destroy the inhabitants of this land before the face of Thy people Israel, and gavest it to Thy beloved Abraham, unto his seed for ever? ⁸And they dwelt therein, and built a sanctuary therein unto Thy name, saying, ⁹If there come upon us evils, sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before Thee, (for Thy name is upon this house,) and cry unto Thee because of the affliction; and Thou shalt hear, and deliver. ¹⁰And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, in respect of whom Thou didst not let Israel pass through them, when they came out of the land of Egypt, (for they turned away from them, and destroyed them not;) ¹¹yet now, behold, they make an attempt against us, to come forth to cast us out of our inheritance, which Thou gavest us. ¹²O Lord our God, wilt Thou not judge them? for we have no might to oppose this great multitude that is come against us; neither know we what we shall do to them: but our eyes are unto Thee. ¹³And all Judah stood before the Lord, and their children, and their wives. ¹⁴And Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, upon him came the Spirit of the Lord in the congregation; ¹⁵and he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and them that dwell in Jerusalem, and king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid, neither be troubled before all this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the ascent of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the river of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷It is not for you to fight: understand these things, and see the deliverance of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, neither be afraid to go out to morrow to meet them: and the Lord shall be with you. ¹⁸And Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground with all Judah and them that dwelt in Jerusalem; and they fell before the Lord, to worship the Lord. ¹⁹And the Levites of the children of Kohath, and of the sons of Korah, rose up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

²⁰And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and cried, and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye that dwell in Jerusalem; put your trust in the Lord God, and ye shall be trusted; trust in His prophet, and ye shall prosper. ²¹And he consulted with the people, and set appointed men to sing psalms and praises, to give thanks, and to praise the holy things, as they went out before the army: and they said, Give thanks unto the Lord, for His mercy endureth for ever. ²²And when they began the praise and thanksgiving, the Lord caused the children of Ammon to fight against Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were routed. ²³Then the children of Ammon and Moab rose up against them that dwelt in mount Seir, to destroy and consume them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they rose up against one another, so that they were utterly destroyed. ²⁴And Judah came toward the watch tower of the wilderness, and looked, and saw the multitude; and, behold, all were fallen dead upon the earth; not one escaped. ²⁵And Jehoshaphat and his people went out to spoil them, and found much cattle, and furniture, and spoils, and precious things: and they spoiled them, and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, for it was abundant. ²⁶And it came to pass on the fourth day that they assembled themselves unto the Valley of Blessing: therefore they called the name of that place the Valley of Blessing, unto this day. ²⁷And all the men of Judah returned unto Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat led them with great joy; for the Lord had given them joy over their enemies. ²⁸And they entered into Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the Lord. ²⁹And there was a terror of the Lord upon all the kingdoms of the land, when they heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace; and his God gave him rest round about.

³¹And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, being thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³²And he walked in the ways of his father Asa, and turned not aside from doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord. ³³Nevertheless the high places yet remained:

and as yet the people did not order their hearts unto the Lord God of their fathers. ³⁴And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, who wrote the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, (now this was an unrighteous man,) ³⁶and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and he made ships in Ezion-geber. ³⁷And Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Forasmuch as thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy work, and thy vessels are wrecked. And they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER 21

And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead. ²And he had brethren the six sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. ³And their father gave them great gifts, silver, and gold, and shields, together with walled cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the firstborn. ⁴And Jehoram rose up into his kingdom, and was strengthened, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel. ⁵Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he succeeded to his kingdom, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for his wife was a daughter of Ahab: and he wrought that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. ⁷Howbeit the Lord would not utterly destroy the house of David, because of the covenant which He made with David, and as He said to him that He would give a light to him and to his sons for ever. ⁸In those days Edom revolted from Judah, and made over themselves a king. ⁹Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all the horse with him: and it came to pass that he rose up by night, and smote Edom that compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled unto their tents. ¹⁰And Edom revolted from Judah unto this day. Then Libnah at that time revolted from under his hand, because he forsook the Lord God of his fathers. ¹¹For he built high places in the cities of Judah, and caused them that dwelt in Jerusalem to commit fornication, and led Judah astray. ¹²And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of thy father David, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³but hast walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and them that dwell in Jerusalem to go a whoring, and hast slain thy brethren thy father's sons, which were better than thyself: ¹⁴behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thee among thy people, and thy sons, and thy wives, and all thy goods: ¹⁵and thou shalt be in sickness with a disease of the bowels, until thy bowels come forth by reason of the sickness day by day. ¹⁶So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the Philistines, and the Arabians, and them that were nigh unto the Ethiopians: ¹⁷and they went up against Judah, and prevailed against them, and took away all the substance which they found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his daughters; and there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. ¹⁸And after all these things the Lord smote him in the bowels with an incurable disease. ¹⁹And it continued from day to day: and when the time of the days came to two years, there came forth his bowels from his belly in his sickness: and he died of a sore disease: and his people made no funeral, like the funeral of his fathers. ²⁰Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without praise, and was buried in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of robbers that came against them, the Arabians and the Amazonians, had slain all the elder sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. ²Twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Atholia the daughter of Omri. ³He also walked in the way of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do evil. ⁴And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction. ⁵He walked also in their counsels, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria to Ramoth-gilead: and the archers smote Jehoram. ⁶And Jehoram returned to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds wherewith the Syrians smote him in Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. ⁷And destruction of God came upon Ahaziah in his coming to Jehoram: for when he was come, Jehoram went out with him against Jehu the son of Nimshi, the anointed of the Lord against the house of Ahab. ⁸And it came to pass, when Jehu was taking vengeance upon the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the brethren of Ahaziah ministering to Ahaziah, and he slew them. ⁹And he gave order to seek Ahaziah: and they took him while he healed his wounds in Samaria, and brought him to Jehu, and he slew him: and they buried him, Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart. So there was none in the house of Ahaziah that prevailed with power over the kingdom.

¹⁰And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, and she arose and destroyed all the seed royal in the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him privily from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, hid him from the face of Athaliah; and she slew him not. ¹²And he was with him hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER 23

And in the eighth year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jehoram, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zechariah, with him into the house of the Lord. ²And they went about Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the families of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. ³And all the congregation of Judah made a covenant with the king in the house of God: and he shewed them the king's son, and said unto them, Behold, let the king's son reign, as the Lord said concerning the sons of David. ⁴Now this is the thing that ye shall do; Let a third part of you, of the priests and of the Levites, enter in on the sabbath, even into the entering in of the gates; ⁵and let a third part be in the house of the king; and another third at the middle gate; and all the people in the courts of the house of the Lord. ⁶And let not any come into the house of the Lord, save the priests and the Levites, and the servants of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: and let all the people keep the watch of the Lord. ⁷And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man's weapon in his hand; and whosoever else goeth into the house, he shall die: but they shall be with the king when he goeth out, and when he cometh in. ⁸And the Levites and all Judah did according to all that the priest Jehoiada had commanded them, and took every man his men, from the beginning of the sabbath to the end of the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses. ⁹And Jehoiada gave the men the swords, and the bucklers, and the weapons, that had been king David's in the house of God. ¹⁰And he set the people, every man with his weapons, from the right side of the house to the left side of the altar and the house, over against the king round about. ¹¹And he brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown and the testimony; and Jehoiada the priest and his sons proclaimed him king, and anointed him, and said, Long live the king! ¹²And Athaliah heard the noise of the people running, and acknowledging and praising the king; and she went in to the king into the house of the Lord. ¹³And she looked, and, behold, the king stood in his place, and the princes and trumpets were at the entering in, and the princes were about the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded the trumpets; there were the singers also singing with instruments, and singing hymns of praise. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Ye surely do conspire against me. ¹⁴And Jehoiada the priest charged the captains of hundreds, even the captains of the host, and said unto them, Thrust her forth without the house, and follow her; and let her be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Let her not be slain in the house of the Lord. ¹⁵So they let her go out; and she went through the entering in of the horsemen of the king's house, and they slew her there. ¹⁶And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between the people, and between the king, that the people should be the Lord's. ¹⁷And all the people went into the house of Baal, and brake it down, and his altars, and brake his images to powder, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before his altars. ¹⁸And Jehoiada the priest committed the works of the Lord into the hands of the priests and Levites, and established anew the courses of the priests and Levites, which David had appointed over the house of the Lord, and to offer whole burnt offerings to the Lord, as it is written in the law of Moses, with gladness, and with songs by the hand of David. ¹⁹And the porters stood at the gates of the house of the Lord, that none which was unclean in any respect should enter in. ²⁰And he took the heads of the families, and the mighty men, and the chiefs of the people, and all the people of the land; and they led the king into the house of the Lord: and he went through the inner gate into the king's house, and they set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. ²¹And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ²And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the Lord all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and they bare sons and daughters. ⁴And it came to pass after these things, that it came into the heart of Joash to repair the house of the Lord. ⁵And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out into the cities of Judah, and gather money of all Israel to repair the house of the Lord from year to year, and make haste to speak. But the Levites hastened not. ⁶And king Joash called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said unto him, Why hast thou not looked after the Levites, that they bring out of Judah and Jerusalem that which was prescribed by Moses the man of God, for the assembly of Israel in the tabernacle of the testimony? ⁷For Athaliah was a transgressor, and her sons brake down the house of God; for also the holy things of the house of the Lord did they offer unto Baalim. ⁸And the king said, Let a chest be made, and let it be put at the gate of the house of the Lord without. ⁹And let men make a proclamation in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring in to the Lord as Moses the servant of God spake unto Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰And all the princes and all the people gave, and brought in, and cast into the chest until it was filled. ¹¹And it came to pass, that at what time they brought in the chest unto the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that the money was superabundant, then the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and put it upon his place again. Thus did they day by day, and gathered much money. ¹²And the king and Jehoiada the priest gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the Lord. ¹³And the workmen wrought, and the works prospered in their hands, and they established the house of the Lord in his position, and strengthened it. ¹⁴And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money unto the king and unto Jehoiada, and made vessels for the house of the Lord, even vessels of service for whole burnt offerings, and gold and silver censers: and they offered whole burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵And Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days; and he died, being an hundred and thirty years old at his death. ¹⁶And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he had done goodness with Israel, and with God, and with His house. ¹⁷And it came to pass, after the death of Jehoiada, that the princes of Judah went in, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them. ¹⁸And they forsook the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and served the Asharoth and the idols: and there was wrath upon Judah and Jerusalem in that day. ¹⁹Yet He sent prophets to them, to turn them unto the Lord: and He testified unto them, but they obeyed not. ²⁰And the Spirit of the Lord came upon Azariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood up above the people, and said, Thus saith the Lord, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord? so shall ye not prosper, for ye have forsaken the Lord, and He will forsake you. ²¹And they conspired against him, and stoned him by command of Joash the king in the court of the house of the Lord. ²²Thus Joash remembered not the mercy which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And as he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and judge. ²³And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria went up against him: and they came against Judah and Jerusalem, and slew all the princes of the people among the people, and sent all the spoils of them unto the king of Damascus. ²⁴For the army of Syria came with but few men, yet God gave a very great host into their hands, because they had forsaken the God of their fathers: and He wrought judgments against Joash. ²⁵And after that they were departed from him, having left him in great diseases, then his own servants conspired against him, because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchre of the kings. ²⁶And they that conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonite, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabite. ²⁷And all his sons, and the five, came unto him. And the other matters, behold, they are written in the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 25

Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was

Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, but not with a full heart. ³And it came to pass, when the kingdom was established in his hand, that he slew his servants that had slain the king his father. ⁴But he slew not their sons, according to the covenant of the law of the Lord, as it is written, as the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but they shall die each for his own sin. ⁵And Amaziah gathered the house of Judah together, and established them according to the houses of their families for captains of thousands and captains of hundreds in all Judah and Jerusalem: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand able to go forth to war, that held spear and shield. ⁶He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. ⁷And there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the host of Israel go with thee; for the Lord is not with Israel, even of all the sons of Ephraim. ⁸For if thou undertake to strengthen thyself by these, then the Lord shall put thee to flight before the enemies: for it is of God both to strengthen, and put to flight. ⁹And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall I do for the three hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God said, The Lord can give thee much more than these. ¹⁰And Amaziah separated from the army that was come to him from Ephraim, to go away to their place: and they were exceeding wroth in their anger with Judah, and returned to their place in great anger. ¹¹And Amaziah strengthened himself, and took his people, and went to the valley of salt, and there smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. ¹²And ten thousand alive did the children of Judah take captive, and they brought them unto the top of the precipice, and cast them down from the top of the precipice, and they all were dashed to pieces. ¹³And the sons of the host which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon; and they smote three thousand among them, and took much spoil. ¹⁴And it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from smiting Edom, that he brought home the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up for himself as gods, and bowed down himself before them, and sacrificed unto them. ¹⁵Wherefore the anger of God came upon Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet; and he said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which delivered not their own people out of thine hand? ¹⁶And it came to pass, when the prophet spake unto him, that he said unto him, Have I made thee the king's counsellor? take heed, lest thou be scourged: and the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God is disposed against thee to destroy thee, because thou hast done this thing, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel. ¹⁷And Amaziah king of Judah took counsel, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, and let us see one another in the face. ¹⁸And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: but, behold, the wild beasts of the field that are in Lebanon shall come: and there came the wild beasts, and trode down the thistle. ¹⁹Thou hast said, Lo, I have smitten Edom; and thine heavy heart lifteth thee up: abide now at home; for why dost thou join thyself unto evil, that thou shouldest fall, and Judah with thee? ²⁰But Amaziah hearkened not; for it was of the Lord, to deliver him into the hands of his enemies, because he sought after the gods of the Edomites. ²¹So Joash king of Israel went up; and they saw one another, he and Amaziah king of Judah, in Beth-shemesh, which is in Judah. ²²And Judah was put to flight before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. ²³And Joash king of Israel overtook Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, in Beth-shemesh, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ²⁴And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. ²⁵And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷And at the time that Amaziah departed from the Lord they made a conspiracy against him; and he fled to Lachish: and they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. ²⁸And they took him up on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of David.

CHAPTER 26

Then all the people of the land took Uzziah, and he was sixteen years old; and they made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. ²He built Eloth, he restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. ³At the age of sixteen years did Uzziah begin to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ⁴And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Amaziah his father did. ⁵And he sought the Lord in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the fear of the Lord: and in his days he sought the Lord; and the Lord prospered him. ⁶And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the walls of Gath, and the walls of Jabneh, and the walls of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. ⁷And God strengthened him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt upon the rock, and against the Mehunims. ⁸And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his fame spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly. ⁹Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem, both at the gate of the corner, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the walls, and fortified them. ¹⁰Also he built towers in the wilderness, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plain; vinedressers also in the mountain country, and in Carmel: for he was an husbandman. ¹¹And Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by number, and returned in number; and their numbering was by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the judge, by the hand of Hananiah the king's deputy. ¹²The whole number of the chiefs of families of the mighty men of war was two thousand and six hundred; ¹³and with them was a force for warfare, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred: these waged war mightily to help the king against his enemies. ¹⁴And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings for stones. ¹⁵And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by a cunning contriver, to be on the towers, and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones withal: and the fame of their preparation was heard far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

¹⁶But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord, to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, mighty men. ¹⁸And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It is not for thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but only for the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to sacrifice: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast departed from the Lord; neither shall this be for glory unto thee from the Lord God. ¹⁹And Uzziah was wroth, and in his hand was the censer to burn incense in the temple: and while he was wroth with the priests, then the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, over the altar of incense. ²⁰And Azariah the chief priest, and the other priests, turn to look upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead; and they gat him hastily out from thence, for he also hasted to go out, because the Lord had rebuked him. ²¹And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house; for he was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Jotham his son was over his kingdom, judging the people of the land. ²²And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, the first and the last, are written by Isaiah the prophet. ²³And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial of the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 27

Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the Lord. And yet the people did corrupt themselves. ³He built the high gate of the house of the Lord, and in the wall of Ophel he built much; and he built cities. ⁴In the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built dwelling places and towers. ⁵He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them: and the children of Ammon gave him each year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. These did the king of the children of Ammon bring unto him each year, both in the first year and in the second year, and in the third. ⁶Jotham waxed mighty, because he prepared his ways before the Lord his God. ⁷And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and his war, and his deeds, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. (no verse 8) ⁹And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 28

Achaz was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not that which was right in the Lord, like David his father. ²But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, for he made graven images. For he sacrificed ³unto their idols in the valley of the Son of Hinnom, and passed his children through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had cast out before the sons of Israel. ⁴And he burnt incense upon the high places, and upon the roofs, and under every shady tree. ⁵And the Lord his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and he smote him, and took captive a great multitude of them, and carried him to Damascus. ⁶And God also delivered him into the hands of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. ⁶And Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day; because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers. ⁷And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the chief of his horse, and Elkanah the king's deputy. ⁸And the sons of Israel took captive of their brethren three hundred thousand, women, and sons, and daughters, and they spoiled them of much substance, and brought the spoils to Samaria. ⁹And a prophet of the Lord was there; his name was Oded; and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, the wrath of the Lord God of your fathers is upon Judah, and He hath delivered them into your hands, and ye have slain them in wrath, and it has reached even unto heaven. ¹⁰And now ye talk of keeping the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen. Lo, am I not with you to testify for the Lord your God? ¹¹And now hear me, and restore the captivity of your brethren whom ye have taken: for the fierce anger of the Lord is upon you. ¹²And the chiefs of the sons of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, and Berachiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, ¹³and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither to us: for seeing sin against the Lord is upon us, ye intend to add to our sins and to our trespass: for sin is great, and the fierce anger of the Lord is upon Israel. ¹⁴So the men of war left the captives and the spoils before the princes and all the congregation. ¹⁵And the men which were called by name rose up, and took hold of the captives, and from the spoils clothed all that were naked, and gave them garments and shoes, and gave them to eat, and oil to anointed themselves with, and helped also every one that was weak with asses, and put them in Jericho, the city of palm trees, with their brethren: and they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time did king Ahaz send unto the king of Assyria to help him; and on this occasion ¹⁷because the Edomites had attacked him, and smitten Judah, and taken a number of captives. ¹⁸The Philistines also had made an attack on the cities of the plain country, and the cities of the south of Judah, and taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Sochoh and her villages, and Timnah and her villages, and Gimzo and her villages: and they dwelt there. ¹⁹For the Lord brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Judah; for he grievously departed from the Lord. ²⁰And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came against him, and afflicted him. ²¹And Ahaz took the things in the house of the Lord, and the things in the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave them unto the king of Assyria: but he was no help to him, ²²but only troubled him in his affliction: and he departed yet more from the Lord; and king Ahaz said, ²³I will seek after the gods of Damascus that smite me. And he said, Forasmuch as the gods of the kings of Syria strengthen them, therefore will I sacrifice unto them; and they will help me. But they became a stumblingblock to him, and to all Israel. ²⁴And Ahaz removed the vessels of the house of the Lord, and cut them in pieces, and shut the doors of the house of the Lord, and made to him altars in every corner in Jerusalem: ²⁵and in each several city in Judah he made high places to burn incense unto strange gods: and they provoked to anger the Lord God of their fathers. ²⁶And the rest of his acts, and his deeds, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷And Ahaz slept, and was buried in the city of David; for they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 29

And Hezekiah began to reign at the age of five and twenty years, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father David had done. ³And it came to pass, when he was established over his kingdom, in the first month, that he opened the doors of the Lord, and repaired them. ⁴And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and put them on the east side, ⁵and said unto them, Hear, ye Levites: sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and cast out the impurity from the holy places. ⁶For our fathers have revolted, and done that which was evil before the Lord our God, and have forsaken Him, and have turned away their face from the tabernacle of the Lord, and have turned their back. ⁷And they have shut up the doors of the temple, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense, and have not offered whole burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. ⁸And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Judah and Jerusalem, and made them an astonishment, and a desolation, and a hissing, as ye see with your eyes. ⁹And lo, your fathers have been smitten with the sword, and your sons and your daughters and your wives are in captivity in a land not their own, as it is even now. ¹⁰Therefore it is in mine heart to make a covenant, a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that he may turn His fierce wrath away from us. ¹¹And now be ye not wanting; for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before Him to minister, and to be ministers and burners of incense unto Him. ¹²Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of Kohath: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel: and of the sons of Gershon, Joah the son of Zimma, and Eden: these were the sons of Joah. ¹³And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: ¹⁴and of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel. ¹⁵And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves according to the king's commandment, by the words of the Lord, to cleanse the house of the Lord. ¹⁶And the priests entered into the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and they cast out all the uncleanness that was found in the house of the Lord, even into the court of the house of the Lord: and the Levites received it, to cast into the brook of Kidron without. ¹⁷And they began on the first day on the new moon of the first month to cleanse, and on the eighth day of the month came they into the temple of the Lord: and they cleansed the house of the Lord in eight days; and on the thirteenth day of the first month they made an end. ¹⁸And they went in to king Hezekiah, and said, We have cleansed all the things in the house of the Lord, the altar of whole burnt offering, and the vessels thereof, and the table of the proposition, and the vessels thereof; ¹⁹and all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign did pollute in his apostasy, have we prepared and cleansed: behold, they are before the altar of the Lord. ²⁰And king Hezekiah rose early in the morning, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the Lord. ²¹And he brought seven calves, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven kids of goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the holy things, and for Israel: and he told the priests the sons of Aaron to go up to the altar of the Lord. ²²And they killed the calves, and the priests received the blood, and poured it upon the altar: and they killed the rams, and poured the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and poured the blood poured the blood round about the altar. ²³And they brought the goats for a sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them. ²⁴And the priests killed them, and offered their blood as a propitiation upon the altar; and they made an atonement for all Israel: for the king said, The whole burnt offering and the sin offering are for all Israel. ²⁵And he set the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals, and with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of king David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for by the commandment of the Lord was the order in the hands of the prophets. ²⁶And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷And Hezekiah spake to offer the whole burnt offering upon the altar: and when they began to offer the whole burnt offering, they began to sing unto the Lord, and the trumpets with the instruments of David king of Israel. ²⁸And all the congregation worshipped, and the psalm singers sang, and the trumpets sounded, until the whole burnt offering was completed. ²⁹And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were found with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. ³⁰And king Hezekiah and the princes told the Levites to sing hymns unto the Lord in the words of David, and of Asaph the prophet: and they sang hymns with gladness, and fell down, and worshipped. ³¹Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Lord, bring near and offer sacrifices of praise in the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the Lord; and every man that was ready in his heart brought whole burnt offerings. ³²And the number of the whole burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten calves, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for an whole burnt offering to the Lord. ³³And the consecrated calves were six hundred, and the sheep three thousand. ³⁴But the priests were few, and could not flay the whole burnt offering: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, until the work was finished, and until the priests had purified themselves: for the Levites did more zealously purify themselves than did the priests. ³⁵And the whole burnt offering was abundant with the fats of the one consecrated of the peace offering, and the drink offerings of the whole burnt sacrifice. So the service was set in order in the house of the Lord. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER 30

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come into the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel. ²For the king, and the princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, purposed to keep the passover in the second month. ³For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. ⁴And the thing pleased the king and the congregation. ⁵And they established a decree, that a proclamation should go throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come and keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for the multitude had not done it according to the scripture. ⁶And the running men went with the letters from the king and the princes unto all Israel and Judah, according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye sons of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; and do ye bring back them that are escaped, even them that were left of the hand of the king of Assyria. ⁷And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which revolted against the Lord God of their fathers, and He gave them up into desolation, as ye see. ⁸And now harden not your hearts, as your fathers did; give ye glory unto the Lord, and enter into His sanctuary, which He hath sanctified for ever: and serve the Lord your God; and He shall turn away His fierce anger from you. ⁹For when ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall be pitied before all them that have carried them captives; and He shall restore you to this land: for the Lord our God is merciful, and compassionate, and will not turn away His face from you, if we return unto Him. ¹⁰So the posts passed through from city to city in mount Ephraim and Manasseh, and even unto Zebulun: but they as it were laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. ¹¹Nevertheless the men of Asher, and of Manasseh, and of Zebulun, were ashamed, and came to Jerusalem and Judah. ¹²Also the hand of God was to give them one heart to come to do according to the commandments of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord. ¹³And there were gathered to Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. ¹⁴And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all whereon they burnt incense to false gods they tore down, and cast them into the brook Kidron. ¹⁵Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priest and the Levites were ashamed, and purified themselves, and brought in whole burnt offerings into the house of the Lord. ¹⁶And they stood at their station according to their ordinance, according to the commandment of Moses the man of God: and the priests received the blood of the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷For a great part of the congregation was not sanctified: and the Levites were to kill the passover for every one that could not sanctify himself unto the Lord. ¹⁸For the greatest part of the people of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover not according to the scripture. For this reason also did Hezekiah pray concerning them, saying, ¹⁹The good Lord be merciful in respect of every heart that in sincerity seeketh the Lord God of their fathers, and is not purified according to the purification of the sanctuary. ²⁰And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. ²¹And the sons of Israel that were present in Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and they continued daily to sing hymns unto the Lord; and the priest and the Levites played on instruments unto the Lord. ²²And Hezekiah spake unto the heart of all the Levites, and to them that had a good understanding of the Lord: and they completed the feast of unleavened bread in seven days, offering a peace offering, and confessing the Lord God of their fathers. ²³And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness. ²⁴For Hezekiah set apart for Judah, even for the congregation, a thousand calves and seven thousand sheep: and the princes set apart for the people a thousand calves and ten thousand sheep, and the holy things of the priests abundantly. ²⁵And all the congregation, the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation of Judah, and they that were present of Jerusalem, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and they that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. ²⁶And there was great joy in Jerusalem: from the days of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not such a feast in Jerusalem. ²⁷Then the priests and the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came into His holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER 31

Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were found in the cities of Judah went out, and brake the pillars in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, of Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had made an end: and all Israel returned, every one to his own inheritance, and into their cities. ²And Hezekiah appointed the daily courses of the priests and the Levites, and the courses of each according to his ministry, to the priests and to the Levites, for the whole burnt offering, and for the peace offering, and to praise, and to give thanks, and to minister in the gates, and in the courts of the house of the Lord. ³And the king's portion out of his substance was appointed for the whole burnt offerings, the morning and the evening, and the whole burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the feasts that were written in the law of the Lord. ⁴And they told the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be strong in the ministry of the house of the Lord. ⁵And as soon as he gave the command, Israel brought in abundance firstfruits of corn, and wine, and oil, and honey, and every fruit of the field: and the sons of Israel and Judah brought tithes of every thing in abundance. ⁶And they that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in tithes of calves and sheep, and tithes of goats, and consecrated them unto the Lord their God, and brought them in, and laid them in heaps. ⁷In the third month began the heaps to be built up, and in the seventh month they were finished. ⁸And Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, and blessed the Lord and His people Israel. ⁹Then Hezekiah inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰And Azariah the priest, the chief over the house of Zadok, spake unto him, and said, Since the time that the firstfruits began to be brought into the house of the Lord, we have eaten and drunk, and have left even in abundance: for the Lord hath blessed His people; and we have left behind still to this great abundance. ¹¹And Hezekiah told them yet farther to prepare chambers for the house of the Lord; and they prepared them, ¹²and brought thither the firstfruits and the tithes faithfully: and over them Cononiah the Levite was for ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. ¹³And Jehiel, and Azaiah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaniah, and his sons, were appointed overseers by Cononiah and Shimei his brother, as Hezekiah the king, and Azariah, which was over the house of the Lord, commanded. ¹⁴And Korah the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the gifts, to distribute the firstfruits of the Lord, and the most holy things, ¹⁵by the hand of Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, and Amariah, and Shechaniah, by the hand of the priests faithfully, to give unto their brethren according to the courses, as well to great as to small: ¹⁶beside the increase of males from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entered into the house of the Lord, a portion according to a daily rate, for service in the daily courses of their order. ¹⁷This is the distribution of the priests according to the houses of their families; and the Levites in their daily courses from twenty years old and upward in their order, ¹⁸in registers, for all the increase of their sons and their daughters for the whole number: for they faithfully sanctified the holy place. ¹⁹As for the sons of Aaron that executed the priestly office, even those from their cities, the men in each several city that were named by name to give a portion to every male among the priests, and to every one that was reckoned among the Levites. ²⁰And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right before the Lord his God. ²¹And in every work that he began in the service in the house of the Lord, and in the law, and in the ordinances, he sought his God with all his heart, and wrought, and prospered.

CHAPTER 32

And after these things, and this faithfulness, came Sennacherib king of the Assyrians; and he came to Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and spake to take them for himself. ²And Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that his face was set to fight against Jerusalem. ³And he took counsel with his elders and his mighty men to stop the wells of water which were without the city: and they did help him. ⁴And he gathered much people together, and stopped the wells of water, and the river that made a division through the midst of the city, saying, Lest the king of the Assyrians come, and find much water, and be strengthened. ⁵Also Hezekiah strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that had been razed, and the towers, and another wall without before, and fortified the strong place of the city of David, and prepared weapons in abundance. ⁶And he appointed captains of war over the people; and they were gathered unto him in the square of the gate of the city: and he spake unto their heart, saying, ⁷Be strong and courageous, and be not afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, and before all the nation that is with him: for there be more with us than with him. ⁸With him are arms of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God to save us, and to fight our battle. And the people rested with confidence upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. ⁹And after these things did Sennacherib king of the Assyrians send his servants to Jerusalem: and he himself went against Lachish, and all his army with him; and he sent to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah that was in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰Thus saith Sennacherib king of the Assyrians, Whereon do ye trust, that ye will abide in the siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹Doth not Hezekiah deceive you, to give you over to death, and famine, and thirst, saying, The Lord our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹²Is not this Hezekiah that hath taken down his altars and his high places, and hath spoken to Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before this altar, and burn incense upon it? ¹³Know ye not what I and my fathers have done to all the nations of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of all the earth any ways able to rescue their people out of mine hand? ¹⁴Who is there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed? could they deliver their people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? ¹⁵Now then let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor let him make you thus confident, and believe him not: for no god of any nation or kingdom is any ways able to deliver his people out of mine hand, or the hand of my fathers: therefore your God shall not deliver you out of mine hand. ¹⁶And his servants spake yet more against the Lord God, and against His servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷He wrote a letter also to rail on the Lord God of Israel, and spake concerning Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the earth have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah by no means deliver His people out of mine hand. ¹⁸And he cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem upon the wall, calling on them to assist them, and pull down the walls; that they might take the city. ¹⁹And he spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, the works of the hands of men. ²⁰And king Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amos prayed concerning these things, and cried to heaven. ²¹And the Lord sent an angel, and he destroyed every mighty man and warrior, and leader and captain, in the camp of the king of Assyria: and he returned with shame of face to his own land, and came into the house of his god: and some of them that came forth out of his own bowels slew him with the sword. ²²So the Lord delivered Hezekiah and them that dwelt in Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of the Assyrians, and from the hand of all, and gave them rest round about. ²³And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: and he was exalted in the sight of all nations after these things.

²⁴In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death, and prayed unto the Lord: and He hearkened unto him, and gave him a sign. ²⁵But Hezekiah rendered not again unto the Lord according to the return which He made unto him; but his heart was lifted up: and wrath came upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶And Hezekiah humbled himself after the pride of his heart, both he and them that dwelt in Jerusalem; and the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah. ²⁷And Hezekiah had riches and exceeding great glory: and he made himself treasuries of silver, and of gold, and of precious stone, for spices also, and storehouses for weapons, and for precious vessels; ²⁸and cities for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls and mangers for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks; ²⁹and cities which he made for himself, and store of sheep and oxen in abundance: for the Lord had given him substance very much. ³⁰The same Hezekiah stopped up the course of the water of Gihon above, and brought the water straight down to the south of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. ³¹Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who were sent unto him to inquire of the prodigy that came upon the land, the Lord left him, to try him, to know what was in his heart. ³²And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his mercy, behold, they are written in the prophecy of Isaiah the son of Amos the prophet, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in an high place among the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and them that dwelt in Jerusalem gave him glory and honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 33

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. ²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the face of the sons of Israel. ³And he returned and built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and reared up pillars to the Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. ⁴Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said, In Jerusalem shall My name be for ever. ⁵And he built altars to all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord. ⁶And he passed his children through the fire in the valley of the Son of Hinnom: also he divined, and used auspices, and sorceries, and appointed those who had divining spirits, and enchanters; and wrought abundant wickedness before the Lord, to provoke Him to anger. ⁷And he set the graven image, the molten statue, the idols which he made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put My name for ever: ⁸neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I gave to their fathers; if only they will take heed to do all things that I have commanded them, according to all the law and the ordinances and the judgments by the hand of Moses. ⁹So Manasseh led Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, to do evil beyond all the nations, whom the Lord had cast out before the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And the Lord spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they hearkened not. ¹¹And the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria; and they took Manasseh in bonds, and bound him in fetters, and brought him to Babylon. ¹²And when he was afflicted, he sought the face of the Lord his God, and was humbled greatly before the face of the God of his fathers, ¹³and prayed unto Him: and He hearkened unto him, and heard his cry, and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom: and Manasseh knew that the Lord He is God. ¹⁴And afterward he built a wall without the city of David, from the south west corner in the valleys, and at the entering in through the fish gate, as men go out by the gate round about, even unto Ophel; and he raised it much, and set captains of the host in all the fortified cities in Judah. ¹⁵And he took away the strange gods, and the graven image out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem, and without the city. ¹⁶And he repaired the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed thereon a sacrifice of peace offering and thank offering, and told Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁷Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, only to the Lord their God. ¹⁸And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the God of Israel, ¹⁹behold, they are in the words of his prayer; and God hearkened unto him. And all his sins, and his backslidings, and the places wherein he built the high places, and set there groves and graven images, before he repented: behold, they are written in the books of the seers. ²⁰And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the garden of his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

²¹Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as did Manasseh his father: and Amon sacrificed unto all the idols which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. ²³And he was not humbled before the Lord, as Manasseh his father was humbled; for Amon his son abounded in transgression. ²⁴And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. ²⁵And the people of the land slew the men that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER 34

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty and one years. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father, and turned aside neither to the right hand, nor to the left. ³And in the eighth year of his reign, and being yet a youth, he began to seek after the Lord God of David his father: and in the twelfth year of his reign he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the ornaments for the altars, and the molten images. ⁴And he brake down the altars of Baalim that were before his face, and the high places that were above him; and he cut down the groves, and the graven images; and the molten images he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the face of the tombs of them that had sacrificed unto them. ⁵And he burnt the bones of the priests upon the altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, and Naphtali, and the places round about them. ⁷And he brake down the altars and the groves, and cut the idols into fine pieces, and cut off all the high places from all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

⁸And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the Lord his God. ⁹And they came to Hilkiyah the high priest, and gave the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the gate had gathered at the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of the princes, and of every one that was left in Israel, and of the children of Judah and Benjamin, and of them that dwelt in Jerusalem. ¹⁰And they gave it into the hand of the workmen that were appointed in the house of the Lord, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the Lord, to repair and strengthen the house. ¹¹Also to the carpenters and builders gave it they, to buy hewn stones, and timber for beams to cover the houses that the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹²And the men were faithfully occupied in the works: and over them were overseers, Jahath, and Obadiah, Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of Kohath, to oversee; and every Levite, and every one that understood to play on instruments of musick; ¹³and over the bearers of burdens, and over all the workmen in the respective works; and of the Levites there were scribes, and judges, and porters. ¹⁴And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiyah the priest found a book of the law of the Lord by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵And Hilkiyah answered and said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found a book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan. ¹⁶And Shaphan brought the book to the king, and moreover brought the king word, saying, All the money given is in the hands of the servants that work. ¹⁷And they have collected the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and given it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of them that do the work. ¹⁸And Shaphan the scribe brought word to the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹⁹And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. ²⁰And the king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the servant of the king, saying, ²¹Go, inquire of the Lord for me, and for every one that is left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled among us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of the Lord, to do all the things that are written in this book. ²²And Hilkiyah, and the others that the king had told, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, which kept the commandments; and she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter: and they spake unto her according to these things. ²³And she said unto them, Thus hath said the Lord God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to Me, ²⁴Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I do bring evils upon this place, even all the words that are written in the book that was read before the king of Judah: ²⁵because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto strange gods, that they might provoke Me to anger by all the works of their hands; and My wrath is kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. ²⁶And concerning the king of Judah, who sent you to seek the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, As for the words which thou hast heard, ²⁷forasmuch as thine heart was ashamed, and thou wast humbled before Me when thou heardest My words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof; and thou wast humbled before Me, and didst rend thy clothes, and didst weep before Me; I have heard also, saith the Lord. ²⁸Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes look upon all the evils that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof. And they brought word to the king again. ²⁹And the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that were found in the house of the Lord. ³¹And the king stood at a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk before the Lord, to keep his commandments, and His testimonies, and His ordinances, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. ³²And he caused all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand; and the inhabitants of Jerusalem made a covenant in the house of the Lord God of their fathers. ³³And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the land that pertained to the sons of Israel, and made all that were found in Jerusalem and in Israel to serve the Lord their God all his days: he departed not from following the Lord God of his fathers.

CHAPTER 35

And Josiah kept the passover unto the Lord his God; and sacrificed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²And he appointed the priests at their charges, and encouraged them for the services of the house of the Lord. ³And he spake unto the Levites, unto the mighty ones in all Israel, to consecrate themselves unto the Lord: and they put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build: and the king said, It is not for you to lift up anything upon your shoulders; now then minister to the Lord your God, and unto His people Israel. ⁴And prepare yourselves according to the houses of your families, and according to your daily courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and by the hand of Solomon his son. ⁵And stand in the house according to the divisions of the houses of your families for your brethren the sons of people; so also let there be for the Levites a division of the house of their family. ⁶And kill the passover, and prepare it for your brethren, to do according to the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses. ⁷And Josiah gave as an offering to the children of the people, sheep, and lambs, and kids of the young of the goats, all for the passover, for all that were found, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand calves: these were of the king's substance. ⁸And his princes gave an offering unto the people, and to the priests, and to the Levites: and Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel the chief men gave to the priests of the house of God, they even gave for the passover, sheep, and lambs, and kids two thousand and six hundred, and three hundred calves. ⁹Conaniah also, and Banaiah, and Shemaiah, and Nethanael his brother, and Hashabiah, and Jeiel, and Jozabad, chiefs of the Levites, gave an offering unto the Levites for the passover of five thousand sheep, and five hundred calves. ¹⁰And the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's commandment. ¹¹And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hand, and the Levites flayed. ¹²And they prepared the whole burnt offering, that they might give to them according to the division by the houses of the families, to the sons, to offer unto the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses. ¹³And so did they until the morning. And they roasted the passover with fire according to the judgment: and the holy pieces sod they in copper vessels and caldrons. And the way prospered, and they speedily served all the children of the people. ¹⁴And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests were busied in offering the whole burnt offerings and the fat until night; then the Levites prepared for themselves, and for their brethren the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵And the sons of Asaph the psalm singers were in their place, according to the commandments of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, the prophets of the king; and the chiefs and the porters of the several gates; it was not for them to stir from the service of the holy things, for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶So all the service of the Lord was duly ordered and prepared in that day, for keeping the passover, and offering the whole burnt offerings upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and feast of unleavened bread seven days. ¹⁸And there was no passover like to it in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any king of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. ^{19a}And them that had in them a divining spirit, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and the sodomites which were in the land Judah and in Jerusalem, did king Josiah burn, that he might confirm the words of the law that were written in the book that Hilkiyah found in the house of the Lord. ^{19b}There was no king like to him before him, which turned unto the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, according to all the law of Moses; and after him there rose there up none like unto him. ^{19c}Nevertheless the Lord turned not from the anger of His fierce wrath, wherewith the Lord was exceeding wroth against Judah, for all the provocations wherewith Manasseh provoked Him to anger. ^{19d}And the Lord said, I will even remove Judah also from My presence, as I have removed Israel; and I have rejected the city which I chose, even Jerusalem, and the house whereof I said, My name shall be there.

²⁰And Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of the Assyrians; and king Josiah went to meet him. ²¹And he sent messengers to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I am come not to war against thee this day; and God hath told me to make haste: beware of the God that is with me, lest He destroy thee. ²²Nevertheless Josiah turned not his face from him, but strengthened himself to fight against him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho by the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. ²⁴And his servants lifted him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried with his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem lamented over Josiah. ²⁵And Jeremiah mourned over Josiah: and all the chief men and the chief women spake a lamentation over Josiah to this day, and made it an ordinance for Israel: and, behold, it is written in the Lamentations. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his hope, they are written in the law of the Lord. ²⁷And his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead over Jerusalem. ²Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Amital, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lobena. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh Necho bound him in Deble in the land of Emath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem. ³And the king brought him over to Egypt; and imposed a tribute upon the land, an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. ⁴And Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king over Judah in the room of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh Necho took his brother Jehoahaz, and brought him into Egypt, and he died there: but he had given the silver and the gold to Pharaoh. At that time the land began to be taxed to give the money at the command of Pharaoh; and every one as he could did borrow the silver and the gold of the people of the land, to give unto Pharaoh Necho.

⁵Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zechora, the daughter of Neriou of Rama. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers did. In his days came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon into the land; and he served him three years, and then revolted from him. And the Lord sent against them the Chaldeans, and plundering parties of the Moabites, and of the children of Ammon, and of Samaria: but after this they departed, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of his servants the prophets. Nevertheless the wrath of the Lord was upon Judah, that they should be taken away out of His presence, because of the sins of Manasseh in all that he did, and for the innocent blood which Jehoiakim did shed, (for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood;) yet the Lord would not utterly destroy them. ⁶And against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters of brass, and carried him away to Babylon. ⁷Also he carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple in Babylon. ⁸And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, behold, are not these things written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in Ganoza: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

⁹Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁰And at the turn of the year, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his father's brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God: he was not ashamed before Jeremiah the prophet, nor because of the word of the Lord; ¹³in that he rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, which he adjured him by God not to do: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart not to return unto the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁴And all the glorious men of Judah, and the priests, and the people of the land, transgressed very much in the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord, which was in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the Lord God of their fathers sent by the hand of His prophets, rising up betimes, and sending His messengers; because He spared His people, and His sanctuary. ¹⁶Nevertheless they sneered at His messengers, and set at nought His words, and mocked His prophets, until the wrath of God rose up against His people, till there was no remedy. ¹⁷And He brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, and slew their young men with the sword in the house of His sanctuary, and spared not Zedekiah, and had no mercy upon their virgins: and they led their old men away; He delivered all things into their hands. ¹⁸And all the vessels of the house of God, the great and the small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and all the treasures of the king, and of the great men; all these he brought to Babylon. ¹⁹And he burnt the house of the Lord, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt the palaces thereof with fire, and utterly destroyed every goodly vessel. ²⁰And the remnant carried he away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and his sons until the kingdom of the Medes, ²¹that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, until the land should enjoy her sabbaths in resting and keeping sabbath all the days of her desolation, till the accomplishment of seventy years.

²²In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, after the fulfilment of the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and told him to make proclamation in writing throughout the kingdom, saying, ²³Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians unto all the kingdoms of the earth: The Lord God of heaven hath given me power; and He hath charged me to build Him an house in Jerusalem, in Judah. Who is there of you of all His people? his God shall be with him, and let him go up.

1 ESDRAS (EZRA)

CHAPTER 1

And Josiah held the feast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; ²having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord. ³And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: ⁴*and said*, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto His people Israel, and prepare you after your families and kindreds, according as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son. ⁵And standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the sons of Israel, ⁶offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses. ⁷And unto the people that was found there Josiah gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. ⁸And Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. ⁹And Jechoniah, and Shemaiah, and Nathanael his brother, and Hashabiah, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves. ¹⁰And when these things were done, the priests and the Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds, and according to the several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning. ¹¹And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans with a good savour, and set them before all the people. ¹²And after these things they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron: ¹³for the priests offered the fat until night, and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁴The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zechariah, and Eddinus, who was of the king's retinue. ¹⁵Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the passover, and offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah. ¹⁷So the sons of Israel which were present held the passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days.

¹⁸And such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. ¹⁹Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josiah, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem. ²⁰In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. ²¹And the works of Josiah were upright before his Lord with an heart full of godliness. ²²As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved Him exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

²³Now after all these acts of Josiah it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. ²⁴But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of the Judeans? ²⁵I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon the Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me; yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord. ²⁶Howbeit Josiah did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremiah spoken by the mouth of the Lord: ²⁷but joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came against king Josiah. ²⁸Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle. ²⁹Then gat he upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre. ³⁰And in all Judah they mourned for Josiah, yea, Jeremiah the prophet lamented for Josiah, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. ³¹These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of the Judeans, and every one of the acts that Josiah did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

³²And the people took Jechoniah the son of Josiah, and made him king instead of Josiah his father, when he was twenty and three years old. ³³And he reigned in Israel and Jerusalem three months. And then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem: ³⁴and he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. ³⁵The king of Egypt also made king Jehoiakim his brother king of the Judeans and Jerusalem. ³⁶And he bound Jehoiakim and the nobles: but Zarius his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

³⁷Five and twenty years old was Jehoiakim when he was made king in the land of Judah and Jerusalem; and he did evil before the Lord. ³⁸Wherefore against him Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him unto Babylon. ³⁹Nebuchadnezzar also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon. ⁴⁰But those things that are recorded of him, and his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

⁴¹And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead: he was made king being eighteen years old. ⁴²And he reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before the Lord.

⁴³So after a year Nebuchadnezzar sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; ⁴⁴and made Zedekiah king of the Judeans and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years; ⁴⁵and he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremiah from the mouth of the Lord. ⁴⁶And after that king Nebuchadnezzar had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord God of Israel. ⁴⁷The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. ⁴⁸And the God of their fathers sent by His messenger to call them back, because He spared them and His tabernacle also. ⁴⁹But they had His messengers in derision; and, look, when the Lord spake unto them, they made a sport of His prophets: so far forth, that He, being wroth with His people for their great ungodliness, commanded the kings of the Chaldeans to come up against them: ⁵⁰who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for He delivered all into their hands. ⁵¹And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon. ⁵²As for the house of the Lord, they burnt it, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and set fire upon her towers: ⁵³and as for all her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried into Babylon. ⁵⁴And they became servants to him, and to his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah: ⁵⁵Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she rest, until the full term of seventy years.

CHAPTER 2

In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that He had promised by the mouth of Jeremiah; ²the Lord raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying, ³Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the Most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world. ⁴And He hath commanded me to build Him an house at Jerusalem in Judea. ⁵If therefore there be any of you that are of His people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: (for He is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem). ⁶Whosoever then dwell in the places round about, let them help him, (those, I say, that are his neighbours,) with gold, and with silver, with gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem. ⁷Then the chief of the families of Judah and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build an house for the Lord at Jerusalem, ⁸and they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. ⁹King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. ¹⁰Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer: ¹¹and by him they were delivered to Sheshbazzar the governor of Judah. ¹²And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels. ¹³So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were five thousand four hundred threescore and nine. ¹⁴These were brought back by Sheshbazzar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹⁵But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Bishlam, and Mithridates, and Tabeel, and Rehum, Beltethmus, and Shimshai the secretary, with the rest that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem this letter following; ¹⁶To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants Rehum the storywriter, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ¹⁷Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem, (that rebellious and wicked city,) do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundations of the temple. ¹⁸Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings. And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, but to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers: ¹⁹and thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that the city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities: and that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate. ²⁰Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²¹Then the king wrote back again to Rehum the storywriter, to Beltethmus, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia, after this manner: ²²I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me:

therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that the city was from the beginning practising against kings; ²³and the men therein were given to rebellion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²⁴Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it; and that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings. ²⁵Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste toward Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

CHAPTER 3

Now when Darius the king reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia, ²and to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty and seven provinces. ³And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after awaked. ⁴Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another; ⁵Let every one of us speak a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory, ⁶as to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with a bridle of gold, and an headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck: ⁷and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin. ⁸And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow; and said, ⁹When the king is risen, some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall victory be given, as was appointed. ¹⁰The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. ¹¹The second wrote, The king is strongest. ¹²The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth beareth away the victory. ¹³Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them: ¹⁴and sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers; and sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them. ¹⁵And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences: so they were called, and came in. ¹⁶And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings.

¹⁷Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine; and he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it: ¹⁸it maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich: ¹⁹it turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt: ²⁰and it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents. ²¹And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords: ²²but when they are far from the wine, they remember not what they have done. ²³O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

CHAPTER 4

Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, ²⁴O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them? ³But yet the king is most mighty: for he is the lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do. ⁴If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers. ⁵They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. ⁶Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. ⁷And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; ⁸if he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; ⁹if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. ¹⁰So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest: ¹¹and these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing. ¹²O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

¹³Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was Zerrubabel) began to speak. O ye men, ¹⁴it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that excelleth; who is it them that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? ¹⁵Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. ¹⁶Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. ¹⁷These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. ¹⁸Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? ¹⁹And letting all those things go, do not they gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? ²⁰A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. ²¹He sticketh not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. ²²By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? ²³Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; ²⁴and looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love. ²⁵Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. ²⁶Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes. ²⁷Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women. ²⁸And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? ²⁹Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, ³⁰and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand. ³¹And yet for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. ³²O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus? ³³Then the king and the princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth. ³⁴O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. ³⁵Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. ³⁶All the earth calleth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. ³⁷Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked; and such are all their wicked works, and there is no truth in them: in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. ³⁸As for the truth, it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore. ³⁹With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works: neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness. ⁴⁰And she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth. ⁴¹And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty above all things.

⁴²Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin. ⁴³Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, ⁴⁴and to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither. ⁴⁵Thou hast also vowed to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when

Judea was made desolate by the Chaldeans. ⁴⁶And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the king of heaven. ⁴⁷Then Darius stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem. ⁴⁸He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and unto them in Lebanon, that they should bring cedar wood from Lebanon unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. ⁴⁹Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went up out of his realm up into Judea, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; ⁵⁰and that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held: ⁵¹yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built, and other ten talents yearly, ⁵²to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day, (as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:) ⁵³and that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away. ⁵⁴He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; ⁵⁵and likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. ⁵⁶And he commanded to give to all that kept the city pensions and wages. ⁵⁷He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

⁵⁸Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the king of heaven, and said, ⁵⁹From Thee cometh victory, from Thee cometh wisdom, and Thine is the glory, and I am Thy servant. ⁶⁰Blessed art Thou, who hast given me wisdom: and to Thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. ⁶¹And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren. ⁶²And they praised the God of their fathers, because He had given them freedom and liberty ⁶³to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by His name. And they feasted with instruments of musick and gladness seven days.

CHAPTER 5

After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle. ²And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen, till they had brought them back to Jerusalem safely, and with musical instruments, tabrets and flutes. ³And all their brethren played, and he made them go up together with them.

⁴And these are the names of the men which went up, according to their families among their tribes, after their several heads. ⁵The priests, the sons of Phinehas the son of Aaron: Jeshua the son of Jozadak, the son of Seraiah, and Joakim the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel of the house of David, out of the kindred of Phares of the tribe of Judah; ⁶who spake wise sentences before Darius the king of Persia in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, which is the first month. ⁷And these are they of Judah that came up from the captivity, where they dwelt as strangers, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon. ⁸And they returned unto Jerusalem, and to the other parts of Judea, every man to his own city, who came with Zerubbabel, with Jeshua, Nehemiah, and Zariah, and Resaiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Aspharasu, Elijah, Roimah, and Baanah, their guides. ⁹The number of them of the nation, and their governors, sons of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two; the sons of Shephatiah, four hundred seventy and two: ¹⁰the sons of Arah, seven hundred fifty and six: ¹¹the sons of Phahath-Moab, among the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. ¹²The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four: the sons of Zattu, nine hundred seventy and five: the sons of Chorbe, seven hundred and five: the sons of Bani, six hundred forty and eight. ¹³The sons of Bebai, six hundred thirty and three: the sons of Azgad, one thousand three hundred twenty and two. ¹⁴The sons of Adonikam, six hundred thirty and seven: the sons of Bigvai, two thousand six hundred and six: the sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. ¹⁵The sons of Ater, the son of Hezekiah, ninety and two: the sons of Kilan and Azetus, threescore and seven: the sons of Azaru, four hundred thirty and two. ¹⁶The sons of Annias, an hundred and one: the sons of Arom, thirty two: the sons of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three: the sons of Hariph, an hundred and two. ¹⁷The sons of Baiterus, three thousand and five: the sons of Bethlomon, an hundred twenty and three. ¹⁸They of Netophah, fifty and five: they of Ananath, an hundred fifty and eight: they of Beth-Azmaveth, forty and two. ¹⁹They of Kirjath-jearim, twenty and five: they of Chephirah and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three. ²⁰They of Chadas and Ammidias, four hundred twenty and two: they of Kirama and Geba, six hundred twenty and one. ²¹They of Macalon, an hundred twenty and two: they of Betolio, fifty and two: the sons of Nephish, an hundred fifty and six. ²²The sons of Calamolalus and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five: the sons of Jerechus, two hundred forty and five. ²³The sons of Senaah, three thousand three hundred and one. ²⁴The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, the son of Jeshua, among the sons of Anasib, eight hundred seventy and two: the sons of Immer, two hundred fifty and two. ²⁵The sons of Pashur, a thousand forty and seven: the sons of Charme, two hundred and seventeen. ²⁶The Levites: the sons of Joshua, and Kadmiel, and Bannas, and Sudias, seventy and four. ²⁷The holy singers: the sons of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight. ²⁸The porters: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Atar, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all an hundred thirty and nine. ²⁹The servants of the temple: the sons of Esau, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, the sons of Keros, the sons of Sua, the sons of Padon, the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah. ³⁰The sons of Akkub, the sons of Uthai, the sons of Ketab, the sons of Hagab, the sons of Subai, the sons of Hana, the sons of Cathua, the sons of Geddur. ³¹The sons of Jairus, the sons of Daisan, the sons of Noeba, the sons of Chezib, the sons of Gazera, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Phinoe, the sons of Hasrah, the sons of Basthai, the sons of Asnah, the sons of Maani, the sons of Nephisim, the sons of Acuph, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Asur, the sons of Pharakim, the sons of Bazluth, ³²the sons of Mehida, the sons of Cutha, the sons of Charea, the sons of Barkos, the sons of Serar, the sons of Temah, the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha. ³³The sons of the servants of Solomon: the sons of Assaphioth, the sons of Peruda, the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Lozon, the sons of Isdael, the sons of Shephatiah. ³⁴The sons of Agia, the sons of Pochereth, the sons of Sabi, the sons of Sarothie, the sons of Masaiah, the sons of Gas, the sons of Addus, the sons of Subas, the sons of Apherra, the sons of Barodis, the sons of Shaphat, the sons of Allon. ³⁵All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two. ³⁶These came up from Thermeleth, and Thelersas, Charaath leading them, and Amar: ³⁷they could not shew their families or their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of Delaah, the son of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. ³⁸And of the priests that usurped the office, and were not found: the sons of Habadiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Jaddus, who married Agia one of the daughters of Barzillai, and was named after his name. ³⁹And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood: ⁴⁰for unto them said Nehemiah and Attharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there rose up an high priest clothed with doctrine and truth. ⁴¹So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, besides menservants and womenservants, they were all in number forty thousand two thousand three hundred and sixty: their menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five: ⁴²four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts used to the yoke. ⁴³And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his own place according to their ability, ⁴⁴and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments. ⁴⁵And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

⁴⁶But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the sons of Israel were every man in his own place, they came altogether with one consent into the open space of the first gate which is toward the east. ⁴⁷Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, ⁴⁸to offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. ⁴⁹And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and whole burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. ⁵⁰Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: ⁵¹and after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all holy feasts. ⁵²And all they that had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the first day of the seventh month, although the temple of the Lord was not yet built. ⁵³And they gave unto the masons and carpenters money, meat, and drink, with cheerfulness: unto them of Sidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring cedar trees from Lebanon, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppa, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians. ⁵⁴And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity: ⁵⁵and they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Judea and Jerusalem. ⁵⁶And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord: then stood up Jeshua, and his sons and brethren, and Kadmiel his brother, and the sons of Emadabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Iliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord setters forth of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of the Lord. So the builders built the temple of the Lord. ⁵⁷And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, according as David the king of Israel had ordained. ⁵⁸And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lord, because His mercy and glory is for ever in all Israel. ⁵⁹And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. ⁶⁰Also of the priests and Levites, and of the chief of their families, the elders who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying. ⁶¹But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, ⁶²insomuch that the trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of people; yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off.

⁶³Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what the noise of trumpets should mean. ⁶⁴And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. ⁶⁵So they went to Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and to the chief of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you: ⁶⁶for we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto Him from the days of Esarhaddon the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. ⁶⁷Then Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them,

It is not for us and you to build together an house unto the Lord our God.
⁶⁸We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. ⁶⁹But the nations of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building. ⁷⁰And by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so that they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 6

Now in the second year of the reign of Darius the king, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the Lord God of Israel, which was upon them. ²Then stood up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them. ³At the same time came unto them Sisinnus the governor of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, ⁴By whose appointment do ye build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the workmen that perform these things? ⁵Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favour, because the Lord had visited the captivity; ⁶and they were not hindered from building, until such time as signification was given unto Darius concerning them, and an answer received.

⁷The copy of the letters which Sisinnus, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius: To king Darius, greeting. ⁸Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judah, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the elders of the Jews that were of the captivity building an house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already laid upon the walls. ⁹And these works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made. ¹⁰Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works? ¹¹Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. ¹²So they gave us this answer, saying, We are the servants of the Lord which made the heaven and the earth. ¹³And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. ¹⁴But when our fathers provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, He gave them over into the power of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of the Chaldees; ¹⁵who pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives into Babylon. ¹⁶But in the first year that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote to build this house. ¹⁷And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set them in his own temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to Zerubbabel, that is to Sanabassar the ruler, ¹⁸with the commandment that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in that place. ¹⁹Then the same Sanabassar, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet finished. ²⁰Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the records of king Cyrus: ²¹and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof.

²²Then commanded king Darius to seek among the records at Babylon: and so at Ekbatana the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a roll wherein these things were recorded: ²³In the first year of the reign of Cyrus, king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord should be built again, where they do sacrifice with continual fire: ²⁴whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: ²⁵and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. ²⁶And also commanded he that Sisinnus the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, should be careful to stay away from the place, but suffer Zerubbabel the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build the house of the Lord in that place. ²⁷I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be finished: ²⁸and out of the tribute of Coelesyria and Phoenicia a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifice of the Lord, that is, to Zerubbabel the governor, for calves, and rams, and lambs; ²⁹and also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent: ³⁰that offerings may be made to the Most High God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. ³¹And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing herein written, out of his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. ³²The Lord therefore, Whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. ³³I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

CHAPTER 7

Then Sisinnus the governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius, ²did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the elders of the Jews and governors of the temple. ³And so the holy works prospered, when Haggai and Zechariah the prophets prophesied. ⁴And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel; and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia, ⁵the holy house was finished in the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of king Darius. ⁶And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and others that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. ⁷And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; ⁸and twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the chief of the tribes of Israel. ⁹The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindreds, in the service of the Lord God of Israel, according to the book of Moses, and the porters at every gate. ¹⁰And the sons of Israel that were of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were sanctified, ¹¹together with all the children of the captivity; for they were sanctified, because the Levites were all sanctified together. ¹²And so they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ¹³And the sons of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord. ¹⁴And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, ¹⁵for that He had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord God of Israel.

CHAPTER 8

And after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Ezra the son of Azariah, the son of Ezeriah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, ²the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, the son of Amariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest. ³This Ezra went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the Lord God of Israel. ⁴And the king did him honour: for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. ⁵There went up with him also certain of the sons of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, ⁶in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave to him. ⁷For Ezra had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

⁸Now the copy of the commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, and came to Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, is that which followeth: ⁹King Artaxerxes unto Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting. ¹⁰Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, being within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee to Jerusalem. ¹¹As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and to my seven friends the counsellors; ¹²that they may look into the affairs of Judah and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord; ¹³and carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be found, to the Lord in Jerusalem, with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God in Jerusalem, ¹⁴and that silver and gold may be collected for calves, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining; ¹⁵to the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁶And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God. ¹⁷And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury. ¹⁹And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phoenicia, that whatsoever Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the most high God shall send for, they should give it him with speed, to the sum of an hundred talents of silver, ²⁰likewise also of wheat unto an hundred cors, and an hundred pieces of wine, ²¹and other things in abundance. Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. ²²I command you also, that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that man have authority to impose any thing upon them. ²³And thou, Ezra, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. ²⁴And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

²⁵Then said Ezra the scribe, Blessed be the only God of thy fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify His house that is in Jerusalem: ²⁶and hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. ²⁷Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

²⁸And these are the chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: ²⁹of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael: of the sons of David, Hattush the son of Sechenias: ³⁰of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were counted an hundred and fifty men: ³¹of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai, the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred men: ³²of the sons of Zattu, Secheniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obed the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men: ³³of the sons of Elam, Josiah son of Gotholiah, and with him seventy men: ³⁴of the sons of Shaphatiah, Zarahiah son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men: ³⁵of the sons of Joab, Obadiah son of Jezelous, and with him two hundred and twelve men: ³⁶of the sons of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore men: ³⁷of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men: ³⁸of the sons of Azag, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten men: ³⁹of the sons of Adonikam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalat, son of Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them seventy men: ⁴⁰of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

⁴¹And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days: and then I surveyed them. ⁴²But when I found there none of the priests and Levites, ⁴³then sent I unto Eleazar, and Idue, and Maheah, and Maasmas, ⁴⁴and Elnathan, and Samaiah, and Jarib, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, principal men and learned. ⁴⁵And I bade them that they should go to unto Iddo the captain, who was in the place of the treasury: and commanded them that they should speak unto Iddo, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord. ⁴⁶And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Sherebiah, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen. ⁴⁷And Asebiah, and Annunus, and Hosai his brother, of the sons of Chanounai, and their sons, were twenty men. ⁴⁸And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites, to wit, the servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed. ⁴⁹And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, ⁵⁰to desire of Him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the cattle: ⁵¹for I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. ⁵²For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek Him, to support them in all ways. ⁵³And again we besought the Lord as touching these things, and found Him favourable unto us. ⁵⁴Then I separated twelve of chief leaders of the priests, Serebiah, and Asabiah, and ten men of their brethren with them: ⁵⁵and I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given. ⁵⁶And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and sixty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, and twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. ⁵⁷And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. ⁵⁸Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God. ⁵⁹So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁰And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. ⁶¹And when we had been there three days, the gold and the silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto Marmuth the priest the son of Uriah; ⁶²and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them was Josabad the son of Joshua and Moeth the son of Sabannus, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight; and all the weight of them was written up the same hour. ⁶³Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even twelve calves for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. ⁶⁴And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards, and to the governors of Coelesyria and Phoenicia; and they honoured the people and the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁵Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, ⁶⁶The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor their pollutions from the nations, to wit, the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians and Edomites. ⁶⁷For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity. ⁶⁸And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy. ⁶⁹So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. ⁷⁰Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, I said, ⁷¹O Lord, I am confounded and ashamed before Thy face; ⁷²for our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. ⁷³For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day. ⁷⁴And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day. ⁷⁵And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of Thy sanctuary; and to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. ⁷⁶Yea, when we were in bondage we were not forsaken of our Lord; ⁷⁷but he made us favoured before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food; ⁷⁸yea, and honoured the temple of the our Lord, and raised up the desolate Zion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷⁹And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed Thy commandments, which Thou gavest by the hand of Thy servants the prophets, saying, ⁸⁰That the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. ⁸¹Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. ⁸²Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. ⁸³And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for Thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, ⁸⁴and didst give us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress Thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the nations of the land. ⁸⁵Mightest Thou not be angry with us to destroy us, till Thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor shame? ⁸⁶O Lord of Israel, Thou art true: for we are left a root this day. ⁸⁷Behold, now are we before Thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before Thee.

⁸⁸And as Ezra in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. ⁸⁹Then Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Ezra, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel aloft. ⁹⁰Let us make an oath to the Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the nations, with their children, like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. ⁹¹Arise, and put in execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee: do valiantly. ⁹²So Ezra arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

CHAPTER 9

Then Ezra rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, ²and remained there, and did eat no meat nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. ³And there was a proclamation in all Judah and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: ⁴and that whosoever met not there within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from them that were of the captivity. ⁵And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twentieth day of the month. ⁶And all the multitude sat in the broad court of the temple, trembling because of the present foul weather. ⁷So Ezra arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel. ⁸And now by confessing give glory unto the Lord God of our fathers, ⁹and do His will, and separate yourselves from the nations of the land, and from the strange women. ¹⁰Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we do. ¹¹But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: ¹²therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed, ¹³and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ¹⁴Then Jonathan the son of Azahel and Jehziah the son of Thokanos accordingly took this matter upon them: and Meshullam and Levi and Shabbethai helped them. ¹⁵And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things. ¹⁶And Ezra the priest chose unto him the principal men of their families, all by name: and in the first day of the tenth month they sat together to examine the matter. ¹⁷So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end in the first day of the first month. ¹⁸And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found; ¹⁹of the sons of Joshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maseiah, and Eliazar, and Jarib, and Jodan. ²⁰And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer rams to make reconciliation for their errors. ²¹And of the sons of Immer: Ananias, and Zebadiah, and Manes, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Azariah. ²²And of the sons of Pashur; Elionai, Maasiah, Ishmael, and Nathanael, and Okideilus, and Salthas. ²³And of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kolaiah, who was called Kalitah, and Pethaiah, and Judah, and Jonah. ²⁴Of the holy singers: Eliashib, Bacchurus. ²⁵Of the porters; Shallum, and Tolbanes. ²⁶Of them of Israel, of the sons of Phorus; Jermas, and Izziah, and Melchiah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Asibias, and Benaiah. ²⁷Of the sons of Elan; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jezrielus, and Obadiah, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. ²⁸And of the sons of Zamoth; Eliadas, Eliasimus, Othoniah, Jeremoth, and Sabathus, and Zerdaiah. ²⁹Of the sons of Bebai; Johannes, and Ananias, and Zabdus, and Emathis. ³⁰Of the sons of Mani; Olamus, Mamuchus, Jedaiah, Jashub, Asaeilus, and Jeremoth. ³¹And of the sons of Addi; Naathus, and Moosiah, Lacunus, and Naidus, Mattaniah, and Sestheel, Balnouas, and Manasseh. ³²And of the sons of Annan; Elionas, and Asaias, and Melchias, and Sabbaias, and Simon Chosamaias. ³³And of the sons of Asam; Maltanias, and Mattathias, and Zabannaias, Eliphalat, and Manasseh, and Shimei. ³⁴And of the sons of Bahni; Jeremiah, Mamdias, Maerus, Joel, Mamdai, and Paedias, and Vaniah, Carabasian, and Eliasibas, and Mamnitanaïmas, Eliasias, Bannous, Elialis, Shomeis, Shelemiah, Nethaniah: and of the sons of Ezora; Shessis, Esriel, Azeilas, Samatus, Zambris, Joseph. ³⁵And of the sons of Noomah; Mazitias, Zabadias, Iddo, Joel, Benaiah. ³⁶All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

³⁷And the priests and the Levites, and they that were of Israel, dwelt in Jerusalem, and in the country, in the first day of the seventh month: so the sons of Israel were in their habitations. ³⁸And the whole multitude came together with one accord into the broad place of the holy porch toward the east: ³⁹and they spake unto Ezra the priest and reader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of the Lord God of Israel. ⁴⁰So Ezra the chief priest brought the law to the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear the law in the first day of the seventh month. ⁴¹And he read in the broad court before the holy porch from morning unto midday, before both men and women; and all the multitude gave heed unto the law. ⁴²And Ezra the priest and reader of the law stood up upon a pulpit of wood which was made for that purpose. ⁴³And there stood up by him Mattathias, Shammous, Ananias, Azariah, Uriah, Hezekiah, Baalsamus, upon the right hand: ⁴⁴and upon the left hand Pedaiah, and Mishael, Melchiah, Lothasubus, Nabariah, Zechariah. ⁴⁵Then took Ezra the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat honourably in the first place in the sight of them all. ⁴⁶And when he opened up the law, they stood all straight up. So Ezra blessed the Lord God Most High, the God of hosts, Almighty. ⁴⁷And all the host answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. ⁴⁸Also Jeshua, Anniuth, Sarabiah, Jadinus, Jakoubas, Sabbateas, Autias, Maiannas, and Kalitas, Azariah, and Jozabdas, and Ananias, Pelaiah, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, and read the law of the Lord to the multitude, making them withal to understand it. ⁴⁹Then spake Attarates unto Ezra the chief priest and reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying, ⁵⁰This day is holy unto the Lord; (for they all wept when they heard the law:) ⁵¹go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to them that have nothing: ⁵²for this day is holy unto the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour. ⁵³So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord: be not sorrowful. ⁵⁴Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink and make merry, and to give part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer; because they understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

2 ESDRAS (EZRA)

CHAPTER 1

Now in the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord by Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he issued a proclamation through all his kingdom, and that in writing, saying, ²Thus said Cyrus king of the Persians, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the earth; and He hath given me a charge to build Him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judea. ³Who is there among you of all His people? for his God shall be with him, and he shall go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judea, and let him build the house of the God of Israel, (He is the God Which is in Jerusalem). ⁴And every one that remaineth, let him go from every place where he sojourneth, and the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with cattle, together with the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem. ⁵Then rose up the chiefs of the families of Judah, and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, all whose spirit the Lord had stirred up to go up to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem. ⁶And all they that were round about strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with good, and with cattle, and with presents, beside the freewill offerings. ⁷Also king Cyrus brought forth the vessels, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out from Jerusalem, and put in the house of his god. ⁸And them did Cyrus king of the Persians bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he numbered them unto Sheshbazzar the chief man of Judah. ⁹And this is the number of them: thirty basons of gold, and a thousand basons of silver, nine and twenty changes, ¹⁰thirty goblets of gold, and four hundred and ten double silver vessels, and a thousand other vessels. ¹¹All the gold and silver vessels were five thousand four hundred, even all that went up with Sheshbazzar from the place of transportation, from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 2

Now these are the sons of the land that went up, of the number of prisoners which had gone up from the captivity of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon; and they came again unto Judah and Jerusalem, every man unto his city, ²which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mardecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah, the number of the men of Israel: ³the sons of Parosh, two thousand and hundred seventy and two; ⁴the sons of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two; ⁵the sons of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five; ⁶the sons of Pahath-Moab pertaining to the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve; ⁷the sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four; ⁸the sons of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five;

⁹the sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore; ¹⁰the sons of Bani, six hundred forty and two; ¹¹the sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three; ¹²the sons of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two; ¹³the sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six; ¹⁴the sons of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six; ¹⁵the sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four; ¹⁶the sons of Ater the son of Hezekiah, ninety and eight; ¹⁷the sons of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three; ¹⁸the sons of Jorah, an hundred and twelve; ¹⁹the sons of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three; ²⁰the sons of Gibbar, ninety and five; ²¹the sons of Bethlehem, an hundred twenty and three; ²²the sons of Netophah, fifty and six; ²³the sons of Ananoth, an hundred twenty and eight; ²⁴the sons of Azmaveth, forty and three; ²⁵the sons of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three; ²⁶the sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty and one; ²⁷the sons of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two; ²⁸the men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two; ²⁹the sons of Nebo, fifty and two; ³⁰the sons of Magbish, an hundred fifty and six; ³¹the sons of Elamer, a thousand two hundred fifty and four; ³²the sons of Elam, three hundred and twenty; ³³the sons of Lod and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five; ³⁴the sons of Jericho, three hundred forty and five; ³⁵the sons of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty; ³⁶and the priests: the sons of Jedaiah, pertaining to the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three; ³⁷the sons of Immer, a thousand fifty and two; ³⁸the sons of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven; ³⁹the sons of Harim, a thousand and seven; ⁴⁰and the Levites, the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, pertaining to the sons of Hodvaiah, seventy and four; ⁴¹the sons of Asaph, singers, an hundred twenty and eight; ⁴²the sons of the porters, the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all an hundred thirty and nine; ⁴³the Nethinim: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmal, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵²the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, ⁵⁴the sons of Nezia, the sons of Hatipha, ⁵⁵the sons of the servants of Solomon, the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth, the sons of Zebaim, the sons of Ami; ⁵⁸all the Nethinim, and the sons of Abdeselma, were three hundred ninety and two. ⁵⁹And these are they that went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, Immer; but they could not shew their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel: ⁶⁰the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Bua, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two; ⁶¹and of the sons of the priests, the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Kos, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife and daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name. ⁶²These sought their genealogy as though they had been reckoned, but they were not found; therefore were they put away from the priesthood. ⁶³And Athersatha told them that they should not eat of the most holy things, until a priest should arise with Lights and Perfections. ⁶⁴And the whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, ⁶⁵beside their menservants and their maidservants: and these were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven; and among these were two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; ⁶⁷their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. ⁶⁸And some of the chiefs of families, when they went into the house of the Lord which was in Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to establish it in the prepared place thereof. ⁶⁹According to their power they gave into the treasury of the work pure gold threescore and one pieces, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. ⁷⁰So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

And the seventh month came on, and the sons of Israel were in their cities, and the people gathered themselves together as one man at Jerusalem. ²Then stood up Joshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offerings thereon, according to the things that were written in the law of Moses the man of God. ³And they set up the altar on his place, for there was a terror upon them because of the people of the lands; and the whole burnt offering was offered up thereon unto the Lord morning and evening. ⁴They kept also the feast of tabernacles, according to that which was written, and offered whole burnt offerings daily by number, according to the ordinance, the exact daily rate; ⁵and after this the perpetual whole burnt offering, and for the season of new moon, and offering for all the hallowed feasts of the Lord, and for every one that offered a freewill offering unto the Lord. ⁶On the first day of the seventh month began they to offer whole burnt offerings unto the Lord; but the foundation of the house of the Lord was not yet laid. ⁷They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters, and meat and drink and oil unto them of Sidon and of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant of Cyrus king of the Persians unto them. ⁸Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, over the workmen in the house of the Lord. ⁹Then stood

Jeshua and his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, and the sons of Judah, over them that wrought in the house of the Lord: the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brethren the Levites. ¹⁰And they laid a foundation for building the house of the Lord; and the priests in their apparel stood with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the Lord, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel. ¹¹And they answered with praise and thanksgiving unto the Lord, because He is good, for His mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a loud voice to praise the Lord, at the laying of the foundation of the house of the Lord. ¹²But many of the priests and Levites and the elders, chiefs of families, that had seen the former house upon the foundation thereof, and who saw this house with their eyes, wept with a loud voice; but the multitude shouted with joy to raise a song. ¹³And the people did not discern the voice of the glad shout from the voice of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud voice, and the voice was heard from afar off.

CHAPTER 4

Now they that afflicted Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the captivity builded an house unto the Lord God of Israel. ²And they drew near unto Zerubbabel, and to the heads of the families, and said unto them, We will build with you, for we seek our God as you do, and we do sacrifice unto Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, which brought us hither. ³Then Zerubbabel, and Joshua, and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build an house unto our God; for we ourselves together will build unto the Lord our God, as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. ⁴Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and hindered them in building, ⁵hiring counsellors against them also, plotting to frustrate their counsel, all the days of Cyrus king of the Persians, even until the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

⁶And in the reign of Ahasuerus, even in the beginning of his reign, they wrote a letter against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷And in the days of Artaxerxes, wrote Tabeel unto Mithradates and unto the rest of his fellow servants; the tribute gatherer did write unto Artaxerxes king of the Persians a writing in the Syrian tongue, and the same interpreted. ⁸Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe wrote an epistle against Jerusalem to king Artaxerxes, saying, ⁹Thus hath judged Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of our fellow servants, the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarphalaeans, the Apharsaeans, the Archuaeans, the Babylonians, the Susanites, the Davaites, ¹⁰and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper carried away, and settled them in the cities of Samaria, and the rest beyond the river. ¹¹This is the purport of the letter that they sent unto him: Thy servants the men beyond the river unto king Artaxerxes. ¹²Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem the rebellious and wicked city, which they are building; and the walls thereof are set in order, and they have exalted the foundations thereof. ¹³Now then be it known unto the king, that, if that city be builded up, and the walls thereof finished, thou shalt have no tribute, neither will they pay; and this injureth kings. ¹⁴And it is not lawful for us to see the dishonour of the king: therefore have we sent and certified the matter to the king; ¹⁵that examination may be made in the book of record of thy fathers: so shalt thou know that that city is rebellious, and do hurt unto kings and countries; and there are in the midst thereof refuges for slaves: therefore hath this city been made desolate. ¹⁶We therefore declare unto the king, that if the city be builded, and the walls thereof set up again, thou shalt not have peace.

¹⁷Then sent the king to Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their fellow servants that dwelt in Samaria, and the rest beyond the river, saying, Peace: and he saith, ¹⁸The tribute gatherer, whom ye sent to us, hath been called before me. ¹⁹And a decree hath been made by me, and we have examined and found that that city of old time exalteth herself against kings, and that rebellions and desertion take place therein. ²⁰There were powerful kings also in Jerusalem, and they ruled over all the countries beyond the river, and abundant revenues and tribute were given unto them. ²¹Now therefore make a decree to halt the work of those men; and that city shall be no more builded. ²²Be ye careful of the decree, not to be remiss concerning this matter; lest at any time destruction abound to the hurt of kings.

²³Then did the tribute gatherer of king Artaxerxes read the letter before Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and his fellow servants: and they went in haste to Jerusalem, and through Judah, and made them to cease, with horse and an armed force. ²⁴Then ceased the work of the house of God in Jerusalem; and it was at a stand unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

CHAPTER 5

And Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied a prophecy unto the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them. ²Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which was in Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. ³At the same time came there upon them Tattenai, the governor on this side of the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their fellow servants, and spake thus unto them, Who hath ordained a decree for you to build this house, and to make this preparation? ⁴Then spake they thus unto them, What are the names of the men that build this city. ⁵But the eyes of God were upon the captivity of Judah, and they did not cause them to cease, till the decree was brought to Darius: and then was sent by the tribute gatherer concerning this.

⁶The copy of a letter, which Tattenai, the governor of the part on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their fellow servants the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto king Darius. ⁷They sent an account unto him; and thus was written therein; All peace unto Darius the king. ⁸Be it known unto the king, that we went into the land of Judea, to the house of the great God; and it is building with choice stones, and they are laying timbers in the walls, and that work prospereth, and goeth favourably on in their hands. ⁹Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who gave you the order to build this house, and make this preparation? ¹⁰We asked them their names also, to declare them to thee, to write the names of their chief men unto thee. ¹¹And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded many years before this; and a great king of Israel builded it, and established it for them. ¹²But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven, He gave them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, and he destroyed this house, and carried the people captive to Babylon. ¹³And in the first year of king Cyrus, Cyrus the king made a decree that this house of God should be builded. ¹⁴And the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar brought out of the house that was in Jerusalem, and carried them into the temple of the king, those did king Cyrus bring out from the temple of the king, and give them unto Sheshbazzar the treasurer, who was over the treasure, ¹⁵and said unto him, Take all the vessels, and go, put them into the house that is in Jerusalem in their place. ¹⁶Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and hath not been finished. ¹⁷Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house at Babylon; that thou mayest know if that a decree was made by king Cyrus to build that house of God that was in Jerusalem, and let the king send to us when he hath learnt concerning this matter.

CHAPTER 6

Then Darius the king made a decree, and caused a search to be made in the houses of the rolls, where the treasure is laid up in Babylon. ²And there was found in the city, in the palace, a volume, and this was the record written therein. ³In the first year of king Cyrus, Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the holy house of God that was in Jerusalem, saying, Let the house be builded, and the place where they sacrifice the sacrifices. (Also he appointed the elevation thereof, in height sixty cubits; the breadth thereof of sixty cubits.) ⁴And let there be three strong layers of stones, and one layer of timber; and the expenses shall be paid out of the king's house. ⁵And the silver and the gold vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar carried away out of the house that was in Jerusalem, and carried to Jerusalem, let them even be given, and carried again unto the temple, which is in Jerusalem, and placed in the place where they were set in the house of God. ⁶Now, ye rulers beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and their fellow servants the Persians, which are beyond the river, give these things, keeping far from that place. ⁷Now let the work of the house of God alone; let the rulers of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build that house of God in his place. ⁸Moreover a decree is made by me, if haply ye may do somewhat in concert with the elders of the Jews for the building of the house of God: to wit, out of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, let there be money to defray the expenses carefully granted unto those men, that they be not hindered. ⁹And whatsoever need, ye shall give both the young of bulls, and rams, and lambs, for whole burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests which are in Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day whatsoever they shall ask; ¹⁰that they may offer sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and that they may pray for the life of the king and his sons. ¹¹And a decree is made by me, that every man that shall alter this word, timber shall be pulled down from his house, and let him be lifted up and slain thereon, and his house shall be confiscated. ¹²And may the God whose name dwelleth there, overthrow every king and people which is in Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be diligently attended to.

¹³Then Tattenai, the governor on this side beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and his fellow servants, according to that which king Darius had sent, so did they diligently. ¹⁴And the elders of the Jews, and Levites, builded, at the prophecy of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo: and they builded, and finished it, by the decree of the God of Israel, and by the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of the Persians. ¹⁵And they finished this house by the third day of the month Adar, which is the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity, kept the dedication of the house of God with gladness. ¹⁷And they offered for the dedication of the house of God an hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve kids of the goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their separate orders, for the services of God in Jerusalem, according to the writing of the book of Moses.

¹⁹And the sons of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. ²⁰For the priests and Levites were purified; all were clean to a man; and they killed the passover for all the sons of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ²¹And the sons of Israel did eat the passover, even they that were of the captivity, and every one that had separated himself unto them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, to seek the Lord God of Israel. ²²And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with gladness: for the Lord had made them glad, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the house of the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 7

Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, came up Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Maraioth, ⁴the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the first priest. ⁶This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king gave him leave, for the hand of the Lord his God was upon him in all things that he sought. ⁷And there went up some of the sons of Israel, and of the priests, and of the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. ⁸And they came to Jerusalem in the fifth month; this was the seventh year of the king. ⁹For in the first day of the first month began he the going up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came they to Jerusalem, for the good hand of the Lord his God was upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had determined in his heart to seek the law, and to do and teach the ordinances and judgments in Israel.

¹¹Now this is the copy of the order that Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe of the book of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of His ordinances to Israel. ¹²Artaxerxes, king of king, to Ezra, the scribe of the law of the Lord God of heaven, Let the order and the answer be accomplished. ¹³A decree is made by me, that every one that is willing in my kingdom of the people of Israel, and of the priests and the Levites, to go up to Jerusalem, let them go with thee. ¹⁴*One* hath been sent from the king and the seven counsellors, to visit Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of their God that is in thine hand; ¹⁵and to carry away even for the house of the Lord silver and gold, which the king and the counsellors have freely given unto the God of Israel, which dwelleth in Jerusalem; ¹⁶and all the silver and gold, whatsoever thou shalt find in all the land of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and the priests that offer freely for the house of God which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁷And as for every one that that arriveth there, speedily order him by this letter to bring calves, rams, lambs, and their meat offerings, and their drink offerings; and thou shalt offer them on the altar of you God, which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And whatsoever it shall seem good to thee and to thy brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do as it is pleasing unto your God. ¹⁹And deliver the vessels that are given thee for the service of the house of God, before God in Jerusalem. ²⁰And as to the rest of the need of the house of thy God, thou shalt give from the king's treasure houses, ²¹and from me. I king Araxerxes have made a decree for all the treasuries that are in the country beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest and scribe of the God of heaven may ask you, it shall be done readily, ²²to the amount of an hundred talents of silver, and an hundred measures of wheat, and an hundred baths of wine, and an hundred baths of oil, and salt without reckoning. ²³Let whatsoever is in the decree of the God of heaven be done:

take heed lest any one make an attack on the house of the God of heaven, lest at any time there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons. ²⁴Also this hath been certified unto you, touching all the priests, and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, and ministers of the house of God, let no tribute be paid unto thee; thou shalt not have power to oppress them. ²⁵And thou, Ezra, as the wisdom of God is in thine hand, appoint scribes and judges, that they may judge for all the people beyond the river, all that know the law of the Lord thy God: and ye shall make it known to him that knoweth not. ²⁶And whosoever shall not do the law of God, and the law of the king readily, judgment shall be taken upon him, whether it be to death, or to chastisement, or to a fine of his property, or to casting into prison.

²⁷Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, Which hath put it thus in the king's heart, to glorify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem: ²⁸and hath given me favour in the sight of the king, and of his counsellors, and all the rulers of the king, the exalted ones. And I was strengthened according to the good hand of God upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

And these are heads of the families, the leaders that went up with me in the reign of Artaxerxes the king of Babylon. ²Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershon; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush. ³Of the sons of Shechaniah, and the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him a company of an hundred and fifty. ⁴Of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred that were males. ⁵And of the sons of Zathoe, Shechaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. ⁶And of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. ⁷And of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males. ⁸And of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males. ⁹And of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. ¹⁰And of the sons of Baani, Shelomith the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males. ¹¹And of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Babai, and with him twenty and eight males. ¹²And of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males. ¹³And of the sons of Adonikam last, and these were their names: Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males. ¹⁴And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zabud, and with him seventy males.

¹⁵And I gathered them together to the river that cometh to Ahava, and there we pitched three days; and I reviewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. ¹⁶And I sent men of understanding unto Eleazar, to Ariel, to Shimaiah, and to Elnathan, and to Jarib, and to Elnathan, and to Nathan, and to Zechariah, and to Meshullam, and to Joiarib, and to Elnathan. ¹⁷And I sent them to the rulers with the money of the place, and put words in their mouth to speak unto their brethren the Nethinim with the money of the place, that they should bring us singers for the house of our God. ¹⁸And they came unto us, as the good hand of our God was upon us, even a man of understanding of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and at the commencement came his sons and his brethren eighteen. ¹⁹And Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and his sons, twenty. ²⁰And of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim; all of them were gathered by their names. ²¹Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we should humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our sons, and for all our substance. ²²For I was ashamed to ask of the king a guard and horsemen to save us from the enemy in the way; for we have spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek Him, but His power and His wrath are upon all them that forsake Him. ²³So we fasted, and asked of our God concerning this, and He hearkened unto us. ²⁴And I gave charge to twelve of the chiefs of the priests, unto Sherebiah, to Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them. ²⁵And I weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of the firstfruits of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel that were found, had dedicated. ²⁶I even weighed into their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and an hundred silver vessels, and an hundred talents of gold, ²⁷and twenty golden bowls, of about a thousand drachmas, and superior vessels of fine shining brass, precious as gold. ²⁸And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the Lord; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are freewill offerings unto the Lord God of our fathers. ²⁹Be watchful, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites, and the chiefs of the families in Jerusalem at the chambers of the house of the Lord. ³⁰So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring to Jerusalem into the house of the Lord.

³¹Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the last month, to come unto Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and delivered us from the hand of the enemy and adversary in the way. ³²And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. ³³And it came to pass on the fourth day, that we weighed the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, in the house of our God, into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levites. ³⁴All things were reckoned by number and weight, and all the weight was written down. ³⁵At that time the sons of the banishment that came from the captivity offered whole burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve calves for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve goats for a sin offering: all whole burnt offerings unto the Lord. ³⁶And they gave the king's commission unto the king's lieutenants, and the governors beyond the river; and they honoured the people, and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands in their abominations, even the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Ammonite, the Moabite, and the Moserite, and the Amorite. ²For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; and the holy seed hath passed among the nations of the lands: yea, the hand of the princes hath been first in this transgression. ³And when I heard this thing, I rent my garments, and trembled, and plucked of the hairs of my head and of my beard, and sat down mourning. ⁴Then were assembled unto me all that followed the word of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of the captivity; and I remained mourning until the evening sacrifice. ⁵And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my humiliation; and when I had rent my garments, then I trembled, and I bowed myself on my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord God, ⁶and said, O Lord, I am ashamed and confounded, my God, for our transgressions are abounded over our head, and our trespasses are increased even unto heaven. ⁷Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our sons, been delivered in the hand of the kings of the nations, by the sword, and by captivity, and by spoil, and with shame of our face, as at this day. ⁸And now our God hath dealt mercifully with us, to leave us to escape, and to give us an establishment in the place of His sanctuary, to lighten our eyes, and to give a little quickening in our servitude. ⁹For we are bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our servitude, but hath extended favour unto us in the sight of the kings of the Persians, to give us a reviving, that they should raise up the house of our God, and restore the desolate places thereof, and to give us a fence in Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁰O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken Thy commandments, ¹¹which Thou hast given us by the hand of Thy servants the prophets, saying, 'The land, into which ye go to inherit it, is a land subject to disturbance by the removal of the people of the nations for their abominations, wherewith they have filled it from one end to the other by their uncleannesses. ¹²Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, and take not of their daughters for your sons, neither shall ye seek their peace or their good for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and give it as an inheritance unto your sons for ever. ¹³And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, it is clear that there is none like unto our God, for Thou hast lightly visited our iniquities, and given us deliverance; ¹⁴whereas we have again broken Thy commandments, and joined in affinity with the people of the lands: be not very angry with us unto our utter destruction, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping. ¹⁵O Lord God of Israel, Thou art righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as at this day: behold, we are before Thee in our trespasses, for we cannot stand before Thee because of this.

CHAPTER 10

So when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and praying before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and youths: for the people wept, and wept aloud. ²And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have broken covenant with our God, and have taken strange wives of the nations of the land; yet now there is patience of hope unto Israel concerning this thing. ³Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and all such as are born of them, as thou shalt advise: ⁴arise, and alarm them with the commandments of our God, and let it be done according to the law. Arise, for the matter is upon thee, and we are with thee: be strong, and do. ⁵Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. ⁶Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went unto the treasury of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; he even went thither; he did eat no bread, and drank no water, for he mourned over the unfaithfulness of them of the captivity. ⁷And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the sons of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem, saying, ⁸Every one that shall not arrive within three days, as is the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance shall be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of the captivity.

⁹So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together at Jerusalem within the three days. This was the ninth month: on the twentieth day of the month all the people sat down in the street of the house of the Lord, because of their alarm concerning the word, and for the storm. ¹⁰And Ezra the chief priest arose, and said unto them, Ye have broken covenant, and have taken strange wives, to add to the trespass of Israel. ¹¹Now therefore give praise unto the Lord God of our fathers, and do that which is pleasing in His sight, and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. ¹²Then all the congregation answered and said, This thy word is powerful upon us, to do it. ¹³But the people is many in number, and the season is stormy, and there is no power to stand without, and the work is more than enough for one day or for two; for we have greatly sinned in this matter. ¹⁴Let now our rulers stand, and for all in our cities that have taken strange wives, let them come at appointed times, and with them elders from every several city, and judges, to turn away the fierce wrath of our God from us concerning this matter. ¹⁵Only Jonathan the son of Asahel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were with me concerning this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. ¹⁶And the sons of the captivity did so; and Ezra the priest, and heads of families according to their house were separated, and all by their names, for they returned in the first day of the month to examine the matter. ¹⁷And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

¹⁸And of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives, and offered a ram of the flock for a trespass offering because of their trespass. ²⁰And of the sons of Immer, Hanani, and Zebadiah. ²¹And of the sons of Harim, Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah. ²²And of the sons of Pashhur, Elioenai, Maaseiah, and Ishmael, and Nethanel, and Jozabad, and Elasah. ²³And of the Levites, Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), and Pethahiah, and Judah, and Eliezer. ²⁴And of the singers, Eliashib: and of the porters, Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. ²⁵Also of Israel, of the sons of Parosh, Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Asabia, and Benaiah. ²⁶And of the sons of Elam, Mattaniah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. ²⁷And of the sons of Zattu, Elioenai, Eliashib, and Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. ²⁸And of the sons of Bebai, Jehohanan, Hananiah, and Zabbai, and Athlai. ²⁹And of the sons of Bani, Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth. ³⁰And of the sons of Pahath-moab, Adna, and Chelal, and Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. ³¹And of the sons of Harim, Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. ³³And of the sons of Hashum, Mattenai, Mattattah, Zadab, Eliphelet, Jereamai, Manasseh, Shimei. ³⁴And of the sons of Bani, Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Badeiah, Cheluh, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai: ³⁸and so did the sons of Bani, and the sons of Shimei, ³⁹and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, ⁴⁰Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azarel, and Shelemiah, and Shemariah, ⁴²and Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. ⁴³Of the sons of Nebo, Jeiel, Matithiah, Zebed, Zebina, Jaddai, and Joel, and Benaiah. ⁴⁴All these had taken strange wives, and begat sons of them.

NEHEMIAH

CHAPTER 1

The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah: and it came to pass in the month Chislev, of the twentieth year, that I was in Shushan the citadel. ²And Hanani one of my brethren, came, he and some men of Judah; and I asked them concerning them that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. ³And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity are there in the land, in great affliction and reproach: the walls also of Jerusalem are thrown down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire. ⁴And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for days, and continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven. ⁵And I said, Nay, I pray Thee, O Lord God of heaven, the mighty, the great and terrible, that keepeth Thy covenant and mercy unto them that love Him, and to them that keep His commandments: ⁶let Thine ear now be attentive, and Thine eyes open, that Thou mayest hear the prayer of Thy servant, which I pray before Thee at this time, this day both day and night, for the sons of Israel Thy servants, and make confession for the sins of the sons of Israel, which we have sinned against Thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. ⁷We have altogether broken covenant with Thee, and have not kept the commandments, and the ordinances, and the judgments, which Thou commandedst Thy servant Moses. ⁸Remember, I pray Thee, the word wherewith Thou didst charge Thy servant Moses, saying, If ye break covenant, I will scatter you abroad among the nations. ⁹But if ye turn again unto Me, and keep My commandments, and do them; though ye be scattered under the uttermost part of heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them into the place that I have chosen to cause My name to dwell there. ¹⁰Now they are Thy servants and thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy great power, and with Thy strong hand. ¹¹O Lord, I pray Thee, turn not away, but let Thine ear be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant, and to the prayer of Thy servants, who desire to fear Thy name: and prosper, I pray Thee, Thy servant this day, and grant him to find mercy in the sight of this man. Now I was the king's cupbearer.

CHAPTER 2

And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, that wine was before me: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king: and there was not another before him. ²And the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad; and art thou not sick? and now this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, ³and said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, forasmuch as the city, the house of my fathers' sepulchres, hath been laid waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? ⁴Then the king said unto me, For what seekest thou thus? So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵And I said unto the king, If it seem good to the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send him into Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres; then shall I rebuild it. ⁶And the king, and his concubine that sat next to him, said unto me, For how long shall thy journey be, and when wilt thou return? And it was pleasing before the king, and he sent me; and I set him a time. ⁷Moreover I said unto the king, If it seem good to the king, let him give me letters to the governors beyond the river, that I may take my journey till I come to Judah; ⁸and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the garden that pertaineth to the king, that he may give me timber to cover the gates, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king gave me, according to the good hand of the Lord upon me. ⁹Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. ¹⁰And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobias the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, and it grieved them that there was come a man to seek good for the sons of Israel.

¹¹So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. ¹²And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; neither told I any man what God had put into my heart to do along with Israel: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. ¹³And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, and to the mouth of the well of fig trees, and to the dung port: and I mourned over the wall of Jerusalem which they were destroying; and her gates were devoured with fire. ¹⁴Then went I on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: and there was no room for the beast that was under me to pass. ¹⁵Then went I up in the night by the wall of the brook, and mourned over the wall, and passed through the gate of the valley, and returned. ¹⁶And the sentinels knew not why I went, or what I did; and until that time I told it not to the Jews, or to the priests, or to the nobles, or to the captains, or to the rest that did the works. ¹⁷Then said I unto them, Ye see the trouble that we are in, how Jerusalem is desolate, and the gates thereof are given to fire: come, let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, and we shall no more suffer reproach. ¹⁸Then told I them of the hand of God which was good upon me; as also about the king's words that he had spoken unto me: and I said, Let us rise up and build. And their hands were strengthened for the good work. ¹⁹And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobias the servant, and Geshem the Arabian heard it, and they laughed us to scorn, and came against us, and said, What is the thing that ye are doing? do ye rebel against the king? ²⁰Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, He will prosper us; and we are His pure servants, and we will build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3

Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of the hundred they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananel. ²And they builded it at the side of the men of Jericho, and at the side of the sons of Zaccur, the son of Imri. ³But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build; they roofed it, and covered in the doors thereof, and the bars thereof, and the bolts thereof. ⁴And at their hand one of Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, took his place; and at their hand Meshullam the son of Berachiah took his place: and at their hand Zadok the son of Baana took his place. ⁵And at their hand the Tekoites took their place; but the Adorites put not their neck to their service. ⁶Moreover the gate of Jasana repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Basodeiah; they covered it in, and set up the doors thereof, and the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof. ⁷And at their hand repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river. ⁸And at their hand repaired Uzziel the son of Arachiah of the smiths: next unto them also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they finished Jerusalem unto the broad wall. ⁹And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Zur, the ruler of the half part of the district round about Jerusalem. ¹⁰And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house: and next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah. ¹¹And Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired even unto the tower of the furnaces. ¹²And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of the half part of the area round about Jerusalem, he and his daughters. ¹³The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, and the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits of the wall unto the dung gate. ¹⁴But the dung gate repaired Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district round about Beth-haccerim, he and his sons; and they covered it, and set up the doors thereof, and the bolts thereof, and the bars thereof. ¹⁵But the gate of the fountain repaired Solomon the son of Cholezah, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of the skins by the king's meadow, and unto the steps that lead down from the city of David. ¹⁶After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of the area round about Beth-zur, unto the garden of the sepulchre of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty. ¹⁷After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani: next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of the area round about Keilah, in his district. ¹⁸And after him repaired his brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of the area round about Keilah. ¹⁹And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece of the tower of going up, where it meeteth the corner. ²⁰After him repaired Baruch the son of Zabbai, a second piece, from the corner unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. ²¹And after him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz, a second part from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. ²²And after him repaired the priests, the men of Achechar. ²³And after him repaired Benjamin and Hasshub over against their house: and after him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah, near to his house. ²⁴After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad, another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the corner and to the turning, ²⁵of Palai the son of Uzai, over against the corner, and also the tower that lieth out from the king's house, even the upper one of the prison house: and after him Pedaiah the son of Parosh. ²⁶Moreover the Nethinim, which dwelt in Ophel, repaired unto the garden of the water gate eastward, and the tower that lieth out. ²⁷And after them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel. ²⁸From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every man over against his own house. ²⁹And after him repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his own house: and after him repaired Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the guard of the east gate. ³⁰After him repaired Hananiaha the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece: after him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his treasury. ³¹After him repaired Malchijah the son of Saraphi unto the house of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, over against the gate of Miphkad, and unto the steps of the corner. ³²And between that and the sheep gate repaired the smiths and the merchants.

³³Now it came to pass, when Sanaballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. ³⁴And he said before his brethren, Is this the power of Samaria, that these Jews do build them the city? do they indeed sacrifice? will they then be strong? and will they this day revive the stones which are burned, after they had been the heap of rubbish of the land? ³⁵And Tobias the Ammonite came near to him, and they said unto themselves, Will they sacrifice, or eat in their place? shall not a fox go up, and even break down their stone wall? ³⁶Hear, O our God; for we are despised; and return their reproach upon their own head, and make them a scorn in a land of captivity: and cover not their iniquity.

CHAPTER 4

But it came to pass, that when Sanaballat, and Tobias, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, heard that the height of the walls of Jerusalem increased, for that the breaches began to be stopped, it seemed very evil to them. ²And they gathered all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to destroy it utterly. ³Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set watchmen against them day and night, because of them. ⁴And Judah said, The strength of the enemy is broken, and there is much rubbish; and we shall not be able to build upon the wall. ⁵And they that afflicted us said, They shall not know, neither shall they see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. ⁶And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us, They come up against us from all places. ⁷Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the place behind the wall, in the covered places, I even set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ⁸And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be ye not afraid of them: remember our God, Which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. ⁹And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had scattered their counsel, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. ¹⁰And it came to pass from that day forth, that the half of them that had been driven forth wrought the work, and half of them kept watch; and there were spears, and shields, and bows, and haberegeons, and rulers behind all the house of Judah, ¹¹even of them which builded the wall. And they that carried the burdens were under arms; each with one hand wrought his work, and with the other held his dart. ¹²And the builders wrought each man having his sword girt upon his loins, and so they built: and the trumpeter with his trumpet next to him. ¹³And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and abundant, and we are scattered upon the wall, each at a great distance from the other. ¹⁴In what place soever ye shall hear the sound of the trumpet, gather ye together thither unto us: and our God shall fight for us. ¹⁵So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. ¹⁶And at that time said I unto the people, Lodge ye every man with his servant in the midst of Jerusalem, and let the night be a time of watch to you, and the day a time of work. ¹⁷And I was there, and the watchman behind me, and there was not a man of us that put off his clothes.

CHAPTER 5

And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. ²For there were some that said, We, with our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we will take up corn, and eat, and live. ³Some also there were that said, Our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses, let us mortgage them; and we will take corn, and eat. ⁴And some said, As for our fields, and our vineyards, and houses, we have borrowed money for the king's tributes. ⁵Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we do bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be slaves: and there is no power of our hands, for our fields and our vineyards pertain unto the nobles. ⁶And I was much grieved when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷And my heart took counsel within me, and I contended with the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Shall every man demand of his brother that ye demand? And I set a great assembly against them. ⁸And I said unto them, We of our own freewill have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the nations; and do ye even sell your brethren? and shall they be delivered unto us? Then held they their peace, and found no answer. ⁹And I said, The thing that ye do is not good; not thus; ye shall depart in the fear of our God by reason of the reproach of the nations our enemies. ¹⁰And my brethren, and mine acquaintance, and I, have lent them money and corn: let us now leave off this exaction. ¹¹Restore, I pray you, unto them, even as at this day, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, and bring forth to them corn, and wine, and oil, of the money. ¹²And they said, We will restore, and we will not exact of them; so we will do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and bound them by oath to do according to this word. ¹³And I shook out my garment, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that shall not keep to this word; even thus shall he be shaken out as an outcast and empty. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord: and the people did this thing.

¹⁴From the day that he charged me to be their ruler in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren ate not provision extorted from them. ¹⁵But as for the former acts of extortion wherein those that were before me oppressed them, they even took of them their last money, forty didrachmas for bread and wine; yea the very outcasts of them exercised authority over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶Yea, also in the work of the wall treated I not them with rigour; I bought not land: and all that were gathered together came thither unto the work. ¹⁷And the Jews, to the number of five hundred and fifty men, beside those that came unto us from among the nations round about, were at my table. ¹⁸And there came unto me for one day one calf, and I had six choice sheep and a goat, and every ten days wine in abundance of all sorts: yet with these required I not the bread of extortion, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. ¹⁹Remember me, O God, for good, in all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6

Now it came to pass, when Sanaballat, and Tobias, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though up to that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) ²that Sanaballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, and let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. ³And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, and I shall not be able to come down, lest the work cease: when I have finished it, I shall come down to you. ⁴Yet they sent again unto me after this sort; and I sent them word after the same manner. ⁵Then sent Sanaballat his servant unto me with an open letter in his hand. ⁶And therein was written, It is reported among the nations that thou and the Jews do plan to revolt: for which cause thou buildest the wall, and thou wilt be a king unto them. ⁷And moreover thou hast appointed prophets unto thyself, that thou mightest dwell in Jerusalem as a king over Judah: and now shall these words be reported to the king. Come now therefore, let us take counsel together. ⁸Then sent I unto him, saying, It hath not happened as thou sayest, for thou feignest them out of thine own heart. ⁹For they all tried to make us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from this work, and it shall not be done. Now therefore have I strengthened my hands.

¹⁰And I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, and he was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, in the midst thereof, and let us shut the doors of it: for they are coming by night to slay thee. ¹¹And I said, Who is the man that shall enter into the house, that he may live? ¹²And I perceived; and lo, God had not sent him, for the prophecy was a fable against us: ¹³and Tobias and Sanaballat had hired a multitude against me, that I should be afraid, and do this, and sin, and become unto them an ill name, that they might reproach me. ¹⁴Remember, O God, Tobias and Sanaballat according to these their works, and the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets that tried to put me in fear.

¹⁵So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. ¹⁶And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, all the nations that were round about us feared, and great fear fell upon them: and they perceived that it was of our God that this work should be finished. ¹⁷And in those days letters came unto Tobias from many nobles of Judah, and those of Tobias came unto them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were bound unto him by oath, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah to wife. ¹⁹Also they reported his words unto me, and carried out my words to him: and Tobias sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER 7

Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, ²that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God beyond many. ³And I said unto them, The gates of Jerusalem shall not be opened until the sun be hot; and while they still watch, let the doors be shut and barred; and appoint watches of them that dwell in Jerusalem, every man at his post, and every man over against his house.

⁴Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. ⁵And God put it into mine heart, and I gathered together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, into companies: and I found a register of the company that came up first, and found written therein as follows: ⁶Now these are the children of the country, that came up out of captivity, of the number which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and Judah, every man unto his city; ⁷with Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and Nehemiah, Azariah, and Raaemia, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Ezra, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah, Masphar, men of the people of Israel. ⁸The children of Parosh, two thousand and hundred seventy and two. ⁹The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. ¹⁰The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two. ¹¹The children of Pahath-moab, with the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and six hundred and eighteen. ¹²The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. ¹³The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five. ¹⁴The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. ¹⁵The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight. ¹⁶The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight. ¹⁷The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two. ¹⁸The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and seven. ¹⁹The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven. ²⁰The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five. ²¹The children of Ater, the son of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. ²²The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight. ²³The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four. ²⁴The children of Hariph, an hundred and twelve: the children of Asen, two hundred twenty and three. ²⁵The children of Gibeon, ninety and five. ²⁶The children of Bethlehem, an hundred twenty and three: the children of Netophah, fifty and six. ²⁷The children of Ananath, an hundred twenty and eight. ²⁸The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two. ²⁹The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three. ³⁰The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty. ³¹The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two. ³²The men of Bethel and Ai, an hundred twenty and three. ³³The men of Nebo, an hundred fifty and two. ³⁴The men of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty and two. ³⁵The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. ³⁶The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. ³⁷The children of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one. ³⁸The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. ³⁹The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, pertaining to the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three. ⁴⁰The children of Immer, one thousand fifty and two. ⁴¹The children of Phashur, one thousand two hundred forty and seven. ⁴²The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. ⁴³The Levites: the children of Jeshua, the son of Kadmiel, with the children of Hodevah, seventy and four. ⁴⁴The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight. ⁴⁵The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, an hundred thirty and eight. ⁴⁶The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁷the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon, ⁴⁸the children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Salmai, ⁴⁹the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, ⁵⁰the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, ⁵¹the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, ⁵²the children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephishesim, ⁵³the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, ⁵⁴the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Adashan, ⁵⁵the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, ⁵⁶the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha. ⁵⁷The children of the servants of Solomon: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, ⁵⁸the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, ⁵⁹the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth, the children of Zebaim, the children of Amon. ⁶⁰All the Nethinim, and children of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred ninety and two. ⁶¹And these went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel. ⁶²The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobias, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two. ⁶³And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, for they took wives of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and were called after their name. ⁶⁴These sought the register of their company, and it was not found, and they were removed from the priesthood. ⁶⁵And the governor said that they should not eat of the most holy things, until a priest should stand up to give light. ⁶⁶And the whole congregation was about forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, ⁶⁷beside their menservants and their maidservants: these were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and the singing men and singing women two hundred forty and five. (no verse 68) ⁶⁹Two thousand seven hundred asses. ⁷⁰And part of the heads of the families gave into the treasury to Nehemiah for the work a thousand pieces of gold, fifty basons, and thirty priests' garments. ⁷¹And some of the heads of families gave into the treasuries of the work twenty thousand pieces of gold, and two thousand three hundred pounds of silver. ⁷²And the rest of the people gave twenty thousand pieces of gold, and two thousand two hundred pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. ⁷³And the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

And the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in their tents; and all the people were gathered together as one man unto the broad place before the water gate, and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded Israel. ²And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and every one that had understanding to hear, on the first day of seventh month. ³And he read therein from the time of sunrise until the mid of the day, before the men and women; and they understood it, and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. ⁴And Ezra the scribe stood upon a stage of wood; and next to him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Urijah, and Hiliah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, and Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the book before all the people; (for he was above the people;) and it came to pass, when he opened it, that all the people stood up. ⁶And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God: and all the people answered, and said Amen, lifting up their hands: and they bowed down and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. ⁷Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah instructed the people in the law: and the people stood in their place. ⁸And they read in the book of the law of God, and Ezra taught and instructed them distinctly in the knowledge of the Lord; and the people understood in the reading. ⁹And Nehemiah, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites, and they that instructed the people, spake and said unto all the people, It is an holy day unto the Lord our God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the word of the law. ¹⁰Then he said unto them, Go, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them that have nothing: for the day is holy unto the Lord: and faint not, for the Lord is our strength. ¹¹And the Levites caused all the people to be silent, saying, Hold your peace, for this is an holy day; neither be ye despondent. ¹²And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that he made known unto them.

¹³And on the second day were gathered together the heads of the families with all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to attend unto all the words of the law. ¹⁴And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast in the seventh month: ¹⁵and that they should sound with trumpets in all their cities, and in Jerusalem. And Ezra said, Go forth into the mount, and fetch olive branches, and branches of cypress trees, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick tree, to make booths, according to that which was written. ¹⁶And the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, each one upon his roof, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the streets of the city, and unto the gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the congregation that had come again from the captivity made booths, and dwelt in booths: for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the sons of Israel done so: and there was great gladness. ¹⁸Also Ezra read in the book of the law of God daily, from the first day even unto the last day: and they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the ordinance.

CHAPTER 9

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the sons of Israel were assembled with fasting, and in sackcloths, and with ashes upon their head. ²And the sons of Israel separated themselves from every stranger, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. ³And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God: and they confessed their sins unto the Lord, and worshipped the Lord their God. ⁴Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and the sons of Kadmiel, Shebaniah the son of Sherebiah, the sons of Chenani; and they cried with a loud voice unto the Lord their God. ⁵Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, said, Rise up and bless the Lord our God for ever and ever: and let them bless Thy glorious name, and exalt it with all blessing and praise. ⁶And Ezra said, Thou art the only Lord Himself; Thou madest the heavens, and the heaven of heavens, and all their array, the earth, and all things that are therein; and Thou quickenest all things, and the hosts of heaven worship Thee. ⁷Thou art the Lord God, Thou didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and gavest him the name of Abraham: ⁸and Thou foundest his heart faithful before Thee, and madest a covenant with him to give unto him and his seed the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Gergashites; and Thou hast confirmed Thy words, for Thou art righteous. ⁹And Thou didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red Sea. ¹⁰And Thou shewdest signs and wonders in Egypt upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for Thou knowest that they behaved themselves insolently against them: and Thou madest Thee a name, as at this day. ¹¹And Thou didst cleave the sea before them, and they went through the midst of the sea on dry land; and them that were about to pursue them Thou threwest into the deep, as a stone into the mighty water. ¹²Moreover Thou guidedst them by day by a pillar of cloud, and by night a pillar of fire; to give them light for the way wherein they should walk. ¹³Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and laws of truth, ordinances, and good commandments. ¹⁴And Thou madest known unto them Thy holy sabbaths, and enjoinedst upon them commandments, and ordinances, and a law, by the hand of Thy servant Moses. ¹⁵And Thou gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and badest them go in to inherit the land, over which Thou stretchedst forth Thine hand to give it them. ¹⁶But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their neck, and hearkened not to Thy commandments, ¹⁷and refused to hearken, neither were they mindful of Thy wonders that Thou wroughtest with them; but they hardened their neck, and appointed a leader to return to their bondage in Egypt: but Thou, O God, art merciful and compassionate, and abundant in mercy, and forsookest them not. ¹⁸And still farther, they even made them a molten calf, and said, These are the gods that brought us up out of the land of Egypt: and they wrought great provocations. ¹⁹Yet Thou in Thy great compassions forsook them not in the wilderness: Thou didst not away from them the pillar of the cloud by day, to guide them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, to enlighten for them the way wherein they should walk. ²⁰Thou gavest also Thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not Thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. ²¹Yea, forty years didst Thou sustain them in the wilderness; Thou sufferdst not any thing to fail them; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet were not bruised. ²²Moreover Thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide nations unto them: and they inherited the land of Sihon king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. ²³Their children also multipliedst Thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which Thou spakest to their fathers; ²⁴and they inherited it: and Thou destroyedst from before them that dwelt in the land of the Canaanites, and gavest into their hands them and their kings, and the nations of the land, that they might do unto them as it pleased them. ²⁵And they took lofty cities, and inherited houses full of all good things, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and every fruit tree in abundance: so that they did eat, and were filled, and grew fat, and rioted in Thy great goodness. ²⁶Nevertheless they turned, and revolted from Thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew Thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to Thee, and they wrought great provocations. ²⁷Then Thou gavest them into the hand of them that afflicted them, and they did afflict them: and in the time of their affliction they cried unto Thee, and Thou heardest them from Thy heaven; and in Thy great compassion Thou gavest them deliverers, and didst save them out of the hand of them that afflicted them. ²⁸But when they rested, they did evil again before Thee: so Thou leftest them in the hands of their enemies, and they ruled over them: and they cried again unto Thee, and Thou heardest them from heaven, and didst deliver them in Thy great compassions. ²⁹And Thou testifiedst against them, that Thou mightest bring them back unto Thy law: yet they hearkened not, but sinned against Thy commandments, and Thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and turned their back, and hardened their neck, and heard not. ³⁰Yet many years didst Thou bear long with them, and testifiedst to them by the Spirit by the hand of the prophets: yet they hearkened not: so Thou gavest them into the hand of the nations of the land. ³¹But Thou in Thy many mercies didst not appoint them unto destruction, nor forsake them; for Thou art strong, and merciful, and full of pity. ³²And now, O Lord our God, the powerful, the great, the mighty, and the terrible, keeping Thy covenant and mercy, let not all the affliction seem little before Thee, that hath come upon us, and our kings, and our princes, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and upon all Thy people, since the days of the kings of Assur unto this day. ³³Howbeit Thou art just in all the things that come upon us; for Thou hast done faithfully, but we have sinned greatly. ³⁴And our kings, and our princes, and our priests, and our fathers, have not performed Thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and Thy testimonies, which Thou didst testify unto them. ³⁵And they served Thee not in Thy kingdom, and in Thy great goodness which Thou gavest unto them, and in the great and fat land which Thou furnishedst before them, neither turned they from their evil devices. ³⁶Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that Thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: ³⁷and the produce thereof is abundant for the kings whom Thou didst appoint over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, as it pleaseth them, and we are in great affliction. ³⁸And in all these things we ordained a trust, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, put their seal unto it.

CHAPTER 10

And over them that sealed were Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hachaliah, and Zedekiah, ²the son of Seraiah, and Azariah, and Jeremiah, ³Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were priests. ⁹And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰and his brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹¹Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³Hodijah, the sons of Beninu. ¹⁴The heads of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, ¹⁵the sons of Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pilhah, Shobek, ²⁴Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluch, Harim, Baanah. ²⁸And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and every one that had drawn off from the nations of the land unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and the daughters, every one having knowledge and understanding, ²⁹who were urgent with their brethren, and bound them under a curse, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God; to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord, and His judgments, and His ordinances; ³⁰and that we will not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters to our sons. ³¹And the people of the land, who bring wares and all merchandise to sell on the sabbath, we will not buy of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and we will leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. ³²Also we will impose ordinances upon ourselves, to levy on ourselves year the third part of a didrachma for the service of the house of our God; ³³for the loaves of presentation, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual whole burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moon, for the feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for the works of the house of our God. ³⁴And we cast lots for the office of wood bearing, the priests, and the Levites, and the people, to bring it into the house of our God, according to the house of our families, at certain times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the law: ³⁵and to bring the firstfruits of our land, and the firstfruits of every tree year by year, into the house of the Lord: ³⁶the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, also the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks to bring unto the house of the Lord, for the priests that minister in the house of the Lord. ³⁷And the firstfruits of our corn, and the fruit of every tree, of wine, and of oil, we will bring unto the priests to the treasury of the house of God; and a tithe of our land unto the Levites: for the same Levites shall receive tithes in all the cities of the land we till. ³⁸And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites in the tithe of the Levite: and the Levites shall bring up a tenth part of their tithe unto the house of our God, into the treasuries of the house of God. ³⁹For the sons of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring into the treasuries the firstfruits of the corn, and wine, and oil; and there are the holy vessels, and the priests, and them that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER 11

And the chiefs of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities. ²And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem. ³Now these are the chiefs of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah: every man dwelt in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon' servants. ⁴And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, and of the children of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. ⁶All the sons of Perez that dwelt in Jerusalem were four hundred fourscore and eight men of might. ⁷And these were the children of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah. ⁸And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. ⁹And Joel the son of Zichri was overseer over them: and Judah the son of Asana was second in the city. ¹⁰Of the priests: both Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin. ¹¹Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was over the house of God. ¹²And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Passhur, the son of Malchijah, ¹³and his brethren, the chiefs of families, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴and his brethren, mighty men of war, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men. ¹⁵And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Azrikam, (no verse 16) ¹⁷Mattaniah the son of Micha, and Jobebah the son of Zamui, ¹⁸two hundred eighty and four. ¹⁹And the porters: Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren, an hundred seventy and two. (no verses 20-21) ²²And the overseer of the Levites was the son of Bani, the son of Uzzi, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Micah. Of the sons of Asaph the singers some were over the house of God, ²³for so was the king's commandment concerning them. ²⁴And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel was in attendance on the king in every matter for the people, ²⁵and with regard to the villages in their country district: and some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath-arba, ²⁶and in Jeshua, ²⁷and in Beersheba: (no verses 28-9) ³⁰and their villages were Lachish and her lands: and they pitched their tents in Beersheba. ³¹And the children of Benjamin dwelt from Geba unto Michmash. (no verses 32-5) ³⁶And of the Levites there were divisions unto Judah, and to Benjamin.

CHAPTER 12

Now these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, ³Shecheniah. (no verses 4-6) ⁷These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Joshua. ⁸Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, Mattaniah: he was over the bands, and his brethren were appointed to the daily courses. (no verse 9) ¹⁰And Jeshua begat Joiakim, and Joiakim begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, ¹¹and Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua. ¹²And in the days of Joiakim, his brethren the priests and the heads of families were: to Seraiah, Meraiah; to Jeremiah, Hananiah; ¹³to Ezra, Meshullam; to Amariah, Jehohanan; ¹⁴to Melichu, Jonathan; to Shebaniah, Joseph; ¹⁵to Harim, Adna; to Meraioth, Helkai; ¹⁶to Iddo, Zechariah; to Ginnethon, Meshullam; ¹⁷to Abijah, Zichri; to Minjamin, Moadiah; to Piletai, one; ¹⁸to Bilgah, Shammua; to Shemaiah, Jonathan; ¹⁹to Joiarib, Mattenai to Jedaiah, Uzzi; ²⁰to Sallai, Kallai; to Amok, Eber; ²¹to Hilkiah, Hashabiah; to Jedaiah, Nethanael. ²²The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Jaddusa, and Joanan, and Idua, were recorded heads of families: also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³And the sons of Levi, heads of families, were written in the books of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. ²⁴And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, and Sherebiah, and Jeshua: and the sons of Kadmiel, and their brethren over against them, were to sing hymns of praise, according to the commandment of David, the man of God, course by course. ²⁵When I gathered the porters, ²⁶it was in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah: and Ezra the priest was scribe.

²⁷And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites in their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep a feast of dedication and gladness with thanksgiving; and they sounded cymbals with songs, and psalteries, and harps. ²⁸And the sons of the singers were assembled both from the neighbourhood round about unto Jerusalem, and from the villages, ²⁹and from the country: for the singers had builded them villages by Jerusalem. ³⁰And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the porters, and the wall. ³¹And they brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies for thanksgiving, and they passed on the right hand of the wall of the dung gate. ³²And after them went Hoshaiah, and half the princes of Judah, ³³and Azariah, and Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴and Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. ³⁵And some of the sons of the priests with trumpets, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph: ³⁶and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Uzziel, Gilalai, Jamah, Maai, Nethanael, and Judah, Hanani, to praise with the hymns of David the man of God; ³⁷and Ezra the scribes was before them, at the gate, to praise before them; and they went up by the steps of the city of David, in the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate (no verse 38) ³⁹of Ephraim, and unto the fish gate, and by the tower of Hananel, and unto the sheep gate. (no verses 40-1) ⁴²And the singers were heard, and were numbered. ⁴³And in that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them exceeding joyful: and their wives and their children rejoiced: and the joy in Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

⁴⁴And in that day they appointed men over the treasuries, for the treasures, the firstfruits, and the tithes, and for the chiefs of the cities that waited. ⁴⁵And they kept the charges of their God, and the charges of the purification, and the singers and the porters, according to the commandments of David and his son Solomon. ⁴⁶For in the days of David Asaph was of old the first of the singers, and they sang hymns and praise unto God. ⁴⁷And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, a daily rate: and they consecrated them unto the Levites: and the Levites consecrated them unto the sons of Aaron.

CHAPTER 13

In that day they read in the book of Moses in the ears of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonites and the Moabites should not enter into the congregation of God for ever; ²because they met not the sons of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they were separated, every mixed one in Israel. ⁴And before this time, Eliashib the priest dwelt in the treasury of the house of our God, allied unto Tobias: ⁵and he had made him a great treasury, and they were aforetime in the habit of bestowing the offerings, and the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithe of the corn, and the wine, and the oil, the commanded portion of the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the firstfruits of the priests. ⁶But in all this time was I not in Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after a certain time made my request of the king: ⁷and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the mischief which Eliashib had done in the case of Tobias, in making him a treasury in the court of the house of God. ⁸And it appeared very evil to me: so I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobias out of the treasury. ⁹Then I commanded, and they cleansed the treasuries: and thither restored I the vessels of the house of God, and the offerings, and the frankincense. ¹⁰And I perceived that the portion of the Levites had not been given them: and the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. ¹¹Then contended I with the commanders, and said, Wherefore is the house of God forsaken? and gathered them together, and set them in their place. ¹²Then brought all Judah a tithe of the wheat and the wine and the oil unto the treasuries, ¹³into the charge of Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful; their office was to distribute unto their brethren. ¹⁴Remember me, O Lord, in this, and let not my kindness be forgotten, which I have wrought for the house of the Lord God. ¹⁵In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and carrying sheaves, and lading asses with both wine, and grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, and bringing them into Jerusalem on the sabbath: ¹⁶and I testified in the day of their sale. There dwelt also men of Tyre also therein, bringing fish, and selling on the sabbath all manner of ware unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. ¹⁷Then I contended with the free children of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? ¹⁸Did not your fathers thus, and our God did bring all these evils upon them, and upon this city? and do ye bring yet more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath? ¹⁹And it came to pass, when the gates were set up in Jerusalem, before the sabbath, that I spake, and they shut the gates; and I charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that none should bring in burdens on the sabbath day. ²⁰So all the merchants lodged, and carried on traffic without Jerusalem once or twice. ²¹Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye before the wall? if ye do so again, I will stretch out mine hand upon you. From that time forth came they not on the sabbath. ²²And I told the Levites that purified themselves, and came, and kept the gate, that they should sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O God, for these things, and spare me according to the abundance of Thy mercy. ²³In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: ²⁴and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and knew not how to speak in the Jewish language. ²⁵And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, and ye shall not take of their daughters unto your sons. ²⁶Did not Solomon king of Israel sin thus? though among many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved of God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless him did strange women turn aside. ²⁷So will we not hearken unto you to do all this evil, to break covenant with our God, and to marry strange wives. ²⁸And Elishub the high priest, one of the sons of Jehoaida, being son in law to Sanballat the Horonite, did I chase from me. ²⁹Remember them, O God, for they were against the right of inheritance of the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. ³⁰So I cleansed them from all strange connection, and established courses for the priests and the Levites, every man according to his work. ³¹And for the wood offering, at the time appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O our God, for good.

TOBIT

CHAPTER 1

The book of the words of Tobit, son of Tobiel, the son of Hananiel, the son of Adiel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asiel, of the tribe of Naphtali; ²who in the time of Enemessar king of the Assyrians was led captive out of Thisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called properly Kedesh Naphtali in Galilee above Asher. ³I Tobit have walked all the days of my life in the way of truth and justice, and I did many almsdeeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Nineveh, into the land of the Assyrians. ⁴And when I was in my own country, in the land of Israel, being but young, all the tribe of Naphtali my father fell from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the temple of the Most High was consecrated and built for all ages. ⁵Now all the tribes which together revolted, and the house of my father Naphtali, sacrificed unto the heifer Baal. ⁶But I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, as it was ordained unto all the people of Israel by an everlasting decree, having the firstfruits and tenths of increase, with that which was first shorn; ⁷and them I gave at the altar to the priests the children of Aaron. The first tenth part of all increase I gave to the sons of Levi, who ministered at Jerusalem: another tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it every year at Jerusalem: ⁸and the third I gave unto them to whom it was meet, as Debora my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father. ⁹Furthermore, when I was come to the age of a man, I married Hannah of mine own kindred, and of her I begat Tobias. ¹⁰And when we were carried away captives to Nineveh, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred did eat of the bread of the nations. ¹¹But I kept myself from eating; ¹²because I remembered God with all my heart. ¹³And the Most High gave me grace and favour before Shalmaneser, so that I was his purveyor. ¹⁴And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, at Rages, a city of Media, ten talents of silver.

¹⁵Now when Shalmaneser was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; whose estate was troubled, that I could not go into Media. ¹⁶And in the time of Shalmaneser I gave many alms to my brethren, ¹⁷and gave my bread to the hungry, and my clothes to the naked: and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast about the walls of Nineveh, I buried him. ¹⁸And if the king Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come, and fled from Judah, I buried them privily; (for in his wrath he killed many;) but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for of the king. ¹⁹And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the king, that I buried them, and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear. ²⁰Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there any thing left me, beside my wife Hannah and my son Tobias. ²¹And there passed not fifty days, before two of his sons killed him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararat; and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead; who appointed over his father's accounts, and over all his affairs, Achikar my brother Anael's son. ²²And Ahikar entreating for me, I returned to Nineveh. Now Ahikar was cupbearer, and keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts: and Esarhaddon appointed him next unto him: and he was my brother's son.

CHAPTER 2

Now when I was come home again, and my wife Hannah was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in the feast of pentecost, which is the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared for me, in the which I sat down to eat. ²And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man so ever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and, lo, I tarry for thee. ³But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace. ⁴Then before I had tasted of any meat, I started up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun. ⁵Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness, ⁶remembering the prophecy of Amos, as he said, Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation. ⁷Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the sun I went and made a grave and buried him. ⁸But my neighbours mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter: who fled away; and yet, lo, he burieth the dead again. ⁹The same night also I returned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted, and my face was uncovered: ¹⁰and I knew not that there were sparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and a whiteness came in mine eyes; and I went to the physician, but they helped me not: moreover Ahikar did nourish me, until I went into Elymais. ¹¹And my wife Hannah did take women's works to do. ¹²And when she had sent them home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid. ¹³And when it was in my house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? Is it not stolen? Render it to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat any thing that is stolen. ¹⁴But she replied upon me, It was given as a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but bade her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. But she replied upon me, Where are thine alms and thy righteous deeds? Behold, thou and all thy works are known.

CHAPTER 3

Then I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying, ²⁰O Lord, Thou art just, and all Thy works and all Thy ways are mercy and truth, and Thou judgest truly and justly for ever. ³Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ignorances, and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before Thee: ⁴for they obeyed not Thy commandments: wherefore Thou hast delivered us for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. ⁵And now Thy judgments are many and true: deal with me according to my sins and my fathers': because we have not kept Thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before Thee. ⁶Now therefore deal with me as seemeth best unto Thee, and command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be dissolved, and become earth: for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place: turn not Thy face away from me.

⁷It came to pass the same day, that in Ecbatana a city of Media Sarah the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids; ⁸because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? Thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them. ⁹Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter. ¹⁰When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave. ¹¹Then she prayed toward the window, and said, Blessed art Thou, O Lord my God, and Thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever: let all Thy works praise Thee for ever. ¹²And now, O Lord, I set mine eyes and my face toward Thee, ¹³and say, Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach. ¹⁴Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man, ¹⁵and that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity: I am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any near kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife: my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? But is it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach. ¹⁶So the prayer of them both were heard before the presence of the glory of the great Raphael; ¹⁷and he was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sarah the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind Asmodeus the evil spirit; because she belonged to Tobias by right of inheritance. The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sarah the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

CHAPTER 4

In that day Tobit remembered the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media, ²and said within himself, I have wished for death; wherefore do not call for my son Tobias, that I may signify to him of the money before I die? ³And when he had called him, he said, My son, when I am dead, bury me; and despise not thy mother, but honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not. ⁴Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb; and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. ⁵My son, be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and let not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress His commandments: do uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness. ⁶For if thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly. ⁷Give alms of thy substance; and when thou givest alms, let not thine eye be envious, neither turn thy face from any poor, and the face of God shall not be turned away from thee. ⁸If thou hast abundance, give alms accordingly: if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little: ⁹for thou layest up a good treasure for thyself against the day of necessity. ¹⁰Because that alms do deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness. ¹¹For alms is a good gift unto all that give it in the sight of the Most High. ¹²Beware of all whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the children of the prophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land. ¹³Now therefore, my son, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in lewdness is decay and great want: for lewdness is the mother of famine. ¹⁴Let not the wages of any man, which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand: for if thou serve God, He will also repay thee: be circumspect, my son, in all things thou doest, and be wise in all thy conversation. ¹⁵Do that to no man which thou hatest: drink not wine to make thee drunken, neither let drunkenness go with thee in thy journey. ¹⁶Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked; and according to thine abundance give alms; and let not thine eye be envious, when thou givest alms. ¹⁷Pour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give nothing to the wicked. ¹⁸Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable. ¹⁹Bless the Lord thy God always, and desire of Him that thy ways may be directed, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsel; but the Lord Himself giveth all good things, and He humbleth whom He will, as He will; now therefore, my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be put out of thy mind. ²⁰And now I signify this to thee, that I committed ten talents to Gabael the son of Gabrias at Rages in Media. ²¹And fear not, my son, that we are made poor: for thou hast much wealth, if thou fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in His sight.

CHAPTER 5

Tobias then answered and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me: ²but how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not? ³Then he gave him the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, and I will give him wages whiles I yet live: and go and receive the money. ⁴Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was an angel. ⁵But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to Rages? and knowest thou those places well? ⁶To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael. ⁷Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father. ⁸Then he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee. ⁹So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. ¹⁰Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art. ¹¹To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or a family, or an hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name. ¹²Then he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren. ¹³Then Tobit said, Thou art welcome, brother; be not angry with me, I have inquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stock: for I know Ananias and Jonathas, sons of that great Shemaiah, as we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced with the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a good stock. ¹⁴But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to mine own son? ¹⁵Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages. ¹⁶So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, Which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and the young man's dog with them. ¹⁷But Hannah his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us? ¹⁸Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child. ¹⁹For that which the Lord hath given us to live with doth suffice us. ²⁰Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him. for the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return safe. ²²Then she made an end of weeping.

CHAPTER 6

And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there. ²And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him. ³Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and drew it to land. ⁴To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely. ⁵So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it: ⁶then they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatana. ⁷Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gall of the fish? ⁸And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed. ⁸As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed. ¹⁰And when they were come near to Rages, ¹¹the angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath one only daughter, named Sarah; ¹²I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife. For to thee doth the right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred. And the maid is fair and wise: ¹³now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to the law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other. ¹⁴Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in the marriage chamber. ¹⁵And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest, if I go in unto her, I die, as the others before: for a wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth no one except those which come unto her: wherefore I also fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life, because of me, to the grave with sorrow: for they have no other son to bury them. ¹⁶Then the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts that thy father gave thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage. ¹⁷And when thou shalt come into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it: ¹⁸and the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up, both of you, and pray to God Which is merciful, Who will have pity on you, and save you: fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and she shall go with thee. Moreover I suppose that she shall bear thee children. ¹⁹Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was effectually joined to her.

CHAPTER 7

